Graduate Students To Present Recital

On the evening of Tuesday, May 22nd, the Music Department of Southwestern at Memphis will present two of its graduate students in a recital of song and piano music. The program will be held in Bohlmann Hall, 1822 Overton Park Avenue, at eight-thirty in the evening, and the public is cordially invited to be present.

The performers are Miss Wanda Jo Henry, soprano, and Miss Jane Meriwether, pianist. Miss Henry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Henry of Russellville, Arkansas. She received her Bachelor of Music degree from Southwestern in 1952, and has continued her vocal study under Professor Neumon Leighton during the intervening years. She has taught music in the Guthrie School in Memphis for three years but has devoted the present season to her study and practice. She is soprano soloist at St. John's Methodist Church. Her part of the program will consist of four songs by Mozart; four by Richard Strauss, Micaela's Air from Carmen by Bizet, and a group of contemporary songs in English.

Miss Meriwether is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Meriwether of Paragould, Arkansas. She is a graduate of Converse College and is now pursuing advanced training at Southwestern under Professor Myron Myers, at the same time serving as a teacher in the Preparatory Department. She will not only accompany Miss Henry in her songs but will contribute a group of three Brahms piano numbers during the program.

NEW KAPPA SIGMA SWEETHEART, Miss Betty Evans, will reign over festivities of this Ra-Met secret society, tonight and tomorrow night as the Memphis Cotton Carnival comes to a close.

Deadline For Returning Library Books May 31

Dr. Jay Stein, Southwestern librarian, has requested that students return their borrowed books and settle all accounts by May 31, in order that incidents resulting from the withholding of grades or diplomas may not arise.

All School Picnic Set For May 23

The Student Council will sponsor an all-school picnic Wednesday afternoon, May 23, at Maywood. There will be swimming, sports, dancing, and various other activities.

Food and transportation will be provided. The tentative time for the affair to begin is 3:00 p.m.

Seminary, Graduate School Ahead For Many Seniors

Graduation time, with all its excitement for the seniors, is near. After graduation—what? Southwestern grads will scatter far and wide. Some will continue going to school, some will marry, some will go into business.

Sallie Myhr Thomas will teach math and Robin Sprague will teach French somewhere in North Carolina. Other prospective teachers are Marymax Williamson, Betty Fay Hand, and Ada Jane Walters, who will teach math, Spanish, and music respectively.

Many Southwesterners will go to seminary after graduation. Russell Giesler, who will marry Mary Margaret in August, will attend Austin Seminary in Austin, Texas. Jip Walters plans to attend Union Seminary in Richmond, Virginia. Henry Williamson, George Gracey, and Bill McAtee will go to Louisville Seminary at Louisville, Kentucky, in the fall. Peggy and Jimmy Carter will work with a youth group in Galatin, Tennessee, this summer; then Jimmy will enter Louisville Seminary. George Fisher is also headed for Austin.

Bob Rickard, Don Williamson, John Flippin, Bev Farnsworth, Bill Barnett, John Wiese and Bob

Dickey are others headed for seminary training.

Nita Saunders and Lawrence Carter will be married in June and will go to Scotland for a year to study. Afterwards they will return to the U. S. and Lawrence will enroll at Louisville Seminary.

Julia Morrow will work for a radio station in Atlanta; Harriette Priester will go into medical journalism for a doctor at U. T.

Betsy Bell will be a director of Christian Education, and Nan Howe plans to attend Assemblies Training School in Richmond, Virginia. Edith Jean Cooper will go into psychology work.

Ann Barr will marry Don Weems, who is now in divinity school at Vanderbilt, and Maida Moore will be married to Joe Payne and will make her home in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. Elaine Vickrey will also be married. Sarah Ruth Strong reports that she has applied for a

Betty Evans Named Sweetheart By KS

Miss Betty Evans was named Sweetheart of Kappa Sigma Fraternity at the Fraternity's Stardust Ball held in the Chickasaw Room of Hotel Chisca, Saturday night, May 12.

