Nine Professors To Give Courses; Session Will Run For Six Weeks; Students May Get Six Hours Credit; $30 Fee

Dr. A. Theodore Johnson, director of the 1937 session of summer school at Southwestern, announces June 14 as the opening date. The six week session, closing July 24, will give six hours credit as a maximum course for a tuition fee of $30.00. Special courses in science will run until August 7, for a slight increase in tuition, and will give more credit.

The biology department, under Dr. J. Henry Davis, will offer a course in general biology, vertebrate embryology, and genetics and eugenics.

Dr. J. R. Meadow, professor of chemistry, will give a general course and a course in organic chemistry especially designed for pre-med students.

The education department will include a history of education, Dr. A. P. Kelso, instructor, and the teaching of mathematics under Dr. M. L. MacQueen. Dr. M. E. Porter will have classes in the teaching of modern languages, including German, Spanish, and French.

The English department will offer a wide selection of courses under Dr. S. H. Monk and Dr. A. T. Johnson. Dr. Monk will have classes in composition and reading, which is freshman English; modern literature; Victorian poetry and Victorian thought; and The Age of Anne. Dr. Johnson's classes will include the sophomore English, masterpieces of English literature; and Elizabethan drama.

Dr. W. R. Cooper, professor of history and political science, will teach American government and politics; American history; contemporary history; and the Old South.

The mathematics department will include trigonometry; college algebra; analytical geometry, under Dr. M. L. MacQueen. Dr. R. S. Pond will teach math of investment and calculus.

The modern language department, under Dr. M. E. Porter, will offer classes in elementary and intermediate French; elementary and intermediate Spanish; and elementary and intermediate German.

Dr. A. P. Kelso, professor of philosophy, will teach a history of art and political philosophy.

Last year's enrollment for the summer session was the largest Southwestern has ever had, and an even greater number are expected to attend this year. The dormitories will be open to accommodate out-of-town students or town students who may wish to board for the summer months. The summer school bulletins will be available in the registrar's office next week.

O. fraternity will send delegates to State College, Mississippi, this weekend to participate in the installation of the ninety-fourth chapter of the fraternity at Mississippi State University. Among the national officers who will attend are: Sidney B. Fithian, national president; Roy Watson, chief of the Mississippi Province; Jack Thompson, chief of the Tennessee Province; and Stewart Daniels, national executive secretary.

In addition to the installation there will be an elaborate celebration, including a banquet and dance Friday night and a dance Saturday night. Many members and their guests including about seventy-five girls from M. S. C. W. at Columbus, Miss., will drive over for the dances.

TUTHILL TO HEAD MUSIC COLLEGE

Succeeds Wiktor Labunski As President

Professor Burnet C. Tuthill, director of music at Southwestern, was elected this week to succeed Dr. Wiktor Labunski as director of the Memphis College of Music at the close of the current school year. His election was announced Wednesday by Miss Gladys Cauthen, president.

Mr. Labunski had announced his resignation previously, to join the piano department of the Kansas City Conservatory of Music next fall.

Mr. Tuthill accepted the appointment with the knowledge, consent, and full co-operation of Dr. Diehl. His duties will in no way interfere with his work at Southwestern, but will rather, Mr. Tuthill believes, "bring the two institutions into closer coordination and facilitate the already existing exchange of academic credit between them."

Mr. Tuthill plans to devote most of his attention to the continued development of the school, turning most of his teaching duties to other members of the faculty of the College of Music. Several new projects are already under consideration for next year, including negotiations to obtain a pianist to continue the teaching carried on in the past by Dr. Labunski, and a cellist to replace the late Mr. A. T. Moore. Plans are being made to enlarge the other departments.

TRI-DELTA WILL ENTERTAIN WITH DANCE SATURDAY

Spring Formal To Honor New Officers

FROM 8:30 TO 12 P.M.

Colonial Country Club Is Scene of Party

By BEVERLEY ALSTON
Delta Psi chapter of Delta Delta Delta sorority will entertain tomorrow night in their annual spring formal with a Pearl Ball in honor of the newly elected officers. The affair will be held at the Colonial Country Club from 8:30 to 12 P.M. Hugh Anderson and his versatile orchestra will furnish the music for the dancing. There will be a Delta Delta Delta lead-out, two no-breaks and two specials. The orchestra will play a rhythmic arrangement of "Under the Moon," the sorority song, as the dancing number for the lead-out.

