Southwestern's Drive For Funds Well Under Way

10-Day Campaign Opened By Speech In Chapel

INITIAL GIFTS ASSURED

$45,000 Goal Set For 1938 Less Than Last Year

With a speech in student assembly Tuesday, Mr. E. E. Reinhardt officially opened the Southwestern funds drive for 1938. Mr. Reinhardt stressed the importance of whole-hearted student cooperation in making the 1938 drive a success.

The 10-day campaign which opened Feb. 8 and will close Feb. 18, according to plans, was preceded by a dinner for the 460 campaign workers at the Gayoso last Tuesday night. Lists of prospective contributors were distributed to the teams by R. Vance Norfleet, general chairman of the campaign.

"The 1938 goal has been set at $45,000," Mr. Norfleet said, "which is the balance needed to enable Southwestern to maintain its standard of work and keep free from debt." According to reports of the Initial Gifts Committee at a meeting last Monday, considerable progress has been made by this group in raising its $32,000 quota of the $45,000 goal.

Memphis has been divided into sections for the 77 teams of workers and the Initial Gifts Committee is composed of 57 leading business and professional men. The total number of workers is 85 more than last year, according to Mr. Norfleet.

Clark McDonald is head of the campus campaign committee in charge of student solicitations. Fraternity and sorority representatives are Fred Dickson, Kappa Alpha; John McGrady, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Henry Turner, Kappa Sigma; Wallace Mayton, Alpha Tau Omega; Steve Frazier, Sigma Nu; Chester Carden, Pi Kappa Alpha; Majorie DeVal, Delta Delta Delta; Ann Eckert, Chi Omega; Betsy Fowler, Alpha Omicron Pi; Mary Louise West, Kappa Delta; and Dorothy Steuwer, Zeta Tau Alpha. Sixteen Students Make Honor Roll

McLemore, Gary, Gage, Livesay And Givens End Semester On First Honor Roll

Men students at Southwestern are leading the women students in the number making both honor rolls for the past semester. Of the sixteen students making both the first and second honor rolls, nine are men students while seven are women. The co-eds lead off with honors, however, with three of the five making the first honor roll being women students.

Five students made the first honor roll with A in all five of their subjects. George Gage, junior, made A in English 55, Biology 1, History 23, Philosophy 1, and History 105. Erin Gary, junior, made A in Mathematics 3, French 21, English 101, Sociology 1, and Bible 51. Dorothy Givens, senior, received A in Sociology 25, A in Sociology 41, A in Political Science 23, A in Education 22, and A in Bible 51. Ardelle Livesay, senior, got her five A's in English 125, Greek 55, Education 22, Sociology 1, and English 53. Eleven students made the second honor roll with A's in four subjects and a B in the fifth. Of these eleven, five were members of the freshman class, three were sophomores, two were seniors, and one was a junior. Ann Bell, freshman, made A in English 1, History 1, Mathematics 1, and Bible 1 with a B in Spanish 21. William Donelson, sophomore, made A's in History 21, Economics 3, Economics 31, and Mathematics with a B in English 43. Miss Eva Sams To Talk

Traveller's Aid Society Secretary to Speak for Torch

Miss Eva Sams, executive secretary of the Traveller's Aid Society, will speak to Southwestern students next Thursday, February 17, at 3:30 o'clock in Room 100, Palmer Hall. Her subject will be the work of the Traveller's Aid Society in connection with the foreground and background problems of transients.

Miss Sams' talk is one of the series sponsored by Torch Society, women's honorary organization. All Southwestern students are cordially invited to attend.

CONTEST PROGNOSTICATIONS DARE THE WILL OF THE GODS

The Gods and Goddesses are once more bestowing their gifts. For "Miss Southwestern" there is a jeweled crown made to order. Four heads will try it on—Elizabeth Cobb, Rose Lynn Barnard, Jane Bray, and Marjorie DeVal. But the question is whom will it fit? Elizabeth is very likely to be the one wearing it after Tuesday, but I can see that it would be extremely becoming to Rose Lynn, Marjorie, or Jane. The competition will be close, and there is no possibility of a landslide.