Betty, a sophomore from San Jose, California, presently reigns as Queen of Ra-Met, secret society, in the 1956 Cotton Carnival. Last year she represented San Jose in the Carnival as a Lady of the Realm. An AOPi pledge, Betty is also a member of the Canterbury Club.

Officers announced at the dance were as follows: Bill Alexander, Grand Master; John Farris, Grand Procurator; Bill Caraway, Grand Master of Ceremonies; Red McMillion, Grand Scribe; Bill Weber, Grand Treasurer; and Buck Wade and Richard Odle, Guards.

Tri-Delt Announces Scholarship Winners

Winners of the annually awarded Delta Delta Delta scholarships were announced last Saturday at the Tri Deltas' Pansy Dessert.

Barbara McLaren, a sophomore, Nora Peterson and Alice Fitch, both freshmen, are recipients of the awards. Barbara's and Nora's scholarships are valued at $200 and Alice's at $100.

The National Organization and the Memphis Alliance of Delta Delta Delta, in accordance with their national policy of encouraging a high quality of academic work, offer the scholarships each year to qualified women students at Southwestern. The awards are based on the student's previous work at Southwestern.

Hazing To Be Cut To Three Weeks

The Student Council decided Tuesday night that next year's hazing program will be cut to a three week period, from September 19 to October 13. Saturday night, October 13, the student council will sponsor a dance to celebrate the end of hazing.

There will also be a football game that afternoon, with the Lynx meeting Centre College. Centre had one of the nation's outstanding small college football teams this past season, and were undefeated. The Lynx gridders dropped a 28-13 decision to Centre in Danville, Ky., on a wet and cold afternoon, then went on to clean up the other teams on their slate.

Five changes in the freshman regulations were discussed and okayed by the council. Rule one restates the duration of hazing. Rule 3, requiring all freshmen boys to make paddles, was omitted for next year. Other changes include: south door and foyer of Science Hall may not be used by freshmen during hazing. They must use only the west door.

The rule requiring all freshmen to get the signatures of 50 seniors, 50 juniors, and 50 sophomores was omitted. Instead, they are required to get the signatures of 50 seniors only. This rule will also take the place of the rule requiring new students to learn the names of all the seniors.

All new students will be required to attend all football games and sit in a special freshman cheering section. The roll will be taken.

A request by J. L. Jerden, sophomore class president, to reserve one day during hazing for a special program sponsored by the class was approved.

Don Parker, Robert Templeton, and John Farris attended the regional meeting of the National Student Association recently in Nashville.

Honorary Organization Announces Officers

The Southwestern chapter of Eta Sigma Phi, national classical languages fraternity, at a recent meeting elected officers for the coming year. Bob Booth was selected as president.

Other officers are: Emmett Buford, vice-president; Kip Shoaf, secretary; and Jane Alexander, treasurer.

Recently Eta Sigma Phi tapped Richard Teaford, Bob Booth, Bill Vassey, Bob Dickey, and Don Williamson for outstanding work in Greek. Also tapped were Carol Myers and Jane Alexander for outstanding work in Latin.

Sans Souci Honors Graduating Members

Members of Sans Souci, Southwestern's French club, gathered Tuesday afternoon, May 15, at the home of Dr. J. O. Embry for the last meeting of the year which was held in honor of the club's graduating members, Robin Sprague and Marcia Calmer.

The group listened to records by popular French artists, and conversed in French. The honorees were presented French books as gifts from the French department.

New Cheerleaders Chosen In Chapel

The student elections held in chapel Wednesday to select a Commissioner of Under-Graduate Women resulted in a tie between Joanna Kindig and Suzanne McCarroll. Others in the race were Mary Jane Crutcher and Elizabeth Rodgers. The run-off will be next Wednesday.

Also elected were six of next year's cheerleaders: Barbara Bondurant, Margaret Ann Fagan, Marion Forsythe, Elizabeth Rodgers, Kip Shoaf, and Stella Wilson, who will be captain of the squad.

Others in the try-outs were Elizabeth Elliot, Mary Farish, Jeanne Scott, Ann Shannon, Sue Williams, and Sandy McLaren.

Paul Thompson, Dick Crais, Larry Kennon, Jimmy Davis, and Jimmy Pitts, have entered the race for the remaining three positions on the group which will be determined in elections Wednesday.

