A Guide To Our College Community

'82-'83

"What is the use of liberal arts education, with its philosophy, history, languages, literature, science and the arts?"

The answer is that it is the education for free men, the only sort of education that will give that broad understanding which fits men and women for worthy living."

--From an address by Charles E. Diehl, president of the college from 1917 to 1949.

Student Government Association

2000 NORTH PARKWAY
MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE 38112

Dear entering students,

Welcome to Southwestern!

At the heart of all you will value about the college are those people who daily encourage us to uphold the truth and settle for nothing but the best. Southwestern will give you chances to expand your awareness and strengthen your convictions. In and out of the classroom, it is up to you to make the most of Southwestern and its people.

Again, welcome and good luck.

Sincerely,
Michael Eads

HISTORICAL SUMMARY

Before its move to Memphis, the college was located in Clarksville, Tennessee, where it had its origin in the Clarksville Academy, founded in 1837. The Academy conveyed its property in 1848 to the Masonic Grand Lodge of Tennessee and was merged into the new Masonic University of Tennessee, a degree-granting institution of higher education. This institution became Montgomery Masonic College in 1850, and in 1855 its name was again changed, to Stewart College, in honor of its president, William M. Stewart. Under President Stewart's leadership the operation of the college passed from the Masonic Lodge to the Presbyterian Synod of Nashville.

Under the "Plan of Union" of 1873, the Synods of Alabama, Arkansas, Memphis, Mississippi, and Texas joined the Synod of Nashville in a cooperative effort to reorganize Stewart College after the Reconstruction Era and to operate it as a single Presbyterian college for the entire area thus represented, which was at that time commonly considered to be the southwest.

In 1973, a general reorganization of boundaries of synods within the Presbyterian Church instituted the college's present relationship with two larger synods. The former Synod of Louisiana is now part of the Synod of Red River, and the former Synods of Mississippi, Alabama, and Tennessee are now part of the Synod of the Mid-South.

In 1875 Stewart College became Southwestern Presbyterian University, developing alongside the undergraduate curriculum a School of Theology, which remained in operation until 1917. When the college moved to Memphis in 1925 it adopted as its official title Southwestern At Memphis, denoting a liberal arts college. Southwestern's relation to the Presbyterian Church in the United States has remained close and unbroken since 1855.

ASSOCIATE DEAN OF THE COLLEGE

Robert Llewellyn
223 Palmer Hall (ext. 311)

The key function of the Associate Dean is to coordinate the "faculty-advisor" system. Each student is assigned an advisor when he or she first arrives at Southwestern. When students have declared their majors, they are reassigned an advisor in the appropriate department. This office also assists the Dean in many other academic and organizational matters.

DEAN OF THE COLLEGE

Gerald Duff
233 Gooch (ext. 311)

Working with the faculty members and individual departments, he seeks to maintain the variety and standards of the educational system, to secure new faculty and to safeguard student and faculty freedoms and interests. This office deals with all academic matters, including the Dean's list and academic probation.

DEAN OF STUDENTS

C. V. Scarborough
229 Gooch Hall (ext. 347)

This office oversees all student affairs: dormitory life, student organizations, the student counselor program, and many other aspects of community life. This is the place to go when you are in a bind or simply seeking a helping hand.

ASSISTANT DEAN OF STUDENTS

Frayna Goodman
229 Gooch Hall (ext. 347)

Working closely with the Dean of Students in such matters as the college calendar, Residence Halls, BSA, PAN & IFC and Town students, she seeks to assist in organizing and coordinating all the events these organizations offer to the campus.

ADMISSIONS

Mary Jo Miller
100 Palmer Hall (ext. 361)

This office is responsible for attracting quality students (like yourself) to Southwestern, through high school visits, arranging campus programs and a special college symposium weekend for prospective students. The success of their programs depend very heavily on current students' help, from giving campus tours and overnight housing to a phone-a-thon to answer prospective students' questions. Your involvement is greatly appreciated, so keep your eyes open for an organizational meeting in the fall.

THE COLLEGE BOOKSTORE

Jane Darr, Manager
Debbie Jordan-Assistant Manager

Located on the west side of the first floor of the Briggs Student Center. The Bookstore staff welcomes you to Southwestern. Their prime objective is to provide full service for the entire Southwestern community. The Bookstore is owned and operated by the College and any proceeds above operating costs are directed into the general operating fund. Regular business hours are Monday-Friday 8:30 a.m.-4:00 p.m., with longer hours during the first week of school. Visa and Master Card are accepted.

