Ministerial Club Sponsors Ballot On War Question

Students Are Asked To Vote On Critical Question

The Ministerial Club is sponsoring a vote on the Southwestern undergraduate attitude toward war. The movement was started in England, where students at Oxford, Glasgow, Manchester and Leicester voted in ardent declaration "that this house will under no circumstances fight for King or Country."

The movement to outlaw war is international in scope. The ballot is being taken at present in 600 American colleges, and is sponsored by the Brown Daily Herald of Brown University.

In an address to the youth of the world at the World Disarmament Conference delivered in Geneva, February 2, 1933, James Frederick Green of Yale said the following:

"After contemplating the events preceding the catastrophe of 1914, we remain unconvinced as to the wisdom of our predecessors. We respect the noble war dead, but we question the judgement of those responsible for their death."

The printed ballot in this edition of The Sou'wester gives the three attitudes on the war question. Students are asked to check the ballot opposite their attitude towards the question. A box has been placed in the college supply store and ballots will be placed here. It is not necessary to sign the ballot.

WAR BALLOT

1. We will not participate in any war of any origin or nature
2. We will not participate in any war, except in case the mainland of U. S. is actually invaded
3. We will participate in any war declared by the president and approved by Congress.

Ministerial Club Yearbook Is Out

ELECT FRED BEARDEN HEAD OF SANHEDRIN

Fred Bearden, Alexandria, La., has been reelected High Priest of the men's Sanhedrin council for next year. It seems that the grid star is destined for his second pond ducking in as many years.

Faculty "Machine" Elects Atkinson-Swan

Politics! Politics! Such was the cry which went up at the election meeting of the Faculty club Tuesday night. Dr. W. R. Atkinson was swept into the office of president, despite the fact that he was NOT present.

It is customary to elect the president of the club from among the list of faculty members not present at the annual election. By virtue of his absence, Dr. W. O. Swan was named secretary.

Dr. Shewmaker delivered the keynote speech. Dr. Atkinson claims he was elected due to the efforts of Profs. M—, M—, and M—. He kept in touch with the election returns while dining with the Dabney Crumps. Members of the faculty are looking forward with high hopes for a new deal in the club next year.

The campaign circular for the Atkinson-Swan combine follows:

ZERO-HOUR BULLETIN

On the eve of the election all precincts report an overwhelming trend to the Atkinson-Swan machine. The two candidates stand squarely underneath their platform of:

"Better Bodies Better Brains"

Better Bull For the Forgotten Man."

Don't be a ballot slacker! Vote Tuesday night! Get on the bandwagon and inflate with Atkinson!

"OF THEE I SING, BABEE!"

Following the election, a special committee of the "machine" went to the home of President Atkinson and delivered a formal notification of election along with a bouquet of shrubs, weeds, and herbs. Prof. Harris was unable to identify any of the specimens in the bouquet.

Are You Listening?

This grey-haired old scandal monger tilted back in one of the new tortoise-pink chaise lounges, which now adorn the Sou'wester office, and, burying his two-foot nose on page 34 of Emily Post, tried vainly to discover a tactful method of approach to his dirt-dishing. As the editor was still out of his office (our slogan is, y'know, "when there's a bill, we're away"), the old gossip waded through the reams of monthly statements, flopped down at the Queen Anne secretary, and dashed off the following in a temper:

Another of our illusions has been shattered. Applying his Marxian (Harpo) philosophy to his Alma Mater, the bespectacled "Father of Them All" proved he is not as paternal as one would think.

He went Harpo the other day, following an A. O. Pi blonde into the revered sanctity of the Girls' Social Room into which she had rushed for safety. His pursuit of this Golden Fleece up and down the cloistered halls of Palmer was, he claims, for a Chesterfield. Anyhoooo, Dean Margaret Townsend intruded upon the scene to find them in the depths of the struggle. Lovely weather we're having.

A certain well-known A. T. O., juvenile in features and mannerisms, but with a typical twenty-one attitude, has deserted the honeysuckle of Lombardy Place for the stately poplars of Belvedere. Mebbe his reason for departing from one S.K.S. Elizabeth for another is the fact that the first done him wrong. But we've noticed that the second, whose sister is one of this hamlet's big shot pianists, has a spiffy new panting motah.

A Pi K. A. sophomore whose last name is that of a company noted for its varieties of food has bought a thousand shares of Cradle Snatching. They are all S. K. S. belles and rather popular, too, but we are beginning to wonder if his interest in them is due to the young uns' combined attractiveness or to the fact that he can no longer make time with college girls. From his expression these days, one can readily understand why the A. O. Pi blonde, who used to was his big moment, is always bursting (what we mean) into song.

"Tater-Bug" Gone Erotic! And that in spite of the fact that he is a charter member of "The Hermitage." According to the latest, his royal Kappa Sig preference is between three Chi O's and two Alpha O's. Remember, Sensitivity, all is decided for you in Sou'western love and politics! And the A. O. Pi's are pretty, too!

Just a Bit of Dorm Life

EVERGREEN HALL

Monday night Mrs. Rutland held the elections for the officers of Evergreen House-President and Vice-President. Anne Sullens was elected president. With the election came a big surprise for Deedie was found indulging in "dirty" politics.

In the presidential election she only polled two votes, her own and her roommate's (there would have been three if Tom had stayed for the election). Then, after this terrible defeat, she indulged in much backslapping and the result was that she swept into victory as vice-president by an overwhelming majority.

The one who deserves the most sympathy is Malline Lyon. After these many months she has strayed into the paths of righteousness and refused to use any undue influence to be put into these positions of honor. To quote Miss Lyon, "I am already too overwhelmed with responsibility to assume the strenuous and responsible undertaking of being House President of as large a dormitory as Evergreen Hall.

