WILLIS FACING TOUGH CAMPAIGN

MEMPHIS WORLD

VOLUME 33, NUMBER 10 | MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE, SATURDAY, AUGUST 15, 1964 | PRICE TEN CENTS

He'll Need A Big Negro Turn-Out At Polls In Nov.

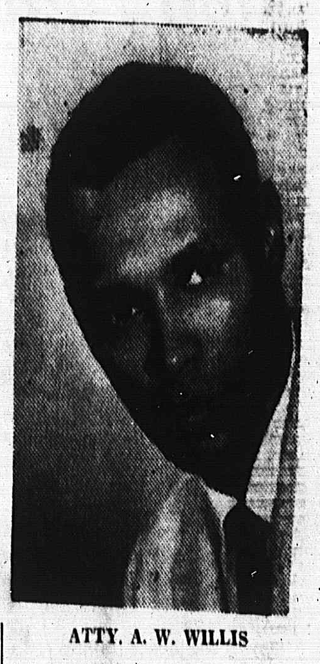
On pure reasoning, based on the number of votes cast last week in the Democratic and Republican primaries, Atty. A. W. Willis should have it easy in the Nov. 3 general election when he opposes the GOP nominee for Position 1 in the State House of Representatives.

A total of 80,990 Democratic votes were recorded in the Position 1 State House primary election against a total of 13,664 for the same position on the Republican side.

Attorney Willis won the Democratic nominatio nin a four-man race with 29,848 His three Democratic white opponents received an overall total of 51,006 — Max Lucas, 22,520; Larry Hughes, 19,716 and Aubrey Fox, 8,770.

It could be assumed that the votes cast for Lucas, Hughes and Fox would naturally go to Willis in the November election because they are Democratic votes and because the Democrats are hell-bent on beating the Republicanls.

Should this happen, it would be a neasy election for the young lawyer, businessman and civil rights leader.



ATTY. A. W. WILLIS

But, it is also only logical to assume that all of the white Democrats votes will not go to Attorney Willis merely because he is a Negro. There are possibly some white voters who would throw up barriers to keep a Negro Democratic nominee from winning a seat in the State House.

THEY COULD THROW support to the Republican nominee who is white — Garvin Crawford — an employee of the Memphis Works of International Harvester. Mr. Crawford won the Republican nomination in a two-man race by beating his Negro opponent, O. W. Pickett, 11,636 to 2,028.

With this in mind, it is definitely necessary that Mr. Wills muster as many Negro votes as possible. It is hardly likely that white Democrats as a whole will vote against Mr. Willis, but it is a known fact that he should have the entire Negro vote if for no more than insurance against possible setbacks.

There are more than 80,000 registered Negro voters in Memphis and Shelby County and thousands of them do not know how to cast a ballot on a voting machine.

Half of them did not go to the polls last week.

Mr. Willis has the know-how and is surrounded by veteran politicians. As one observer put it: "No one needs to tell him he should start campaigning right now, beginning at the grassroot level."

THERE IS A STRONG possibility that one of the defeated white candidates in last week's legislative primaries will run as an independent against Mr. Willis. Insurance man Jack W. Gillespie, who lost to Rep Jack McNeil by 3,000 votes for nomination for representative for Position 11, admitted he has been approached by a group urging him to run against Mr. Willis.

Shelby County Democratic Chairman James E. Irwin showed no signs of welcoming an independent Democratic candidate. He said

CLEMENT WENT [illegible] WITH HOOKS, EVERS

When the Shelby County Democratic Club and the Ninth District Democratic League rejected Governor Frank Clement as a candidate for the U. S. Senate, the Governor did not lose all of his popularity among Negro voters.

Atty. Ben Hooks, a Clement booster although a Republian, lined up with Grandmaster C. F. Williams and organized the Independent Voters League of Tennessee to give the Governor a boost in his race for the Senate seat.

O. Z. Evers, who hit the jackpot last year when he helped put Mayor William Ingram into office, threw his Unity League behind the Governor.

The Governor also was endorsed

Lee Fails To Show Old Guard Punch

Old Guard Republicans, the predominantly Negro unit headed by George W. Lee, and the mostly white New Guard GOP outfit matched strength at the polls last Thursday and Bob James' New Guarders came out on top.

Mr. Lees desperate effort to string some Negro Democratic votes to his Republican column in the primaries failed to materialize.

The Lee unit also lost its star — Atty. Ben Hooks — to the Democrats. Hooks lined up with a Democratic organization supporting Gov. Frank Clement in his unsuccessful bid for the U. S. Senate.

Lee Pitched Atty. Raymond Briggs against Bob James in the U. S. Representative race. Briggs polled 1,282 votes to James' 15,492.

Negro candidates flying the Old Guard banner did a little better in their losing efforts. O. W. Pickett polled 2,028 to Garvin Crawford's 11,636 for the State House and W. Lessley Lay got 4,345 to Lawrence J. Naab's 8,554 for a State House seat.

Big question: Will Mr. Lee back Mr. James in the November general election?

CHARLES CLARK IS TOPS IN CITY EXAM

Lane Appoints Negro To Building Inspector Post

Charles Clark, 39-year-old union carpenter and contractor of 486 Hazlewood, has been appointed a building inspector for the City of Memphis by Commissioner Hunter Lane, Jr. The appointment was made early last week and Mr. Clark will report for work Aug. 17.

Mr. Clark is believed the first Negro in the history of Memphis to hold this position. His starting salary will be $460 a month.

Mr. Clark came to the attention of Commissioner Lane three weeks ago after he took the civil service examination for building inspector and scored the highest grade — 90.61. Approximately a dozen persons took the exam, five of them Negroes.

After seeing Mr. Clark's score, Commissioner Lane contacted the young builder and arranged a conference out of which came the appointment.

Mr. Clark is a graduate of Tuskegee Institute, receiving his degree in building construction in 1952. He attended grade scshool at Park Avenue in Shelby County, did his ninth grade at Melrose and completed his high school work at Booker T. Washington.

After receiving his high school diploma, he entered the military service where he served as an aviation machinist mate in the Navy. He has been a builder since 1954.

In his post as building inspector, Mr. Clark will deal with homes that fail to meet the city's standards.

