Audition Dates: Music: November 20, 2004 or January 29, 2005
Theatre: November 20, 2004 or January 29, 2004

Award Values: The eight awards are valued at $11,000 per year.

Award Conditions: Award winners are required to make satisfactory progress towards a major or minor in art, music or theatre at Rhodes.

Auditions: If you are interested in auditioning for theatre or music, or in submitting a portfolio to the art department, you must do the following:

1. Complete the registration form found in this brochure.
2. Carefully follow the directions outlined for each program. Each department has different requirements for its competition.
3. Submit all registration and audition materials to the Music Department and/or Theatre Department no later than November 11, 2004, for the November 20 audition date, or no later than January 20, 2005, for the January 29 audition date.

Please note: Students may audition for an award in more than one department; however, all guidelines must be followed for the individual departments concerned. Students must apply for admission to Rhodes by January 15, 2004, to be eligible to receive a Fine Arts Award. Do not include registration, audition forms, letters of recommendation specific to the competition or slide submissions in your application for admission.

If a student qualifies for a Fine Arts Award and another competitive scholarship, only one scholarship (whichever is greater) will be awarded.

Questions concerning the Fine Arts Awards Competition should be addressed to the appropriate department. Questions regarding applications for admission or the admissions process should be directed to Marie Brandewiede in the Office of Admissions (1-800-844-5969 or locally, 843-3700).