Opinion, Please

by Mary Ann Lee

Question: Do you think the Student Body would be interested in selling ads next year for the Sou'wester if they could sell them on a percentage basis?

Answers:

W. B. Burrow, junior: If the commission were big enough, you'd get enough students to participate, I think. It does seem like too much work to ask one person (the business manager of the paper) to do.

Suzanne McCarroll, junior: If this procedure were followed, I'm sure you'd find more people willing to sell ads and work with the business manager. It would be a better working system, although I don't believe that you'd find any more personal interest taken in the paper than now.

Dick Crais, sophomore: If the business manager could have a staff to help him/her sell ads, I don't believe a percentage deal would be necessary. A staff of salesmen could work together very closely.

Richard Dortch, sophomore: No, I think not, for these three reasons. Judging from the prices ads sell for, the percentage would need to be very high. Most people are not extroverted enough to want to get out and sell ads. Most people wouldn't know how to go about it, and they'd be afraid it would be too hard. However, I personally would be interested.

Mary Lewis Myatt, junior: I would think so. However, an idea like this needs to be pushed and not just be a dead letter. It might be a good idea just to have a staff for getting ads.

Last Issue of Sou'wester

In this last issue of the Sou'wester, we wish to thank the student body for the interest and encouragement they have shown during the year. They have helped by pointing up our omissions, correcting errors, and making suggestions. Student participation is evidenced by the fact that our staff has increased from issue to issue.

Personal Remarks

A freight car of "thank you's" would scarcely be sufficient enough to express my gratitude to the Sou'wester staff for the fine work its members have done this year. They have all shown consistent interest and enthusiasm during all the long, long hours spent in this "cleaned-up mop closet" which we call the Sou'wester office.

Stacks of yellow paper, coffee at 10:00 p.m., glue bottles, and of course, printers' ink, have indoctrinated many a sleepy-eyed freshman to the intricacies of Sou'wester work this year.

They have unselfishly allowed me to delete their by-lines and therefore remain, to me anyway, as anonymous martyrs. Their faces have grimaced only occasionally when I "killed," to quote them, "the most original" and juiciest part of their stories.

It would be superfluous to name all those who have made the newspaper possible their year; their names are all on the masthead. But to mention a few all department heads have certainly proved their leadership abilities, particularly the editor of the sports department.

Our columnists who create Widgibus, On the Town and Opinion, Please have added unique color to the issues. The circulation manager and the office staff have performed rather dull jobs without ever once complaining. And of course, the reporters who collect, sort, and expurgate the news have been the backbone of the staff.

Our copy editor, John Farris, has done more work and given more thought to the planning of each issue than any other member of the staff; he has kept everyone on his toes, including me, in order to meet our deadlines. Thanks to our business manager, Marian Cobb, the Sou'wester will not be losing a great deal of money for the first time in years.

To next year's editor, I leave the sincere hope that he will be able to work with as co-operative a staff as I did, and that he shall derive as much pleasure out of being a part of this group as I have.

Sou'wester Editor Announces Party

The editor of the Sou'wester, Joanna Kindig, has invited all the members of the Sou'wester staff, which includes department heads, reporters and all the office staff, to an informal patio party tonight at 8:00 at her home at 2404 Lowell.

This party is for everyone who has done any work on the Sou'wester this year. All who have helped are urged to attend.

German Club Elects Officers

Die Deutsche Verein met last Thursday evening at Dr. Goessling's home where the club voted on a constitution and elected officers. The constitution which was drawn up by Don Williamson, was unanimously adopted by the members.

Bob Welsh, Julian White, and Joanna Kindig were elected president, vice-president, and sec-treas., respectively.

Republican Clubs Being Organized

Washington, D. C.—A streamlined 1956 model for campus political groups was unveiled in Washington today by Marlin K. McDaniel, Chairman of the College Service Committee of the Young Republican National Federation.

With Young Republican Clubs already operating in over 350 colleges and universities in all 48 states, McDaniel revealed plans for the organization of 150 additional clubs, plus a stepped-up program for increasing membership and improving club activities.

