A GREETING FROM THE PRESIDENT

I always look forward to sending a word of greeting and welcome to students who are about to make Southwestern their academic home.

Many people have a curious idea about a college and what a college is for. They do not realize that it is a very active, vibrating and varied place which tries to maintain a strong core of valid custom and tradition and yet reacts constantly to the impact of world conditions. I suppose stability within change would be a good description.

The beauty, character, and strength of collegiate Gothic form a background of dignity where persons who are curious, interested, and concerned about almost any area of knowledge can begin seriously to build a sound basis for a lifetime of liberal education.

Southwestern has a distinguished past. Its future depends in great measure on the good sense of each individual who constitutes a part of the student body and faculty. I bid you welcome to a period of intellectual excitement, personal achievement, and of maturing spiritual, mental, and physical values. If you will do your work promptly and well, many satisfactions and rewards will be yours.

Cordially yours,

Peyton N. Rhodes

THROUGH THE YEARS

Southwestern is a fully accredited college of liberal arts and sciences. Twenty directors, elected by the Synods of Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana of the Presbyterian Church, determine the policies of the college.

The College was founded by the Tennessee Masonic Grand Lodge at Clarksville in 1848. A prominent Mason and Presbyterian, W. M. Stewart, was chosen as the first President. Later, when the Synod of Nashville began supporting the school, it was renamed in his honor. In 1861 the school became a college of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and in 1875 was incorporated as Southwestern Presbyterian University.

Dr. Charles E. Diehl, the builder of Southwestern at Memphis, was elected president in 1917. His vision of excellence resulted in the college's location on the large new Memphis campus, serving a wider area and drawing stimulus from the city around it, in the superb and enduring physical plant, and in the high quality of education for which the college stands. Also during his administration, in 1921, the men's college became co-educational.

Dr. Peyton N. Rhodes became president in 1949 and has carried forward all the original ideals of quality into the college's many new phases of development.

Seven new buildings have been added during his administration; Southwestern has become nationally recognized as one of the outstanding centers for adult education; a scientific research center has been established; and the college has greatly enlarged its services to the community and to the church. Meanwhile, the student body fast approaches its ultimate goal of 1,000 and faculty additions are made to maintain the high faculty-student ratio.

Circular in form, the red and black seal of Southwestern is centered by a black shield representing faith. Quartering the shield is a St. Andrew's Cross denoting Christianity, and in the middle of the cross lies an open Bible, the heart of Southwestern's being. Each of the shield's four divisions bears a symbol representing a period in the college's history—as a Masonic College at Clarksville, founded in 1848; as "Stewart College" (1855-75); as "Southwestern Presbyterian University" (1875-1925); and finally as "Southwestern at Memphis" when it was moved to Memphis.

The intertwined sprigs of oak and laurel under the shield signify strength and victory. Surrounding the shield on the other three sides are the words "Truth, Loyalty, Service"—the fundamental precepts of Southwestern.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Academic

The Dean of the college, Dr. Jameson M. Jones, is directly responsible to the president in all matters pertaining to the faculty and student body; particularly in those matters concerning curriculum and discipline. Some of his tasks connected with the students are: approving class changes, regular course changes, and excusing absences, and acting as chairman of the Administrative Committee. The Dean's office is located in the Tower Building; his office hours are posted on the door.

The Dean of Women, Miss Anne S. Caldwell, is available to women students for consultation; all girls are invited to visit her office, which is located in the Tower Building. One of Dean Caldwell's most helpful jobs is aiding women students in finding interesting summer employment.

The Dean of Men, Charles I. Diehl, also has an office in the Tower Building, and invites new students to come in and discuss courses of study.

Dr. W. Taylor Reveley, Dean of Admissions and Records, heads the admissions offices which occupy three rooms on the first floor of Palmer Hall. John C. Turpin, the associate registrar, is available to help with schedule problems, and Mrs. John Q. Wolf is admissions counselor.

Residence Halls

The women's residence halls, Townsend, Voorhies, and East Halls are under the jurisdiction of student governing boards. A copy of the residence hall's rules is mailed to all new women students who plan to live in the residence halls.