The spacious ballroom will be decorated with gaily colored balloons and suitable spring flowers to carry out the sorority colors of silver, gold and blue. The white carnation will be the dominating flower. Blue larkspur will taper off the floral design.

Two members of each of the other sororities will be representatives at the formal. Also especially invited guests are seven Southwestern professors including Dean and Mrs. Theodore Johnson, Professor and Mrs. John Henry Davis, Professor and Mrs. Ralph C. Hon. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Acroyd and Dr. and Mrs. Neuman Taylor will be chaperones for the occasion. All Southwestern fraternities have received block bids and also invited are the non-fraternity men.

Nell Thompson, vice-president, will be absent, attending the annual Kappa Sigma spring formal at the University of Mississippi.

MVHSPA MEETS HERE APR. 29-30

Prof. McIlwaine Expects New Delegates

Plans for the fourth annual Mississippi Valley High School Press Association convention which will be held at Southwestern on April 29 and 30 are to be completed this week, according to Professor A. S. McIlwaine, sponsor.

Approximately 350 invitations have been sent to high schools in Arkansas, Mississippi, Tennessee, Missouri, Alabama, and Louisiana. Southern Missouri and Louisiana which have not been represented at the three previous conventions are expected to send several delegates this year.

The Sou'wester is in general charge of the convention and members of the staff are making various arrangements for a convention dance on Thursday and for the housing of the delegates in the dormitories.

The program, already partially filled, will consist in the main of talks by prominent Memphis newspaper men.

Rose Lynn Barnard and John Quanthly, departmental editors of the Sou'wester, comprise the entertainment committee for the delegates; and Nancy Warden, society editor, and Frank Goodlett, feature writer, will direct the housing plans.

DR. DIEHL TO SPEAK
Dr. Charles E. Diehl will deliver the sermon at the First Presbyterian Church of Corinth, Mississippi, next Sunday morning, April 18. Sunday night he will speak at Pickwick Dam.

Lynx Meet Arkansas State Here Today In Track And Field Meet; Raquetters To Tackle Sewanee

TENNIS TEAM TO MEET SEWANEE

Cannon, Butler To Be First and Second Men

The Southwestern tennis team will receive its acid test this afternoon when the Lynx meet the Sewanee team on the Southwestern courts. Sewanee boasts one of the best teams in its history. Hugh Shelton (No. 1) played all last summer in tournaments under the supervision of a coach. Since December he has been working out with the No. 2 man in the Sewanee gym. These two should furnish plenty of opposition for Cannon and Butler, who will play the first and second positions on the Lynx team. Smith who will probably play in third position will oppose Crook, who is one of the steadiest men on the Sewanee team. White will play the fourth position.

Outside of Tulane, this match will be the greatest obstacle for the Southwestern team. Sewanee defeated Mississippi College team six matches to one where the Lynx could do no better than tie them. The burden of victory or defeat will rest squarely on the shoulders of Macon Smith and Tom White for, should they come through, the Lynx will win. Cannon will rate slightly the underdog in his match with Shelton despite Cannon's victory over him last year, due to the extensive campaign which Shelton has followed the past year. Butler will rank about even with his man. Smith and White must win despite their inexperience if Southwestern is to have a successful season.

DELEGATES BACK FROM MEETING

3 Represent Sou'western At Student Convention

John Farley, Ed McCormick and Lauren Watson returned Sunday from New Orleans where they represented Southwestern at the convention of the Southern Division of the National Student Federation of America.

Leaving Wednesday, April 7, they arrived in New Orleans that night where Tulane University and Newcomb College were the hosts of the convention which made its headquarters at the Roosevelt Hotel.

After the registration Thursday morning, Alfred Naifeh, president of the Southern Federation of College Students, officially opened the convention. Senator Claude Duke greeted the delegates on behalf of the city of New Orleans, and Dr. Roger P. McCutcheon on behalf of Tulane University.

During the program which continued through Saturday morning many prominent guest speakers were heard. On Thursday afternoon Mr. George W. Healey, Jr., managing editor of the Times-Picayune, addressed the newspaper division. Friday afternoon Dr. Charles W. Pipkin, Dean of the Graduate School, Louisiana State University, spoke to the delegates on the subject: "Youth is a Conviction." That night Dr. Marten Hoer, professor of philosophy, Tulane University, served as toastmaster at the convention banquet and introduced the principal speaker of the evening, Marshall Ballard, editor of the New Orleans Item.