He is the husband of the former Miss Ira Valeria Glover. They are parents of five children: Ivon V., 16; Charles, 15, and Rose Mary, 12, all students at Mitchell Road; Mona Lisa, 10, a pupil at Ford Road, and Joan Lashea, 3.

Monroe's Proposals Termed "First Step" By NAACP Chapter

MONROE, Georgia — (SNS) — "It's first step, nothing else". That's how the NAACP viewed a seven point plan set up by the city of Monroe for cooling off and possibly a solution to racial tension resulting from civil rights demonstrations in the wake of Negroes seeking service at public facilities here.

One of the significant and far-reaching points of the plan states that "all citizens of this community are called upon to accept the

LaManna Was Helped, Too

Negro Vote Sweet Music To Bass, Grider, Morris

Negro voters last Thursday played a major role in unseating veteran U.S. Representative Cliff Davis who voted against the Civil Rights Bill.

In his place they gave the Democratic nomination to Squire George Grider, a consistent campaigner who had endorsement of all Negro Democratic political groups.

Mr. Grider, described as a liberal, made it clear that he stands for civil rights and better understanding. He defeated Mr. Davis 45,488 to 37,172.

Squire Grider takes on Republican Bob James in the Nov. 3 general election. Mr. James has been called "lily white" by Republican leader George W. Lee.

THE NEGRO VOTE also gave a big victory margin to U. S. Representative Ross Bass who trounced Gov. Frank Clement in the race for the Democratic nomination to the U. S. Senate.

Governor Clement carried some Negro votes but not enough. He had the suppor of organizations headed by O. Z. Evers and Atty. Ben Hooks and the Rev. C. F. Williams.

Opposing him and backing Mr. Bass were the strong Shelby County Democratic Club and the Ninth District Democratic League.

Negro opposition to Mr. Clement claimed he had not kept his promises. He also was quoted as having said he could not have voted for the Civil Rights Bill in its present form.

Strong factors in favor of Congressman Bass were that he voted

STAY-AT-HOME VOTERS HURT SUGARMON'S BID

What does it take for young Atty. Russell Sugarmon Jr. to win an election? He is still the star in the Negro political arena and continues to pull in a large number of white votes. He polled more votes than any other Negro candidate in last week's primaries. Yet, he lost!

One big reason for his most recent defeat is the fact that he was in a three-man race. A Negro candidate will find it hard to win when he is in a race with just two white opponents. Sugarmon received 35,430 votes last week. The winner of the race polled 37,187, winning the right to represent the party in the November election for a seat in the State Senate.

There has been talk of some voting machines failing to show all of the votes cast for Mr. Sugarmon.

The No. 1 answer, though, are the Negro voters themselves. More than 80,000 Negroes were eligible to vote last week in Memphis and Shelby County. How many voted? Not more than 25,000.

Rockefeller To Back Goldwater

ALBANY, N. Y. — (UPI) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, who unsuccessfully battled Sen. Barry Goldwater for the GOP presidential nomination, on August 6 threw his support behind the Arizonan.

The governor, a moderate Republican who charged in San Francisco that Goldwater was outside the "main stream" of modern GOP policies, received loud applause when he told the powerful New York state Republican organization that he was supporting the national ticket headed by Goldwater.

The organization, a leader in the moderate and liberal wing of the income and underprivileged people is asking all executive heads and water, a conservative.

Voters Praised By Geo. Grider

Last Thursday's Democratic primary demonstrated convincingly that Memphis "is too well adjusted and too proud of that adjustment to respond favorably to appeals based on prejudices and emotions," George Grider said Monday.

Mr. Grider, who defeated Rep. Cliff Davis for the Congressional nomination, told a breakfast of campaign workers at Holiday Inn Midtown:

"In the final days of the campaign some candidates, of both parties, raised emotional appeals to vote for certain individuals in both the Republican and Democratic primaries solely on a racial basis.

"The record shows that the voters rose above such appeals and voted in triumphant thousands for Democratic candidates who offered programs of progress aimed at the needs of our community.

"In my own case, I hope I may be permitted a small touch of pride that my support came from all segments of the community and placed me in the leite group of four local candidates receiving more than 45,000 votes — even though I was the only one with a veteran incumbent as an opponent.

"I believe this reflects a determinatio nin all parts of Memphis and Shelby County to continue the peaceful, orderly and never-ceasing progress in human relations which has made Memphis and its people an example admired by the nation.

"It has been my privilage to have some part in this progress for the

TWO BAPTIST CHURCHES IN MEMPHIS MAY MERGE

First Baptist Church at 379 Beale and Union Baptist, 208 Turley, are planning to merge, it was learned this week.

Announcement of the planned merger came from the First Baptist pastor, the Rev. J. A. Jordan. "This should be a new trend for Baptist churches," he said. "Instead of splitting and just barely existing we should start merging and become bigger and stronger."

Such a merger, said Rev. Jordan would enable the church to give more financial aid to its young and old.

CITY COMMISSIONER Hunter Lane Jr. made a lot of people proud of him last week. Turner And Ware In Easy Wins Victory went to all Negro candidates running in four-man or five-man races in last week's primaries. No Negroes opposed each other.

Atty. Russell Sugarmon Jr., head of the strong Shelby County Democratic Club, ran unopposed for Position 14 on the Democratic Executive Committee, but lost by a slim margin in the three-man race for Democratic nomination to the State Senate.

Sugarmon was second with 35,430, the highest number of votes received by any Negro. The winner was Charles O'Brien, 37, 187. Third man was Robert Ryan, 11,056.

Jesse H. Turner, Tri-State Bank executive and head of the local NAACP, polled 30,964 votes to win the Position 1 seat in the Constitutional Convention. The Rev. J. A. McDaniel, Urban League executive, ran third in a five-man race with 14,573 votes for Position 8 on the Constitutional Convention even though he had been declared ineligible. It was ruled that ministers are not eligible to run for the post. Mr. Turner was in a five-man race too.

Charles Ware, grocerman and appliance dealer, won a constable post (honorary) with 20,119 votes in a five-man race. He ran from District 2, with the two top men elected. Mr. Ware ran second. It was his first political effort.

