Jones, Johnson, Barefield
Dunlap, Benton

CHOOSES ONLY MEN

Student Council Announces Selections

Jameson Jones, Dorsey Barefield, Curtis Johnson, Richard Dunlap, and Francis Benton comprise the 1935-6 Hall of Fame selected by the Student Council in a meeting Wednesday. The membership is limited to one per cent of the student body. The members of the Hall of Fame, which is sponsored by the Publications Board, each year have their pictures mounted on the panel in the library.

Jameson Jones, prominent in many activities, counts as among his chief honors the presidencies of the Honor Council and of Omicron Delta Kappa. He is a member of Alpha Theta Phi. Last semester he was president of Sigma Alpha Epsilon social fraternity. In his junior year he was vice-president of his class and president of the Christian Union. He has been assistant editor of the Journal, member of the Publications Board, the Ministerial Club, and the Southwestern Players. He was recently elected "Most Popular Boy."

Dorsey Barefield, vice-president of the student body, has shown himself to be a versatile leader. Last year he lettered in football, basketball, and tennis. He was president of Kappa Sigma social fraternity last semester. Curtis Johnson is president of the student body. He has been president of Sigma Nu social fraternity. His specialty, debating, has won him a charter membership in Tau Kappa Alpha. He is a member of Omicron Delta Kappa.

Richard Dunlap, another versatile man, is president of the Pan Hellenic Council. He has been president of Alpha Tau Omega social fraternity. Tennessee Intercollegiate tennis champion. He is former captain of the tennis team and president of the Tennis club. A member of the Stylus Club, he has a high scholastic average. He is a member of Omicron Delta Kappa.

Francis Benton, recently elected "Best All-around Boy," was member president of Alpha Theta Phi, member of Omicron Delta Kappa, football letterman for three years, president of the Ministerial Club, president of Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity, and is a member of Tau Kappa Alpha.

KS TO HONOR NEW INITIATES

Entertain Tomorrow Night With Steak Fry

Kappa Sigma will entertain tomorrow night with a steak fry at the home of Clough Eaton. The group will gather at 7:00. The affair is in honor of the new initiates of the fraternity. Arrangements are in charge of Sam Hill.

Among those planning to attend are: L. A. Duffee with Hester Flowers; Henry Mobley with Diana Wallace; Marion Cobb with Shirley Wynn; David Flowers with Jane Grymes; Harry Waring with Elizabeth Paine; John Spence with Jane Lederer; Clark McDonald with Margaret Stockard; B. T. Hunt with Elizabeth Ricker; Gene Poulton with Letitia Montgomery; Hylton Neill with Marjorie Jennings; Harris Boyd with Aimee LePrince; Ed McCormick with Martha Moore; Jack Ringger with Beverly Williamson; Sam Hill with Barbara Schley; Andy Myers with Louise Jennings; Billy Kelly with Cecile Luton; Tom Mitchell with Marion Evans; Fred Bronson with Sophie Houser; Bob Watts with Mary White; Henry Turner with Jane Bray; Charlie Taylor with Mary Louise Hughes; Joe Lee with Claire Patrick; Dorsey Barefield with Virginia Fite; Jerry Martin with Frances Hogan, Columbus, Miss.; Charles Freeberg with Sadie Renshaw.

HALL OF FAME SELECTIONS

These students will compose the 1935-36 Hall of Fame as the result of Student Council balloting.

SUMMER SCHOOL BEGINS JUNE 8TH

Dr. A. T. Johnson To Direct Six Weeks' Session

Registration for Southwestern Summer School will be held on Monday, June 8, and classes will continue for six weeks, with final examinations on Friday and Saturday, July 17 and 18. Dr. A. T. Johnson is the director of the summer session. The faculty of nine professors will offer fully accredited courses, and each course taken for credit will represent two semester hours of college work. Students may take three courses. All chemistry courses, however, will constitute a full year's work and will continue for eight weeks instead of six.

Expenses have been reduced to the lowest possible rates, and boarding facilities will be available in Calvin Hall for men and in Evergreen Hall for women. The College cafeteria will also be open for day students. There will be an additional fee for the chemistry courses.

If there is a demand for additional courses than those listed in the preliminary announcements, which may be had at the Registrar's office, arrangements will be made to secure additional faculty members. Courses now listed to be offered are in Chemistry, Sociology, Education, Economics, Political Science, History, English, Languages, and Mathematics. The Summer School faculty will consist of Professors Johnson, C. L. Townsend, Margaret Townsend, Atkinson, Siefkin, Wenger, Tate, Pond, and Meadow.

ALPHA THETA INITIATES

The eight newly selected members to Alpha Theta Phi, local scholastic fraternity, were initiated Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Gayoso Hotel. Following the initiatory service the ten faculty members of Phi Beta Kappa and the new initiates were entertained at a banquet at 6:30.