Last week-end an old resident of Evergreen came up for the Chi Omega dance and her visit was most enjoyable. Miriam Heidelberg was the fair Chi O and in case you don't know her perhaps you have met her famous brother, Harvey, who is a frequent visitor around the dorm.

CALVIN HALL

There is a story going around Calvin that a "gigolo from Atoka" (know him?) attended a party on Forrest Avenue last week and was a huge success. This gigolo, sometimes called Flash, is making his way with the women, no fooling. And besides all that, he manages to make the honor roll each report period.

The poor telephone in the corridor is never quiet. The boys say that between Russell Cross and Marion Cobb, they never get a chance to use it. We know who calls Marion but as to who calls Russell, it is all a mystery.

There are at least a few energetic fellows left in the dormitory. Ben Weddington, Raford Herbert, and a few others have been getting up at six o'clock every morning to play tennis. There's nothing like taking your daily dozen.

LYNX FOURTH IN S. I. A. A.

Newton Is High Point Man In Meet

Inspired by Capt. Herbert Newton, Southwestern finished fourth in the annual S. I. A. A. meet at Pineville, La., last Saturday. The meet was won by Louisiana Tech with 54 7/12 points. Louisiana Normal scored 35, Loyola made 32 1/4, while the Lynx garnered 22 points.

Herbert Newton sang his swan song as a Southwestern athlete, and he bowed himself out in a manner fitting for a man who is probably the greatest athlete ever to wear the Red and Black.

Newton won the 440 yard dash in the excellent time of :50.1. He was second in the 220, and fourth in the 100. After doing all three sprints, he won the broad jump with a leap of 21 feet, 8 1/4 inches. He scored a total of 14 points, which was good for high point man in the meet.

Harold High, diminutive Lynx ace, finished his collegiate athletic career by giving Leppert of Loyola the race of his life on the 880. The Loyola star nosed High out in the time of 2:00.4.

John Barnes tied for second place in both the pole vault and high jump. The pole vault was won at 12 feet, and the high jump went at 5 feet 11 3/8 inches, which is a new S. I. A. A. record.

Riley McGaughran, the other Lynx performer, was running a beautiful race in the mile run, and was well in the lead when he suddenly became sick. It was Riley's farewell race as a Southwestern athlete.

Yes, I have heard about two words; and now and then three words—but "They Satisfy" means "To gratify fully." Why do these two words "they satisfy" fit Chesterfields? Because Chesterfield Cigarettes are milder. Because Chesterfield Cigarettes taste better.

Chesterfield's way of blending and cross-blending fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos brings out better flavor and aroma.

LYNX SINGERS ON PROGRAM

Sing At Evergreen Church On Sunday

Numerous Southwestern students are members of various choirs in the city, a statistical study shows. Evergreen Church, being the "college church," and having our director of music as its organist, has the largest number of students singing in the choir.

A choir concert is being given there Sunday night. Among those who will take part are Elizabeth Markham, Charles Beecher, Toxey Fortenberry, William Bensberg, Rheinhold Matheson, Scudder Smith, Rodney Baine, Hope Brewster, Sarah Elizabeth Gemmill, Harvey Heidelberg, William Taylor, Dr. Robert Pond.

Chorus Sings At Idlewild Church

The men's chorus sang at the meeting of the Idlewild Ladies' Auxiliary Tuesday afternoon. Their numbers were "O Thou From Whom All Blessings Come," which was sung unaccompanied, and also the choral of Luther, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God."

(Special to The Sou'wester)

Bolivar, Tenn., May 18.—The abnormal class of Southwestern swooped down on the Western State Hospital here yesterday, and after a day of study and pleasure returned whence they came. Statistical evidence showed that every member of the class that went to Bolivar returned to Memphis, despite the strong-arm advances of the hospital internes.

Nineteen members of the class under the direction of Dr. W. R. Atkinson arrived about noon after the 35 mile drive. The party ate lunch at Lee Hi-Way Inn and then proceeded to the Western State Hospital.

Dr. Francisco, clinical director of the hospital, gave an hour illustrated lecture on the various types of mental diseases, including dementia praecox, manic depressives, and the like. As he described each type of disease, he brought out a patient of the hospital who was an example of this type of disorder.

Following the lecture, the class paid a visit to the negro ward of the hospital. Here they heard "Old Man Jonah," 60 year old colored inmate, tell the truth about the story of Jonah and the whale. He is enjoying a case of arteriosclerotic psychosis at the asylum.

Some of the men in the class were all for visiting St. Katherine's school for girls, but Dr. Atkinson worked some psychology on them and had them change their minds. The class concluded the visit with an inspection tour of the campus and buildings.

Of the class of 19 only two were women, Margaret Tallichet and Harriet Storms. Neither was detained following a lenient inspection. Others making the trip were Hershel Banks, Wm. Bensberg, Goodlett Brown, Bill Cobb, Bill Duease, Lester Goldsmith, Roland Killcreas, Robt. Mobley, Joe Moss, Pope Steiner, Marshall Stiefel, Bill Taylor, Clough Eaton, Morris Thomas, Jacob Danciger.

COUNCIL PLANS OIL PAINTING

To Have a Portrait of Dr. Diehl Made

The student council donated $100 to a fund which is to be raised to have a portrait done in oils of Dr. Charles E. Diehl, president of the college. The painting will be done by one of the foremost artists in America, and will be hung in the library or some other suitable place. Alumni and other interested organizations will be permitted to cooperate in raising the necessary funds.

The council went on record as being opposed to any activities on the part of the Sanhedrin Council, both men's and women's, which would be out of keeping with the morning devotional hour.

The student council also expressed itself as being in favor of the publication of an annual by the school next year.
