FOREWORD

A mosaic is a work composed of various and scattered pieces collected into one main design. The 1962 Lynx staff has composed for you a mosaic which we hope will portray another rewarding year at Southwestern.

We desire to recall many pleasant memories through the use of this book since our college days will more than too soon be gone.

Also, we hope this yearbook will be an expression of our gratitude and love for this school which has contributed so much in our lives.

Dr. W. Taylor Reveley
Dean of Admissions and Records

DEDICATION

As a teacher and a friend, Dr. Reveley has become an inspiration to those who know him—a guiding star to those who trust in him. They love him. They respect him. They are humbled by his presence, for they know that he stands for the high ideals of Southwestern.

This is your Lynx, Dr. Reveley. We have lived these pages and collected their memories for you. Because you are a constant part of our college life, we dedicate this book to you.

"We sometimes meet an original gentleman, who, if manners had not existed, would have invented them" . . . a gentleman in the true sense and in every sense of the word; a man of acute sensitivity and constant awareness of the feelings of others, his most prominent characteristic a sincere and selfless love of his fellow man. A man honored because he was genuine, whose motives were what they seemed; a man with whom honesty was not a policy but the very warp and woof of his being; a man so disciplined that he kept his conscience void of offense toward God and toward man.

In the Help Week project for 1961, the pledge class followed the example of the previous year's pledge class in painting the boy's ward of the juvenile Court detention home. The rooms were badly in need of fresh paint, and in 350 manhours of work, the fraternity rejuvenated eleven rooms. The work was done in three shifts daily, with one or two actives leading each group of pledges, who worked for two hours before being relieved. Replacing the old Hell Week, in which pledges were made to do silly and often dangerous stunts, Help Week has as its aim the "hazing" of pledges while doing worthwhile work as a service to the community.

Director of Athletics

As director of athletics, Coach Maybry does a fine job. He works closely with the various coaches and sees that their schedules are well planned with a minimum of scholastic conflicts. He is responsible also for the fine Lynx intramural program. With this full load as director of athletics, he adds even more as the coach of the cross-country and golf teams. The value of sportsmanship and physical training are well understood by him as his directing proves.

Head Football Coach

Coach Johnson, handicapped by the lack of subsidation at Southwestern, nevertheless always comes up with a fine team. Of course, the members of the team are responsible for being good material, but it is the coach who molds the men into a unified, eager, and hard-hitting force. With the help of the other members of the football coaching staff, "Woody" accomplishes this tough assignment every year.

CRUMP STADIUM, Sept. 23—Southwestern stopped a two-point conversion attempt late in the fourth quarter to salvage a 14-13 victory over the Majors in the season openers for both teams. Gaines Massey slashed off a tackle for 18 yards midway in the first quarter to put Millsaps ahead 7-0. But the Lynx roared back with a 55 yard drive climaxed when Jerry Manley smashed over from the one. Vance Strange flipped a pass to Frank Weathersby for a two point conversion. Weathersby completed Robert Echol's pass in the third quarter to put the Lynx ahead 14-7. This margin was narrowed to one point when Newton Reynolds drove over from the 2 yard line. But his conversion attempt failed, and Southwestern pulled out the season's first victory.

Southwestern 34

Central Methodist 7

HODGES FIELD, Sept. 30—Southwestern shoved its offense into high gear to smash the preying Eagles of Central Methodist 34-7. Bill Harwood and Jerry Manley spearheaded the Lynx offensive efforts which accounted for nearly 500 yards. Harwood scored three touchdowns and Manley two, in the Lynx's romp to their second win of the season. Central's single tally came late in the fourth quarter when Bob Bryant scored on a triple from 14 yards out.

DANVILLE, Ky., Oct. 7—Bill Harwood scored three touchdowns Saturday night to place Southwestern to a 21-0 victory over Centre College's Praying Colonels. On the second play from scrimmage Harwood stepped off 47 yards to the Centre 7. Two plays later the Lynx halfback went over from the 4.

Moments later Harwood took a pitchout from Vance Strange and raced 65 yards for another touchdown.

Late in the second quarter Harwood rounded out the scoring when he completed a 24 yard pass from Warner Calhoun in the end zone. The Colonel offensive machine was never able to penetrate the Lynx 29 yard line.

CLINTON, Miss., Oct. 14—Mississippi College shattered Southwestern's three game winning streak 22-7 Saturday night.

