Sou'wester

AGAIN...

by ty herrington

Returning students discovered Palmer Hall being renovated.

Poppa's Putrid Portals of Paradise Protested

The Sou'wester wants you to know what you think. To accomplish this, loving staff members spend their time each week sampling student opinion. For this week:

Automobile gates have been installed at the North Parkway, Charles Street, and University Avenue entrances to the campus, supposedly to make it easier for the security guards to monitor auto and walking traffic.

One hundred thirty-five students were asked the following three questions about the gates, and requested to make their views known.

Do you feel safer because of the gates?
Yes 33%
No..... 60%
No Comment..... 7%

Do you feel the gates are necessary?
Yes 42%
No..... 52%
No comment..... 8%

Do you feel the gates are a nuisance?

Yes 59%
No..... 40%
No Comment..... 1%

The students gave these additional comments:

When asked if she felt safer, Pat Flynn said, "I feel that my property is safer, and I'm very pleased with the security force this year."

Another view of the situation came from Bess

Shirley who said, "The gates don't make a difference because the people who cause trouble usually walk or ride bikes."

The students were concerned about the appearance of the gates. Risha Daughdrill said, "I like the gates, but they should read Southwestern at Memphis."

Nora Hopkins stated, "The gates are not aesthetically pleasing."

Welcome, or welcome back! Things are a little too quiet around here in the summertime, but it gave us needed time for planning and for some renovation made possible largely by a few capital gifts received during the year. Work in Voorhies basement and University Hall was completed late in the summer, and the offices in Palmer should be ready soon.

The opening of classes this year is an historic occasion—the 50th Anniversary of Southwestern At Memphis. The college began in 1848 in Clarksville, Tennessee, but it was moved to Memphis in 1925, and classes began 50 years ago this month. We will celebrate the exact opening date on September 24 with a formal academic convocation. Professor James Roper will deliver the Convocation address. His new book, "The History of Southwestern 1948-1975," will be released in October.

Last week I read words in an old Southwestern annual that seem to fit today:

For us, . . . a fresh start. . . and the restrained excitement of a new adventure. . . the organized chaos of orientation. . . seeing old faces and new ones. . . those dreamed about, and dreamed up. . . parties, elaborate or intimate. . . the friend who has so much to tell. . . short walks. . . or long ones. . . time in gothic buildings. . . a swish of brightness at twilight when the lights come on. . . For us: anxiety of finding a letter-less mailbox. . . aloneness. . . restlessness. . . stillness. . . chins rested on palms. . . discovery. . . knowledge. . . much disputed theories. . . reflection. . . dreams reflected in square cubes of bluish glass. . . and, the weariness of fulfillment. . . remember?

This is a new beginning in our important work together—education. It is a special time to develop abilities in organizing knowledge and logical thought and time to learn being at home with abstract concepts. It is a time for social and personal growth and the ongoing resolution of identity. And it is a time for spiritual development and growth through principled thought and action.

I hope this will be a good year for you, both during the next nine months and throughout your life, as you look back on 1975-76.

James H. Daughdrill, Jr.

What, me worry?

The campus is getting safer and safer every day.

Automobile gates were installed to reduce the on campus traffic. The gates will be closed at 10 each night, and opened at 7 each morning.

New dorm has been put on a key system, and the keys to Voorhies and Townsend have been changed. Mr. Poppa, head of security, urges each student "not to let people they don't know in with their keys because this could cause trouble."

The Sou'wester is published for and by the students of Southwestern at Memphis. Opinions presented are those of our contributors and are not necessarily shared by the students or institutions of Southwestern at Memphis. The Sou'wester welcomes all contributions, letters, reviews, news, and features. All copy must be to the office, Room 107, Briggs Student Center, or Box 724 by 5 pm Tuesday for the following Friday's paper. No copy will be returned unless it is so indicated.

The outside doors of each dorm will be checked regularly by security guards. The guards are Bob Anderson, Peter Ball, Larry Barker, Kenneth Duncan, Jim Farris, Jerrell Huddleston, Ed Ireland, Capt. Pearce, Stu Stewart, and Robin Wester. These are the people you can trust. If any student on campus needs an escort, or would like to report something to Security, they can call exchange 227, call 274-0036, or scream.