Saturday afternoon, just prior to the closing plenary session, Lyle Saxon, well-known southern author, made an interesting talk to the assembled delegates.

A. T. O. INITIATES

GRIEF STRIKES SCHOOL

The sweetheart of the campus is soon to vanish into the realm of the has-beens. No longer will she rule the frequenters of Robb Hall social room. She will pass off into oblivion, and none will mourn her passing more than the quartet of George Griesbeck, Bill Nakajima, Benny Lewis and Joe Stuart. For the checker table in the hall is to be removed in the interest of more study. Ah, woe are the devotees of the place!

GRIDIRON DINNER TO BE APRIL 23

Mock Campaign Will Open Soon

The annual Southwestern Gridiron banquet sponsored by the Southwestern Christian Union will be held Friday evening, April 23, at 6:30 p.m.

Herbert Bingham, president, has appointed a committee of Carroll Varner, chairman, Bob Armstrong and George Jackson to plan a really enjoyable affair.

All "parties" are asked to get their nominees selected and to plan a vigorous campaign in behalf of each candidate. Among the illustrious titles to be bestowed upon some lucky males are: most monstrous monstrosity, most loquacious lubricator, ugliest mug, and duckiest duck. There will also be a "dark horse" candidate whose title may be chosen by the group presenting him.

It is rumored that Mike Pepper and "Red" Davis may be fierce rivals for the title of the "most monstrous monstrosity." Herbert Cain and Ward Archer have been mentioned for the "most loquacious lubricator." Naturally, Clois Neal and Charlie Taylor will probably be two opponents for the "ugliest mug," and "Toto" Houts hopes to clinch the title of the "duckiest duck." The competition promises to be keen among the "dark horse" candidates.

An excellent menu has been planned consisting of fruit cocktail, filet mignon with mushroom sauce, stuffed baked potatoes, asparagus, rolls, iced tea, and ice cream and cake. Mints and plenty of cigars and cigarettes are to be added after-dinner features. Tickets will cost twenty-five cents for dormitory students and fifty cents for town students.

NINE RECEIVE BAND AWARDS

Outstanding Members Are Rewarded

Mr. Burnett C. Tuthill announces that awards will be given to members of the Southwestern Band who have been outstanding in loyal membership and regular attendance, for the period beginning in the fall of 1935 and running through the first semester of 1937.

The awards were ordered this week from a Memphis jeweler and will be presented in the near future. They will be in the form of watch charms, showing a Southwestern "S" in red and black, the college colors, and a treble clef in gold.

The band members who will be honored are Harvey Heidelberg and Leslie McKee, class of '36; Robert Armstrong and Oliver Yonts, class of '37; James Watt and Robert Moffatt, class of '38; and George Boyles, Gene Poulton, Foster Roseborough, class of '39.

CATS EXPECT TO AVENGE DEFEAT

Strong Southwestern Team Confident of Victory

By J. P. QUANTHY
Southwestern's lithe Lynx will be out to avenge the scalping from the Arkansas State Indians last year when they meet the Indians on old stomping grounds this afternoon at 2:30 on Fargason. Last year at Jonesboro the Indians out-pointed the Lynx.

Coach Chicken High, mentor of the Lynx tracksters is depending on his weight and field departments to take care of a deficiency in dash men. The Indians are above the average in the sprints with James, the Indians' chief performer, being the star.

In spite of the Indians having virtually the same team that defeated the Lynx last year, Coach High is confident of victory. The fact is that this year's edition of Lynx tracksters is much more efficient than last year's. "If weather will only give us a little help, the boys should have no trouble bettering times and distances made last week," said High. In their meet with Mississippi College the Lynx scored 88 to 44 points, breaking four school records. The Indians were trounced last week in a meet with Hendrix College.

Bob Lee, star senior football player, is the latest addition to the Lynx track machine. Coach High is counting on him to help Porter Chappell in the high jump; and he may also run the hurdles. Chappell was topped last year in the high jump by James at a height of about five feet, nine. However, Chappell reached five feet, eleven last week and it is believed that James has not improved so much. Clois Neal is another new Lynx track man who will handle a broad jump assignment as well as help out in the sprints.

Henry Bergfeld has dropped the sport in preference to baseball. Bergfeld, very well known as "Hitler," has been throwing the javelin.

