Non-Discrimination Order To Effect 23 Departments

WASHINGTON—(ANP)—The Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia, Wednesday, ordered a policy of racial non-discrimination to go into effect immediately in the 23 government agencies over which it exercises control.

The four-page order, made public by Commissioner Samuel Spencer, made an exception, however, to the controversial fire department where a movement has been underway for several months to establish a policy of integration.

It was this exception in the order which drew protest from most of the prominent Washington Negro leaders. Dr. O. Herbert Marshall, outstanding physician and president of the Federation of Civic Associations, declared that the order "lacked courage."

Mississippi Moves To End Public Schools

In an effort to hold to the dying remnants of a segregated society, Mississippi has come forth with a proposal to abolish its public schools if the Supreme Court rules against segregation.

Sterling Roberts Speaker For Housing Banquet

Mr. Sterling Roberts will speak at Clayborn Temple, 294 Hernando Street, 8:0 P. M., December 5, 1953. This will be Mr. Roberts first appearance before an audience of Negro citizens in the interest of Federal Mortgage Loans for Negroes, as the state director of the Federal Housing Administration, he has shown an intense interest in alleviating the difficulty in Negroes obtaining federal loans.

Mississippi's challenge to efforts to outlaw segregation came Tuesday in a proposed amendment to the state's Constitution giving the legislature power to abolish the public school system.

The proposal came during a special legislative session following closely on the heels of Attorney Brownell's brief before the Supreme Court recently. Brownell's brief stated that the Supreme Court had the power to abolish segregation in public schools.

Educator Wants South To Get Clear Picture Of Problems

People in the South should get a clear picture of the problems dealing with public education, said Dr. Phillip H. Combs at LeMoyn College Tuesday night. He is Director of the Research Fund of the Ford Foundation.

The occasion was the first session of a four-day meeting of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. The occasion also marked the twentieth annual convention.

would benefit regardless to the outcome of the Supreme Court's decision. He said race relations in the South and in this country could go only one way and that way "in the right direction."

Dr. Combs, who substituted for Dr. Clarence Faust of the Fund for the Advancement of Education warned against the growing problems in the field of education in general and pointed out that these problems know no racial bounds.

He called attention to the fact that the South is in a period of transition and indicated how rapidly the region is moving in the direction of improvement.

Dr. Combs said, "The state of affairs in the South is a highly dynamic one," constantly in a state of change, all for the better, he stated.

Dr. Holmes was optimistic about the improvement of race relations in the South, particularly in the area of education. He said the South could profit from other regions in that it could avoid the mistakes made in these regions and the mistakes made in the South in the past.

Judge Hastie Denounces Segregation In Housing

By ALICE DUNNIGAN WASHINGTON — (ANP) — Racial segregation in housing was named by Judge William H. Hastie last week as "the most sinister aspect of segregation characterizing our national life today."

Speaking at the annual convention of the Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'Rith, Judge Hastie declared that in his opinion "segregated housing does more than any other single feature of American urban living to make members of the segregated minority, and particularly Negroes as the largest such minority, strangers in what is nominally their home community."

The Circuit Court of Appeals Judge was only one of the many outstanding judicial, legislative, religious and educational leaders who participated in the 40th anniversary convention of the Anti-Defamation League meeting three-days in Washington. These leaders analyzed key problems of race relations and civil liberties and offered recommendations for coping with these problems.

Bland Sues Atty. Latting For $100,000; Claims Doublecross

By JAMES H. PURDY, JR. The socialites of Memphis were greatly shocked when they learned last Saturday that Attorney A. A. Latting was being sued by Dr. R. Earl Bland, prominent local and Nationally known physician.

The $100,000 damage suit against Attorney Latting was filed in Shelby County Circuit Court on Tuesday, November 24 by Attorney Anthony A. Aspero and W. C. Rodgers, representing Dr. Bland.

The suit asks for both compensatory and punitive damages and asks that the case be heard by a jury. According to the bill which charges Attorney Latting used evidence in the trial "which he had received and acquired from Dr. Bland in their confidential and trust relationship as his attorney and client and as a personal friend."

Man Must Be Respected Or Chaos Follows, Eisenhower

WASHINGTON — President Dwight D. Eisenhower, speaking before the general board of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A., said that the American government reflects a "deeply-felt religious faith."

Man Must Be Respected Or Chaos Follows, Eisenhower

Magna Charta, our Declaration of Independence, and the French Declaration of the Rights of Man were certainly nothing less than the attempt on the part of men to state that in their own government there would be recognized the principle of the equality of man, the dignity of man. That is a completely false premise unless we recognize the Supreme Being in front of whom we are all equal.

IN TRAFFIC COURT HELD TO THE STATE ON LEAVING THE SCENE OF AN ACCIDENT

Henry Henderson, 25, of 291 Vance, charged with reckless driving, leaving the scene of a crash, driving while intoxicated and no driver's license, was fined $26 each on the charges of reckless driving and no driver's license and held to the state on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident in Traffic Court Monday.

Police stated in Traffic Court that Henderson had a crash, then dragged Mary Williams, 24, of 21 E. Illinois out of his car and drove off, leaving her lying in the Street.

Officer R. A. Jordan of the hit-run squad said Henderson was driving east on Gaines at Kentucky when his car ran off the road and crashed into a concrete pillar supporting a house.

Miss Williams, who received stomach injuries, was treated at John Gaston Hospital.

Henderson denied that he had been drinking at the time of the mishap, but pleaded guilty to leaving the scene and having no driver's license. He blamed the crash on a bad steering gear.

Judge Phil Canale dismissed the driving while intoxicated case due to the lack of evidence.

TO THE TEAM:

As I have fore-said in one of the recent copies of the Memphis World, "Team we are proud of you and we are behind you 100 per cent in everything you do. Since football season has ended for the year I feel that it is no more than right to take this space to thank the team for their splendid playing during the football season. "Thanks a Million Warriors."

LEARNING TO TAKE A DEFEAT:

As I watch a number of High-school students through out the city at different football games I see that some of them haven't learned as yet how to take a defeat. Some one has to lose sometimes so therefore some one will have to suffer the consequences.

You can't win all of the time. One thing we have to learn to keep the school spirit. If we don't keep the spirit how do we expect the team to feel. No matter how many games we win or lose the Green and Gold must stand out.