Your major investment at the Bookstore will be to purchase your textbooks. An average of $75.00 should cover the cost of first term coursebooks depending on the curriculum you follow. Remember that prices are established by the publisher and not by the Bookstore. Used books are offered in as many titles as possible. Full refunds will be given on all clean, unmarked textbooks with receipt within ten days following the start of the term. Also, the Bookstore will buy back books at the end of each term from students.

COORDINATOR OF STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Lis Nielsen
229 Gooch Hall (ext. 347)

This is a recent division of duties in the Dean of Students office. Lis will be the one planning the Freshman Orientation program, Parent's Weekend and assisting in commons events, Social Commission affairs, and Student Center programs and the Pub. She would welcome any unique suggestions for the coming year.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Tom Kepple, Dean
103 Palmer Hall (ext. 331)

Students will have contact with this office in matters concerning energy conservation on campus and administration procedures. This office also oversees matters concerning utilities, food service, maintenance, housekeeping, purchasing and security.

Other Bookstore services include:
General Reading--we will be glad to special order a book which we do not have in stock at no extra charge.
College sportswear, health and beauty aids, film and film processing, postage stamps and stationary, and snacks.

CASHIER

Sarah Bowlan, Cashier
105 Palmer Hall (ext. 230)

Pay tuition, fees, fines, and parking tickets here. Mrs. Bowlan is willing to help with any accounts; if you are confused go to her. All UPS, Special Delivery, and Certified letters are delivered here. Stamps and scales for weighing parcels are available.

Students may cash checks for up to $25.00 a day and may set up student deposit accounts. A student deposit account offers no interest and check writing is not necessary. The program allows the student to withdraw up to $35.00 a day from the account without prior notice. One day prior notice allows for an unlimited release of funds.

CHAPLAIN

305 Briggs Student Center (ext. 307)

The Chaplain, working closely with the Religion Commissioners of the SGA, coordinates the many religious activities on campus and is always available to counsel with you about your religious and personal concerns. He is also your Career Counselor, and is eager to help you with decisions involving life/work planning.

COUNSELING CENTER

301 Briggs Student Center (ext. 307)

The Counseling Center staff is prepared to help you with a variety of concerns. The Personal Counselor is experienced at working with students on many issues such as stress management, relationships and emotional problems.

The Pastoral Counselor is prepared to help you with a variety of issues, ranging from personal or religious concerns to academic and life/work planning.

The Counseling Center also helps students locate part-time and summer employment, and has extensive information on careers, graduate study, and experiential learning opportunities.

FINANCIAL AID

Dean Ray Allen
109 Palmer (ext. 367)

Unless the award is honorary, decisions made by the Financial Aid Committee are based upon an analysis of the Financial Aid Form submitted by the student to the College Scholarship Service. Awards or adjustments can be appealed by submitting a request to the Committee through Dean Ray Allen.

Students who are assigned jobs through the College Work-Study Program or campus employment will receive their checks on the last working day of the month in the Financial Aid Office. Inquiries concerning job assignment should be directed to Mrs. Shirley Frisch in that office.

INFIRMARY

Doris Gill, Resident Nurse
Moore Moore Infirmary (ext. 262)

The Moore Moore Infirmary has 13 beds with 24 hour health care extended to all full time students. Flu shots are offered in the fall for the price

DEVELOPMENT

Don Lineback, Dean
4th Floor Halliburton (ext. 342)

The function of this office is to encourage gifts for the college, which support about one-third of the cost of educating each student. Gifts come from alumni, trustees, businesses, parents, and friends of SW. Student volunteers have been particularly helpful by working on the phonathon, greeting visitors, and helping with the various campaigns for the Southwestern fund--reducing the tuition substantially.

HOUSEKEEPING/MAINTENANCE

Barbara Cleveland/Roy Twaddle
Frances Falls Building (ext. 244)

Housekeeping is responsible for all routine interior cleaning, while the maintenance office maintains the physical and the mechanical work of the campus and dorms. All student requests for service must be made by forms that can be picked up from your R.A.

of the serum. Allergy shots can also be administered in the Infirmary. Shots are free, but a small fee is charged for the disposable syringes.

Bring your own medication, with directions, to the Infirmary when you arrive on campus. Make sure you bring enough to last until you return home; out-of-town prescriptions are NOT refillable.

