FIVE STUDENTS IN ANNALS OF FAME

ALL MEN STUDENTS

John Farley, Lauren Watson, Woody Butler, Dunlap Cannon and Robert Armstrong were elected to the Hall of Fame at a meeting of the student Council last Tuesday afternoon. Their pictures will be hung in the Hall of Fame cabinet in the library in the near future. Selections for the group are limited to one percent of the student body.

All of the men chosen have been outstanding in student life. Farley is president of the student body and of the Student Council, a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, of Alpha Theta Phi and of Sigma Upsilon, and a past president of Alpha Tau Omega. He was a member of the 1937 April Fool's Carnival Court, and of the 1937 debating team. He is listed in the 1937 edition of Who's Who Among College Students.

Lauren Watson is editor of the Sou'wester, a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, and Alpha Tau Omega, and a past president of the Christian Union Cabinet. He was a delegate to the convention of the Southern and Southeastern divisions of the National Student Federation of America this past month. He was a member of the 1937 April Fool's Carnival Court, and is listed in the 1937 edition of Who's Who Among College Students.

Woody Butler has been a member of the varsity tennis team for three years, is president of Omicron Delta Kappa and a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. He was a member of the 1937 April Fool's Carnival Court, and was a delegate to the Southern Conference of Omicron Delta Kappa this month. He is vice president of the student body, and is listed in the 1937 edition of Who's Who Among College Students.

Dunlap Cannon has been a member of the varsity tennis team for three years, is a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, of Tau Kappa Alpha, of the "S" Club and Alpha Tau Omega. He is president of the Publications Board, and has earned his letter in basketball. He was a member of the 1937 April Fool's Carnival Court.

Bob Armstrong is a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, of the "S" Club, of Chi Beta Phi, and of Sigma Upsilon. He is a past president of Kappa Sigma, and was King of the 1937 April Fool's Carnival Court, and elected the "most popular boy" in the recent elections. He was listed in the 1937 edition of Who's Who Among College Students.

APE MAN TRICKED BY BLACKSTONE

Murrah "Blackstone" Gattis looked like a pro when he defeated "ApeMan" Cavender by a decision in the finals of the middleweight wrestling championship held in the gym last Thursday day afternoon before a packed gallery. The champ, a former protegee of the late Farmer Burns, was too fast and clever for his stronger, more well-conditioned opponent.

Twelve times the Ape's shoulders went to the mat, and each time his strength and ability to crawl to the ropes kept him from immediate defeat. By the use of scientific holds and a quick thinking brain, Gat kept himself on top each time the grunter went to the mat.

Both men were out when the match was over, but the football star had been worsted. "Blackstone" was not content with a victory so he worked one of his master feats of prestidigitation on the Ape—much to the latter's chagrin and bewilderment. He said that he couldn't see 'cause his nose was bleeding so profusely!

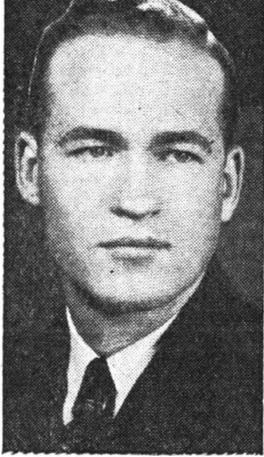

A WISE INNOVATION

A "job-hunting school" at Ohio State University has been organized to teach seniors how to write letters of application and how to face interviewers. Personnel managers of several large companies will aid the instruction.

PARTY PRELUDE TO POLITICAL PERFDY

By MURRAH GATTIS

Amateur sharpers and sneak-thiefs will be backslapping tonight to railroad by hook or crook their equally ribald and crooked candidates into office! Lynx politicians have gone into spring training! The regular season for the election of officers of the student body is just around the corner. The annual gridiron banquet in Neely Hall tonight at 6 P.M. will lubricate the rusty methods of dormant dirt-throwers!

Like all parties those with their candidates for these exalted positions sprang up spontaneously—from the brains of guys who have never won anything before but are positive that their natural position is in the lime-light. "Scarecrow" Freeman, "Mush Mouth" Pletchnow, and all the waiters are the Lewises, Old Age Townsends, etc., who are hoping to break into the winning political column. "I Love Me" Cannon has already swiped his share of glory during four years here but you can't satisfy a gourmand. So he dug up a Calvin Hall party.

