Faculty Changes Exam Procedure To Insure Quiet

Students Must Take Exams In Assigned Rooms

THREE HOUR LIMIT

Change Purports To Make Students Concentrate

All examinations must be taken in the assigned room and must be finished after three hours, according to changes in examination procedure approved by the faculty of Southwestern at its meeting Jan. 13.

"These changes have nothing to do with the Honor System," said Prof. Amacker, chairman of the committee.

"The changes," he said, "are adopted to institute a more orderly system with greater concentration on the part of the student. They should reduce to a minimum the noise, confusion, and disorder of students wandering in and out of examination rooms."

Three Hour Limit

Under the new regulations examinations in all regular courses must be finished in the stipulated three hours. This change, it is believed, will discourage frequent or long absences from examination rooms, and both student and professor will profit by the time saved.

"Quiet" signs will be placed in the halls during the examination period to remind students that their cooperation is expected in eliminating unnecessary noise. Examinations must also be taken in the assigned room, and not, if the student so wished, in the library or some other place, as was formerly permitted.

Only As Scheduled

Examinations may be taken only at the time regularly scheduled by the registrar or at the re-examination period unless permission is secured by the instructor from the administrative committee for another hour. This will eliminate the inconvenience to the professor of making up examination questions at irregular periods for students who have missed examinations.

Under the new system the registrar will assign the larger classes to the lecture rooms in Science Hall or elsewhere. This, according to Prof. Amacker, will prevent a student's being disturbed in crowded class rooms.

The rooms in which nine of the exams will be given have been changed. Bible 51-B, under Prof. Liston; Economics 3-B, under Prof. Hon, and English 1-C, under Prof. Wolf, will be given in Room 102. Physics 23, under Prof. Rhodes, will be given in Room 104s. Sociology 1, under Prof. M. H. Townsend, and Economics 21, under Prof. Hon, will be given in Room 105s. Philosophy 1, under Prof. Kelso, and History 21, under Prof. Cooper, will be given in Room 101s. Prof. Kelso's Contemporary Civilization 1 exam will be given in Room 104.

Bible Class Plans Topic Each Month

Sam Patterson, Class President, Appoints New Committee To Fix Program

The Men's Bible Class will inaugurate a new policy at the beginning of next semester. According to Sam Patterson, president, a topic for each month will be chosen. Two speakers will be asked to give talks on the topic. Each speaker will talk twice, alternating each week. A program committee consisting of Allen Craft, Charles Orto, John Woolsey, and Billy Kelly will have complete charge.

The topic for the month of February will be "Foreign Relations in View of What Christ Would Do". The two speakers for the month will be Prof. A. P. Kelso and Prof. David M. Amacker.

An attendance committee, composed of Harry Phelan, John McGrady, Neal Williams, and John Slaughter, has been appointed to improve attendance at the meetings held each Sunday at 6:30 o'clock in the music building.

Best Dressed Co-ed Spends $240 a Year

San Francisco, Cal.—(ACP)—The 6,000 coeds of the University of California blushed collectively and tried to keep the news from their dads when Jean Scott Berg, voted recently one of the five best dressed girls on the campus, revealed she spends but $240 a year on clothes.

She admitted, though, that she sacrificed quantity to quality and wore some of her clothes at least three years. She makes some of her own clothes, too—all of her wash dresses, occasionally hats, suits and even formals. She takes care of them herself, altering them when they need it. And she sticks to a definite color scheme, black for date dresses and formals, dubonnet with blues and pinks for campus and street wear.

K.D.'s at Northwestern Are Low In Telepathy

The Kappa Delta's at Northwestern are gray with worry over their telepathy marks. Taking part in the Zenith Foundation mental telepathy broadcast, the K. D.'s scored lower than the figure set for pure chance guesses. In contrast Alpha Omicron Pi headed the first twelve houses with a score of 4.4, 5 being perfect.

