Southwestern at Memphis

SEAL OF SOUTHWESTERN AT MEMPHIS

Circular in form, the red and black seal of Southwestern is centered by a black shield representing faith. Quartering the shield is a St. Andrew's Cross denoting Christianity, and in the middle of the cross lies an open Bible, the heart of Southwestern's being. Each of the shield's four divisions bears a symbol representing a period in the college's history—as a Masonic College at Clarksville, founded in 1848, as "Stewart College" (1855-75); as "Southwestern Presbyterian University" (1875-1925); and finally as "Southwestern at Memphis" when it was moved to Memphis.

The intertwined sprigs of oak and laurel under the shield signify strength and victory. Surrounding the shield on the other three sides are the words "Truth, Loyalty, Service"—the fundamental precepts of Southwestern.

A MESSAGE FROM THE STUDENT COUNCIL

From the founding of the Masonic University of Tennessee in Clarksville in 1848 to the newly formed, burgeoning College Athletic Conference, the Student Council Handbook encompasses the traditions and history of Southwestern while presenting a full-scale outline of student activities. Within these pages are contained the basic organizations and activities that bring to realization the broader ideals and aims of our student community.

Most importantly, the Student Council Handbook will give you a first opportunity to consider your participation in extra-curricular activities. In order to aid students in maintaining a proper balance in the allocation of their time and their talents, the Student Council has set up a point system, which is explained in this Handbook. Although this point system will not be applicable to you immediately, it will help you to keep in mind a necessary balance between your time and your obligations as a student.

The Student Council wishes to express its appreciation to Dale Seay for her work as editor and Betsy Moore for her work as illustrator of the Student Council Handbook. Hopefully this Handbook will be merely the starting point of your involvement in the traditions and the aspirations, as well as the activities, of Southwestern at Memphis. For it is you and your class of 1967 who are to continue these traditions and add to them as you become members of the Student Body of Southwestern.

Sincerely,

Cyril Hollingsworth
Student Body President

A GREETING FROM PRESIDENT RHODES

I welcome this opportunity to include in the Student Council Handbook a word of greeting to the Class of 1967.

Each new student who becomes a part of Southwestern is here to accomplish some specific purpose. Now that he is thrown into varied experiences and relationships, it is important to grasp every opportunity for full appreciation of each new encounter.

Commitment, competence, craftsmanship are words that may be used to characterize the qualities of a good student. I commend them to you.

Southwestern has a distinguished past. Its future depends in great measure on the good sense of each individual who constitutes a part of the student body and faculty. I bid you welcome to a period of intellectual excitement, personal achievement, and of maturing spiritual, mental, and physical values. If you will do your work promptly and well, many satisfactions and rewards will be yours.

Cordially yours,

Peyton N. Rhodes

THROUGH THE YEARS

Southwestern is a fully accredited college of liberal arts and sciences. Twenty directors, elected by the Synods of Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana of the Presbyterian Church, determine the policies of the college.

The College was founded by the Tennessee Masonic Grand Lodge at Clarksville in 1848. A prominent Mason and Presbyterian, W. M. Stewart, was chosen as the first President. Later, when the Synod of Nashville began supporting the school, it was renamed in his honor. In 1861 the school became a college of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and in 1875 was incorporated as Southwestern Presbyterian University.

Dr. Charles E. Diehl, the builder of Southwestern at Memphis, was elected president in 1917. His vision of excellence resulted in the college's location on the large new Memphis campus, serving a wider area and drawing stimulus from the city around it, in the high quality of education for which the college stands. Also during his administration, in 1921, the men's college became co-educational.

Dr. Peyton N. Rhodes became president in 1949 and has carried forward all the original ideals of quality into the college's many new phases of development.

Campus facilities have nearly doubled during Dr. Rhodes' administration. Three residence halls, the Mallory Gymnasium, the Burrow Library, the Moore Infirmary, the Catherine Burrow Refectory, the Richard Halliburton Memorial Tower, the Tower Building, Tuthill Hall, and the president's home have been added. During the 1962-63 school year, the proposal to build a Thomas W. Briggs Student Center was announced. Adult education has been continued and expanded both in Memphis and in surrounding states. The goal of a student body of 1,000 is fast being approached, while the high faculty-student ratio is being maintained.

Dr. Rhodes exemplifies through his campus administration, as well as through his other local and national interests, the Southwestern tradition of service to church and community.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Academic

The Dean of the College, Jameson M. Jones, is directly responsible to the president in all matters pertaining to the faculty and student body. He advises with students about their courses of study and about the welfare of the community life of the college. The Dean's office is on the second level of the Halliburton Tower Building.

The Dean of Women, Miss Anne S. Caldwell, is available to women students for consultation; all girls are invited to visit her office, which is located in the Tower Building. One of Dean Caldwell's most helpful jobs is aiding women students in finding interesting summer employment.

The Dean of Men, Charles I. Diehl, also has an office in the Tower Building, and invites new students to come in and discuss courses of study.

Dr. Ray Allen, Dean of Admissions and Records, heads the admissions offices which occupy three rooms on the first floor of Palmer Hall. John C. Turpin, the associate registrar, is available to help with schedule problems, and Mrs. John Q. Wolf is admissions counselor.