I used to think that the use of vile but fitting epithets between the candidates themselves was the dirtiest thing in politics. The platform is usually a lot cleaner than the execrable worm standing on it; however, tonight you will see fine upstanding thugs dragged through the mire of their dirty platforms. But that's politics. We've got to get used to it. Elections for next year are coming off in a couple of weeks!

The Most Monstrous Monstrosity brings together three winners—that is, they were when they attended some other institution. Mike Pepper was the "Terror of Terrapin Hollow" down in Mississippi somewhere. He still has that mesmeric power over innocent little school girls! Longinotti has been unanimously chosen for the past five years as the "Wooingest Wop" in Arkansas. His nose is his strongest point! But the best is yet to come: Frankenstein DeSipio, the Pride of Three P's—Philadelphia, Princeton, and Pennsylvania (maybe there are four; I hear he has a girl named Phyllis). Now close your eyes and make a guess for your favorite.

"Dat Rite" Parker, "Th-th-that's r-r-right" Archer, and "That is precisely correct" Cain will show that it

GRIDIRON FEAST WILL BE TONIGHT

SLAM ELITE CONTEST

The Southwestern Christian Union expects, according to Herbert Bingham, president, to have 125 diners at its annual Gridiron Banquet which will be held in Neely Hall tonight at 6:30 p.m. The banquet committee consists of Carroll Varner, Bob Armstrong, and George Jackson, and Lauren Watson is general chairman of arrangements.

One notable new feature of the entertainment will be the music of an eleven-piece orchestra. Tonight will also mark the end of a long and hard-fought struggle between campus parties—including the "Virtue is its own reward or It Can't Happen Here" party—to elect their various candidates. Among those running for "the ugliest mug," "most loquacious lubricator," "most monstrous monstrosity," "duckiest duck," and other titles of dubious honor are Clois Neal, Charlie Taylor, Abe Pletchnow, Prof. DeSipio, and Bob Armstrong. There are several aspirants to the title of "dark horse."

The banquet will include fruit cocktail, filet mignon, baked potatoes, asparagus, rolls, iced tea, ice cream, cake, mints, cigarettes and cigars. The ticket sale has been sponsored by the Student Service Club and tickets cost twenty-five cents for dormitory students and fifty cents for town students.

SERVICE CLUB GETS COUNCIL SEAT

Tuesday afternoon the Student Council decided to approve a petition of the Student Service Club for a seat on the council. The member of the club selected to represent it will take the seat next year.

The club presented testimonials from Dean Johnson, Mr. Springfield, and Prof. Ogden Baine favoring the admission of the club to membership on the Council.

Some years ago the Boosters' Club of Southwestern was formed. It functioned for a while in a lackadaisical manner, and then died a natural death. Later the Lynx Club was organized, and carried on activities somewhat like the Service Club until it, too, perished two years ago. The purpose of these two clubs was primarily to aid in the staging of athletic events. The Service Club took over these du-

AD CONTEST

This week the Sou'wester is sponsoring a contest—an ad-watching contest. In this issue of the Sou'wester will be found several advertisements containing misspelled words. The first three students turning in a complete list of the misspelled words to Ed McCormick will be given passes to a downtown theater.

Official rules for the contest are:

1. The contest is for Southwestern students only.
2. The first three correct answers turned in will receive passes to a downtown theater.
3. All answers must be in by Tuesday at 1:00 P.M.
4. Contestants are on their honor to work out the answers by themselves.
5. The members of the business staff of the Sou'wester staff are excluded from the contest.
6. Students obtaining a paper before 12 P.M. will be disqualified.

BIBLE CLASS HEADS

At the regular meeting of the Men's Bible Class in the social room of Robb Hall, officers for the coming year 1937-1938 were elected following an informal address by Dr. Hartley.

Presiding over the election was Herbert Bingham who was succeeded by Sam Patterson as president. George Humphrey and Henry Mobley were elected for the offices of vice president and secretary respectively.

ties, and added to them others of different nature.