Handy had the chance to meet him at a pep assembly at the school auditorium. The great W. C. Handy didn't bring his trumpet along although he did at the Blues Bowl game which was held that night.

The Washington Cheerleaders gave Bandy a 21 gun salute which he smiled most gaily on. The Band then played his famous Memphis Blues.

The usual dance given each and every week for the teenagers of Memphis was a great success. Everyone had a most enjoyable evening. Music was provided by Cliff Green and his orchestra. Here is a list of some of those

US Won't Agree To USSR As Neutral At Peace Conference

BY ED HYMOFF
PANMUNJOM — (INS)— Communist insistence on seating Russia as a neutral appeared to be the main barrier to agreement on a Korean peace conference. Issues in dispute were narrowed Monday by a Red compromise plan for a conference in New Delhi, starting Dec. 28. It contained two concessions by the Communists. They dropped their demand for Panmunjom as a conference site and agreed to the Allied proposal that Asian neutrals invited to the parley would not have voting rights. US WON'T AGREE But it retained the Red insistence on seating Russia as a neutral and U. S. Ambassador Arthur H. Dean said he would never agree to this. Dean declared the Communist proposal was "a joke as far as participation is concerned" but obtained a recess until Wednesday to study the plan and indicated a possible compromise solution of the Russian problem. He suggested the possibility of seating Russia as a full voting participant without the label of either "belligerent" or "neutral."

An Allied spokesman said a report that New Delhi could be accepted as the conference site was "inaccurate." He said Dean would not comment until he receives further instructions on the matter. The Allies also were expected to object to an agenda for the peace conference suggested in the Red plan.

Exercises Mark Anniversary At Shaw

RALEIGH, N. C. — Shaw University's Founder's Day exercises which marked the 88th anniversary observance was the traditional momentous occasion Friday morning in University Church. The annual address was delivered by Dr. John P. Turner, prominent physician and surgeon of Philadelphia, Pa. The speaker is a graduate of the Leonard Medical School of Shaw University in 1906, and is the recipient of many signal honors and awards in recognition of his distinguished career in the medical profession, and as a religious and civic leader.

The service began at the grave of the University's founder and first president, Dr. Henry Martin Tupper. President W. E. Strasser began the ceremony by reading the epitaph from the grave marker, which is known by all Shaw University Alumni — "He counted not his life dear unto himself, that he might lift Godward his brother." Prayer was offered by Dr. A. B. Johnson of Raleigh, followed by a wreath being placed on Dr. Tupper's grave by Miss Clara Jean Harrison, a junior of Gastonia, and "Miss Shaw" for 1953-54. The procession of students, faculty, alumni and friends of the institution entered the University Church for the Founder's Day program.

Dr. Turner spoke on the subject of "The Value of Little Things." Using the body of man as an illustration, he said, "The smallest perceptible organism of protoplasm is called a cell, which starts as one five-thousandth of an inch, and develops into a human being." God gave us these bodies to take care of, protect and nourish, but oh how we abuse them! "The average life span of the old Romans," continued, "was 25 years, and in 1800 in the country the average life was 35 years. Now this country's average life is 68 years. The number one cause of death now is heart disease due to the way we rush through life. "The four great happenings in life," he declared, are fatigue, disease, old age, and death. "Youth is a state of mind. Keep young in mind no matter how old you are in body," he advised. "Opportunity for responsibility and leadership come again and again from the time we are born, until we die, so grasp it and live by it. "People grow old by deserting their ideals, not by years. Fear, despair, and distrust make you grow old, not years. "You are as young as your faith and hope."

Hampton Players In "Death Of A Salesman"

HAMPTON, Va.— The Hampton Institute Players are presenting their first play of the 1953-54 college year, "Death Of A Salesman" on Friday, December 4, at 8:15 p. m., in Ogden Hall. One of the most honored of American plays. This dramatic hit won the coveted Pulitzer Prize, and also the N. Y. Drama Critics' Circle Award the year it was first produced in New York, a double honor won by only two other plays in history—"A Streetcar Named Desire" and "The Time Of Your Life."

Written by Arthur Miller, noted for "All My Sins" and other Broadway successes, the drama reveals the crucial events of 24 hours in the life of one Willy Loman, an aging traveling salesman who had sold himself a bill of dishonest goods. Willy deceived himself into thinking that it was not what you did but how you did that counted in life.

Willy had built his life on the theory that it was personality that always wins the day—without regard to whether the personality was the front for merit or not. He believed he could coast to success on "a shoe-shine and a smile." Because this attitude reflects the credo of many Americans, the play has a universality that has impressed audiences from one end of the country to the other.

The story is told in a series of varied settings that flashback into the lives of Willy, his wife, his two sons, and many people who influenced his career as salesman, husband and father, so that this one day is a summary of the man's whole life.

Student actors are: Horace Cagle, sophomore from Newport News, Va., will have the part of the former salesman of the title, who had tried to make himself and everybody else believe that he was a big and important personality, and then

English Fire 'Uncooperative' African King

LONDON—King Mutes II, the 29-year-old, Cambridge-educated ruler of the Buganda, was de-throned yesterday by Great Britain for his insistence that a definite date be set for the freedom and independence within the British Commonwealth of his 800,000 subjects.

The King was also known to actively oppose the British proposal for an East African federation of territories. The British officials declared a state of emergency in the Buganda province. This province is the largest and most important one in the Uganda territory which is one of Britain's richest cotton-growing "protectorates" in Africa.

In explaining the action, Colonial Secretary Oliver Lyttleton told British House of Commons that the young monarch refused to "cooperate with the British administration."

Says Court Action In Emspak Case May Affect Everyone

NEW YORK — The fight of the American people against McCarthyism faces two critical tests within the period immediately ahead.

Hiding behind the smokescreen of McCarthyism, the big corporations are pushing their plans for speedy passage of the most vicious anti-labor legislation in the form of the Butler bill or the Goldwater-Rhodes bill.

By hurrying through such laws, big business hopes to wreck the American labor movement, open the way for rampant layoffs, speed-up, rate-cutting, and a full-scale depression and war, if necessary.

