

2 Big Games Here Saturday: Ark. vs M.I. At Crump, LeMoyné vs Alabama In Bruce!

Two big sports events are scheduled for Memphis this Saturday, Dec. 8. The afternoon contest will be the newly born football classic scheduled for 2 o'clock in Crump Stadium. The night game will find two SIAC college basketball teams clashing in LeMoyné's Bruce Hall with the tip-off slated for 8 o'clock.

The post-season football melee, sponsored by the brave Vanguard Club, will be played in big Crump Stadium and will match Arkansas State of Pine Bluff against M.I. College of Holly Springs, Miss.

If this game takes well with the public it could become an annual classic.

In the night basketball game in Bruce Hall, LeMoyné's Magicians will open their home season against Alabama State, one of the toughest cage outfits in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. The Magicians returned to the city Tuesday morning following a successful three-game road trip.

Both of the Saturday games loom as stellar situations and are expected to attract fans from throughout the Tri-State area.

Mrs. Chapman completed the first semester of her sophomore year with all A's.

WOMAN, 50, IS STILL MISSING

DR. COOPER E. TAYLOR'S WIDOW BURIED HERE Leaves Note To Husband

Funeral services were held Saturday for the late Mrs. Willie E. Taylor, wife of Dr. Cooper E. Taylor, from First Baptist (Lauderdale) with the Rev. H. C. Nabrit officiating. Burial was in Elmwood with T. H. Hayes & Sons in charge.

Mrs. Taylor, who was well known in civic, club and fraternal circles, died Nov. 28 at Collins Chapel Hospital. A graduate of LeMoyné College, she recently was elected president of the National Dental Society's Ladies Auxiliary.

She was the sister of Mrs. Hattie Miller, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mrs. Maude Gadsen and Mrs. Gere Hamlin of New York City, and

Mrs. Mary Warford of Newburg, N.Y.

Active pallbearers were B. C. Moore, Charles Smith, D. H. Ross and Drs. Vasco Smith, Jr., A. B. Carter, and A. K. Smith.

Honorary pallbearers were members of Ladies Aid Society, Lydia Bible Class, Lincoln League, Women's Voters League, Urban League, Ladies Auxiliary of National Dental Society, Pan-Tennessee Dental Association, Shelby County Dental Auxiliary, YWCA, Hiawatha Art and Social Club, and Federated Women's Club.

Still missing at press time was Mrs. Rosie C. Harris, 50, of 277 Fields, who disappeared Saturday night after parking her car in Tom Lee Park which overlooks the Mississippi River.

Two notes were left by Mrs. Harris who had been employed by a bag factory in Binghampton. One was to her husband, James H. Harris, 54, who is employed at Kennedy General Hospital. It read: "DEAR JAMES: I want you to know I love you very much. Your wife, Rosie."

Another note found pinned to her purse, read: "I am going a long way. Goodbye. I am going a long way."

Police started a search after finding Mrs. Harris' hat, coat and purse on a bench in the park. Her car was parked nearby.

Investigating officers doubt she committed suicide by jumping into the river.

Mr. Harris said his wife left their home Saturday night after they had watched Highway Patrol on their television set and said she was going to a store. She was driving the family car, a 1958 Ford. "That was the last I saw of her," the husband said.

"I know of no reason why she should leave home," Mr. Harris told the Memphis World. "She wasn't sick. There had not been any arguments."

"She didn't carry anything with her. She even left all the keys," Mr. Harris said.

The Harrises have no children. Both are members of Tree-of-Life Baptist Church on Colorado off of Florida Street.

The missing Mrs. Harris has four sisters: Mrs. Martha Mayweather of 1830 Riverside Drive, Mrs. Katie Jackson of Whitehaven, Mrs. Callie Alexander of Eads, and Mrs. Frances Golden of Darbins. A brother, Walter Cofer, lives on Brooks Avenue.

Principal Faces Trial

James Franklin Dawson, 33, of Memphis, principal of William R. Golden High School at Turrell, Ark., will be tried in West Memphis Municipal Court, Dec. 12, on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a 17-year-old female student at the school.

Vivian NAACP Speaker

Rev. Mr. Vivian, pastor of Metropolitan Community Church in Chattanooga, is a former vice president of the NAACP branch in Peoria, Ill., and was on the first Freedom Bus to enter Jackson, Miss. He and four other ministers were the first clergymen arrested for protesting segregation in the Magnolia Estate.

The Freedom Mass Meeting also will climax the local NAACP's fall membership campaign. Reports of the branch's 1962 activities will be made.