The Student Service Club was formed last year to promote school spirit, to encourage more and closer cooperation between the various organizations on the campus, and to take charge of any incidental activities which did not come under the jurisdiction of the other campus groups. It has functioned at high efficiency this year. The membership is composed of two representatives from each fraternity and from the non-fraternity group—one from the freshman and one from the sophomore class. Present members are: Sam Hill, Billy Kelly, Waddy West, George Humphreys, Wallace Mayton, Howard McKenzie, Foster Rosebrough, Steve Frazier, W. Worthington, George Griesbeck, Herbert Bingham, Bruce Crill, and Levon Self.

SEWANEE TO MEET LYNX THIN CLADS

ON FARGASON FIELD

Southwestern's undefeated trackmen will tangle with the toughest foe of the season thus far when they meet Sewanee tomorrow at 2:30 on Fargason Field. The Lynx defeated Arkansas State last week by a good margin and before that they trounced Mississippi College. Sewanee, in their only meet of the season so far, walloped Tennessee Polytechnic Institute 95-34, taking 11 first places out of a possible 15.

Since both teams have such a good record so far the meet is expected to be tight all the way. Unlike the Arkansas State team which was very strong in the dashes but weak in the weights, the Sewanee team is well balanced. Coach Chicken High, mentor of the Lynx, explained that, "The meet will be tight but I think we'll come through. It will be more interesting than the State meet though."

The Lynx are expecting most trouble in the hundred yard dash and the mile run. Cochrane, when Sewanee met TPI, ran the century in 10.2 which is better than either Gaylon Smith or Wave McFadden, Southwestern's representatives, have traveled the distance. In the same meet, Schussler ran the mile for Sewanee in 5.03. Henry Turner, if he has a good day, can do that or slightly better for the Lynx. It will be one of the best races of the afternoon at any rate.

Since this is the last dual meet of the season more ballyhoo than usual will make the meet interesting. The Southwestern Band, under the direction of Professor Burnet C. Tutbill, will be on hand to lend spirit. The new system of selecting cheer leaders will be tried, with several prospective cheer leaders for next year trying out. (The new system of selecting cheer leaders is discussed in the sports column in this issue.) Many of the Sewanee as well as Lynx alumni, and a good delegation of the downtown sports fans are expected to watch the meet which has attracted wide attention since the two institutions are traditional rivals in the particular sport.

XBP WILL HAVE BIOLOGY SHOW

Tau chapter of Chi Beta Phi scientific fraternity will sponsor another of its scientific shows with a demonstration of biological phenomena Thursday night, April 29. This will be a continuation of the series begun last year with the chemical and physical demonstrations.

Included in the show will be a collection of the invertebrates, a series of the embryos of various animals, microscope slides of various bodily tissues, and a "Chamber of Horrors." The last named promises to be one of the most attractive units of the program.

Invitations have been extended to all of the city high schools, and all friends of the college are invited. There will be no admission charge. The program will begin at 7:30 P.M.

NEW PIKA LEADERS

The election of new officers of the Pi KA fraternity for the coming year was held Thursday, April 15, presided over by Charles Barton, outgoing president; Chester Carden, treasurer; Robert Smith, secretary; Maynard Dabbs, publicity chairman; and Billy Davidson, custodian.

Pi Kappa Alpha also announces the initiation of Chester Carden, Maynard Dabbs, and Billy Davidson at the regular meeting last week.

CONGRATULATIONS, LOYOLA

During the past fortnight Loyola University of New Orleans has been celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the university in that city. Loyola has held high the standards of education in Louisiana, contributing many prominent men to society, among whom is the present governor of the state. Congratulations, Loyola! May your good work continue for many a year!

WHAT ABOUT IT, STUDENTS

This year there has been much said about the rise of Southwestern athletics, both in the columns of the Sou'wester, in the pages of the downtown newspapers, and through other publicity of various sorts. The football and basketball teams completed highly successful seasons, and the track squad is in the midst of one. Yet the attitude of the student body is no mirror of any such activity.

At present the track squad has bested its only two opponents by rather large margins. The first of the meets, against Mississippi College, saw four Southwestern records bested, and in last week's match with Arkansas State another was tied. Yet the students had to wait for the news to filter to them through word of mouth and through the daily press. Not enough were there to see the records shattered to fill up the corner of one's eye. When the entire crowd clustered up close to watch Will Rhea Winfrey attempt to best his own throw of over 46 feet in the shot put, the writer stood on the outskirts of gigantic mob and then was only thirty feet away from the thrower. The spectators yelled at the best throw, and the result was a gentle murmur, like the sighing of a punctured automobile tire.