At the same time, to silence the people's protests, McCarthyism seeks to destroy the guarantees of the Bill of Rights on people's freedoms. The case of Julius Emspak, General Secretary-Treasurer of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America (UE) emerges as the test case for the right of the American people to speak out against McCarthyism, against anti-labor legislation, and against plans of big business for a depression or war.

Emspak's case will be reviewed by the U. S. Supreme Court in connection with his use of the First Amendment in refusing, four years ago, to help the un-American Committee open up an attack on the labor movement. The fight to maintain the First Amendment is a necessary part of the fight to defeat the Butler Bill and all other anti-union legislation.

The vital connection of the Emspak case with the freedoms guaranteed in the First Amendment of the U. S. Constitution has just been acknowledged by the Supreme Court in granting a review of Emspak's conviction on a charge of "contempt of Congress." The case is set for argument November 30.

Veterans' Questions

Here are authoritative answers from the Veterans Administration to four questions of interest to former servicemen and their families:

Q. Is there any deadline for veterans to start training under the Korea GI Bill?

A. Yes. Veterans who left service before August 20, 1952, must start before August 20, 1954. Veterans separated after August 20, 1952 have two years from their separation date in which to begin.

Q. I am a disabled veteran, and I recently completed Public Law 18 training and was declared rehabilitated. But now I find I'm not able to work at the job I trained for, since my disability has become worse. Would it be possible for me to get additional training under the law?

A. Yes. It is possible for you to reenter training, so long as your need for vocational rehabilitation is reestablished.

Q. May I get a GI loan to buy an apartment building, if I intend to live in one of the apartments?

A. Yes, so long as the total number of separate units is not more than four, if you're buying the apartment yourself. If more than one veteran buys, one additional unit may be added to the basic four for each veteran participating.

Q. I applied for disability compensation from VA, and I feel that the VA's rating should be higher than it is. Can I appeal?

A. Yes, you may appeal within one year from the date an official determination was made in your case.

Q. — I'm planning to borrow on permanent GI insurance policy, and I'd like to know how I'm supposed to pay the money back.

A. — Your loan may be repaid at any time, in full or partially, in amounts that are multiples of $5. Interest is payable annually on the anniversary date of the loan.

Q. — I am a World War II veteran and I'm planning to go back on active duty. I'm going to ask VA to waive the premiums on my GI term insurance policy while I'm in uniform. My policy has a disability income provision, for which I pay a little extra. Will payments on that provision be waived also, along with my regular premiums?

A. — Yes. If you want to continue this disability protection while in service, you must continue to pay the required extra amount. Waiver of premiums, authorized by law, do not apply to these extra payments.

Q. — I plan to get a GI farm loan. How can I find out who would make such a loan in my community?

A. — Information as to who makes farm loans under the GI Bill usually may be obtained from County Agricultural Extension Agent. Or you might check with your bank or other lending institutions in the area.

Q. — I'm figuring out my yearly income for purposes of the VA pension that I receive because of my total disability. I do light part-time work on a farm and I receive my salary in kind, and not in cash. Is that considered as income?

A. — Yes. The value of salary received in kind, including a fair value for maintenance, is considered as income for VA pension purposes.

"Take A Giant Step" Receives Award In NYC

NEW YORK, N. Y. — (ANP) — The eighth Knickerbocker Award of Merit for improving race relations was presented last week to Louis Peterson, author of the Broadway play, "Take A Giant Step" which closed on November 28.

Fred M. Linder made the award at a special luncheon-broadcast in the Ruppert Hospitality room.

The award, in the form of a scroll, reads: "— to Louis Peterson, whose play 'Take a Giant Step' was written with such perception, conviction and sensitivity, it has been acclaimed an outstanding creative contribution to the betterment of race relations."

Only other award presented to theatrical persons went to Robert Breen and Blevins Davis co-producers of "Porgy and Bess" which also closed on Broadway, Nov. 28.

Breen and Davis were cited for bringing the American classic to Europe where it served as a vehicle of good will for the United States.

KOREAN VETS The Korea war veteran "has a clear picture of where he is going and how he plans to get there," according to the VA, which reports that fewer than two per cent of 230,000 Korea war veterans taking GI training courses, have changed their programs. The law permits a veteran taking class room on the job or on the farm training under the GI Bill of Rights to switch programs only once.

Secretary Dulles declared that Soviet reluctance to join Big Four talks on European problems was "not a sign of strength, but of fear."

CHURCHES PROMOTING NATIONAL CRUSADE

DAYTON, Ohio — The National Fraternal Council of Churches, U. S. A., representing twelve of the major "Negro" denominations and more than seven million members, under the direction of Dr. J. W. Golden, chairman of the United Evangelistic Crusade for 1954, is promoting a National Evangelistic Crusade for: (1) Human Redemption, (2) Christian Fellowship, (3) Peace and (4) World Brotherhood.

— through all methods of evangelism and a national Prayer League during 1954 with a million or more praying daily. We believe no country will be saved by force or fear, nor by power or might but only by Christ and His way of life who is still the Savior of the world and whose teaching is the way of salvation for the people of all nations.

We have tried wars but now with all of military strength and defense program let us try God, for "righteousness exalteth a nation but sin is a reproach to any people." "Blessed is that nation whose God is the Lord."

All ministers of all denominations are asked to encourage their congregations and Christians of all faiths to participate in this movement—by developing Christian homes, the family altar, reading the Bible and other devotional literature, and the use of all methods of evangelism to win the people to Christ and His church. Ask all who will to unite in the National Prayer League and pray daily for the four objectives.

The Council will appreciate the ministers sending the number in their churches uniting in the Prayer League to Dr. J. W. Golden, 1908 Grand Avenue, Room 302, Nashville 5, Tennessee.

New Postal Alliance President Starts Active Tenure Of Office

WASHINGTON — With all decks cleared for action, Atty. James B. Cobb, Sr., North Carolina-born new president of the National Alliance of Postal Employees, has swung into action in his role as head of the nation's hardest-hitting Negro trade union organization.

His first set up was to renounce his lucrative law practice here in favor of his son, James B. Cobb, Jr. His next step — and first official public act — was to go to Cincinnati, Ohio, as a guest of Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield at the history-making inauguration of the decentralization of the Post Office Department.

