The National Park Service has reviewed the "Historic Certification Application - Part 2" for the above-listed "certified historic structure" and has determined:

- that the completed rehabilitation meets the Secretary of the Interior's "Standards for Rehabilitation" and is consistent with the historic character of the property or the district in which it is located. Effective the date indicated below, the rehabilitation of the "certified historic structure" is hereby designated a "certified rehabilitation." A copy of this certification has been provided to the Department of the Treasury in accordance with Federal law. This letter of certification is to be used in conjunction with appropriate Internal Revenue Service regulations. Questions concerning specific tax consequences or interpretation of the Internal Revenue Code should be addressed to the appropriate local Internal Revenue Service office. Completed projects may be inspected by an authorized representative of the Secretary to determine if the work meets the "Standards for Rehabilitation." The Secretary reserves the right to make inspections at any time up to five years after completion of the rehabilitation and to revoke certification, if it is determined that the rehabilitation project was not undertaken as presented by the owner in the application form and supporting documentation, or the owner, upon obtaining certification, undertook unapproved further alterations as part of the rehabilitation project inconsistent with the Secretary's "Standards for Rehabilitation."
- that the rehabilitation is not consistent with the historic character of the property or the district in which it is located and that the project does not meet the Secretary of the Interior's "Standards for Rehabilitation." A copy of this form will be provided to the Internal Revenue Service