Southwestern once had a baseball team—a good baseball team. It won games. Opponents feared it. Its devotees praised it to the sky. But now the bats and gloves are confined to intramural activity. Why? The student body seemed not to know that the baseball team existed. Many could truthfully say, "I thought we didn't have one." And pretty soon they were right—we didn't have one.

It isn't too far fetched to say that track may follow baseball. After all, equipment isn't cheap. Coaching and training isn't always a pleasure. And unless the student body shows by its attendance that it appreciates the efforts the team is making to keep Southwestern's name on the front of the ranks, the team may not appear in the lists at all.

It isn't the fault of the publicity department. Reams of paper have been used to praise the team, and to record its results. The student body has its own self to blame. A headline in this issue of the Sou'wester, tells of the meet with Sewanee tomorrow. Announcements have been made in Chapel. The downtown papers have advertised the event. It remains to the student body to show what it intends to do about it.

NICE WORK, CHRISTIAN UNION

Tonight, in the spacious confines of Neely Hall, there will gather a gay, frivolous party, bent on the dissemination of mirth, good cheer, fellowship and "cain." Under the sponsorship of the Christian Union, the annual Gridiron banquet will be staged. The Sou'wester takes this opportunity to congratulate the C. U. on its effort to put a little fantasy into Southwestern campus life.

Sidelights

Another one of them slips that pass in the newspapers: Some college proof reader let this one get by. . . . Quote: The midshipmen at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, all love under one roof, Bancroft Hall, the largest dormitory in the world. . . . The writer meant "live," I'm sure, but if he didn't there is lot of room for disagreement. . . . I canna believe somethings, but notta that. . . .

It takes mama twenty years to make a man out of some of the fellows on the campus, and then along come Gloria Motts, Englands, Loves, Whites, etc., etc., to make fools out of them in twenty minutes! . . . I ain't callin' no names. . . .

I think it was a guy named Frost who said that half the people in this world have something to say and can't, and the other half have nothing to say and keep on saying it. . . . I'll wager my last two bits that they went to college lecture courses to find that out. . . .

I heard that Ape Cavender made the remark that he wished "Adam had died with all his ribs left." . . . Now surely you are not "wrong again," Ape. . . . I am positive that Jo was crying at the rasslin' match the other day when your nose started bleeding. . . . But tru love never, etc., etc. . . .

'Twas Don Herold who said this: Matrimony—oh, yes, 'tis a woman's hair net tangled in a man's spectacles on top of the radio. . . . Now for my definition of collegiate love: Carter, slouched over the counter in the store every night waiting for Henderson. . . . or Henderson's calling her every morning on the phone at seven o'clock. . . . (Somebody told me; I wasn't up that early.) . . . Or Randall and Marion, holding and swinging hands as timidly as two "Little Red Schoolhouse" lovers. . . . Or Hylton, striding the two-mile run just for Stella's sake. . . .

A Young Lady's Theme Song: Of these two things I tire, And really hate to hear: The guy with no desire, Or the guy who has no fear!!!

HARVARD PAPER HAS BIRTHDAY

Cambridge, Mass.—The Harvard Lampoon, oldest college comic in America and sire of the old Life and of many of the country's leading humorists and journalists, celebrated sixty years of publishing this month. Within the university its popularity was so strong that, although originally conceived as a single "bombshell" to be dropped at the older, staid student publications, the magazine continued. When the editors sought to drop it in 1880 another group resuscitated the venture and carried it forward to become the college's most prosperous paper.

With surprisingly few lapses of taste the student wits have continued for 60 years carrying out the purposes of the founders as expressed in the first issue, "with trenchant pencil and sarcastic pen to hit off the foibles of our 'little world'; and to open a field where the last jest at the club table and the latest undergraduate freak may find a fitting place." The Lampoon remains what it started out to be, a magazine of topical humor satirizing Harvard men and their doings.

Sportspotlight
By JOHN QUANTHY

This may well be called the year when obstreperous racialism predominates around these here parts. And the good part about it is that it seems that every change, every new idea, seems to be for the better.