Atty. A. W. Willis won the Democratic nomination for the State House from District 1 in a four-man race. He received 29,848 votes. His closest contestant, Max Lucas,

Two New Dorms For Tenn. A&I

NASHVILLE — Two six-story, air conditioned dormitories costing $3 million will be ready to receive freshmen at Tennessee A&I State University here Sept. 1, according to President W. S. Davis.

These two high-rise residence halls make up the first unit of the program expanding housing facilities which is estimated to reach some $7 million. The one for women will house more than 500, while the one for men will sleep 366.

Dr. Davis had announced previously the two-year $16 million budget which includes funds for upgroding the academic program as well as some features of the physical plant.

Among the unique features of the new women's residence is a lounge-study area on each of the six floors a completely modern kitchen and dining facilities that will acommodate over 400 students, and automatic elevators.

These high-rise dorms will relive to some extent the pressure of the continually increasing enrollment at A. and I.

"Basicly our housing program is geared to guarantee that student residences provide an environment that is conductive to personal, academic, and social training of mature quality," Dr. Davis said.

Says Group Must Prepare To Qualify For Top Jobs

SAN FRANCISCO — Negroes are not owed patronage by American business and should not expect it on the ground that employers feel some social pressure to grant it; the responsibility rests with Negroes themselves to prepare for entry into the mainstream of business and industry, said a prominent business leader here Aug. 5.

Robert O. Powell, asistant advertising manager of Schenley Industries, Inc. — the first Negro named to an executive capacity in a major corporate advertising structure — said the foundation of preparation to enter U. S. business lies in education.

Speaking before the annual convention of the California Package and Retailers Association at the Sheraton Palace Hotel, Mr. Powell said, "We must train our young men to be ready to assume responsibilities and create a market for their talents.

"The best way we can be ready for the challenge of business and industry is to start preparing our young men now. The best way to do this is to start with the fundamentals of education.

"It is rightful for many Negroes to desire substantial representation in some industries. But the Negroes must be prepared to produce when they were welcomed into a particular business. I am not in favor of saying 'Let's strive to get 300 jobs in such-and-such an industry when there are only 50 qualified people to fill them." I would much rather be realistic and request opportunities for 50 capable people and then fill each of these jobs with a man who is ready, willing and equipped to assume the responsibilities that go with the jobs."

He cited several outstanding Negroes, some of them still in their late twenties and early thirties, who have been recognized for their talents in the alcoholic beverage and advertising businesses, "the ones with which I am familiar."

Free Summer Camps Made Possible By Neely Fund

Directors of the Theodora Trezevant Neely Foundation announced two $4,000 grants to the YMCA to provide camping activities for 200 Memphians at Mammoth Springs, Ark., and Fuller Park in Shelby County.

The Theodora Trezevant Neely Foundation was established in 1962 under the will of the late Miss Theodora T. Neely, who died a resident of Memphis on May 29, 1961.

Under the terms of the will, Miss Neely provided that the bulk of her substantial estate should be delivered to Union Planters National Bank of Memhpis, as trustee, so that the income and principal of her gift might be "devoted exclusively to providing summer camping facilities and camping vacations, locally or elsewhere, for the needy children of Memphis and Shelby County, Tennessee."

Miss Neely further provided "... It is my wish that the funds be utilized for the equal benefit of both boys and girls, and children of both the white and Negro races."

The foundation is administered by a board consisting of Sidney M. Neely Jr., Miss Neely's brother; Kenneth Clark, attorney for the estate; Lewis E. Thomas, Director of camping facilities; Blair T. Hunt, pastor of Boulevard Christian Church, and R. N. Lloyd Jr., trust officer of the Union Planter National Bank.

Specially mentioned in Miss Neely's Will were the Mammoth Spring and Camp Fuller facilities, which had been sponsored by the Commercial Appeal Fresh Air Fund, using proceeds of the Annual Golden Gloves Tournament.

Miss Neely never married, but her childhood experiences made a lasting impression upon her and convinced her that the children of others unable to make such experiences possible should be given an opportunity to enjoy the rich rewards of camping life. Through her great generosity, her dream will unfold in the years ahead as large numbers of underprivileged boys and girls in this community annually benefit from the opportunities which her foundation will make possible.

$4 Investment In Census Record Nets Man $1,200

Chick Davis is $1,220 richer today because of a $4 investment in a Census Record.

When he applied for social security benefits in April 1964, he told the folks in the local social security district office that he had little or no hope of ever receiving any payments. He not only had no birth certificate to prove his age; to tell the truth, he wasn't really sure how old he was.

Claims Representative Ralph Lasswell quickly assured him that the lack of a birth certificate was by no means a bar to receiving payments; that there were many other types of evidence that the Social Security Administration found equally acceptable as proof of age. Lasswell began to recite examples of other proofs, but Chick Davis gloomily shook his head as each was mentioned.

"I'm just a person who has passed through life causing nobody any paperwork, I guess," he remarked.

The claims representative finally learned that Chick had registered for the World War I draft in New Hampshire, and had carried life insurance for a number of years while still a young men. Assistance was requested of two other social security offices near the locations where the old draft and life insurance records were kept. Representatives of those offices sent back copies of the age entries in the old records, both of which tended to prove that Chick was now well over age 65. However, one source indicated that he was born in 1834 and the other showed 1893. Which was correct?

The social security representative then asked the claimant a startling question: "Mr. Davis, where were you in January 1900?" This was really the beginning of the filing of a request to have the Bureau of the Census look into its records at Pittsburg, Kansas, to see what age were shown for Chick when its small army of enumerators took the 1900 and 1910 censuses. It had been explained to the claimant that a regular search of the records of these censuses, with a reply to be expected in about 5 to 6 weeks, would cost $3; a "hurry-up" search, with a reply in about a week, would cost $4. Chick decided to take the $4 kind, saying that anyone who could help him prove his age deserved at least that amount. On the request from, he asked the census people to send a copy of the results of the search to the social security office.

9 Ministers Freed From Florida Prison

By JAMES GILLESPY

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — (UPI)— Nine white and Negro ministers were released from city jail Thursday, Aug. 6 after serving four days of a 60-day sentence for a three-year-old sit-in demonstration.

