March 11. The Southwestern Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. W. G. Seven.

The minutes were read and approved.

The treasurer reported having given $5.00 on the club's pledge to Southwestern, which makes a total of $900. The treasury now shows a balance of $51. 61. As only $26.00 of the amount consists of this year's dues, Mrs. Lacy suggested that we add $75.00 to the remaining $25.00 and give $100.00 more on the pledge, thus making a total of $1000.00.

Mrs. Storn gave a report on a small tea given by the club to the Philological Association. (Mrs. Field, Mrs. Lacy and Mrs. Storn were in charge of this tea.)

Mrs. Lacy showed to the club a beaded evening bag which she had made. She said that if she could get orders for bags of this kind she would sell them for $12.50 and give 25% of the price to the club. The bag was bought immediately by Mrs. Helen S.

Mrs. Shewmaker reported that Mr. Yoran had proposed to the Idlewild Aux. that if one of the members would allow him to give a talk and a display of his rugs in her home, he would give the Aux. 5-7% of the sales that he made thereby. It was moved and seconded that the club find whether Mr. Yoran would make the same proposition to us.

The meeting adjourned.

March 18 - A special meeting of the Southwestern Women's Club was held at the home of Mrs. Field to discuss ways of making the money necessary for completing the club's $1,000 pledge to Southwestern.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The committee formed to look into the matter of Mr. Yoran's rug reported that the plan for making money in that way was not found feasible.

Mrs. Shewmaker moved that we collect coat hangers and dispose of them, & the motion was carried. Mrs. Hatley offered to call at stated homes for them.

Mrs. Hatley offered self-folds for sale at 1¢ each.

A rummage sale was suggested, and after discussion the motion to have the sale was made and carried. Mrs. Dill and Mrs. Rhodes were to collect for the sale.

Mrs. Hader suggested a musical evening at her home, but left the suggestion to be taken up at another time.

It was moved and carried that we buy a case of Wiggs Waterless Cleaner and try to resell the twelve cans to club members and friends.
Upon motion the meeting adjourned.

April 8 - The Club met at the home of Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs.
Davis being hostesses.

The minutes of the two previous meetings were read and approved.

The treasurer reported $98.31 in the treasury, $42.45 of this having been made by the rummage sale.

Mrs. Hartley reported that the Normal Baptist Cleaners no longer dry cost dryers, and that the Crossstown Cleaners offer only $\frac{1}{2}$ cent each for them. After some discussion it was decided that we wait and take them to Baptyst again
later.

Mrs. Shewmaker gave a full report of the rummage sale. Messamers Shewmaker, Lucy, Swan, Harrison, Davis
and Hadley took the rummage to N.
Second Street and reported a good time as well as a profitable sale. Some heavy clothing was left over, and may be sold at another time.

There was a report of a flower sent to Mrs. Townsend during her illness, and a motion that Mrs. Rhodes be reimbursed for some was made and carried. A letter of thanks from Mrs. Townsend was read.

When asked for an exact report of the money raised on our pledge the Treasurer reported that we are still $32.94 short.

Motion was made that we have another rummage sale, and after discussion the motion was carried. A committee, with Mrs. Lucy in charge, was appointed to decide upon the time of the sale, and to have charge of it. Mrs. Dield and Mrs. Rhodes offered to collect the contributions.

Upon motion the meeting adjourned.

May 13, The Southwestern Women's Club met with Mrs. Hartley.

The minutes of the previous meeting
were read and approved.

The Treasurer reported $111.27 on hand,
$26.50 of this being dues.

Three aprons, which Mrs. Stern made to sell at the rummage sale, were offered to Club members at 25¢ each, and were bought immediately.

Mrs. Shewmaker reported that upon hearing that the Normal-Bentley Cleaners were again paying 1¢ each for coat hangars, she and Mrs. Hartley took 430 of them there. However, the price had again dropped to $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢, and only \$2.15 was realized from the sale.

Mrs. Harrison gave a report of the second rummage sale. $13.56 was made, and some heavy clothing was left over for sale in the fall.

Mrs. Shewmaker moved that we borrow from our dues enough money to finish out our $100, and the motion was carried. The necessary amount is $10.98, which leaves $10.52 in the Treasury.

Mrs. Hatley suggested that we give some form of entertainment for the senior girls during finals. After some discussion it was moved by Mrs. Dield that we give this entertainment if the committee appointed by Mrs. Hatley decides in its favor. The motion was carried.

Mrs. Atkinson was appointed faculty advisor for the junior girls, who are to decide for the senior reception and commencement exercises.