The latest brain storm is due to the smooth clicking of the inner machinery in the cranium of Johnny Watts, late manager of the Lynx pigskinners, who was probably prompted by the lackadaisical cheer leading in the past. It concerns future ballyhooing at future sporting events.

It seems that the "S" Club is backing the idea; but it was originated by the osseous Watts. It is simply this: Each fraternity will select one or two of its men to try out for the cheer leading jobs and they will display their wares at the track meet between the Lynx and Sewanee tomorrow afternoon. After seeing the men in action, the student body will then vote on three men, preferably a senior, a junior, and a sophomore who will officially represent the Lynx in all its sporting contests. The senior, or the man with the highest classification whether he is a senior or junior or what not, will, if he does good work—and this is the interesting stipulation—if he does good work, be given an honorary membership in the "S" Club. Of course if his interest lags—and I'm speaking of the head cheerleader, for he is the only one eligible for the honorary position—if he just doesn't give a darn, as some we've known, then he will be overlooked by the "S" Club. And that would be something of a disgrace in itself.

To me the whole idea seems to be a good one. It should go a long way, as Coach Chicken High points out, to eliminate politics in selection of the cheer leaders because the selection of applicants will be based on their showing in real action. The selections of the student body will be checked by the "S" Club.

Anyway, we'll see what happens tomorrow.

The Lynx tracksters will come as near being beaten tomorrow as they've ever been this year. And that's plenty close when we consider last week's meet with Arkansas State. Of course we all know that the reason the Lynx won the meet by so large a margin was that so many of the State men had the jitters and jumped the gun so often. That was a very foolish thing to do for in most of the events that the gun was jumped, State would have won if her men would have taken it easy like the good track men they're supposed to be.

That's what made the State coach so mad. He was squawking around that given the places in which his men jumped the gun, he would have won the meet. However, some of the Lynx backers thought otherwise; and to prove it they gave him the points he said he would have won "if", and the score would still have been three points to the good for the Lynx.

The facts are, however, that State men weren't disqualified as often as they should had the starters really wanted to clamp down on the Indians. Gaylon Smith thinks, and I think he is justified in his thoughts, that Ed James jumped the gun when he (James) beat him on the hundred. That is the event, you remember, in which James set something of a record when he ran the distance in 10 flat. I have it on good authority that it is an old habit of Arkansas men to jump the gun. That may be why records look better in Arkansas than in Tennessee.

It's bad but very very true. The Lynx team are certainly set up to lose their second match in five years. The Lynx racquetters match strokes with Tulane's netmen Monday afternoon. Last year's team would have had a chance, a very good one in fact, to beat them. Tulane, probably figuring the same way, would not give the Lynx a match. They preferred to wait until this year when they were sure.

handicapped with an injured foot. He had expected to set a new shot put record but his chances are now dimmed. Assisting Winfrey in that event will be Red Davis, who threw the iron ball over 40 feet last week and Gaylon (Public Hero No. 1) Smith. Colmore and Hart will be the Sewanee intries in that event.

The pole vault will bring Smith and McKay Boswell, of the Lynx, and Colmore and Cochran to battle. Phillips and Bolling will represent Sewanee in the javelin, with Orley Nettles, the Lynx star in the event, and Red Davis taking part for the Lynx. Colmore and W. Brown will throw the discus against Red Davis, Smith and Nettles; and Douglas and Stamphill will broad jump against Bob Lee and Wave McFadden, representing the Lynx. The high jump will see Porter Chappell, who tied the college record in the event last week, in action against Colmore and Keiser. Bob Lee will probably assist Chappell.

In the track events Gaylon Smith and Wave McFadden will run the hundred against Douglass and Cochran who represent the Tiger. Schuessler and Hayes will run the mile against Henry Turner and Andy Myers, representing the Lynx. In the 440, Stamphill and W. Brown will tangle with Hylton Neill and McFadden, Lynxmen. Cochran will represent Sewanee in the 120 hurdles against Erskine Falls and Bob Lee. C. Brown and Turner, Tigers, will run against Hylton Neill and Henry Turner in the half mile. Bruce Crill and Myers will carry on for the Lynx in the 2 mile run against McPherson and Schuessler. Smith and Boswell will sprint against W. Brown and Douglass in the 220 yard dash; and Boswell will be Southwestern's only man in the 220 hurdles against Cochran and Gillispie.

