

FEDERAL GOV'T ARRESTS FLA. POLICEMAN WHO KILLED MAN

Youthful Negro Shot Following Traffic Mishap

HOMESTEAD, Fla. — (SNS) — The Federal Government Wednesday took into custody Vernon Minnick, Homestead policeman, for the Christmas Day killing of an unarmed Homestead man as his aged father looked on.

The Justice Department contended that the slaying was in violation of the Federal civil rights statute. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, who announced Minnick's arrest, said that a federal complaint was filed at Miami charging Minnick with the fatal shooting of 31-year-old Emmitt Jefferson.

Jefferson was shot at his home, in the sight of his aged father who allegedly pleaded with the officer not to shoot. He was being taken into custody for a traffic violation; the officer claimed that Jefferson resisted arrest.

ALREADY UNDER INDICTMENT Minnick was already under a civil rights indictment after a Federal Grand Jury in Washington returned a bill against him ten days ago on charges that he beat a Negro prisoner in the District of Columbia more than a year ago while he was a member of the Washington Police Force.

Minnick, 38, was on the Washington Police force for more than ten years before getting a job as a patrolman on the Homestead force several months ago.

His indictment for the slaying charged that in killing Jefferson, he deprived him of his Constitutional rights of due process of law. The offense is punishable by a maximum penalty of one year imprisonment and a $1,000 fine.

The Federal authorities said that the Homestead shooting case had been presented to a Florida State Grand Jury but the jury refused to indict Minnick, a native of Maryland; W. Va., is married and has three children.

This Story Is You If You Did Such A Kind Deed

I heard a very beautiful story about you—I understand that you are a member of a very large family. Father and Mother, and large number of sisters and brothers. You and the family got together and bought a new television for your Mother's birthday present. But there was a lovely old lady in the neighborhood that stopped at your home late one evening. Many different performances appeared on television, but there were only a few short stories that the old lady enjoyed.

About 9:30 the old lady decided she would go home. She knew she had to transfer from one car to another, but as bad as she hated to stop looking at the television, she thought it was best to go home early. Yet, you insisted that she stay because the best story would come on about 11:00 and continue until 11:30.

"If I do I will have to ride the lineup going home," said the old lady. "Oh, no you won't" you said, "I'll send you home in a cab. The old lady settled down, and enjoyed the story. Sure enough you ordered the cab and he drove her right to her doorstep."

The old lady went in and went to bed. As she nestled down for a nap, she was happy, and prayed God's blessings on you.

This story was only told to me, but was it really you, that did such a kind deed?

TO BE HONORED—Rev. E. U. McGhee, pastor of Greater Mt. Zion M. B. Church to be honored February 25 thru March 1.

Report On Jan. Bonds Sales In Shelby County

January sales of U. S. Savings Bonds in Shelby County totaled $1,211,027.75, according to an announcement made today by J. C. Lancaster County Savings Bonds Chairman. Lancaster said that he had received word from Ray L. Burnside, Acting State Director of the U. S. Savings Bonds Division, Nashville, Tennessee, that total sales in the State from January were $4,871,383.75, an increase of 19.4 per cent over sales for January 1952. National sales totaling $504,000,000 were up 14 per cent as compared to last January.

A considerable part of the increase in sales was ascribed to purchases of the new Series "H" Bonds. These Bonds, which yield 3 per cent compounded semi-annually when held to maturity, pay their interest by check every six months and, as investors become more familiar with them, they are becoming more and more popular with those people who want a good safe investment which pays a current income.

CRIME PREVENTION WEEK

At a crime prevention luncheon Tuesday FBI Inspector Jephtha S. Rogers of Washington, D. C., related these figures to one of Memphis' leading clubs. The situation is growing worse instead of better, he said. "In the first six months of 1952, the FBI said, 'If the rate continues we will have over two million crimes in the U. S. in 1952, the biggest year in history. It is a record but one not to be proud of.'"

CAUGHT SPEEDING

A heavy foot on the gas got a man into trouble Tuesday. Officers clocked Dave Clark traveling 60 miles an hour in a 30-mile zone on Highway 78 near Oakville. Officers gave Clark a ticket.

All were in city court Tuesday to tell the judge about it.

Jessie L. Davis, 36, of 631 Mississippi, bilkhop at Chelsea hotel-violating liquor laws, $100 fine. Edward O. Martin, 28, of Oakville, Tenn., driving while intoxicated, $250 fine.