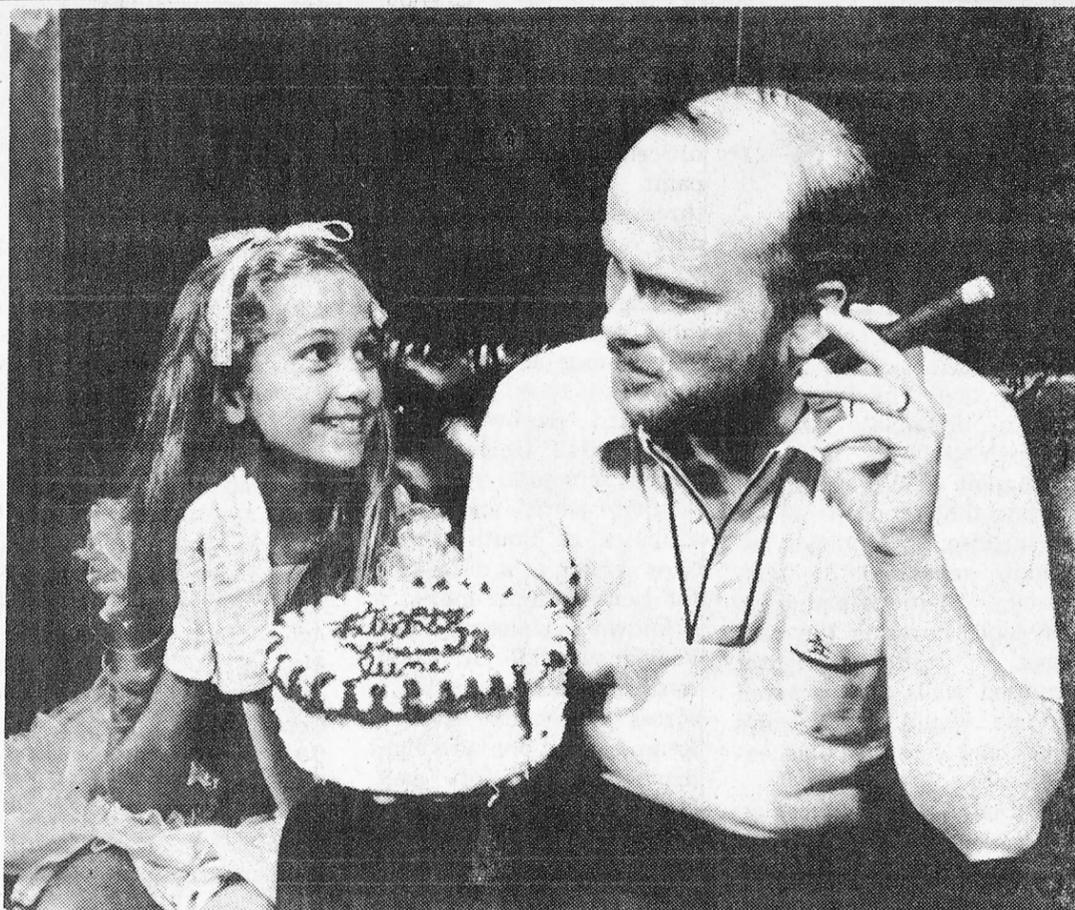

The guards are required to read a manual containing detailed information about the locations of all equipment needed in an emergency, and the procedure a guard should take when a problem arises. Mr. Poppa said, "These are Special Security Officers that have been bonded and sworn. They have the same authority as the Memphis Police department (Editor's note: The MPD is your friend.) and they are required to live up to the same standards as the students."

SUNDAY: SUNDAY, BLOODY SUNDAY

"Sunday, Bloody Sunday," to be shown this Sunday at 8:00 p.m., is the first of a series of nine films entitled "images" to be presented by The Film Group. The films will be new to Memphis for the most part, and are all considered important events in cinematic history. In an attempt to initiate and create a film dialogue in the Memphis community, members of The Film Group will discuss each film after its showing. All films will be shown in Room 200, Clough, with an $8.00 subscription fee for the nine films, or a $1.00 admission at the door, space providing. It should be noted that a subscription will insure the holder a seat.

"Sunday, Bloody Sunday" is the story of a love triangle with a bi-sexual artist/designer (played by Murray Head) as the apex. With no real sexual preferences, he can't understand the confusion and the hang-ups of his lovers—Dr. Daniel Hirsh (Peter Finch) and divorcee Alex Greville (Glenda Jackson)—and escapes their pressure by fleeing to America, leaving his partners alone with themselves in Jolly Old (a great bi-centennial theme!). Scriptwriter Penelope Giliat and director John Schlesinger have molded a classic.

For more information on the films and The Film Group, see Randy Robertson or Neil Mara.