McDaniel stated, "All evidence points to a tremendous increase in the enthusiasm of college students for the Republican Party and its candidates." This interest in college Young Republican Clubs has been manifested in previously unorganized areas as well as in those states where college YR clubs are traditional. To meet this widespread demand, the National College YR Organization is using regional and state volunteer organizers to assist in the development of new clubs and in strengthening existing Young Republican groups. Particular emphasis is placed on providing services for those clubs which are being formed in schools located in the so-called "marginal districts" where the extra votes produced by a college organization could make the difference between which party will control the next Congress.

The College Service Committee has inaugurated a program under which college YR groups are provided with the pro and con presentations of the vital campaign issues. Speakers of national prominence are being made available for appearances before college audiences. The campaign activities of the college clubs are well co-ordinated with those of the Republican Party in their community so as to give the individual member the experience of participation in election-year politics. Mock conventions and mock elections, sponsored by the YR clubs, have given the campus at large a realistic opportunity to learn about the campaign issues and the mechanics of such activities.

Three Students Win At Literary Festival

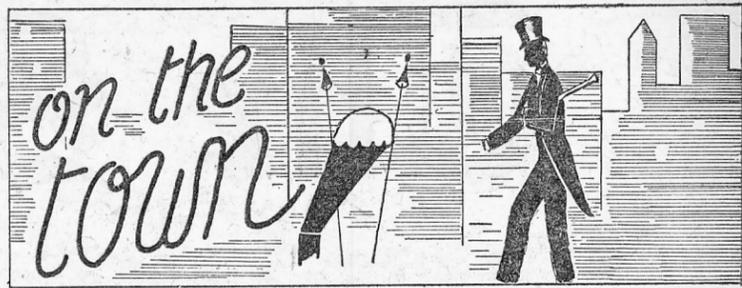

Three Southwestern students have recently been honored for literary work. At the Southern Literary Festival held at Mississippi College, Ann Barr won the second place award in the short story division for a story entitled "Corbin." Two years ago Ann won first prize in the poetry category. Ann is a member of Stylus, and her story will be printed in the spring issue. Barbara McClaren was awarded an honorable mention at the Literary Festival for her essay "The Very Young," which was in the winter issue of Stylus. Scott Byrd won an honorable mention for his poem "Two Mistaken Melodies" at the Festival, and he also received the Kenneth Beaudoin award in college poetry from the Tennessee Poetry Association for "Prelude of a Young Girl," which will be in the spring issue of Stylus.

Ad Commissions Offered Students

Applications for editor of the Lynx, editor of the Sou'wester, business manager of the Lynx and business manager of the Sou'wester will be accepted until 12:00 noon Monday by any member of the publications board. Applicants must be at least juniors and have satisfactory grade averages. A salary of $200 per year is paid for each position.

This year the Sou'wester business office, in an effort to increase sales of ads, is offering each student ad

(Ed. note: Mr. Scott Byrd could not write his column this week, as he is in a puppet show.)

Now that Elvis has sent the seven thousand, we aesthetic connoisseurs can enjoy the humanistic (as opposed to animalistic) entertainments ON THE TOWN. Sorry to have missed Mr. Reynolds, however.

To see the downfall of the glory that was Greece, try "Alexander The Great" at the Palace; with Frederick March and Claire Bloom, there should be SOME good acting. It's one of those cinemascope, stereophonic, supercollasie productions, an illustrious (?) member of the "Helen of Troy" and "Conqueror" family.

You can be out of this world for four hours at the Warner. We don't know whether Gene Nelson dances and exactly what Faith Domerque does in "The Atomic Man," a double-identity mystery with an atomic background. Some far-off divine event is prevented by an atomic holocaust in "World Without End"; the 26th century world is inhabited by human moles (Hugh Marlowe and Nancy Gates), survivors of the blast.

Mamie Changes Professions

Starting Saturday at Loew's State is The Revolt of Mamie Stover, a story of a "dance hall" operator in Honolulu who gets rich off the Second World War troops. It has Richard Egan, Joan Leslie, Agnes Moorhead, Jorja Cartright, and Jane Russell who revolts dramatically with song and dance. 30 cinemascope Eastman Color minutes of guess-whose nuptials may also be viewed.

