President Truman Nominates Wayne Beck Recorder Of Deeds

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(NNPA)—President Truman last Wednesday nominated Earl Wayne Beck, of Kansas City, Missouri, to be Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia.

Mr. Beck will succeed the Rev. Marshall L. Shepard, of Philadelphia, who resigned to run for Recorder of Deeds of his home city.

The Beck appointment was, more or less, a personal selection of Mr. Truman's. While Mr. Truman was chief judge of Jackson County, Missouri, the county court appointed Mr. Beck as superintendent of the Jackson County home for delinquent and neglected boys and as such, Mr. Beck was under Mr. Truman's supervision.

The appointment of Mr. Beck reportedly was urged by Vivian Truman, the President's brother.

Mr. Beck was in the city last week and talked with members of the White House secretariat and with officials at Democratic National Committee headquarters. He also talked with Representative William L. Dawson of Illinois, a vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

Mr. Beck was born in Ottawa, Kansas and received his early education in Kansas schools. While he was superintendent of the Jackson County boys' home, he studied physical education at the University of Michigan.

Before moving to Kansas City, Mr. Beck was in partnership in the grocery business in Topeka, Kansas.

Later he served as boys' physical director at the YMCA in Kansas City and then became the superintendent of the Jackson County boys' home. He held this position about fifteen years.

While serving in that position he was given the nickname of "Major," a title which he has ever since carried.

During World War I he was engaged in YMCA camp work and during World War II he was engaged in similar work with the United Service Organization. After the latter war he became superintendent of the Douglas Hospital in Kansas City, Kansas, and remained in that position until about a year and a half ago when he went into semi-retirement.

Mr. Beck's first wife, the mother of his three daughters died in 1949 and he remarried at Christmas time last year. His wife is the

Sheriff Cleared In Jail Slaying

LUCEDALE, Miss.—(ANP)—A coroner's jury last week cleared Sheriff W. D. Bearney, in the fatal shooting of J. C. Nalls a county jail prisoner.

Nails was shot to death by Bearney, Sept. 15, after he is alleged to have roughed up the jailer Steve Booth and took his keys.

Bearney testified that he shot Nails in self-defense when attacked. The escape attempt took place during feeding time.

Maximum Fines Meted Out To Indianola Officials

Justice was swift and decisive in the case of the two white officials who brutally beat three Negroes in the Sunflower County, Miss., jail at Indianola into confessing to a murder that never took place.

Pleading guilty to charges of assault and battery, the men were sentenced to six months in prison, and fined $500 each.

Homer Sheffield, former deputy sheriff of Sunflower County, one of the two men accused of the crime, began serving his sentence at once.

Charles R. Underwood, private investigator, who came to Indianola from Cleveland, Miss., at the invitation of the Sheriff's office to assist in the case, is being returned to Chicago where he must serve time for violation of a parole.

Violations in the case were Jesse James, Jr., Amos Redmond, Jesse Davis, and Will Galloway. Three of the four men told authorities that they confessed to what later proved to be a fictitious murder to prevent Sheffield and Underwood from beating them further. One of the victims never did confess.

The supposed murder victim, Robert McKinney, 17-year old Indianola youth, had been reported missing by relatives, but turned up later in East St. Louis, Ill. "safe and sound." He had gone there to seek employment.

Grand Jury indictment of the two officials and their subsequent conviction on a plea of guilty summed up the prevailing sentiment against the brutal third degree tactics on the part of the residents of Indianola. District Atty. Stanny Sanders was given the assistance of a private prosecuting attorney to aid him in handling the case. Forrest Cooper, special attorney, was retained by a group of white citizens in Sunflower County.

Year Of Active Service For Capt. Robinson And Memphians Of 241st Transport Company

Led by Captain George Robinson, former teacher at Douglas School, soldiers of the 241st Transportation Company, returned to Memphis this month for furlough after a three-month tour of duty in Greenland as part of "Operation Bluejay." Majority of the men of the company which was activated at the Army General Depot as part of the U. S. Reserve Corps, are Memphians, and their return marked one year to the month that they left the city for active service. The unit is stationed at Fort Eustis, Virginia.