SWAM SHOWS

Lunch Break On Beale

Tired of humdrum lunches? Have the urge to munch to music? Next Wednesday, September 24, at the noon hour there will be a live concert at the Malco Theatre, Main at Beale downtown. Featured will be Southwestern alum Vincent Astor, rising out of the orchestra pit on the only Mighty Wurlitzer Theatre Pipe Organ in the Mid-South.

If you've never heard a silent movie organ before, it's worth your while to listen. It is installed in the most beautiful 1920's movie palace theatre in the area, the Crystal, plush and all. There will be a variety of music and the latter half of the program will feature the River City Six, for some good ole' Dixieland. The organ promises everything from pop to Beethoven along with a piano and organ duet with James Peebles at the Golden Steinway. Admission $.50, concession will be open. Down on the Levee.

MILLER AND VONNEGUT

The Circuit Playhouse Inc., located on Poplar Ave. across the street from the entrance to Overton Park, presents a wide world of entertainment with its' four theatres in full swing. Showing at the Main Theater, 1947 Poplar, is Arthur Miller's semi-autobiographical drama about his life with Marilyn Monroe entitled "After the Fall." It plays Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights at 8:30 thru Sept. 28. John Dunevant and Susie Howe, two of Memphis' most demanded performers, head the cast as Quentin and Maggie, respectively. Both deliver remarkable performances according to all local critics. (Editor's note: Including us. Go see them yourself.)

Hurry and make your reservations, as the show has been a huge sell-out. For reservations, call the Playhouse at 726-5521.

Showing at Circuit's Theater II, 1957 Poplar Ave. is the Kurt Vonnegut satirical treat, "Happy Birthday, Wanda June." One of Memphis' most celebrated actors, Jim Ostrander plays Harold, a 55-year-old war veteran and Vonnegut's way of expressing what manliness is to our society. It's fun, wild, and it's selling out every night too; so hurry and make your reservations at 726-5521. It plays Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights at 8:30 through Oct. 5.

For further information call 726-5521 or 725-7836.

ZZZZZZ...

If you are a dreamer... come in. Where the Sidewalk Ends is an unforgettable book of poetry beautifully written and illustrated by the gifted Shel Silverstein. If you are a dreamer come into his world. You'll meet a boy who turns into a TV set and a girl who eats a whale. The unicorn and bloath live there, and so does Sarah Cynthia Sylvia Stout who will not take the garbage out. It is a place where you wash your shadow and plant diamond gardens, a place where sisters are auctioned off, and kids play hug-a-war, not tug-a-war.

A welcome change from obscure literature, Shel Silverstein's masterful collection of poems and drawing is at once outrageously funny and profound.

If one of Southwestern's upperclass women happen to walk into the basement of Voorhies Hall today, they would be in for a surprise. No longer are rooms separated by temporary partitions and veins of pipes covering the ceilings. Instead brightly colored walls and carpeted rooms would invite one's eyes and feet to come experience.

Renovation of Voorhies took place last July and has recently been completed. Money for the undertaking came from part of the 1975 budget remains. A total of $33,000 was spent. Expenses included the installation of central air, carpet, and paint. The six singles and three doubles are spacious with a bright contrast of colored walls and carpet making any girl feel a little more at home.

Another act of renovation also took place this summer. Known in the past as 649 University, it served as rented rooms to faculty, staff, and other affiliates of Southwestern. Now serving as a dormitory for Southwestern males, it is known as University Hall. Facing the side of Southwestern's campus, it is across University Avenue. Remodeled it contains eight triple rooms for men. Money for the remodeling also came from part of the 1975 budget remains. Total cost was over $51,000 for carpet and air conditioning.

Fines Found Ineffective

Effective 8:00 a.m. September 22, the Security Department will start strict enforcement of campus parking and traffic regulations. Faculty, staff, and students are encouraged to register their vehicles and bicycles with the Security Department prior to September 15 if they have not already done so.

Temporary campus vehicle registration permits valid for 15 days will be available to persons who anticipate having a vehicle on the campus for a short period of time. A maximum of two temporary permits will be issued to any one vehicle/person.

On July 25, 1975, the Administrative Management Team established the following traffic fines:

Operating a vehicle on the campus without proper campus registration	$5.00
Parking in or blocking a fire lane	$5.00
Exceeding 15 minutes in loading zone	$4.00
Exceeding 30 minutes in 30-minute zone	$4.00
Parking in unauthorized space (i.e. reserved, faculty, staff, etc.)	$4.00

Reserved and visitors parking spaces are valid 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Faculty/Staff parking lots are valid from 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Effective 7:00 a.m. Monday, September 15, 1975, the Charles Street and North Parkway automobile gates will be opened at 7:00 a.m. and closed at 10:00 p.m. daily. The University Avenue library lane automobile gates will be left open 24 hours a day.