The resident head of Voorhies Hall is Mrs. A. H. Cable. Mrs. Paul M. Watson is the resident head of Townsend Hall. Miss Janice Doyle is the assistant resident head. Miss Susan Smyth and Miss Margaret Johnson are the assistant resident heads of East Hall. Miss Sue Dean is president of the Voorhies Governing Board. Miss Janice Baker is the coordinating president of all four halls.

The five men's residence halls are governed by a president in each hall, elected by the students. These presidents are: James Riley Crawford, White Hall; Cyril Hollingsworth, Stewart Hall; Oliver Dickens, Robb Hall; David Watts, Ellett Hall; Bill Potts and Howard Edington, Bellingrath Hall.

Health

The newly completed Moore infirmary is maintained for the treatment of ordinary student illnesses. Dr. J. L. The college provides, at no cost to the student, accident, sickness, and hospitalization insurance. Students requiring special services must be referred by the college physician in order for the insurance to be effective.

Visiting hours at the infirmary are from 3:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M. only.

Lost and Found

Lost and found articles are handled through the cashier's office in room 103 of Palmer Hall.

Student Aid

Students needing aid should see Dean Taylor Reveley. Part-time campus employment is available for a limited number of students.

Lynx Lair

The Lynx Lair, located on the ground level of Neely Hall, is operated by Mr. Bob Poole solely for the convenience of the students at no profit to the college. There are bridge tables, a juke box, and a snack counter for the students' enjoyment. Dancing is allowed.

The Lair is closed on Sunday. Opening hours are to be arranged and will be announced in September.

Chapel

College convocations for all faculty and students are held each weekday in Hardie Auditorium in the east end of the second floor in Palmer Hall. More specific information is to be found concerning chapel convocations under college regulations in this handbook.

Tutoring

Tutoring services are handled through the Dean of Women's office. Anyone wishing a tutor should notify this office.

COLLEGE REGULATIONS

Rules are kept to a minimum at Southwestern. The following are traditional proprieties and customs.

Conduct befitting a lady or gentleman is expected of all Southwestern students. Rowdiness, drunkenness, and other improper conduct will result in the expulsion from the college of all persons involved. No intoxicants are to be served at any dance, party, or other function given by any college organization or brought into any building or kept anywhere (including in automobiles) on the campus. Students are not allowed to have guns on the campus or keep animals in their rooms.

1. No smoking is permitted in the halls, cloister, classrooms, laboratories, or dining halls.

2. There will be no card playing in the social room of Palmer Hall.

3. A college convocation is held in Hardie Auditorium at 10:30 every Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday. These convocations are for worship services, concerts, and lectures of cultural or educational value. On Wednesday a Student Assembly is held in Mallory Gymnasium; the entire student body meets together for discussion of student needs and activities. All regular students are required to attend at least three times per week; schedules for this purpose will be set up in the fall. No books or study materials are to be taken into chapel programs at any time.

4. Boarding students may keep cars on the campus only by strict adherence to the rules set forth in the catalogue.

5. Shorts and slacks are not to be worn on the campus by women students, except when participating in athletics or decorating.

6. Cars shall be parked on the college grounds only in those parking areas provided by the college.

7. In order to change a course, a student must have the permission of the instructor and the dean. If any irregularity is involved in the course change, a student must present a petition, with his faculty advisor's signature on it, to the Classification Committee. More information may be obtained in the catalogue.

8. In order to graduate, a student must have completed 124 semester hours of work, with 124 quality points. Quality points are given by grades as well as hours. An "A" counts three quality points per hour, a "B" two, a "C" one, and a "D" or "F" counts none. Therefore, an "A" in a three hour course is nine quality points; in a four hour course, it is twelve points.

9. The grade point system of averages counts "A" as four points, "B" as three, "C" as two, "D" as one, and "F" as none.

Class Attendance

Regular attendance is essential for success in academic work and is required of all students. Each instructor will take attendance rolls daily. Students should present to their instructors a written explanation of absences they consider necessary. When and if a student's absence from class seems to the instructor to jeopardize the student's work in the course or is so persistent as to justify a formal inquiry, the instructor will call the matter to the attention of the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women who will, when necessary, bring in the student's adviser in investigating and judging the situation. Notice will then be sent to the student, the parents, and the instructor as a warning that further absences may lead to suspension from and failure in the course. If and when a student's absences seem to the instructor to make the student unfit to continue in the course, the instructor will make a written recommendation to the Dean of Men or to the Dean of Women that the student be dropped from the course. On recommendation from a committee composed of the Dean, the Dean of Men and the Dean of Women, the Registrar will drop the student from the course. If a student is recommended for exclusion from as many as two classes, his parents will be urged to withdraw him from college; if he is recommended for exclusion from as many as three classes, he will be required to withdraw from college.