A real Mamie (Van Doren) handles the sheriff in "The Star in the Dust"; others involved at the Malco are John Agar and Richard Boone.

Two happily-remembered Westerns are made available at the Strand; Alan Ladd and William Holden appear in "Whispering Smith" and "Streets of Laredo" respectively.

Another Shocker

Director Henri-Georges Clouzot of "Diabolique" has scenarized and directed another terrifying tale at the Ritz; this one, starring Yves Montand, Charles Vanel, Peter Van Eyck, and Vera Clouzot, tells of four men who undertake to drive two trucks of nitroglycerine through the rocky mountain roads of a South American oil country.

Don't forget starting Tuesday "Ring Around The Moon," written by Jean Anouilh and translated by Christopher Fry, presented by Theatre 12 at Hotel King Cotton. George Touliatos both directs the show and portrays twins; his two sweethearts are Blanche Pope and Mary Russell Ragsdale, recently seen in "As You Like It." This group will do "The Beau Stratagem," "School For Scandal," "The Glass Menagerie," and "Twelfth Night" during the summer. Starting Friday—"Jenny Kissed Me," presented by The Little Theatre at The Pink Palace.

Or, you might Get The Dancing Habit from Chuck Cabot and his orchestra at the Skyway. Also you could throw yourself into what's left of the Cotton Carnival.

Young GOPs Sponsor Nationwide Essay Contest

An expense paid trip to the Republican National Convention in San Francisco this August may be the prize for some talented young Tennessee resident, according to plans just announced by the Young Republican National Federation for a nationwide essay contest. An expense-paid trip to the Tennessee Convention in June will be the prize awarded to the winning essayist in Tennessee's contest.

The contest is open to all Tennessee citizens who are between the age of 17 and 25, as of November 6, 1956 (Election Day). The subject for the essay is "Why I Am a Republican," and entries are limited to 300 words or less.

All entries must be submitted by May 15, 1956, to the Tennessee Federation of Young Republican Clubs, care of Lone L. Sisk, Jr., 113 Euclid Circle, Oak Ridge, Tennessee. Entry blanks for the contest may be had from the same address.

The Tennessee winner will be chosen by a group of five prominent Republicans in Tennessee under the supervision of William K. Moody, National Committeeman for the Tennessee Federation of Young Republican Clubs. The national winner will be chosen by a group of National Republican leaders under the supervision of Gordon Heuser, Colorado Springs, Colorado. Essays will be judged on the basis of clarity of thought, originality, and interest.

The winner of the Tennessee contest will be announced not later than 30 May 1956; the national winner will be chosen no later than 15 July 1956.

In announcing the contest in Tennessee, Young Republican State Chairman Ted York stated, "This essay contest will give the young people of Tennessee a fine opportunity to express their political convictions and perhaps a chance to take part in one of the most interesting parts of political life—a national political convention. I would like to personally urge wide participation so that we in Tennessee may demonstrate the growth of Tennessee Republicanism."

Sigma Nu Fraternity Lists New Officers

Epsilon Sigma Chapter of Sigma Nu Fraternity wishes to announce the newly elected officers for the 1956-57 school year. They are as follows:

Louis Dodez, Commander; Buddy Whiteaker, Lieutenant Commander; Ronny Markette, recorder; Jimmy Davis, treasurer; Sam Martin, chaplain.

ATO Fraternity Has New Officers

Emmett Buford was recently installed as Worthy Master of Alpha Tau Omega, and Richard Teaford as Worthy Chaplain. John Quinn became Worthy Scribe and Bill Hackleman, the Worthy Keeper of the Exchequer.

Other new officers who have assumed their positions are: Ben Dukes, Worthy Keeper of the Annals; Bob Boothe, Worthy Sentinel; and Denton McLellan, Worthy Usher.

The ATO's had an outing for members and dates April 27, near Bragden, Tennessee.

On May 7, the fraternity members favored its graduating seniors at a banquet at Pappy's and Jimmy's.