For the "Most Attractive" the Gods have a laurel wreath tied with a blue ribbon just the color of Margaret England's eyes. Nell Thompson and Louise Jennings look mighty nice with it, but it just seems to be suited to Margaret in every way. Next is a lovely glass slipper addressed to the "Most Stylish" girl. Here the Gods favor two freshettes, Beverly Williamson and Katherine Farnsworth. Bernadine Taylor and Anne Spence are also to be considered but Prince Charming informs us that Ki will be wearing the slipper.

Now the Gods turn their attention to the more charming of the male sex. For the title of "Most Popular", we see two close runners—Macon Smith and Clark McDonald. It is hard to pick the winner but Clark is very apt to add another honor to his list. For the title of "Best Looking" it will probably be a case of the same song, second verse—yes, Clois. But Bob Montgomery will not be neglected in the least. The title of "Best All-Round" will be tossed around between Mobley, Gaylon and Waddy. Henry will no doubt be sporting the title after elections, but it is more easily said than done for the race will be very close.

Once again we'll give the wheel of fortune a turn and step aside to see where it stops.

Sorority Rushing Starts

Women's Panhellenic Council Rule Still in Effect

Sorority rushing for the second semester began yesterday with hour teas held in each sorority house. This afternoon half hour periods have been allotted for the sororities to informal "ush parties." Pledging will take place tonight at seven o'clock in the sorority lodges.

The quota system, which allows one sorority to pledge only twenty percent of the rushees, is in effect, according to Bernadine Taylor, president of the Women's Panhellenic Council.

The hours during which the sororities entertained yesterday were: Kappa Delta, 2-3; Alpha Omicron Pi, 3-4; Chi Omega, 4-6; Zeta Tau Alpha, 5-6; and Delta Delta Delta, 6-7.

Periods allotted today are: Chi Omega, 3:30-4; Alpha Omicron Pi, 4-4:30; Kappa Delta, 4:30-5; Delta Delta Delta, 5-5:30; and Zeta Tau Alpha, 5:30-6.

Erskine Falls, president of the Men's Panhellenic Council, announces that men's rushing is completely open, and men may be rushed and pledged at any time.

Lewis Donelson Is New Editor Of Sou'wester

Six Applications Considered By Publications Board

WILL SUCCEED ARCHER

New Head Served Paper In Copy Department

Lewis Donelson was chosen editor of the Sou'wester by the Publications Board at its meeting last Wednesday afternoon. He was selected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Ward Archer last month. Five other applications were considered by the Board.

During the first semester of this year, Donelson has served as president of the Publications Board and as copy editor on the Sou'wester staff. He is also vice president of Alpha Theta Phi, honorary scholastic society, member of the Elections Commission, Rhodes scholarship applicant, and vice president of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Because of his selection as editor, Donelson will resign his position as president of the Publications Board and as copy editor of the Sou'wester staff. A new president of the Publications Board will be elected by the student body at a time to be announced by the Elections Commission.

There will be no change in the Sou'wester staff. A new copy editor will be announced within the next two weeks. Bob Montgomery has been chosen as a member of the staff to take Donelson's place in the copy department.

College Swing Is King; Big Apple Out-Appled By Best o' the West

A new dance is rapidly swinging the Big Apple out of the picture. "College Swing" makes its debut from the West and is the first contribution to national dancing by that section of the country. In the past, dances—like the Big Apple and Charleston—have come from the South or out of Harlem. But now in the West colleges are really swinging it in the craziest dance to be seen in years. Even its most ardent devotees admit there is no sense to it, but they insist that it is more fun to dance than any that has come along in years.

The dance is a collection of kidding steps, which LeRoy Prinz, Paramount's dance director, saw during a tour of western colleges and moulded into a set routine. It combines posing, Balboa, trucking, and some of the liveliest features of the Big Apple, as well as a "back to childhood" step in which patty cake to the rhythm of the music is executed. It is slightly more complicated than the Big Apple.

Southwestern Drive

Southwestern is in the midst of its annual drive to raise funds. This money is necessary to continue the work of the college since the student's tuition pays only half of the expenses of operation.

The people of Memphis as usual are showing their support in a fine way. It is a significant fact that they are so ready to help every year. It reveals that Memphis is cognizant of the value of an educational institution in which her young people can obtain the proper training. And it shows that they feel that Southwestern is adequately satisfying this need. Their continued financial support is a stamp of approval on our college.

This drive, as one of the guest speakers pointed out, is beneficial to both parties. It keeps the people of Memphis interested in the progress of the college and informed on its affairs. The college is able to be in touch with the ideas and feelings of the citizens. These are the parents of students or prospective students.