Intramural News

The intramural softball tournament neared its close with the SAE's in undisputed possession of the top position in the standings. During the past week they dropped the Kappa Alpha's farther into the pit, sinking them to the tune of 10-1. McKellar held up his record of allowing no earned runs in his fourth game. Tucker was the losing pitcher.

Meanwhile the non-frats were dropping their first game of the schedule to the ATO's by the score of 5-3. Outfield errors accounted for all of the ATO's runs, while the non-frats gathered two of theirs via the same method. King hurled for the ATOMen, while Shapiro and Griesbeck toiled for the losers.

In the other games during the week, the Sigma Nu's gathered 6 runs in the opening inning and one in the second to outscore the Kappa Sigs 7-6. The KSers pulled closer and closer, and at the end had three men on base when Worthington hauled down a fly in deep center to close the contest. Learned and Rowan were the opposing hurlers. The SAE's bounced the ATO's to the tune of 17-1, McKellar and Patten starring for the winners and Lapsley for the losers. King was the losing pitcher. The non-frats held off a Kappa Sigma rally in the final canto to enable Shapiro to pitch a win. The final score was 5-4, with Rowan on the losing end.

SEWANEE BEATS LYNX IN TENNIS

The Southwestern tennis team was defeated last Friday on the Southwestern courts by Sewanee by the score of four matches to three. This marks the first defeat of the Lynx since Tulane University defeated them by the same score two years ago.

Dunlap Cannon, playing in the first position, defeated Hugh Shelton by the score of 8-6, 6-2. Cannon, playing brilliantly, far surpassed anything he has done this year. Cannon employed a steady, deep driving game to give his opponent much worry.

Macon Smith at No. 3 position turned in the second victory for the Lynx when he defeated Cravens 8-6, 6-4. Smith adopted a severe driving attack mixed with soft chops to bewilder his steadier opponent.

Woody Butler at No. 2 position let victory escape his grasp after winning the first set by dropping the last two to Alex Querry. By the same sign Waddy West allowed his opponent Sam Brown to creep up on him after winning the first set. He, too, dropped the last two to lose. Tom White was suffering a severe reversal of form when he dropped his match to Crook in straight sets.

In the doubles the Lynx were able to do no better than split the two matches. Cannon and Butler, after dropping the first set came back brilliantly to defeat Shelton and Querry in the last two sets. Smit hand White dropped their match to Cravens and Crook in straight sets.

The 10-year contract which Indiana University recently granted Bo McMillin, football coach who has directed the Hoosier grid teams to first division births during the last three years, will replace the previous five-year pact.

STRICKLER LAUDS LYNX GOLF TEAM

"Definitely promising," said Dr. R. P. Strickler when interviewed last Tuesday concerning Southwestern's golf team.

Questioned about the 11-7 setback the Lynx golfers suffered at the hands of Ole Miss last Saturday he said: "Oh that! We'd have won if the last two men had won their last two holes. We just haven't had enough practice. Wilson and Roth need lots of practice. They've been playing spring football, you know, and they're a little behind the others."

"Then, too, Bethea is using a new set of woods. Limber shafts caused him trouble Saturday. He started his match rather shakily but steadied nicely toward the finish."

"And another thing. Ole Miss has a very strong team. They haven't lost a match this spring. You've got to take that into consideration. I think our team made a very fine showing."

Dr. Strickler considers the Tennessee match—to be played in Knoxville, May 1—should be the Lynx' real test. Southwestern plays Vanderbilt in Nashville, April 30, but the Commodores have no regular links team. They plan to play the Lynx in an impromptu match with players drawn from the student body at large.

The Southwestern team that lost to Ole Miss was composed of Billy Bethea, "Skinny" Roth, Rex Wilson, and Louis Chenault. They play a hard, fast game and will probably represent the Lynx through the rest of the season.

CAMP COUNSELLORS

Alabama; John Woolsey of Galesburg, Illinois, and John McGrady of Macon, Georgia, will be councillors.

The camp is to be tried primarily as an experience in acquaintance. Its purpose is to render more effective the program of freshmen orientation by bringing the new students to the college with friends already made among faculty, classmates, and upperclassmen. Also a number of talks will acquaint the freshmen with the traditions and organization of the college.