Described as dynamic, Rev. Mr. Vivian was a leader in the movement that integrated lunch counters in Peoria some 15 years ago and later served as first vice president of the Christian Leadership Council in Nashville.

Branch President Jesse Turner and Executive Secretary Maxine Smith called on all membership campaigners to make complete reports before Sunday. NAACP's Memphis goal is 7,500.

Gift Of $1,000 To Owen College

Owen College last week received a $1,000 check from the Memphis Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress. The gift represents net proceeds from a special 25th Annual Congress Institute Souvenir Booklet. The check was presented by Congress President Charles H. Ryans to Owen President Charles L. Dinkins.

Tenor In Concert At Owen College

The Rev. Marcus W. Williams, outstanding tenor, will render a concert of sacred music at Owen College during the regular 10 a. m. Friday assembly on Dec. 7 in the college auditorium.

Rev. Mr. Williams is director of the Atlanta Baptist Education Center. He is a graduate of Morehouse College and the Morehouse School of Religion, and is presently studying at Atlanta University.

The public is invited. There is no admission charge.

Owen Alumni To Meet

The Owen College Alumni Association plans a regular meeting Friday, Dec. 7, at 7:30 p. m. in Room 25 of the college administration building. Reports of the baby contest to be held Sunday, Dec. 16, at the college, will be presented. Former basketball players are asked to meet with Gene Cumbly and L. V. Tate at 7 p. m.

CBC Professor Will Speak At LeMoyné

The Existential Correlative of 20th Century Drama will be the subject of Broth Luke Maurelias, chairman of the English Department at Christian Brothers College, when he speaks at LeMoyné College, Dec. 14, at 10:30 a. m. in the lecture hall. He will be the second speaker for the college's English series.

The persons attending the institute previously gave $728.02 in a special offering on Owen College Night during the institute.

The Memphis Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress was organized in 1936 as an auxiliary of the Baptist Pastors Alliance. There are presently 72 churches which cooperate in the work of the Congress. Meetings are held on the third Sunday afternoon in each month.

The Congress is a substantial supporter of Owen College, making a contribution of $100 monthly and conducting a special education drive among Sunday schools in September of each year. The Congress is most effective in promoting the college in the churches of Memphis.

Eighty churches were represented in this year's institute, held nightly for a week at Owen College and Saint John Baptist church. Seven hundred sixty-six persons enrolled for the 40 courses offered during the week. Special assembly programs presented various inspirational speakers, and Owen College Night presented the college choir and president.

The steering committee for the souvenir booklet was composed of 25 persons. Charles Terrell was chairman and Miss Beatrice Partee, co-chairman. Rev. W. C. Holmes and Mrs. A. M. James headed committees on church ads, and Dr. R. Q. Venson and Jesse H. Bishop headed committees on business ads. Rev. A. McEwen Williams was editor of the book.

THERE COULD BE FIREWORKS Monday night at Ford Hall, 1190 Walker, when more than 200 delegates gather to elect new officers for the Shelby County Democratic Club, now headed by the Rev. Alexander Gladney, Sr. A hassle could develop if President Gladney contends Atty. H. T. Lockard is not the chairman of the club's nominating committee.

REV. MR. GLADNEY APPOINTED Attorney Lockard chairman of the nominating committee several weeks ago but later dumped him and elevated Jesse Bishop to the chairmanship. Gladney said he removed Lockard because the attorney has been elected chairman of what the minister calls a rival organization. He also charges Lockard attempted to consolidate the new organization with the Shelby County Democratic Club. Lockard denies this.

MEANWHILE, ATTY. LOCKARD refuses to be ousted as chairman of the nominating committee and met with the committee Monday night at his home. Among those attending the meeting and recognizing Lockard as chairman was Jesse Bishop. It was learned that a slate was drawn up to be presented to delegates Monday night.

MR. GLADNEY IS STEPPING down as president of a second political organization, the Bluff City and Shelby County Council of Civic Clubs, which holds its election Sunday at 4 p. m. in the YWCA, but it is believed he would like to remain as head of the Shelby County Democratic Club.

LeMoyné Opens Here Saturday Night Against Alabama State

Magicians Will Return To Bruce Hall Next Tuesday To Take On Lane College

LeMoyné's Magicians usher in their home season this Saturday night, Dec. 8, taking on the highly rated Alabama State quint from Montgomery. The game, which promises to be a thriller, will be played on the Bruce Hall floor starting at 8.