In Judge Sam Campbell's court, Anderson Tate, 36, of 818 E. Claybrook, petit larceny; 11 months and 29 days. Ralph Stuckey, 19, of 625 Hudson, charged with larceny and receiving stolen property, had his Atty. Gen. recomense nolle prossed (dismissed) mended this because, he said, Stuckey was indicted jointly with two others who were tried and acquitted by a jury.

Leroy Johnson, Jr., 186 Marble, charged with vagrancy and loitering, both cases were dismissed. William Treadwell, 54, 286 S. Fourth, charged disorderly conduct, fined $51.

Willie J. Johnson, 32, 231 Tully, charged with loitering and vagrancy, fine $10 of both charges. George Foster, 48, 473 Stonewall, charged with being drunk, $15 fine. Fred Williams, 28, 929 Thomas, charged assault and battery and disorderly conduct. Both charges, dismissed.

Erskin Holt, 55, charged with being drunk $51 fine. A gang of youths known as the "Loud Shirt Gang," who patterned their life of crime from listening to radio mysteries was arrested Monday night and confessed to 14 burglaries, the sheriff said.

The gang was arrested on Kirby Road at 10 p. m. in a 1941 green Ford by Deputies Gargill and Briggs. The gang bought the car Monday with the money they had stolen in a burglary Saturday night, paying $75 down, the sheriff said.

They had three loaded pistols with them. Sheriff Thompson said the seven would be arranged on housebreaking charges Wednesday, Feb. 18, 1953, before General Sessions Court Judge Albert Carubbers.

The sheriff identified the seven as follows: Silas Scott, 22; W. C. Scott, 17, and a 16 years old, all of (Continued On Back Page)

Beale Street Is My Beat

By Jimmie Cooper

Well, readers as you know Beale Street is My Beat. I always try to tell you just what happens on my Beat. Dropping in at the NEW DAISY, I noticed a nice flicker showing over the weekend and three others sitting in. Dropping in at the PANAMA, I found these Felix and chicks: GEORGE SYKES, FLORENCE McCLAIN. Well I got the eye of this young waitress whom I adore. BETTY JEAN ROBINSON. Well, BOSS, what are you going to do when the BOSS of the BOSS comes here? I'll tell you what I'm going to do. I'm telling him how this expense is going on my Beat. and see what I can do about it. because I don't mind getting further and doing doing worse. SPECIAL. SPECIAL. to the young girls. If you would like to have an interview with your BEALE ST. IS MY BEAT REPORTER. Drop in at the office. 164 Beale between 2:00 and 3:00. That for popular demand. Dropping in at the BOWLING ALLEY where the drawing was held. I extend apologies to WILLIAM O. LITTLE for my mistake of saying you were a TEENAGER WRITER. I forgot you were a grey-head writer for the MEMPHIS WORLD. On the Beat this week was MR. CARTER. MR. WALTON FROM OUT DIXIE HOME WAY. I found that several of the teenagers that generally be on by beat out to MAN-ASSAS SHOP-HOP. All they had a SHOP-HOP at MAN-ASSAS Thursday night. And there will also be another one on Monday night. So get up and go dig the happenings. Stopping by REX CAFE I found a girl who said her name was MRS. NO NAME, take this from me I know the happenings. Say BOSS the expense for the week remains the same as Tuesday's. So until Tuesday. Your Reporter JIMMIE COOPER.

Man Gets 8 Years For Burglary And Grand Larceny

Clarence Jones, 34, of Covington, Tenn., was sentenced to not more than eight years Monday on his plea of guilty in Criminal Court to charges of burglary and grand larceny.

A jury approved the sentences, recommended by Asst. Atty. Gen. Christopher H. Williams, Jr., in Judge Perry Seller's court.

Williams said Jones admitted breaking into the home of Mrs. W. N. Baxter, 1870 Harbert, Jan. 18 and stealing two purses, one containing $9 a check and her car keys. On discovering the burglary, she checked and found her car missing, she said. Officers Raney and Burns arrested Jones on Beale after a chase, Williams said.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON SCHOOL NEWS

By ARTHUR SPRUELL

The Booker T. Washington students who are taking advantage of the opportunities of learning practically any trade desired, I am beginning a series of stories in Tuesday's issue to cover and interview the teachers of the students taking trades as well as the students. I am hoping to get a staff photographer to make pictures of the students actually at work.

