

[page 7]

Meeting No. 3

Clarksville, Tennessee
September 8, 1888

The Executive Committee met at the office of D. N. Kennedy, Esq. in the Northern Bank. Present, C.C. Hersman, Chairman, Dr. Lupton, and D. N. Kennedy, Esq.

The following bill of Gen. R. Wood, painter was allowed. Painting desk and door of Chancellor's Office $1.50. Painting door of chapel 50 cents. 21 glass glazing and [?] $8.00. Cleaning the class in the window of the Chancellor's Office $1.35. Painting new tin [?] on the University Building $3.00. Total: $14.36.

The committee authorized the Chairman [?] in the two main entrances to University grounds so as to exclude the [?] the grounds. This method was thought to be more effective than ordinary stiles or [?] stiles.

The Chairman was authorized to let the candidates for the ministry here the use of such furniture now stored in Robb /hall as may not be [?] there to furnish rooms for them in case rooms can be had by the students, candidates for the ministry. A list of articles furnished to each student is to be in recorded in a suitable place.

The committee adjourned

C.C. Hersman