Seven men and two women succeeded in getting all the broadcasted telepathic message correct. The radio audience sends in its impressions, and statistics are compiled by the Zenith Radio Corporation. The program is broadcasted every Sunday night at 9 o'clock over the Columbia network.

PROSPECT OF REGULATED DANCES AROUSES PROTEST FROM CAMPUS

Protest of the Student Council's recently adopted plan for a Commission to Regulate Conduct at Dances whirled over the campus Monday and Tuesday. The council, previously unaware that its action would become the burning issue that it did, met Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in an effort to modify the commission sufficiently to satisfy objections.

With interest running high Tuesday, a debate between Herbert Bingham, who upheld the plan, and Henry Mobley, who came to be one of its severest critics, was scheduled by The Sou'wester for Wednesday morning's student assembly. When Clark McDonald, president of the Student Council, and Prof. A. T. Johnson, dean of the college, believed that it would be better for the council to meet again in an effort to compromise, the contestants agreed for the debate to be called off so that the council might reconsider.

The commission, which in the original plan was to have the power to regulate conduct at all Southwestern dances except the Founders' Day Banquets of fraternities and sororities, consists of Eldridge Armistead, Lewis Donelson, James Breyspraak, George Jennings, Fred Dickson, Herbert Bingham, Charles Blackburn, Sam Hill, George Griesbeck, and Chester Carden.

At least five of these men, according to the constitution approved at the council meeting Jan. 12, could be present at every student dance, private fraternity parties included. They were to have full responsibility for, and authority to stop any drunkenness or other disorderly conduct.

Most of the objections were raised on the issue of whether or not commission members should come to private fraternity parties. At their meetings Monday night, many fraternity members expressed their distaste for this provision and one, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, passed a resolution of protest.

A modification to allow private fraternity parties to escape regulation by the commission was winning favor Wednesday night after McDonald announced that Dean Johnson had intimated that the faculty would approve the new compromise so long as all dances in the gymnasium were included under the authority of the commission. The faculty, who suggested the plan to the Student Council when that group was urging more campus dances, must pass on whatever plan is adopted by the council before it goes into effect.

Marion Keisker To Star In Play

Southwestern Senior Heads Cast Of "The Dangerous Corner" At Little Theatre

Marion Keisker, Southwestern senior, will play the leading role in the forthcoming Little Theatre play, "The Dangerous Corner." This is the first time this season that Miss Keisker has appeared in a Little Theatre production, though in the past she has handled important roles in several shows, including "Front Page," "Night of January 16th," and "Yellow Jack."

"The Dangerous Corner" is a sophisticated drama by J. B. Priestly and is a clever treatment of a popular dramatic theme, how the course of events may be changed by a trivial incident. It is said to be an interesting and entertaining show, full of suspense. That it is worth seeing is apparent from the fact that "The Dangerous Corner" had a long run on Broadway in the midst of the depression.

Others in the cast besides Miss Keisker are Hazel Howard (Southwestern alumna, '32), Virginia Talley, Sammie Hill, Douglass Averitt, Ed Mitchell, and Kingsley Hooker. It is being directed by Eugart Yerian.

The show will run Jan. 31-Feb. 4. Tickets will be on sale next week at the Three Musketeers Bookshop, Hotel Peabody.

Spanish Club Has Meeting

Herbert Harper is Guest Speaker—Talks on Spain Today

"Spain Today", a lecture by Herbert Harper, Memphis attorney and professional lecturer, was presented under the auspices of the Spanish Club at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in Hardie Auditorium. Mr. Harper's speech dealt especially with the present revolution in Spain.

Before the lecture, Doris Cullings sang several Spanish songs. Majorie DeVall and Sam Mays danced the "Jarabe Tapatio", the national "charro y china poblano" dance of Mexico in native costumes.