"Our company was considered one of the best in the operations," Captain Robinson said, "and as the result was designated the company to complete the job."

Finishing the task was accomplished in record time by a group of men whose morale was high but who wanted to get home and see loved ones again, the young officer stated, and added:

"As a result of the type of work done, the company was highly commended by Major General Harry B. Vaughn, Jr., general in charge of the operation."

Captain Robinson was warm in his praise of the men of his company. "I have Pfc's who should be Master Sergeants but I don't have the openings for such upgrading at this time," he said.

First Lt. Edwin Prater, who like Captain Robinson, is a veteran of World War II, is still with the company. He formerly taught at Hyde Park School. Capt. Robinson and Lt. Prater are life-long friends, "and I cherish this friendship more than ever," the commanding officer said. He was likewise enthusiastic in his commendation for Captain Turner, New will be the principal speaker at the dedicatory ceremonies of the recently completed "Abe Scharff Y. M. C. A. Building," Sunday afternoon, September 30, 5 p. m.

James E. Cook, Executive Secretary of the Pine Street YMCA, St. Louis, Mo., has held this position since 1941. From 1922 through 1941, he served as Boys' Work Secretary at Pine Street Branch.

Citizen Abe Scharff

Dedication of the new YMCA Building on Lauderdale at Linden Sunday afternoon, September 30th will serve to focus attention upon many aspects of the development of the YMCA program during the past fourteen years. Until 1937 the "Y" movement had not been extended to the Negro of Memphis. But for the interest manifested by the then incoming Secretary of the Central YMCA, Earle Whittington, Sr. there still may not have been a "Y" program for Negro Memphis for some time to come.

Mr. Whittington accepted his present position with the YMCA in Memphis upon condition that he would be given opportunity to launch plans for opening the service to Negroes of this community.

Much of what has occurred since 1937 when the first group of Negro leaders were called by Mr. Whittington to confer with Senior YMCA Secretary, Dr. Channing Tobias of New York as to conditions for starting the program here is history, history illuminated with many bright pages that tell of sacrifices, unselfish contributions, and inspiring demonstration of interracial team work.

The roll call of men and women who pioneered in the "Y" Movement and those who have come on the scene later would read like a class-epic of old. We could point to scores of persons who have made a distinct contribution to the program during the past fourteen years. Symbolic of them all, however, is ABE SCHARFF, Memphis business man, for whom the new building was named.

Mr. Scharff's contributions of thousands of dollars not only made the present new, commodious building possible, but enabled the Negro Y. M. C. A. Branch to move from its small quarters on Mississippi Blvd. to its present headquarters on Lauderdale St. He gave outright to the

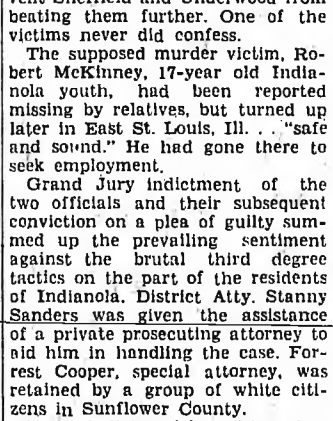

Sends Greetings To "Y" Leaders

DR CHANNING H. TOBIAS

It was 14 years ago that Dr. Channing H. Tobias, who in his capacity as Senior Secretary for the National YMCA came to Memphis at the invitation of Secretary Earl R. Whittington, to help launch YMCA work among Negroes in Memphis. The prominent "Y" leader, who had just returned to the States from China, India, Africa and other countries abroad, offered the necessary incentive to local citizens to get the project going.