Their attorney, Howard Dixon of Miami, announced the release, on an order of municipal judge John Rudd "a definite and conclusive indication of their innocence."

He also said he felt it represented a turning point in racial relations in Tallahassee.

Judge Rudd could not be reached to explain why he signed the order for the release of the clergymen.

Other city officials were not immediately available.

"The city realized it was losing the case, that's all," Dixon said.

Dixon appealed for freedom for the clergymen to a taree-judge federal panel Wednesday and on the advice of the judges was to go to the state supreme court Friday morning for a hearing on his plea for a habeas corpus writ for the ministers. He said he planned to withdraw the petition in view of tonight's action.

The ministers were sentenced to 60 days or fines of $$500 each.

They were arrested on charges of unlawful assembly the next day.

Gov. Farris Bryant made public for the first time that he had been opposed three years ago to closing the restaurant.

Bryant said he was opposed to closing the doors to the ministers because it would have been "better if nothing were done to impede their rapid departure from the state."

Kennedy Sees Backlash Bane To Democrats

WASHINGTON — (UPI)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said on August 6 the so-called backlash of whites alarmed at Negro civil rights gains will hurt Democrats in this fall's election campaign.

Various pollsters and public officials have differed over the existence and depth of such a reaction.

Kennedy said the Democrats would be deluding themselves if they failed to recognize that recent racial disorders would adversely effect their election prospects and the "attitude of people toward the Negro."

To counter that effect, he said, the subject should be discussed fully, steps should be taken to eliminate Negro injustices, and local law enforcement should be strong and impartial.

Kennedy spoke at the opening of a campaign school for Democratic congressional candidates. Both parties opened three-day schools Thursday.

One listener suggested that the Democrats could blunt the backlash if Kennedy were the party's vice presidential nominee. Another, from Buffalo, N. Y., said there was "a real white backlash" in Buffalo and that Kennedy's nomination might offset it.

"I've thought about that a lot," Kennedy replied with a grain. "I talked to some of my friends last week and I decided I wouldn't run."

President Johnson announced last week he had eliminated Kennedy and all other cabinet members from consideration for the vice presidency.

Miss. Boards Appeal School Integration Order

JACKSON, Miss.—(UPI)— Three Mississippi school boards Monday appealed a federal judge's ruling that they must desegregate classrooms in at least one grade beginning in September.

The appeal to the U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals was filed in federal court here by attorneys for school boards in Jackson, Biloxi and rural Leake County. It will be forwarded to the appellate court in New Orleans.

Target of the appeal is a July 6 ruling by U.S. District Judge Sidney Mize, making permanent and injunction calling for the three schools to begin race mixing in public schools this fall.

It would be the first public school integration below the college level in Mississippi

Mize, in a lengthy opinion, said last month he had no choice but to order school integration. He said, however, evidence "points up a most serious situation and indeed 'crys out' for a reappraisal and complete reconsideration of the findings of the U. S. Supreme Court 1954 desegregation in the Brown decision.

MISS ANNETT CHURCH HONORED AT BIRTHDAY DINNER

COMING from the Nation's Capital last week were two charming members of one of Memphis' oldest and one of its most prominent families . . Miss Annett Church and Miss Roberta (daughter of the famed Mr. "Bob" Church) who for years has held a position that she was appointed to by the President of the United States.

Even though the two, who are still citizens of Memphis, came to Memphis to vote . . the red carpet has definitely been rolled out for the two gracious ladies who always love to come home .... and who always entertain for Memphis friends with pride when they visit D. C.

The party was spotlighted with Miss Annett Church's birthday celebration even though her niece shared honors. Adding a special brilliance to the champagne -dinner party, given at Mrs. Lucenia Cain's catering service residence on Effie Road, by Mrs. Harold Smith Sr. and her sister, Miss Alma Howard, was the long table overlaid with an exquisite white Damask cloth that featured a deep pink satin ribbon that centered the long table .... making a queenly effect.

Mrs. Smith, who sat at the head of the table, wore a lovely pink lace "after five" dress .... So did her sister wear an attractive pink lace frock. Miss Annette Church wore a beautiful green silk print . . while Miss Roberta Church wore a very pretty pure silk pink and white print.

Those who enjoyed the beautiful evening planned by Mrs. Smith and Miss Howard for their long time friends were Mrs. Walter Guy, Sr., Miss Isabel Greenlea, Mrs. R. T. Goldsby, Mrs. J. D. Williams, Sr (Bernice) and your columnist.'

CHAMPAGNE SIP COMPLIMENTS DR. AND MRS. WESTLEY GROVES

Dr. and Mrs. Westley Groves, a radiant young Los Angeles couple, were complimented Sunday evening with a champagne sip given by Mrs. Groves' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hayes, Jr. at their South Parkway residence. It was one of the gayest parties of the summer season.

Sharing honors during the evening in greeting old friends and being presented to new Memphians were Mrs. Hayes' sister, Mrs. Thelma Meadows Otten, who came from her home in Baltimore to join her nephew and niece here .... and Miss Roberta Church (Mrs. Hayes' long time friend since their days at Northwestern U.) and her aunt, Miss Annett Church who are usually the Hayes' housegues'ts.

Through a doorway flanked by an immense arrangement of flowers, many of the young couple's friends entered the living area first .... going later to the basement rumpus room where a long hors d' oeuvres table was centered with a beautiful pink and white bouquet sent the couple by Mr. and Mrs. A. Maceo Walker who were out -of-town and unable to attend the party. Another unusual feature on the table was a salad made into the form of a chicken.

Champagne was passed through the crowd throughout the evening and could also be picked up at the bar.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hayes chatted with each guest . . . and assisting them in receiving were another son - in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Harrison who came from their Nashville apartment for the event. Mrs. Hayes wore a smart deep rose frock . . and Mrs. Groves was especially pretty in a silk voil frock that featured a full white skirt with rows of tucks and a pale pink bodice that opened to the waist line matching her opera pumps. Also greeting guests were Mr. and Mrs. Taylor C. D. Hayes (Uncle Taylor).

