WHO'S WHO

Laura Canon (set designer, lighting designer, technical director), a theatre professor, has designed the lighting for most of the McCoy productions and has won numerous Memphis Theatre Awards for her outstanding set and lighting designs.

Karl Chambliss (Boss Whalen) is no stranger to the Memphis theatre scene. He has appeared on our stage in All my Sons and House of Blue Leaves and in numerous other productions at Playhouse, Germantown Community Theater, Circuit and Theatre Memphis where he was most recently seen in Mame.

Erin Foster Cook (Mrs. Bristol), a senior biology major/theatre minor from Birmingham, AL, has had roles in our productions of Iphigenia and Escape from Happiness. Erin has been director of the Real Rhodes for two years and is a member of Mortar Board and BBB (biological honor society).

John Cook (McBurney) is a sophomore theatre major from Jacksonville, FL, and was last seen in The Canterbury Tales. John has been on production crew of several shows and is a member of ATO fraternity. He is a recipient of a Fine Arts Award Scholarship.

Chris Davis (director), an actor, director, playwright, full-time journalist, and night time hillbilly-singer, is a Rhodes alumnus. He has had roles in the McCoy productions of As You Like It, All My Sons, On the Razzle and The Robber Bridegroom. Chris is a staff writer and theatre critic for The Memphis Flyer.

Jonathan R. Devin (Queen) has been seen most recently in the Playwrights' Forum Dancing at the Revolution at TheatreWorks and his original play, Vanish Code, will be produced at TheatreWorks next May. Jonathan is employed at the Memphis Arts Council.

John Cook Gordon (Jack Bristol), a sophomore political science major from Atlanta, GA, is making his McCoy debut with this production.

Ralph Hatley, Jr. (Butch O'Fallon) is a familiar face on the Rhodes campus. The director of campus safety, he is retired from the Memphis Police Department and for many years was an on-air traffic and crime feature reporter for WMC TV. This is Ralph's first main-stage appearance but appeared in last year's student project, Oleanna.

Matthew Hoffberg (Joe) is a sophomore English major from Santa Fe, NM, where he was seen in A Midsummer Night's Dream, You Can't Take It with You, and Working. He is a member of ATO fraternity.

Morgan McCrary (Eva Crane), a first-year student from Cartersville, GA, has appeared in productions of Star-Spangled Girl, Waiting for Godot, and The House of Blue Leaves.

Chris McNally (guard, prisoner) is a sophomore pre-law student from Fairhope, AL, where he performed in various roles. He is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity and is a Fine Arts Scholarship Award recipient.

Spencer Macon Pharr (Swiftly), a sophomore philosophy major from Mocksville, NC, was in Tuna Christmas, Smoke on the Mountain, and The Pirates of Penzance. He ran sound for our spring production of Into the Woods.

Anders Reynolds (trooper) is a sophomore theatre major from Little Rock, AR. His McCoy credits include roles in The Canterbury Tales and Into the Woods and stage managing Soul of a People. Anders also received a Fine Arts Scholarship Award.

Janet Kusson (stage manager), a sophomore theatre major from Tullahoma, TN, was the assistant stage manager for Into the Woods.

T. C. Sharpe (Ollie Armstead) has been a teacher with the Memphis city schools for twenty years. He has received numerous awards for roles at Circuit and Memphis Black Repertory Theatre and was featured in the award winning film, The Poor and Hungry.

Christopher Stout (Canary Jim) is a sophomore English writing major/theatre minor from St. Louis, MO. He was seen last year in our productions of The Canterbury Tales and Into the Woods. Christopher is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity and is a Fine Arts Scholarship recipient.

Taylor Teas (costumer designer), a senior theatre major from Memphis, TN, was the costume designer for The Canterbury Tales and the make-up designer for Into the Woods. Taylor is also serving as a costume intern for Opera Memphis.

Sarah Thrasher (Goldie) is a sophomore biology major from Memphis and attends the University of Memphis. She was very active in the theatre program at Bolton High School where she appeared in Li'l Abner, The Crucible, South Pacific and The Sound of Music.

Joe Vescovo (Shultz), a senior biology major from Memphis, has been seen in the McCoy productions of The Canterbury Tales, Little Shop of Horrors and 'Tis Pity She's a Whore. Joe is a vocalist for "The Angry Puppeteers."

S. A. Weakley (Reverend Hooker) is an instructor of speech and theatre at Northwest Mississippi Community College and was previously on the McCoy stage appearing in The Seagull, presented by The Tennessee Williams Festival.

Cleve Wiese (trooper) is a first-year student from Chappell Hill, TX, where he appeared in the Sound of Music.

Russell Young (chaplain), a Rhodes alum, is in graduate school at the University of Memphis. His McCoy credits include roles in The Hypochondriac and Much Ado About Nothing.