Choir Learns Folk Songs

Elizabethan Madrigals Also Being Practiced For Tour

The Southwestern Singers, directed by Prof. Burnet C. Tutthill, have begun work on several Arkansas folk songs, including "The Weak and Rambling One" and "Rosemary and Thyme", collected and arranged by Laurence Powell, in preparation for the proposed trips which will be made in the spring.

"Sing We and Chant It" by Thomas Morley (1558-1603) and "In the Merry Spring" by Thomas Ravenscroft (1592-1635), two Elizabethan madrigals which will also be included in the repertoire, are progressing.

Birthday in March? You Will Live Longer

Chicago, Ill.—(ACP)—Research by Prof. Ellsworth Huntington, research associate in geography at Yale University, made known at the University of Chicago, convinced him children born in March or late February in the U. S. have the best chance of achieving intellectual distinction.

His data indicated persons born in March in the United States, and in countries of similar temperature, live 3 8/10 years longer than those born in July, August or September.

Births of several types of weak or defective people showed a seasonal relationship very like that of eminent people. Both facts indicate increased vigor in parents at the time of conception—June—according to Prof. Huntington.

Atomic Theory Upset; Electrons Do Vary

Indianapolis, Ind.—(ACP)—Findings that upset the atomic theory of matter were recently sent from Washington University of St. Louis to the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Scientists at the university believe that instead of one kind of electron, there are hundreds.

The electron, a bit of negative electricity, has been considered the smallest building block of matter, a foundation stone for all matter. If the St. Louis discovery is verified by other scientists it means the foundations of matter as now known are upset, that even at the very bottom, matter stands on a structure as complicated as the Tower of Babel.

The new evidence is some photographs taken showing that electrons apparently range in weight from the ordinary kind, all the way up to that of protons, which are heavy positive charges of electricity.

Student Body
Shows It Is Alive

The widespread interest which manifested itself over the campus on the subject of the dance regulation was a healthy sign. Most students felt, and rightly so, that when Southwestern dances are as well-mannered and sober affairs as they are it is little short of insult to impose on them a special commission to enforce good conduct.

The idea of the commission, as every one knows now, grew out of the desire of the Student Council to hold more dances in the gymnasium when it is remodeled. The faculty was willing to grant this permission on the condition that a new and careful system for maintaining good conduct be instituted; and the constitution of the commission was an effort to satisfy this condition.

We are sure that a successful compromise, which will not insult a student body of ladies and gentlemen, can be reached; and we repeat that interest in a matter of this kind is a wholesome sign.

On Errors
In The Sou'wester

At the first of the year The Sou'wester announced that its principal aim would be accuracy. This we have striven to maintain and our reporters are still made to kneel daily to the god of sureness.

But in spite of it all, errors are being made. This is brought to our attention weekly and we have never run across a suitable alibi until we read an article the other day in which some chap had worked it out that in one column of print there were 70,000 chances for mistakes. You see, there are 10,000 letters of type in one newspaper column and there are seven wrong positions in which a letter can be set.

Nor is this all, for there are millions of opportunities for transposition. In the short sentence, "to be or not to be," by transposition alone, it is possible to err in 2,758,009 ways.

So keep this in mind when you are ready to growl about a "stupid mistake in The Sou'wester."

Comedy Of Cadet
Life, "Brother Rat,"
Plays Here Jan. 28-29

Written by two graduates of Virginia Military Institute and produced and directed by George Abbott, "Brother Rat", the comedy of cadet life at V. M. I., will make its Memphis opening at the Auditorium Jan. 28-29 for two night performances and a Saturday matinee with the cast which performed at the Biltmore Theatre in New York for the first year of the play's run.

"Rat" is the term applied to freshmen at V. M. I. who are known to one another as "Brother Rats". The incidents and events in the comedy are exaggerated versions of things that happened to the authors, John Monks, Jr., and Fred Finklehoffe during their four years at V. M. I., known as "The West Point of the South".