The Choctaw offense smashed out 347 yards on the ground sending fullback G. T. Thames over for two touchdowns and Charlie Garrett for another.

The lone Southwestern tally came on a 67 yard pass play going from Vance Strange to Bill Harwood, scoring the first points this season given up by Mississippi College.

MARYVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 28—Halfback Donnie Phelps unreeled two gallops of 40 and 50 yards to lead Maryville's Scots to a 22-10 victory over Southwestern.

Mike Truscott's 22 yard field goal put the Lynx ahead 3-0 before Phelps went to work. First the Maryville halfback found a hole and scooted 50 yards for the tally. Minutes later he broke loose and jaunted 40 yards to pay dirt. Bill Owenby wrapped it up when he completed Eddie Bruce's pass in the end zone for the Scots' third tally.

Late in the final quarter Jerry Manley climaxed an 80 yard Southwestern drive diving over from the 3 to round out the score at 22-10.

Southwestern 12

HODGES FIELD, Nov. 4—Sewanee's Tigers never missed a scoring opportunity in defeating Southwestern 27-12 in the Lynx Homecoming this afternoon. Southwestern offensive efforts netted 382 yards in comparison to 201 for the Tigers, but two goalline stands by the Sewanee forward wall were able to equalize the situation.

Tailback Mike Agnew opened the scoring with an 11 yard pass to Bob Davis. A Southwestern drive evened the score sending Jerry Manley over from the 2. But Agnew retaliated with an 88 yard return of the kickoff to put Sewanee ahead 12-6 at the half.

Larry Major's three yard dive and Wallace Pinkley's 45 yard ramble rounded out the scoring for the Tigers. Southwestern's final tally came on a 90 yard drive climaxed by Bill Harwood's romp from the seven. At halftime Miss Ann Fumbanks was crowned Homecoming queen.

BIRMINGHAM, Nov. 11—Howard College unleashed a powerful air attack to smash Southwestern 34-7 Saturday in Seibert Stadium.

John Shoemaker tossed to Julius Head for two touchdowns, hit Buddy Bozeman twice for two point conversions, and scored a touchdown personally to place the Bulldogs in their sixth victory of the season.

George Versprilla and Bobby Jackson romped in from 12 and 6 yards out to complete Howard's scoring for the night.

Bill Harwood's 77 yard jaunt in the fourth quarter accounted for Southwestern's tally.

Southwestern 7
Austin 6

The LYNX smashed its four-game losing streak ending its season on a cheerful note against Austin.

The game went slowly the first half. In the second

Manley returned the opening kick-off to the Southwestern 43. Several downs later Strange threw a perfect bullet to Robert Echols in the end zone for the score. Mike Truscott kicked the extra point for a winning total of 7.

The season ended with a 4-4 slate.

Cross-Country '61

The Lynx harriers came through again this year with a fine season. They won five and lost two dual meets. Their only losses were to Union University which boasts a 21 win, 1 tie, and only 1 loss over a three year period. Certainly the Lynx's loss is understandable. In a quadrangular meet in Starkville, Miss., the harriers defeated Memphis State by nineteen points; this in itself afforded considerable satisfaction. The winner in that meet was Mississippi State who just recently finished winning their second Southeastern Conference crown in a row.

Co-captains Chamberlin and Arman led runners Foster, Couch, Deaton, Romaine, Selvidge, Cooper, Hankins, Fall, and Ringold to victory. From the first of the season, which began early in September, Coach Maybry molded his men into top cross-country shape. Workouts were twice a day until school began. Owing to Coach Maybry's fine coaching and the enthusiasm of the team, the Lynx trounced tough Mississippi College 20-43 and again 25-34 (low score wins in cross-country). Four of the first five runners were Southwestern men. The same four runners, Chamberlin, Arman, Couch, and Foster, repeated their performance against Arkansas State, winning 19-44.

To end the season, Southwestern sent two men, Chamberlin and Foster, to the National Collegiate Athletic Association meet held in Wheaton, Ill. There they competed against 130 of the top college cross-country runners in the U.S.; Chamberlin placed sixty-third while Foster, running his best time of the season, beat twenty of those men.