WASHINGTON BAND AT CIRCUS

The Booker T. Washington School band was host to the large crowds attending the circus (they played in the earlier shows. Other high school bands played, but I would like to say that we were asked to play at the last moment and the band was able to make the engagement.

ON THE CAMPUS

F L A S H ! ! !

Harry Trully and Charles Epps, the nonchalant cats on and off the campus were seen talking to two little chicks, namely, Sarah Burnett (Epps) and Daisy Norton. Daisy Norton is it true that E. Walker is the one for you or is it Harry Trully??

Margaret Epps is it true that Logan Mitchell is your right hand Ace? (that's right).

Vonnetta Watson and Clara Baylor change your ways and you will catch some sweethearts.

Debrah Jackson, do you yet have eyes for Eugene Franklin? (that's right.) Haywood, why look blue? We all know Mary Jo belong to you. Hercyline you know George V. always belongs to you, but why are you always quitting him? Martha Pittman is it so cool as people think? It is true that you let James Brent spin you like thread on a spool?

Lora Miller is on the beam; she has Joseph Williams by all means. Mary Lee and John are like two gloves, (a pair). I believe they are in love. James Spragg is it true that you have Melvin Perkins singing, "I'll Wait for You" (Why, shore!)

Betty Ford could it be true that Uncle Sam is too much competition for you? Arvis Latting, I happen to know that you and June Bishop are billing and cooing. (natch).

Celestine Ranson, don't you know that you got the right string but the wrong yo yo

Mary Ann Thomas' love grows like a tree, I know because Vance Craig tells me so. Beverly Finnie, don't misunderstand me when I say that I hear people say you want... I consider that a fad. (sigh).

MELROSE HIGH SCHOOL

Emily Anderson don't look blue, we know Jeanett W. took Andrew E. from you. Dorothy S. make up your mind, is it Melvin C. or Charlie W. this time? Anna B. and F. Harrison have played it cool! But Sylvester H. played the fool. Henry C., is doing fine. He's giving Mary T. his line.

Peggy H. don't be shy, tell us who's the lucky guy? Narvene W. you aren't being smart. We know you have James A. heart. Loistine J. has Samuel H. singing "I'm Gone" (over her hat that is). Loretta S. isn't grieving over James B. She has a new lover. (Paul J.)

Please I've been told that you have Richard W. heart and soul. Henry M. has Rose S. singing "Take all of Me"

This was proved by an account of the sermon which was given by Cub Joseph Smith who gave his own interpretation to the Den mothers and pack as a whole.

The following Wednesday the pack celebrated the 43rd Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America with a Blue and Gold Party. In spite of the inclement weather, the Cubs turned out fifty strong bringing with them twenty-three parents. Four Den Chiefs were on hand to help with the games which were played with Cubs and Parents.

On a long table, arts and crafts made by this team were displayed. In the center stood a three-tiered Gold and Blue Birthday cake. The Chief of all Memphis Scouts, Mr. E. A. Hawkins showed a technical film on Scout Life.

Cubs and parents were served delicious hot dogs, slaw, cookies, aligator donuts and soft drinks. After giving the Cub oath, they all departed, expressing themselves as having a wonderful time.

James Hughey who was the chick I saw you with down to Beulah's with Friday night? I believe you take her out every night. Mary N. I think you think that you have Timothy Williams' under your thumb, but I got news for you, you aren't the only one.

Willie Edna M. aren't you supposed to have eyes for C. Burford? Lena W. what was your Chester doing over to Marie Becton's house the other night? Fretia S. play it cool, let C. McVay be the fool, let her know you have Ernest and that for shore.

Deloris P. is it true Barbara S. is trying to take W. Ross a fool, show William Ross you're still cool. Doris F. who was that handsome boy you were with Sunday night? Could it have been Robert Goodwin. Mary Trullit is Jane Jeffries your lover. Lorraine Carter likes him too.

Ralph Jones Wins Over Danny Womber

MILWAUKEE (INS)—Ralph (Tiger) Jones of Yonkers, N. Y., scored a 10-round split decision Tuesday night over Danny (Bang Bang) Womber of Chicago in the windup bout of a boxing show at Milwaukee.

Jones weighed 153 1-4 pounds and Womber 151.

We have never suffered under any illusion that these notes are world-shattering, but they do reflect honest thought.

WEST POINT PARENTS FINED, SENTENCED

Refused To Send Children 20 Miles To Segregated School

RICHMOND, Va.—A 30-day jail sentence and a $50 fine was meted out last week by the Virginia Circuit Court of Appeals to the eight parents who refused to send their children 20 miles outside of the town of West Point to a jim-crow high school.