For the Lynx Gaylon Smith, Clois Neal and Wave McFadden will run the dashes. McFadden and Neal will also handle the broad jump. McKay Boswell, who broke the school record in the hurdles, should better that record today. Boswell also won the 220 yard dash last week and will run the event again this afternoon. In the high hurdles, Erskine Falls, who has been troubled with a bad ankle, will carry the Lynx colors. Porter Chappell and Bob Lee will do the high jumping.

In the field events Will Rhea Winfrey and Orley Nettles will each try to better their newly made records in the shot and javelin respectively. Gaylon Smith will double in these two events as well as handle the pole vault. Henry Turner and Hylton Neill will run the distances for the Lynx.

The meet will be run strictly according to schedule and will end promptly at 4:45. A public address has been installed to keep the spectators informed as much as possible.

The timers for the meet will be Prof. W. R. Atkinson and Craig Crenshaw. Marlon Hale, of the Memphis Park Commission, will serve as starter. At the finish tape the judges are Bill Pickens, Chauncey Barbour, and Nick "Dr. Nick" Papageorge. George Jennings will be the official scorer and J. P. Quanty will announce.

CHI OMEGA INITIATES TWO
Kappa Beta chapter of Chi Omega sorority announces the initiation of Kate Scott Patterson and Frances Smithwick on last Tuesday night, April 13. Kate Scott is a freshman from Rosedale, Mississippi, and Frances is a freshman from Memphis.

DUST TO DUST—

"Dust thou art, to dust returneth."

Southwestern students may well wander over the campus quoting part of Longfellow's well-known poem, what with the obstreperous April breezes and the ever-present dust bed at the rear of the Science Building.

The flying dust bodes no good for the health of the students, nor does it aid the looks of the college by the film which it spread over the ground and buildings.

It is obviously out of the question to ask that the breezes cease to scurry hither and yon over the campus. But it is possible to reduce the effectiveness of the parking lot as a source of supply for dust.

CHAPEL ORDER AGAIN

Elsewhere in this issue will be found an article concerning the conduct in the chapel service and the student assembly. Yesterday morning the Christian Union Cabinet conducted the chapel service, in the interests of a better chapel attitude on the part of the students.

"What's all the yelling for?" you may ask. It is needless to explain the problem at hand again. Time and time again there has appeared in the columns of the Sou'wester an article elucidating the trouble, and time and time again there have been announcements made from the rostrum and from the floor of chapel pleading for a saner attitude on the part of the students.

Granted, it is amusing to make funny (?) cracks at the expense of others. Granted, it is amusing to see semi-roughhouse scuffling. And granted as well is the fact that all this may be extremely boring to those persons who think that they are preserving order by leaving at the first possible opportunity.

College is a cooperative place. No one in it can live all to himself. He must share all—happiness and unhappiness—with others. And it is little enough to ask that each of the students keep this in mind when he is tempted to carry on some action in chapel which infringe on another's rights.

KAPPA SIGMA HAILS CHAPTER FOUNDERS

Monday, Phi chapter of Kappa Sigma fraternity commemorated the fifty-fifth anniversary of the chapter, which was founded at "old Southwestern" in Clarksville on May 12, 1882. Phi is one of the oldest chapters of the fraternity. Its activity has been uninterrupted throughout the entire fifty-five year period, despite the loss of all but one of its members in the World War.

Letters to the Editor

Southwestern College, Memphis, Tennessee, April 14, 1937.

Mr. Lauren Watson, Editor, The Sou'wester, Southwestern College, Dear Mr. Editor:

I have been instructed by the Student Council to express through the columns of The Sou'wester a sentiment which is, I believe, prevalent throughout the student body. I refer to the feeling of students in regard to the prevailing disorder during chapel and during the first few minutes of the Student Assembly.

We are fortunate in having facilities for a daily religious service in which the whole student body can participate, and the Student Council wishes to urge the students of Southwestern to take full advantage of this opportunity by maintaining an attitude of reverence before and throughout the service.

In addition to co-operating during the religious part of the morning assembly, if students can restrain themselves a few minutes longer until the most important announcements have been made, we shall have gone far toward creating a valuable and typical Southwestern tradition.

Sincerely yours, JOHN FARLEY.