Residence Halls

The women's residence halls, Townsend, Voorhies, and East Halls are under the jurisdiction of student governing boards. A copy of the residence hall's rules is mailed to all new women students who plan to live in the residence halls.

The resident head of Voorhies is Mrs. A. H. Cable. Mrs. Paul M. Watson is the resident head of Townsend and East Halls. Miss Patricia Gladney is the assistant resident head of Townsend Hall, and Miss Carolyn Cooper and Miss Jeanne Gregory are the assistant resident heads of East Hall. Miss Anne Crowell is assistant resident head of Voorhies Hall. Dorm presidents are Miss Liz Currie, Voorhies Hall, and Miss Frances Phillips, East Hall. Miss Ann Autry is executive president of all three halls.

The five men's residence halls are governed by a president in each hall, elected by the students. These presidents are: Howard Edington and Dossett Foster, Bellingrath Hall; Bill Hunt, Ellett Hall; Cyril Hollingsworth, Robb Hall; Tommy Durff and Jim Fall, Stewart Hall; and Charles Killinger, White Hall.

Health

The newly completed Moore infirmary is maintained for the treatment of ordinary student illnesses. Dr. J. L. Hobson is the college physician, and Mrs. Allie Haener, a registered nurse, is on duty at all times. Students requiring the services of the physician should report to the infirmary at 8:30 A.M. on week days.

Clinic hours:

Monday to Friday 8:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M.
Saturday 8:00 A.M. to 12:00 noon

All routine treatments are to be given during these hours. Emergencies are, of course, taken care of at any time.

The college provides, at no cost to the student, accident, sickness, and hospitalization insurance. Students requiring special services must be referred by the college physician in order for the insurance to be effective.

Visiting hours at the infirmary are from 3:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M. only.

Parking of Cars

Parking areas have been provided by the college north of the Science Building and Palmer Hall, as well as east of Burrow Library and south of Bellingrath Hall. Random parking of cars on the college grounds is prohibited at all times. Penalty for parking in other than designated places, $2.00 Fine.

Book Store

The Book Store is located on the ground floor of Neely Hall. All books assigned by professors may be obtained there. Mrs. Pauline King operates the store. The hours are:

Monday-Friday 8:00 to 4:00
Saturday 8:00 to 12:00

Dining Hall

Dining hours are as follows:

Breakfast:

Monday-Saturday 7:30-8:30
Sunday 8:00-8:30

Lunch:

Monday-Saturday	11:30-1:15
Sunday	12:00-1:15

Dinner:

Monday-Saturday	5:00-6:00
Sunday	5:30-6:00

All men must wear coats and ties throughout the evening and Sunday noon meals.

If bermuda shorts are worn at the evening meal, knee-length socks must be worn as well as a coat and tie. Sport shirts must have collars; "T" shirts will not be permitted at any time in the dining halls.

Lost and Found

Lost and found articles are handled through the cashier's office in room 103 of Palmer Hall.

Student Aid

Students needing aid should see Dean Ray Allen. Part-time campus employment is available for a limited number of students.

Lynx Lair

The Lynx Lair, located on the ground level of Neely Hall, is operated by Mr. Bob Poole solely for the convenience of the students at no profit to the college. There are bridge tables, a juke box, and a snack counter for the students' enjoyment. Dancing is allowed.

The Lair is closed on Sunday. Opening hours are to be arranged and will be announced in September.

Chapel

College convocations for all faculty and students are held each weekday in Hardie Auditorium in the east end of the second floor in Palmer Hall. More specific information is to be found concerning chapel convocations under college regulations in this handbook.

Tutoring

Tutoring services are handled through the Dean of Women's office. Anyone wishing a tutor should notify this office.

COLLEGE REGULATIONS

Rules are kept to a minimum at Southwestern. The following are traditional properties and customs.

Conduct befitting a lady or gentleman is expected of all Southwestern students. Rowdiness, drunkenness, and other improper conduct will result in the expulsion from the college of all persons involved. No intoxicants are to be served at any dance, party, or other function given by any college organization or brought into any building or kept anywhere (including in automobiles) on the campus. Students are not allowed to have guns on the campus or keep animals in their rooms.

1. No smoking is permitted in the halls, cloister, classrooms, laboratories, or dining halls.

2. There will be no card playing in the social room of Palmer Hall.

3. A college convocation is held in Hardie Auditorium at 10:00 every Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday. These convocations are for worship, lectures, concerts, and other programs of educational value. Because Hardie Auditorium cannot accommodate the entire student body, the group is divided in half and students are required to attend the meetings either on Mondays and Thursdays or on Tuesdays and Fridays. Schedules for attendance records will be set up in the fall in the hall outside Hardie.

On Wednesdays Student Assemblies are held in Mallory Gymnasium.

4. Boarding students may keep cars on the campus only by strict adherence to the rules set forth in the catalogue.

5. Shorts and slacks are not to be worn on the campus by women students, except when participating in athletics or decorating.

6. Cars shall be parked on the college grounds only in those parking areas provided by the college.

7. In order to change a course, a student must have the permission of the instructor and the dean. If any irregularity is involved in the course change, a student must present a petition, with his faculty advisor's signature on it, to the Classification Committee. More information may be obtained in the catalogue.

8. In order to graduate, a student must have completed 120 semester hours of work, with 120 quality points. Quality points are given by grades as well as hours. An "A" counts three quality points per hour, a "B" two, a "C" one, and a "D" or "F" counts none. Therefore, an "A" in a three hour course is nine quality points; in a four hour course, it is twelve points.

