Lynx Will Meet Millsaps Majors Tomorrow Night

Fairgrounds Again Will Be Scene of Game

LAST BEFORE VANDY

Red and Black Ready To Go Despite Lime Burns

By THOMAS PAPPAS

With one more hill to climb before they come to the mountain (Vanderbilt), Southwestern's Lynx meet that hill in the Millsaps Majors who come to town to do battle at Fairgrounds Stadium tomorrow night at 8 p.m. Two hills already have the Cats mounted, Arkansas State and Union, and though the hill Millsaps may be rockier it should not be too steep a grade.

Because of lime burns suffered by several Lynx players in the Union game, Southwestern will display a revamped lineup against the Majors. Levon Self, varsity center, was so badly burned he has been out of uniform all week. Harry Morris and George Humphrey will handle the snapper-back duties. At guard, Dick Parker, another of those burned, will see little action.

Ed French will have his hands full at the blocking post since "Floozy" Littlefield's burns are worse than first thought and Arnold Hebert has been ill several days. French may get some help from Captain George Jennings and Gaylon Smith, both of whom have been used at fullback this week.

Ends Stronger

College Offers Evening Courses

Public Speaking, Accounting, English, German Will Be Given For Adults

Special night classes in public speaking, accounting, English and German will be offered at Southwestern, beginning October 5, in response to an increasing demand by working men and women. If the plan is successful, additional courses will be given at a later date.

Prof. C. P. Lee opened the class in public speaking last year with an enrollment of 10 and when it grew to 40 was forced to divide it into two sections. Prof. Lee will also teach the class in English literature this year.

A class in accounting will be held by Prof. W. Ross Junkin, and Prof. Alexander Boeker will teach German.

Classes will meet for 1½ hours each week on the night most convenient for the members. The first public speaking class will begin at 7:30 o'clock on October 5. College credit of three hours per course will be given for the year's study.

The regular special student fee of fifteen dollars per course per semester will be charged in the new classes.

Registration for the courses will be taken on Monday between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. and 7:00 and 8:00 p.m.

S. T. A. B. ELECTS BARNARD PRESIDENT

Bess Brazell and Nell Thompson Are Other Officers

Rose Lynn Barnard was elected president of S.T.A.B. inter-sorority at a meeting held last week. Bess Brazell was chosen vice-president and Nell Thompson secretary-treasurer.

The organization is a social group composed of thirteen girls, twelve brunettes and one blonde, who are chosen from the various sororities. Betty Wells is the blonde in the group. Other members are Helen Young, Ila Joy Lenti, Lillian Love, and Sally Harding.

Five girls will be brought out during the year to complete the membership of thirteen. Each Friday the members wear white with the red badge of S. T. A. B. at their waists.

WHO'S WHO

In order that everyone in the student body may have a thorough knowledge of who fills what office on the campus, the Sou'wester presents on page two a fairly complete resume of last spring's elections. From the length of the list, you may decide that a "Who's Not Who" would have been easier but once we got started we just couldn't leave anyone out.

Freshmen Swell Fall Enrollment

197 New Students Help To Set College Record Of 518; Increase Of 30

The fall semester at Southwestern opened with a total enrollment of 518 students, showing an increase of 30 over the 488 enrolled for the first semester of 1936-37. The increase came largely from town students, the dormitory enrollment remaining practically stationary because of limited space for accommodation.

Eighteen states besides Tennessee and one foreign country are represented in the student body. The largest number of students, 385, are residents of Tennessee, with the 40 Mississippians standing second in state enrollment. Arkansas and Alabama tie for third place, with 30 each. There are seven students from Missouri, six from Louisiana, and three from Illinois.

Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, and Texas are each represented by two students, and there is one each from Connecticut, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, West Virginia, and Hawaii.

