THE 1954 LYNX

EMILY MCKAY - - - - - EDITOR

JENNIE LEE DAVIS - - - - - BUSINESS MANAGER

We present,
for its students,
professors,
and friends,

A view of Southwestern
in pictures . . .

An attempt to preserve the highlights of the 1953-54 session

. . . As a tribute to the institution
that will remain
vivid in the hearts of those who pass through Southwestern's portals.

To

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Rollow

. . . Whose lives have been devoted to the institution that they love . . .

. . . Whose service to Southwestern has been of infinite value . . .

. . . Whose heartfelt concern and effort have been extended to the problems of many generations of Southwesterners . . .

. . . Whose patience has answered every call—no problem being too insignificant for their attention nor any task too great for them to master.

Your place in the "heart of Southwestern" has a permanent position. We show our appreciation as we dedicate this 1954 LYNX to you, "Mr. Johnnie" and "Miss Louise."

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rollow

The Students Of Southwestern

offer

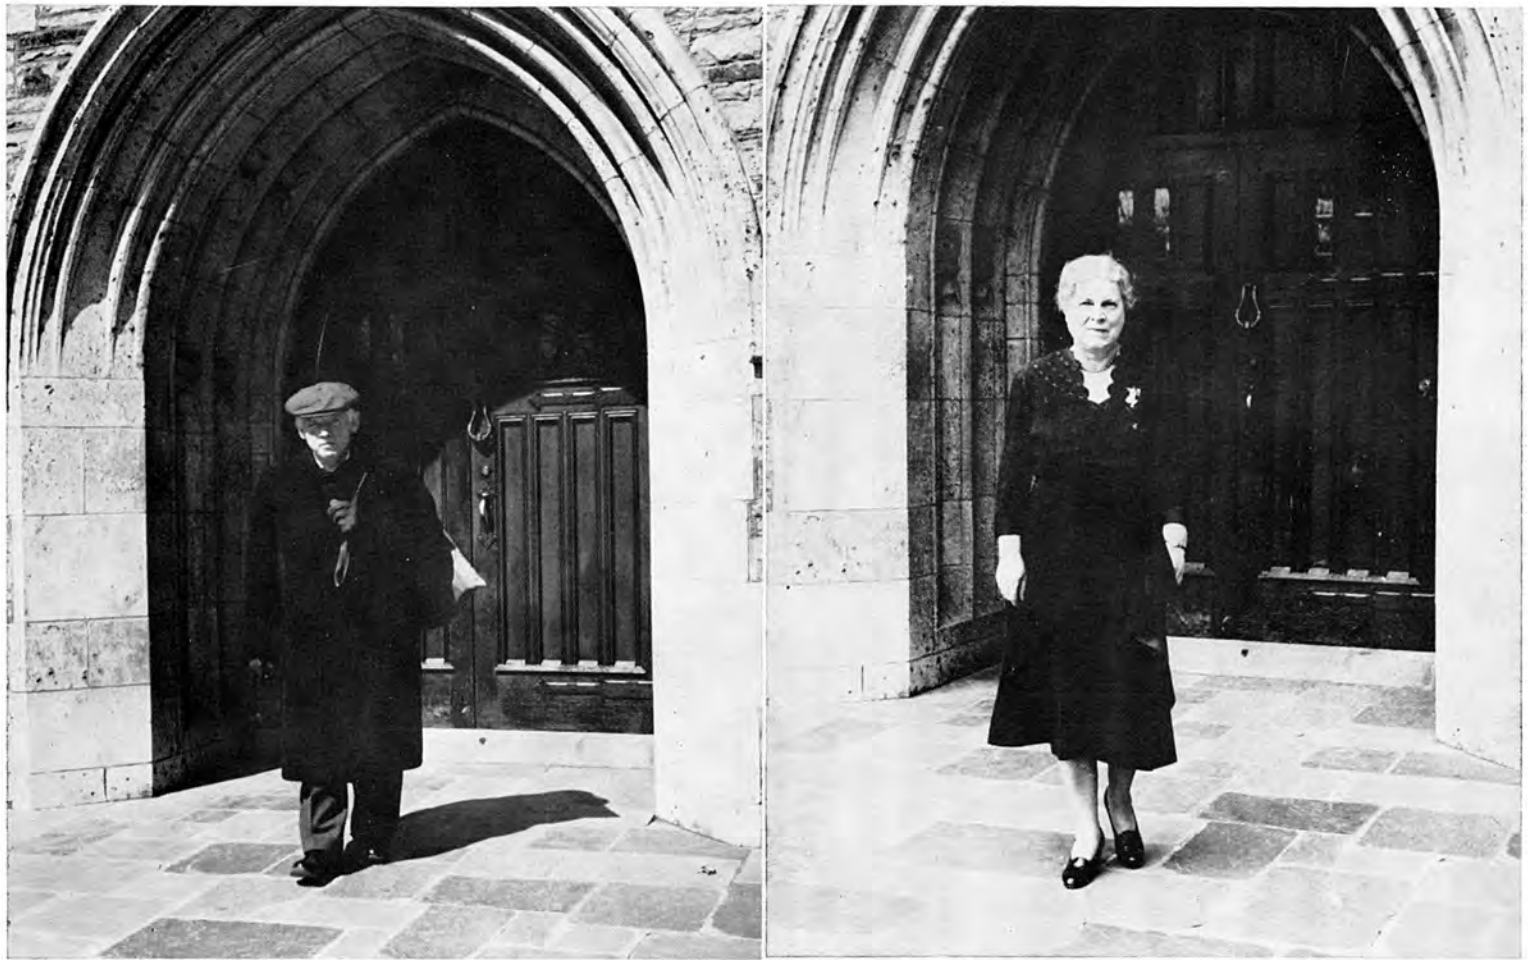

A TRIBUTE

to Dr. and Mrs. Charles Louis Townsend

as we say farewell to a couple

- . . who personify the liberal arts . .
- . . who have diligently served Southwestern for over three decades . . .
- . . whose influence on the lives of many Southwesterners has been permanent . . .
- . . who are masters in their fields of learning . . .
- . . and who, still, are true scholars.

Dr. and Mrs. Townsend, we have all benefited greatly from our association with you. Let this tribute be a reminder that your memory will not be forgotten, as we say "good-bye" to you.

DR. CHARLES LOUIS TOWNSEND

MRS. MARGARET HUXTABLE TOWNSEND

MEMPHIS 12, TENNESSEE

Valedictory

Thomas DeQuincey of the day he ran away from school was moved to write, "It is a just and feeling remark of Dr. Johnson's (Samuel) that we never do anything consciously for the last time (of things, that is to say, which we have been long in the habit of doing), without sadness of heart." Still more true must that statement be of teachers who have spent over a half of their lives in one college. A book is closed; a door is shut. But memory will illuminate happy associations with former students. It is with heartfelt sincerity that we say to them