This took place last week, as the Postmaster General officially decreed the separation of Washington, D. C. as the focal point of all U. S. postal operations. Hereafter, regional controls will dictate the policy of the department, with Washington being called upon as a court of last resort.

President Cobb was an honor guest at the Tenth Auditorium meeting, along with Ray McNamara, president of the National Association of Postmasters, and Lawrence P. Jones, president of the National League of District Postmasters. This is a signal honor and indicative of the high esteem in which the NAPE is held by top brass of the Postal Service.

While in Cincinnati, President Cobb was also honor guest at a banquet sponsored by District Six of the NAPE, headed by dynamic Eugene H. Burton of Cincinnati. The banquet was held at the Maize Hotel, and was also attended by Robert G. Phillips of Louisville, Ky., new president of District 5 of the NAPE. President Cobb introduced his District officers to their subordinates officially at this affair.

Here in Washington, the NAPE was counting itself fortunate to have a man of President Cobb's qualifications and background in Alliance affairs, to take over the mantle of the late Asby B. Carter of Chicago, who died October 28, after a brief illness.

Mr. Cobb is a pioneer in various types of NAPE activities, which have brought the Alliance into high repute with postal officials. In 1947, he pioneered in seeing the possibilities of Executive Order 8802, the fair employment practice order while he was president of the Washington branch.

He was one of the earliest exponents of the adoption of workers' education techniques in the NAPE, a phase which has served the Alliance well in cementing relationships — advantageous — with P. O. management, and resulted in nationwide supervisory promotions for Negro postmen.

Perhaps there is no man in the NAPE who has been exposed to more varied facets of trade unionism than Attorney Cobb. It was he who "discovered" the present national secretary-treasurer of the NAPE, Volie D. Dixon of Texas, while Mr. Dixon was secretary of the Washington branch. Mr. Dixon is noted in all major Negro trade union groups as one of the most efficient administrators, ever to guide the "bookwork" affairs of such a body.

In 1949 Attorney Cobb became the head of the workers' education program of the NAPE on a national scale. In the same year, at Kansas City, he was elected national vice president. In 1951, with his keen legal background, born of his graduation from the Howard University Law School (while still a working postal clerk), he became the legal counsel of the NAPE.

Behind the scenes, when other national legal eagles were being publicized in the famous "postal purge" cases, it was Mr. Cobb's deft hand which helped chart the course to be followed, under the leadership of the late president, Mr. Carter.

One of the basic programs which will be carried out by Mr. Cobb is the idea of a greater utilization of the power of the Women's Auxiliary

Jamaica Welcomes Queen Elizabeth

BY WILBERT E. HEMMING
KINGSTON, Jamaica — (ANP)— It was on the greatest day the British Caribbean had expected since the abolition of Slavery in 1834, was Nov. 25, 1953, a day of crisp sparkling sun.

Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Phillip, Duke of Edinburgh, her husband, set their feet on a carpet of deep rose at Montego Bay's shore line airport amidst tumultuous ovations of welcome and music from tinkling cymbals and brass bands.

It was on the greatest show for this island of one and one-third million people, two thirds of them colored.

Gov. Hugh Foot was there to meet the Royal pair; and there too, among representatives of other legislatures in the Caribbean, was tall, swaggering William Alexander Bustamante, head of the government of Jamaica.

From the airport to the town square of this tourist mecca north coast city of Jamaica, a concourse of colored people lined the roped-off highways, boys and men climbed into trees and balconies, and rooftops, as they strained for a glimpse of Britain's young monarch.

CONTRAST TO BERMUDA
In Jamaica, the Queen no doubt saw in the relationship between whites and black, a difference from the nasty system which exists in Bermuda which she left behind two hours back.

That island, John Walters of the London Daily Mirror called Snob Island. In his story, Walters said beaches were for whites only; "the little colored girl must keep out."

For a start, 24,000 or 60 percent of the island's people are colored, and this is their lot. In cinemas, Negroes must sit downstairs and leave the balconies to the whites. In hospitals, colored girls can do only menial tasks. They are not allowed to nurse. In churches, Negroes must occupy rear pews. At Holy Communion, whites must go to the altar first. I made an appointment with the Anglican Bishop of Bermuda, the Right Rev. A. Jago. I wanted to ask him whether he believed Jesus Christ would have approved of such segregation. But the bishop must have had second thoughts about seeing me. For when I arrived at the agreed time, I rang his doorbell for 10 minutes without reply.

"Negroes are never admitted to white hotels; Jews are unwelcome at some."

Walters declared that he could not help feeling that this could make Bermuda another (like British Guiana) problem colony.

GOVERNMENT "CLIQUE"
He added that this island of "the clique of 40 thieves" that control the people's affairs, only nine legislators are colored against 27 white legislators.

Diabetes In Children Getting Attention

NEW YORK — Diabetes in children is getting special attention in this year's annual Diabetes Detection Drive, now under way, conducted by the American Diabetes Association with the help of more than 800 local medical groups throughout the country.

Outlining the juvenile phase of the search to find undetected diabetics and bring them under medical control that will permit them to live normal lives, the Association said this week:

"Diabetes is found less frequently among children than in adults, but when it does occur it is likely to be fatal unless brought under early control."

In many communities mass testing programs are being conducted in cooperation with school authorities, for examination of pupils.

Children in families where there are known cases of diabetes should be tested regularly for signs of the ailment, it was emphasized, as there is a hereditary factor which makes them more likely than others to develop diabetes.

Sunday School Lesson

GOVERNMENT UNDER GOD
International Sunday School Lesson for December 6, 1953
MEMORY SELECTION:
"He will not fall nor be discouraged, till he have set Justice in the earth; and the Isles shall wait for his law."— Isaiah 42:4.
LESSON TEXT:

Romans 13: 1-10; Acts 5: 25-29
Since God's world is subject to the laws of nature—the breaking of which brings punishment in one form or another, we know that God himself intends that man should live under a system of laws, designed for the general welfare of his creation.

History reveals many different forms of government. Beginning with the family group, the tribal relationship a step to national life. Since the coming of Christ, the spread of his gospel has been a causative factor in the vast extension of the democratic ideas of government, emphasizing as it does the worth of every human being, the concepts of freedom of thought and conscience and the great principle of love for one's fellowmen.