Washington and Lee University has maintained such a camp successfully for several years. Professor Lee, an alumnus of Washington and Lee, was also director of the camp there.

Saturday morning, September 11, a special coach will take the group from Memphis to Hardy, Arkansas, where it has been tentatively planned to hold the camp. The campers will return Wednesday night, September 15. They will be excused from the first day of freshmen registration which is Wednesday.

All freshmen are invited to go, though it is purely optional. The cost will be $10.

SOCIALITE SKUNKS

Hamilton, N. Y.—(ACP)—When they saw two skunks strolling through their living room, members of the Sigma Chi fraternity at Colgate University sprinted for open spaces.

Daring men who inched their way back into the room got a surprise when they saw Richard Dollison, a brother, stroking the polecats.

Dollison laughed at their wariness and announced that Jimmy and Mitzi were skunks that just couldn't be offensive because of surgical operations that had fitted them for society.

LYNX NET TEAM TO PLAY TULANE

On next Monday, April 24, the Southwestern tennis team will play its third match of the season against Tulane University. Last year for some unexplainable reason Tulane refused to play the Lynx. This year they boast probably the best team in the inter-collegiate circles.

The Lynx will be enveloped in the shadows of such players as Sutter, holder of the Southern men's singles crown as well as intercollegiate champion of the country; Abrams, Eastern champion; Ching, Japanese Davis Cup player; and Westerfield, who has been prominent in tennis circles for the last five years in the South.

Despite the pessimistic attitude that must be taken when considering these matches, they will hold much interest because of the brilliance of the Tulane players. The Lynx supporters will enjoy the spectacle of GOOD tennis, and the Lynx team will be fighting for an upset.

MILLER HAWKINS MAKES AWARDS

Announcement is made this week of the offering of a business training scholarship by the Miller-Hawkins School of Memphis. This scholarship will be given to a graduate of Southwestern in the present senior class.

Announcement of the winner will probably be made at Commencement. The winner will be selected by a committee of professors headed by Dr. R. C. Hon, and the choice will be based on a comparison of the scholastic records, general aptitude, and interest of the students applying.

The recipient of the scholarship is entitled to use it any time during the year following the close of the present school year. The award will include a six- or eight-months course at the school, and credit may be applied toward a teaching certificate. It has a cash value of approximately $150.00.

RUBBISH BAG

How many things a woman can carry in her purse has long been a subject of conversation among college men. Now the males at the University of Wisconsin have a Ripley addition to this type of bull-sessioning.

It seems that a coed lost her handbag at one of the night-clubs outside of Madison. She didn't notice the loss until returning to her sorority house after the date.

Instead of fussing around and driving out to the club the next day, she decided to wait until the following Saturday, when she had a date to go there again.

At the check-room, she asked if anyone had found her bag. Several were brought out. Could she identify hers by the contents?

"Why yes," answered the coed, "mine has a pair of pajamas in it!"

HARVARD'S BEER

And beer flowed from the water pump on the Harvard University campus, so the story goes.

An undergraduate Aladdin who never even rubbed on a Harvard Lampon to transform an old-fashioned pump into a beer-spouter had his plan—to keep the tank filled with enough beer to last 24 hours—spoiled by the alarm of a passing student.

Innocently the discoverer jerked the handle up and down and stepped back in amazement when amber liquid gushed from the mouth and foamed in the trough. "Beer," he yelled, and 30 quickly gathered around, plying the handle and guzzling until they had exhausted the tank.

"I figured it would last a whole day," wailed the perpetrator when he heard of the waste. "Well," he added, after having taken an inventory of his liquor closet, "I'm going to fill it with champagne tomorrow so that people won't take exams so seriously."

AT THE ORPHEUM

America's original "hill-billy" troupe, the internationally famous Weaver Brothers and Elvir of Arkansas, are coming to Memphis and bringing with them their own collection of Arkansas "hillbillies" to present a combination barnyard and mountaineer revue on the stage of the Orpheum Theater. Their engagement opens Wednesday, April 21, for one week.

In coming back to Memphis, the Weaver brothers are accompanied by their own hand-picked cast of 25 Arkansas mountain characters, including Elvir's own "corn-fed" chorus which relies solely upon voices and humor for its applause. The chorus' costumes are those of the mountain districts of Arkansas and not tights.