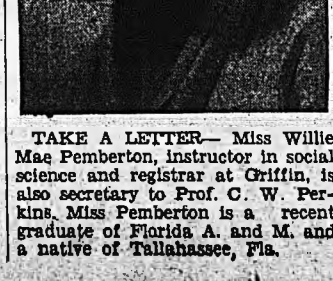

Since his visit to Memphis, YMCA work has continued to develop to its present status. Dr. Tobias presently is head of the Phelps-Stokes Fund and only recently was named by President Truman as UN Alternate Delegate in recognition of his distinctive services on the national scene. Dr. Tobias has sent greetings and best wishes to the Board of Directors upon occasion of the dedication of the new Abe Scharff YMCA.

Words From Washington High

By CHESTER RILEY and CYNTHIA GREEN

The Booker T. Washington Warriors showed old team on East Thursday when they took on and defeated Union County Training School of New Albany, Mississippi, 46-14 in a heated contest at the Warriors stadium. The first touchdown was on the scoreboard less than two minutes after play began. It was scored by Floyd Taylor, a rookie halfback who is expected to lead a lot of ball for the Warriors this year for the Warriors, on a handoff from Roy Pearson. Only in the second period did the visitors from New Albany Mississippi score. Edward Miller, a towering end, went on a rampage catching pass and scoring two touchdowns. Thomas Gills, Milton Jones, David Terrell and tackle Charles Lomax also scored for Washington. The Warriors also scored a safety. Variety quarterback, Roy Pearson had part in 3 of the 7 touchdowns the Warriors scored. He threw eleven passes and completed 8. The Warriors ran up a score of 29-0 and then coach James Boone decided to experiment with new combinations in the second quarter and the Warriors moved right into Union County's territory at the start. After Person had driven the Warriors 60 yards, coach Boone replaced him with Jerry Smith. Smith warming up his throwing arm to Miller and was deep in Red territory. Gills juggled the ball 5 yards up the middle to the 8 and a handoff from Smith to Milton Jones netted a touchdown. Lawrence Jones, another rookie quarterback passed to Terrell for another touchdown.

Swine production is profitable if it's carried out in the proper way. One must start with a good breed because the old slogan, breeding it there before you can feed it there is a true one.

This group of pigs was ready for market in five months, ten days; weighing on an average of 218 pounds. They were produced on the following ration: equal parts of cottonseed oil, meal and tankage, all the home grown yellow corn they could eat. In other words, these pigs were fed in a self feeder where feed was available at all times. In addition to the previously mentioned feedstuff, they were fed a mineral mixture of ten pounds steam bone meal; ten pounds limestone crushed; one pound salt plus an additional amount of salt fed in a separate container where pigs could have access to such.

The amazing things that top it off is that these pigs grazed on a good clover pasture.

This group topped the fat pig show at last year's Fair. Winning first, second, third and fourth places respectively. The championship pig brought 4-H Club members 60c per pound, $130.80; plus $15 premium. For the sale of the five pigs as you see on this picture, these 4-H clubbers received a total of $425.87. You might be interested in knowing what these boys would have made on these pigs had they not sold them at premium prices. This is it.

Based on the average market price at the time of sale of these pigs, they would have brought $98.95 over cost of feeding. We definitely believe that 30 per cent of this net return was due to a good pasture that they grazed on daily.

Thousands witnessed the ceremony. Tributes were acclaimed him to the utmost.

The hero is at rest. He is survived by his parents, four brothers and four sisters.

T. H. Hayes and Sons had charge of funeral arrangements. Mr. Lillian Scott, civic leader, made arrangements for military services. Participating in the obsequies of the late Pvt. Edward O. Cleaborn were: Rev. S. A. Owen, pastor, Metropolitan Baptist Church; P. McDonald; Mrs. B. D. Robinson, Shiloh Baptist Choir; and a duet from Booker T. Washington.

Military Honors at the grave were carried out by J. McKellar, Commander, American Legion Post No. 1; G. Burson, Commander, Atruss Russell Post No. 27; and members of the two Legion Posts; and an organized Reserve Corps of Memphis General Depot.

August 15, 1950, when the sound came to retreat from a hill in the Korean countryside, he disregarded the signal and continued firing his gun until his hands were burned seriously; and the last man of his outfit had reached safety.

