

Rhodes College
—1848—

The Paul Barret, Jr.
Lecture Series

Presents

Dr. Edward Ayers

and

Hoxie, Arkansas
School Desegregation Panel

In Memoriam

Rosemary Hill

Larger than life, larger than death, Mrs. Hill lives on in the memories of the many whose lives she touched. Countless others who did not know her have enjoyed freedom and opportunities because of her courage and leadership.

Never overbearing but always strong, Mrs. Hill inspired love and devotion among friends, family and the several church congregations she served. She truly made a difference in this world.

We are diminished by her death.

Barret Lecture Series Program

Welcome ..... Dr. Russ Wigginton

Musical Selection, God Bless America .....Mrs. Imogene Stansbury

Panel Discussion and Digital

Documents Display..... Mrs. Fayth Hill Washington

Hoxie, Arkansas School Desegregation, 1955.....Mrs. Essie Steadman
Mrs. Charlene Trotter

Keynote Address:

“What Do We Need From American History?” .....Dr. Edward Ayers

Reception.....Crain Lobby, Bryan Campus Life Center

The Paul Barret, Jr. Lecture Series

August 24, 2005

Alberto Manguel

October 6, 2005

Anthony Grafton

November 17, 2005

Edward Ayers

March 29, 2006

Janet H. Murray

THE PAUL BARRET, JR. LIBRARY