Campus Challenges

In the stillness of one crisp spring morning, I discovered the message of the trees.

There were four trees; the first was an old, rugged oak, while the second tree was a tall, but slanting pine. The third tree was also a pine, a tall and straight one. The fourth tree was an elm that had grown straight, but had curved in and out before continuing its upward growth.

The first old oak seemed to say to me, "I've not much to look forward to. All my life I've twisted and turned looking for satisfaction, but I've never quite found just what I was looking for."

The second tree, the slanting pine, spoke smartly, "Look how straight I am."

"Yes, but see how you slant," I thought to myself.

The third tree didn't speak but continued growing silently upward toward the sky.

The fourth tree didn't speak either, but one could tell how nature had given it a second chance, a new hope.

Four trees, four human personalities, each with a message and a challenge.

It doesn't seem possible that another school year is almost gone—senior comprehensives are here and in one short week everyone will be slaving away at exams. I, for one, have thoroughly enjoyed the year, and although I am very tired of school right now, I'm sure I'll be ready to come back next September.

Looks as if a lot of honors and elections have come about right here at the end of school — so I think I'll just make a nice long list and start saying you-know-what to people.

Congratulations to:

Johnny Maxwell, new president of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Louis Dodez, new president of Sigma Nu.

Bill Alexander, new president of Kappa Sigma.

Emmett Buford, new president of Alpha Tau Omega.

To all the other new officers of these fraternities.

Dick Crawford, new president of the Honor Council, and to all the new Honor Council members.

Stella Wilson, queen of the Delta Invitational Track Meet and to Track Princess, Nancy Carter and S Club Princess, Beverly Hill.

Betty Evans, on being chosen the new sweetheart of Kappa Sigma.

All the junior women recently tapped into Torch.

Mary Jane Smalley for being chosen the outstanding sophomore woman.

Betty Russell, newly elected president of the Women's Athletic Association.

Sally Myrh Thomas, voted outstanding senior athlete by the WAA.

All the teams and people who received WAA awards.

I hope everyone gets through exams without much trouble—makes great grades—and has a wonderful summer.

Anyone hear anything from Luther Steinberg?

Bye.

Delta Invitational Track Meet Held At Southwestern

Memphis State edged Mississippi State 125 to 123 to win team honors in the second annual Delta Invitational track meet at Fargason Field last Saturday. Five new records were set during the windy afternoon. Other teams participating (in the order that they finished) were Mississippi College, Murray State, Sewanee, and Southwestern.

Southwestern concentrated on winning special relay trophies and kept three of the six trophies at home by winning the sprint medley and the distance medley and the two-mile relay (unopposed). Southwestern runners participating or winning relay teams were Jim Turner, Charles Ames, C. D. Kilpatrick, Mike Cody, Richard Park, Bob Sanford, and Charles Somerville. Mississippi State took home trophies for the 440 and 880 yard relays and Sewanee won the mile relay trophy.

In the regular meet records were broken in the shot put, broad jump, high jump, 440 yard dash, and mile relay. Mississippi College boys broke three of the records as Ernie Albritton threw the shot 48 feet, Bob Huckaby high jumped six feet four inches, and Claude Bruton ran the 440 in 50.1 seconds. Billy Covington of Mississippi State broad jumped 22 feet five-eighths inches, and Memphis State won the mile relay in 3:28.1 for the other record-breaking performances.

Other outstanding performances were turned in by Richard Luster of Mississippi College, winner of mile and two mile runs; William Morgan, Mississippi State, winner of the 100 and 220 yard dash; Joe Gorham of Memphis State, who won the high and low hurdles and participated on the winning mile relay team, in addition to placing fifth in the broad jump. For his outstanding performance Gorham was awarded the outstanding athlete trophy for the second year.

Bob Jackson, Jim Gillis and the mile relay team scored the only points for Southwestern as the remainder of the team specialized in the relays.

Coach Bill Maybry, chairman of the meet, and his assistants handled the day's activities smoothly. The size of the crowd was pleasing and next year a bigger and better meet is planned.