Basketball '61-'62

The Southwestern cagers tasted few "sweet victories" during the '61-'62 season. The squad, composed of seven freshmen, five sophomores, two juniors, and only one senior, was handicapped by inexperience. Coach May worked diligently with the men; new and tricky play formations were learned, practiced, and practiced again. From all appearances the squad looked very strong, and indeed it was for it showed its prowess in winning the Dixie Invitational Tournament, crushing Millsaps 101-71, and then, in the finals, defeating Little Rock 62-51. Team members Annis and Bob Moseley brought honor to Southwestern by being named to the All-Tourney team. Moseley was awarded still another distinction by being chosen the most valuable player in the tournament. However, the Lynx were to see only two more victories, a win over Millsaps 96-62 and over Belhaven 82-67. The latter victory was accomplished in the difficult Invitational Basketball Tournament at Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Alabama.

TO BE A SUCCESS

Robert Echols has achieved what is, perhaps, the highest goal for the well-rounded student. In the course of four years he has excelled in both athletics and scholarship. Having done this better than anyone else in his class, he was awarded the Algernon Sydney Sullivan plaque on his graduation.

Last year the Lynx cindermen were undefeated in dual meets for the second straight year. This year their winning streak was broken by Union, who ended their '62 season undefeated. The '62 track squad lacked the depth it needed in the field events.

Members of the team had to double and even triple up in the number of events in which they participated. Even with this burden they came through with a fine season of 5-2. The other loss was to U.T. and this was very close, 57-74.

During the track season this year many fine performances were accomplished. Co-captain Bill Taylor, who does virtually every event and does it well, broke the Southwestern 440 record of 50 seconds by running in the Tennessee Intercollegiate Athletic Conference meet a 49.9 time. Other Southwestern records were broken that day, although they could not be counted officially because those new records were still not good enough to take first places. Mallory Chamberlin ran an excellent 880 in 1:57 and placed second to a 1:55.8. Bob West tied the old Southwestern 220 record of 21.9. Next year will see the same men back again working hard to retain their fine records and to better them. However, the squad lost two very strong competitors this year: seniors Keith Arman, distances, and Glenn Hays, 880 and 440.

The country club set enjoyed their travels during the '62 season even though they gained only five victories in 16 outings. The team was often met by three drawbacks: having rain during competition, having to finish the last holes at night on unfamiliar courses, and facing tough opposing teams. However, Rich turned in his usual dependable performances and earned the most valuable player award. Freshman Donnie Dyer (number one for Frayser High School last year) was elected '63 captain.

IN MEMORIAM

Of the men I have known, Rick Mays had, I believe, the broadest and deepest love of people. Although he was a successful businessman, his chief interest was people, especially young people. Why did he devote so many hours beyond the call of duty to the young people of his church, to the Boy Scouts, to his football boys in high school and college? Because he loved them, because he had to, because he was Rick.

To him all people had much good in them, and he made it his business to discover that good and won his full confidence were those he could fully trust and respect as men.

To his boys he was a friend for life: their troubles and difficulties became his burdens, and their honors and successes his joy. So far as I know, everyone loved Rick, but there is no doubt that he gave others more affection than he could ever receive. And he was pleased to have it so.

It is not possible to say how much Southwestern, Memphis, and all who knew him have lost in Rick—strengthen it, cultivate it, make it grow. He liked to get close to people: where he found a barren spot he cast a seed; and because he loved what was fair and good in them he was free with praise.

In recent years it has become fashionable to refer cynically to character-building in sports. Rick often said that his principal aim was to win—and it was; but beyond victory there was a more important aim: to help his boys build fine and strong characters. That was the only approach to coaching that he knew or wanted to know; and the only players who not only those of us who owe so much to him in so many ways, but also the boys of tomorrow who would in the expected course of events come under his general influence.

To Rick life was basically an exciting adventure—whether on the athletic field, on the campus, or in public or personal life. And he was the happiest of warriors. "My cup," he said, "is always running over." It is a pleasant thought for his friends that up until the last moment he felt that life was very, very good to him.

Queen Ann Fumbanks reigned over all the celebrations with Blair Gilmer and Lyde Ella Conner serving as her maids as excitement and enthusiasm engulfed Southwestern Homecoming weekend. Alums and students gathered to participate in the numerous activities. . . .

AUTUMN

You're only a freshman once, thank goodness!

After dinner entertainment?

Why do the shower drains stop up every fall?

This is how to get the spirit.

