Subject: [PRAYERS AT WORK] Feb 22-26, 2010

Monday, February 22, 2010 -- (Meditation: Psalm 42:5-6) God, sometimes I feel like I'm not really needed. Others could get along without me. I spend some of my time just trying to be noticed.

God, forgive me, and help me to do my best where You have placed me.
In Jesus' name. Amen.

Tuesday, February 23, 2010 -- (Meditation: Psalm 51:10-12) O Holy Spirit, today I want to be united with You. Today, I want to be perfectly resigned to You. Today, I would renounce everything that separates me from You. Today, I would live for You and for others. Today, I would work in an attitude of prayer for those with whom I work. Today, I would do my work for Your sake. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Wednesday, February 24, 2010 -- (Meditation: James 2:14-17) God, the Giver of all, if a child of mine were hungry, I would do something about it. May I have the same sensitivity today for the hungry who are not my children. God of peace, if my children were fighting, regardless of who is right or wrong, I would try to get them to stop. May I have courage to do the same when others at work are at odds. God of love, if my children needed to talk with me, I would listen. Help me to listen to the concerns of those at work. For we are ALL Your children. Amen.

Thursday, February 25, 2010 -- (Meditation: Psalm 9:1-2) God, everything is going my way. I have success today, but should I fail, help me to praise You still. My family is healthy today, but when illness comes, help me to praise You still. God, may I praise You every day, and in every circumstance. Through Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.

Friday, February 26, 2010 -- (Meditation: Psalm 16:11) God, when I spend time with You, my mind's eye sees past my To-Do list, past today's appointments, past this year's calendar, and into life eternal.

When I am conscious of eternal life with You, everything else falls into perspective. Being heaven-bound makes each day's journey peaceful and joyful. When I see beyond the Cross to heaven itself, I know that each step is in the right direction. Each bump in the road is just that, and no more.

God, when my eyes are on the Promised Land, I can give You thanks, no matter what my circumstances. Thank You, God, for Your promise of spending eternity with You. Through Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.