Despite intelligibility and drop-outs, LeMoyné will send off its finest team against the Invaders, Alabama State. The two veterans on the starting five were outstanding courtmen last season. James Gordon, the sophomore defensive ace from Louisville, Ky., will be at one of the forwards and Monroe Curran, the elusive and dazzling sophomore from H. H. Tenn., will start at one of the guard posts.

All eyes will be on a LeMoyné freshman, Richard Dumas, 6-3 guard from Kansas City, Kan. The lanky Dumas was All-Eastern last season at Sumner High in Kansas City and has proved himself an excellent shot from beneath the basket or from the floor.

Another freshman, 6-5 Jerome Wright, who was All-District last season at Central High in Louisville, Ky., will show considerable strength at the center post for LeMoyné.

At least three other men will see plenty of action at the other forward post: Willie Hereton, 6-6 senior of Memphis; Jimmy Charleston, 6-3 sophomore from Syracuse, N. Y.; and Whitney Bankston, 6-3 freshman from Booker T. Washington, Memphis.

Ready to fill in will be Verties Sailes, junior guard of Memphis; Cleophus Owens, junior forward of Memphis; Robert Heron, junior forward of Chicago, and Reginald Eyles, senior center of Chicago.

LeMoyné's second home game will be in Bruce Hall, Tuesday night, Dec. 11, against Lane College of Jackson, Tenn.

Knee Injury Jinx Plagues Colt's Star Lenny Moore

By BILL BROWER
BALTIMORE — (AP) — Lenny Lyles describes himself as a "fifth-year" rookie.

This is an apt description for the Baltimore Colts' defensive half-back, as he explains:

"As far as actual playing experience is concerned, I'm still a freshman. I put four seasons with the Colts and San Francisco but all I did was return kicks. It wasn't until this year's third preseason game, against Dallas, that I actually played in all four quarters of a pre-game.

Then that injury in the opening game with Los Angeles almost wrecked my chances. The sprained knee kept me out four weeks and I required a regular job after recovering but now, just when things are going well, my other knee was walloped up in the Green Bay game."

Once billed, when he performed the University of Louisville, as the fastest man in football, Lyles reported to the Colts camp in 1958 as the team's first draft choice. Before he could establish himself he unfortunately dropped a possible touchdown pass against the New York Giants in an exhibition game, then made the same slip against the Giants in the campaign.

This renegeated him to spot duty with special units. Despite the fact that he became one of the stand-out kick-off returners in the league—with a couple of 100-yard-plus touchdown rmbucks—the Colts cast him adrift after his rookie season. One of the reasons was that Baltimore had the brilliant Lenny Moore as a ball-carrying threat.

San Francisco 49ers acquired Lyles, and there, too, he was confined almost to running back kick-offs.

"I got a few chances to carry the ball in San Francisco," he says, "and Jack Christiansen worked with me a little bit in the defensive backfield. The 49ers had a crack secondary, though, and I couldn't break in, but I'm sure I benefited from the instruction."

The Colts had defensive duty in mind for Lyles when they claimed him back after the 49ers asked waivers last year—but he was a little late in joining the club to be broken in as a starter so it was back to the kick-off returning which were in excellent condition.

Those dropped passes damaged my confidence. But now I'm okay. I realize I've still got a lot to learn about my position and opposing personnel but I'm sure that I can accomplish it. Playing defense suits me fine."

In preseason competition Lyles with these words: "A great desire to do the job, concentration on fundamentals, and that wonderful speed have made Lenny a regular. Moreover, he knows there's more to learn and he'll work after practice to improve."

Noe is he can just lick the knee-injury funk.

Owen 5 Drops First, 91-86

Owen was defeated in its home basketball opener on the Owen court Saturday night by another junior college, Harris, of Meridian, Miss., 91-86. Coach Robert Grider's locals were pressing all the way but failed to produce enough power to move ahead. Harris was out front at halftime, 37-32.

Despite the fact that they went down in defeat, the Owen five came up with the high point man in Guard Freddie Rhodes who had 33 for the night.

Owen will be on the road this weekend, playing Shorter Junior College at Little Rock, Friday night, and meeting Arkansas Baptist in the same city Saturday.

Rhodes and Forward James Watson are the only regulars on the Owen squad.

The 10 rookies on the team hail from Memphis and nearby high schools: James Weary, Mitchell; Willie Watson, Mt. Pisgah; Robert Taylor, Lester; Wilson Knox, Mt. Pisgah; and Robert Savage, Capleville, guards; Charles Cabbage, Carver; Billy Higgins, B. T. Washington; and Robert Rudd, Manassas; forwards; and James Williams, Hall, and Eldridge Miller, Woodstock, centers.