The 65 members of the senior class are approximately equally divided between men and women, while 75 per cent of the 119 juniors are men. There are 123 sophomores, with 70 men and 53 women. The freshman class of 197 is composed of 121 men and 76 women. The special and irregular students total nine, and there are five special College of Music students. The total enrollment for men is 319 and 199 for women.

Episcopal Club Will Meet

First Meeting At Southwestern Is Set For October 5

The Episcopal Club of Southwestern will hold its first meeting of the year Tuesday, October 5, at 1522 Vinton, at 7:30 in the evening, announces Janet Tucker, president.

The city council of Episcopal clubs announces the first gathering of the year, to be held in the Saint Mary's Cathedral guild hall on Poplar, Sunday at 3:30 o'clock. The four Episcopal units are invited. The Southwestern Episcopal Club wishes to extend this invitation especially to all Episcopalians on the campus, and to students of any other denomination who are interested.

ODK Entertains At Men's Smoker In Hotel Peabody

Clark McDonald Is Master Of Ceremonies

PROFESSORS SPEAK

Burrow, Shapiro, Dickson, Falls Are Members

Phi Circle, the Southwestern chapter of Omicron Delta Kappa, national honorary leadership fraternity, entertained men students and professors of the college last night at the annual smoker given at the Hotel Peabody. Presenting a varied program of amusement, Clark McDonald, president of the society, called on each of the new professors present for a speech. Other members of the faculty also spoke.

Entertainers from the Terry School of Expression and Dancing presented a floor show. Refreshments consisted of cigars and cigarettes in keeping with the party, cakes and Coca-Colas for non-smokers, and chewing tobacco for the football squad.

The smoker, an annual event, is given to carry out the chief principle of the fraternity, which is to further fellowship among the men students on the campus.

Other purposes of Omicron Delta Kappa are to promote a feeling of friendliness and understanding between students and faculty of the college, and to recognize leadership ability among the students which is done by electing such students to the society at the bi-annual tapping ceremonies in which membership is conferred upon outstanding students.

Other members besides the president are Fred Dickson, Gerald Burrow, Erskine Falls, and Norman Shapiro.

SERVICE CLUB RESUMES ACTIVITY

New Members Will Be Elected Soon To Fill Vacancies

Under the direction of Sam Hill, president, the Student Service Club has resumed its activities on the campus. During the past two weeks the Service Club has decorated the football stadium, ushered at football games, helped the faculty receive the students at the reception, and has met out-of-town students at their trains.

Its ideals are to promote college spirit, and to establish good feeling between the members of the faculty and the student body.

Present members are: Waddy West and George Humphrey, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Sam Hill and Billy Kelley, Kappa Sigma; Wallace Mayton, Alpha Tau Omega; Levon Self, Pi Kappa Alpha; Bruce Crill, Kappa Alpha; Herbert Bingham, non-fraternity, and Steve Frazier and William Worthington, Sigma Nu.

An election will be held in the near future to replace those members who did not return to college.

Synods To Meet Here Next Week

Presbyterians Of Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana, And Alabama To Come

Meeting for a three-day session beginning Oct. 5, the Presbyterian Synods of Tennessee, Alabama and Louisiana and the Presbytery of North Mississippi will each be guests of separate churches of Memphis, with the exception of one service in which they will unite for communion and sermon at Southwestern.

Evergreen Presbyterian Church will be host to the Synod of Louisiana; Westminster Church to the Tennessee Synod, and Idlewild Church to the Synod of Alabama. The Presbytery of North Mississippi will convene at Southwestern. Dr. T. K. Young of Idlewild and Dr. W. J. Millard of Evergreen will be host pastors for their churches. The elders of Westminster Church, which is without a pastor since the Rev. T. B. Hay accepted the call to Waco, Texas, have asked the Rev. Edward M. Nesbitt of Glenview Church to be host pastor and Southwestern has invited the Rev. Ira Dean Holt of Chelsea Avenue Church to be host pastor for the college.