Certain routine medications and services are furnished free of charge as part of the Infirmary's function. Special services, x-rays, and laboratory work are billed directly to the student. If you have to go to the emergency room, be ready to pay cash or checks from a local bank; out-of-town checks are not accepted. Night emergencies should be reported to the R.A., and he/she will contact the nurse.

Infirmary Hours:

Weekdays 8:00 a.m. -- 10:00 p.m.

Weekends 8:30 a.m. -- 10:00 p.m.

The nurse's hours vary daily according to the doctor's visits.

The Grill is staffed by students and serves a variety of fast foods and specials. You should watch for the Friday afternoon specials.

The Pub serves three types of draft beer and a number of imports. The drinking age in Tennessee is 19 and the Pub must abide by this law. REFECTORY

Scott Wing, Director

Burrow Refectory (276-1352 or ext. 202)

The Catherine Burrow Refectory is the College dining hall. ("Refectory" is a medieval term usually applied to the dining halls of monasteries and convents.) This is the place where minds and stomachs meet.

ARA will continue a fourth year as the food service at Southwestern. In the past they have planned such features as a weekly "steak night", holiday meals, ice cream extravaganzas, late night study breakfasts, a donut machine and Dial-A-Menu (274-4504). A student food committee works with the food service to air your comments and suggestions, and to try to bring you what you want.

The Honor Code applies to the refectory. You will be required at first to show an ID as to which meal plan you are on as you go through the line. Non-boarding students can purchase discount meal tickets at the cashier's table. It is also against the Honor Code to take utensils, dishware or food out of the refectory for later use.

DORMS

There are two types of dorms on the Southwestern campus; "open" refers to no restrictions on curfew hours for the opposite sex, "closed" refers to restricted visitation times (off limits from 12:00-8:00 a.m.). First floor Trezevant, Williford 2nd and 3rd floors, and University are the closed dorms.

Coin-operated washing machines and vending machines are located in almost all dorms. Draperies and carpeting are available in Williford only. Some beds in most dorms are oversized, so it might be better to wait before you buy your fitted sheets. Pets are restricted to the aquarium or cage type. Well, to answer your 3001 more questions, you will be assigned a student counselor soon, and he/she will be able to answer your questions by personal letter. Also please note that all dorms will be closed during Christmas, Spring Break, and part of the summer.

REGISTRAR

Glenn Munson

107 Palmer (ext. 271)

Class schedules, exam dates and times, forms for drop/add, pass/fail, and major declaration, petitions for directed inquiry, overloads, and waivers for academic regulations can be found in this office.

SECURITY

Col. Max McQuown, Director

Frances Falls Building

This office is responsible for the personal safety of the students, faculty, and staff and the security of the physical plant and grounds of the college. This office implements the traffic-parking control policy; parking stickers should be picked up the first week of school.

RESIDENT ADVISORS

These people are a vital part of communal living. He/she forms a liaison between you and the administration. If you have any problems--room changes, ants, maintenance, or personal--go to them: they are trained to help.

THE INTERNATIONAL HOUSE

The Southwestern International House is a residence hall for students who are interested in foreign languages and cultures. The International House consists of two separate sections, male and female, each of which houses speakers of French, Spanish and German. This special living arrangement was designed to provide students with an opportunity to practice their language skills with native speakers and other students, to stimulate international awareness on campus, and to assist foreign students during their years at Southwestern. Residents of the International House also sponsor international awareness events throughout the year.

COMMONS

229 Gooch Hall (ext. 347)

The "commons" system divides the Southwestern community into four smaller social groups according to your place of residence.

ROBB COMMON: Bellingrath, Robb, White, Ellett and Neely

VOORHIES COMMON: Glassell and Voorhies

TOWNSEND COMMON: Townies, Williford and Townsend

UNIVERSITY COMMON: University, Stewart, Evergreen and Trezevant

The commons system provides an opportunity for students to form intramural teams, have RC Cola and Moon Pie parties atop the Physics Tower, initiate poetry readings, and do anything of "common" interest. The get-togethers also provide opportunity for more informal association with the faculty and staff related to each common.

TOWNIES

Commuting students are just as much a part of Southwestern as the "live-ins", but they need to make an effort to keep from falling into the habit of going straight home after class. An occasional meal in the refectory or participation in some of the evening events will keep you in touch with the Southwestern community.