Cheerleaders shouted for victory while

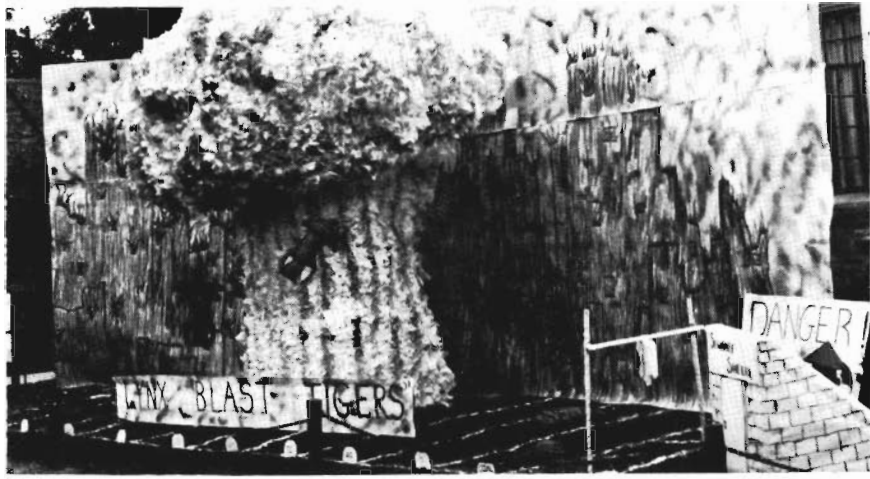

Southwestern grew ...

Freshmen were welcomed ...

and displayed their talents.

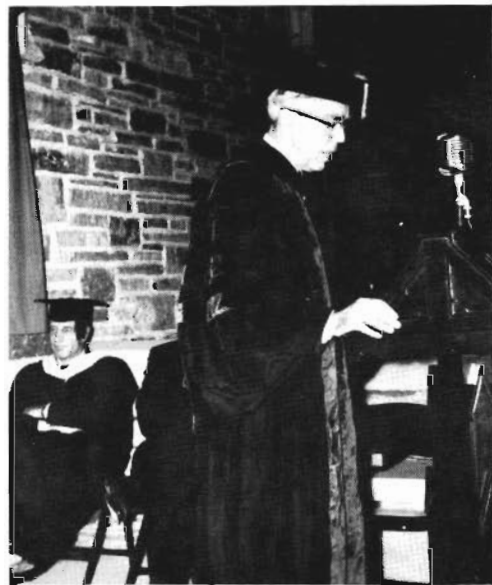

Sewanee tigers were put in orbit.

Southwestern sang . . .

dedicated . . .

and danced its way through a successful season.

WINTER

Winter came with a flurry of snowballs . . .

and Southwestern kept growing

Are you sure this is the new infirmary?

Anybody need an extra player?

Winter activities range from basketball games . . .

to beauties

It's lucky he is good natured

It wouldn't be winter without snow.

A bird's eye view of the campus . . .

while down to earth Mrs. Wolf learns to twist.