Therefore, Southwestern is able by a cooperation of citizens and administration to work toward their aim, a finer educational institution.

The students should use the drive as a time to take inventory. What does Southwestern offer? What are we doing to make the college better? We have a fine faculty, a beautiful campus. In fact, no other southern college can rival ours in these essentials. The rest is up to the students. They make the college. Perhaps if each student would take it upon himself to strive to help just as the people of Memphis are helping, to take advantage of our opportunity in being here, every one could derive a lasting benefit from the drive.

New Exam System

The new method of conducting examinations proved a success. Several professors including Dr. W. R. Atkinson and Dr. D. M. Amacker voiced their approval of the new system. It would seem that it is a thorough-going improvement on the old method in which some students were allowed to spend up to six hours on their examinations. Others were penalized by the necessity of attending another exam on that day. This gave an incorrect idea of the student's knowledge. Also some professors got in the habit of giving examinations which required more than four hours to complete in the best fashion.

The new method gives a fair opportunity to all students and makes the professor realize that his test should not require more than three hours. The improved conduct in the room where the exam was taking place was noticeable. Also quiet reigned in the halls in most cases. This shows that the students are really thoughtful and not inconsiderate.

One more improvement has been suggested which will make the system less strenuous on students and professors alike. This is to spread the examinations over the period of ten days or more if necessary. Most colleges follow this idea. It gives the student a real chance to review before the exam. The professors are not required to grade all their papers in the course of one week end.

If possible the new idea ought to be given a try-out before being rejected. So many other colleges have used the system effectively for years. This should certainly raise the standard of work done on exams and help those who find themselves on the borderline as the time arrives to reveal their knowledge.

TIME OUT

Four self-confident people who had the courage to venture out during exams were Al Wunderlich with Marjorie Jennings and Buddy Turley with Missy Meux going to see "Happy Landing."

PAN PIPES AGAIN

This time to the tune of the Mississippians who pleased this tickled mob. . . . Sam Hill adds another—Nancy Caradine—and for once he seems sincere. . . . Having failed to get a date with Jeanne (thanks to Macon) Bill Reid, in that "I'll show you" manner, escorted little sister Catherine Shea to the dance. . . . The dance brought out a new combination, Wendell Whittemore and Letitia; not to mention the renewed combination of England and Weaver. . . . If Adrian Vernon had had his way, he would have built a fence around Fabrin with a sign saying "No Stags Allowed". . . . Another renewal of "friendship" (?) was exposed—Doris Rucks and Pat Davis. . . . Though Freddie didn't receive with a member of the Council, she rated a corsage. (How about it, Doc?) . . . According to Potts she had a date with Hylton; according to Stella she had a date with B. T. Hunt, but according to appearances, she had a date with Ward Archer. . . . Emily and Jack condescended to pay the dance a short visit—evidently two is company.

THROUGH OPERA GLASSES

Gus Pitt took "Ki" and "little brother" to "La Traviata." They had box seats, but no, Gus had to sit in the gallery. When asked for a statement on the opera, all he had to say was, "If that's what it takes to be a gentleman, then I'll go back to the farm". . . . Also seen there was "Roughhouse" McLemore whose comment was entirely too highbrow for this column. . . . Billy Smith escorted his O. and O., and for him the opera wasn't good enough—he had to send her orchids, too!!!

UNCLE BILL'S CABIN

Mary Nell's surprise visit home inspired another one of those "Cabin parties". . . . Sheats just can't seem to think of the word "date" without parallel thoughts of Cecile Luton. . . . Cameron brought his latest—Birmingham, who in the "Whom Do You Love?" game exposed her true feelings which had nothing to do with Cameron. . . . Rose Lynn must be losing her grip, for Dick Jones preferred Leavell's company for this party as well as for the Pan.

AROUND AND ABOUT

Having a blonde high school heart-throb in Memphis isn't enough for Leonard, he had to make a trip home over the week-end to prove that Mott isn't the only one. . . . It might be added that Longinotti has a "femme" reason for all of his trips home. . . . Don't know whether we have a new track manager or a new track star, but Ki is definitely "track" minded. Turner now has an audience for every "lap" he takes.

