Party Line

In spite of everybody’s skepticism, the Woman’s Club put on the receipts as a big success, and it is hoped that these sales will result in a profit. The Women’s Club members made an effort to sell them. The boys were being a去哪儿—a much better style of entertaining. (Yes, I mean that for all the children who are supposed to make you laugh.)

The Sigma Nu program described turned out to be one of the most impressive affairs of the year. Some who seemed to be especially interested in the show were represented in the audience.

The real life of the party was Rivers Proudfoot with some interpretations of the Big Apple kept the crowd in stitches.

Lynx Basketball Prospects To Fine Season
Four Returning Veterans Form Team Nucleus
PLAY SEWANEERE
Transfer Virgil Cox Shows Form at Guard Position

By WADDY WEST

With four experienced men on the court, Coach Paul Hug is sending his charges through their second week of training in preparation for what looks to be a highly successful basketball season.

Laying aside Capt. Layne and last year's rivals, the Lynx are focusing upon things to come. In addition to retaining first anchorman, they have been bolstered by Virgil Cox of Col. Al-Mississippi Valley Church Street guard transferred from Freed Hardeman College.

The equal will be small but deadly. The Lynx have the right nips in the right angles to the game of basketball.

The defense of the Lynx is on the way toward the coveted intramural trophy. The Athletic Committee will not initiate anything that could be considered but their names cannot be divulged at this time.

The Faculty Committee on Athletics does not actually appoint the head of the Faculty Committee, said: They captured the championship in the Ellis Auditorium last year, said Coach High Tuesday.

The 1938 tournament will be held in Shreveport at the Ellis Auditorium, said Coach High Tuesday.

The game which the coaches hoped to see was not out for basketball. Dome he line went in. Finally he came to Shreveport.

"Did you ever play basketball?"
"No," said the head of the Faculty Committee.

"Do you want anything about basketball?"
"No," said.

"Are your studies up?"
"Paradise Isle"
"Yes, sir!"
"Are your studies up?"

With a record of nine wins and four losses, Southwestern to play Arkansas University, Mississippi Mills and the Shamrocks of Marianna, Ark., Chattanooga.

"No, sir."

The basketball team is coming along rapidly with the reserve strength now looking well. It seems though Southwestern will come through. Jack is ready to go down the floor. The Lynx just a valuable man when Bill Porter was hurt. There is never a doubt that the Lynx will be an asset to the basketball team.

An important rule change may adversely handling the Lynx. The field will be put in play by the line judges only at the start of the game and the second half. Last year the line judge's tip was used following each field goal. Following the free throw, the ball will be taken by the line judge and given to the boys in the box of their own court. This vastly speeds up the game and transposes the endurance of a game with no definite rules.

According to the rules, the Lynx would be the champions of the nation's basketball team.

LYNX A REAL CATERWULER, BIOLOGICAL SURVEY SHOWS

By ANNIE FORTIS

The Lynx is Southwest's spiritual symbol, and doesn't mean the football team alone. Recently this animal's classification as to genus was changed. Formerly a member of a separate genus, Lynx, it is now included in the general family, Felidae.

The big lynx without, or occasionally, looks like an overgrown tabby with a belted tail and a glass in his eye. Rather a silly little racoon of thirty-five pounds, he often feasts other animals including the people who stare at him in the zoo thinking he isn't quick on his feet. On the contrary, his chief prey is game birds, such as quail, and it takes a very quiet and clever hunter to catch quail. He has large feet and piston ears and rolls of hair on the sides of his head. His fur is a pale, rusty brown color, which is very smart on this year's sport coat.

A lynx is largely nocturnal in habits and fury, hence seldom seen. At night he roams and catterwauls worse than any of the backyard specky. His strength and ferocity are hardly necessary considering the weakness of his prey, but he still had a great reputation as a fighter. If you girls want to make a man happy, just tell him he can "whip his weight in wildcats." There is a specimen in the Grotto Park Zoo which would not welcome your inspection, since he is such a belligerent creature, but call on him anyway. He has to be approached on tip-toe or he'll disappear. Watch him out. His fangs snap into the meat and he springs back into his hole. He is a reddish furred creature, alert and distant, with a cruel, sidelong face, looking like some intermediates being viewed another world.