The above provisions apply to all students. The following and additional regulations apply to freshmen only. The faculty will report to the Registrar all freshmen absences not later than the Monday after the absences occur. Freshmen seeking excuse for absence must present a written request to the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women within one week after their return to classes. Absences on the two days before and after stated holidays count double.

In case of excessive absences, academic credits will be added to the number required for graduation on the basis of one-third credit for each unexcused absence in excess of the unpenalized number of absences, which number is the same as the number of semester hours represented by the course. If the fractional deductions exceed one half-hour, they will be counted as a full hour.

In the case of students absent when representing the college officially, the responsible official will report their absences to the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women for excuse.

LIBRARY REGULATIONS

Hours: Monday through Friday, 8:00 A.M.-10:00 P.M.
Saturday, 8:00 A.M.-5:00 P.M.

The library staff extends a warm welcome to you to use the materials and services of the Burrow Library in the happiest possible manner. To help you get the most from these, your librarians are always ready to be of assistance.

Location of Books

It is your privilege to locate any book in the library's holdings by looking it up under author, subject, or title, in the alphabetically arranged card catalogue. A modern catalogue for phono-records enables you to locate listening materials. In the reference room many volumes will lead you to articles and facts on every conceivable subject. The latest issues of periodicals are in the periodical room, while back issues are available at the center desk, if unbound, and in the main stack area if bound.

"Open shelf" is the rule on the books in the stacks which are distributed on the various floors as shown on cards at the doorways to the stacks and elsewhere. If the book you wish is out, you may leave a request for it at the desk. When it is returned you will be notified how long it can be held for you.

Borrowing Books

All books, except reserve books, periodicals and reference works, may be borrowed upon personal signature for a two-week period. So that they will have the widest possible use, however, it is expected that you will return them immediately upon finishing them. A book slot is located in the entrance way, should you be returning a book when the library doors are closed. Should you need a book longer than two weeks, you may renew it, providing no one else has placed a reserve on it. New books cannot be renewed.

If you wish to keep a stack book in a carrel for more than one day, you must check it out at the desk on a regular two week basis, or the morning shelver will return it to the shelves. If you wish to take a book or bound periodical from the stack area, to the reading or conference rooms, you must likewise check it out at the desk. This cooperation on your part is very important to your colleagues.

If a book signed out to you is not returned on or before the date due, a fine of five cents for each day it is overdue will be charged. Promptness in paying the fine will be rewarded by a discount.

Reserve books for assigned class readings may be borrowed one at a time for use in the library for a period of two hours. They may be borrowed for overnight use at 4:30 P.M. Monday-Friday, and at 10:15 A. M. on Saturday.

Overdue fines will be levied on reserve books whether used in the library or taken for overnight use, at the rate of twenty-five cents for the first hour and five cents for each additional hour. Similar fines are levied on overdue phonograph records and study room keys.

If you lose a book, report it at once in order that the fine may be stopped. If it is not found, the price of the book plus $1.00 for cataloguing expenses and the accumulated fine will be charged.

Smoking is restricted to the lounges on the ground floor, the conference rooms and listening booths. Food may not be consumed in any part of the building and cokes may not be taken into the reading room or stack areas.

The Honor System of Southwestern applies to the library as well as in other phases of academic and campus life.

Student Library Committee

The Student Library Committee, a subcommittee of the Student Council, forms a link between the students and the library staff. The committee is composed of a chairman and five members from the Student Body. The chairman shall be appointed by the Student Council; one committee member shall be a representative from the Honor Council and shall be appointed by that body; and the other four members shall be appointed by the new chairman and the entire retiring committee with the approval of the Student Council. The committee receives reports of and advises on campus feeling concerning the library and cooperates on special programs and exhibits.