Moderator, Clerk To Be Named

The program will open Oct. 5, with the synods meeting in their respective host churches, where a moderator and clerk will be elected and the retiring moderator will preach the sermon. The Rev. S. E. Hay of Auburn, Ala., will preach at Idlewild; the Rev. J. F. Lignon of Columbia, Tenn., at Westminster, and the Rev. J. S. Land of New Orleans at Evergreen.

Separate sessions will be held on Oct. 6 until 10:30 o'clock in the morning, when the synods will adjourn to Hardie Auditorium, at Southwestern, to unite in the communion service. The Rev. D. Clay Lilly, D.D., of Winston-Salem, N. C., will preach. Luncheon will be served in the Hugh M. Neely Hall for the delegates, followed by an address by the representatives of the assembly's causes, foreign and home missions. The committee on Christian education will report at this time.

Closing Day for Reports

The afternoon session will include talks by representatives of the Agnes Scott College, Columbia Theological Seminary, Louisville Theological Seminary and a trustee of the Montreat Association and Normal College. A report will be made also by trustees of Alabama Military Institute. Dinner will be served in Neely Hall and at 7:30 o'clock President Walter L. Lingle of Davidson College, N. C., will address the synods on Christian education. Dr. Charles E. Diehl, president of Southwestern, will present the program of work at the Memphis institution.

The closing day of the meeting will find the synods holding separate sessions at their host churches, where committee reports will be heard. The visiting clergymen will be entertained in private homes. T. J. Beasley and W. F. Hamilton are serving on the Entertainment Committee for the Westminster Church.

LAUGHLIN WILL HEAD PI INTER-SORORITY

Elizabeth Cobb and Nancy Caradine Are Also Honored

Rebecca Laughlin was chosen High Pi of Pi inter-sorority at a meeting held recently. Elizabeth Cobb was elected Low Pi and Nancy Caradine, secretary-treasurer.

The group is a social organization of unlimited membership. The members wear white every Tuesday with the green and white banner of Pi on the left sleeve. Those belonging to the sorority who have returned this year are Helen Ensley, Marjorie Jennings, Jeanne Johnson, Marjorie DeVall, Frances Smithwick, Lillie Roberts Walker, Mary Churchill, Martha Moore, Alice Hagler, and Emily Lee.

Mud! They Screamed; Mud They Got; Pure Unadulterated Mire

Pity the frogs, turtles, plants, birds, snails, and snakes; but most of all, pity the biology class!

What a day, what a trip, what MUD! Last Tuesday Dr. John Henry Biology Davis led his innocent class through thicket and quagmire of Mud Lake, much the same as G. Washington pushed across the Delaware with his troops. But the class was in search of Nature, not British invaders.

They found Nature, but it was Nature in the raw, which as you will remember, is seldom mild. When they returned, they had MUD between their teeth and behind their ears, but they had conquered the wild! One member of the group triumphantly pulled from his pocket a muddy scientific-looking specimen bottle and unscrewed the top. Out popped—not a rare species of Alligator Mississippiensis—but a common, croaking frog. "Success!" he shouted.

Councils Arrange Social Calendar

Men's and Women's Panhellenic Groups Set Dates; First Dance Oct. 9

The Men's and Women's Panhellenic Councils met in a joint session Monday afternoon to arrange the social calendar for the first semester. James Breytspraak, president of the Men's Council, conducted the meeting.

The opening Southwestern party will be an S Club dance following the Vanderbilt game on Oct. 9. The annual football holiday will be either Oct. 16 or 23. The former date is open, and Kappa Sigma will entertain on Oct. 23.

Delta Delta Delta plans to start their festivities with a dance honoring their pledges on Nov. 6, and the Zeta Tau Alpha Sailor party is scheduled for the 20th. The first of three Men's Panhellenic formals will take place on the 24th, and Kappa Alpha fraternity will entertain on the 27th.