Following is a schedule of the 1962-63 games for Owen:

Dec. 1, Harris Jr., Home.
Dec. 7, Shorter Jr., away.

Feb. 9, Tenn. A. and I. (2nd team), home.

Currin Tops For LeMoyné

LeMoyné's Magicians returned to Memphis Tuesday morning following a three-game road trip which saw them winning two and dropping one.

The Memphisians won by forfeit Friday night at Knoxville College and moved over to Nashville where they defeated Fisk University, 91-81, Saturday night. They dropped a close one Monday night, 91-85, to Alabama A&M at Huntsville.

The forfeit came as a result of what was described as a disciplinary problem at KC.

It is understood that Knoxville Coach Julian Bell forfeited the game because several of his players had missed practice sessions because of fraternity initiations.

At Fisk, LeMoyné trailed 48-39 at halftime but made a great comeback to snatch a victory.

Monroe Currin, LeMoyné's elusive forward from Halls, Tenn., was high man each night for the Magicians, getting 36 against Fisk and 23 in the tilt with A&M.

Richard Dumas, a slick ball handler for LeMoyné, tacked up 20 points Saturday night and 21 Monday for a total of 41.

Tennessee State Quint To Hawaii

NASHVILLE — Coach Harold Hunter has trimmed his 1962-63 basketball squad to 12 men and will only travel with 10 as he begins his assault on Tennessee State University's 31-game schedule.

Craced with five games over the NCAA's 26-game limit, Tennessee State's hardwood crew will play extra games in Hawaii.

Despite last season's 16-9 record, Coach Hunter is sticking to his assisted fast-break offense.

Bertrand And Carver Win Prep Loop

Prep School Basketball League underway Monday night of week with Carver topping B. Washington, 35-54, and Father Bertrand trouncing Melrose, 64-56.

Carver overcame a 34-31 halftime deficit, tied the game in the last 30 seconds and finally won it with two seconds, to go on Leonard Lester's free throw.

Billund of Carver was high with 19. Weakley of BTW led 16 points.

Tom and Saquels of Bertrand high with 16 each, and Petty Sandridge of Melrose were tops in 13 each.

TUESDAY THIS WEEK
Two games are slated for Friday night: Manassas vs. Lester at 7 p. m., and Father Bertrand vs. Douglas at Douglas. Both are prep games, starting at 7 p. m.

WEDNESDAY NEXT WEEK

M I College Tigers And Arkansas Golden Lions Poised For Battle

By SAM BROWN

M I College Tigers and the Arkansas AM and N College Golden Lions are all poised for their encounter Saturday afternoon at Crump Stadium, in an all out football game heralded as the "Game of the Season," the "Vanguard Classic," the Battle of the Lions and Tigers.

Arkansas AM and N is a member of the South West Conference and compiled a 3-5-1 record in conference play. Their record takes on a great deal of significance when it is realized that their competition consisted of such football powers as the Jackson State College, Southern University, Prairie View, Lincoln of Missouri and other stand-out teams.

M I College, a member of the South East Athletic Conference had a 4-4 record for the season, although their competition might not have been as rugged as Arkansas', yet, against a mutual opponent, that defeated them both, the M I Tigers scored against Jackson State, while Arkansas was held scoreless by the Jackson State College Juggernaut.

Several Memphis boys and former Prep League stars will be seen in action when these two teams meet, including six starters with the M I Tigers. Five M I boys were stand-out players at Booker T. Washington in John White, Jerry Kimball, Mose Carroll, William Hayes and Frank Savage. James Hill is a former Manassas star. Jerry Brigrance, a former Melrose player is the lone Memphis player with Arkansas. Brigrance was All-Conference linesman last year.

Vannette W. Johnson is the head coach at Arkansas, and his assistants are L. A. Torrence, U. S. Grant, H. O. Clemons, L. A. Davis, Jr., and trainer Eddie Spears. Dr. Lawrence A. Davis is president of Arkansas A M and N, and Robert F. Moorehead, Public Relations Director.

Band Director, U. G. Delton is expected to lead the great band which has won acclaim everywhere they have appeared. The more than 100-piece band will take part during half time activities. Nine pretty cheer leaders will cavort along the sidelines in Nevada, Warshaw, Sandra Van-Pelt, Alycon Washington, Satyra Strong, Sandra Meeks, Elaine McKinney, Katie Smith, Emma Towns, and Joan Henry. Mrs. Betty Brown is sponsor.