Let us then consider what Paul, in writing to the Romans, advised those who would be good citizens. The Jews to Paul's time were subject to the Roman Government were in constant conflict with the authorities because they, as Jews, considered it sinful to acknowledge a Gentile ruler. Paul counseled the Christians (most of whom were converted Jews) to obey the higher powers (those in authority) and laid down the principle that the feet of the authorities being established by God, therefore, he who defied the rulers defied what had been instituted by God.

It is incumbent upon Christians to be law-abiding citizens, cooperative even to the point of going to war to fight for Christian principles which have been threatened or abridged. Certainly, all will agree that war is not patterned according to Christ's teachings, yet the Christian has an obligation to fight for the welfare of his country and for the defeat of evil forces, trying to destroy the very foundation of Christianity itself.

NCNW Director Officer Who "Passed Out" Is Dismissed From Service

MRS. ETHEL RAMOS HARRIS

FORT BRAGG, N. C.—(ANP)— Lt. John C. Sloan, white officer held on charges growing out of the alleged rape of a white wife by a Negro lieutenant, last week was ordered dismissed without honor from the service.

Lt. Sloan was supposed to have "passed out" on the back seat of an automobile in which he was riding with Lt. John R. Griffin of Memphis and Mrs. Christiana E. Schuster.

Mrs. Schuster, a German war bride of a white corporal here, charged Lt. Griffin with raping her on the front seat of the car while Lt. Sloan was passed out on the back seat.

Lt. Griffin admitted having relations with the woman, but denied he raped her. He said it was voluntarily. But a court martial board found the Negro officer guilty of the charge. He was sentenced to 30 years in prison.

At his court martial trial last week, Lt. Sloan pleaded "standing mute with reservations of the court" to all charges. He was officially charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct and with "failure to abide by customs of the service."

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Ethel Ramos Harris, talented Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania pianist and composer was elected chairman of the new Department of Fine Arts of the National Council of Negro Women during its recent Biennial Convention. She had previously served as National Music Chairman of the organization.

Mrs. Harris has been especially interested in compositions for children and has several of her works listed under preferred works for grades III and IV which are circulated periodically to music teachers. She anticipates the completion of an album of children's songs.

In private life she is the wife of Dr. Chester A. Harris, outstanding physician and surgeon who was recently accepted as a fellow in the American College of Allergists, and is the mother of two daughters.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.—Kate Billing Reynolds Memorial Hospital has met the approval of the Joint Commission on the Accreditation of Hospitals. E. V. Fox, administrator, announced recently that the hospital has received "full accreditation" from the commission which sent a field representative here last summer to survey the hospital. The new rating, Mr. Fox said, is the highest that can be awarded. Dr. Frank W. Ryan, who made the survey in July, commended the hospital for its progress in attendance at staff meetings, minutes of staff meetings, medical records and the number of nurses in relation to daily census.

Walker, Jr., chief of surgical services; Dr. R. L. Smith, chief of medical services; Dr. J. C. Jordan, Jr., chief of obstetrical and gynecological services; and Dr. R. J. ### Executive Dept. Should Uncover Reds, Javits Says

NEW YORK—The executive department of the government "should be charged with the responsibility for finding Communists and subversives and Congress should be charged with the responsibility of seeing that the executive department does its job," Congressman Jacob Javits, told Walter White in an interview broadcast today over station WLIB here and affiliated stations elsewhere.

Speaking on the Walter White program, the New York Republican said that the Harry Dexter White controversy "has touched off debate on the highest levels and raised the question: shall accusation be substituted for proof? Attorney General Brownell was put to his proof which was a very good thing and a very good lesson to McCarthy and others in the field."

Questioned by the NAACP secretary as to the outlook for civil rights, Congressman Javits said that he believed "the chances are a little better than in previous years because the Republican senators don't have the special prejudice that Southern Democrats do. I believe a bill for the FEPC idea has a better chance than a straight FEPC with enforcement powers. Nevertheless, Senators Ives, Lehman, Humphrey and I will fight hard for an FEPC with enforcement powers."

Behind the scenes, when other national legal eagles were being publicized in the famous "postal purge" cases, it was Mr. Cobb's deft hand which helped chart the course to be followed, under the leadership of the late president, Mr. Carter.

One of the basic programs which will be carried out by Mr. Cobb is the idea of a greater utilization of the power of the Women's Auxiliary

THEATRICALY YOURS

BY LARRY DOUGLAS
NEW YORK (Global) — From Chicago we heard about the Thanks Giving Music Festival given by the Artistic Society of America for the benefit of ASA. An all star cast... Also hear that Sidney Bechet is opening a nightclub in Paris called the Orleans Club. Sidney, incidentally, has just finished an autobiography which is now in the hands of a publisher... The Flamings, who have just been signed by Associated Booking Corp., currently on tour with Duke Ellington.

Word from Los Angeles is that Charlie Fuqua's Inkspots were well received at Larry Potter's Supper Club. People who tried to get in found they had to be satisfied with standing room only... The Tiny Bradshaw band chalked up a very successful stand at Billy Berg's Five Four Ballroom, even though "Tiny" himself wasn't there. He took sick during their tour, so held over at a Cincinnati hospital to recuperate inspiring Negro family farm unit in America.

The formula is "Time." Mrs. Jenkins says "Time is the valuable and precious thing. We've got to get it, so we've got to go faster." And to her friends she says today:

As usual, our newspapers pass the buck to others. I reported many years ago the presence of arms, in various parts of Africa. I have written many times recently that there are more arms in Africa than the governments realize.

Having lived on borders during wars and uprisings I know something about arms dealing. And I know how easy it is to get arms from government stores, even the British. One says that in arms deals with China, South America and Ethiopia to mention just a few cases.

As the people of United States are paying big bills for colonial development and have invested vast sums in colonial enterprises one would imagine the U. S. Government would seek information on the arms traffic.

Adlai Wants Republicans To Adopt Eisenhower's Ethics

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — (INS) — Adlai Stevenson said Wednesday "Spirit Led Me"

ERNEST SHINEBAUM As a firm believer in the fact that the heavenly signs under which we are born affect every phase of our whole life, I visited many fortune tellers and astrologers, none of whom told me anything. I saw an advertisement where I could get a complete reading of my life by the heavenly signs for only $2.00.

that he wished more Republicans would "go along" with President Eisenhower's stand on "character assassination."