STUDENT-FACULTY COMMITTEES

Hall of Fame Committee

The Hall of Fame Committee chooses a minimum of three and a maximum of seven seniors to Southwestern's Hall of Fame which is announced in the Yearbook. Pictures of each year's choices are hung in Palmer Hall. The committee consists of:

Howard Edington .....	Junior Class President
Dossett Foster .....	Junior Class Vice-President
Eleanor Lawrence, Cyril Hollingsworth .....	Junior Class Representatives
Ken Tullis .....	Sophomore Class President
Dr. Jameson M. Jones .....	Dean of the College
Mr. Charles I. Diehl .....	Dean Of Men

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities

The Student Council nominates ten to thirteen seniors for this national honor. A faculty committee makes the final selections from these nominees.

Student Welfare Committee

The Student Welfare Committee, with Professor Fred Neal as chairman, is composed of selected faculty members and the Student Council president, vice-president, secretary, and social commissioner. The committee passes on the social calendar and all parties, and takes over action regarding the welfare of students.

The Discipline Committee

The Discipline Committee is composed of the Dean of the college, the Dean of Men, the Dean of Women, and the presidents of the Women's Undergraduate Board, Voorhies Governing Board, the Honor Council, and the Student Council.

The committee was established and functions at student request to try cases of a disciplinary nature with adequate student representation. It provides a method of open trial for hearing cases.

HONOR SYSTEM

Southwestern is noted for the spirit of honor on its campus. Though the Honor System was enacted by the students many years ago, it has not become a meaningless institution, but has grown greatly in stature. The Honor System presently is just as much a part of Southwestern as the academic curriculum itself. Under the System students assume responsibility for honorable conduct not only in tests and examinations, but also in other phases of college life. The student is put entirely on his honor to be honest in all of his undertakings.

The spirit of honor should manifest itself in every phase of life at Southwestern.

The Honor System is administered by an Honor Council which is composed entirely of students elected by their fellow students. This Honor Council operates without interference from the college administration. The Council acts as a court to try any violations of the Honor System, and disciplines any student found guilty of such violations.

Only an intelligent group of people can understand and maintain the real meaning of such a delicate system. Every student on entering Southwestern pledges himself to uphold this Honor System. Neither the student nor the Honor Council is pledged to police other students. Everyone is to be concerned with his own work and proper behavior. If a student observes the breaking of the spirit of honor and pledge in a noticeable way on the part of another student, then he is obligated to bring the facts to the council for investigation. No one is expected to be overly suspicious; but overprotection of a dishonest student cannot be tolerated.

THE HONOR COUNCIL
Article I. Name and Purpose

Section 1. The name of this body shall be the Honor Council of Southwestern at Memphis.

Section 2. The purpose of this council shall be to foster a spirit of honor at Southwestern; and to investigate and to act upon cases of cheating, stealing, and lying (in official matters) on the part of students in connection with academic work or campus life.

By-Laws, Article II. Oaths and Pledges

Section 1. Each student who enters Southwestern shall sign and adhere to the following pledge:

As a student at Southwestern, I hereby pledge my full and hearty support to the Honor System. I pledge to be honest myself, and, in order that the spirit and integrity of the Honor System may endure, I pledge that I will make known to the Honor Council any case of dishonesty which I may observe at Southwestern.

Article IV. Instruction

Section 1. To insure the cooperation of the faculty in the support of the Honor System, the council shall, at the first of each semester, discuss the system with the faculty, reminding them of their obligation to report violations, asking them to request the full written pledge on their work, asking them to remind students before each test that the test is to be pledged, and to clarify in the minds of their students which work is to be pledged and which work is not to be pledged.

Section 2. To insure the full understanding and support of the Honor System by the student body, the council shall, each summer, send letters of instruction to incoming students; explain the system during freshman orientation; request that fraternities and sororities include the Honor System in their pledge training; conduct a special chapel program before semester examinations; see that each student has a copy of the Honor Council Constitution; place printed cards outlining the system in each classroom . . . and empower the president of the Honor Council to meet with the Student Council from time to time to discuss the system.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

During Southwestern's early years in Memphis, student body affairs were handled by the Boosters Club, a democratic organization whose membership consisted of the entire student body. All matters concerning the student body were brought before the club; each student was entitled to one vote.