ABOUT THE CAMPUS

Farley on the stage speaking to the throng, That's gathered in the room to give someone the gong; Barnard's in the cloister, always having fun; She has all the boys madly on the run. Sidelights

Dogs: Why are there no pekingnese on the campus? How many of us are "doggedly" affectionate? Well, there is at least one young man who fell in love with two shivering, pathetic balls of fur. "Woman-hater" Mobley has at last found an object for his affections. One Sunday morning about three weeks ago, Mother and son of the Pekingnese family waked up to find themselves out on the Lynx campus. Mobley's heart-strings were touched and an opera of love was the resulting composition. For two days Mob fed, nursed, and loved his newly-found family. But then Mrs. Peke's "kinsman" came and took her away. Now the Clarksdale misogynist is singing from Tennyson's "In Memoriam": It is better to have loved and lost Than never to have loved at all.

Speaking of dogs reminds me of one of the punniest puns of the week. The punning era has almost passed away, but still some of the profs pull a few. In class the other day Dr. Kelso was talking about the Englishman's love for dogs. He said that when Wily Wallie was ill, the ex-king sent her a bunch of pups instead of flowers. In England they say it with puppies and not with poppies!!!

Mamie Parker expressed his opinion of our system of modern education the other day. Some prof had just told him that originality was the greatest factor in education. Mamie was upset. Then he began thinking about the matter. So he went back and asked his prof if originality would help him make better grades. The prof answered affirmatively. Now Mamie says that there is something wrong somewhere, because he has been giving them some original thoughts about spelling, but "Don't nobody 'preciate 'em."

A Bit of Poesy I wonder if I will ever Get an education, Cause every time reports come out They stick me on probation!!

"It's that All it Costs???"

WHEN WE IMPROVE QUALITY—that's fine. When we reduce cost—that's fine, too. When we do both—when we improve quality and reduce cost—then that's a bargain, and it's the best of all.

Transportation is a bargain today on our modern-minded railroads, for it is vastly better than it has ever been before, and its cost is less than at any other time in modern history. We of the Illinois Central System are proud of the present merchandising situation of the railroads, to which we have largely contributed.

You can travel fast, safely and in style today at 2 cents a mile and less, with low-cost meals at your seats, free pillows, air-conditioning, courteous attention to your needs—everything designed for your comfort and to please you.

Your freight will travel faster and better, too, and be handled in more convenient style—and still the average rate collected on all freight will be slightly less than 1 cent per ton per mile, which is not quite four-fifths of the 1921 average.

A CONTEST . . . Four cash prizes, ranging from $100 to $25 and totaling $250, will be awarded student readers of our advertisements in colleges and universities throughout the Middle West and South for typewritten essays of from 300 to 500 words on "What I Like Best in Modern Railroading—and Why." The closing date will be May 10, awards by June 1. Address me at Chicago for reference material and to submit your essays.

The Broadcast

By F. OLIVER GOODLETT

Using a dramatic vehicle with a certain Elizabethan largeness of character and roundness of phrase, Southwestern's Radio Players provided an entertaining twenty minutes Wednesday afternoon under the direction of Prof. C. P. Lee.

The play, which is to be concluded at the Players' next broadcast, was "The Streets of New York" by Dion Boucicault, and concerns a certain notable Gotham banker (Bloodgood) whose insolvency in the year 1837 has determined him to flee the country for the sake of his daughter, when the trusting deposit of $100,000 by a home-loving ship captain (Fairweather) turns his flight into a potential rosetate abscension. The only obstacle to a neat accomplishment unexpectedly looms up in the person of the banker's clerk (Badger), a rake who knows more than his clerking and whose vicious private life leaves him a meticulous honesty for the public.

The presentation was well-handled and the small cast played their parts adequately and convincingly. Particularly notable, in view of their importance over the microphone, were the clear articulation and pleasant intonations of the Players. Besides Randall MacInnes (here playing the clerk Badger), whose resonant eastern accent put him originally about three laps ahead of the rest on the road towards stage pronunciation, the other Players have made marked progress. As the banker Bloodgood in "The Streets of New York," Steve Frazier handled such ornaments as a trilled r with adroitness, but a persistent drawl still reveals the ideal portrayer of Charles Dunbar of "The Blue and the Gray." Prof. C. P. Lee, who became Bill Lee on the cast to take the part of Captain Fairweather, did a good piece of acting; but a hazy suggestion of ventriloquism hung around Fairweather so definitely was Lee's voice unsuited to the character of the honest sea captain.

MONA MONKEY

"Sees all evil—hears all evil—prints all evil"

Mona has been moanin' low these past few weeks. Either Southwestern is not kicking up the dirt it used to, or our stooges are stalling. Yes, we're quite reduced to stooges, now, for even our best friends won't tell us any of the current gossip.