New Play On March 16-17

"The Drunkard or the Fallen Saved" May Be Staged in Gym

The next production of the Southwestern Players, "The Drunkard or the Fallen Saved", will be presented on March 16-17. According to present plans, it will be staged in the gym.

Try-outs for the 16 parts of this play will be held in Hardie Auditorium next Monday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30, Prof. C. P. Lee announced. A stage manager, prompter, and two electricians are also needed for the production.

The Players will also present a one-act play at Evergreen Presbyterian Church on March 1.

Disillusionment: An official bulletin of the San Jose College ranks Love as one of the ten commonest causes for students flunking their examinations. And we thought it was an inspiration.—ACP.

What—The Epic??

McKay Boswell, looking over the green sheet of possible mid-term subjects, remarked: "I don't think I'll take that 'Epic of Romance', it sounds boring."

Slight Mistake: Charles Lee's history instructions were to write briefly on Catalonia. He wrote quite fully on the subject which surprised Dr. Cooper, especially since his paper discussed the popularity of Jan Garber at Catalina Island.

Pure Humor: We caught someone wishing Thomas McLemore the "best of luck ole boy" as he entered an exam room.

Enigma: Eldridge Armistead executed his exit from Senior Bible exam saying, "I either make an A or an F." When accosted for a press statement, his remark was: "I have nothing further to say".

Greetings to Alumni

Greetings to all our alumni from Southwestern and your alumni secretary! With the new year comes a new and intensive effort on our part to contact every one of our alumni in order to check and correct our files, and in order to keep you in active touch with Southwestern. This first issue of Alumni News is through necessity not as complete as we should like it to be, since the class correspondents have not been active during the current year. We are using this method of seeking their help for further issues, which will appear in the Sou'wester the first week of each month.

Also, we want to notify all our alumni that in the near future you will receive a blank form asking for up-to-date information about yourselves. It is of utmost importance that you fill out this blank and return it to this office immediately. Constant inquiries come to us from your classmates, friends, and business concerns seeking information about you. If we do not have this information, we are at a loss to help them.

If any of our alumni have news to report, please mail it to the Alumni Secretary, Southwestern, Memphis.

Reunions

The Southwestern Alumnae Association of Memphis held a very attractive luncheon at the Peabody during the holidays, complimenting the alumnae visitors from out of town, and affording an opportunity for all old friends to get together. It was held in the Louis XIV room which was appropriately decorated. Mrs. Gray Williams was in charge of the event, and assisting her was Mrs. Francis Howard, president of the organization. Miss Julia Marie Schwinn was in charge of the program presented during the luncheon. Alumnae representatives of the five sororities on the Southwestern campus assisted the hostess. They were: Mrs. Nathan Carter from Zeta Tau Alpha, Miss Mollie McCord from Tri-Delta, Mrs. Brandon Lemmon from Chi Omega, Mrs. L. L. Carter from Kappa Delta, and Mrs. Alvin Tripp from Alpha Omicron Pi.

Three attractive Southwestern alumnae held their own unofficial reunion and homecoming last November—unofficial but very effective. For two of them it was their first visit in Memphis since their weddings. Mrs. Fayette Dunlap Elliott, of Lancaster, Ky., the former Martha (Tuddy) West, '30-'32, was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Waddy West; Mrs. J. G. Mack, of Monticello, Ark., the former Margaret Clay Faulhaber, '32-'34, A. O. Pi, was visiting her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Thane Smith, at Germantown; and Miss Ione Adams, of Shreveport, La., '35, was the guest of Mrs. Francis Murphey, the former Roder Trigg, '30-'32, A. O. Pi. Others of their immediate circle of friends during their college years together joined in the reunion, and every day was filled with interesting entertainments.

HE SEES WHO BUYS WHAT TOBACCO

Like so many other independent experts, Bill Whitley, Tobacco Auctioneer of Henderson, N. C., smokes Luckies

WILLIAM D. (BILL) WHITLEY sold over 15 million pounds of tobacco last year. It's easy to see that he's an expert who knows tobacco.

So it's important to you when he says... "At 14 different markets in Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky, I've seen Luckies buy the best tobacco. I figure it's good tobacco that makes a good smoke. So my own cigarette is Lucky Strike!"

"I've noticed, too, that independent buyers, not connected with any cigarette manufacturer, smoke Luckies more than any other brand."