9. The grade point system of averages counts "A" as four points, "B" as three, "C" as two, "D" as one, and "F" as none.

Class Attendance

Regular attendance is essential for success in academic work and is required of all students. Each instructor will take attendance rolls daily. Students should present to their instructors a written explanation of absences they consider necessary. When and if a student's absence from class seems to the instructor to jeopardize the student's work in the course or is so persistent as to justify a formal inquiry, the instructor will call the matter to the attention of the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women who will, when necessary, bring in the student's adviser in investigating and judging the situation. Notice will then be sent to the student, the parents, and the instructor as a warning that further absences may lead to suspension from and failure in the course. If and when a student's absences seem to the instructor to make the student unfit to continue in the course, the instructor will make a written recommendation to the Dean of Men or to the Dean of Women that the student be dropped from the course. On recommendation from a committee composed of the Dean, the Dean of Men and the Dean of Women, the Registrar will drop the student from the course. If a student is recommended for exclusion from as many as two classes, his parents will be urged to withdraw him from college; if he is recommended for exclusion from as many as three classes, he will be required to withdraw from college.

The above provisions apply to all students. The following and additional regulations apply to freshmen only. The faculty will report to the Registrar all freshmen absences not later than the Monday after the absences occur. Freshmen seeking excuse for absence must present a written request to the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women within one week after their return to classes. Absences on the two days before and after holidays count double.

In case of excessive absences, academic credits will be added to the number required for graduation on the basis of one-third credit for each unexcused absence in excess of the unpenalized number of absences, which number is the same as the number of semester hours represented by the course. If the fractional deductions exceed one half-hour, they will be counted as a full hour.

In the case of students absent when representing the college officially, the responsible official will report their absences to the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women for excuse.

LIBRARY REGULATIONS

Hours: Monday through Friday, 8:00 A.M.-10:00 P.M.

Saturday, 8:00 A.M.-5:00 P.M.

The library staff extends a warm welcome to you to use the materials and services of the Burrow Library in the happiest possible manner. To help you get the most from these, your librarians are always ready to be of assistance.

Location of Books

It is your privilege to locate any book in the library's holdings by looking it up under author, subject, or title, in the alphabetically arranged card catalogue. A modern catalogue for phono-records enables you to locate listening materials. In the reference room many volumes will lead you to articles and facts on every conceivable subject. The latest issues of periodicals are in the periodical room, while back issues are available at the center desk, if unbound, and in the main stack area if bound.

"Open shelf" is the rule on the books in the stacks which are distributed on the various floors as shown on cards at the doorways to the stacks and elsewhere. If the book you wish is out, you may leave a request for it at the desk. When it is returned you will be notified how long it can be held for you.

Student Library Committee

The Student Library Committee, a subcommittee of the Student Council, forms a link between the students and the library staff. The committee is composed of a chairman and five members from the Student Body. The chairman shall be appointed by the Student Council; one committee member shall be a representative from the Honor Council and shall be appointed by that body; and the other four members shall be appointed by the new chairman and the entire retiring committee with the approval of the Student Council. The committee receives reports of and advises on campus feeling concerning the library and co-operates on special programs and exhibits.

The committee passes on the social calendar and all parties, and takes over action and policies regarding the welfare of students.

SPIRIT OF HONOR

Southwestern is noted for the spirit of honor on its campus. Though the Honor System was enacted by the students many years ago, it has not become a meaningless institution, but has grown greatly in stature. The Honor System presently is just as much a part of Southwestern as the academic curriculum itself. Under the System students assume responsibility for honorable conduct not only in tests and examinations, but also in other phases of college life. The student is put entirely on his honor to be honest in all of his undertakings.

The spirit of honor should manifest itself in every phase of life at Southwestern.

The Honor System is administered by an Honor Council which is composed entirely of students elected by their fellow students. This Honor Council operates without interference from the college administration. The Council acts as a court to try any violations of the Honor System, and disciplines any student found guilty of such violations.

Only an intelligent group of people can understand and maintain the real meaning of such a delicate system. Every student pledges himself to uphold this Honor System on entering Southwestern. Neither the student nor the Honor Council is pledged to police other students. Everyone is to be concerned with his own work and proper behavior. If a student observes the breaking of the spirit of honor and pledge in a noticeable way on the part of another student, then he is obligated to bring the facts to the council for investigation. No one is expected to be overly suspicious; but overprotection of a dishonest student cannot be tolerated.

THE HONOR COUNCIL

Article I. Name and Purpose

Section 1. The name of this body shall be the Honor Council of Southwestern at Memphis.

Section 2. The purpose of this council shall be to foster a spirit of honor at Southwestern; and to investigate and to act upon cases of cheating, stealing, and lying (in official matters) on the part of students in connection with academic work or campus life.

By-Laws, Article II. Oaths and Pledges

Section 1. Each student who enters Southwestern shall sign and adhere to the following pledge:

As a student at Southwestern, I hereby pledge my full and hearty support to the Honor System. I pledge to be honest myself, and, in order that the spirit and integrity of the Honor System may endure, I pledge that I will make known to the Honor Council any case of dishonesty which I may observe at Southwestern.