The 1952 Democratic presidential candidate made the remark in commenting on Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's speech in which "the Wisconsin Republican called former President Truman a "defeated and discredited politician."

Stevenson, saying that he has always "detested guilt by association," pointed out that President Eisenhower, in a speech made Monday night, urged preservation of the "American Code" which demands that an accused "cannot assassinate your character without suffering the penalty of an outraged citizenry."

The increase was greatest among the 14 and 15 year olds, with one child in eleven earning money, against one

Jackson College Defeats Alcorn

The Jackson College Tigers broke a four-year jinx Saturday and went on a scolding spree to defeat the Alcorn Braves, their traditional rivals, by a 19-0 score. This was the largest margin of victory in the eight games of the current series. The victory was a sweet one for the Tigers because not since 1948, when they won by a 13-0 score had they won the all important tilt.

Fleming and Mosely were aiding the cause by their pinpoint punting. The Tigers broke the ice on a pass play from Hales to Sparrow. The play was good for 25 yards. Green kicked the extra point.

Cobbs, Corley, Beamon, Harper, Campbell, Lewis, Vaughn and Jordan were among Jackson's defensive stars. Boston, Pope and Cleo Knight played well for the losers.

Along The Sports Trail

By SAM BROWN

Although the fifteenth annual Blues Bowl Game was played between the Booker T. Washington High School Warriors and the Manassas High Tigers, before a capacity crowd of 5,000 partisan fans at Melrose Stadium Tuesday night in which the Manassas Tigers brought about one of the big upsets of the prep season, as the Warriors downed the Warriors 9-6 even though the Warriors were considered at least a two-touchdown favorite.

Yet, the center of attraction or the human magnet for the huge crowd was not altogether the football game between these two longtime rivals, but the one and only Prof. William Christopher Handy, Father of the Blues, who was there in person with his golden trumpet.

As Handy played his famous "Memphis Blues," written more than 40 years ago, the huge throng was silent and reverent as it listened to the clear notes and warm melody that came from the manipulations of the distinguished visitor, who won his fame in writing the Blues as a resident of the Bluff City.

When the last tantalizing note of the famous Memphis Blues faded away into the darkness of the stadium as the great musician ended his appearance just before the game, what happened after that was more or less of an unimportant matter. The game was many an Alma as the Washington Warriors and the Manassas Tigers battled for the mythical title of Blues Bowl Game Champions.

The large crowd was on hand, many had come to see and hear the great Blues Master, and they were satisfied with the rendition they had witnessed and felt that even though the game might not prove to be what they might expect, they were content with the performance of the Handy exhibition. Handy had returned to the cradle of his fame at a time when his fame is at its peak, and to play the famous tune that changed the tempo of the musical world. Now 80 years old and blind, Handy was here, and still the master of the Blues, and that is what the large crowd went to see and hear.

The appearance of Handy is what made the fifteenth annual Blues Bowl Game a success, the fact that the proceeds of the game go to help the Bluff City Lodge of Elks to furnish Christmas baskets to many unfortunate families of the city, or that two of the most popular teams of the city were vying for football supremacy, mattered very little.

True, the fifteenth Blues Bowl Game was dedicated to the memory of the late Robert Talley, reporter for the Commercial Appeal, who died last June, a long-time friend of Prof. Handy and the Blues Bowl promotion. It was a tribute to the memory and long-time friendship of the late Bob Talley, that Handy played his favorite tune before a huge picture of the late reporter as it stood on the playing field.

As Handy stood before the microphone he told the packed stands, "The Memphis Blues is the first Blues song ever written, and it

The Governor's Emergency Traffic Safety Committee recently recommended that driver testing be made more stringent in the State and the new type examination now going into effect will be a start towards accomplishing this.

Tenn. Dept. Of Safety News

State Safety Commissioner W. W. Luttrell announced this week as of December 1st minimum qualifications to obtain a Tennessee Driver's License will be increased.

Manassas Tigers Defeat BTW Warriors In Blues Bowl

By SAM BROWN

The Manassas Tigers scored a touchdown late in the last period to down the Booker T. Washington Warriors 9 to 6 in the Blues Bowl Football game Tuesday night at Melrose Stadium.

After being held scoreless the first half as Booker T pushed over its lone touchdown in the second period, Manassas made a safety in the third quarter when Washington's fullback, Henry McGhee was downed in the end zone.

Manassas's winning score came in the fourth quarter. They took over on their own 35. A screen pass was thrown by quarterback Adolphe Bolton to fullback George Williams, who raced to the Washington 25.

A holding penalty against Washington placed the ball on the one-yard stripe. A quarterback sneak by Jesse Mahon carried over. A pass from Bolton to Rawlings added the extra point.

The Washington score came in the second period as left end High land Adams recovered a fumble by Manassas on a bed pass from center, with the ball rolling across the goal line. The try for extra point was blocked.

In the last minute of play, Manassas's left halfback Robert Jones intercepted a pass on his 40 and raced to the Washington 20 before being stopped at the game ended.

Jackson Tigers Triumph Over Alcorn Braves, 19-0

JACKSON, Miss.—The Jackson College Tigers broke a four-year jinx Saturday and went on a scorching spree to defeat the Alcorn Braves, their traditional rivals, by a 19-0 score. This was the largest margin of victory in the eight games of the current series.

The victory was a sweet one for the Tigers because not since 1948, when they won by a 13-0 score, had they won the all important tilt.

Early in the game it was apparent that the Tigers were not to be denied, as their big line broke through the Braves' defense to throw the Braves for tremendous losses.

In the meantime, the Tigers' brilliant halfback, Charles Sparrow, was used time and again as a novelty while Hill, Hales, Johnson, Dobbies, Green and Stewart racked up 322 yards rushing for the Tigers. Fleming and Mosely were aiding the cause by their pinpoint punting. The Tigers broke the ice on a pass from Hales to Sparrow. The play was good for 25 yards. Green kicked the extra point. At the half the score was 7-0. The Tigers' second touchdown, came in the third quarter on a pass from Hales to Lewis that traveled for 15 yards for the touchdown. The extra point was missed. The third touchdown came when George Johnson, on a cross buck over tackle ran 43 yards to score.