Congress Backs Johnson's Move On Viet Nam

By STEVE GERSTEL

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Congress recently endorsed any actions President Johnson feels needed to repel Community attacks in Southeast Asia. Johnson promptly hailed the move as a demonstration of American determination to defend this country and its allies.

In a near-unanimous display of political unity, the Senate passed, 88 to 2, an emergency resolution approving "all necessary measures" by the President "to repel any armed attack against the forces of the United States and to prevent further aggression."

The House approved the measure June 30. The Leopoldville government, headed by President Joseph V. Kasabubu and Premier Moise Tshombe, was immersed in trouble. The key to the precarious Congo stability was the Congolese army which appeared incapable of supressing or even confining the rebellions which have begun mushrooming.

Harriman is understood to be pressing anew a U.S. proposal that Belgium send back to the Congo some of the military officers who formerly served there to help pull together the shattered national army. The United States, for its part, is prepared to increase its $9 million military aid program this year and supply more technicians.

NO HELP

However, the United States feels that additional military equipment will be of no help unless trained leadership supplied by the Belgians whips the 30,000-man army back into some semblance of order and discipline.

State Department Press Officer Robert J. McCloskey was unwilling to say Friday whether the United States might eventually consider sending its own troops into the area. He said he did not want to speculate.

Other officials, however, said this was not in the cards.

SITTING PRETTY—Miss Queen Hines, a junior at A&T College, sits atop a fence at the A&T College Farm on a recent outing. She is a native of Maxton, N. C.

"War On Poverty" Approved By House

By ARNOLD B. SAWISLAK

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The House approved August 8 a broadscale "war on poverty" program, assuring President Johnson of another major election-year legislative triumph.

The vote on the $947.5 million measure was 226 to 184. A compromise version will now be worked out with the Senate which has approved a similar bill.

The legislation, a keystone of Johnson's domestic program, would provide for training youths in new skills and work experience; underwrite locally - sponsored anti-poverty projects and extend additional federal aid to small farmers and businessmen in "poverty pockets."

When enacted, it will stand as one of Johnson's salient victories in Congress along with the civil rights and tax reduction bills.

PERSONAL SIGNIFICANCE

The measure had added personal significance for Johnson. It was the first major bill which he himself originated and piloted through the legislative mill. The civil rights and tax reduction proposals had their inception under the late President John F. Kennedy.

The legislation also will figure in the coming presidential campaign. The Republican presidential nominee, Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, opposed it as a "political grab bag."

Administration forces were in full command in what had been predicted as a close House fight. Before voting final passage, they beat back a Republican substitute bill by a 295 - 117 margin.

The GOP bill would have authorized a three-year, $1.5 billion program of grants to the states for education, health housing and employment programs.

FEATURES OF BILL

The administration bill contains these features:

--A civilian conservation corps type "Job Corps" for youngsters between 16 through 22 to teach new skills in camps and schools; a "work training" plan for 200,000 potential school drop outs, enabling them to earn money while continuing their education; a work study plan to help 140,000 needy college students with part - time jobs.

—$340 million in federal grants to local public and private agencies to carry out programs to meet adult illiteracy, lack of job training, substandard health conditions and slum housing.

—Farm loans of up to $2,500 for equipment and supplies; similar loans to finance non-farm businesses such sa welding shop in rural areas; grants to improve migrant worker housing .

Loans of up to $25,000 on liberal terms to small business in poverty areas.

GOP Nominee Goldwater Rejects Support Of Klansmen

Since there have been many interpretations on Senator Barry Goldwater's reference to extremism in his nomination acceptance speech at the Republican National Convention, we think it is timely and significant that the nominee forthrightly rejected the support of the members of the Ku Klux Klan.

Nominee Goldwater stated in a press conference on Aug. 6 that "We don't want the backing of the Ku Klux Klan and I don't think we will get it." The GOP nominee significantly added in reference to the Klan, "It has always been a Democratic organization." This is true.

We hope the nominee of the Democratic Party will also reject the political support of the Klan. Klansmen and the un-American spirit of the organization have taken a heavy toll on the lives of members of our racial group through the years. And the fact that four white persons are now being held as reported Klansmen for the wanton murder of educator and army official Lemuel Penn points up anew the menace of the Klan to the security of our race in particular and the community and nation in general.

Racial crimes must not be tolerated regardless to whom are guilty in such cases. Vigorous prosecution and conviction is only answer to such violence.

We note also the Senator seems to be making progress in healing some of the wounds created by his fight for his party's nomination. Former President Eisenhower, former Vice-President Nixon, Gov. Scranton and Gov. Rockefeller are reported as having agreed to support the Republican ticket, including the Senator.

It will be seen from the example set by these leaders that the party has something to salvage; that the party is bigger than any candidate is the creation of the party, not the party a creation of the candidate.

If nominee Goldwater continues to move back towards the center, or a more moderate position, he will be able to recover more support from leaders in his party.

Calls Bias Poll A Waste Of Time

WASHINGTON—(NNPA)—Hawaiian Sen. Daniel K. Inouye, 39, battle-scarred veteran of the famed 442nd Infantry Regimental Combat Team, has expressed surprise and dismay over finding much racial prejudice among whites in Maryland.

Reporting results of a personal survey, he said he was "shocked" at the bigotry existing in the State's Eastern Shore, hotbed of anti-Negro feelings.

According to the Senator, he made the poll, disguised as a reporter, in order to satisfy his "personal curiosity" about how Alabama Gov. George Wallace managed to win so many votes in the Maryland Democratic Primary so far away from home.

His finding: The white backlash is real and may hamper the election of President Johnson.

He could have done just as well in his own Senate office building on Constitution Avenue. Not even a microscope would help him unearth a colored person in some offices and he could count the top-bracket, high-salaried nonwhites (including persons of his ancestry) on his fingers.

The Senator fought heroically in World War II and retired as a captain, but he would face the same fruitless search at the Pentagon, which has one nonwhite general officer (Maj. Gen. B. O. Davis, Jr.).

Or Mr. Inouye could have listened more intently to the debate on the Civil Rights Bill that swirled about his seat on the Senate floor. He could have looked up to the public galleries and witnessed the pleased expressions on many white faces when his Southern colleagues ranted and raved against the legislation.

