Meeting No. 7

Clarksville, Tennessee
December 15, 1888

Executive Committee met at the office of D. N. Kennedy Esq. present C.C. Hersman, Chancellor, D. N. Kennedy Esq., and Rev. J.W. Lupton.

The note of Mr. H. C. Merritt, given for his subscription of one thousand dollars to the Centennial Endowment Fund of the University was accepted.

A contract was made with Major Thompson (colored) to put out as many trees on the grounds of the University as the Committee may direct. The trees were to be put out in good order, carefully dug with as many fine roots to show as possible, the [?] for transplanting to be dug large enough to give ample room for the roots and all to have for [?] put around [?] to furnish the fertilizer. Thompson was to be put them out immediately.

Committee Adjourned,
CC Hersman