There are lockers available in the basement of the Student Center - check with the center assistant. Town students are assigned mailboxes also; these will often contain important on-campus announcements and notices, so check them regularly.

Involvement in the "commons" system can be particularly rewarding to townies. All town students belong to Townsend Common. Their participation is both needed and encouraged to help make this system a success. Attend commons meetings and functions whenever possible; this, more than anything will make you feel a part of the Southwestern community.

HONOR COUNCIL

The freedoms and responsibilities of the Honor System are shared by all members of the Southwestern community. The Honor Council, composed of an elected President, Vice President, and fourteen class representatives, has a positive, judicial role within the system. Its basic responsibility is to foster and protect a spirit of honor at Southwestern. It carries out this responsibility by educating the community and by acting as a court in a case of alleged dishonesty.

If a person is found guilty, the Council imposes a penalty that is designed to uphold the system and also be beneficial to the individual.

The Honor System applies to all phases of campus life. The four basic violations of the Code are cheating, stealing, lying in official matters, and failure to report a violation.

Each student is furnished with an Honor Council Handbook (constitution) which should be read carefully and saved for reference. The freshman class will elect two representatives, one male and one female during first term. The Council is made up of Southwestern students who are concerned and interested. Please feel free to ask any members of the Council questions which may come up.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The main purpose of the SGA is to promote an exchange of ideas among students, faculty, and administration. With a total of 24 representatives--4 class, 4 at large, 2 town students, 10 dormitory and 4 officers, the SGA appoints students to serve on Faculty and Board of Trustees committees, oversees the allocation of SGA funds, and involves itself in most facets of college life. If you are interested, get involved! Many of the representative positions will be elected in the fall.

Representatives:

President: Mike Eads
Vice President: Peter Rooney
Treasurer: John Bryan
Senior: Chip Parrot
Junior: Ruth Metcalf
Soph: Laurie Turner
Fr: To be elected

All other representatives are elected in the fall.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD (Pub Board)

Commissioner: Sherrod Edington

The opportunities available to you in publications at Southwestern are nearly unlimited. The Publications Board is the governing body over all publications. It selects new editors each spring, allocates money and settles conflicts in editorial policy. Members include all editors, class representatives (to be elected) and the commissioner.

SOCIAL COMMISSION

This commission hopes to draw upon the various art and talent groups on campus as well as bring in musical (jazz, new wave, rock, country, etc.) and cultural (ballet, etc.) groups from elsewhere. Some traditional attractions include Homecoming Dance, Uncommon House and popular and some controversial feature-length movies.

WELFARE COMMISSION

Commissioner: Adele Little

This commission is concerned with anything having to do with the improvement and furtherance of the educational experience. It initiates discussions, lectures, student and faculty welfare, and unity at Southwestern.

The SGA also allocates jobs by commissions, each commissioner creating and carrying out projects in his or her area. Explained below are the six commissions. They depend on student support, therefore seek out your area of interest and contact the commissioner.

ATHLETIC COMMISSION

Commissioners: Bert Barnes and Marcus Stevenson

Serving as a link between the student and the athletic department, this commission's main concern is to make the students aware of the athletic opportunities at SW. Be it varsity, intramural or individual sports, all questions can be answered through this commission.

ELECTIONS COMMISSION

Commissioner: C. Grey Moody

This commission handles the details of every student body election. Elections are announced two weeks in advance and petitions from the commissioner are available at that time. Voting is by secret ballot; the Honor Code applies.

Ted Kaiser
Junior Representatives: Tina Babcock

SOCIAL REGULATIONS COUNCIL

The social regulations of Southwestern are designed to keep rigid rules at a minimum and build responsibility within the individual living in the community. The basic function of the SRC is two fold: legislative--to initiate social guidelines and regulations; and judicial--to enforce these rules.

The SRC is designed to allow students to govern their own social habits. It is hoped that enough consideration is used by all students to keep judiciary action at a minimum.

Parents Panic Directory

Tear this section out and give it to your parents.

Dear Parents;

We realize that your child going off to college is as new to you as it is to them. Therefore, to ease your mind, we have compiled a listing of the people, offices and numbers that you may need during your child's years at Southwestern. This select group of administration are more than willing to assist you in any way they can, so please don't hesitate to call on them if you are confused or concerned.

Most of all--DON'T PANIC!!