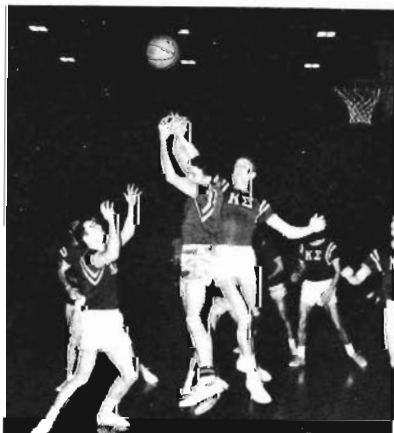

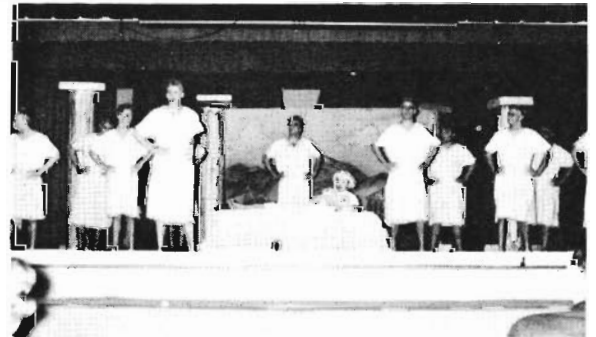

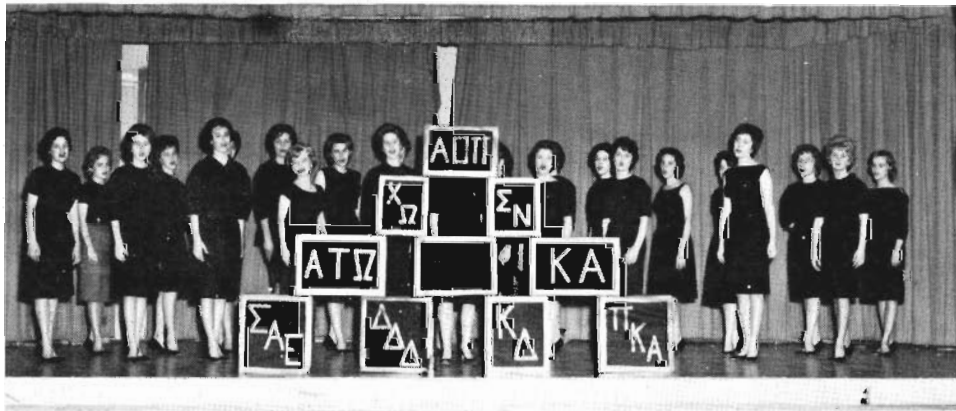

innocent . . .

Beauty abounded in all moods . . .

Stunt night came on strong,

as did the intramurals.

SPRING

April Fool Royalty welcomed spring . . .

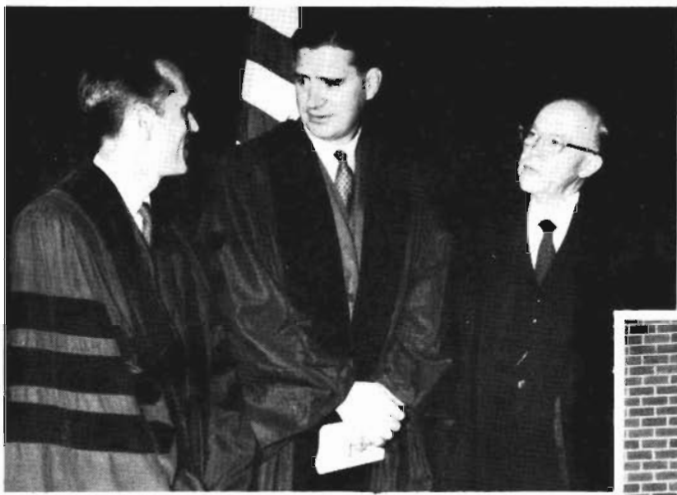

and election fever was in the air . . .

and the choir was on tour.

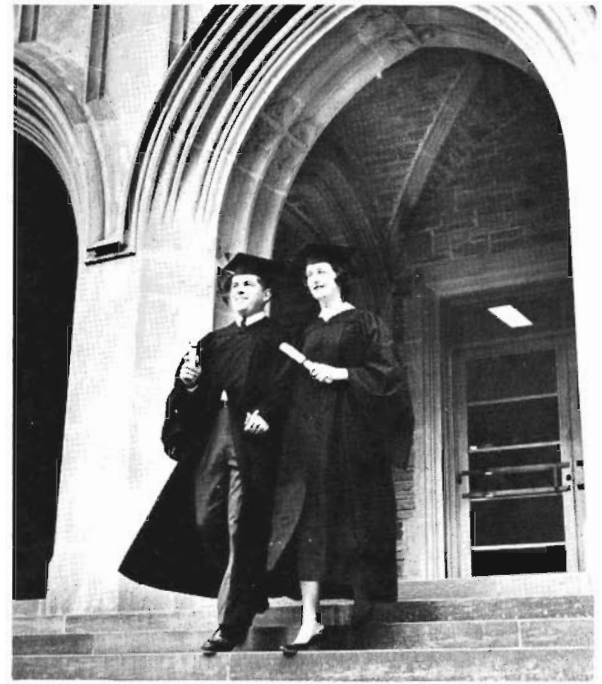

Foreign personalities spoke on politics and religion.