In February of 1951, he was a posthumously awarded the Distinguished Service Cross by General Hodges, Commander of the Third Army in ceremonies at Booker T. Washington High School.

DEDICATION SUNDAY OF THE NEW ABE SCHARFF BUILDING will represent a tribute to the late Charles R. Lawrence, whose untimely death February of this year, denied him the opportunity to witness the fulfillment of his fondest dream. Day and night, under many adverse circumstances, Mr. Lawrence carried on the work of collecting unpaid pledges and at the same time, taking care of administrative duties of Lauderdale Branch. The present structure will stand as a monument to his unselfish service.

DR. J. E. WALKER CHAIRMAN, BUILDING FUND COMMITTEE for Lauderdale Branch Y. M. C. A. and whose generous contributions set the pace for sustained interest on the part of Negro Memphis.

R. EARL WHITTINGTON, SECRETARY, METROPOLITAN Y. M. C. A.—Without the constant effort on the part of Secretary Whittington, for a Negro Branch Y. M. C. A., the present program, which includes the new $200,000 Abe Scharff Building, would not have been possible. Mr. Whittington came to Memphis from Mississippi to take over Y. M. C. A. work with the understanding that he would be given opportunity to extend the program for benefit of Negro Youth. He started the Negro work in 1937.

Tag— IN MEMORIAM

Dedicatory ceremonies opening the ABE SCHARFF Y. M. C. A. Building will include moments of reverent reflections upon those stalwart workers who passed at the high tide of service on behalf of the "Y" program. The list includes:

Lucian J. Searcy, S. W. Qualls, Sr., Dr. U. S. Walton, Prof. L. E. Brown, Charles R. Lawrence, Mrs. C. R. Lawrence, Mrs. E. P. Nabors, Mrs. M. W. Bonner, Mrs. J. T. Lanier, Mrs. Bertha Keyes.

Forward Together For Victory

In 1942, nine years ago, when Mississippi (Predecessor of Lauderdale Branch) Y. M. C. A. Branch launched its annual Membership Campaign under the inspiring supervision of the Late L. J. Searcy, chairman of the Finance Committee, he issued the following statement apropos to the Membership Campaign scheduled to open Sunday, September 30th, with the dedication of the Abe Scharff Building:

"We hear much today about Preparedness, Victory, Total Defense and other no less striking terms. To deny that we should prepare for, that Total Defense is needed for the overseas battle fronts as well as the home front would be the sheerest folly of thinking. An anonymous Benefactor (Mr. Scharff who had just given the Toof home to the Negro "Y" Branch) who inspired by the love of his fellowman, and unquestionably possessed of a kindly and generous heart, has made it possible for Negro men and boys to enjoy the benefits of a real Y. M. C. A. Building.

To the Benefactor, the colored people of Memphis wish to express their sincerest gratitude. The gift is accepted, I believe, with full knowledge of the responsibility it entails; that of helping to develop an institution that will be both permanent and useful where our men and boys may go for wholesome recreation, delightful companionship, and an improvement of their minds and bodies.

Memphis has long needed a character-building institution for Negro men and boys as such. Now that we have one in the making an urgent appeal is hereby made to our Memphis citizens to support to the limit the financial drive which is underway to secure funds for: 1) Maintenance; 2) Renovation; and 3) Furnishings. These items, all of them, are necessary to the successful projection of the "Y" program. It is our responsibility to provide them.

Let us therefore prove ourselves worthy of this extraordinary gift by doing our level best toward reaching the Goal Set. It is Our Sacred Duty to do so. Nothing less. Yours for a Bigger and Better Y. M. C. A.

C. M. ROULHAC, JR., former All-American gridiron player with Le-Moyne College and native Memphian, succeeded Charles R. Lawrence as Executive Secretary of Lauderdale Branch Y. M. C. A., which has now been renamed Abe Scharff Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Roulhac served as Athletic Director at Albany State College, prior to accepting his present position. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Roulhac of 810 E. McElore Avenue.

