

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. Celebration

January 17

Black In History . . .

The Movement of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Open Mic Night

Lynx Lair

6 – 8 p.m.

Doors open at 5:30.

Free and open to the public.

This event will be hosted by Memphis' own Sené. Come out and celebrate Dr. Martin Luther King's timeless legacy with a night of true inspiration and Open Mic!

January 18

MLK Birthday Party and Educational Workshop

Frazier Jelke

1 p.m. – 3 p.m.

Rhodes students will lead the party for Snowden, Promise Academy and Springdale Elementary students in grades 2-4. The activities will include crafts, an "I have a dream" quilt, a film on Dr. King for the parents, and birthday cake! Literature, including some of Dr. King's speeches, biographical information, and other facts about the civil rights struggle, will be distributed.

January 18

Service Plunge

If you are interested in providing your services in the community on this day, please contact Lindsey Gibson at Gibsonl1@rhodes.edu or visit the Bonner Scholars Office in Briggs.

January 19

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.: An Evening of Reflection

Bryan Campus Life Center, McCallum Ballroom

7 p.m.

Free and open to the public.

This program will feature a variety of responses to Dr. King's legacy by Rhodes students, as well as students from our MCS partner schools: Snowden, Springdale and Cypress.

Rhodes College
—1848—