The Mousehole

By Julian White

Well, this is the last time we'll be looking over these old typewriter keys this year. With this last issue of the paper we will have to round up all the sports happenings of the year. All in all, this has been a pretty successful year in the field of athletics around the campus. Things have really been on the upgrade and it looks like next year will be the banner year for athletics on the Lynx campus.

First we started the year off with the football team taking the limelight by compiling the first winning season in many a year. With most of the starting crew back next year, things look very bright for the Lynx 11. After the season "Digger" Higgason and Bill Young were named to the Little All-American team. Higgason being a third team choice and Young being tabbed for Honorable Mention. Also in the sports program was the Cross-country team headed by Captain Mike Cody. Though the season was not very successful last year, the whole crew will be back and it will be strengthened by several newcomers.

Next came basketball time with the Lynx fielding a much finer team than the season record showed. On the schedule were such teams as Miss. State, L.S.U., and Tulane of the SEC. There were also several schools from up north who are always hardwood potentials. With the loss of Captain Bob Jackson and Dick Gilliom by way of graduation and possibly Jim Winslow to med school, there will have to be considerable rebuilding done next year. This year's freshman team showed well in spots but lack of experience will be a definite hindrance to the rebuilding job.

Thus far in the world of the intramural program, we find that while the above mentioned three varsity sports have progressed, eight championships in intramurals have been decided. The KA's took the first two team trophies in flagball and volleyball.

Then the SN's came back to take the next five straight, winning basketball, tennis, pingpong, badminton, softball, and handball. Next came the school golf tournament. The SAE's took their first trophy of the year by winning this one. The only trophy yet to be decided upon is horseshoes.

With spring coming on, the spring sports took their respective fields to begin practice in their sports. The baseball team headed by Captain Crawford Street and Co-captain Jim Breazeale began preparation for a hard schedule which included games with Howard, Wabash, and DePauw. The final standings for the season ended with the Lynx winning 5 while the opponents won 13.

The only face missing from the lineup next year will be centerfielder Crawford Street. With this team and the addition of a pitcher next season we should find a considerable increase in the season record.

The track was brought from nothing to a winning season by the coaches. With the help of Freeman Marr and Billy Brazleton the Lynx cindermen came through with three wins and one loss in dual competition and placed second in the only triangular meet.

In the TIAC track meet Southwestern sent only two men and came back with 17 points and a 5th place among 8 teams. Bob Jackson placed second in the javelin, 4th in the broad jump and 5th in the shot put.

Mike Cody walked off with two first places and a new school record in the mile run. Cody is the TIAC champion in the mile and 880 yd.

Field Day Trophy Awarded To AOPi

The Women's Athletic Association has announced its officers and representatives for 1956-57. Betty Russell was elected president; Ann Mack, vice-president; and Ruth Ann Jackson, Secretary-treasurer.

WAA Chooses 1956 Girls' Softball Team

Intramural softball ended last week with Delta Delta Delta in first place. Kappa Delta was second, Chi Omega third, and AOPi fourth.

The varsity team selected by WAA is made up of the following all-stars: Ruth Ann Jackson, Ann Underwood, Ann Mack, Sue Robinson, Camille Deadrick, Sallie Myhr Thomas, Sissy Rsberry, Betty Russell, and Elaine Donelson.

Named for the second team are Sara Jane Runyan, Jerry Witman, Mandy Schmidt, Jane Burns Campbell, Beth LeMaster, Diane McMillan, Ann Hixon, Lee Ann Goodrich, and Carolyn Block.

runs. In the Delta Invitational Southwestern took three of the special trophies given. They won the sprint medley, two mile relay, and the distance medley.

The tennis team journeyed up to Sewanee to recapture the TIAC tennis crown which they had lost the year before to the Sewanee crew. This year's team was composed of Hal Henderson, Lee Gibbs, Eric Mount, Tommy Buford, Jack Biedenbarn, Walker Wellford and George Morris.

Last but not least among the sports teams is the golf team. This year's team lost its championship in the TIAC but with the young crew for next year, things look bad for the opponents of the Lynx men.

Well, that about wraps it up for the year so till next year about the middle of September, we'll pack this old typewriter up and start studying for those things called exams.