But on to the few bits we have gleaned by peeping through key holes and by listening in behind the cloister pillars—"Little Tex" Roth, now designated by "Fish," has been invited to no less than three consecutive parties without any return encouragement on his part. The gal in question is also a sorority sister of the girl he has been favoring with his attentions. . . . We hear that Alec "Robert Taylor" Courtner is getting fed up with playing second fiddle over on Strathmore Circle. . . . Archer and Montgomery are among the disappointed Cotton Carnival Princes. Bob has been winning and dining and transporting to Clarksdale all to no avail. . . .

Margaret Brachey has acquired some fraternity jewelry from Georgia Tech of late and the lad is to put in his appearance on the campus in the near future. . . . A ring and a pin have also been added to a certain blonde's collection—we wondered why those frequent trips to Mississippi. . . . From all reports Caden is beating Mobley's time with Jane Reid. . . . Clois has confiscated Sasser's State Teachers' interests but Learned seems to be filling the spot left vacant in the Allen direction. . . . The Zetas are busy helping Gladys Crump assemble a trousseau. . . .

Two of our regular couples seem to be hitting rough waters. . . . Jennings and Wunderlich are both looking for new fields to conquer and Nell Thompson has two standing dates per week with the same boy who, incidentally, does not attend our Alma Mater. . . . Three of England's men—Page, Sheats, and "Sewannee" Crosby—all turn out to be best of friends and share dates with four other rivals in the same day. . . . We wonder why Helen Graham spends from five-thirty to seven on our campus most every evening? . . .

Our furriner prof, Caspari, has yet to catch on to our American customs, we see. He gave a nickel to the organ grinder man the other day instead of to the monkey. . . . P. S., what's become of Carol lately?

Having a girl during spring quarter, calculates a math wizard at the University of Minnesota, is equivalent to carrying 10 extra hours, for which you get some credit but no honor points.

AT THE ORPHEUM

Music lovers of the Mid-South will herald with delight the announcement that Mary McCormic, the celebrated lyric soprano, will visit Memphis on her tour of the country, and will appear at the Orpheum Theatre, Memphis, for one week, starting April 14. This will be the first time the public has had an opportunity of hearing Miss McCormic sing in a popular priced performance. Previously, her appearances have been with celebrated opera organizations, and usually priced beyond the purse of the average music lover. She has appeared with the Chicago Opera Co., and the Opera Comique, as well as upon the American radio.

A native of Arkansas, Miss McCormic is returning to her homeland in her appearance at the Orpheum, where she will be supported by a selected cast of entertainers. Her presentation will include both operatic and popular numbers, and will be chosen from requests directed to Miss McCormic, at the Orpheum. Miss McCormic's career is a living inspiration to all students of music and voice. Her parents objected strenuously to her thoughts of an operatic career. She refused to be swayed by their objections, and at boarding school, herself arranged to major in music, meanwhile studying voice with a local teacher. Upon her graduation, she went to Northwestern University, in Chicago, and continued her musical studies. In Chicago, she attracted attention of music critics, who sought an opportunity for her with the Chicago Opera Company. The rest is history.

LILY PONS TO RETURN TO AIR

Will Be Heard Regularly On Chesterfield Hour

With the exception of two or three guest-star appearances, the voice of Lily Pons has not been heard over the air for nearly a year.

Making movies and doing concert trips between opera engagements, "That Girl from Paris" has had a busy year. No other singer has appeared who can remotely approach the tiny French star's beautiful coloratura and Miss Pons' popularity increases every day. Despite many other radio offers she has been content to wait until Nino Martini's current Chesterfield series was concluded, thus opening the way for a return to the air waves under the direction of Andre Kostelanetz. The combination of Miss Pons and the Kostelanetz orchestra has always been a favorite one with millions of radio listeners, and general opinion seems to be that the new series of broadcasts will prove to be something worth waiting for.

While Miss Pons has no idea of abandoning the famous operatic arias with which she has thrilled millions of listeners, there are reliable reports that she plans to render many of the lighter variety of songs in her own individual style. The success of her latest movie, "That Girl From Paris," wherein Miss Pons actually sang the Blue Danube to the swing tempo of a dance band proved that the flute-like tones of what critics call "the voice of the century," are as versatile as the Chesterfield orchestra which has been with her so often on the air.

How difficult it is to tune in on a radio program that suits the whole family.

LYNX ALUM GETS HARVARD AWARD

William Blue, of the class of '36, has been awarded a scholarship to the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy. This is a high honor, because the student body is limited to thirty-five members, and the faculty is composed entirely of members of the Government Department at Harvard University.