WORKING HAND IN HAND in the development of the Y. M. C. A. Movement during the past fourteen years have been some of the most prominent and civic-minded women of the community. They have constituted the Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. One of their major activities have been sponsorship of the Annual Worthy Boys Dinner for under-privileged boys at Christmas time.

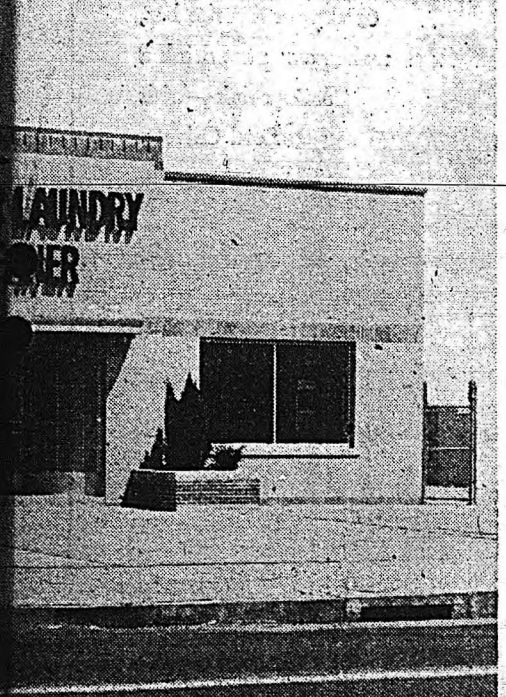

The years that have passed have been shadowed by the passing of several members of the group shown here, including: Mrs. Charles R. Lawrence, wife of the secretary, who passed this year; Mrs. M. W. Bonner, wife of the first board chairman of the "Y"; Mrs. E. P. Nabors, wife of the vice-chairman of the board; Mrs. J. T. Lanier, wife of the assistant secretary; and Mrs. Bertha Keyes.

Others shown in accompanying picture are Mrs. Emma Smith, Mrs. J. E. Walker, Mrs. Adele Alexander, Mrs. Bonds, Mrs. Lena Davis, Mrs. Ruth Agnes, Mrs. J. C. Martin, Mrs. R. S. Lewis, Sr., Mrs. John Love, Mrs. J. H. Lavender, Mrs. Georgia Sadler, Mrs. Fred Hutchins, Mrs. Rebecca Camper, Mrs. Edna Woodard, Mrs. Edward R. Kirk, Mrs. Hasolee Greene, and Mrs. Pyle.

Former Memphians Attend Birthday Party Honoring E. Barnett, Ohio Editor

Special To The World
W. E. Barnett, publisher and editor of the Toledo (Ohio) Script, was the guest of honor at the beautiful birthday party of the beautiful Gotham Hotel, last Friday evening, September 21. The affair was sponsored by glamorous Gladys Hampton of the noted Lionel Hampton orchestra leader.

Barnett is a long-time member of the Lionel Hampton orchestra. He got started with the trumpet several years ago and manifested an interest in the instrument ever since. He has friends in nearly all of the big cities of the world, with a few from New York on hand to wish the youth-ful Mr. Barnett many happy returns of the year.

Among the guests were Jerry Hood, of the New York Tribune; Bill Lane, four-time radio commentator; Bill Lane, of the Michigan Chronicle; Roy Floy, of the Gobel Beer Co.; Ulysses W. Boykan, and other representatives of Park Cliff; Dr. and Mrs. Robert Goodlowe, Toledo; Mrs. H. Hassel, and daughter, Evelyn Baber; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Gibson, Mrs. Lee Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Booker Danner, Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, and Delores Peoples, all of Toledo, Ohio; Francis A. Kornegay, Vocational Director of the Urban League, of Detroit; Leroy White, disc jockey, of Detroit, and originator of the slogan, "Leroy Sent Me," and "Doing the Thing." Leroy was actually doing the "thing" in leading everyone in singing "Happy Birthday" for Barnett at various intervals.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Stables, Mr. George Poley, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Williams, of Toledo. Mrs. Williams is the former Floyd Weathers, of Memphis, and erstwhile employee of the Memphis World. Mrs. Joseph Wiley Moon and her charming sister, Mary P. Wiley, were guests at the natal reception. Miss Wiley is in Detroit doing graduate work on her master's degree. Both she and Mrs. Moon are native Memphians but have resided in Detroit with their mother the past several years.