Without leaving his office, he could have expertly summarized the situation by merely watching TV during last month's Republican National Convention at San Francisco.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF — No one is quite certain why he did it, but Rep. William E. Miller, the Republican Vice-Presidential nominee, called on Clay Claiborne, of Atlantic City, his colored Special Assistant, to arrange for the transportation of himself, wife and friends from San Francisco to his Olcott, N. Y. home following the GOP National Convention.

Claiborne, who replaced Louis Lautier as the Republicans' expert on minorities, made all arangements for tickets (which were delivered to him) and personally escorted the Millers into their plane. On his recommendation, he was he first to leave the plane at Buffalo and Olcott, and the Millers were the last. The airline's representatives were flabbergasted when they were told by Miller to "clear everything with Clay."

THE DEMISE of Claude Barnett's Associated Negro Press (ANP) saw the rise of Lee Blackwell's Negro Press International. ANP's Washington correspondent Adolph Slaughter (now representing NPI) plans to start his own news agency. He will call it the National News Service.

NOAH WILLIAMS of the Census Bureau has been commended for his efforts in training the staff of the Liberian National Planning Agency in Monrovia in the operation of data processing machines for Liberia's first national census.

WITHOUT FUSS or stir, colored families have been moving into previously all-white suburban communities in the D. C. area during the past year. Nonwhites also are spreading out in the Baltimore area and now live in over 30 per cent of the city's districts.

MRS. MAIDA SPRINGER of the AFL-CIO's Department of International Affairs, is serving as coordinator of the federation's program of finding summer jobs for African college students.

CLINTON E. KNOX, new Ambassador to Dahomeny, was the guest of honor at a dinner given last week by the Dahomey Charge d'Affaires Antoine Andre at the Avignone Freres Restaurant. He brought along his wife, son and daughter.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Belafonte, Poitier Deliver $70,000 Miss. Project Check

JACKSON, Miss. — (UPI) — Entertainers Harry Belafonte and Sidney Poitier left Mississippi Tuesday after presenting integrationists with a $70,000 check to carry on the civil rights project in which three young men lost their lives.

About the time the two entertainers departed, the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO), a coalition of civil rights groups sponsoring the "Mississippi Summer Project," reported another Negro church was burned Monday night near Canton.

More than a dozen Negro church burnings have been reported at various points in the state in recent weeks.

COFO said the Mount Pleasant Church at Gluckstadt Community, about eight miles south of Canton, was found severely damaged by a fire, believed started by arsonists. The church was being used for "freedom school" classes.

The investigation of the slaying of three project workers whose bodies were found last week near Philadelphia, Miss., was continuing. President Johnson said last Saturday that an early break was expected in the case, but the FBI refused to comment on the status of the investigation, or on reports that failure to find a murder weapon was holding up arrests.

The victims, two white New Yorkers and a Meridian, Miss., Negro, had been taking part in the Mississippi project aimed at helping Negroes pass voter registration test. The three had gone to Philadelphia in June to check on the burning of a Negro church.

Belafonte and Poitier arrived in Greenwood Monday afternoon and presented a $70,000 check to the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). They said the money was raised in New York and other Eastern points by a number of entertainers in speaking and singing engagements.

Stuffs Wife's Body Into Car's Trunk, Buries Both

LAKE CITY, Fla.—(UPI)—A car containing the body of a Negro woman was unearthed near here Monday in a giant hole where the woman's ex-husband said he buried it last week.

Odel Jones, 31, took Riviera Beach Police Chief Lenny Cottrell and local deputy sheriffs to the wooded area 10 miles west of here where the car was buried.

No charge were immediately filed against Jones, Authorities said an autopsy of the woman's body would be made.

Cottrell brought Jones here when the man told him of burying the car and body while he was being questioned about his ex-wife's whereabouts.

Jones told authorities he had an argument with the woman, Mrs Elizabeth Jones, 33, last Tuesday night and she fell into a swimming pool and drowned when he push her.

He said he then put the body in the trunk of the car and drove to Lake City where he had lived about 13 years ago.

He dug all day Wednesday with a hand shovel in the sandy soil and on Thursday drove the car into the hole which by then was some six feet deep, eight feet wide and 20 feet long.

The man filled the hole and when he was finished the top of the car was covered with 15 inches of sand.

When authorities dug up the car Monday with the help of hired laborers, they found Mrs. Jones' body in the trunk. She had been employed as a maid in Palm Beach.

National Medical Association Installs Dr. Cobb As President

WASHINGTON—(NNPA)—Dr. W. Montague Cobb of Howard University was installed Aug. 4 as president of the 5,000-member National Medical Association.

A professor and head of the Department of Anatomy at Howard, Dr. Cobb told the NMA annual convention in the Statler-Hilton Hotel that more attention must be given programs designed to attract minority group youths into medical careers.

He said a major effort was needed to encourage young Neogres to pass through the many doors of opportunity now opening — especially in medicine.

Long a leader in the struggle for equal rights in the health field, Dr. Cobb pledged to continue the association's campaign to "wash away" the last remnants of medical and hospital segregation.

TALENT RECRUITING

The most important work now facing the NMA, he said, was to establish a council on talent recruitment and another on financial aid to find and support deserving students. He observed that some medical schools still refuse to accept nonwhites, but emphasized that most of the schools that do have more openings than there are qualified nonwhites to fill them.

Dr. Cobb listed the Universities of Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, and South Carolina as institutions which still bar Negroes from their medical schools. He noted that medical schools in the North and West are either making no racial distinctions or are increasing the number of nonwhite students they admit.

During a panel session on Monday, Dr. Leonidas H. Berry, of Chicago, criticized past recruitment efforts for failure to make clear that "there is room for all races in the medical field." He told of an experiment at the University of Chicago last spring in which some 800 students and parents learned of the opportunities available in a number of health careers.

Other speakers touched on problems facing the profession in other parts of the country. Dr E L Rann, of Charlotte, N C) declared that discrimination in hospitals there was "just about licked," but said token desegregation would be the rule until more young people are prepared for the openings.