Sigma Nu lists a dance on Dec. 4, and Chi Omega has set aside Dec. 11 for its Pirate Party. Alpha Tau Omega will give a dance on Dec. 18.

Jan. 8 is the date of the Alpha Omicron Pi Barn Dance, and Kappa Delta will sponsor a dance on Jan. 15. Sigma Alpha Epsilon will entertain on Jan. 22, and Jan. 29 is open for all organizations.

The dates set by the sororities for their parties are closed dates, meaning by this that no other Southwestern group will be allowed to entertain on that night. The dates held by the men's organizations may or may not be closed, according to the will of the group.

Elections Council Holds Balloting To Fill Vacancies

3 Student Officers Do Not Return To College

NEW STUDENTS VOTE

All Classes Go To Polls For First Election

Lewis Donelson defeated Henry Turner for the presidency of the Publications Board on the final ballot yesterday morning. For secretary-treasurer of the Women's Undergraduate Society, Lillian Price won over Margaret Kyle, and Hubert Turley came out ahead of Cecil New in the election for vice-president of the sophomore class.

The election was ordered last Friday by the Elections Commission to fill vacancies left by Andrew Myers, president-elect of the Publications Board; Effie Ola Anthony, secretary-treasurer-elect of the Women's Undergraduate Society; and Ralph Bethea, vice-president-elect of the sophomore class. None of these returned to college.

Nominations were made Tuesday morning, preliminary voting took place Wednesday, and the run-off was held yesterday from 9 o'clock until 12 o'clock at the polls in the campus store.

Those eliminated on the Wednesday ballot were: for president of the Publications Board, Jack Pilkington, Norman Shapiro and Wendell Whittemore; for secretary-treasurer of the Women's Undergraduate Society, Jane Bray, Lillie Roberts Walker and Mary Kathryn McGuire; for vice-president of the sophomore class, William Boydston and W. J. Hearn.

In accordance with its new constitution, the Elections Commission conducted the chapel service Tuesday morning and at that time explained to the student body the rules of the commission and the penalties for their violation. Steve Frazier is president of the group which is composed of one representative from each fraternity and sorority and the non-fraternity and non-sorority groups.

MINISTERIAL CLUB ELECTS HOLCOMB

Crill To Be Vice-President, Montgomery, Secretary-Treasurer

The Ministerial Club, meeting Monday in Neely Hall, elected H. R. Holcomb president and made plans for the coming year. Holcomb replaces Carroll Varner, who did not return to school this year. Bruce Crill was elected vice-president. Robert Montgomery is secretary-treasurer.

Among the topics discussed are: improving the chapel service; working in cooperation with the social welfare societies in Memphis; having members take an active part in religious work, and reading and discussing at meetings books selected by the club.

Among the new students at the meeting were Allen Craft, William Bobo, Jac Ruffin, and David Schullerr. "Many students have expressed an interest in the Ministerial Club," said Holcomb, "and we are anticipating a very successful year."

HOMECOMING NOT CHANGED

According to Prof. C. P. Lee, acting alumni secretary, the date of Homecoming has not been changed from Nov. 11, which is Armistice Day, to November 6, which is the date of the football game with Howard. Prof. Lee is making plans for the celebration on Homecoming.

The program following the football game will probably include, a buffet supper in Neely Hall, open houses on fraternity and sorority rows, and a dance in the gymnasium.

Can They Do It Again?

Dangerous though it is to look past one foe to another, we cannot help pointing out that it is only one more week until the Lynx football team again tangles with Vanderbilt.

Everything would seem to be against the Lynx. Vanderbilt has so far shown up even stronger than last year and will enter the fray against Southwestern, not in a listless spirit of over-confidence as last year, but eager for a brilliant revenge.

On the outcome of this game hinges to a large extent the future of Southwestern as a football power. If the score is close and if we win, and if the new stadium is crammed full, and if real enthusiasm bursts forth, this year may mark the beginning of an era of Southwestern football supremacy.