Cobbs, Corley, Beamon, Harper, Campbell, Lewis, Vaughn, and Jordan were among Jackson's defensive stars. Boston, Pope, and Cleo Knight played well for the losers. The win over Alcorn was a happy climax for the seniors—Co-captains Willie Lewis and Willie Beamon, Robert Bally, Clarence Hales, Henry Enge, and William Harper.

A Sign Of Christmas

Once again Christmas has sneaked up on us and now is just around the corner. To the children of this community, the coming of Christmas is perhaps the best news of the year, and among adults it is rare to find one who does not recall, with some emotion and memories, happy Christmases of earlier years.

One of the more important events of the Christmas season is the annual Christmas Seal sales. It is particularly appropriate that the sale of these seals, the proceeds from which go into the fight against tuberculosis, comes at Christmas time, because tuberculosis kills more young people than any other disease.

This year's Christmas Seal portrays the spirit of children at Christmas time, and reminds us that buying Christmas Seals helps in the fight against tuberculosis.

The Fulton county Tuberculosis Association is again at work this year in behalf of this community's children. Every Christmas most of us are given the opportunity to support this Association by buying Christmas Seals. The sale of these seals is the only source of funds for this work, and it is an honor to be asked to contribute to the Christmas Seal campaign. Citizens in this community have always responded generously to this drive and the Atlanta Daily World urges them to do so again this holiday season.

The Republican Pattern

(From The Birmingham World)

Both Senators John Jackson Sparkman and Lister Hill are now on record in traditional, and unvarying, opposition to efforts by the federal impetus to assist in wiping out inequalities and distinctions based solely on race.

This became evident when Alabama's two senators issued statements last week criticizing Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell, Jr., in filing a friend-of-the-court brief in the pending five school cases in which it is suggested that the United States Supreme Court has both the duty and the authority to strike down racial distinctions.

It should be noted that the same two senators were gleefully issuing statements a few days earlier on the announced intentions of the housing and Home Finance Agency to release over four million dollars for the proposed Medical Center "Racial Relocation Project" in Birmingham. Senator Sparkman comes up for election next Spring and doubtless he is trying to win back Dixiecrat support.

Senator Sparkman was the Democratic Vice-Presidential candidate last year. Of course, the Democratic ticket was defeated and the Sparkman utterances, like the Alabama Democratic "White Supremacy" slogan, should again aid the Republicans to win in 1956. The Sparkman remarks are likely to reverberate in the 1954 Congressional elections in those states where strength-between-the-two major parties is fairly even.

He is quoted as saying that the action of Mr. Brownell in presenting the anti-segregation brief "is in keeping with the pattern already adopted by this Republican administration." If that is true, then the Republican Party deserves the praise of decent people for moving hard and steadily against an evil which hurts and shames this nation. He calls the Brownell action "another step in the unfolding of the pattern."

But in fairness, the previous National Democratic Administration threw its weight against the same evil at the same place.

Let no one overlook the marvelous work performed by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and numerous other influential organizations in attacking legally-enforced school segregation. A bit of the support for this position has come from the South itself.

Senator Sparkman argues that "the Republican Party has never had regard for the South, nor for its customs and its traditions." But would the Senator put the South's customs above the country's constitution and the South's traditions higher than social truth? The Republican Party seems to look at the South maturely, as a part of the Nation rather than a section to itself, it seems to us. We commend Mr. Brownell for his brief in the school cases.

MEALTIME MELODIES!

BY GRACE WILLIAMS
 With Thanksgiving behind her, milady's fancy inevitably turn to thoughts of Christmas--And first on the agenda is gift-shopping. What fun (if you like the hustle and bustle of crowds, the colorful decorations) trying to find the perfect gift for dad or that one item that auntie has wanted all year. Then there's toyland, where you can lose yourself in the miniature world of Santa Claus.

But there's always the special friend that no store bought gift can quite express your sentiments to. For this person you will have equally as much fun preparing a gift box of festive foods which seems to say "from my house to yours made by loving hands."
 Yes a gift of homemade food says "I'm thinking of you." Whether it's your favorite uncle, Scout leader, the boy who's away in college or the army's food gift is a warm reminder of you--as personal as your own signature.

Winter pears and pecans are plentiful this month and delicious delicacies can be made using them. Small jars of pear preserves topped with your own private stock label, and tucked into a plastic basket or set on a glass serving dish will be a welcome gift to your favorite tasters as getting warmer.

 The boy in the army or that college lad or lassie will enjoy your favorite cookie or candy recipe packed full of crunchiness. Select a basket or any handy container that can be used after the goodies are all gone and line it with cellophane, tie with a perky ribbon and there it is a gift that says, "see what I made."

Crunchy Butter Toffee is a goodie that you will be proud to give and display in your candy dish--make plenty and watch how quickly it goes.

Crunchy Butter Toffee
 1 cup sugar
 1-2 teaspoon salt
 1-4 cup water
 1-2 cup butter
 1 1-2 cups chopped pecans
 Combine sugar, salt, water, and butter. Cook to light-crack stage (285 degree). Test: Add few drops to water. They will form a pliable ribbon. Add 1-2 cup chopped pecans. Pour into well-greased cookie sheet. Cool. Melt two 6-ounce packages semisweet chocolate. Spread half on top; sprinkle with 1-2 cup pecans. Cool. Turn; repeat with remaining chocolate and nuts. When chocolate has cooled, break toffee in pieces with a wooden mallet or a small household hammer. This recipe will make two dozen pieces. Inside each piece is rich butter-nut toffee; outside is creamy chocolate flaked with nuts.

Winter experts agree that winter's favorite tasters are getting warmer.

anxious anticipation, a real show for their money.

Confidential sources in Washington reveal that President Eisenhower is conferring constantly with what I believe to be three of the greatest men in his party, on the Southern School issue; Herbert O. Brownell, Jr., Attorney General of the United States, Thomas E. Dewey, Governor of New York State, and Earl Warren, Chief Justice of These United States.

