Note from the Chair:

It is my sincere pleasure to introduce to you the 2013-14 season of musical offerings from the Rhodes College Department of Music.

I believe in the future and the tradition will go on.

—Dave Brubeck

When it comes to music, as in life, we are indebted to those who came before us. Our talent, ability and work ethic are formed and shaped by our lineage and teachers. It is incumbent upon us to use what we have learned from others to make a better tomorrow.

Brubeck's maxim—I believe in the future and the tradition will go on—encapsulates the music program here at Rhodes. The future looks bright for the Rhodes College Department of Music. We celebrate receiving accreditation from the National Association of the Schools of Music, and adding a state-of-the-art Macintosh Computer Music Technology Center. We will enjoy many enhancements to our performing facilities this coming year.

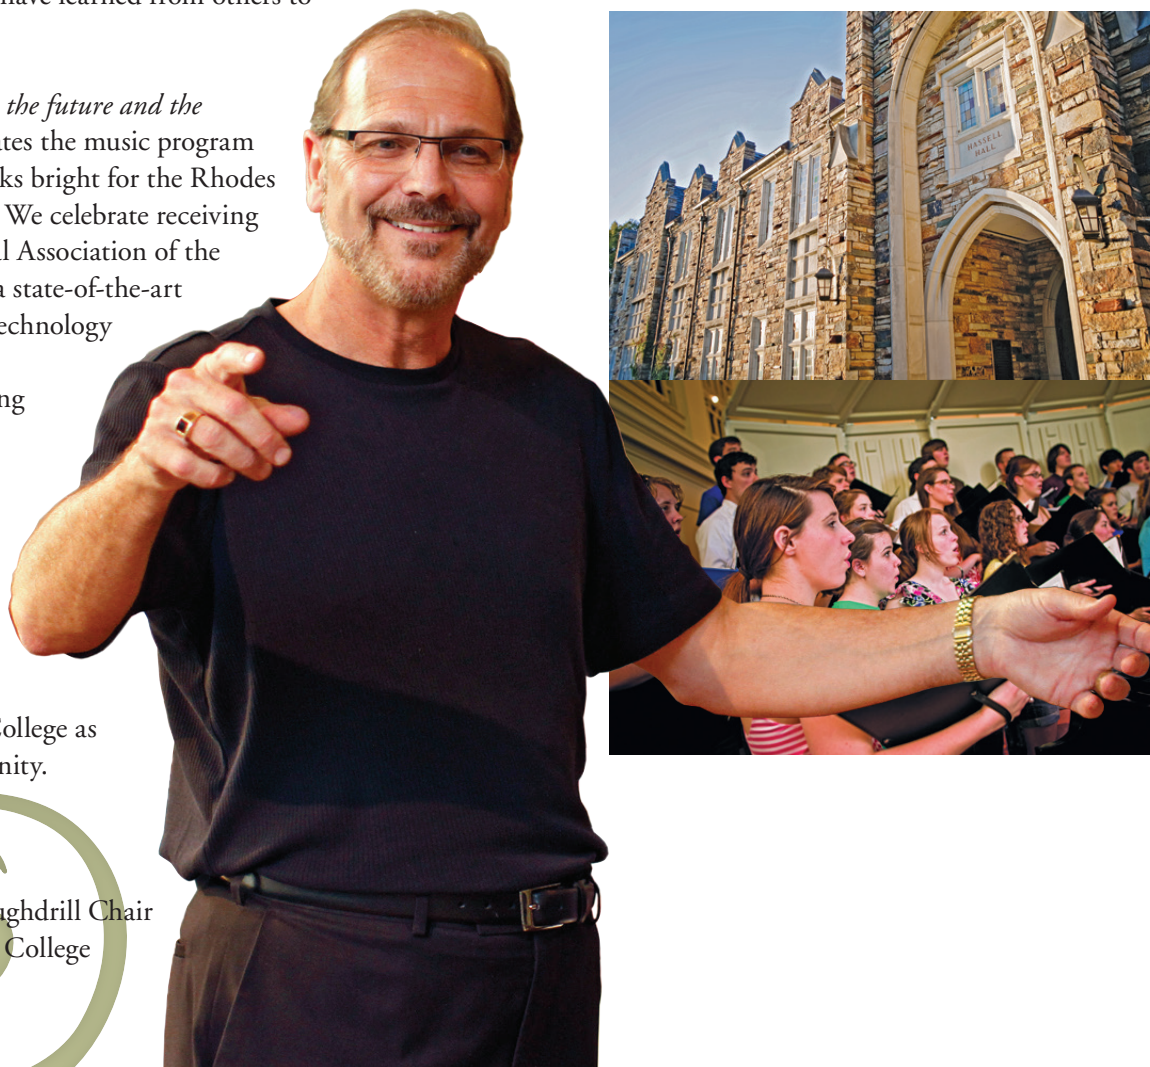

It is my hope you will find our season full of opportunities that are fulfilling, moving and enjoyable. Join us as we build upon the rich traditions of music, while shaping a promising future for Rhodes College as part of the greater arts community.

Warmest regards,

William Skoog, Elizabeth Daughdrill Chair
Department of Music, Rhodes College

"Damn it, when I'm bombastic, I have my reasons. I want to be bombastic: take it or leave it."

—Dave Brubeck