Article IV. Instruction

Section 1. To insure the cooperation of the faculty in the support of the Honor System, the council shall, at the first of each semester, discuss the system with the faculty, reminding them of their obligations to report violations, asking them to request the full written pledge on their work, asking them to remind students before each test that the test is to be pledged, and to clarify in the minds of their students which work is to be pledged and which work is not to be pledged.

Section 2. To insure the full understanding and support of the Honor System by the student body, the council shall, each summer, send letters of instruction to incoming students; explain the system during freshman orientation; request that fraternities and sororities include the Honor System in their pledge training; conduct a special chapel program before semester examinations; see that each student has a copy of the Honor Council Constitution; place printed cards outlining the system in each classroom . . . and empower the president of the Honor Council to meet with the Student Council from time to time to discuss the system.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

During Southwestern's early years in Memphis, student body affairs were handled by the Boosters Club, a democratic organization whose membership consisted of the entire student body. All matters concerning the student body were brought before the club; each student was entitled to one vote.

In the spring of 1927, the Boosters Club changed its name to the Student Assembly and formed the Student Council of Southwestern to simplify the handling of its many questions. The formation of this council marked the beginning of a new era in student government at Southwestern. It was the function of this new council to consider all questions of importance and to pass upon their worth before these were formally presented to the student body. The Student Council is the executive committee of the Student Assembly and has become synonymous with representative student government at Southwestern.

The first council's constitution provided seats on the council for the president of every student organization; new organizations could petition for seats. In the 1947-48 college year, the council then in office decided that it was too large and not equally representative. The first step in the reorganization was changing the name "The Student Assembly" to the name "The Student Body of Southwestern." Then a new and much more exacting and complete constitution was drawn up. Representative seats were given, and a smaller and more smoothly working Student Council was established. All of these changes were voted on by the entire student body and passed overwhelmingly.

The Student Council is the legislative body of the student government, and it operates under a constitution approved by the faculty and administration.

NATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Two years ago, after much discussion, Southwestern students voted to rejoin the National Student Association. N.S.A. is a confederation of college student bodies in every part of the country which are associated to give consideration to questions of mutual concern. Each student body is represented in the association by its own student government and its student leaders. The National Student Association is a non-partisan, non-sectarian, non-profit, student-run educational organization. Its programs are carried out on both a domestic and international level.

Wayne Webb..... Co-Ordinator

ELECTIONS COMMISSION

The Elections Commission is in charge of all student body and class elections. The function of this commission, composed of representatives of the fraternities and sororities and independent groups, is to insure fair elections, to supervise balloting, and to penalize individuals or organizations detected in unfair practices in any matters pertaining to student elections.

In April, two conventions meet (the Red convention made up of representatives of the sororities and fraternities; the Black convention of appointees of the Student Council) to select candidates for the Student Body officers. Each convention nominates one candidate for each office, and additional candidates may be nominated by petitions submitted to the Elections Commission and subject to the regulations of that group.

The Vice-President of the Student Body is automatically president of the Elections Commission.

