

The Department of Art and the Urban Studies Program Present

A PUBLIC ART COLLOQUIUM: PUBLIC ART & COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Please join us for a discussion with master muralist Eric Okdeh and Noni Clemens, administrative manager, Philadelphia Mural Arts, Art Education Department

Thursday, February 16, 2012, at 7:00 p.m.

The Orgill Room of Clough Hall

The public is invited to attend this free lecture

The Philadelphia Mural Arts Program unites artists and communities through a collaborative process, rooted in the traditions of mural making, to create art that transforms public spaces and individual lives. Since its inception in 1984, the Mural Arts Program has produced more than 3,500 collaborative murals and provides critical art education and workforce development opportunities.

Rhodes College
—1848—

Sponsored by The Lillian and Morrie Moss Endowment for the Visual Arts