Parking rates were raised because they were not effective last year. The money goes to the School General Fund.

Catalog Courses Caught Short

Can you believe what you read? Not in the 1975-76 Southwestern catalog. Upon comparing the catalog with the blue registration sheet, one comes to the following conclusions: 1) Some courses being offered Term I are promised but not actually offered; 2) Some courses offered are not described in the catalog, and 3) Some courses being offered Term I are listed as being offered at other times (Terms II or III).

Each of the departments listed in the catalog has been rated according to its credibility (the number of courses offered/ the number of courses listed), with the number of extra courses in parentheses.

Anthropology/Sociology	(1) 68%
Art	89%
Biology	100%
Chemistry	73%
Communication Arts	78%
Computer Sciences	50%
Economics	(1) 79%
Education	(1) 88%
English	68%
Foreign Languages
Arabic	100%
French	(1) 78%
German	(1) 80%
Greek	60%
Latin	43%
Russian	100%
Spanish	86%
History	(1) 50%
Interdepartmental Courses	33%
International Studies	64%
Mathematics	88%
Music	(2) 81%
Philosophy	(1) 71%
Physical Education	(5) 71%
Physics	80%
Political Science	57%
Psychology	(1) 79%
Religion	(7) 25%

As an item of interest, the courses not described anywhere in the catalog are: Education 515, Geology 500, Music 222, Music 421, Philosophy 500, Religion 500.

Another interesting note is that continued listing in the catalog of courses not offered is considered fraud.

RUSTY CHAIN

Southwestern opened its 1975 football season with a heartbreaking 21-14 loss to the Millsap's Purple Majors before 2,300 fans last Saturday at Fargason Field. Two turnovers in the game turned what would have been a victory into a defeat.

Kickoff was at 2 pm on a rather blustery day. The Majors were the first to draw blood as a result of a Southwestern miscue. The Lynxcats fumbled at their own 23 yardline and Milsaps took advantage of it. The short yardage drive was culminated by a one yard plunge with a successful conversion, 7-0.

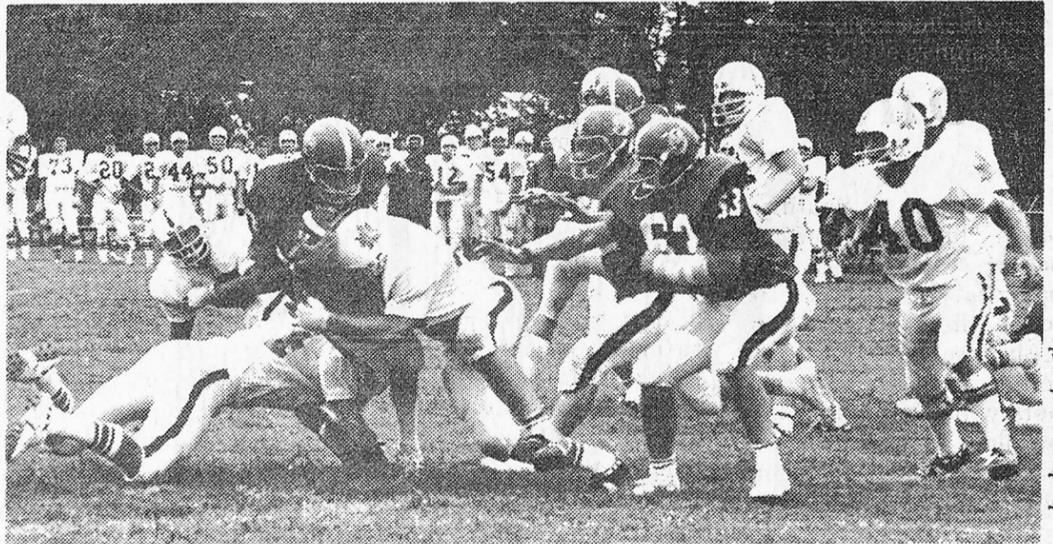

The Lynxcats rebounded on the next series with the kick-off being returned to the 33 yardline. On the first play from scrimmage, Bobby Harper had an electrifying 67 yard touchdown run with the help of key rightside blocking. The PAT made the score 7-7.

The Southwestern defense held the Majors on the next series of downs and the offense promptly put together another scoring drive. Rick Fulwood ended the drive on a six yard touchdown dash. Conrad Bradburn kicked his second extra point through the uprights, making it 14-7 in favor of Southwestern at the end of the first quarter.