Sensational President Of Student Body Lands Plane On Campus To Start Monday Right

Chapel attendance was very small last Monday. And all because "Two Bounce Charlie" (Curtis Johnson) wanted to get there on time. Two Bounce should write an autobiography and entitle it "From Plantation to Campus in One Hop." That is exactly what happened last Monday when chapel attendance was very small. "Squire One Hop" (new name for Curtis Johnson) was visiting in Clarksdale and wanted to get back to school in time to make his usual announcements after chapel. So he had the man who is teaching his brother to fly bring him back. The plane zoomed low over the campus and made for the field behind Ferguson. Inquisitive students used the windows of Palmer since the doors were locked.

Barely missing the signboard, the plane landed and taxied as close as possible. (The eight thirty bell rang).

Taking his time, the president of the student council stepped out like a veteran. (The doors of Hardie Auditorium closed).

So that is why the attendance at chapel last Monday morning was very small.

(Several people wonder why Curtis was formerly called "Two Bounce." Some maintain that on the dance floor he takes two bounces to the right, two to the left, and it takes two bounces for him to get out the door).

Millard Speaks

Reverend W. J. Millard, pastor of Evergreen Presbyterian Church, will speak to the Men's Bible Class Sunday night at 8:30 in the Calvin Hall social room. All men students are invited to attend.

EPISCOPALS MEET AT CAMPUS LODGE

The Episcopal Student Club of Memphis will hold a general meeting of all the units next Tuesday night, March 17, on the campus at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon lodge. It was decided last Sunday at a meeting of the Student Council of the club.

The units of the club are at Southwestern, State Teachers College, the Guild of St. Barnabas for Nurses, and the Medical College of the University of Tennessee. After the business session a social meeting is planned.

At the meeting of the Lynx unit last Tuesday night tentative plans were discussed for a circus party to be held at some time in the spring, to which the public, and especially the Southwestern student body, will be invited.

BARTON PRES. CHI BETA PHI

Dickson, McMimm Initiated Thursday

Charles Barton was elected to head Chi Beta Phi for the coming year at the regular meeting last Thursday night. Other officers elected were: William Bethea, vice-president; Lee McCormick, treasurer; and Oliver Yonts as corresponding secretary.

Two members were received into the fraternity at this meeting, Fred Dickson and Herbert McMimm being initiated.

Chi Beta Phi now has more plans for demonstration lectures in Physics to which the student body and the science classes of the city high schools will be invited. These lectures will be along lines of the physical phenomena connected with everyday life.

RHODES ATTENDS

Dr. P. N. Rhodes will attend the Southern Association of Physicists at Atlanta this week-end.

Ingram And Herbert Are Second Couple In Annual Carnival Court

Brown Left Her, But Came Back

For a while there Ralf Brown feared 'twas the end. As he lay on his bed of pain last week in Methodist Hospital (and this is not paid advertising) there came to his ears the well-known, not-to-be-ignored command, "Take this!" Prying open an eye (the only one that would open then), he sneaked a look at the comely nurse who hovered over him—and low and behold 'twas a maiden fair whom our hero had loved and left—quite definitely—some months ago! But Ralfie just laughed and laughed, because he knew all the time he was incognito, being as the hospital record in the paper had him listed as Mrs. Ralf Brown.

S.T.A.B. CHOOSES BETTY WELLS

Special Guest Founders' Day Banquet

Betty Wells was brought out today as the blonde of S.T.A.B., inter-sorority group which is limited to twelve brunets and one blonde. She will be a special guest at the Founders' Day banquet to be held Monday.

Miss Wells is the second to be chosen as the S.T.A.B. blonde. Olive Black who graduated last June has held this honor for the four years that S.T.A.B. has been on the campus.

She is a member of the Chi Omega sorority, is the freshman representative to the Honor Council, and a member of the Y.W.C.A.

The Founders' Day Banquet will be held Monday at the Hotel Peabody. The banquet table will be decorated with the red banner of the inter-sorority and with the silver dagger. Those who are planning to attend are: Olive Black, Lola Sale, Dorothy Ann Ferguson, Betty Wells, Virginia Hoshall, Elizabeth Pearce, Alice Allen, Bernice Cavett, Betsy O'Brien, Rose Lynn Barnard, Julia Marie Schwinn, Edna Barker, Nancy Gates, Betty Hunt, Virginia Buchman, Eleanor Trezevant, Ann Marie Orgill, Lyle Stange, Ann Maury, Alice McSpadden, Grace Waring, Sally Harding, Helen Young, Mary Fay, Betsy Ann Mohead, Margaret Winchester, Harriet Storms, Helen Gordon, Virginia Reynolds, Mrs. Barton Etter, Mrs. William Condon, Mrs. Russell Wilkinson, Mrs. Ben Edwards, Mrs. Douglas Partee, Mrs. James Hughes, Mrs. Nell Jones Hughes, Mrs. Ben Harvey, Mrs. Warfield Rodgers and Mrs. Travis Reed.

GOLFERS PREPARE TO MEET FACULTY

Tryouts to ascertain who shall represent the student body in a golf match with Drs. Strickler, Kelso, Davis, and Monk will probably be held sometime within the next two weeks.