Dr. C A P. Brown, of New York City, commented on the Manhattan Central Medical Society's efforts to help provide more suitable materials for a new program now underway in 11 junior high schools.

Citations were presented to 21 physicians and laymen during Tuesday's session. Among those honored were Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R.-N. Y.); Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D.-N.Y.); Andrew T. Hatcher, former White House Associate Press Secretary; Dr. James Nabrit, Jr., president of Howard University, James Farmer, national director of CORE; Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the NAACP; and Whitney Young, Jr., executive director of the National Urban League, which then was holding its annual conference in Louisville, Ky.

Wiggins, of Camden, N. J., by Sen. Clifford P. Case (R.-N.J.), and Rep. Augustus F. (Gus) Hawkins (D.-Calif.). Walter E. The plan was drawn up by a 14-member bi-racial committee formed last week at the heighth of tension as the NAACP chapter in Monroe pushed for the desegregation of movies and restaurants.

Other points of the plan call for dealing firmly with all forms of lawlessness and violence, recognizing the rights of individuals to their opinions and expressing it in orderly manner, observing of laws with differences being discussed with the committee, encouraging the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, and regularly in dealing with matters of specific nature without loss of time.

Governor Clement lost his bid for the U. S. Senate in the Democratic primary last week. It was a sad day for his boosters.

Yet, some observers believed Ben Hooks will be able to rise out of this with a new image. Many believe he had tired of his role with the Republican Lincoln League, realizing that there wasn't much left for him there. He could have swung over to the growing New Guard Republicans headed by Bob James, but this would have swung over to the growing New Guard Republicans headed by Bob James, but this would have been too much of a blow to his friend, Old Guard leader George Lee. No doubt about it, Mr. James tried to latch onto Attorney Hooks.

But, observers believe young Attorney Hooks sees a brighter day with the Democrats. If not in Memphis, why not in Detroit? At least he has made his big move.

In his campaign speeches, Mr. Morris said he would not discriminate in hiring.

MY WEEKLY SERMON

By

REV BLAIR T. HUNT

PASTOR,

MISSISSIPPI BLVD. CHRISTIAN CHURCH

SUBJECT: HE DIDN'T GO TO CHURCH

TEXT: "How Be It He Entered Not Into The Temple Of The Lord, And The People Did Yet Corruptly." II Chronicles 27:2

—0—

Here is a modern story. Jotham one - time king in Jerusalem is the star.

Jotham was greatly admired. He possessed fine gifts. He was intellectual. He was king but he didn't go to church.

He was a bundle of energy .... mentally alert ... physically smart. But he didn't go to church.

He was a great soldier .... a great builder. He considered the church a great asset. He contributed to the support of the church. The writer of the chronicles tells us that he donated a beautiful gate to the church. But he didn't go to church. He lived a well ordered life. He was a person of fine character. But he didn't go to church.

I have known men and women like unto him .... fine characters .... clean courteous, alert, charitable. But they didn't go to church!

!Many, many good things have been said of Jotham. But there was one costly criticism .... one deadly blunder: "He didn't go to church!

I dare say he never formed the habit of going to church in his childhood days.

I dare say he felt he was too busy organizing and building armies, forts and cities. No doubt he felt "Doing Good Is My Religion." Yet Jesus was busy "doing good." He went about doing good .. building a city, four square .... the home of our souls. But he was not too busy to attend church. "He went up into the synagogue on the Sabbath ,as his custom was."

There, no doubt, were other reasons, Jotham thought. Doubtless, he never reasoned: No church means no worship .... no worship means no religion .... no religion means no morality .... no morality means no society .... no society means chaos, destruction, hell!

Jotham didn't go to church What was the outcome? "The people did honor him .. they copied him, corruptly." The people loved him .... honored him .... they copied him. Somebody today is copying you. Father, your lad admires you .... unconsciously he is copying you. Jotham didn't go to church. He caused his people to stumble.

On his tombstone could be engraved, "He didn't go to Church. His people did yet corruptly."

But back to the church .... the church, the mother of heroes crowned and uncrowned .. "the church that Jesus loved and for it gave His Life." (Ehesians 5:25) .... The church that makes weak men strong and strong men holy. The church that brings good news .. the church is God's trysting place.

Fail not to go to church .... worship Christ. Commune with Christ. Another's lips may form the words, the sermon, the prayers .... But I make those words mine. Another's brain may compose the songs, but I make the melody mine.

I don't just sit and listen. I worship in our corporate prayers, songs and services. So, I go to church. I drink in the soothing music of the master, I find peace, joy and contentment. I feel the wonder and rapture of God's presence, I find mercy and pardon. I do go to church. Jesus gave himself for the church of his day. He died for it .. and out of his death came another church .. the Church of Christ ... A church rooted in the dreams of the prophet .. the vestibule of heaven .. the dressing room of paradise .... the highway to eternity!

Drummer Slain In Rent Argument

Too Early To Tell In Florida, Gov. Bryant Declares

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Florida Gov. Farris Bryant said Monday he could see no trend in his state at the present time for either President Johnson or Sen. Barry Goldwater.

"It's too early to tell," Bryant said.

He said there had been an "upsurge" for the Republican presidential candidate following the GOP convention. But he said "there probably will be a similar upsurge for Johnson" following the Democratic convention.

He said the political picture in his state "won't clear" until sometime after the Democratic convention later this month. Florida has voted Republican for the last three presidential elections.

Weaver Says Group To Break Ghettos

Addresses National Real Estate Brokers

PHILADELPHIA — (NNPA) — Housing Administrator Robert C. Weaver said here last Wednesday that the "broader spread of rent levels in urban renewal areas is slowly giving nonwhites a chance to move out of racial ghettos into what appears to be stable ethnically integrated neighborhoods."

He told the 17th annual convention of the National Association of Real Estate Brokers that the long, pent-up demands of colored people have been and still are to be satisfied chiefly by the older existing housing.

The older housing, he said, is "ill adapted and over-priced as these units often are in a restricted market."

But Dr. Weaver said the Government's new housing program will supplement this supply, thereby easing pressures, providing greater choices, and reducing the price of the existing supply.

CONSTRUCTIVE IMPACT

The housing chief said the Executive Order on Equal Opportunity in Housing signed by President Kennedy has had "a constructive, though limited, impact."