I. L. Watts is head coach at M I College and his assistants include John H. Johnson, line coach and L. L. Osborne, back field coach. They have done a great job in bringing a youthful Tiger team along this year. Dr. E. E. Rankin is president of the college.

Both schools have a large number of graduates and former students in Memphis, and the alumni of each school is planning to turn out in big numbers to cheer for their Alma Mater.

The game is sponsored by the Vanguard Club of Memphis, a group of sports-minded and civic minded men who would like to see more college games here. Proceeds of the game will help both schools' athletic program, as well as the Vanguard Club's charity fund.

A parade preceding the game is scheduled for Beale Street and portions of Downtown Memphis. The parade is expected to form in the neighborhood of Wellington Street near Beale or Linden, then proceed West along the famed Avenue and back to the Universal Life Insurance Company Building.

Kickoff time is 2:00 p. m.

P. V. Seeks First Win Over Central State College

PRAIRIE VIEW, Tex. — Prairie View A & M College will be looking for their first victory in four starts against Central State College of Wilberforce, Ohio, when the two teams meet Saturday night in the annual Prairie View Classic.

Central State, a member of the state university system in Ohio, was victorious over Panther teams in 1947, 1948 and 1950. The fourth meeting between the two teams, scheduled at Jeppesen Stadium, may be Prairie View's first chance to chalk up a win over the successful Midwestern Conference aggregation.

The Panthers appear to be ready for the Ohioans, after four straight decisive victories and all evidence of a much improved team. Their 5-3 season's record includes two losses in opening games with Jackson State and Texas Southern, but they have been on the victory trail since mid-October.

Dropping Tennessee, Kentucky and West Virginia State in the mid-western loop this year, the Marauders are primed for another win in this inter-sectional contest. Their team has been described as a well-rounded outfit that moves as well on the ground as in the air.

Kick-off time for this 34th annual Prairie View Classic is scheduled at 8 p. m.

New York Schools Named For Mary M. Bethune, W. White

Two new Public Schools to be constructed in School Districts No. 13 in Manhattan and No. 42 in Brooklyn, will bear the names of Mary McLeod Bethune and Walter Francis White, respectively. This announcement was made by Dr. Aaron Brown, member of the New York City Board of Education, who stated that the nine-member Board was unanimous in its selection of these names because of the high esteem in which the two leaders were regarded. The Resolutions which proposed the names were presented several weeks apart and contained details regarding the variety of contributions which Mrs. Bethune and Walter White made.

The Resolution which proposed the name of Bethune contained details of the numerous contributions made by this educational leader. She was born July 10, 1875 in Mayesville, South Carolina and passed away May 18, 1955 in Daytona Beach, Florida. The one regarding Walter White's name began with his early life in Atlanta, Ga. and traced his N. A. A. C. P. and Civil Rights work in the United States. Walter Francis White was born July 1, 1899 in Atlanta, Georgia and died March 21, 1955 in New York City.

Both Schools, to be constructed in 1963, will operate from the kindergarten through grade six and each will cost approximately $2,500,000, a total of five million dollars, exclusive of the costs for the sites (land) and equipment. The enrollment of the Walter White School is expected to be around 1,800, while the Bethune School will be 1,400 and both will be thoroughly integrated, that is, they will include substantial percentages of white, Negro and Puerto Rican pupils.

TO USE CUBAN REFUGEES

The Defense Department has announced it would start to enroll Cuban refugee volunteers into special Spanish-speaking units to train for service in the United States army and navy.

The announcement said that Cuban nationals who volunteered would be required to meet the same physical and mental requirements as American enlistees. Those who successfully complete this training will be given a chance to join regular units of the army and navy, according to the Pentagon.

MISS PATRICIA ANN SPAULDING

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED—Mr. and Mrs. Asa T. Spaulding of Durham, N.C., have made known the engagement of their daughter, Miss Patricia Ann Spaulding, to Dr. Oscar James Moore, Jr., of Chicago, Illinois. He is the son of the Reverend Oscar J. Moore and the late Mrs. Minnie H. Moore of Fitzgerald, Georgia. He is also the nephew of Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Moore of Chicago. A June wedding is planned.

Janitor 20 Years Ago, Is Now Manager Of Half Million Dollar Enterprise

CHICAGO — (ANP) — Thirty nine years old Kenneth A. Richard who was a janitor in Akron, Ohio, 20 years ago became manager of a half million dollar auto appliance and sporting equipment store in Chicago last week.