Plans are being made to hold the match just before the Easter holidays.

MacINNES CHOSEN HEAD OF SINGERS

Randall MacInnes was elected president of the Southwestern Singers at a meeting Wednesday. The other officers elected were: David King, vice-president; Jane Alvis, secretary-treasurer; and Bob Williams, manager.

Next Issue Will Announce Two Couples

CLOAR IS DIRECTOR

Carnival Program Will Last All Day

Raford Herbert and Josephine Ingram make up the second couple announced for the April Fool Carnival Court. In next week's issue of The Sou'wester, the announcement of the third and fourth couples will be made.

Arrangements for the entertainment the night of April 4th are under the direction of Carrol Cloar, Southwestern graduate of 1934. Cloar also was in charge last year. Following the presentation of the court and the program, the "S" Club will have its annual April Fool dance. Plans are also being made for a full day's program to begin with the student assembly that morning.

Members of the Carnival cast are rehearsing nightly in Hardie Auditorium under the direction of Cloar. Full rehearsals are not held nightly, but different groups are working on individual skits. John Farley and Randall MacInnes are assisting Cloar with the Carnival program. John Quanty is in charge of the staging and electrical effects.

Herbert, president of the Senior class from Lexington, Miss., is also president of Tennessee Zeta Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, member of the Honor Council, and chairman of the Elections Commission. Josephine Ingram, member of the Sophomore Class, is an officer in the Chi Omega Sorority, member of the Southwestern Players, and a member of Pi Intersorority group.

AOPI TO HAVE BUFFET SUPPER

New Initiates Will Entertain Chapter

The new initiates of Alpha Omicron Pi will entertain the other members with a buffet supper and theatre party tomorrow night. The supper will be given at the sorority lodge at 7:00 and from there the guests will go to the Malco theatre.

Betsy Fowler and Mary Thweatt are in charge of the arrangements.

Among those planning to attend are Elizabeth Cobb, president, with Harry Webb; Mary Thweatt with Alfred Page; Margaret Kyle with Bob Kincaid; Cecile Luton with Sam Hill and Billy Kelly; Dorothy Morgan with Fred Hodges Aimee LePrince with Harris Boyd; Vera Denton with William McBride; Mary Frances Aydelott with Dick Rushmore Carolyn Cullom with Joe McCoy; Jane B. Grymes with Scott Chapman; Betsy Fowler with George Jackson; Alice Hagler with escort; Wilhelmine Tate with Billy Bethea; Mildred Morgan with William Norton Margaret Stockard with Clark McDonald; Jane S. Gryme with David Flowers Mary Anna Stockard with Randall MacInnes; Eugenia Tully, Edith Kelso, Ann Jeter, Jean Dolan, Louise Donaldson and Rebecca Laughlin, with escorts.

Chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. Percy Glass and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilkinson.

GROUPS POSE FOR ANNUAL PICTURES

Seven Southwestern groups posed Monday afternoon for pictures for the Year Book. They were: The Stylus Club, the Christian Union Cabinet, the Episcopal Club, the Southwestern Players, the Publications Board, the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, and the staff of the Sou'wester. The groups, ranging in number from six, on the Publications Board, to around forty of the Players, gathered in front of Palmer Hall, at 1:30, where the pictures were taken.

DOROTHY DIX TRUSTS IN YOUTH

peared in 200 newspapers throughout the country without a single daily interruption.

"The present young people have had problems different from most generations and they are working them out in a different manner. I have little patience with young people who want to get married and aren't willing to do without luxuries they have been accustomed to.

Miss Dix emphasized the fact that if young people are enough in love they will be willing to do without their radios and cars and undergo the pangs of financial limitations to make a successful marriage.

Miss Dix gets from 100 to 1000 letters daily, some of them telling of crimes which have been committed or plan to commit. "Many of my letters," she said, "would be worth a lot of money to lawyers but of course they are strictly confidential."

Miss Dix, whose real name is Elizabeth Meriwether Gilmer, started as a cub reporter on the Times Picayune. Her idea for an advice column came after she had conducted a weekly feature on a women's page and her stories brought bombardments of replies.

Her column has been kept above the mediocrity of the plain "love lorn" column by her wisdom in judging people and her sympathetic understanding of problems.

She was born in Montgomery County, Tenn., and was married to Mr. Gilmer in Clarksville, the former home of Southwestern.

When asked about Southwestern, a kindly gleam came into her eyes, and she intimated that no small amount of the Gilmer-Dix courtship was centered about the old college.

Fraternities Watch Your Rating

In connection with the present program on our campus of fraternity self examination and the program for better development of student leadership, we might mention the need for fraternity reinforcement of intellectuality. This need is brought out clearly in an address by Dr. Henry Suzzallo, president of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Learning to the National Interfraternity Conference, when he said:

"We have now reached the point of view that the fraternity system must reinforce intellectuality, and that as an institution it is not to be esteemed highly if it is merely neutral, and not to be tolerated at all if its influence upon the intellectual life is counteractive. The fraternity must not only be an influence for the fostering of intellectual interest and achievement, but is must likewise realize more vigorously its assumption that it fosters the strengthening of character and contributes the kind of recreation and sociability which are contributive to fine personal powers instead of destructive to it."