One of the many celebrities present was the fashionable Gwen Tyres, dear friend of the honoree. Miss Tyres is presently appearing at the Club Juana. A New Yorker, she frequents Detroit. Her selections were dedicated, of course, to Mr. Barnett. She was stunning in her "After-Five" dress of taffeta in colors of white and black.

Mrs. Geneva Wathall, sister of Mr. Barnett, Mrs. Zetta Fairchild and Mrs. Shara Sherrill received the guests.

Mr. Edward McLaughlin, well-known news photographer, caught the spirit of the occasion with the "eye" of his camera and promised some interesting highlights for both the local and national press. Birthday greetings came from many sections of the country.

Colored Tri-State Fair Set For 1951 Opening October 4

The 1951 Tri-State Fair will be larger and better than ever before, according to announcement this week by Prof. R. J. Roddy. Not only will there be numerous new exhibits to interest all members of the family, but mother in particular will be able to take home many free prizes and samples of food products and home gadgets.

For the first time, the Negro Chamber of Commerce is staging "Negro Business on Parade" and a Food Exhibit with many free prizes to be given away twice each day.

Miss Eugenia Smith, well known Home Economics expert of General Mills, will demonstrate her skill in the culinary department every day of the four day Fair stand at two shows, 2 p. m. and 8 p. m.

Six market baskets will be given away every day, three at each performance and the climax will be when a $200 Cas Range and a $75 reached Friday night, October 5. A set of silverware will be given away. All items will be on display in the Merchants Building.

Miss Grace Watson, Memphis World columnist and staff member of the Memphis Dairy Council, will conduct a "Television Show" immediately following the demonstration by General Mills. The Dairy Council has added to the free market baskets to be given away a quart of ice-cream, one quart of milk and a pound of cottage cheese to each basket.

Certain to please all the thousands of Fair visitors will be the sight of attractive colored girls in charge of nationally advertised exhibits.

"Negro Business on Parade" will include an attractive display of the diversified achievements of Negro business in the entire Tri-State area, particularly in Memphis. It will feature the achievements, but will attempt to show the great potential in this field of endeavor.

Lutheran Hour To Open Nineteenth Season Sept. 30

REV. ARMIN C. OLDSEN
LUTHERAN HOUR SPEAKER

ST. LOUIS — The world's most wide-spread broadcast, the international Lutheran Hour, will open its nineteenth season of broadcasting September 30 with a gigantic rally in the Chicago Stadium, it was announced today by Dr. Eugene R. Bertermann, director of the global broadcast.

Originating from Chicago's Mutual studios (WGN), the first broadcast of the nineteenth season will also feature the initial address of the Reverend Armin C. Oldsen, successor to the late Dr. Walter A. Maier, founder and first speaker on the program.

The rally in the afternoon, which is expected to attract 25,000 people, will feature a colorful pageant tableau "Send Out Thy Truth" depicting the forward march of Christianity through the centuries and culminating in a presentation of the story of the Lutheran Hour's rapid growth.

Begun on two stations in the early thirties, the broadcast has shown remarkable growth throughout the years until today it is beamed over 1,034 stations in 52 nations in 36 different languages. The Lutheran Hour conducts the world's largest Bible Correspondence Course with approximately 100,000 people enrolled in the program, and its mail exceeds 500,000 pieces annually.

The Voice of America uses the Lutheran Hour as one of the programs it beams behind the Iron Curtain, and the Armed Forces Radio Service includes the Lutheran Hour in its broadcast schedule.

Sponsored by the Lutheran Laymen's League, an organization of over 60,000 Lutheran laymen throughout the United States and Canada, the $1,400,000 annual budget is defrayed through the contributions of its sponsors, its friends, and its listeners.