The cases came before the Circuit Court as a result of appeals filed by the NAACP lawyers in behalf of the parents after they had been arrested and convicted of keeping their children, all under 16, out of school.

SCHOOL STRIKE

The action on the part of the parents, which was called "the West Point strike", came about when the school board closed the Negro high school and ordered the parents to send the students to the Hamilton-Holmes High School, located some 20 miles away from the town of West Point and completely out of the school board's jurisdiction.

LAWS INVOLVED

In its briefs appealing the convictions, the NAACP stated that not only the attendance law was involved but also the state's segregation law, which was in violation of the 14th Amendment.

ELEANOR

Write Eleanor in care of Scott Newspaper Syndicate, 210 Auburn Ave., N. E. Atlanta, Ga.

To let friendship die away by negligence and silence is certainly not wise. It is voluntarily to throw away one of the greatest comforts of this weary pilgrimage.

Samuel Johnson, Boswell: Life.

Dear Eleanor,

I am 15 years of age and I'm married. For the past two months we have been separated. Tho' I love him very much, I don't believe that he feels the same about me. I know that I look better than he does.

Answer: Love includes much more than just a passionate feeling. Included among the many constituents of a happy marriage are mutual respect, mutual appreciation, sufficient income, and a systematic plan of budgeting, etc.—also other very necessary factors, such as family devotions and conferences.

You married so young. Quite likely that is the reason why you two find it very difficult to get along. Looks count very little. Still, if you really want to try to get along, write him a short letter asking that he withdraw the suit. Tell him how you feel about him; ask him to answer your letter immediately. Continue your education.

Dear Eleanor,

I have a brother who lives with a woman to whom he is not married. They fight continuously. I wonder why he stays there and takes all of that? Everything that we tell him, he goes back and tells her. She seldom speaks to us. Is there anything that I can tell him that will make him come back home?

Answer: You stated no ages. Nevertheless, he must be old enough to know what he wants to do. Remember the woman is doing a little taking, too; for she cannot fight alone. Perhaps they both like that type of living—at least for the time being.

Ask the pastor of your church to arrange a private conference with your brother. He needs a perspective as to what life is all about. If that does no good, pray and let him find himself. You must stop worrying about him.

Dear Eleanor,

Children Love Parties—and Cookies!

Holidays mean parties and "Cherry-Oat Party Cookies" were developed in the Lever Test Kitchens especially for children's parties on George Washington's Birthday. These crispy Spry cookies, gaily decorated with bright red cherries, are festive looking—and delicious eating! All this, and nutritious, too! Children love them with a glass of milk.

The recipe for "Cherry-Oat Party Cookies" is so easy to follow that many children will enjoy making them themselves, for their own special parties. Mothers will be turning them out at a moment's notice for the many other occasions when crunchy-good oatmeal cookies are "just right." Here's the recipe:

- CHERRY-OAT PARTY COOKIES
1 cup Homogenized Spry
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1 cup granulated sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
2 eggs, unbeaten
1/2 cup walnuts, chopped
1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon soda
3 cups rolled oats
18 candied cherries, cut in quarters
Put first 6 ingredients in mixing bowl and beat very thoroughly. Stir in nuts... Sift flour with soda, add to Spry mixture, and mix thoroughly. Add oats and mix well. Shape dough in 1" balls, roll each ball in granulated sugar and place on Sycroated baking sheets, leaving a little space between. Place a quarter piece of cherry on top of each ball. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 12-15 minutes. Cool about 2 minutes before removing cookies from baking sheet. Yield: 6 1/2 dozen.

Create A Bit of History in Kitchen

Two of our most famous presidents ate heartily, says a home economist turned historian, and some modern versions of their favorite foods make fine company dishes.

Mrs. Jessie Cartwright, director of the Norge Home Institute suggested, on (Wed. Feb. 4) that serving modified versions of foods that the two statesmen ate is a unique way of celebrating Washington's and Lincoln's birthday.

While studying the two presidents' food preferences, Mrs. Cartwright exchange photos. I am 22.