Of course we all are mad to win. So let's not forget to get every able-bodied citizen of Memphis out to Crump stadium next Saturday to see the "iron men" repeat.

Again The Quota System

Last week a Sou'wester editorial doubted the wisdom of the quota system in sorority rushing. But since the Panhellenic Council frankly admitted it to be an experiment, we were willing with most everyone else to give it a try, before passing final judgment.

In the first place the system did not accomplish its objective, of equalizing the sororities. We think anyone will agree that there is now a greater degree of difference between the highest ranking sorority and the lowest than there ever was before.

Worse than merely failing in its mission, however, the system bred a new evil when some sororities, anticipating at the rush teas that some of their invitations would be rejected, asked more than the quota to pledge. As might be expected, when the preferential cards were handed in Friday night, there were more women asking for a certain sorority than there were invitations from that sorority.

Don't you agree that this sort of thing is more of an inhumanity than ten freshman revolts?

A Salute To Intramurals

The promptness and organization with which the intramural athletic programs, both men's and women's, are starting off this year deserves commendation. It has always been our contention that a well-developed system of intramurals is many times more valuable to the college than are intercollegiate athletics.

The intramural games at Southwestern, arranged as they are between rival fraternity groups, stimulate an enthusiasm which they would not otherwise approach. This, we repeat, is good. It makes more for an Athenian education whereas the intercollegiate idea is Spartan.

Pictures Of James Harvey '33, and Harvey Drake '35 Lost

A new case is being installed in the library to hold the pictures of the students who have been elected to the Hall of Fame, Miss Mary Marsh, librarian, announced this week.

The pictures of James Harvey, class of '33, and Harvey Drake, class of '35, were found missing by a student council committee which Charles King headed. Miss Marsh said the mistake would be corrected.

Scientific Fraternity To Elect New Vice-President

Chi Beta Phi, the national honorary scientific fraternity, will meet in the Science Hall at 7:30 Tuesday night, October 5, to elect a vice-president to replace James Gladney, who is not in school this year.

Brooks Art Gallery Exhibits Local Work Of Memphis Academy

By H. R. HOLCOMB The Brooks Memorial Art Gallery has upon exhibition this month a group of paintings, drawings, and sculptured works which will be interesting to Memphians if only because it is the first faculty exhibition of the Memphis Academy of Arts.

Mr. Robert McKnight, director of the academy, has done most of the sculpture which is placed in the center room. Especially interesting are the heads of Mr. Sydney Farnsworth and Katherine Hepburn. The other exhibits are found in the Main Gallery.

More interesting than the works mentioned above is an exhibition of linoleum blocks done by the Redfern Society of London. These are arranged in the upstairs gallery, but it is well worthwhile to pause in the room of permanent paintings at the stairs' entrance and look at "Morning After Snow" by Birge Harrison and "Summer in Norway" by William Singer. These two paintings are of a superior craftsmanship in every detail.

At the head of the stairs are several illustrations of how linoleum blocks are formed. Briefly, a pencil sketch is printed upon the key block of copper. Each color used thereafter is printed from a separate block. The finished linoleum cut, or block, cannot be ranked among the higher forms of art but may be nevertheless quite pleasing and quite good.

Some of the better blocks are "An Italian Way," "From the Basement," "The Haulers," "Swings," "Rhythm," "The Dance of Seven Veils" and "The King's Horses." The other blocks mark all stages from the insipid "Ducks Delight" through the incredibly silly "Farmyard Gate" to the nonsensical and fantastic "Way Home Night."

The first practical typewriter was placed on the market in 1874.

Dear Newt: If you can afford to loaf for a few minutes, listen to what college has been this past week. Pep Meeting Is Broadcast

Southwestern Band and Singers On 15 Minute Program

Southwestern took to the air Friday night, September 24, in preparation for the game with Union Saturday. Featured on the fifteen minute broadcast, which was from 6 o'clock until 6:15 over WREC, was the Southwestern band. At the opening of the program the choir sang the Alma Mater, and intermingled within the program were Lynx yells. Talks were given by Coach Propst and Coach Hug.