THE ARTS AT SOUTHWESTERN

Southwestern students have an excellent opportunity to experience or participate in many forms of the fine arts. For those with an ear for music, there are the Southwestern Singers touring concert choir (auditions held during orientation), the First Generation contemporary musical group, the Southwestern Chorale, the Madrigal Singers, an orchestra, a brass ensemble and a woodwind quintet. There are also faculty and student recitals, the faculty concert series, and special guest performances such as a recent performing jazz artists series.

Year-round art exhibits are displayed in the campus' Clough-Hanson Gallery. Contributions in the visual arts range from photography to pottery and are presented by local as well as student artists.

Dramatic performances are staged several times a year, often with opportunities for students outside the Communication Arts Department to participate. Productions range from classics such as Shaw's "Candida" to student written and produced presentations.

With the completion of the new McCoy Theatre the dramatic arts at Southwestern has a new home. This versatile new facility, one of the best-designed theatres in the Mid-South, will lend itself to speakers, concerts and other programs as well as dramatic productions.

One of the special events which will find its permanent home in the new theatre is the much-lauded McCoy Visiting Artist Series. This series brings nationally and internationally known performing artists to campus not only to perform, but to visit with students, hold discussion/lecture sessions and conduct workshops. Among those who have shared their time and talent with Southwestern students are opera's dramatic soprano Nancy Tatum; noted dancer and choreographer Agnes de Mille; Swedish baritone Hakan Hagegard; The New Shakespeare Company of San Francisco; and actress Pat Carroll in her award-winning one-woman play "Gertrude Stein Gertrude Stein Gertrude Stein."

These coaches serve the entire Southwestern community; you do not have to play a varsity sport or even enroll in a PE class to take advantage of their expertise.

GREEK LIFE

The attitudes towards Greeks at Southwestern is positive without pressure; it's your choice to make. About 50% of the student body joins a social fraternity or sorority, where dedication and enjoyment are high among members.

Six national fraternities and four national sororities have active chapters at Southwestern. The fraternities, listed in order of their establishment here, are as follows: Pi Kappa Alpha, Alpha Tau Omega, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Kappa Sigma, Kappa Alpha, and Sigma Nu. The sororities, similarly listed in order of establishment at Southwestern, include the following: Chi Omega, Kappa Delta, Alpha Omicron Pi, and Delta Delta Delta. These national fraternities and sororities have attractive lodges on the campus, which are used for meetings and social events.

To be eligible for initiation, a pledge must have passed a minimum of nine hours at Southwestern with a grade-point average of 1.666 or better in the preceding term. Written certification by

Over two thirds of the campus participates in the intramural program. Under new Director Bill Jones the season will open with intramural flagball, followed by basketball, volleyball, and softball. Teams can be formed by anyone; members of a commons, a dorm, a fraternity/sorority or merely a group of friends.

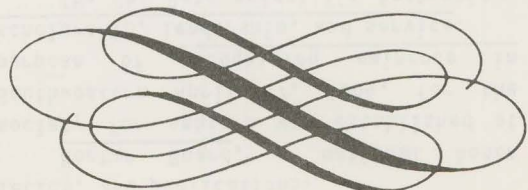

All students can enjoy the use of SW athletic facilities. In addition to the gym and regular fields, there are tennis courts, raquetball courts, an Olympic swimming pool, a cross country layout around campus, and a weight room. Check the schedules for various facilities.

For those who choose to pursue less strenuous activities, ping pong, cards, backgammon, checkers and a pool table are available in the Student Center. Frisbee Golf is also a popular pastime. Ask an upperclassman about the course layout. A sport unique to Southwestern is whiteball: just hang around the steps between the refectory and White to find out what it is all about. Camping equipment and a double bike are also available from the Student Center.

the Registrar and the Cashier that the student has met the scholarship requirements and has settled all college accounts is necessary for initiation.

The Interfraternity Council for the fraternities and the Panhellenic Council for the sororities made up of two representatives from each of the groups, and in cooperation with the Dean of Students, are in charge of the social activities of the groups and all matters of interfraternity relations.

There will be a meeting during orientation to answer any questions you might have about the system. Consider going through Rush whether you join or not; it's a great way to make friends.

HONOR SOCIETIES

The Southwestern Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa Society is Gamma of Tennessee. Students are elected to Phi Beta Kappa by the faculty members of the chapter chiefly on the basis of outstanding academic achievement. Students are eligible for election at the middle of their senior year on the basis of ten terms' work at Southwestern, or at the end of their senior year on the basis of twelve terms' work at Southwestern. Students graduating from Southwestern who have transferred from other colleges may be elected on the basis of at least six terms of residence and grades of comparable quality at the college previously attended.