- MOUNT VERNON DUCKLING
1 duckling
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
1 cup of consommé or stock
1-2 cup red wine
2 anchovies, minced
2 shallots or onions, minced
herb bouquet, minced (parsley, bay, thyme)
Cut duckling up for frying. Cook in 3 tablespoons of butter until brown. Drain off fat. Transfer to a casserole and sprinkle with 3 tablespoons flour. Add a cup of consommé or stock, 1-2 cup of red table wine, the anchovies, onions, and herbs. Bake, covered, until duck is tender. Remove herbs, skim off fat, and let the sauce thicken. Garnish with lemon.

With the theme "The Doges of Venice," the Original Illinois Club of New Orleans presented its 56th annual Carnival Ball. The affair was an extravaganza of beautiful ladies, gowns and decorations. Miss Shirley Antoine, the 1953 queen, was resplendent in a beautiful creation of white tulle and silver sequins, topped with an exquisite thirty foot pink velvet, sequin covered mantle and jeweled crown and scepter. She ruled jointly with the Doge of Venice, brilliantly portrayed by Dr. A. C. Terrance of Opelousas, Louisiana. The King's costume was most typical of the area depicted by the theme. A deep red velvet robe covered a very gorgeous silver metallic cloth costume which was most befitting to his majesty. Miss Antoine was attended by Miss Frances Ellis, first maid, Miss June Epps, second maid, and twenty-three dazzling beauties from the Crescent City and surrounding areas.

The frocks of the debutants were of white tulle and lace lavishly finished with well placed rows of ruffles. Rhinestone straps crossed the shoulders and pink roses were strikingly embedded in the folds of the very full skirts. They wore small hats of pale pink velvet, trimmed with silver sequins and pink tulle and carried bouquets of twenty-four pink roses which completed the breathtaking, but in the same time, very delicate attire of society's latest entries.

Many of the elite of the Crescent City who attended insisted that the Original Illinois Club's ball of 1953 represented the best presentation of the club in the 56 year history. The highlight of the tableau was the annual "Chicago Glide" performed by members and the debutants. The white collars and tails formed a striking contrast to the beautiful flowing gowns of the debutants as they gracefully moved to the strains of "The Mardi Gras." After the tableau, the members with their wives and guests, retired to the stern room of the beautiful Roseman Gymnasium for a refreshing repast and then returned to the dance floor to mingle with the guests until the wee hours of the morning.

Making their entrance into society were: Geraldine Dave, Opelousas; Joycelyn Glapion, New Orleans; Fredrica Williams, New Orleans; Bettye Braxton, New Orleans; Shirley Baptiste, New Orleans; Jacqueline Serf, New Orleans; Marilyn Miller, New Orleans; Shirley Dapremont, Houma; Janice Ballard, Opelousas; Lorraine Yates, Baton Rouge; Willie Mae Jones, New Orleans; Billie Wanda Delpit, Baton Rouge; Frances Ellis, 1st maid, New Orleans; Shirley Antoine, queen, New Orleans; June Epps, 2nd maid, New Orleans;

Lilly Dache Collection of Hats for Spring Has New Crown Balance for Hi Fashion

By OZEIL FRYER WOOLCOCK

There is much to be said about hats, this season, and especially by such a well-known designer as Lilly Dache, who sets the pace for those gorgeous styles, come each season.

Easy rests the head that wears the crown — when it's the crown of a new Lilly Dache hat. Whichever way the hat sweeps — dramatically forward in a modern scoop or a romantic bonnet shape, backward into a point, a rounded cup, a coil or belvedere, the-on, or side-wise in deep curving wings or Dutch cap points — the point of balance is always the very peak of the head. Lilly Dache hats no longer sit flat or circle the forehead.

This new crown-balance is the essence of the three-dimensional design which makes news and beauty throughout the Dache Spring 1953 collection, shown to the press and clients on (Wednesday, January 21) at 78 East 56 Street. More elaborate and more noticeable hats are due to be the focus of fashion as the emphasis shifts from skirts to heads, Lilly Dache believes, and in her opinion the hat must matter from every angle. Therefore she adds well-defined architectural form to the beautiful color and delicate decoration always expected in her hats.

Whether little or super-sized, all the Dache hats are light in weight, in color and in spirit, and all have a lift in line that does nice things for the face. A gay twin series is called "cups" and "saucers," the former inverted cup-shapes hugging the back of the head, made in sheer straw cloth, or straw so thick, fluffy and gleaming that it looks like mould cake-frosting. Other cups are a froth of chiffon laced through big straw eyelets or moulded with broderie anglaise.