The store, twenty first in the city and 800th in the nation is the newest link in a chain operated by Firestone Tire and Rubber company. The new store features a large retail display area for home and auto supplies, a six-day double depth drive-through service area to accommodate 12 cars at once and a basement storage room. A complete line of Firestone passenger, truck and tractor tires and 14 departments of home and auto supplies including toys, recreation and gift items, wheel goods, hardware and housewares are offered. APPLIANCE DEPARTMENT A major appliance department with radios, television sets, ranges, refrigerators and laundry units occupies a section of the sales-room. Automotive services include tire repair, battery maintenance, front-end alignment, wheel balancing and brake repair. One of the major sources of Firestone's raw rubber is Liberia where the corporation maintains one of the largest rubber plantations in Africa. The new store, located in Lake Meadows shopping center is reputedly the first in history with an all-Negro staff. HIS BRAIN CHILD The idea is the brainchild of Richard. After starting with Firestone as a janitor, he was promoted up the ladder into the massing and milling phase of the giant Firestone complex. Then he received extensive retail training and finally was promoted into his current managerial post. He is married and the father of three daughters. "It all started in Akron," Richard said, "I was very active with the NAACP, the Fair Employment Practices Commission and other groups." He explained that he found out that Firestone was not first in ratings among tire-buying Negroes. He showed this information to company officials in connection with his idea for an all-Negro staffed store, and this is the outcome, he added.

Youths Advised Not To Leave Home So Quickly

By PATRICIA McCORMACK NEW YORK — (UPI) — Boys and girls around age 10 sometimes try to run away from home — or consider, at least, adopting a new set of parents. A word of advice to the dissatisfied darlings: Don't. It won't work. Even if you find a married couple who are what you might call "up for adoption." This I got from Poppo himself and he knows. Poppo, if you haven't heard, is the impish, enchanting nine-year-old Puerto Rican boy from the slums of New York who won his way into the hearts of a Brooklyn couple and "adopted" them.

MADE INTO BOOK His story has just got into a book and a national magazine and is now on the negotiating stage in Hollywood. Poppo wasn't abused at home. His parents were divorced, but he adored his mother and the five other little children of his family. The story of how he wandered into the comfortable home of Josef and Dottie Berger — "a beautiful place," as he described it — of how his friendship with them grew for three years, and of how eventually he decided he wanted to be Josef Berger Junior, is told in the just published book, "Poppo" Simon and Schuster. "It's a love story and a true one," Joe Berger said in an interview. "With a child and a grandchild of our own, a long marriage and a full life, Dottie and I needed Poppo like a hole in the head. "But we have fallen in love with this little boy, as I think anybody would have, and his effect for us was very real, very deep. He had made up his mind to be 'adopted' by us, and we couldn't resist him." TRIAL ADOPTION It was one of those trial adoptions. If it worked, it was to be made a legal one. The Berbers went to Poppo's parents, Maria and Julio, and obtained their consent, in separate interviews. "Mario and Julio each gave the

Lack Of Negroes In High Level State Posts Noted

NEW YORK — President Kennedy has received a request for a conference on the role of the American Negro Community in U. S. Policy in Africa from the nation's top Negro leaders. Those making the request include Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference; Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; A. Phillip Randolph, President of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, and Vice President of the AFL-CIO; Whitney M. Young, Jr., Executive Director, National Urban League; James Farmer, Executive Director of the Congress of Racial Equality and Dorothy Height, President of the National Council of Negro Women.

Prophet Jones Turns Down Lavish Birthday Affair

DETROIT — (ANP) — The Rev. James Francis Jones, colorful Detroit radio preacher, known internationally as prophet Jones, observed his 53th birthday in an eight-day celebration which avoided the meetings, lavish after-parties and expensive gifts which have highlighted Jones' annual birthday parties in the past. At the Prophet's request, the celebration was handled modestly this year. Jones explained that he did not want too big a display of fabulous gifts and food because he was still trying to pay off his creditors. Jones said earlier he was serving his guests fried chicken, fried fish, barbecued steaks, pies, cakes and ice cream. He said his birthday committee had purchased 400 chickens, 500 pounds of fish, 100 seaks and 100 gallons of ice cream.