Mr. Whitley is correct. For sworn records show that, among independent tobacco experts, Luckies have twice as many exclusive smokers as have all other cigarettes put together. Remember: The men who know tobacco best smoke Luckies 2 to 1.

HAVE YOU HEARD "THE CHANT OF THE TOBACCO AUCTIONEER" ON THE RADIO?

When you do, remember that Luckies use the finest tobacco. And also that the "Toasting" process removes certain harsh irritants found in all tobacco. So Luckies are kind to your throat.

Cagers Prepare To Settle Past Defeats Tonight

Lynx To Meet Millsaps And Ole Miss This Week

LYNX BEAT SEWANEE

Smith and Neal To Play As Centers Of Attack

By THOMAS PAPPAS
Playing four games this week, the Lynx resumed basketball warfare. This is "revenge week" for the cagers and old scores are in order to be settled.

Last Wednesday night Southwestern engaged the Fant and Anderson combine at the Y. M. C. A. gym in their second inter-city contest.

The feature game was played last night in the Southwestern gym with Millsaps College. Early in the season the Hug-men were defeated handily by the Majors and were out to balance matters. Harry Newsome, elongated center, was the object of Lynx defensive efforts.

Tonight in Oxford, Miss., Southwestern has another early season reverse to settle, this time with the Ole Miss cagers. The Red and Black will have to be hustling to turn back their strong Southeastern Conference rivals.

In the week's last game the Lynx encounter the Delta State Teachers tomorrow night at Cleveland, Miss. Led by Ricks, one-handed shot artist, the Teachers will afford stiff opposition.

Pre-Exam Resume
Before grabbing pens and blue books Southwestern's red and black jersied basketekers took two cracks at Southeastern Conference competition and fought a bitter inter-city rival.

In a "fans delight" the Lynx scored six points in the final 45 seconds of play to overtake the Sewanee Tigers 35-34 at Sewanee on Jan. 22.

On Jan. 29 Hug's charges bumped into a stone wall in the Ole Miss basketball team and fell back 49-32 before 500 fans at the Gaston Community Center.

Levon Self and Virgil Cox managed to hold Country Graham, main Ole Miss offensive threat, down to eight points, but Jesse Ward, another flash, broke loose. Ward slipped in behind the Lynx defense, took accurate passes and turned in 19 points for the night's work. Gaylon Smith's sharp-shooting kept the Lynx fans goggle-eyed and the score close until he fouled out with the second half one minute old.

Excessive fouling by the first stringers made it necessary to call in the reserves. Their presence started the Lynx on a field-goal famine. The feature of the game came in the first half with the football "greats", Bruiser Kinard and Smith, matching cage skill. Gaylon showed the Bruiser a few tricks of the trade and came off with first honors in the "mountain of muscle" tussle. Self gave another consistent performance along with the defensive work of Capt. Neal and Cox. Garrison showed up well, particularly in the latter stage of the game.

Highly favored to win the city varsity basketball championship, the Lynx were upset in the opening game of the round robin series by the Coca-Cola Bottlers 41-40 on January 26. The story of the game in one word—under-par. Billy Hughes, former Southwestern cage captain, held Smith to six points, leaving high scoring honors to Cox with 16 points. The Bottler offense flurried late in the game to bring victory.

The bridge tournament is now in the finals.

By WADDY WEST
WEAKNESS—Southwestern continually comes forward with exceptionally strong first-string athletic teams but is forever weak in reserve power. And it is through the reserves that the Lynx are found vulnerable. Current evidence: the Lynx basketball team. The first-string quintet is a championship team but the reserves are made up of men who have had little experience on the hardwood court and some who never even played basketball before. The curse of Southwestern in all athletic activities seems to be lack of capable reserves.

LOSS—At the rate Southwestern is losing frosh footballers there won't be any left by the time the football season rolls around. Recent losses include Eugene Massey, Adrian Vernon, and Dodd Thompson. Massey withdrew from school because of the death of his father. Thompson withdrew because he was dissatisfied with the set-up here. Vernon skidded on the scholastic slide, and slipped right out of school.

ANNOUNCEMENT—Frank Morgan wishes this column to announce he will be an All-Dixie Conference guard this fall. It seems Frank has grown tired of others hogging the glory (and the gals?) and he intends to do something about it. He wants to make a name for himself, like that other Frank Morgan who sometimes appears in the films.