Union University was also heard on the program, having the air from 6:15 until 6:30. Their broadcast came from Jackson over the same station.

Grid Team Shows 3rd Period Punch Against Bulldogs

Lynx Score 4 Touchdowns In 15 Minutes

SMITH IS SPARKPLUG

Muddy Field Holds Down Air Attack

Scoring only once in the first half, Southwestern awoke in the third period to push over four touchdowns and defeat Union University 32 to 0 in the game played at the Fairgrounds last Saturday night.

With the insertion of Gaylon Smith, ace back of the Lynx, at the beginning of the second half, the team seemed to take on more life and at the end of the first seven minutes they had scored three touchdowns. Two of these were made by Smith who returned a Union punt 65 yards for a touchdown with a beautiful exhibition of broken field running.

The muddy field hindered an air attack, and only one pass was attempted.

The linemen of Union deserve a great deal of credit for their game fight which they put up throwing the backs of Southwestern for several sizeable losses. Isbell was easily the Bulldog star and did everything a good back was expected to do, though he was up against a much better team than his.

FAQUIN THE WINNER

Red-Headed Ace Triumphs Over Butler 8-6, 6-2

BULLETIN

Louis Faquin Wednesday night triumphed over Woody Butler, 8-6, 6-2, in an all-Southwestern final at the Beauregard Parks' annual night tournament.

Past, present, and future Lynx tennis talent competed in the Memphis Park Commission's annual night tournament held this week at Beauregard Field. Louis Faquin, Lynx freshman and seeded number 1, was hard-pressed to defeat Charles Peaker in his first-round match, 2-6, 6-1, 6-4. Woody Butler, Lynx star netman of the past year and the tournament's second-favored player, downed Tom White, present member of the Southwestern team, in another hard-fought struggle 6-4, 4-6, 6-3.

Another Southwestern freshman, Dan Robertson, lost his second-round match to J. D. Martin 6-3, 6-3. Robertson won his first-round match from E. Grossbart 6-3, 3-6, 8-6. Lem Rainwater, a former Lynx student, was put out of the tournament in the first-round by a prep star, Milton Grear, 8-6, 1-6, 6-3.

Butler moved into the quarter-finals with a 6-1, 6-1 victory over M. B. Jones. Faquin entered the semi-final round by annexing a pair of matches from T. Comet 7-5, 6-3, and Dan Canale 6-4, 8-6. Butler later joined him by disposing of L. Nicholson 6-1, 6-1. An 8-6, 6-3 triumph over Alex Wellford sent Butler sweeping into the title round. Faquin was to play John D. Martin, Jr., in his semi-final match as the paper went to press.

According to Coach Propst the Millsaps Majors boast a badly underrated eleven. The 0-0 tie with Union and 7-0 victory over the Naval Air Station of Pensacola, Florida, last Saturday night is not indicative of Millsaps' true strength, says Coach Propst. Union proved a tartar to the Lynx for the first half of last week's game, and the Naval Station is an eleven that includes a number of Annapolis graduates and one or two All-Americans of recent years.

The Millsaps team has lettermen for every position but the quarterback slot. Here two sophomores, Wiley Critz and "Red" Wright, are battling it out, with Critz holding the upperhand. Coach Propst believes Critz is as good if not better than Isbell of Union.

Probable lineup for the Lynx: Nettles and Cavendar (or) Chappell and Hammond at the ends; Croom and Ellis at tackle; Dabbs and Morgan (or) Parker at guard; and Morris at center. In the backfield: Nickells at quarter; Sasser and Smith at the halves; and French at fullback. For the Majors: Ballard and Edwards at the ends; Capt. G. C. Clark and R. J. Elfert at tackle; Walker and McAllilly at guard; and either Simpson or Blough at center. The backfield: Critz or Wright at quarter; Shelton and Roger Elfert at the halves; and Cox at full.