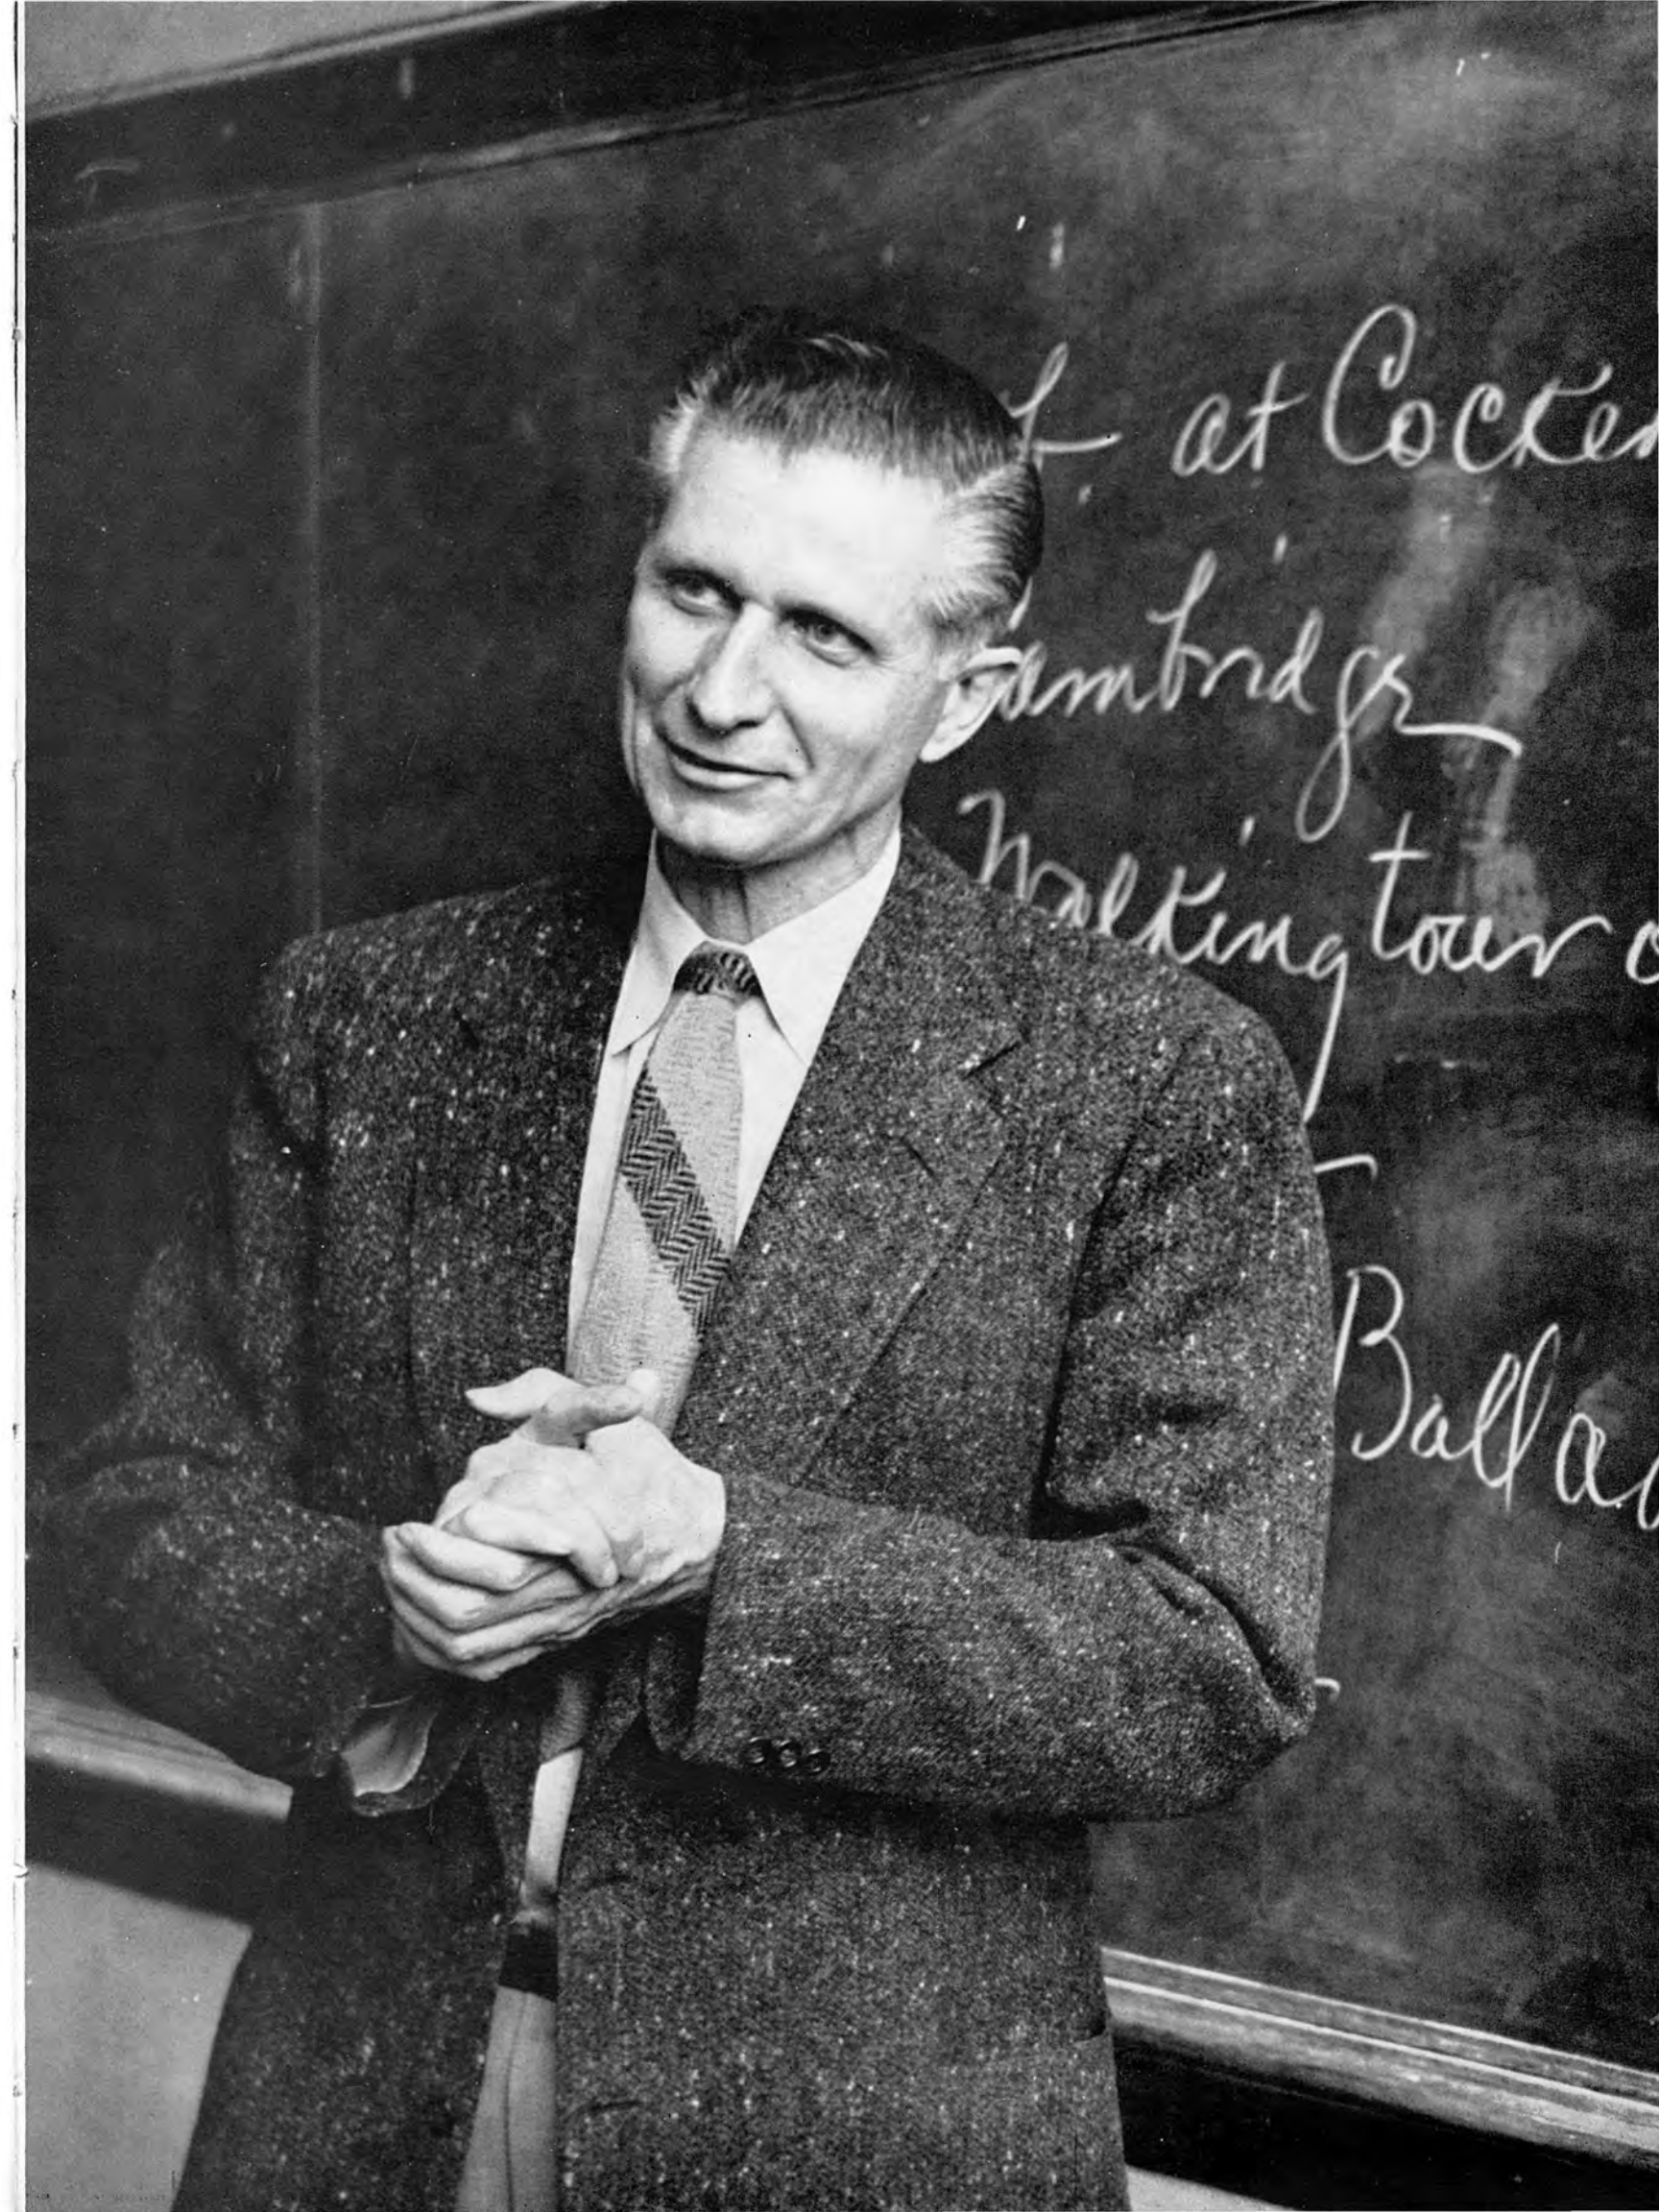

Fare Well,

Margaret Townsend

ATHLETICS

Football — 1953-1954

The Southwestern "Lynx" are undergoing an athletic rebuilding program in football. The team had an unfavorable record on paper but the memories on Fargason Field will not be forgotten. The highlight of the season was during the Hendrix game, when Jimmy Higgason, in a show of brilliant broken-field running, scooted for a 100 yard T.D. Crawford Street booted the extra point. The line held for three quarters to give the "Cats" a well-deserved victory and a promise for 1954.

Basketball

The basketball squad turned in many thrills in the old Field House. Paced by Clyde Carlisle and Bob Jackson, the "Hoopsters" came through with many victories over such creditable foes as Sewanee, University of Chattanooga and Millsaps. David Kaylor had a field goal percentage that ranked him in the top twenty in small college competition. The squad in general was ranked in small colleges with their overall percentage of field goals. Ben Lamberth and John Lawhorn provided the scoring threat that pulled the team out of the hole to win in the clutch. The "Lynx" won the final game ever to be played in Fargason Field House before a capacity crowd of students and alumni. The team turned in the best season in the last six years and the prospects indicate a better season next year.

TRACK

The men of the "cinders" are headed by such standouts as Captain Pete Street, who consistently stops the clock under ten seconds in the 100 yard dash and also stops it under 22 seconds in the 220 yard dash. He holds the Fargason Track record in both the 100 and 220. Bob Jackson takes care of the field events with high jumps around six feet and over. He also throws the javelin and discus. Jim Gillis adds depth to the field events in the shot-put and the discus. Tom Tosh takes care of the middle distances in very good time. The team in general is lacking in depth, but since track was just reinstated as an official spring sport, it has made some fine showings.