Some few fraternity groups on our campus have dropped to a low level in academic rating, and as the result of this are making an effort to raise their standing. However, they should be reminded that the officers of the college will not be satisfied with mediocrity and are taking the point of view of Dr. Suzzallo.

Good Suggestion

The question of more rugs, similar to those already laid, for the library was brought up recently in a Student Council meeting.

No one doubts the wisdom of putting down the first long strip of carpet as an aid to studying students, and the suggestion of laying more seems a valued one.

We hope the committee appointed to investigate the new project will come to a favorable conclusion and permit another long strip to be laid at right angles to the west end of the one already down.

Why The Hold-up?

What's the hold-up on the intra-mural cross-country run? Just because Director Breytspraak is out of town is no reason for delaying the event. What are you assistants for, if you are going to fold up every time the boss leaves?

ELSEWHERE

By DAVID FLOWERS

From Temple University comes the following editorial which is self explanatory:

College campuses with their thousands of college students have become the guinea pigs of the statistical fiends.

Almost any conceivable trend can be traced on the college campus by the mere process of the survey. The survey consists of picking out several college boys and/or college girls, asking them a few questions, taking the answers to these questions through some questionable mathematical procedure, and then coming out with some startling result bearing on national welfare.

Like the average number of hairs in a fraternity boy's eyebrow, or the number of years it takes the average banker's son to get through college.

But these surveys can get out of bounds. Somebody, for some reason or other, released a questionnaire on the campus of Queens University, the answers to which were supposed to determine purity on the campus. ("Purity" is used in the personal, intimate, whisper-and-sneaker sense).

Well, the results were: Women, 66.4 per cent pure; men, 59.3 per cent pure. These results should speak for the efficacy of such surveys.

Although it must be explained that 18 questions were asked, beginning with, "Do you smoke?"

It would be interesting to make a survey on the comments that this discussion will cause.

Two new privileges, in the social and uniform groups of regulations for M. S. C. W. students, were announced on the campus last week, and took effect immediately after notice was issued from the office of Dean Nellie S. Keirn.

New among social regulations is the granting of unlimited Saturday cuts, beginning at 12 o'clock noon, until May 1, the regular second semester cut limitation. This privilege was issued with the reservation of withdrawing in individual cases where it is felt to be detrimental to the student's week. Unlimited Saturday cuts came after a recent social advisers' meeting.

As a result of popular campus demand, white shoes may be worn with either school or dress uniform inside of campus limits.

Minneapolis—(CP)—Losing an inferiority complex, finding a broadminded, intelligent girl or impersonating a faculty member are all as easy as growing whiskers, in the opinion of Herbert Jensen, University of Minnesota Senior, who is the owner of the school's only undergraduate beard.

"Everyone I meet suggests a reason for my beard," he says. "Just to clarify the situation, let me say that I have not been disappointed in love, I am not trying to establish myself as a campus personality, and I am not mentally deficient.

"To me my beard has been more than just whiskers. Psychologically speaking, it has been a boon to me in getting rid of an inferiority complex.

"I'll admit, though, that it doesn't exactly please most girls. But at least I have the assurance that any girl who goes out with me is broadminded and intelligent," says the bearded man, who has not revealed the number of such girls at Minnesota.

"My beard also gives me an academic advantage over the smooth-shaven student," Jensen argues. "Members of the faculty are extraordinarily cordial to me. They nod at me on the street and shake hands with me in the classroom. They treat me as a colleague. My beard gets the credit."

Cultivation of the beard has been a matter of perseverance, explains Jensen. It received a severe setback when only two weeks old—a number of his fraternity brothers, doubtless motivated by petty jealousy, forcibly removed a considerable portion of it.

The battle over the retention or dismissal of the President of the College of the City of New York, Frederick B. Robinson, has been reopened with the demand of the institution's student council for resignation of the man they believe disqualified for his position.

The action of the student body followed the urgent report of a special alumni investigating committee which asked for the dismissal of Dr. Robinson.

"We do not believe that the present faculty-student discord and conflict can be eliminated or diminished so long as Dr. Robinson is our president," the students reported. "His association with Hearst, his bad taste, his reactionary ideas, and the general disrespect in which he is held disqualify him from his high post."

Note, Ladies

All those who cherish in lockets 'n stuff the picture of Mrs. Cannon's little personality lad, will be glad to know that they will have a choice of several poses when the current issue of the year book comes out. During the past few days Dunlap has been taking his meals and spreading his bed on the front steps so that he will be sure to be right on hand every time Mr. Cassidy calls for a pose. And the nice thing about it is that he shows absolutely no partiality—never even asks what group it is—all the same and the same consideration towards all; that's his motto!