THE REV. HOWIE IMPROVES

The condition of the Rev. Samuel E. Howie, director of public relations at Southwestern, is reported by the Methodist Hospital, where he is convalescing from peritonitis, to be "more than good."

Mr. Howie is expected to leave the hospital by October 15 and to resume his work a week later.

FRESHMAN TENNIS TOURNAMENT BEGINS

Faquin Heads List Of Promising Men Among Entries

Southwestern's freshman tennis tournament began yesterday. What the entry list lacks in number it supplies in power and promise. The material for a future Lynx team looks brighter than in the past three years.

Headed by Louis "Red" Faquin, recent runner-up in the National Public Parks Tournament and recognized as one of the South's standout net performers, the list includes Dan Robertson, Gene Hardison, and Billy Murrell who should go far in the meet. Last year's winner was R. L. McKeen of Mobile, Ala. Those filing an entry were Henry Boothe, Aubrey Tucker, Louis Faquin, Joe Sarafian, Charles Peacock, Gene Hardison, Dan Robertson, Frank Jemison, Billy Murrell, Taylor Malone, Bland Cannon, and Billy VanDyke.

Tough Schedule Of 8 More Games Faces Lynx Cats

Vanderbilt Looms Ahead As Main Threat

ONLY 2 ROAD GAMES

Loyola, Birmingham-Southern Seek Revenge

A glance at the remainder of the Lynx schedule shows why Coach "Shorty" Propst is wearing that worried look these days. Only two so-called "breathers" make an appearance in that list of eight games yet to play. The two "breathers" are Millsaps and Hendrix.

The Lynx tangle with Millsaps tomorrow night. Though the Majors will be out to upset the Red and Black apple-cart, there is little reason to believe they can do it.

Vanderbilt Next

On the Majors' heels come the vaunted Vanderbilt Commodores. The success or failure of this year's edition of the Lynx rests, to a great degree, on the result of this game. It should be close and hard-fought all the way.

October 16 the Lynx journey to Little Rock to engage Hendrix College. The Warriors should not prove too tough. Then October 22 Southwestern marches on the Golden Panthers of Birmingham-Southern in Birmingham. The Panthers are out for revenge. They still squirm at mention of last year's 44-7 rout.

Last 4 Games at Home

The last four games of the season are played at home. University of Chattanooga, Howard College, Loyola University, and Centre College come to town on successive week-ends. All four teams should prove to be tartars; especially Loyola. It seems the Wolves just cannot forget the 28-0 shelling Southwestern dealt them last fall.

The schedule reads:

- Oct. 2—Millsaps College, 8 p.m.—Fairgrounds.
- Oct. 9—Vanderbilt, 2 p.m.—Crump Stadium.
- Oct. 16—Hendrix College, 2 p.m.—At Little Rock.
- Oct. 22—Birmingham-Southern, 7:30 p.m.—At Birmingham.
- Oct. 30—University of Chattanooga, 2 p.m.—Crump Stadium.
- Nov. 6—Howard College, 2 p.m.—Crump Stadium, Homecoming.
- Nov. 11—Loyola, 2 p.m.—Crump Stadium.
- Nov. 20—Centre College, 2 p.m.—Crump Stadium.

