

[page 3]

Meeting No. 1

Minutes of the Executive Committee of the South Western Presbyterian University

June, 1888

The Executive Committee met in the office of Mr. Kennedy at the North [?] Bank at 4 o'clock. [?].

Mr. Kennedy, who had been [?] printed by the Committee to [?] to some monies of the University reported that he had purchased seven thousand and five hundred dollars worth ($7, 500) of Clarksville City bonds at [?]-sixteen and four thousand dollars [?] of Clarksville city bonds at [?]

He reported also that, after failing to get what was wanted of Clarksville city bonds, he had [?] authority purchased one thousand Memphis taxing district bonds [?] Mr. G. W. Macrae, who pronounced the instrument safe and good. The purchase of [?] bonds was approved by the Committee.

The Committee adjourned

C.C. Hessman