Potter's Clay—(Dirt)

Well, well, well! Spring is here! Already flying softballs fill the air at every opportune moment. Only the bravest of the brave will dare attempt a passage from Palmer Hall to the Science Building during the progress of a "game." And there one gets to the crux of the argument.

The reader will notice that the word game is enclosed in quotation marks. Such a procedure denotes satire—sarcasm—irony. And such is the writer's attitude concerning the parade of masculine talent (?) which masquerades under the name of sport.

Sport is a great blessing to humanity. Would that we had more of it. But to call the somewhat amusing antics of the would- and would-not-be athletes by the term sport is to lower the respectability of the name. The students who participate in the exhibition seem not to know the cardinal principle on which all sport is based. First of all, a will to win is necessary. Second, a spirit of fair play is essential. Third, a desire to improve one's own ability to the point of perfection, as an ultimate goal is indispensable.

Quite probably the players have never stopped to analyze the reasons for their participation. Then this article should not fall upon unseeing eyes. The normal reaction of a student passing the playing field during a "game" is immediately to dash out on the diamond and join in the action. This shows a submerged instinct to carry out the principles just outlined. However, once on the field, he becomes conscious of the spectators on the sidelines, and his downfall is begun. Thereafter the object of his actions is not to carry out the rules outlined, but to attract as much attention as possible

EVERGREEN HALL

Gals are coming and going so much that I can hardly keep up with them. Mamie Rush breezed in the first of the week for a nice visit. Billie Mills is back and we sho are glad to see her. Eutelle Crowe has deserted the old hall to go home and get a nice rest and recuperate. "Snoop" and "Snoot" spent the week-end with "Snipe." (Do you know more now than before?) Dot Walker and Betty Jones skipped off to Nashville Sunday; the former to look over some Arabian "steed" and the latter to see "her Willard"—which explains why she's still floating around in the clouds. We are all weary of her oft repeated tales of the occasion.

At least the girls of Evergreen can get on the nerves, if not the heart, of one of our amiable (?) bachelor professors. Nuff said!

to himself, by any means whatever. Clowning, arguments with the other team, razzing the umpire are all favorite methods of drawing the interests of the gallery to the individual player.

The will to win is subordinated to a desire for notoriety, the ethics of sportsmanship are violated, and the development of athletic ability is hindered. The audience itself, no matter how well amused it may be, is being irreparably injured by the acquiring of false ideas of sport procedure and sportsmanship.

It is safe to say that the root of all Southwestern's athletic troubles is to be found in this misbegotten idea, worthy only of an idiot's mentality: that a man who can play a good brand of athletics with his mouth can play one equally good with those things the late Knute Rockne termed "The Four Winners"—the head, the hands, the feet, and the ball. Get rid of this mistaken feeling in regard to campus sports and then watch Southwestern's sport stock rise. There's your opportunity, students. Take it or leave it, but for Pete's sake, think about it.

Views
NEW BOOKS
Reviews

By THOMAS McLEMORE

The new books on the shelves of the library this week include, among others, four books describing different phases of present day United States affairs.

One of these, "It's Up To You," by James P. Warburg, presents concisely and in simple, understandable language, the case against the New Deal as it is working today. While it is brief enough to be read in one evening, it contains in embryo practically all the criticisms of the New Deal being advanced today. Mr. Warburg, like many other thinking Americans, while opposed to a return to the laissez-faire methods of pre-depression days, has come to realize that the present administration has gone a bit too far in its course of governmental interference with the individual; moreover, he points out an inconsistency between the administration's monetary policy and its industrial and agricultural measures. After answering the President's question, "What liberties have you lost?" he proceeds to outline a ten point plan of his own as an alternative to the New Deal; this plan, it seems to us, would go far in remedying our general situation, and restoring the country to a sound constitutional basis.

Eugene J. Young, foreign correspondent of the New York Times, has recently published a book, "Powerful America," discussing the United States' position in international affairs. He pictures the twentieth century conflict between nationalism and the spirit of world unity, with the gradual decline of the latter, as exemplified by the League of Nations and the recent policies of France and Britain, and the attendant increasing preeminence of the United States. He pictures the great empires on the defensive; Great Britain, he says, is disintegrating, through the increasing autonomy of its colonies, and consequently the balance of power is shifting to the United States. This view of "Powerful America," though quite optimistic, is nevertheless worth considering for the truth that may lie back of it.

Another book describing the United States in an optimistic light is "America Strikes Back," by Gustavus Myers. He consigns to the ash pile the old legend that Greed and America are synonymous, which has been accepted as true by most Europeans and even many Americans. In the light of an impartial investigation of facts, he shows that the United States is no worse in this respect than Britain, or any other European nation. This is a book to be read with avidity by any American who wishes to bolster up his national pride.