Omicron Delta Kappa, Phi Chapter, was established at Southwestern in 1927. The purpose of this national organization is to recognize leadership in college activities and to undertake various activities for the good of the college. Student members are chosen from the junior and senior classes, and not more than three per cent of the student body may be elected to membership. Members must have distinguished themselves in such activities as scholarship, ath-

KINNEY PROGRAM

The Kinney Program is something very special to Southwestern. It is a student-coordinated and -staffed volunteer community service organization that involves about one-fourth of all students who attend Southwestern. On any given day, Kinney volunteers can be found visiting elderly shut-ins, taking a "little brother" to the zoo, or recording books for the blind. These students are bound by a common desire to help others--to look beyond personal needs and wants--and the incentive to channel that motivation into a regular and responsible program of community service. In addition to the satisfaction that comes from such work, the Kinney Program also gives students an opportunity to sample career fields in which they might be interested or to gain valuable on-the-job training.

PUBLICATIONS

There are currently 6 student publications at Southwestern, meeting a variety of interests and needs. Students are entrusted with maintaining a balance between freedom of expression and responsible journalism. All students are encouraged to work on all aspects of publications--writing, layout design, art, etc. Quality publications thrive when enthusiastic students are involved.

Faces is the directory of pictures, phone numbers, and addresses of students, faculty and administration. It is an invaluable aid!

Lynx is the Southwestern yearbook. It is a creative publication that attempts to give an overall picture of the life at Southwestern during that year. Student participation and assistance is essential for this publication. Watch for signs.

The Sou'wester is the student newspaper which covers student activities, current issues and articles of interest to the community.

SFA, (Student-Faculty-Administration) newsletter, is a weekly bulletin that lists the upcoming events both on campus and in Memphis.

WLYX

At 89.3 on the FM dial, WLYX is Southwestern's own volunteer-run, 24-hour, community radio station housed in Mallory Gym. The music format features mainly 'progressive rock' with frequent special programs. In addition, WLYX offers a closed-circuit reading service for the visually handicapped.

Station manager, Jeff Cowell, encourages student participation in all aspects of programming, production and broadcasting. Anyone interested should contact Jeff. No experience necessary!

Currents is the annual campus literary, scholarly and creative arts magazine. All the entries are original student work.

The Handbook - you be the judge, you're holding it.

DILEMMA

Operated exclusively by Southwestern students and financed by private contributions, this symposium features an intellectually stimulating weekend of guest speakers and seminars. Southwestern presents Dilemma to the college and Memphis communities. The symposium is usually held in the spring, so watch for your chance to get involved.

STUDENT CENTER ASSEMBLY

This group works to make the Student Center a lively place for students to gather. With a small budget, the group sponsors a wide variety of activities for the student body: bands, movies in the pub and a student center weekend in the spring. General membership comes from participation.

BLACK STUDENTS ASSOCIATION

The idea behind the Black Students Association (BSA) is to make the total integration of the races a more attainable goal. The primary function of the organization is to foster multilines of communication between the Southwestern community, organizations of other colleges, and the Memphis community. Throughout the year the BSA stimulates the Southwestern campus by providing innovative speakers, social activities, and a wide range of events that promote interaction within the Southwestern society.

RELIGION COMMISSION

Commissioners: Paul Fromberg and Deirdre Teaford

This commission will work closely with the chaplain to promote spiritual growth and religious activity. It plans to support groups such as Intervarsity Christian Fellowship, Evergreen College Fellowship, and The Fellowship of Christian Students. During your orientation you'll hear all about these. It will

ACADEMICS

Your best plan is to "know your catalog," it will save you time and worry. On pages 36 to 45 of your 1982-83 catalog are the requirements for graduation and the academic regulations of the college. Read it carefully. Students are responsible for the satisfactory completion of all requirements for graduation.

A Southwestern education is designed with individual students in mind. It encourages each student to explore and grow and take an active part in developing his or her college education. This, of course, places a responsibility on the student to take the initiative in exploring beyond traditional catalogue offerings, as vital as they are.

Special academic avenues are available and should be considered as viable alternatives in a liberal arts setting.