By JACK PILKINGTON

The team did not only have mud to contend with last Saturday night, but someone by mistake had put quicklime on the field, and after the game the players were eaten up by it . . . the managers had to use several tubes of Ungentine to heal the burns. . . . Coach Propst flew to Nashville to see Vandy take Kentucky, then he flew back to see the Lynx take Union; immediately after this, he took a train to New Orleans to scout Loyola in their encounter with Spring Hill . . . nice little trips, eh what? . . . don't let the Vandy victory upset you; we heard that poor quarterbacking for Kentucky helped Vandy. . . . Tulane had a lot of trouble with Clemson, eking out a one touchdown victory . . . that dextrose at the half must have had a lot of energy in it . . . did you notice the blocking on Smith's long touchdown run? . . . Littlefield is improving in his role of blocking back; he was the talk of the rest of the team after the game . . . the band at L. S. U. has 208 pieces in it and a drum major who twirls a baton in both hands; he is also a candidate for All-American drum major . . . it only took 7 minutes to score 19 points. . . . Coach Propst must have figured he had had enough air for one day because the Lynx only attempted one pass . . . even the bad weather didn't keep away a good crowd; the publicity we are getting is doing the work. . . . 99 points in 120 minutes is a record for any team. . . . Morton did everything he tried to do nearly perfectly; take a look at the statistics. . . . The wet ball didn't interfere with our punting; averaged 31 yards. . . . Cavender is certainly the most improved player on the squad.

Coach Propst started to send in Henry, the new mascot, last Saturday night. . . . After talking to most of the players, I have come to the conclusion that the quicklime did more damage to them than Union; among those who suffered most were Ellis, Parker, Self and Dabbs. . . . The Cotton Boll and the Grill did their part towards winning the game by offering each player who made a touchdown, blocked a punt, etc., a chicken dinner. . . . Sasser was the most disappointed man because he seemed to want one most; maybe Jennings will give him one of his since he has three coming from each place. . . . St. Mary's in California suffered its worst defeat since 1923 at the hands of California by a score of 30-7. . . . Vanderbilt has a sophomore sensation named Bert Marshall. . . . Mississippi State lived up to expectations by defeating the Delta State Teachers 39-0. . . . The cheering section shows definite improvement. . . . Charley Holm, brother of the great Tony Holm, is playing fullback for Alabama this year. . . . Icky Orenstein is the best running back on the freshman squad this year and the coaches expect him to be quite an addition to next year's squad. . . . It is good to see Sewanee really beat somebody; they took Hiwassee last week 40-0; the mountain team has had tough luck in the last few years, and they carry the good wishes of everybody for a successful year. . . . The track team lost one of its distance runners when Andy Myers took up his studies at Tennessee; he wants to be an engineer. . . . Tomorrow the Lynx-cats hope to make the Millsaps Majors look like a bunch of buck-privates. . . . Start thinking about which game you are going to take for a football holiday and be sure you pick a good one. . . . When Jennings hit the line for the first touchdown it gave way like water; he has more power than any other man on the team, Smith included. . . . Maybe Prof. Tutthill should give the band some dextrose and add some pep to it.

Announcement of the fall program for intramural sports has been made by the Intramural Athletic Association. A three-mile cross-country race will be one of the main events of this program. Other events will be horse-shoes, touch-football, and volley ball. Band Adds 10 Men To New Roster

Tutthill Optimistic For This Year, Announces Forward Steps In Musical Activity

With an enrollment of forty members the Southwestern band has been increased by several new members who have had experience in playing band instruments.

Barney Gallagher and William Bobo are playing cornets; Allen Fisher and Boyce Johnson, clarinets; Ortho Collins and Bland Cannon, saxophones, and Costello, trombone. Eli V. Rogers, bass clarinet player, is assistant drum major to Henry Turner.

On October 16 the band will make a trip to Little Rock for the football game with Hendrix College. If marked improvement is shown, there is a possibility for a trip to the Birmingham-Southern game.

Band Key awards are made to members of the band after two years service. In determining the recipients of these awards, attendance at all rehearsals is mainly considered. Rehearsals are held every Tuesday and Thursday at 1:30.

Choir Improved, Plans Spring Tour

"Prospects are very good this year for the Southwestern Singers, for many of the new members have had singing experience," said Prof. Burnet C. Tutthill, director of music. One trip has been planned for the choir, and there is a possibility of three or four day trips in the spring. Prof. Tutthill