In the spring of 1927, the Boosters Club changed its name to the Student Assembly and formed the Student Council of Southwestern to simplify the handling of its many questions. The formation of this council marked the beginning of a new era in student government at Southwestern. It was the function of this new council to consider all questions of importance and to pass upon their worth before these were formally presented to the student body. The Student Council is the executive committee of the Student Assembly and has become synonymous with representative student government at Southwestern.

The first council's constitution provided seats on the council for the president of every student organization; new organizations could petition for seats. In the 1947-48 college year, the council then in office decided that it was too large and not equally representative. The first step in the reorganization was changing the name "The Student Assembly" to the name "The Student Body of Southwestern." Then a new and much more exacting and complete constitution was drawn up. Representative seats were given, and a smaller and more smoothly working Student Council was established. All of these changes were voted on by the entire student body and passed overwhelmingly.

The Student Council is the legislative body of the student government, and it operates under a constitution approved by the faculty and administration.

The date of Homecoming festivities varies from year to year, but usually falls during the month of October. The student body elects a queen and the "S" Club and football team each elect a princess to reign over the activities.

Fraternities and sororities have lawn decorations which are judged on the basis of originality and best results of work. All lodges are open to alumni and visitors.

Homecoming events include a pep rally, bonfire, football game, open houses by the fraternities, and Homecoming Dance.

All-Sing

Kappa Delta sponsors an All-Sing each year to raise funds for its philanthropic work. Each Greek letter organization presents two songs, and the fraternity and sorority winners are awarded trophies.

Stunt Night

To further its philanthropic work, Alpha Omicron Pi sponsors Stunt Night. Following presentation of original skits by each sorority and fraternity, trophies are awarded to the winning groups.

April Fool Carnival

On the weekend nearest April 1, Southwestern celebrates a gala April Fool Weekend with its annual carnival. On Friday evening is the performance of a play written, directed, and presented by Southwestern students. The play last year was "Suddenly Last Midsummer's Night," a satire on Southwestern. ## CAMPUS SOCIAL AFFAIRS

The social committee, which is a committee of the Student Council, is composed of one representative from each fraternity and sorority, one representative from the independent men and women groups, and the Social Commissioner. At the beginning of each new social committee term of office, each member is required to take and pass satisfactorily a test over all the rules regarding campus social affairs. These rules include the use of the fraternity and sorority houses and the use of the gym. This assures the Student Council that each social committee representative has a basic knowledge of campus social rules.

SOCIAL REGULATIONS

1. Each fraternity, sorority, and independent group may have not more than one mid-week social function per semester for such events as outings, banquets, etc., which must be placed on the social calendar at least one week in advance of the event with the approval of the Commissioner of Social Activities. This includes any type of function lasting after 8:00 P.M. Any additional event during the same semester on any night except Saturday is subject to the approval of the Student Welfare Committee. All other functions with the exception of exclusive events (see rule 2) must be held on the particular Saturday nights on the social calendar which are designated for informal fraternity and sorority parties.

2. Petitions for the exclusive reservation of any dates must be submitted to the chairman of the Student Welfare Committee before the end of the first month of each semester. Events cannot be exclusive unless the entire student body is invited. On the nights of these exclusive social events, no other fraternity or sorority may hold a social function. Upon the approval of these dates by the Student Welfare Committee, copies of the social calendar will be filed with the assistant dean of women in advance of the event.

3. No fraternity, sorority, or independent group may schedule any social function on a night when a varsity athletic team is playing a regularly scheduled game on the campus unless the hours do not conflict.

4. All entertainments after 8:00 P.M. which men and women students attend must be properly chaperoned. Married alumni (ae) or parents may serve as chaperons, but it is necessary to have at least one faculty member present. The student organization responsible for each evening party must present to the assistant to the Dean of Women, three days in advance of the social function, the names of those who have accepted the student's invitation to act as chaperons, until the close of the party. Failure to turn in chaperons to the Dean of Women's office by 5:00 P.M. three days in advance of the event, will result in a $10.00 fine being levied on the group concerned. If chaperons are not turned in by 5:00 P.M. on the day before the event, the event will automatically be taken off the social calendar and the group will be prevented from having the event.