The saucers are tiny round-edged plateaus of straw fabric or flowers. In her capacity of creator of the whole fashion picture including hats, dresses, gloves, bras, stockings — even the right neckties for our proud beauty's escort — Lilly Dache predicts that the word "simple" will no longer be important, and that the smart woman will have the fascinating experience of blending a lot of trimming, a lot of jewelry, a lot of colors into a new kind of elegance.

The heartbreakingly pretty chapeau, so delicately laden with handwork that it can only be called a confection, is back in the fashion scheme of things, scheming to take the spotlight, and more than deserving it, in Miss Dache's opinion.

Fairy-tale bouquets of flowers, beads, wooden paillettes, jewels and froth from Edwardian beauties, all re-enter fashion history, led by Lilly Dache.

A drizzle of melted chocolate provides the crowning touch for these generous wedges of Chocolate Pie.

Chocolate Pie
A lot of newcomers have entered the cream pie family, but none have taken honors away from this all time favorite—Chocolate! Every so often the family just must have Chocolate Pie. When you want to dress it up a bit, drizzle melted chocolate atop the meringue just before serving.

When time is short you will select a pie from the baker. He is skilled at turning out good pies—but occasionally treat yourself to the fun of creating this glamorous dessert. Remember that this pie is not only wonderful eating, but mighty nourishing as well. The eggs and milk in the filling, coupled with the enriched flour in the crust, give important food value to the family.

Know the secret of a flaky crust? Handle the pastry just as little as possible. Treat it gently and use only enough water to make the flour stick together.

Sprinkle bits of leftover pastry with shredded cheese and bake. These little strips make excellent snacks for children home from school.

- CHOCOLATE PIE Pastry
1/2 cup sifted enriched flour
1/2 cup butter
3 eggs, separated
1/4 cup shortening
3 tablespoons cold water (about)

Sift together flour and salt. Cut in with shortening. Sprinkle with water, mixing lightly until dough begins to stick together. Roll out dough to circle 9-inch thick and line 9-inch pie pan with it. Prick with fork. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) about 10 minutes. Cool and fill with Chocolate Filling.

- Chocolate Filling
2 squares unsweetened chocolate
1 cup light brown sugar
3 eggs, separated
1 1/2 cups scalded milk
199 cups scalded milk
1/2 cup unsweetened butter or margarine
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
6 tablespoons granulated sugar

Melt chocolate over hot water. Add sugar, flour, egg yolks and milk. Cook over hot water until thickened, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add butter or margarine and vanilla extract and mix until well blended. Cool slightly and pour into pie shell. Beat egg whites with granulated sugar until stiff, but not dry. Cover Chocolate Filling with meringue. Bake in slow oven (325° F.) about 15 minutes or until meringue is golden brown. Makes 1 9-inch pie.

Prune Shrubs During Winter

If you have a really green thumb, your enthusiasm for gardening won't hibernate in winter. Landscape specialists say to take advantage of some of that winter zeal pruning shrubs or trees in your yard.

Pick a sunny day. That way you won't rush the job to get back in front of the fireplace, and will do a better job. Dead wood can be taken out of trees now. Prune limbs off flush so the wound will heal over. If you leave a stub, the wound won't heal and fungi will enter the tree.

It's good advice never to top a tree — that is, cut a large limb off flat at the top. The cut will not heal and rot will start down the tree. A tree that needs topping might be taken out completely. Winter is a good time to do it.

Don't trim evergreens now. They respond better to spring pruning. What about shrubs? Lilacs, spirea, highbush arbutus, and honeysuckle can be pruned this winter but remember when you do you are cutting off some of next spring's bloom. Bridal wreath, honeysuckle, and privet can stand a severe pruning. You can cut the entire plant off at ground level and it will re-grow the following season! It will not bloom next season, but you'll have a new, vigorous shrub.

If you're not taking off the entire bush, cut out old, large canes near neatness of riding coats. The banded waist or bra cut lend unusual flattery and elegance. Note costume details.

THE BOX TOP SUIT — entirely new in feeling, Brigrance's slim suits with box jackets. A brief pelot or vent in back, or a little back belt that does not affect the silhouette. Short coats in the box top silhouette too.

FITTED SUITS — necklines with the charm of a dress in front — classic back and shoulders. Skirts in this group are straight, pleated, or cut with minimized fullness.

COLOR in the Spring means blue — the end of the overcoat, the welcome blue skies and blue coats. — Cherished neutrals more than ever are the clear ambers, beiges, and greys. Colors are clear rather than strong.