While in Southwestern, Mr. Blue was a member of the Forensic Society, the Choir, the French Club, the Woodrow Wilson Club, and the Law Club.

This year, Mr. Blue is taking post-graduate work at Vanderbilt University, in the department of Political Science.

GRAPPLERS HOLD INTRA WALL MEET

Spirited Bouts Feature Mat Program

The bone crushers of the campus met in ferocious battle last Tuesday and Thursday nights in the first intramural wrestling match to be staged on the Lynx campus. When the smoke of the first night's battles had cleared, the meet had run into the final rounds amid action on all fronts.

Billy Martin, KS, opened the program with an extra period victory over Steve Frazier, SN. Termed a draw at the conclusion of the regular time, the grapplers struggled for an extra three minutes before the bout was stopped by Referee Paul Hug and the decision awarded to Martin.

In the next match, Preston Marion's headlocks and general aggressiveness gave him the nod over Charles Perry, KS. Preston represented SAE. Eugene Grissom, ATO, fell victim to Jim Breyspraak's prowess, allowing the Sigma Nu to pin him in four minutes. Louis Chenault marked up another victory for the Sigma Nu's with a decision over Dewitt Spain, SAE. Chenault used body straddles to advantage.

Ed French, KS, overwhelmed Jack Terry, SAE, to take the semi-windup. French's 12-pound weight advantage was too much for the SAEman to spot, and French took the fall in six minutes. W. E. "Humko" Lamb, SN, gained the verdict over Arnold Hebert of the KSers after an extra period. Lamb's experience was the deciding factor.

Wednesday afternoon J. P. Cavender, SAE, trounced Cecil Warde, ATO, gaining a fall in two minutes.

Inasmuch as the paper was through the press when the final matches were staged Thursday night, these results could not be included.

The lessons of the past have to be learned anew each decade.

Sportspotlight

By JOHN QUANTHY

"Two things that interested me most," said Mr. C. C. Borman, "was the way the meet ran so smoothly, according to schedule and the scarcity of students that saw it."

Now: Mr. Borman is a California sportsman who is in Memphis on business. He knows sports and sporting events as he is a virile backer of the Southern California Trojan Club.

Of course, I didn't know Mr. Borman from Adam. I merely overheard his remark as he was leaving the meet. And because I happened to be thinking along the same lines, I took the trouble to ask who he was.

If ever I saw a good track meet to which Mr. Borman's casual remarks applied, the Lynx-Miss. College meet was that one. The officials deserve all the credit in the world for running the thing off in polished style.

Their method of attack was simple enough: Each event was scheduled at a certain time. All the officials needed to do was to get them started at that time. They did. Of course the hard part of that simple looking scheme is to a bunch of temperamental athletes moving at a specific time.

But the thing that I'm interested in is this: I can't for the life of me figure why a bunch of college students, supposedly normal in every way, will let a track meet as the one Saturday pass right by without batting an eye. I think I speak conservatively when I say that there were less than 40 students in the stands; and that, mind you, from a student body of 500.

It isn't that the meet wasn't interesting. I wasn't just talking to myself last week when I said in this column that four school records would be broken. Four were broken and one came within an inch of being topped.

Those same fellows that took a crack at the records Saturday all have a good chance to better them this afternoon. McKay Boswell who hauled in the old 220 hurdles record can be mentioned. Boswell turned in a time of 25:1. He should do the distance in 25 flat when pushed. Will Rhea Winfrey, in spite of the fact that he added six feet to the old shotput record, should turn in a better throw than 46 feet, his record breaking. Orley Nettles will have no trouble in topping 170:6 in the javelin. Red Davis should be the only man that may have trouble in smashing his old discus record. In the high jump Porter Chappell came within one inch of turning in a new record. The record stands at six feet and he only did five, eleven.

However, I think that Chappell will really step out this afternoon when he meets James, star for the Arkansas State Indian team. James topped Chappell last year when the Lynx faced the Indians with a jump of five feet, seven; but Porter can do six feet, I believe, when pushed. James, it seems, hasn't improved as much.

The Tennis situation for this afternoon looks as cloudy as the sky as I write. If the clouds clear away and the Lynx are able to match racquets with Sewanee as per schedule it looks as though the Lynx are to be trounced for the first time in five years. I don't say that to be pessimistic; it's simply that I present the situation as I see it.