GOLF

The Southwestern golfers are bolstered by Freshmen Frank Cothran and Billy McLean, Semi-finalist in the National Junior Golf Tournament. Jim Napier and Reg Germany are the only returning veterans from last year's team. The team plays an outstanding schedule which includes the Southern Intercollegiate Golf Tournament in Georgia. Coach Pat Abbott has been making corrections and by mid-season the team should hit its stride and turn in a very good record.

Henry

Coach Derrick Barton, in his second year as tennis coach, has turned out a team that is capable of winning all of their matches. As the LYNX goes to press, the team has won all its matches. Tom Crais and Burton Henry are expected to take the T.I.A.C. tennis tournament in May. The team plays many of the mid-

South tennis powers, such as Ole Miss, Georgia, and Emory. Tom Buford, a Nashville, Tennessee, freshman, has shown such promise that he has earned the number three spot in the lineup. With a couple of matches under his belt, he will be hard to beat—just watch him next year!

BASEBALL

The "big sticks" and "horsehide" began to reign as Spring hit the air. Tommy Jones, the team's leading hitter, who hit for a .485 last season, will be holding down his position in the center garden, while Captain Clark Young will hold down the left field berth. Mark Waters, the flashy second sacker, will be one of the key links in the double play combination with Jack Bugbee at first base. The pitching department will be in good hands with veterans

John Lawhorn and Bill Williams. The schedule includes many of the Northern small college powerhouses as well as some of the larger ones. Notre Dame, Wabash, and Memphis State make some large hurdles for the team to tackle. As the LYNX goes to press, the record stands at one win and one loss. Coach Johnson is very optimistic about the outcome of the rest of the schedule and is predicting a good year.

Women's Athletics

Under the direction of the Women's Athletic Association, along with Misses Madelyn Richardson and Ida Williams, women's intramural athletics has seen a very successful season. Concentration was centered on four major events—basketball, volleyball, softball, and field day. Alpha Omicron Pi won the over-all trophy, with Kappa Delta winning the runner-up award.

Basketball was held before the sorority rushing season, with the Independent Girls playing an undefeated season. AOPi lost only to the freshmen, so the Cutie-Pies took the basketball trophy.

AOPi and DDD tied in the round robin volleyball tournament and in the play-off match, the Alpha O's emerged victorious, thus winning the volleyball points, with the girls of Tri-Delta taking second place points.

With Spring came the softball season, and again the AOPi's gained victory in the play-off game with the KD's, copping their third trophy in as many tries.

Field Day included tennis, badminton, ping-pong, and track. Chi Omega won the tennis, badminton, and track events with the AOPi's taking first place in ping-pong. The trophy for field day went to Chi Omega, with AOPi coming in second.

The enthusiasm and cooperation shown by the women students for the intramural events this year made the program a treat and a success!

Closing Thoughts . . .

April 12, 1954

With the last picture pasted on the dummy and all the copy ready for the printer, I pause with great sighs of relief, having approached the point that I thought many times I'd never see.

Preparing this publication hasn't been a bed of roses or even a patch of pansies. Herding the sheep to the basement of Palmer for class pictures was no easier than trying to convince the turkey that Thanksgiving is a lovely season. But, the pictures were finally all taken. Announcements in Wednesday assembly were usually ignored; the ultimatums brought results! For my attitude I apologize, but it did seem necessary if this volume were to be published. John McKinney ran from my threats all year, but you see he turned out some good pictures. Aside from all these headaches, it really wasn't so bad!

There are many people to whom I am deeply grateful for the assistance that they offered. John McKinney probably deserves most of the credit, for without his aid all these pages would be blank, despite the fact that he always chose appropriate moments to run out of film. To Mary Rodriguez, Burton Henry, Orley Lilly, Gay Rush, Elaine Vickrey, and Mr. C. L. Springfield, I offer the deepest thanks. Dr. John Q. Wolf, C. B. Johnston & Co., printers, Bluff City Engraving Co., and Bill Snell of the S. K. Smith Co., who made the covers, deserve also in this space my kindest gratitude.

So, here it is! If you find any mistakes, blame the staff; but if you like it, tell me!

Thanks to all of you,

"Em"