5. Alumae who have been out of college five years may serve as chaperons for slumber parties held in the sorority houses. A report on each slumber party must be handed in to the Dean of Women's office by the chaperon. Each sorority may have one slumber party in the lodge each semester. No slumber parties may be held in the dormitories. All women students and guests attending a slumber party at a sorority house must be in by 1:00 A.M.

6. Evening parties and dances, must close by 1:00 A.M. except the Saturday parties and dances must close by 12:00 midnight. No social functions may be held on Sunday. For exceptions see rule two which governs the use of fraternity and sorority houses.

- a) the names of chaperons invited and attending.
- b) a report on the conduct of those students attending the party.
- c) the hour at which the event terminated.

Also one of the chaperons present at each event will be requested by the Dean of Women's office to make a report containing this same information. These reports will be made on blanks supplied by the Dean of Women's office.

8. Afternoon teas, dances, "date suppers," or any afternoon parties may be given by campus organizations or classes on any days other than Sundays, but must close not later than 8:00 P.M. The recreation room of Voorhies Hall is available for such functions. (Arrangements are to be made in advance through the Dean of Women's office.)

9. A sorority or fraternity may have only one open house during a semester, and there will be only one open house during a single week. This restriction does not apply to Homecoming, or other occasions that merit open houses given by all the sororities and/or fraternities for the college as a whole.

Rules Governing Use of Fraternity and Sorority House

1. Both fraternity and sorority houses are to be reserved for the exclusive use of men and women respectively during the morning hours and until 12:30 P.M.

2. Whenever a sorority house is to be used after 8:00 P.M. by its members, its alumnae, or for any activity only for women, the Dean of Women must be notified in advance except for Saturday evenings when at least four women must be present.

3. a) Weekdays

Men and women students are permitted to visit fraternity and sorority houses between the hours of 12:30 P.M. and 8:00 P.M. #### b) Saturdays

1) On Saturday evenings when no exclusive dates are designated on the social calendar, fraternity and sorority houses may be open from 8:00 P.M. until 12:00 P.M. for informal, properly constituted, mixed groups without the necessity of chaperonage. Proper chaperonage is still required for a party, which is a planned, organized social event.

2) On a Saturday evening after an exclusive event, houses may be used by properly constituted informal mixed groups. The houses may be opened at the conclusion of the event and remain open until 12:00 P.M.

c) Sundays

Informal mixed groups of students may use the fraternity and sorority houses between the hours of 12:30 P.M. and 5:00 P.M. The fraternity houses may be used by informal mixed groups on Sunday between the hours of 8:30 P.M. and 11:00 P.M. The fraternity and sorority houses may be used by informal mixed groups on Sunday between the hours named above only under the conditions that there will be no dancing in the houses on Sunday.

4. Any unseemly conduct in sorority or fraternity houses or failure to conform to the above regulations will result in disciplinary measures on the part of the Administrative Committee.

5. A new rule governing the use of sorority houses has recently been put into effect. Girls may study in the sorority houses each night until ten o'clock as long as there are two girls there and no boys present. This rule is on a trial basis only.

9. Decorations must be down and the gym cleaned by 9:00 A.M. the following Monday.

10. No dances other than Homecoming, "S" club, Student Council, and April Fool's may be held in the gym. Sawdust must be obtained for the floor.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

Protestant Religious Council

The purpose of the Protestant Religious Council is to keep before the minds of the students of Southwestern the claims of Christian truths and ideals; to stimulate increasing loyalty to and expression of those ideals through honest thought, genuine worship, wholesome fellowship, and unselfish service; and to coordinate the working of all religious organizations on the campus for these ends.

The PRC is a student organization composed of an executive committee and the president and a representative from each of the religious organizations on campus—the Baptist Student Union, the Canterbury Club, the Methodist Student Fellowship, and the Westminster Fellowship. All campus-wide religious activities are directed by and channeled through the PRC, while each denominational organization directs its own program.

