Subject: Peacemaking Services: Oct. 21 and Nov. 7

The Chaplain's Office and Servant Leaders Program are co-sponsoring two upcoming services for peace. These services are for our campus and the very broad Memphis community. Please help spread the word, join us, and call me if you would like to be more involved. ---Billy, ext. 3804.

Ecumenical Peacemaking Service

On the grounds of 1300 Monroe tomorrow, October 21st at 5:30 p.m.

This service of Christian liturgy will be one of lamentation, confession, repentance and deliverance from our addiction to violence and perpetuation of war. It will include symbols representing the fallen on all sides of the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq. Pass the Word!! Our city needs this worship and witness. Hosted by the Memphis School of Servant Leadership and community leaders from Rhodes and six denominations.

Multifaith Prayers for Peace, with music, dance and multicultural celebration

Sunday, November 7 at 3:00 PM in the BCLC Ballroom at Rhodes

Multiple faith communities from throughout Memphis and student groups from Rhodes will come together to proclaim God's call to peace and justice. Join with us as we celebrate our many faith traditions and renew our common commitments for peace and justice in our world. This program is for the entire Memphis multifaith community and all those who share the hunger and determination for peace in our community and in the world. This gathering will include Servant Leaders Program, Catholic Student Assoc., Rhodes Muslim Student Assoc. Muslims in Memphis, Hillel, Rhodes Jewish Student Organization, India Cultural Center and Temple, The Ministry (gospel choir), NCCJ, Westminster Presbyterian Fellowship, Unitarian All Souls, Members of Pilgrim House at First Congo, and other campus and community groups.