Prof. Amacker Is Elected

First President of Memphis Group of Peace Council

Prof. D. M. Amacker of the political science department, was installed Monday as the first president of the Memphis Peace Action Council, succeeding Dr. Josiah Sibley who was acting president.

The purpose of the council is to act as a "clearing house" for the views of Memphis organizations and civic groups on war and peace.

Prof. Amacker began his study of peace at the close of the World War, when he was assigned with several others to the American peace delegation in Paris. Through his duties in translating the proceedings of several foreign committees, he became acquainted with the inside workings of European politics.

COMMISSIONER PICARD SAYS
GOVERNMENT A FINE CAREER

(Ed. Note: This is the second in a series of vocational interviews with representative citizens of Memphis.)

By ROTHROCK MILLER

"Government presents more openings for ambitious young men than any other field today," said Ralph Picard, City Commissioner of Public Utilities, Grounds, and Buildings, when interviewed last Friday. The new housing projects, the airport, the harbor, the park commission, and numerous other public activities are included in his department.

When the words "politics" or "government" are brought up, one immediately thinks of legislative bodies. These, however, form only a small part of our complex system of government. Engineers, economists, architects, and executives are needed as well as lawyers and statesmen. According to Mr. Picard there are unlimited possibilities for housing experts and those well trained in labor relations.

"Every day the government is taking over more and more, because the public wants its utilities managed cheaply and efficiently, and the students of today must do this," said Mr. Picard.

In answer to the question, "What is the best training for government work?" Mr. Picard said that economics probably covered a wider field, but that a course in engineering or housing would fit the young man for an endless variety of positions.

Mr. Picard emphasized, above all, the necessity for study.

"When you go to the highest men in various fields today," he said, "you will find that they learned their business from a book. Cossitt Library has books on every occupation from plumbing to architecture."

Government is public relations and management of public property. The public puts faith in its workers, and expects them to keep this faith. No man will remain in government work who breaks this trust.

Mr. Picard said that he would be glad to talk with anyone who is interested in this work.

New Engineering Training

Carnegie Institute Plan Offers Westinghouse Co. Job

Pittsburgh, Pa.—(ACP)—A cooperative educational enterprise which will link a great industry with a first-rank American college is being launched in Pittsburgh.

The enterprise, a new program of undergraduate engineering training—is to be carried out by the Carnegie Institute of Technology and the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company. To make this project possible the Westinghouse Company has appropriated $200,000 to the college.

The new program which will go into effect at the beginning of the next school year, will make it possible for a number of students with superior qualifications to take the usual technical courses for a degree and, during the same period, obtain extensive experience and training in the Westinghouse plant.

The study program will cover five years, of which four will be spent at Carnegie. The summer months and two college semesters, one in the third and one in the fourth year, will be spent at the Westinghouse plant. Of the students selected for the course, those designated as Westinghouse scholars will receive an income of $50 per month during the five year training period from the company.

We've heard that Sasser's absence evidently made Freddie's heart grow fonder—for somebody else, for she gave him his walking papers. Is it that good-looking Knoxville boy, Freddie?

It looks like Jane Harsh is giving Leavell competition in the Spence direction. . . . Billy Smith claims that he is really "in love" this time, but we have our doubts since we've heard the cry of "Wolf" so much. . . . Why does Fred Gage turn crimson when asked where he was on a certain afternoon between 4:30 and 5:00 o'clock?

Ethel Merrin was brought out last Friday by S. T. A. B. intersorority. She is a freshette from Memphis and president of the Alpha Omicron Pi pledge group.

HE SELLS TOBACCO TO THEM ALL

But Branch Bobbitt, like so many other independent experts, prefers Luckies . . .

"AT AUCTIONS in my warehouse in Farmville, North Carolina," says Mr. Branch Bobbitt, "the higher the tobacco sells for, the better my profits. So I'm always glad to see Lucky Strike buyers in there bidding. They know what they want and they'll keep bidding right up until they get it."