The Lair was empty . . .

and the year came to an end,

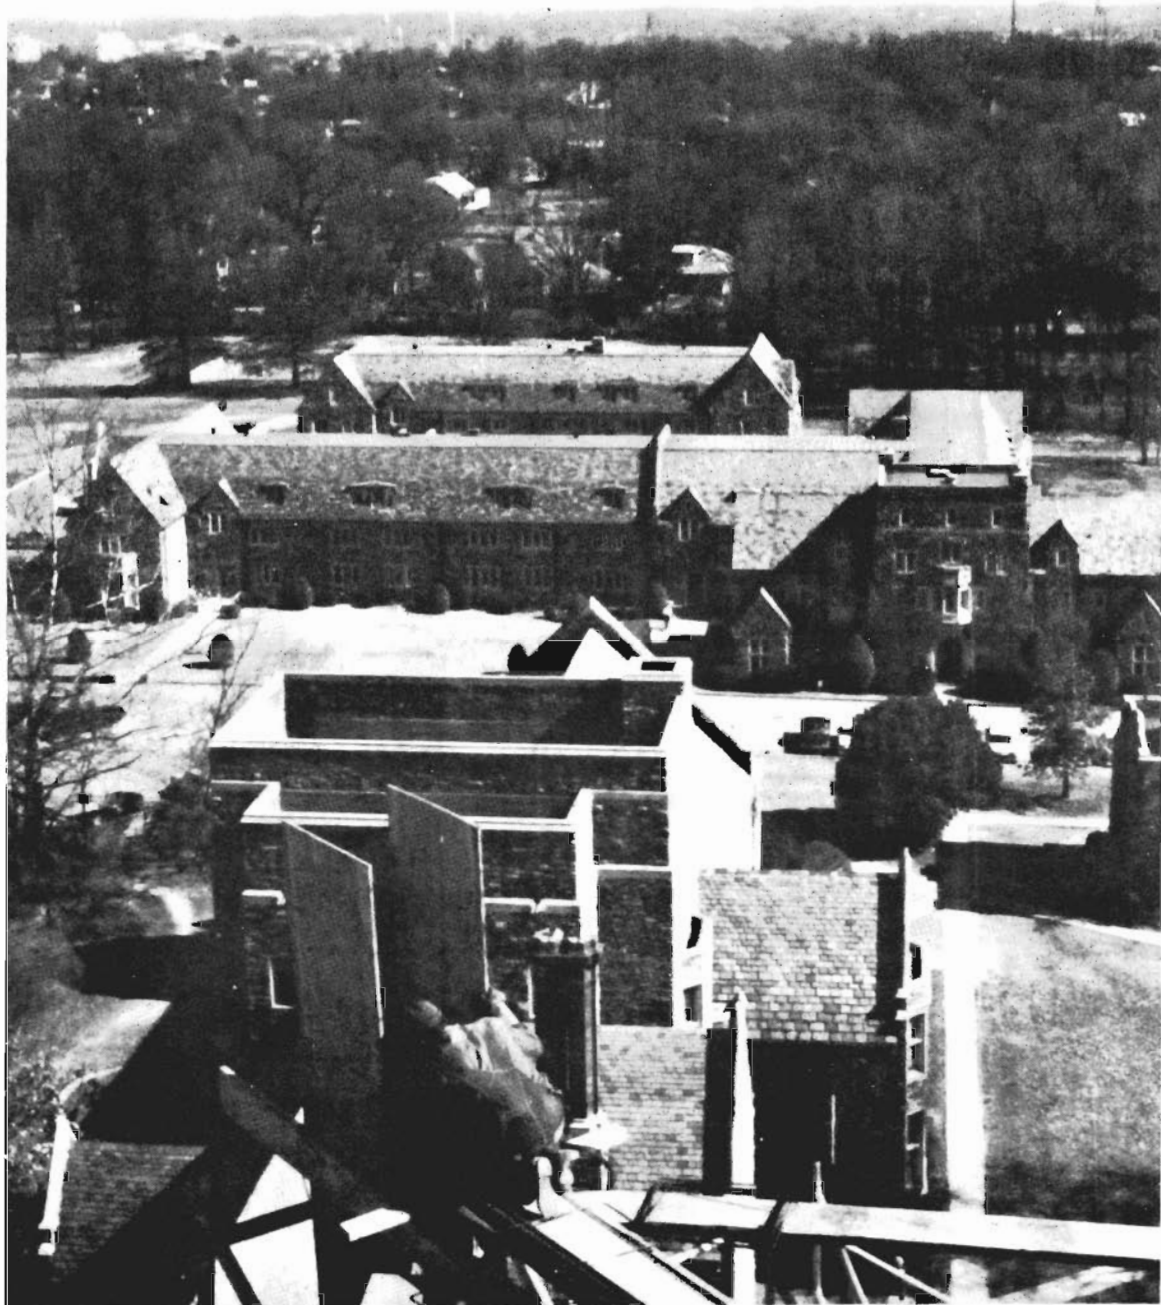

and the proud graduates went their separate ways.