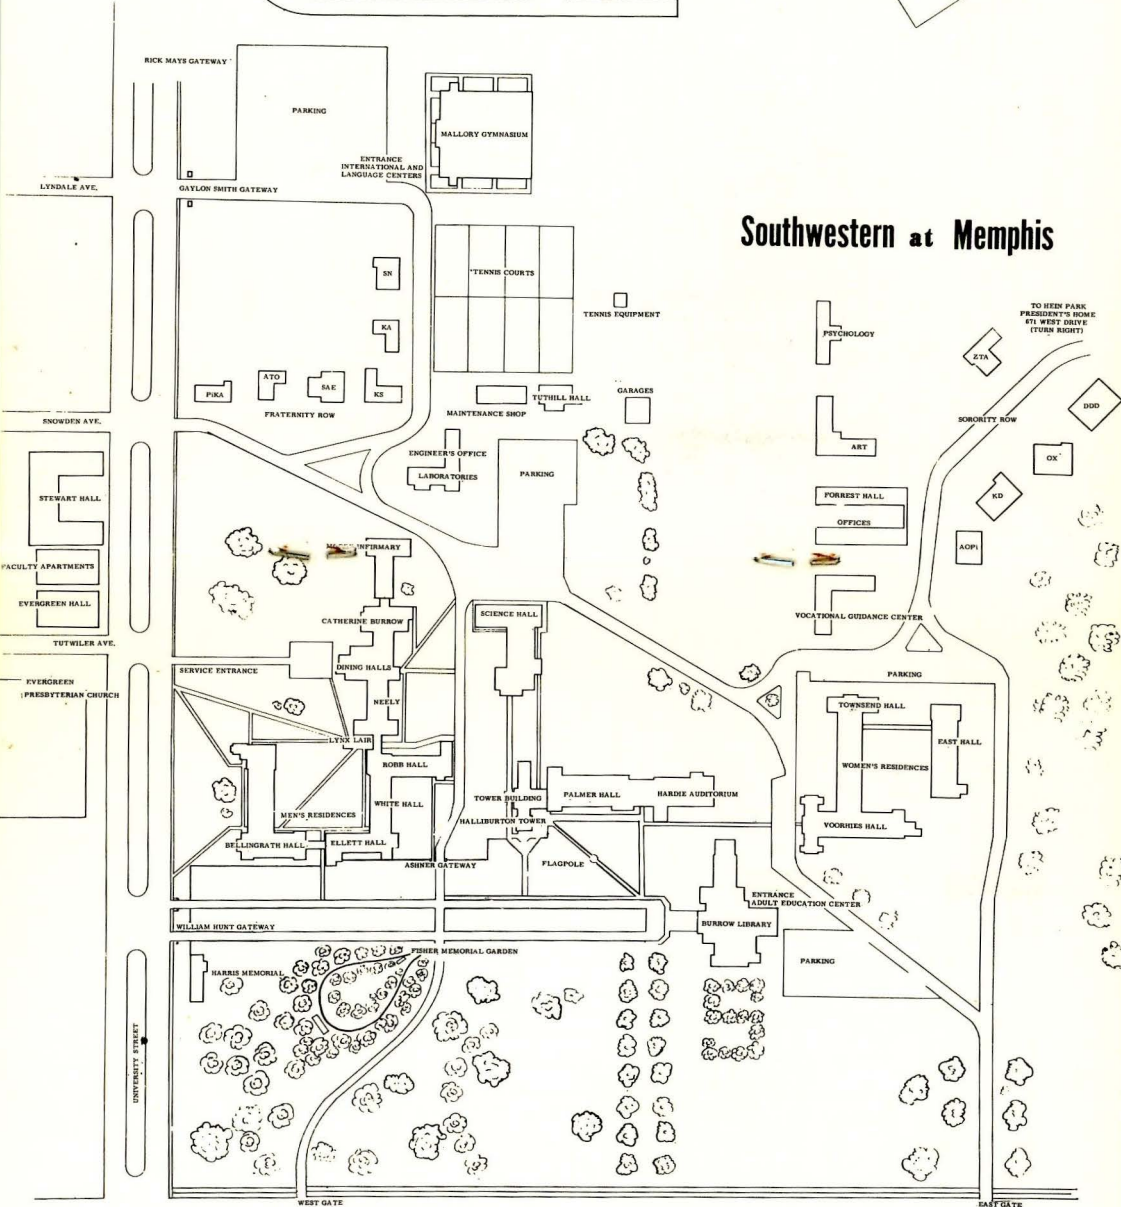

Henry Pope..... President

WOMEN'S UNDERGRADUATE BOARD

The Women's Undergraduate Board is made up of elected officers of the board; all women members of the Student Council; the secretary-treasurers of all the three classes; the presidents of WAA, Torch, Women's Panhellenic Council, the Dormitory Governing Board, and Independent Women; the co-chairmen of the Student Counselors; and the captain of the cheerleaders.

CAMPUS EVENTS

Homecoming

Homecoming festivities usually fall during the month of October. The student body elects a queen and the "S" Club and football team each select a princess.

Fraternity and sorority lawns are decorated and judged on the bases of originality and appearance.

Annual events include a pep rally, bonfire, football game, fraternity open houses, and the Homecoming dance.

All-Sing

Kappa Delta sponsors an All-Sing each year to raise funds for its philanthropic work. Each Greek letter organization presents two songs, and the fraternity and sorority winners are awarded trophies.

Stunt Night

To further its philanthropic work, Alpha Omicron Pi sponsors Stunt Night. Following presentation of original skits by each sorority and fraternity, trophies are awarded to the winning groups.

April Fool Carnival

On the weekend nearest April 1, Southwestern celebrates April Fool Weekend with its annual carnival. On Friday evening is the performance of a play written, directed, and presented by Southwestern students. The play last year was "A Funny Thing Happened On the Way to the Panty Raid," a satire on Southwestern written by Harvey Caughey and directed by Warren Talley.

A concert featuring the Phoenix Singers, who have performed at such places as the Village Vanguard in New York, was the highlight of Saturday afternoon.

At the costume ball on Saturday evening, the carnival royalty chosen by the student body are presented. The king, queen, prince, princess, lords, ladies, and court jesters of the royal court reign over the climax of the weekend. Prizes are given for the most original and best costumes worn by individuals and groups.

Sock Hop

Each year Delta Delta Delta sponsors a backward dance. Proceeds from the Sock Hop are used to provide scholarships for women on campus regardless of sorority affiliation.

Talent Night

Zeta Tau Alpha sponsors Talent Night each year to provide funds for its philanthropic work. Each sorority, fraternity, and independent group is allowed to enter a group act and an individual act. The Mr. Talent and Miss Talent trophies are awarded to the most talented individuals. Trophies are awarded to the sorority and fraternity displaying the best talent.

Beauty Revue

Each year the Lynx holds a beauty revue. The sororities and the Independent Women each enter six participants in the contest which is judged by well-known Memphians. Eleven women are chosen as finalists, and of these five are selected as beauties and six as favorites. The first announcement of the final choices appears in the Lynx.

CAMPUS SOCIAL AFFAIRS

The social committee, which is a committee of the Student Council, is composed of one representative from each fraternity and sorority, one representative from the independent men and women groups, and the Social Commissioner. At the beginning of each new social committee term of office, each member is required to take and pass satisfactorily a test over all the rules regarding campus social affairs. These rules include the use of the fraternity and sorority houses and the use of the gym. This assures the Student Council that each social committee representative has a basic knowledge of campus social rules.