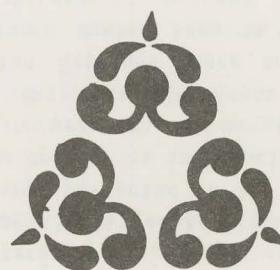

Interdisciplinary Majors; Internships; Tutorials; Directed Inquiries; Honors; undergraduate research; Washington Semester; British Studies at Oxford; third term off campus plus several others.

organize rides to the area churches and have occasional campus worship services. It also plans to have speakers, forums, and discussion groups to cover topics pertinent to the college student today and his/her faith. Any suggestions are welcomed!

THE COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL AWARENESS

The Committee for Political Awareness provides a forum for debate and education on current political issues. Organized by students, the CPA is open to all Southwestern students, faculty, staff, and alumni. Past programs have ranged everywhere from local public service groups to the nuclear arms race. In addition, the CPA sponsors educational campus workshops and conferences. Weekly meetings and forums are often given by students, so plan on sharing your knowledge with the CPA and educating yourself about numerous political issues.

During orientation you will find out who your colloquium leader will be: he/she will serve as your faculty advisor. This simply means that he/she will assist you in planning the courses you want to take and should take. Fellow students (upperclassmen) are also a very valuable source of information. Your other sources of information are professors and department chairmen; they can best tell you about their courses, their departments and what kind of career options are available. Get to know your professors! If there is something, anything, that you do not understand or want to know more about, then ask them. They are interested.

A CITY SKETCH OF MEMPHIS

From atop the Chickasaw Bluffs of the Mississippi River at the junction of Tennessee, Arkansas and Mississippi, Memphis looks to its strategic location for its heritage and its future.

Always a rivertown, Memphis today is the second largest inland river port on the Mississippi. The city looks to the land for its livelihood, too, as the center of one of the nation's richest agricultural areas.

Cotton is still king in Memphis, the world's largest spot cotton market. Music has also made its mark in Memphis--birthplace of the blues on Beale Street.

The importance of the bluffs that now hold the city of Memphis was recognized long before the city's founding, as the Indians and the settlers used the location to control trade and activity on the lower Mississippi.

Founded in 1819 by Andrew Jackson, James Winchester and John Overton, Memphis has fulfilled the prophecy of Jackson by becoming a large and important

The Victorian Village Historic District is a must for anyone who loves history and architecture. Eighteen landmark buildings preserved, restored and under renovation feature architecture from the Neo-Classical through the Late Gothic Revival.

Eighty feet deep and slightly less than one mile wide at Memphis, the Mississippi River itself is a Memphis landmark with its overpowering presence and beauty.

For a look at the sternwheelers of Mark Twain's era, visit the Schlitz Belle, a re-creation overlooking murals of river bank scenes. The Belle is part of a tour of the Schlitz Brewery on Raines Road.

In the midtown area is Overton park Zoo and Squarium, home to more than 2000 animals with a petting zoo for children and over 350 acres of natural park land.

Chucalissa in T.O. Fuller State Park is a reconstructed Indian village where several Indian families live and work, displaying their crafts and instructing visitors on the way of life that was theirs before the white man came.

metropolitan area from atop its river bluffs. Long the nucleus of the Mid-South, the city is becoming the heart of Mid-America.

Memphis' diverse heritage and livelihoods are reflected in the variety of things to do and see in the city.

Begin near the river to get the feel of the city. On Front Street is the Cotton Exchange where one-third of the nation's cotton crop is bought and sold each year.

A few blocks south one finds Beale Street, a National Historic Landmark as the birthplace of the blues. Handy Park at the corner of Beale and Third Street honors William Christopher Handy, the Father of the Blues.

Just across Wolf River in downtown is the new sixty nine million dollar Mud Island Complex. This tribute to the mighty Mississippi features everything from a 4300 seat amphitheatre to three restaurants to reconstructed steam boats. After a visit to the Island the Peabody Hotel provides a great place to relax. The South's grand hotel features four restaurants and the lobby where it has been said that the Mississippi Delta begins.

A festive spirit rules the city in May during the Memphis in May International Festival. From April to June, experience over 100 events including the Memphis Cotton Carnival, the annual visit of the Metropolitan Opera, the Danny Thomas Memphis Golf Classic (benefiting the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital), the Beale Street Music Festival, Musicfest, film festivals, a fine arts festival and much more!