Martin Mooney's "Crime Incorporated" pictures our American civilization in a somewhat different light. Mr. Mooney, the crime reporter of a New York newspaper, has gained the confidence of a number of racketeers, since they learned that he would not divulge their names, however unmercifully he wrote about their deeds; in this way, he has gained much inside information on organized crime, which has come to light for the first time in this book. Yet, sordid and realistic, this book may serve as a healthy stimulus against crime for all who read it.

Besides these books on the United States, five biographies are included among the new additions to the library this week. "Bertrand of Brittany," translated from the French of Roger Verceel, portrays in romantic fashion the life of Bertrand du Guesclin, French hero of the middle of the Hundred Years' War. This makes good reading for one interested in the subject, clothing the closing years of chivalry with a subtle glamor and romance in spite of the bloodshed and other disagreeable features of it.

Edwin P. Booth has finally brought Martin Luther within the intelligent comprehension of the common man, in his book, "Martin Luther, Oak of Saxony," and helped to clear up the fog

No Decision Debates Held
With 2 Colleges

Lynx debaters met Mississippi College, of Jackson, Miss., and Waynesburg College, of Waynesburg, Pa., in no decision debates at 8 o'clock in Hardie auditorium on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, the 10th and 12th of March.

Curtis Johnson and Ed Hutchinson debated against a team from Mississippi on the question, "Resolved, That Congress should have the power to override by a two-thirds vote, decision of the Supreme Court declaring acts of Congress Unconstitutional. Mississippi took the affirmative and Southwestern debated the negative.

Leslie Buchman and Francis Benton debated Waynesburg College on the question, "Resolved, That Mussolini's Policy in Ethiopia is Justifiable."

FIVE MEN COMPETE FOR BAND POSITION

Five students have been selected by Professor Tuthill and Dorsey Barefield to try out for the position of drum major next year.

Those selected were: Murrah Gattis, Wayne Paullus, John Spence, Billy Bethea, Henry Turner.

Barefield will begin instructing the novices next week. Later in the year the outstanding one will be chosen and given the office.

of controversy which has long surrounded this great character. He places Luther where he belongs, among the great men of history, but like all of them, with his human limitations.

Another source of information of an intimate nature on Napoleon, thought to have been lost forever when the Germans destroyed a chateau in 1917, has recently been discovered in its ruins and published; Caulaincourt's Memoirs, with a strange history themselves treat one of the strangest and most discussed episodes in Napoleon's career, the retreat of the Grand Army from Moscow. Besides constituting a most valuable addition to Napoleonic documentation, "With Napoleon in Russia" provides a very readable account of the invasion of Russia for the ordinary student of Napoleon.

To come down to contemporary personages, there are biographies now in the library on "Spiridonova," woman socialist leader of the early stages of the Russian Revolution, before the socialists were supplanted by the radical Bolsheviks, and Edouard Benes, President of Czechoslovakia. The latter, though his strategically powerful position in Europe is probably over-emphasized, is yet rightfully called by the author, Pierre Crabites, one of the great influences of today toward world peace.

Other additions to the library include a new work of fiction by Madame Etsu Sugimoto describing Japanese village life, "China Changes," a discussion of revolutionary changes taking place in China today, by Gerald Yorke, "We Europeans," by Huxley and Haddon, an outline of the races and racial problems of Europe, and two works of an abstract philosophical and theological nature, a translation of "Dostoevsky," by Nicholas Berdyasev, and "The Reason for Living," by Robert Wicks. Last but not least, we might mention a book of photographs entitled "London by Night." Although the compiler announces in his foreword that this is a book to make London familiar to Londoners, yet it is worth a leisurely perusal by anyone, no matter how far from London he may live.

This column is a new addition to the Sou'wester, and will be continued if there is a demand for it. Also, many may disagree with the views expressed here. Readers are invited to express their opinions and criticisms in letters to the editor, which will be published if it is deemed worthwhile.

DORMITORY NOTICE

The following regulation is called to the attention of men living in the dormitories:

"A student who is occupying a dormitory room is allowed until the first of April to re-engage it for the succeeding year upon the payment of the usual deposit. After that date rooms will be rented as called for. In Robb Hall and Calvin Hall a certain number of rooms will be reserved until July 31 for members of each of the four college classes."

Men wishing to reserve for next year the rooms they now occupy should make the required ten dollar deposit with the Bursar and present his receipt to me before April 1. After that date rooms will be assigned to new or old students in order of application, and on payment of the deposit, subject to the quota rules mentioned above.

Special attention is called to the regulation that sets July 31 as the final date for the reservation of rooms in Robb and Calvin for a specified number in each class. After that, if the quota of any class has not been filled, members of other classes may secure the rooms.

"S" CLUB TAKES IN 11 LETTERMEN

Illness Detains Three From Initiation

Last Saturday the "S" Club initiated eleven of the fourteen men eligible for membership in the organization. Three varsity lettermen who missed initiation on account of sickness were Gus Pitt; George Jennings, and Billy Lapsley.