SOCIAL REGULATIONS

1. Each fraternity, sorority, and independent group may have not more than one mid-week social function per semester for such events as outings, banquets, etc., which must be placed on the social calendar at least one week in advance of the event with the approval of the Commissioner of Social Activities. This includes any type of function lasting after 8:00 P.M. Any additional event during the same semester on any night except Saturday is subject to the approval of the Student Welfare Committee. All other functions with the exception of exclusive events (see rule 2) must be held on the particular Saturday nights on the social calendar which are designated for informal fraternity and sorority parties.

2. Petitions for the exclusive reservation of any dates must be submitted to the chairman of the Student Welfare Committee before the end of the first month of each semester. Events cannot be exclusive unless the entire student body is invited. On the nights of these exclusive social events, no other fraternity or sorority may hold a social function. Upon the approval of these dates by the Student Welfare Committee, copies of the social calendar will be filed with the assistant dean of women in advance of the event.

3. No fraternity, sorority, or independent group may schedule any social function on a night when a varsity athletic team is playing a regularly scheduled game on the campus unless the hours do not conflict.

4. All entertainments after 8:00 P.M. which men and women students attend must be properly chaperoned.

Married alumni (ae) or parents may serve as chaperons, but it is necessary to have at least one faculty member present. The student organization responsible for each evening party must present to the assistant to the Dean of Women, three days in advance of the social function, the names of those who have accepted the student's invitation to act as chaperon until the close of the party. Failure to turn in chaperons to the Dean of Women's office by 5:00 P.M. three days in advance of the event, will result in a $10.00 fine being levied on the group concerned. If chaperons are not turned in by 5:00 P.M. on the day before the event, the event will automatically be taken off the social calendar and the group will be prevented from having the event.

5. Alumnae who have been out of college five years may serve as chaperons for slumber parties held in the sorority houses. A report on each slumber party must be handed in to the Dean of Women's office by the chaperon. Each sorority may have one slumber party in the lodge each semester. No slumber parties may be held in the dormitories. All women students and guests attending a slumber party at a sorority house must be in by 1:00 A.M.

6. Evening parties and dances must close by 1:00 A.M. except the Saturday parties and dances must close by 1:00 A.M. No social functions may be held on Sunday. For exceptions see rule two which governs the use of fraternity and sorority houses.

7. Within one week after evening parties, the fraternity, sorority, or campus organization sponsoring such parties must present a written report thereof to the Dean of Women's office containing the following information:

- a) the names of chaperons invited and attending.
- b) a report on the conduct of those students attending the party.
- c) the hour at which the event terminated.

Also one of the chaperons present at each event will be requested by the Dean of Women's office to make a report containing this same information. These reports will be made on blanks supplied by the Dean of Women's office.

8. Afternoon teas, dances, "date suppers," or any afternoon parties may be given by campus organizations or classes on any days other than Sundays, but must close not later than 8:00 P.M. The recreation room of Voorhies Hall is available for such functions. (Arrangements are to be made in advance through the Dean of Women's office.)

9. A sorority or fraternity may have only one open house during a semester, and there will be only one open house during a single week. This restriction does not apply to Homecoming, or other occasions that merit open houses given by all the sororities and/or fraternities for the college as a whole.

Rules Governing Use of Fraternity and Sorority Houses

1. Both fraternity and sorority houses are to be reserved for the exclusive use of men and women respectively during the morning hours and until 12:30 P.M.

2. Whenever a sorority house is to be used after 8:00 P.M. by its members, its alumnae, or for any activity only for women, the Dean of Women must be notified in advance except for Saturday evenings when at least four women must be present.

3. a) Weekdays.

Men and women students are permitted to visit fraternity and sorority houses and men's apartments between the hours of 12:30 P.M. and 8:00 P.M. Whenever a fraternity house is being visited there should be present three women students, one of whom is an upperclasswoman, and men students may visit sorority houses when there are present in the house visited three women students, one of whom is an upperclasswoman.

b) Saturdays.

1) On Saturday evenings when no exclusive dates are designated on the social calendar, fraternity and sorority houses may be open from 8:00 P.M. until 1:00 A.M. for informal, properly constituted, mixed groups without the necessity of chaperonage. Proper chaperonage is still required for a party, which is a planned, organized social event.

2) On a Saturday evening after an exclusive event, houses may be used by properly constituted informal mixed groups. The houses may be opened at the conclusion of the event and remain open until 1:00 A.M.

c) Sundays

Informal mixed groups of students may use the fraternnity and sorority houses between the hours of 12:30 P.M. and 5:00 P.M. The fraternity houses may be used by informal mixed groups on Sunday between the hours of 8:30 P.M. and 11:00 P.M. The fraternity and sorority houses may be used by informal mixed groups on Sunday between the hours named above.

4. Any unseemly conduct in sorority or fraternity houses or failure to conform to the above regulations will result in disciplinary measures on the part of the Administrative Committee.

5. A new rule governing the use of sorority houses has recently been put into effect. Girls may study in the sorority houses each night until ten o'clock as long as there are two girls there and no boys present. This rule is on a trial basis only.

Use of the Gymnasium

1. The date wanted must be registered on the social calendar in the Dean of Women's office well in advance.

2. The Commissioner of Social Activities and Athletic Department must be contacted for their approval.

3. The president of the organization must call at the Dean of Women's office three days ahead of the scheduled event to fill out a permission blank and to advise the chaperons.

