

Civil War Legacies: A Sesquicentennial Symposium

March 25 ~ 7 p.m.

McCallum Ballroom, Bryan Campus Life Center

Free and Open to the Public

Edward Ayers, president and professor of history at the University of Richmond; Nancy Bercaw, associate professor of history at the University of Mississippi; David Blight, professor of history at Yale University; Kenneth Goings, professor of history at The Ohio State University; and John McCardell, the recently-named president of the University of the South (Sewanee) will participate. Timothy S. Huebner, professor and chair of the Department of History at Rhodes College, will serve as moderator.

A reception and book signing will follow the discussion.

Rhodes College
—1848—

Co-sponsored by the Rhodes College Department of History, the Department of History at St. George's Independent School, the American Civil War Center at Historic Tredegar Iron Works in Richmond, Virginia, and the National Civil Rights Museum in Memphis.

For more information, contact Timothy S. Huebner, Chair, Department of History, at 901.843.3653 or by e-mail: huebner@rhodes.edu.