Football players who became members after a noisy, but mild, ceremony which lasted all day were Clay Nickles, Robert E. Lee, Mike Pepper, Richard Parker, Porter Chappell, and Warren Prewett. Paul Freeman and Jim Breyers were the only basketball lettermen initiated. Members of the varsity tennis team taken in were Dickie Dunlap, Woody Butler, and Dunlap Cannon.

LAST DAY TO ORDER CLASS INVITATIONS

Raford Herbert, president of the Senior class, announced that Friday would be the deadline for ordering graduation invitations.

At the same time he asked that all those graduating turn in a list of all their activities. In order that the Year Book may be published as scheduled, it is imperative that all comply with this wish.

AOPi BEATS ZTA IN TUESDAY'S GAME

The AOPi's defeated the Zetas 21-7 in a comparatively slow game Tuesday at three o'clock. It was featured by the forward play of Alice Hagler and Marjorie Jennings for AOPi. Both showed good teamwork. Vera Denton played a very good defensive game for AOPi, as did Rachel Beasley for the Zetas.

Excess of Acidity of Other Popular Brands Over Lucky Strike Cigarettes

PROPER AGING

Tobacco in its natural state is harsh and strong. Though "cured" by the grower before sale, it is unsuited for use without further aging. During this aging period (which ranges in the case of Lucky Strike from 1½ to 3 years) important changes occur. These "Nature" changes result in the partial "smoothing out" of the original harsh qualities of the leaf. Our process of manufacture carries these improvements many steps further—as every Lucky Strike Cigarette exemplifies: A Light Smoke of rich, ripe-bodied tobacco.

LUCKIES ARE LESS ACID!

Recent chemical tests show* that other popular brands have an excess of acidity over Lucky Strike of from 53% to 100%.

SPRING FOOTBALL PRACTICE SLOWED BY ABSENTEES

Third Week Of Session Is Near End

INJURED, SICK RETURN

Lee And Waddy Aid Coach Propst

Despite several injuries and attacks of "Flu" on the squad, the Lynxmen have almost rounded out three weeks of spring football. The ranks of the sick are gradually getting thinner, however, and Coach Propst is looking forward to a good week beginning Monday.

Bill Lee, former All-American at Alabama, has been helping Coach Propst with the linemen, and Frank Waddy, all-Southern end at Georgia Tech, has been giving the ends a few pointers.

Howard McKenzie, who comes from Mobile, Ala., with a splendid record, is showing up well in the practice sessions. McKenzie's running and passing abilities will give him a good chance to make the first team next year.

In the line, Levon Self, who has been out for a few days because of illness, is making a determined fight for the center position. Chester Carden, "Red" Davis, "Mike" Pepper, and Gardner are showing up well at the tackle positions. Frank Morgan, who hails from Alexander City, Alabama, is making a strong bid for a regular guard post, while "Doctor" Dabbs is giving him plenty of opposition.

On the flanks, "Red" Bergfeld, "Skinny" Roth, Stanford Butler, Lee, and Chappell are showing up well enough to insure the adequate handling of that position next year.

FAST CHI O TEAM BEATS TRI DELTAS

The Chi Omegas defeated the Tri-Deltas 20-5, Tuesday afternoon, in one of the fastest games ever played on the campus. From the opening to the closing whistle, it was a swift-moving panorama of close guarding, and skillful passing. The teamwork of Claudine Davis and Bernice Cavett was outstanding.

Tri Delt was the first to score, shortly after the opening whistle. This was followed by a Chi Omega goal just before the close of the quarter.

LYNX THINCLADS PLAN TWO MEETS

Freshmen Trackmen Show Ability

Two tentative track meets have been planned for this spring in addition to the State Meet to be held in May at Sewanee. The Lynx thinclads are to meet Arkansas State early in April, and plans for a triangular meet with Mississippi College of Clinton, Miss., and Millsaps College, of Jackson, Miss.,

are developing. Both of these meets are to be away from home.

Last Wednesday, time trials were held after only two weeks' practice. Results were not announced, but some good track material is being developed. A hard wind slowed up the men considerably.

Murrah Rasberry seems to be the best prospect at present and is expected to run the dashes and the quarter. Henry Hammond and Warren Prewitt are practicing daily on the broad jump, and Cobb, Falls, and Boswell are running the hurdles. Falls is the only high hurdler. Kelly seems to be the best of the milers.

Freshmen material is about the best

SPORTS BOARD SPONSORS HORSE SHOE TOURNAMENT

Non-Frat Men Will Defend Championship

QUANTHY TO DIRECT

Round-robin Type Contest To Be Used

In the absence of Intramural Chief Jim Breytspraak, John Quanty will run off the Intramural Horseshoe Tournament, with matches beginning today. The full schedule for the tournament appears in this issue of the Sou'wester.

A round robin plan will be followed, with each team playing one match with every other team. Representatives of seven organizations have entered. The non-frats, defending champions, will be handicapped by the withdrawal of one member of their team from school. Co-favorites for the title are the KA's and the Sigma Nu's, but the race is still wide open.

Teams consist of two players from each organization. Each member of the team will play one singles game and participate in the doubles game. The team winning two of these games will be declared the winner of the match.