FABRIC AND DETAILS — loose, homespun textures and the smoothest of flannels and thin worsteds. Grey flannel — this designer's favorite — in suits, fitted or loose coats. The newer costumed look of separate collars and cuffs, often linen, and a linen-lined suit jacket. The facet yoke, plunging yoke, "shadow of a collar" yoke, and wishbone. Hoop sleeves, tunic-length sleeves, vest sleeves, and "button-up" vents. Postman pockets, semi-circle pockets, radius lines in backing seams, and "long-division" seamings.

Each contestant is required to pay a registration fee of ten cents (10c), which must be remitted to the Association at least seven (7) days before the start of the Tournament. Remittances should be made in cash or by money order. This is a nominal charge and disqualification of an applicant for any reason does not entitle said applicant to a refund.
Only one boy in any weight class will be accepted on any one team. That is to say, a coach is entitled to enter any number of boys in any one weight class.

Coaches will be advised of the weighing-in date for their respective teams and teams not reporting to be weighed in at the time and on the date designated by the Association shall be disqualified for participation in the Tournament.
All contestants must have an amateur rating. Positive information submitted to the Association showing any contestant to have participated in any professional bout automatically disqualifies such contestant for competition in the Tournament.

GENERAL RULES
Shake hands with opponent before entering the ring. Do not shake hands again. Come out of your corner at the bell for the beginning of the first round ready to fight. Shake hands at the end of the bout.
When the referee orders "break", both contestants must step back one step before hitting. Do not hit your opponent when he is tangled between the ring ropes.
In the event a competitor is down his opponent must retire to the farthest corner. A boxer is considered down when any part of his body except his feet touches the floor or he is hanging helpless upon the ropes.

A competitor who is down and who assumes an upright position and then goes down again without being hit, the count shall be resumed from where it left off.
A referee will stop a bout if, in his opinion, a boxer is out-classed and unfit to continue. Any boxer who does not wish to continue may ask the referee to stop the bout.
In case a boxer falls out of the ring, ten (10) seconds will be allowed for him to return to the ring.

DISQUALIFICATION
The referee may disqualify a competitor who is boxing unfairly. It is unfair to kick, gouge, hit with the open glove, hit with the inside or butt of the hand, hit backhanded or hit with wrist or elbow. It is a foul to hit below the waist. The referee will disqualify a competitor who hits his opponent when he is down. It is a foul to hit an opponent on the back of the neck or on the spine or on the kidneys.
Holding with one hand and hitting with the other is unfair. The referee may disqualify an opponent for striking or butting with his head or shoulders. It is unfair to wrestle your opponent to the floor.
A contestant failing to appear when his bout is called automatically disqualifies himself for further competition in the Tournament.

SCORING
Points are scored for attack, for direct clean hits with knuckle part of either hand. When closed, on any part or sides of the head or body above the belt. Points are scored for defense; for guarding, slipping or ducking punches, counter hitting or getting away. Where points are otherwise equal consideration shall be given to the boxer who does the most leading.

A decision of the judges and referee must be given at the end of three rounds. Points are scored for each boxer is awarded twenty (20) points. The winner of each round receives twenty (20) points and the boxer losing the round will receive a lesser number of points. Total points at the end of three rounds will determine the decision.
EQUIPMENT
Only soft cotton or linen bandages are to be used for the protection of the hands. One roll of two-inch cotton gauze or linen bandage, not to exceed ten (10) yards in length, may be used for each hand. The use of one thickness of adhesive tape, one inch wide which can be lapped over each end not more than one inch, sufficient to clinch same, will be permitted only around the wrist. No tape, cotton, or any substance other than the prescribed bandage may be used between the fingers or over the knuckles. Anyone officially connected with a boxing exhibition may have a boxer's bandages examined upon request. Bandaging must be supervised by an official appointed for that purpose.
Protection straps must be worn.

TROPHIES
Individual trophies will be given to the champions of each weight class.
A Team Trophy will be given to the team winning the largest number of championships in Division One. Division One is composed of all weight classes from Ant Weight up to and including Fly Weight.
A Team Trophy will be given to the team winning the largest number of championships in Division Two. Division Two is composed of all weight classes from Bantam Weight up to and including the Heavy Weight.
Study the above Rules carefully. The referee will not repeat them in the ring.
Tri-State Amateur Boxing Association, Harry T. Cash, President, R. J. Roddy, Recording Secretary.

All news concerning developments in connection with the tournament will be carried in the columns of the "Memphis World."