GOLD INK INVITATIONS

Invitations were printed as usual in gold ink. The festivities, which began Nov. 24, and ended Dec. 1, got under way each night at 10 o'clock. Singing and speeches lasted until about 1 a. m., when food was served. Guests were here from as far west as Los Angeles. The celebration was held at the Detroit site where members of the Universal Missionary church have been meeting for the last six months. Jones recently returned to Detroit after holding meetings with his congregations in the East.

same answer," Berger said. "That was — 'You can do more for him than we ever can.' So Poppo moved in with the Berbers. A new home, clothes, toys, a bed and room of his own, a whole new way of life in 'the beautiful place.' There was love, there were problems, deep troubles — all the things that happen between parents and child in the best of families. "But there was the one other element that even the best in human beings could not overcome — divided love, divided loyalty, and one little boy torn apart between them," Berger said. That's why it didn't work. And that is why, one day a year ago Poppo just went back to the slums, to the struggles that living "on welfare" means to any child. But back to the life that is stronger than any other in the life of human beings the yearning of a child for his mother. "Much as Dottie and I love Poppo, that's what I call a happy ending," Berger said. P. S. — The Berbers are now sort of "adopted" grandparents to Poppo. And the young man shares in the proceeds of the book in which he stars. The money is being placed in trust for his education.

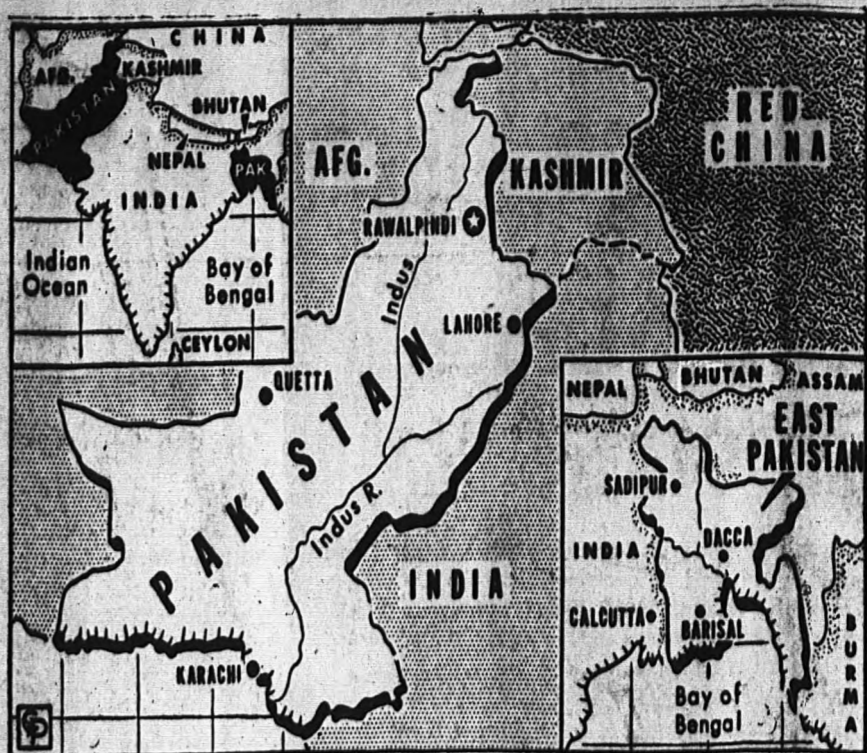

The leaders as callers of the recent Adren House Conference sponsored by the American Negro Leadership Conference on Africa shall seek to discuss with the President the resolutions passed at that group's November 23-25 Conference. In seeking a conference with the President the conference callers were following through on instruction from the approximately 100 Negro leaders set forth in one of several resolutions. The conference was concerned primarily with political problems in the Portuguese Territories, particularly Angola and Mozambique, South Africa, South West Africa, the Congo, Central African Federation and Kenya. In addition, the Negro leaders from more than two score national Negro organizations and representing every section of the country also analyzed the American Negro's participation in United States policy in Africa.

FEW AT HIGH LEVEL

Of major concern to the Negro leaders in their recent conference was the lack of Negroes in the higher level publicity posts in the State Department. The conference was also concerned with the fact that of approximately 100 United States Ambassadors stationed around the world, only two are Negroes. The leaders showed concern over the difficulty younger Negroes have in attaining positions in the United States Foreign Service. American foundations and corporations doing business in Africa also came in for critical examination by the conference. Negro organizations are expected to launch, through various means, a grass roots program designed to institute policies of fair employment practice in these areas.

The conference condemned the apartheid system of South Africa and urged United States support for the United Nations position against that country. They particularly urged the United States to prohibit shipments of arms to South Africa which were used in aiding the apartheid system. The conference authorized the six callers to continue as an informal body to work out ways for implementing the objectives of the conference. No decision has been made regarding a permanent structure. The conference composed of 100 leaders from every section of the nation was perhaps unique in that it concentrated over a weekend, America's top Negro organizational leaders. Many observers felt that this conference brought together a cross-section of leadership unequal in American history on any subject of national or international interest. "It will be significant to observe the tremendous increased interest of organizations throughout the nation in U. S. policy in Africa," said Theodore E. Brown, Director of the conference. "We intend to activate American Negro participation in every phase of our government's many African programs. We intend to stimulate increased interest in every segment of Negro life so that American Negroes will be not only informed, but alert to every influencing force — political or economic — that has some impact on the shaping of U. S. policy in Africa."