There was no scoring in the second quarter as the Southwestern defense was sparkling. The offense moved the ball well, but never could put a score on the board. The half ended with Southwestern deservedly holding a 14-7 lead, as both offensive and defensive squads looked superior.

The Lynxcats received the second half kickoff and began a drive at their own thirty. The Lynxcats ran and passed the ball down to the Majors' one yard line with a first and goal, but paydirt was not to be. Running back Rick Fulwood got the handoff and had the ball jarred loose. The Majors recovered the fumble in the end zone and killed the threat.

This was the game's turning point, as this seemed to take the steam out of Southwestern's attack. The momentum swung to the Majors as they put together an eighty-

by barney stengle

yard scoring drive tying the score at 14-14 in the fourth quarter.

In Southwestern's next possession, Bob King intercepted a Craig Solomon pass, and the Majors started on the Lynxcats' 29. The defense held tough until a 12 yard TD dash by Archie Lamb, his second, put the Majors ahead to stay, 21-14.

The offense tried gallantly to put together another scoring drive, but they couldn't get that one big break. The Lynxcats had a drive going down in Major's territory when an interception, the fourth, killed the last ditch effort for victory. Southwestern clearly out-played the Majors for three quarters, offensively and defensively, but the Majors won the decisive fourth quarter.

Coach Lear told "The Sou'wester" he was pleased with the overall performance of the team. He said, "The team played one helluva game and should have won 21-7 or 21-14. If we could have gotten the ball across that one time they couldn't have caught us then."

This Saturday the team travels to Sherman, Texas, to play Austin, a loser in their opener to SE Oklahoma (which is a scholarship school). Coach Lear said Austin threw the ball a lot, and he would have to have the pass defenders ready and knowledgeable about Austin's attack. Last year the teams battled to a 7-7 tie.

MA FRICKER'S LETTER BOX

By Pat Wade

Dear Ma,
Those new gates have to be about the ugliest in the world. What can I do?
Theodore Streaker

Dear Ma,
I'm only a freshman and a little worried because I know that I'm going to be busy studying sometimes, but I really do want to do things for the campus community and get involved and all that, you know. I've always had inspirations to be a famous writer, but the Famous Writer's School wouldn't accept me, I don't know as I mean there's really no reason why they shouldn't have taken me, you know everybody's money is the same color, and it was all mine legally, I don't care what that bald guy said about some hustler. . .
Pat

Dear Teddy,
You have a few choices. The easiest solution is to close your eyes whenever you drive near them and reopen them once you are through, or arrive at the hospital, whichever is first.

Alternately, you can convince your old man to come up with four or five thousand dollars to get them replaced with proper, wrought-iron gates (yes, the Pres. knows full well that God hath wrought iron).

Or you can be patient and wait for them to be painted, so that you can't see them at night. The administration has already promised that much.

Whatever,
Ma

Dear Pat,
You are now enrolled in Ma Frickertt's Close Cover Before Striking Famous Writers and Hustlers School. First class is Saturday night in the Sou'wester office; the next session is Sunday afternoon in Overton Square. Please bring your Period(.) with you, if you haven't lost it.
Love,
Ma

Dear Ma,
I'm worried. Will a molester find my mums, since we're losing our Poppa?
Concerned Co-ed

Dear Ma,
My roommate has been lying under his waterbed all week.
Ellet Elliot

Dear Sue,
I don't think you should worry too much. Security has come a long way since it used to be considered a vital part of the football training. Poppa's got a research paper coming out (the November, 1975 "True") showing that serious molesters at small, liberal arts colleges are all driving cars after ten at night. My personal research indicates similar conclusions; however, it was my own fault for accepting a date with 'em.

Dear Ell,
I can't tell from your letter whether you're asking for help or are merely boasting.
Ma

Dear Ma,
I know he's gone now, but when he was here, did you ever have anything under Prof. Scholes?
Ed

Dear Ed,
I suppose that I had the usual under him, but no more than any other co-ed of that era. We were both much younger then, you understand.
Ma

THERE'S A RUMOR SPREADING ABOUT PIZZA HUT.

The rumor that Pizza Hut is a little nicer than other pizza houses. The pizzas, a little tastier. The atmosphere, a little more fun.

Well, my friend, if you haven't tested that rumor, you've missed the fresh-crust, thick-cheesed, extra-saucy pizza. And those fat Sandwich Supremes. And that fresh salad. And those most refreshing and relaxing of drinks.

And that atmosphere more like a big cozy den than a restaurant. But don't listen to us. Find out if the Pizza Hut rumor be truth or the blackest of lies only by testing it yourself.