4. A $15 fee must be paid in the cashier's office. Also, a $10 fee must be paid to the custodian.

5. Decorating is to be done after 1:00 P.M. Saturday unless permission to begin sooner can be obtained from the physical education instructors.

6. Mr. Twaddle, the maintenance engineer, is to be informed well in advance of the event. No decorations are to be used without approval.

7. There will be no smoking in the gym. This rule will be rigidly enforced. Those disregarding the rule will be asked to leave.

8. The function must end not later than 12:00 midnight.

9. Decorations must be down and the gym cleaned by 9:00 A.M. the following Monday.

10. No dances other than Homecoming, "S" club, Student Council, and April Fool's may be held in the gym. Sawdust must be obtained for the floor.

11. No coke bottles may be taken into the gym at any time.

EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITIES

The Commissioner of Educational Activities co-ordinates Student Council programs which deal directly with academic education. He provides extracurricular opportunities for students to enlarge their horizons in political, cultural, and other areas. He and the Publications Commissioner are responsible for the Southwestern Review. Other programs include:

Freshman Orientation Seminars

The FOS program was inaugurated in order to help the freshman adapt to study on a college level and to interest him in the world affairs. Three discussion groups will be held every other Thursday night as soon as classes begin in September. Members of the faculty and selected juniors and seniors will assist in the program.

High School Visitation Program

A committee of students led by the junior class Student Council representative and another student visits the high schools in the Memphis area and presents programs which show high school students the benefits of a college education in order that more high school students will be encouraged to attend some institution of higher learning.

Debate Club

During the 1962-63 session the Student Council reactivated the Southwestern Debate Club. Plans have been made for the fall session, which will include several invitational tournaments held at Southwestern and several trips to regional tournaments.

In its past history the debate team has ranked third in national collegiate competition and has defeated teams from such institutions as West Point and Annapolis. It is hoped that the club will again be able to develop such talents. Faculty advisors are Mr. John M. Hemphill and Mr. Ray Hill.

Southwestern's Young Democrats and Young Republicans are service organizations composed of students interested in local and national political affairs and in the parties after which the groups are named.

ATHLETICS

The Commissioner of Athletics is in charge of announcing and publicizing all varsity sports events. Serving on the Faculty Athletic Committee, he is the students' representative to that group. Athletic organizations at Southwestern include:

"S" Club

The "S" Club is composed of all men who have earned letters in one of the varsity sports (football, tennis, golf, cross-country, basketball, baseball, and track).

Men's Intramural Board

Women's Athletic Association

The WAA controls all women's intramural athletics. It sponsors tournaments between the sororities and independent groups in volleyball, basketball, and softball. Each spring the WAA sponsors a field day when contests are held in archery, badminton, tennis, pingpong, and golf.

Southwestern Athletic Union

The purpose of the Southwestern Athletic Union is to provide for, increase, and maintain that intangible element of college life known as school spirit; to provide a campus-wide organization to which all students may belong and in which each may work towards a unified goal; to actually support through a well organized program, the total Athletic effort of Southwestern at Memphis, including varsity sports, intramural activities, and other events in which a large part or all the student body participates; to encourage attendance of every athletic event and other worthy activities on the campus; to plan and defray costs of out-of-town trips to athletic events; to plan and provide for any and all other such activities as shall be befitting to such an organization.

It is anticipated that the membership of SAU will include the entire student body. The freshman class, as well as the rest of the student body, will be contacted during the first weeks of school. There will be further explanation concerning the objectives of SAU, and also an opportunity for the members of the freshman class to join.

College Athletic Conference

Southwestern is in its second year as a member of the College Athletic Conference, which also includes University of the South at Sewanee, Tennessee; Washington and Lee University of Lexington, Va.; Washington University of St. Louis, Mo.; and Centre College of Danville, Ky.

The conference became effective with the football season of 1962, with Washington and Lee placing first, Sewanee second, Southwestern third, and Centre fourth. Washington did not compete in football this season, but will do so next year.

The purpose and principles of the conference, as stated in its constitution, reflect the general athletic atmosphere of all members: "The purpose of the College Athletic Conference shall be to provide an association through which the member institutions may encourage organized competition in intercollegiate sports among teams representative of their respective student bodies.

"It shall be a cardinal principle of this conference that all participation in sports by the members of its teams will be solely because of interest in and the enjoyment of the game. No financial aid shall be given to any student which is conditioned upon, or for the purpose of encouraging, his participation in intercollegiate sports."

Sports covered by the conference include football, basketball, golf, tennis, track and field, and baseball. Cross country will be added as soon as is feasible, as will wrestling and swimming.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

Protestant Religious Council

The purpose of the Protestant Religious Council is to keep before the minds of the students of Southwestern the claims of Christian truths and ideals; to stimulate increasing loyalty to and expression of those ideals through honest thought, genuine worship, wholesome fellowship, and unselfish service; and to coordinate the working of all religious organizations on the campus for these ends.

The PRC is a student organization composed of an executive committee and the president and a representative from each of the religious organizations on campus—the Baptist Student Union, the Canterbury Club, the Methodist Student Fellowship, and the Westminster Fellowship. All campus-wide religious activities are directed by and channeled through the PRC, while each denominational organization directs its own program.

