Course Overview:

This course will survey American history from 1900 to the present time. Using both secondary and primary source documentation, students will come to an understanding of the myriad forces that worked to shape what many call “The American Century.” In addition to using traditional political and economic viewpoints for historical interpretation, students will also assess the impact of social and cultural forces on our collective past. This comprehensive perspective will enable students to come to an understanding as to how and why history is constructed and to answer fundamental questions about history and the historical process: Who writes it? Who reads it? What are its purposes? To this end, students will be required to analyze critique and interpret primary source materials as they offer their own view of historical events and construct some historical documentation of their own. Given the central nature of primary texts and our reactions to them, active participation during class will form an essential element of the course. Of course, students are expected to complete all reading and written assignments.

Books:

- Hyser and Arndt, Voices of the American Past (VAP)
- Jones, Wood, et al., Created Equal (CE)
- Rowan, South of Freedom

Course Requirements:

One essay – (5 – 7 pages) due March 25 – 20%

Examinations – 50% of final grade:

- Midterm: 25%
- Final: 25%

Both the midterm and the final will consist of short answer questions and essay questions. The midterm will be given in class on March 11. The final exam is scheduled for Saturday May 7 at 9:30AM. Please inform your travel agent/mother/rich uncle or whoever else is in charge of making your travel plans that these test dates will not be moved.

Class Participation – 30% of final grade:

In class, you should be prepared to actively discuss the readings and respond to the lecture. Remember though, that while class participation is crucial, it is not a contest. The people who talk the most do not necessarily “win.” What really counts is your ability and willingness to bring something valuable to the discussion that your colleagues and I can build upon in our efforts to bring some clarity to the issues presented in the class. In addition, coming to the office to discuss material covered in the class, or engaging in a substantive electronic conversation also count (broadly) as class participation.

Honor Code:

All work turned in for this course is to be completed in accordance with the Rhodes College Honor Code. To demonstrate your commitment to the Code, each student must write “pledged” and sign his/her name on every assignment. If you have questions about plagiarism you should talk to me directly.

Policies:

Note on written work:

All written work must be composed on a computer, be double-spaced and in 10 or 12 point font. Have your name, the assignment name (and number if necessary), date, course name and email address on each document you turn in. Students who feel that they need assistance with written assignments should feel free to contact me so that we can discuss whatever challenges you may be facing.

Attendance:

Attendance is mandatory. Students will be allowed three unexcused absences. All other absences after the third one must be excused. Each unexcused absence after the third one will cost you 5% of your final grade. If you miss three weeks worth of classes, you can be dropped from the class or flunked. Valid excuses for missing class include but are not limited to religious observances, college-sanctioned academic or athletic travel, personal illness or injury, family illness or injury or bereavement. Needless to say, infrequent class attendance will negatively impact your final grade.

Paper/test grades:

As a general rule, grades are not negotiable. However, I will gladly discuss the grade on any assignment 24 hours after the work is turned in.

Paper Policies:

Papers are due at the beginning of class and I define “beginning” as the first fifteen (15) minutes. On the 16th minute, your paper is late, and I do not accept late papers. “My computer crashed” or “the printer jammed a few minutes ago” are not reasons to excuse/accept a late paper; rather, they are a testament to poor time management on your part. However, please keep in mind that, while I do not accept late papers, you must turn in all of the assigned work in order to pass the class. Of course, I will accept a late paper with an acceptable, college-sanctioned excuse.

Citation:

Papers should be written using the Chicago citation style. This style may be viewed at http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html. If you have any questions about proper citation, please refer to this site, and then contact me.

Missed Tests:

Make-up exams are available for students who miss an exam for an excusable reason (see above). Students should contact me and arrange a mutually convenient time within a week of the student’s return.

Learning Differences:

I am strongly committed to accommodating students with disabilities, and ask your cooperation in making sure that I’m aware of any such accommodation you might need. For more information, please contact Student Disability Services to alert them of any needs you may have.

Additional Information:

- Please turn off all cell phones, pagers, games, and any other object that can beep, buzz, ring or vibrate. These devices are extremely disruptive when they go off in the middle of class
- I reserve the right to amend this syllabus as necessary