"Well—in a cigarette—it's the tobacco that counts. I know tobacco and I know what tobacco is in what cigarettes. So that's one reason I've smoked Luckies for 5 or 6 years."

Mr. Bobbitt represents the "aristocracy" of tobacco experts. He judges the tobacco that the growers grow. He's impartial, not connected with any cigarette manufacturer.

Many other experts agree with Mr. Bobbitt. Sworn records show that, among independent tobacco experts, Luckies have twice as many exclusive smokers as have all the other cigarettes combined.

Lynx Defeated 43-33 By Majors Ending Road Trip

Cagemen Lose 3 Games As Reserves Fail

GAYLON SMITH STARS

Team Will Play Sewanee Saturday Night

Taking it on the chin in three out of the four engagements on the road, the Lynx veteran-studded basketball combine returned home Wednesday afternoon. With only two days' rest, the team journeys to Sewanee, Tenn., tomorrow for a game with the Tigers.

The Lynx proved to be an attraction, drawing large crowds everywhere they played. In Jacksonville, Ala., the Lynx failed to rally and fell before the Teachers, 41-37. Plunkett and Caldwell, six foot seven inch center, shared honors with Smith, the Lynx ace. The Howard game was postponed until a later date following the death of a faculty member. With Smith and Red Garrison contributing 11 and 10 points respectively, the Lynx halted a Birmingham-Southern rally to win out 35-33 in Birmingham, Ala., last Saturday night. On Monday night the Lynx fell before the Mississippi College Chocotaws, Dixie Conference champions, 42-29. Playing their best game before the largest crowd the Lynx dropped a 43-33 decision to the Millsaps Majors in Jackson, Miss., Tuesday night.

Millsaps Strong

The Majors, recent conquerors of Tulane and Loyola, were a superior team. The Mississippi College team came up from Clinton, Miss., to give the Lynx sideline support.

The Lynx were severely handicapped by inadequate reserve strength and lack of height. In all four games the Lynx saw their lead dwindle as the five starters tired or were forced to the sidelines for excessive fouling. With Levon Self, Southwestern's only six footer in the opening lineup, the Hugmen were forced to match goals with teams boasting several towering six-footers.

Gaylon Smith, Southwestern's number one athlete, captured the fancy of the crowd with his spectacular and efficient play. In the four games Smith averaged fifteen points and bagged 61 of the team's 134 markers. When asked for a statement Gaylon remarked, "We met some mighty fast teams and excellent players. This boy Hegwood of Millsaps, gave one of the best performances, and Plunkett, of the Jacksonville Teachers, was the best shot. We understand Howard has a fast team and hope to be able to take them when we meet them later in the season. Judging by the teams we played on the trip the Dixie Conference tournament should be fast and furious."

Plan Bigger Crowds

Efforts are being made to have larger attendance at the Lynx home games. Members of the Thousand Club will be given free tickets to the Delta State Teachers game in the Southwestern gym on Jan. 27 to arouse interest in the game.

Summarizing the four games, the Lynx mustered 134 points to 158 tallies for their opponents. Virgil Cox,

NON-FRATERNITY BASKETBALL TEAM WINS INTRAMURAL RACE

Showing clear superiority in every department of the game, the Non-fraternity basketball team, with George Blakemore, Bill Porter, Leonard Ellis, Wyatt Hurst, and Norman Shapiro starring, won the intramural championship and finished their schedule without a defeat in conquering a strong Sigma Nu quintet Tuesday night by a score of 26 to 13 and winning over the Kappa Alphas Wednesday afternoon to the tune of 31 to 24.

Sigma Nu, led by Justus Edrington and Earl Johnson, meets Kappa Sigma, featuring those fast forwards, Johnny Edwards and W. C. Rowan, today at 1:30 to decide the winner of second place in the tournament.