The forthcoming appearance of the Harlem Globetrotters basketball team here March 8 will again be a treat for the lovers of the sport in the Bluff City. The Globetrotters are perhaps the most colorful aggregation playing basketball. Aside from their stellar performance during a game, they add just enough sideline mimics to keep the crowds roaring.

It may be recalled that their appearance here last year brought out the largest crowd ever to witness a basketball game in Memphis. They will again put on a great exhibition at the City Auditorium and in addition, the promoters are planning to play to local teams in the preliminary. The teams will be selected in the next few days.

It may be recalled that their appearance here last year brought out the largest crowd to witness a basketball game in Memphis. They will again put on a great exhibition at the City Auditorium and in addition, the promoters are planning to play to local teams in the preliminary. The teams will be selected in the next few days.

Abner Saperstein, the diminutive boss of the aggregation, is high in his praise of one of the newcomers to the "Trotters, in Lee Garner, former Alcorn College player.

Garner is a towering 24-year-old youngster who was an outstanding player during his college days. He is a native of Many, La., stands 6 feet 8 inches and is well proportioned. The sharpshooting recruit, playing his first year professional basketball, is determined to make good. He loves the game and plays it for all it is worth at all times.
The Globetrotters believe they have found the good, big man they have been looking for the past few seasons. Garner is fast on his feet for a big man, also strong and spirited.

Saperstein says of him, "He has developed much faster than I thought he would. I figured he would need at least two seasons in pro ball before getting the knack of our type of play. But he has developed so fast since October that we have been compelled to use him in practically every game."
"I think he is going to be a great asset to the Globetrotters. He has a lot to learn yet, but he is a smart boy and will be a real star in a short time. When he finishes growing, Lee is going to make a real name for himself."

Saperstein let it be known that he has been looking for a man of Garner's calibre ever since he sold Nat (Sweetwater) Clifton to the New York Knickerbockers of the National Basketball Association. He is satisfied that Garner is his man and potentially greater than Clifton.
In spite of Saperstein's appraisal of Garner, he still holds that

Seton Hall Accepts NIT Tourney Bid

NEW YORK (INS)—A touch of glamour was added to the forthcoming national invitational basketball tournament Thursday by the acceptance of a tournament bid by Seton Hall, only remaining major unbeaten team in the nation.

The Pirates, who have won 25 games so far this season with five yet to go, join La Salle and Western Kentucky on the roll-call for the N-I-T, which will be held at New York's Madison Square Garden March 7-14.

Nine teams are yet to be selected for the 12-team tourney. It will be Seton Hall's fourth N-I-T appearance. They played previously in 1941, '51 and '52, but the closest they have come to the title was in 1951 when they lost to Brigham Young in the semi-finals.

Last year Seton Hall bowed to La Salle in the opening round of the N-I-T. Neither team was seeded.

New Social Security Law For Servants

Housewives in the Memphis area were reminded again this week about the new Social Security Law for domestic servants. "We still receive many inquiries about this subject," says Joe W. Eanes, Manager of the Memphis Social Security office.

Under this law which started in 1951, servants in private homes are now covered by social security. "This is true if they work long enough for the same household, Mr. Eanes pointed out. "They must work for the same household on some part of 24 days in a 3-month calendar quarter. They must also make at least $50 cash wages during that period. Unless they meet these two requirements, that household makes no social security report on the servant," he said.

"A servant's work for different households cannot be combined to meet the social security requirements. The servant's work in each household must meet the two requirements as to days worked and wages earned," Mr. Eanes explained.
"A few housewives should have reported on their domestic workers in 1951 and 1952, but failed to do so. Since they are several months behind with these reports, they should get in touch with our office immediately," Mr. Eanes said. They may also contact the Collector of Internal Revenue to have their reports brought up to date.

A self-employed person makes his yearly social security report on Schedule C, which is a part of the income tax return, Form 1040. His self-employment income up to $3,600 in a year will be credited to his social security account. These earnings will count toward monthly insurance benefit payments for himself and his family in his old age, and for his dependents if he should die.

You are required to make a return of your self-employment income if you have net earnings of $400 or more in a taxable year from a self-employment covered by the law.

USES '42 CALENDAR

BUFFALO, N. Y. — Eleven years ago, someone gave Edward Jerzewski, of Cheektowaga, a gift calendar. He never got around to using it, but recently pulled it out. Jerzewski now has the calendar perched on his desk, since the dates this year are the same as in 1942.