Mrs. Shewmaker read a letter from Mrs. Laddie containing a renewal of her offer for the sale of Xmas cards, but after discussion it was moved and carried that we try to find some other line of cards for next year. Mrs. Lackey offered to wife to terms.

Mrs. Field offered to ~~suggest~~ have old magazines sent to Town if enough for a load could be collected.

Upon motion the meeting adjourned.

On October 15-th the club met with Mrs. Atkinson.

The meeting opened with the report of the Treasurer, after which the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Mrs. Davis reported that the party for the senior girls was a great success.

Mrs. Lockey gave a report on the offers from various firms in regard to Xmas cards, and the sample books which she had gotten were passed around and examined. Mrs.
Diehl moved that a committee be appointed to decide which offer, if any,
should be accepted, and the motion was carried. Mrs. Lockey, Mrs. Swain and Mrs. Strickler were appointed as the committee.

Mrs. Shewmaker moved that Mrs. Lacy and Mrs. Hatley take charge of the sale of dolls left over from last year. The motion was carried.

Mrs. Eric Hader moved that we have a rummage sale of the library clothing left from last year, and any other rummage available. The motion was carried. Mrs. Hader was made chairman of the committee in charge of the sale.

On November 11th the club met with Mrs. Swan. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, after which the treasurer gave her report. She reported $37.02 on hand, $2.50 of which was made by Mrs. Lackey by the sale of bittersweet, $22.00 by the rummage sale, and $12.32 was money on hand.

Mrs. Huber reported that the rummage sale would probably have been more successful had the truck carrying the rummage not broken down and delayed the sale. Another sale had taken place during the delay. However, there were few items left. Mrs. Diehl suggested that these left-overs be given to the Y.W.C.A. for the annual Thanksgiving sale. Mrs. Shumacher suggested that the goods might be sent to a mountain mission. Mrs. J. H. Davis, Mrs. Eric Hader, and Mrs. Huber were in charge of the sale.

Mrs. Hatley reported that the dolls had been distributed to various places, but not sold.

Mrs. Shewmaker called attention to the fact that four cans of Wiggs Cleaner had not been sold. After the sale of one more can we will have gotten back the money put into the cleaner.

Mrs. Strickler reported that the book of Xmas cards chosen by the committee was the cheapest of the books on hand. It was decided that the book of engraved cards and the boxed assortment of cards be passed from house to house, and orders made out.

Mrs. Lucy displayed some silhouettes, she had made, and offered to give the club 20% of the profit made by the sale of same.

Upon motion the meeting adjourned.

Mrs. Shewmaker reported that another can of wiggs cleaner is sold, making the money clear.

The nominating committee, consisting of Mrs. Dichtl, Mrs. Eric Hader and Mrs. Shewmaker, reported the following nominations for office:

Mrs. Hartley - president

" Helso - vice-president

" Rhodes - secretary

" Lacy - treasurer

It was moved by Mrs. Swann that these be accepted. The motion was passed.

There were no nominations from the floor. It was moved by Mrs. Strickler that the vote be made unanimous, and the secretary be instructed to cast it. The motion was carried.

Dues for the year were collected.

Mrs. Haden reported that the vases have been put in the Alexander Beauty Shop, and that there is a profit of $1.05. so far.

Mrs. Lucy moved that all previous dues be put in the regular fund, and only this year's dues be kept as such.
The motion was passed.

Upon motion the meeting adjourned.

December 1930

On December 8th the club met with Mrs. Rhodes and Mrs. Haden.

The minutes of the previous meeting
were read and approved.

The treasurer made her report.

Mrs. Rhodes reported that due to the efforts of Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Dailey and Mrs. Dairs the decorations and food for the tea for the Christian Endeavor were very attractive. However the attendance was disappointing as only about one fourth of the expected guests arrived. Due to the absence of Mrs. Johnson Mrs. Atkinson reported that a green lamp costing "5⁰⁰" had been bought for the Zeta Tau Alpha ^{Sorority}. Since the collection for this gift had amounted to only "4⁵⁰", the treasurer was instructed to give Mrs. Johnson the difference.

Since Mrs. Townsend was unable to serve as chairman of the nominating committee Mrs. Dairs was asked to serve in her stead. Mrs. Dairs submitted

the following names for officers -

Mrs. Huber - president

Mrs. Kelso - Vice president

Mrs. Haden - Secretary

Mrs. Storn - Treasurer

Mrs. Sheewaker moved that these names be accepted. The motion was carried. There were no nominations from the floor. Mrs. Sheewaker moved that the nominations be closed and the secretary be instructed to cast an unanimous ballot. The motion was carried.