Sigma Nu eked out a victory over Sigma Alpha Epsilon in the most exciting game of the past week. This game, played last Friday, ended with the score 22 to 21 as Art Pople, of the losers, missed a free throw in the last thirty seconds.

Bill Porter and George Blakemore of the Non-frats have practically cinched high scoring honors with totals of 53 and 50 points, respectively. Other high scorers are: Van Downie, Kappa Alpha—40; Earl Johnson, Sigma Nu—33; John Edwards, Kappa stellar Lynx guard, was ejected in three of these games by the personal foul ruling. Committing only three fouls, Captain Neal gave his usual outstanding performance. Garrison, one of the most consistent cagers, was held pointless in the Millsaps game. Self held up his share in the offensive efforts of the team and collected 23 points.

KUBALE HERE JAN. 31

Coach Ed Kubale will come to Memphis on Jan. 31, to meet Southwestern officials. He was originally scheduled to arrive Jan. 24 but postponed his visit for another week.

WOMEN PLAY BASKETBALL

The women have discarded all other sports in favor of basketball these last few weeks before intramurals. Practice is scheduled for three afternoons a week until after examinations. All teams are warned that eight practices are necessary before a member is eligible.

Sidelines

By THOMAS PAPPAS

AGREEMENT—This column agrees with Mr. David Bloom of the Commercial Appeal in his criticism of the 1938 Southwestern football schedule. The Lynx have scheduled only four Dixie Conference foes for this fall. Rules say no team may claim the championship without the team playing at least five conference members. Mr. Bloom asks: Why belong to a conference unless you try for the championship? And this column echoes his question, Why?

LOSS—Coach Ed Kubale loses two fine varsity men even before he takes over the reins. Fred Croom, first-string tackle, and "Humko" Lamb, reserve guard, have withdrawn from school. Croom teamed with Oney Ellis last fall to give Southwestern two of the best tackles in the Dixie Conference. "Humko" was given little chance to show his wares during the season just ended but was counted on to aid the Lynx materially this year. Both men will be sorely missed.

ADDITIONAL LOSS—Tom Withers, Lewis Hayden and Barret Sellers, freshmen, also have withdrawn. With J. C. Dixon and A. J. Sanford, these three make a total of five freshmen who will be missing when Kubale sounds the call for spring training.

Coaches Schedule 9 Football Games

Next Year's Opponents Include Murray State, Centenary, Mississippi State

Southwestern's 1938 football schedule is practically complete. Nine games have been scheduled but only four are with Dixie Conference foes. Arkansas State, Vanderbilt, Howard, Centre, and Hendrix were dropped and Sewanee, Centenary, Murray State and Mississippi State added.

The Lynx open the season against the Union University Bulldogs in Jackson, Tenn. The following week the Cats meet Sewanee in Memphis and then tangle with the Centenary Gentlemen also in Memphis.

On the heels of the Centenary game, the Lynx take a short road trip and meet Chattanooga University in the Lookout City and Loyola in New Orleans on successive week-ends.

Games with Murray away and with Birmingham-Southern and Mississippi State here end the season.

Bobcats Meet Teachers

Frosh Quintets Tangle Tonight On State Teachers Campus

Southwestern's frosh basketball team meets the State Teachers College freshmen tonight in Memorial gym at 7:30 o'clock.

The game is a continuance of the effort begun last fall to re-establish athletic relations between the two schools. The Bobcats trounced the Tiger Cubs 7 to 0 on the gridiron in November to resume intercollegiate activities after a lapse of 10 years.

George Blakemore, that "can't miss" boy from Union City, will open at one of the forwards for the Bobcats and Icky Orenstein will play the other. Lanky Adrian Vernon will start at center, and Tony Canzoneri and Eugene Massey will handle the guard slots.

This frosh game precedes the clash of the two varsity squads scheduled for Feb. 14.

Women's basketball practice has begun and the first game will be played off near the middle of February.