These three men by their past records, rather than their promises have done more for the Negro in their respective areas than any others. The President reported an all out crusade to end school segregation in the South, with an attempt at a later date to appease Southern citizens around election time. As is common knowledge by this time but should be long in the minds of the Negro voters, Ike directed Brownell to tell the Supreme Court that it was their "DUTY AND AUTHORITY" to outlaw school segregation in the South. Bravo Dwight.

OKAY DRAFT EXEMPTION

WASHINGTON—(INS)—The Supreme Court held 6 to 3 that George Lewis Dickinson of San Francisco, Calif., a member of the Jehovah's Witnesses religious sect who was sentenced to two years in prison for refusing draft induction, was entitled to exemption.

Dickinson had claimed exemption from the draft as a regular minister rather than as a conscientious objector. He was employed at the Navy Yard as a radar mechanic, but contended the religious work was his main occupation.

The majority opinion, written by Justice Tom Clark, said Dickinson's navy work was only five hours a week and "we think he made a case (for exemption) which meets the statutory criteria."

down beside her in the first seat behind the driver. She said she asked him to move and at first, he refused. They exchanged words, she asserted, and then attempted to get up. The soldier then moved to the rear of the bus, according to the woman.

His place was immediately taken by another soldier, the woman said. This one refused to move or allow her to move, she said. The driver then tried to get the soldier to move, but to no avail. He then called the police.

When the police arrived, Lt. Sherard reportedly tried to prevent their arresting the soldier. Police then ordered the bus driver to drive the vehicle to the police station.

Policeman D. A. Neely and J. D. Worthy charged that the 24-year-old lieutenant "caused most of the trouble" by "agitating the others" and arguing with the bus operator whether the soldier should remain in his seat.

In commenting on the incident, Ft. Jackson authorities said: "In accordance with currently prescribed policy for the Armed Forces, segregation is not practiced at Ft. Jackson, a federal military reservation.

"When military personnel go off the post they become subject to local laws and are personally responsible for any violations of such laws the same as any other civilian. The army expects its per-

Bland Sues Atty.

the case was being investigated by the FBI as his rights to testify at the time of the divorce was not granted—and Mrs. Bland gained possession of the home at 1356 Or-gill without his knowledge while he was away studying in Chicago. He stated that Mrs. Bland abandoned the home over two years ago.

Dr. Bland said because of his friendship alliance and fraternal necology, affiliation with Atty. Latting, he was instrumental in Atty. Latting securing permission to practice before the U. S. Supreme Court he rendered this service without charge.

A reporter of the Memphis World reached Attorney Latting in his swank Beale Avenue Law Office and he made the following statement: "The charges of Dr. Bland are as ridiculous as they are false, but I harbor no personal animosities towards him for I believe he is a sick man."

"When Dr. Bland sent his wife to my office to represent her, she became my client and it was my duty to protect her rights without regards to personal friendship or fraternal relations that existed between Dr. Bland and me."

"Dr. Bland was represented by one of the ablest and finest lawyers in this country and we were able to work out a settlement of the case which, I believe, was fair to both parties so far as I am concerned, it was just another case, and I have no ill feeling against Dr. Bland, but I do pity him for the attitude which he has taken, hoping that he will see the light before destroys himself."

Non-Discrimination

regation and discrimination is to end them." By "temporizing" us in the case of the fire department, he continued, "we stated objections are defeated." Dr. Carolyn F. Ware, president, Washington Urban League, said she regretted that the order carried any exceptions, but she hopes they will not last long. Exceptions listed on the order, among them the fire department are the two Industrial Home schools, one for Negro and the other for white children; the District training school at Laurel, Md., and the one at Occoquan, Va.; the jail division of the Correction Department and the Home for Aged and Infirm.

Congress specified in its appropriation act that segregation be maintained in the Industrial Homes. Because of the congressional act, the order stated that the District government "shall not at this time govern the assignment of white employees to the Industrial Home for Colored Children," nor the Negro employees to the unit for white children.

sion of congress. He sharply criticized the Republican Administration for failure to advance civil rights legislation, pointing out that an administrative practices bill has been introduced in every congress since 1944 except this one. The Minnesota senator also called for the establishment of a joint congressional committee on civil rights to maintain continuing investigation in the facts of group discrimination and make recommendations for remedial action. "This would make it possible for the government to bring together many of the organizations working in the field of human rights for a combined assault on remaining areas of discrimination.

Diplomats included Ambassador Abba Eban of Israel and Minister R. H. Scott of the British Embassy. Other honor guests included top brass in the military forces, members of the White House staff, Administrators of government agencies and ranking officers of B'Nai B'rith.

The "Dinner with the President" script was written by Milton Geiger and William N. Robson, directed by Byron Paul, produced by Matti Mannis and narrated by Walter Cronkite and Ben Grauer, Rex Harrison and Lilli Palmer. Beside Robinson and Warfield, other artists, featured in the cast were Thelma Ritter, Edie Fisher, Jane Froman, William Frawley, Vivian Vance, Desi Arnez, Lucille Ball, Ethel Merman and Helen Hayes.

The vast crowd overflowed the Presidential ballroom into the adjacent Chinese Room where spectators watched the show which was televised on all three national hook-ups, CBS, NBC and ABC. Those who were too far away from the stage

Following the show the guests really had "Dinner with the President" consisting of heart of celery, green and ripe olives, sardine marinated herring with pickle, hard boiled eggs, anchovy and rolled salmon served on lettuce and tomato at the first course. ## House Okays Loyalty Check

International News Service Staff Correspondent
 Georgia's House of Representatives approved a loyalty check of state employees Monday, but specified that anyone accused of disloyalty must be provided a hearing.

The lower chamber approved the amended Senate measure tightening the present anti-surveillance law by a unanimous vote.

The bill goes back to the upper chamber for concurrence in the amendment which provides that no person shall be discharged from state employment without being given a hearing at which evidence to substantiate charges of disloyalty would have to be produced.

Administration floor leader Frank Twitty of Camilla, Ga., said, "This is to avoid false accusations."

The bill puts a continued hunt for subversive activities in the hands of the executive branch government and provides for a "loyalty" questionnaire to be filled out for every one on the state payroll, including teachers.

Speedy Senate agreement is expected, possibly making this bill the first of the administration's reforms for recommendations to reach Gov. Herman Talmadge for signature.

If the number of letters is 8 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.