For instance, Sewanee beat Mississippi College 6-1, while the Lynx were pushed to tie them at three-all. Sewanee has also taken Mississippi State to the tune of 4-3; and they haven't lost a match in the four they've played.

Of course the Lynx still have Woody Butler and Dunlap Cannon—but that's all. Besides, it isn't unreasonable that Hugh Shelton, who plays number one for Sewanee, will put away Cannon this afternoon. Shelton, I understand, is good.

The rest of the Sewanee team is Alex Guerry, playing number two and Rutherford Cravens and William Crook, playing three and four respectively. Shelton and Guerry will match racquets with Cannon and Butler in the doubles.

LYNX GOLFERS PLAY OLE MISS

Vandy and Tennessee Are On Calendar

Southwestern's golfers match strokes with the University of Mississippi linksmen Saturday at 9 a.m. at Chickasaw. Ole Miss brings an experienced squad and the matches should be close and spirited.

The Lynx team has not been definitely selected but Professor R. P. Strickler, in charge, will choose four men from Billy Bethea, Eugene Grissom, Louis Chenault, Carl Roth, Rex Wilson, Tom White, and Harry Waring. Monday afternoon, prepping for the Ole Miss battle, the Lynx team, composed of Billy Bethea, Eugene Grissom, Louis Chenault, and Rex Wilson, proved it was rounding into form by turning back a faculty team, 8 1/2 to 3 1/2.

April 30 the squad meets Vanderbilt at Nashville. The following day, May 1, they battle the University of Tennessee, also at Nashville. Both Vandy and Tennessee boast strong links teams.

On the heels of the Nashville trip comes the college championship. The championship tournament will be opened with a round of medal play, and then match play follows.

NYA AIR PROGRAMS TO BE IN CATALOG

Two N.Y.A. radio broadcast programs presented under the direction of Marion Kelsker during the Easter holidays will be included in the official bulletin containing programs of N.Y.A. radio broadcasts presented. Mrs. Hugh McCrary, director of the N.Y.A. radio publicity program, complimented Miss Keisker on her management of the programs and informed her of their selection to be included in the bulletin yesterday. The next program to be presented in the series is scheduled for Saturday, May 1, over radio station WMC.

Intramural News

Intramural competition for the softball title began this week, with the non-frats and the SAE's being tied for the lead when the paper went to press Wednesday. Each had annexed two victories while incurring no defeats. The ATO's, with one triumph to no defeats, trailed, with the Kappa Sigs, with a record of one won, one lost, the Sigma Nu's, with a single loss, and the KA's and PIKA's with two setbacks each, completed the standing.

The non-frats annexed the inaugural battle, taking the PIKA's into camp to the tune of 8-7. Infield errors in the last two cantos put non-frat pitcher Shapiro in hot water, but a pop-fly to Ellis terminated the game with the tying and winning runs on the sacks. Childress twirled for the PIKA's, with Pepper and Morgan outstanding.

The Kappa Sigs smothered the KA's under a barrage of base hits to give Pitcher Rowen a victory by the score of 21-5. Kerns, the KA's heaver, was not aided by ten errors in the field.

The SAE's eked out a triumph over the Sigma Nu's to the tune of 3-2, Tuesday afternoon, with Craddock touching Pitcher Learned for a home run in the final inning to cop the decision. McKellar pitched and batted well to star for the SAE's, while Frazier looked best for the SN's.

The ATO's grabbed a close one from the PIKA's, winning 10-9. A home run by Caeden with two on in the sixth was the deciding blow. King was the winning hurler, with Childress on the losing end.

Wednesday the non-frats pushed 19 runs over the plate to the KA's 5, winning handily. An 8 run barrage in the first inning kept things comfortable for Shapiro, the NF twirler. Kerns and Henderson were tapped frequently and hard. Floyd scored four times, with Bergfeld and Jennings getting four-ply swats.

The SAE's pulled a storybook finish, running pinch hitter Canale over the plate with the tying run and then Elder with the winning one in the last inning to win from the Kappa Sigs 5-4. McKellar pitched excellently.

CHI O's, NYA's WIN

Chi Omega sorority defeated the A. O. Pi. volleyball team last Tuesday afternoon by a score of eighteen to twelve. The N. Y. A. team won by default from the Kappa Deltas.

The women's softball tournament is scheduled to start Monday, May 3, scheduled to start Monday, May 3. The game schedule will be posted on bulletin board in the bookstore before the opening of the tournament.