Late September brings the Mid-South Fair and Exposition featuring commercial, agricultural and craft exhibits as well as a carnival midway and entertainment by television and recording stars.

The Memphis Fairgrounds is also home of Libertyland, a theme park with music, shops, shows, restaurants and rides.

Shopping in Memphis is a contrast of the old and the new from the nostalgic Overton Square to the new ten-block Mid-America Mall.

Overton Square is where you'll find 30 unusual shops, sidewalk cafes, an art gallery, a cooking school and much more. Playhouse on the Square, a professional theatre there, is the only one of its kind in the Mid-South.

Convenient shops and businesses line Mid-America Mall, America's longest pedestrian shopping mall. Stroll past fountains and Handy Park or ride from shop to shop in a modern three-wheel rickshaw.

Memphis' cultural life is enriched by the Memphis Arts Council which funds the Ballet South, Beale Street Repertory Company, Beethoven Club, Circuit Playhouse, Memphis Academy of Arts, Memphis Ballet Society, Memphis Opera Theatre, Memphis Orchestral Society and Theatre Memphis. Enjoy local theater groups' productions as well as those by touring companies.

Memphis Museum, commonly called the Pink Palace, is a kaleidoscope of the cultural and natural history of the Mid-South region. Of special interest are displays of pioneer and Merican war relics, collections of glass, porcelain and dolls, and an African trophy hall.

In Overton Park, you'll find two art galleries. Brooks Memorial Art Gallery, home of the Kress Collection, features eleven galleries including a new "Artworks Gallery" for children. Memphis Academy of Art features student and professional works.

Dining in Memphis you'll find a wide variety of restaurants from French dining with a view of the Mississippi to barbeque in casual surroundings. For steak there's The Loft; Victoria Station, Flaming Heath; Fred Gang's Meat Market; Jolly Ox; Folk's Folly; The Butcher Shop; for seafood try Captain Alexander's Moonraker; Pappy and Jimmy's; The Lobster Feast; The Hush Puppy; The Hungry Fisherman; for barbeque, look for Charlie Vergo's Rendevous; The Public Eye; Gridley's; Blues Alley; country style can be found at The Front Porch; The Village Square; The Black Eyed Pea; continental at Justine's; Four Flames; The Sawmill; Friday's; Paul-ette's; Solomon Alfred; The Veranda; Dux; Erika's; Café Peabody; Café St. Clair; Jim's Place; Reuben's; Ruby Tuesday's; Gaslight Dinner Theatre, oriental at Jimmy Tin's Port Shanghai; NamKing's Chinese Restaurant; Mexican at Pancho's; El Chico; dining with a view at Pyre-nees; River Restaurant; Diane's; River-mont Inn; Hugo's; Garden Terrace Cafe; Number One Beale Street; The Pier, Italian at Colleta's; Grisanti's; Giovanni; and the Wild Mushroom.

Every sports fan will find something to his liking in Memphis from duck hunting to the Liberty Bowl. The 50,000 seat Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium is home of the Memphis State University football team, and the annual Liberty Bowl classic. There's also the Mid-South Colisum where Memphis State meets its basketball foes.

Memphis boasts 20 public and private golf courses and hosts the annual PGA Danny Thomas Memphis Classic. During the summer months national speed boat racing and other aquatic events can be found at Kilowatt Marine Station while Southland Park in West Memphis (Ark.) features greyhound racing.

The Memphis area is famous for its bird and duck hunting as well as deer, squirrel and rabbit hunts. Hunting dogs from throughout the country compete each February in the Grand National Field Trials, a bird dog championship held at the Ames Plantation in nearby Grand Junction, Tenn.

SOUTHWESTERN AFTER HOURS

Below is a list of the various dives, hole in the walls, etc. that Southwestern students frequent. You should try them all but be prepared, openminded and have an Alka-Seltzer in hand (upper classmen will tell you where to find any of these night spots).

- Pat Pizza - the most famous of all.
Great cheese burgers. Go with an upperclassman to learn the ropes.
- The Cotton Boll - Lower midtown charm.
Lots of video games.
- Alex's - Close to school.
- Poplar Lounge - A classic only recently expanded
- Brown Jug - Not a night spot but will cash any Southwestern student's check so you can get to a night spot.
- P&H Café - Best part of this place is the smell from the bakery across the street.
- Jacks Pit Stop - Cheap B-B-Q as well as pizza.
- Last Resort - Any one of the 17 Krystals in Greater Memphis