Channing H. Tobias No Communist

Dr. Channing H. Tobias, the devout churchman, the Y.M.C.A.'s senior secretary for so many years and loyal American citizen, is the latest victim of Westbrook Pegler's vicious smear campaign. It is time for reputable newspapers either to demand that Pegler tell the truth in his column or to drop it from their pages.

Anybody who knows Channing Tobias knows that he is not a Communist, that he is not subversive. Like every other self-respecting Negro citizen, he abhors racial discrimination and segregation and he speaks out courageously against it. All of our great Negro leaders, including Tobias, devote the greater part of their lives fighting for full citizenship rights for Negroes. If that be a subversive action, then we all are subversive. We want to be full-fledged American citizens and will continue to fight and protest until we have attained that status.

Dr. Tobias, who probably would be elected a bishop in the C. M. E. church if he were not a layman, is one of the most distinguished Americans which this country has produced. President Truman recognized his ability and his loyalty last week when he named him as this country's alternate delegate to the UN assembly. Pegler's ridiculous charges will not be taken seriously by any thoughtful American.

plans for construction of the building, even though there had been a discouraging lag in payment of pledges.

It was the interest of men like Mr. Whittington and his associates who called Mr. Scharff's attention to the crying need of the Negro youth for a gym and other facilities to develop their bodies and minds.

Negro Memphis certainly owes a lasting debt of gratitude to their own leaders who balanced the scale of inter-racial relationship through their untiring efforts, sacrifice of time, and money to the end that the "objective of the Y" may be realized. "That of creating, maintaining and extending through out the community a high standard of christian endeavor." We salute our board of directors officered by such men as Prof. E. T. Hunt, E. P. Nabers, J. T. Chandler, Sr., J. T. Lanier, E. L. Washburn and Dr. J. E. Walker. We shall never forget the years of service rendered by M. W. Bonner, who has left our midst to live in Cleveland, nor those men and women who passed from the scene while at the high tide of labor on behalf of the "Y." Their spirit will be with us Sunday afternoon as we dedicate the Abe Scharff YMCA Building.

Handicapped" to total number of persons hired for the year, Samuel Peace in his statistical report claim that more than 20 per cent Physically Handicapped were placed in profitable employment from September 1950 through August 1951. This increase reflects the splendid work done by "The Inaugural National Employ the Physically Handicapped Committee of 1950" which was the first committee ever formed at 199 S. Second.

Rev. J. A. McDaniel, Executive Secretary of the Memphis Urban League, who served as "Inaugural National Employ the Physically Handicapped Chairman" was chosen as acting chairman and immediately succeeded himself by acclamation to succeed himself for 1951-52.

An eight point program was immediately introduced by the chairman and adopted by the committee. Mrs. A. A. Branch, Student Counselor at LeMoyne College, was elected as co-chairman. Mrs. Leola Price, Interviewing Clerk in Tennessee Department of Employment Security, was elected secretary.

Among speakers were Roy Gorman from the common labor and Hod Carriers Union No. 1441, 583 Beale and Mr. Kiss, Occupational Analysis from Vienna, Austria, who is on a three month tour in the U. S., studying occupations and employment procedures. In addressing the committee he mentioned the apparent unrest among the individuals in the U. S. He also stated "If you are to really appreciate America, you would have to change places with some of my countrymen for just a short period of time because you are enjoying luxuries and experiencing freedom in this country unknown to the citizens of Vienna.

This 1951 National Employ the Physically Handicapped Committee has a higher goal to reach than the "Inaugural of 1950." To meet this challenge and aid in this kick off meeting were Rev. J. A. McDaniel, Executive Secretary of Memphis Urban League; Mrs. A. A. Branch, Student Counselor at LeMoyne College; Mr. Samuel Peace, Interviewer at 199 S. Second; Mr. D. J. Thomas, Executive Friendly Fidelity Casualty Insurance; Mr. A. M. Hurt, Industrial Relations Representative, Tennessee Department of Employment Security; L. O.