A total of 247,600 pounds of canned, boned chicken was purchased last week by the U. S. Department of Agriculture for use in the National School Lunch Program in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

A MAN IS JUST A MAN

I would like to make this mention to my dear Old Uncle Sam, Simply calling the attention of his folks to who I am. Though I am discriminated and Jim-Crowed on Southern train, I am really educated — not my instinct — but my brain. I am here in your employment, no one can deny that fact. But all men should have enjoyment, whether they are white or black. Color might distinguish races, but from what I understand, Circumstances alter cases, and a man is just a man. People say hard things about me, many do not want me near, But if you can do without me, then why have you brought me here? You say, what I have you gave me, this was very kind and nice, But did not you first enslave me, and force me to your price? You held me uneducated, and I tolled in grief and tears, Poorly clad, uncompensated, for more than two hundred years. Those were days of my disaster; every time you spoke I ran, But now you are not my master, and a man is just a man. You say you are a great nation, you are right, I say so too; Is there any occupation which I did not help you do? Am I not always expected to aid you in time of wars? Why, then, am I not protected by the justice of your laws? Have you ever grown disgusted 'mid the fury of the blast? Why then, may I not be trusted when you think the danger past? I was here and answered "Present" when your men outlined your plan, They said, millionaire or peasant, any man is just a man. They told me a lovely story, one I really knew about; I was loyal to Old Glory, glad that they had found it out. Day by day my home was haunted with the cries of peace for all; Peace, real peace, was what I wanted, so I answered every call. Filled with grief I ceased my sleeping, knowing life was just a chance. Wife heart-broken, mother weeping, I left all and went to France. I fought 'til my foes were taken, fought as only black men can; Now it seems that I'm forsaken, still a man is just a man. For the peace of all the races, I intend to daily strive, Though unjustly in some places we are lynched and burned alive. Uncle Sam is always balking on this Anti-Lynching Bill, But there is no use of talking, he can pass it if he will. May we learn to stand together and discourage vice and sin; Trust in God and help each other, and at last the right will win. Let us all be up and doing, trusting God to lead the van, Still achieving and pursuing, for a man is just a man. For additional copies, call UN 1-6724, or write Elder V. S. ## Hold Last Rites For Mrs. Wesley XENIA, Ohio — (ANP) — Services were held here last week for Mrs. Matilda Wesley, mother of Central State college president Dr. Charles H. Wesley. Mrs. Wesley, 87, died at the Greene county Memorial hospital here. The Louisville, Ky. native was known affectionately as "Mother Wesley" to thousands of Central State college students and graduates. A member of the Metropolitan AME church in Washington, D. C., Mrs. Wesley formerly served as secretary to the dean of the school of religion at Howard university. Mrs. Wesley was a resident of Wilberforce, Ohio, since 1942. She was president of the Wilberforce neighborhood club and a former house director at Wilberforce university. She was also a member of the Women's Christian Temperance union. Friends were asked not to send flowers but to donate money to the Central State College Wesley Scholarship fund. Interment was at Lincoln Memorial cemetery, Washington, D. C.

Miss. Supreme Court Rules Negligence In Vet's Death

JACKSON, Miss. — (ANP) — The Mississippi Supreme court ruled last week that a 42-year-old disabled veteran and father of two young children was permitted to bleed to death in the emergency room of the new Biloxi hospital. The action came as the high court upheld a Jackson County circuit court decision awarding the family of the victim, Samuel V. Frazier, $10,000 in damages. Frazier lost his left eye and left arm in World War II. He was shot in the stump of that arm on April 29, 1960. The opinion said he bled extensively following the shooting which took place in an alley. He was carried to the new Biloxi Hospital in an ambulance. He continued to bleed profusely while a patient in the hospital, it said, but neither the nurse nor the doctor made any effort to stop the bleeding in any way. Frazier died early the next morning in the Veterans Hospital, where he had been removed. "An autopsy revealed that the sole cause of death was hemorrhaging with resultant shock," it added.

Through the School Savings program for the regular purchase of U. S. Savings Stamps and Bonds, the student learns early that money grows on money saved — not on trees. And he learns at first hand, the benefits of wise personal money management by reaching goals he sets for himself.