Planning and programming are important functions of the PRC. It is responsible for the campus-wide hearth supper and vesper service held the Sunday night during freshman orientation week. It plans, in cooperation with the faculty-student Committee on Convocations and Religious Activities, the fall and spring periods of religious evaluation. It directs the annual Thanks-through-Giving Drive. It holds special worship services and discussion sessions.

Yet the work of the PRC goes further than planning and programming as it seeks to discover purposes through exploration of the meaning and mission of the church. The Christian religion is one which involves relationships with students in whatever areas we are involved and gives meaning and direction to all areas of campus life.

Jacquelyn Dowd.....President
Dan Daniels.....Vice-President
Ann Moore.....Secretary

Westminster Fellowship

The Westminster Fellowship for Presbyterian students meets every Sunday night at Evergreen Church for worship, program and refreshments. The aim of the WF is to provide a Christian fellowship for students, and to witness for Christ in the midst of the ongoing life of the campus. Programs are presented by students and outside speakers.

Methodist Student Fellowship

The Methodist Student Fellowship was organized in the fall of 1952 and meets weekly at 5:45 on Wednesday evening for a religious program at the Chi Omega lodge. The M.S.F. cordially invites all Methodist students to visit or to join the group.

Canterbury Club

The Canterbury Club is the organization for Episcopal students. The group meets once a week for supper and a program. Among the club's projects are bi-monthly communion services and work with Memphis churches.

Baptist Student Union

The B.S.U. was organized in 1953 with the aid of the director of student work in Memphis. The purpose of the B.S.U. is to extend the influence of the church to the campus. The organization meets twice a month on Wednesday evening.

Danforth Program

In September, 1956, the Danforth Christian Service Project was established on Southwestern's campus. This program has as its purpose the training of students for volunteer service and lay work. Students are given training for work in one of several fields—church school teaching, recreation, social service, and literary work. The students are then placed in Memphis churches, hospitals, and social agencies where they receive guidance and further training as they work. The program is under the direction of Mrs. W. M. Cone.

Torch honors the most outstanding sophomore woman chosen by the group each spring.

3. It is the duty of any fraternity man having knowledge of violation of any of the above stated rules to report the violation at once to the I.F.C.

Section VI: The Quota-Limitation System shall apply to the 1963-64 rush.

THE QUOTA-LIMITATION SYSTEM

I. The limitation, or chapter quota, consists of the number of fraternity men on the campus tabulated in the spring, divided by the number of fraternities, plus ten men. This additional ten is intended to make the quota limitation until such time as it is deemed necessary for change.

A. Transfers would be able to affiliate with their own group on campus even though that group may have filled its quota and reached its limitation. However, transfers will be counted in the limitation thereafter.

B. The chapter quota includes all men who are presently active or who have been active in the local chapter within the past four years and are still enrolled in college and all pledges.

C. A group having filled its limitation would be able to affiliate stray Greeks.

D. Legacies would be considered in the quota as one-half man (4 legacies would count as 2; 7 as 3, etc. If the quota is 20 and a fraternity has 4 legacies, it can take 22 men including the legacies.).

II. The minimum quota would consist of the number of men going out for rush minus the average number of men who have dropped out of rush as tabulated over the past five years and divided by six.

III. The maximum quota for any group would be the minimum quota plus the number of men over the minimum quota necessary to reach the chapter limitation.

IV. Immediately following the rush period and for the remainder of the year, any fraternity which has not yet reached its limitation and wishes to pledge a man may do so, provided that the man to be pledged is eligible under I.F.C. regulations. Should a man leave college or a de-pledging occur during the year, forcing any fraternity to operate under its chapter quota, the fraternity may pledge a man to fill this vacancy at any time before the end of the college year.

V. If, at any time before initiation of the original pledge class a fraternity, which is operating over the chapter quota, should lose one of the men in the pledge quota, the fraternity may pledge a man to fill this vacancy.

VI. The number of men entering college at the second semester who wish to go out for rush will be divided by the number of fraternities on the campus. Each fraternity will be assigned its quota and can take pledges even though it has reached its first semester limitation.

Illustration

Limitation: In the spring of 1959 there were 218 fraternity men on the campus. Divided by 6 this gives 36 and adding 10 gives 46.

Quota: In 1957, 94 men went out for rush. $94 \div 10$ equals 84. $84 \div 6 =$ minimum quota of 14. These figures will be different in 1963-64 rush.

Re-harmonized by Ernest F. Hawke

Dear Al-ma Ma-ter, kind the fate That links our lives with Thee,
Thy stal-wart towers of sol-id stone, Thy vault-ed arch-es strong,
O Lead-er to the larg-er light, South-west-ern, 'neath Thy wings

For God's own power that made Thee great Is the truth that makes us free;
In-spire our loy-al hearts each one To fight a- gainst the wrong;
Thy sons in rev-'rent love u-nite, And each his trib-ute brings;

Thy torch has touched our hearts with flame, Our year-ning souls re-fined;
Our lives re-flect the beau-ty of Thy state-ly clois-ter'd halls,
And dreams, such dreams as old men dream, And vis-ions young men see.

Through Thee we learn the high-er aim, And train the tru-er mind,
And char-ac-ters grow gen-u-ine That dwell with-in Thy walls,
Keep light-ed in our hearts the flame Once kin-died there of Thee.