Referees will be selected by the two competing teams from the spectators, and must not be a member of the organizations represented by either of the teams.

Quanty requests that the results be recorded with him the same day the match is played.

that Southwestern has had in several years. Winfrey, freshman football star and Tennessee State Champion in the shot-put last year, will be the Freshman weight man. Robert Smith and Henry Turner are both good distance men, and Poulton, though inexperienced, is learning to be a hurdler.

SPORT SPOTLIGHT

By JOHN P. QUANTY

Much as we hate to drag the old mud through the spotless press, we must nevertheless roll up our trousers and wade into the Gartside affair once more.

Of course, the big reason back of it all, is certain publicity given Southwestern last week in a syndicated collegiate publication.

The article had only one trouble—it was everything but factual. You see, they took for granted that newspaper articles can't be wrong. Taking this article as a base they added several "slants" of their own.

We have what we honestly believe on good authority the facts of the case:

Persons interested in the Lynx introduced Gartside to Coach Propst, who being new here, didn't know him from Adam.

Now, Southwestern being in the Dixie Conference, Coach Propst was in a position to offer Gartside a scholarship on his athletic ability; just as any other student would be offered a scholarship for good scholastic work, etc. This is the way things can be done around here regardless of what some may think to the contrary.

At their conference, Gartside was offered such a scholarship. This would cover part or all of his scholastic expense. And this meant that no other compensation in any form was offered.

Now, the reason that Gartside hesitated was because he wanted the agreement to be made in the proverbial black and white. It seems that when Gartside was here before, his duties weren't defined specifically enough.

At this same time a professional baseball club, the Toledo Mudhens, made Gartside an offer.

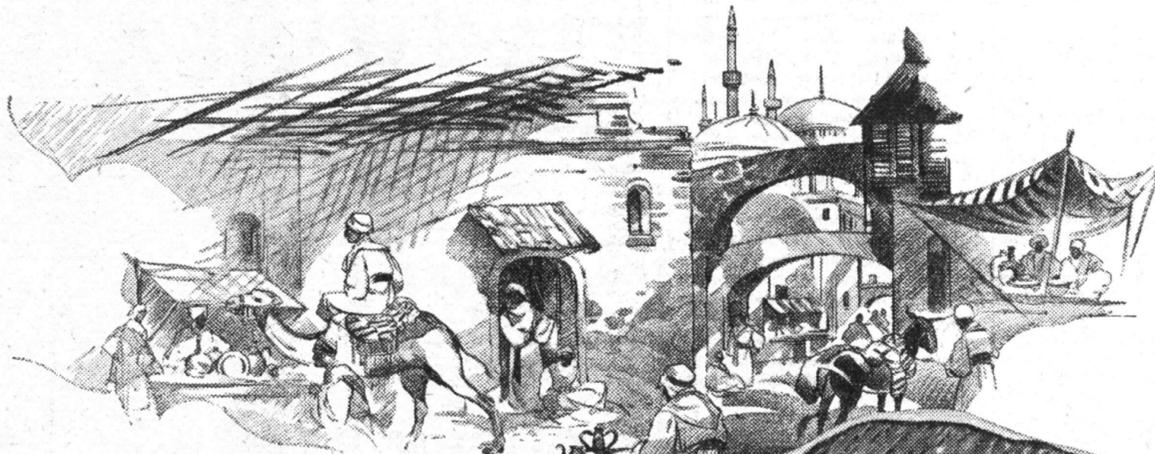

Thus, with a chance to return to school and with a chance to play professional ball to think over, Gartside granted an interview to a reporter for a local paper. And in the course of the interview there arose the discrepancy; since the reporter, either unknowingly, or in order to get an unusual scoop, interpreted the statements made by Gartside to suit his ends.

The tennis team, it is reasonably sure, will have a new equipment house built with stone to match the other buildings. If the petition passes the Student Council work will begin immediately.

After watching the Tri Delta-Chi Omega basketball brawl we have come to the conclusion that there could be a whip of a girls team around here.

Consequently, we will go into a conference with Coach Stratman and our girl's sports reporter, and perhaps we can dig up an all-star girls basketball team. This, in case we succeed, will appear in our next issue.

Coach High announced the first track meet of the season which will be in Jonesboro with Arkansas state on the 17th of April. A triple meet with Mississippi College and Millsaps, either at Millsaps or Mississippi College will very likely take place on April 25.

For centuries the world has gone to the Near East for its flavors and aromas and spices.

...and today Chesterfield imports thousands of bales of tobacco from Turkey and Greece to add flavor and fragrance to Chesterfield Cigarettes.

Turkish tobacco is expensive. The import duty alone is 35 cents a pound. But no other place except Turkey and Greece can raise tobacco of this particular aroma and flavor.

This Turkish tobacco, blended with our own American tobaccos in the correct proportions to bring out the finer qualities of each tobacco, helps to make Chesterfields outstanding for mildness and for better taste.