TENNIS DEVOTEES, NOTE!
All candidates for the 1938 Lynx tennis team are strongly urged by Prof. P. N. Rhodes to get out on the courts and limber up in the next few weeks. The call for racketeers will be issued as soon as the weather permits.

The first match for the Lynx will be a set-to with the University of Mississippi on March 28.

New Tournament For Intramurals

Pi. K. A. Defaults In Opener Of Basketball Tournament To Kappa Sigma Five

With those surprising Kappa Alphas still leading the race for the intramural cup, the program for the second semester got under way Wednesday afternoon with the Kappa Sigmas winning by default over the Pi Kappa Alphas in the first game of the elimination basketball tournament. In this tournament, the Non-Frat team is an odds-on-favorite to continue its undefeated record established in the round-robin. However, should Blakemore and his boys fall by the wayside, either the Sigma Nus or Kappa Sigmas are ready to wear the victory laurels.

As regards the intramural standings for the year, the Kappa Alphas still have a substantial lead over the second-place Sigma Alpha Epsilons. However, the race is still wide open, with nine tournaments scheduled for this semester. Indications point to a photo-finish among the Kappa Alphas, Sigma Alpha Epsilons, Non-Frats, and Kappa Sigmas, with the law of averages lending assistance to the sons of Minerva. (I ought to get a raise for this.)

Van Downie, Kappa Alpha flash, broke loose against the Pi Kappa Alphas in the last game of the round-robin basketball tournament and scored 40 points to carry off high scoring honors with a total of 73 points. He thus wins a gold plated medicine ball and our nomination for captain of the all-star ring-around-the-rosey team. Other high scores were:

Bill Porter—Non-Frat.....53 points
Geo. Blakemore—Non-Frat.....47 points
W. C. Rowan—Kappa Sigma.....36 points

Bobcat Quintet Still Undefeated

Freshmen Beat Jewish All-Stars; Play Teachers Freshmen On Feb. 15

Undefeated Bobcats they are, they are. In five starts the opposition has been mowed down without a great deal of difficulty.

The road will be more bumpy for the remaining games, as the Southwestern yearlings must fill three first team gaps appearing on the scene with the second semester. Eugene Massey, the squad's smoothest passer, was forced to withdraw from school, following the death of his father. It is probable that Harold Jones, the hero of the Teachers game, will fill his position. The other two vacancies were made when Adrian Vernon six foot four center, and Red Thompson, forward, failed to meet the school's scholastic requirements.

Warming up to the return engagement with their city rivals, the Teachers College frosh, the Highmen swept to victory Tuesday night with a 44-35 triumph over the Jewish All-Stars. Again the pride of Rives, Tenn., George Blakemore, led the scoring parade, depositing 18 points in the wicket mostly from shots within the foul line area. Coach High commented that "the boys hit their season's high Tuesday night. We are out to trounce the Teachers more decisively when we meet them in the Southwestern gym February 15. Of course, we'll have our hands full this week. We meet the Northwest Mississippi Junior College Wednesday night and the strong East End Church crew Thursday night."

The starters in both games will be Tony Canzoneri and Icky Orenstein as forwards. Both are grade A ball players and know their way around a

Boxing Classes To Begin

Coach Hug to Instruct Boys in Art of Boxing and Wrestling

Classes in boxing and wrestling will be conducted by Coach Paul Hug beginning Monday. All classes begin at four o'clock in the afternoon. Boxing will occupy the candidates' time on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. Wrestling holds the limelight on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday. All men students are invited.

The primary purpose of the classes is to instruct men students in the two sports and get them in condition for the intramural tournaments. The boxing tournament begins March 7, and the wrestling meleé March 14.

Tigers Think Smith Another Kite Morton; Passes To Sink Goals

Reports—rumors if you like—from the Sewanee game state that Gaylon Smith, one of the South's better half-backs, recalled some of his pigskin wizardry to ice the game for the Lynx. Dribbling the ball up the floor he suddenly caught sight of the black center line and had visions of the 50 yard stripe. He faded back to pass and let fly for the goal. Fired with Morton-like accuracy the goal "pulled a Hammond" and intercepted the pass for a two-pointer. A few seconds later the old Alma Mater needed another couple of points. Again Smith toed the center line, cocked one eye at the clock and his arm behind his head. Another perfect spiral zipped through the hoop to win the game.