Planning and programming are important functions of the PRC. It is responsible for the campus-wide hearth supper and vesper service held the Sunday night during freshman orientation week. It plans, in cooperation with the faculty-student Committee on Convocations and Religious Activities, the fall and spring periods of religious evaluation. It directs the annual Thanks-through-Giving Drive. It holds special worship services and discussion sessions.

Yet the work of the PRC goes further than planning and programming as it seeks to discover purposes through exploration of the meaning and mission of the church. The Christian religion is one which involves relationships with students in whatever areas we are involved and gives meaning and direction to all areas of campus life.

Liz Currie .....President

Westminster Fellowship

The Westminster Fellowship for Presbyterian students meets every Sunday night on the Southwestern campus for a program and social hour, with refreshments afterward. The aim of W.F. is to present Christ to the academic community. ### Methodist Student Fellowship

Baptist Student Union

Students are given training for work in one of several fields—church school teaching, recreation, social service, and literary work. The students are then placed in Memphis churches, hospitals, and social agencies where they receive guidance and further training as they work. The program is under the direction of Mrs. W. M. Cone.

High School Visitation Program

3. It is the duty of any fraternity man having knowledge of violation of any of the above stated rules to report the violation at once to the I.F.C.

Section VI: The Quota-Limitation System shall apply to the 1962-63 rush.

THE QUOTA-LIMITATION SYSTEM

I. The limitation, or chapter quota, consists of the number of fraternity men on the campus tabulated in the spring, divided by the number of fraternities, plus ten men. This additional ten is intended to make the quota limitation a gradual process. The limitation would remain constant until such time as it is deemed necessary for change.

- A. Transfers would be able to affiliate with their own group on campus even though that group may have filled its quota and reached its limitation. However, transfers will be counted in the limitation thereafter.
- B. The chapter quota includes all men who are presently active or who have been active in the local chapter within the past four years and are still enrolled in college and all pledges.
- C. A group having filled its limitation would be able to affiliate stray Greeks.

D. Legacies would be considered in the quota as one-half man (4 legacies would count as 2; 7 as 3, etc. If the quota is 20 and a fraternity has 4 legacies, it can take 22 men including the legacies.).

II. The minimum quota would consist of the number of men going out for rush minus the average number of men who have dropped out of rush as tabulated over the past five years and divided by six.

III. The maximum quota for any group would be the minimum quota plus the number of men over the minimum quota necessary to reach the chapter limitation.

IV. Immediately following the rush period and for the remainder of the year, any fraternity which has not yet reached its limitation and wishes to pledge a man may do so, provided that the man to be pledged is eligible under I.F.C. regulations. Should a man leave college or a de-pledging occur during the year, forcing any fraternity to operate under its chapter quota, the fraternity may pledge a man to fill this vacancy at any time before the end of the college year.

V. If, at any time before initiation of the original pledge class a fraternity, which is operating over the chapter quota, should lose one of the men in the pledge quota, the fraternity may pledge a man to fill this vacancy.

VI. The number of men entering college at the second semester who wish to go out for rush will be divided by the number of fraternities on the campus. Each fraternity will be assigned its quota and can take pledges even though it has reached its first semester limitation.

Illustration

Limitation: In the spring of 1959 there were 218 fraternity men on the campus. Divided by 6 this gives 36 and adding 10 gives 46.

Quota: In 1957, 94 men went out for rush.  $94 - 10 = 84$ .  $84 \div 6 =$  minimum quota of 14. These figures will be different in 1962-63 rush.

SOUTHWESTERN'S "ALMA MATER"

—John Bowen Edwards

Dear Alma Mater, kind the fate that links our lives with thee,
For God's own power that made thee great is the truth
that makes us free;
Thy torch has touched our hearts with flame, our yearning souls refined;
Through Thee we learn the higher aim, and train the truer mind.
Thy stalwart towers of solid stone, Thy vaulted arches strong,
Inspire our loyal hearts each one to fight against the wrong;
Our lives reflect the beauty of Thy stately cloister'd halls,
And characters grow genuine that dwell within Thy walls.
O Leader to the larger light, Southwestern, 'neath Thy wings
Thy sons in reverent love unite and each his tribute brings
And dreams such dreams as old men dream, and visions young men see,
Keep lighted in our hearts the flame once kindled there of Thee.