The laughable musical instruments for which the Weaver brothers first gained their "hill-billy" fame, such as the musical saw and musical broomstick, will be augmented in the rural revue presented at the Orpheum, because the Weaver brothers found many homemade instruments popular among the hill people of their native state . . . instruments such as Bob Burns' bazooka, homemade bagpipes and such. The talent includes a village quartet, a "silo" singer, original Arkansas clog-dancers and numbers of novelty singers.

The self-named "ugliest college man in Texas," Joe Frederick, of Texas Christian University, stirred up the competitive spirit in a female.

It seems that Flora Peterson, a coed at Wheaton College, Illinois, saw Frederick's picture in a paper and hurled a challenge at T. C. U.'s Doc Jekyll: "I saw your picture in the Chicago Tribune today," she wrote, "and I challenge your title." She enclosed her picture and finished off Frederick with "I may not be beautiful, but I made the honor roll! Did you?"

KEMP, THOMPSON ON AIR TOGETHER

Don't write . . . telegraph. That's Hal Kemp's motto. This ace band leader on the Chesterfield's Friday radio show sends dance rhythms over the air with what he calls "telegraph brass."

This unusual type of orchestration gives the brass section a special rhythmic accent . . . tunelessly tapping the famous Kemp tempo in a way that makes it just about the most danceable music you can find anywhere. By long practice the band is able to give the music plenty of variety as well through the use of many varied tune patterns.

Perhaps the best proof of the superiority of the Kemp tempo is the recent opinion of America's leading teachers of popular dancing. In a nation-wide vote they selected Hal Kemp the best dance band leader for the second successive year.

Kay Thompson, First Lady of Rhythm, appears on the Chesterfield show with Hal Kemp every Friday at 8:30 E.S.T., in company with her rhythm singers.

Miss Thompson has had excellent musical training and originates her own vocal arrangements, always individual in style. She has developed a way of presenting popular songs with a mixed chorus that obtains the harmony and rhythm similar to that of the best dance orchestras. Even Hal Kemp, long a master of startling effects, says he is constantly amazed at Kay Thompson's clever presentations.

THIS ISSUE

This week's paper is a product of the sub-editor's brain. All errors and blame are his.

SMELL YOUR MARKS

When physics test marks skid below par, instructor John Madigan, at the College of St. Thomas, makes his students pay through the nose.

Displeased with poor grades on a recent quiz, Mr. Madigan, aided by chemist colleagues, conveyed sensually his general opinion that most of the answers were putrid by scenting the papers—good and bad.

Those of the A and B class were sprayed with "Paris Night" and "Eau de Cologne"—perfumes that reminded the boys of letters from "heartbeats" back home.

C and D papers wrinkled noses with the medium-strength odor of rotten eggs—hydrogen sulphide.

But the seven of the E and F class rocked stomachs with the staggering smell of rancid butter—butyric acid.

RADIO PLAYERS GO COMMERCIAL

A group of Southwestern students took to the air waves through WMC under commercial sponsorship last evening at 10:15 P.M., presenting the first of a series of programs dramatizing tales from True Detective Magazine. The program featured John Quanthy, Randall MacInnes, and Selby Bobzein, and concerned a murder committed in a convent.

Others who will appear on the program from time to time are, Steve Frazier and Marorie DeVall. Earl Moreland, of the WMC staff, is the announcer, and the dramatization is supervised by Bill Fielding, program director for WMC. The broadcast time switches, because of the inception of Daylight Saving Time, to Wednesday evenings at 9:30 P.M.

ATO HAS PARTY

Tennessee Alpha Tau of Alpha Tau Omega will entertain with a combination hayride and weiner roast Saturday night at Riverside Park. The members of the fraternity and their dates will meet on the campus to ride on a truck to the picnic grounds.

Those attending will be:

"Coordination, speed, teamwork, physical stamina and the ability and desire to work hard—that's the stuff that makes winning football teams in any league. The popular myth that some schools are simply graced with a great deal of fight and spirit and can go out there every Saturday with a lot of fight talk and bowl over their opponents is purely bunk." Words with impact from "Hunk" Anderson, new line coach at the University of Michigan.