"Adverse effects predicted in many quarters just prior to and after the President issued the order in Nov. 1962, have not occurred," he added.

Instead, he continued, peaceable integration of housing has been accelerated as a result of a clear, positive Federal position regarding freedom of residence. None of the programs administered by constituent agencies of the Housing and Home Finance Agency have been "significantly impaired" by the order.

Dr. Weaver expressed the view that the influence of the housing order had helped to pave the way for the 1964 Civil Rights Act and had encouraged voluntary desegregation of facilities.

But he pointed out that a study prepared by his agency shows that few houses in FHA-insured single-family home developments have been bought by nonwhites, although the sales are covered by the order.

"Our investigation indicates," Dr. Weaver said, "that builders have not put out the welcome mat for nonwhite prospects." He blamed this on the belief of FHA builders that they are at a disadvantage in comparison to conventionally-financed competitors who are not to the non-discrimination requirement.

"This feeling," he contended, subtly influences marketing and sales practices."

Tshombe Says Congo Can Crush Red Rebels

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo — (UPI) — Premier Moise Thombe said Sunday the Congo does not need foreign military assistance to crush Communist-backed rebels who have overrun wide areas of the Eastern Congo since the U.N. peacekeeping forces were withdrawn several weeks ago.

But he added that anyone who opposes Chinese Communist "intervention" in this African republic should be interested in helping his government in the fight against the rebel forces.

A rebel prisoner was quoted as saying in Elizabethville that three Chinese Communists were with his forces in Baudounville but left two days before counterattacking government troops recaptured the town on Lake Tanganyika.

Tshombe spoke to newsmen in his presidential villa overlooking the Congo River here amid reports of new government setbacks.

He said the Congolese national army and his former Katanga gendarmes would have the rebellion, which has spread over an area the size of California under control "in a few days."

Shortly before the news conference, however, Brazzaville radio in the former French Congo across the river reported that rebels were fighting in Luluaburg, capital of the province of the province of the same name and the most recent scene of reported uprisings against the central government.

Legal Troubles Continue To Mount For Mortician

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. — (NPI) —I. C. Collins, widely known mortician and fraternalist awaiting September sentencing by a federal court on charges of income tax evasion, learned last week that his troubles were just beginning.

Collins now faces a $50,000 damage suit, filed against him in 57th moved a body from a grave and had it reburied in another plot.

The damage suit, is being brought by Clifton Nixon, who alleges that the Collins Funeral home handled the burial of his mother, Mrs. Sallie Fields in September, 1963, at a cost of $695, including $87.50 for a plot.

According to the complaint, when Nixon went to the cemetery to place flowers on the grave last March 27, he discovered that Collins had without his permission or knowledge dug up and removed the coffin containing his mother's remains; that the grave in which the remains were reburied cost $27.50 less than the original plot.

Collins was indicted on two counts of income tax evasions by an El Paso grand jury last April 15. He pleaded guilty to the charges, on June 25, and sentencing was set for September.

NAACP Efforts To Prevent Racial Trouble Continue

NEW YORK — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, through its local units, continued efforts to head off further racial outbreaks in a series of conferences with public officials and community leaders.

Editorializing on the NAACP effort in the Southwest, The Dallas Times Herald said: "The Southwest can be spared the mob violence which has cropped up in some sections of the country if the leaders of both the white and the Negro communities work together to restrain lawless elements and the quick-tempered.

"The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is moving to head off trouble before it spreads to this area. Clarence A. Laws, the regional director of the NAACP, displayed responsible leadership when he urged NAACP branch leaders to be alert for any signs of racial strife."

In Dallas, Mr. Laws headed a five-man committee which drew up a 20-point racial harmony program calling for establishment of a bi-racial commission in the city government. Other recommendations of the program included acceleration of school desegregation; expanded job opportunities; curbing of police brutality; rigid enforcement of fire, health and building statutes ;enlarged recreational facilities; and abolition of discriminatory practices in health and hospital facilities.

Sunday School Lesson

FAITH ON TRIAL

International Sunday School Lesson for August 16, 1964

MEMORY SELECTION: "Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the Lord!"

—(Psalms 31:24)

LESSON TEXT: No. 11 thru 14.

Failure is an ugly, crushing word yet that is the sum and total of the lesson we are studying today. The Israelites failed to act in faith and take possession of the land which God had promised them, and they therefore reaped the punishment which came as a result of their decision. A harsh lesson to learn, but, nevertheless, one which needs to be heeded.

Th Israelites had come through much together, in their journey towards freedom and the Promised Land. A quick recap of their progress will reveal (1) they left Mount Sinai with a body of laws governing every area of their lives, in the form of the Ten Commandments; (2) a tabernacle for worship; (3) an organized priestly group to lead them in their devotions; (4) a new awareness of their covenant relationship with God, and (5) a dawning awareness of their part in his redemptive purpose.

The plan was to enter the Promised Land from the point of their encampment. But before this move was attempted, Moses was directed to send men up into the land to survey it. Twelve men were therefore appointed — one from each tribe — and they were to report back to the people in regard to the fertility of the land, its products, its cities ..... the nature of the people who dwelt therein.

It is not too difficult to imagine the anticipation of Moses and the people as they awaited the report of their "spies". It is not too difficult to imagine their joy as the spies reported on the fertility of the land as they sampled the grapes brought back by the twelve, and found them to be good. But here dissension raised its head. Regarding the matter of going in at once to possess the land, the spies disagreed violently. Only two were in favor of it — Joshua and Caleb. The rest protested that it was a land of giants, that they would be slaughtered as a result. They advocated a policy of "wait .... Wait". Joshua and Caleb were outnumbered; the vote went with the majority report. And disappointment, disobedience, and even defiance followed on the part of the Israelites. Some even advocated returning to Egypt, despite the fact that it would mean a return to slavery, and the admission that the exodus had been a failure.

The unrest and dissatisfaction spread, and the revolt against Moses ensued. And this turning against their leader reflected lack of faith in God. Small wonder, then, after having brought them through so many hardships, after having provided for their needs in so many miraculous ways, God's patience was sorely tried Small wonder, that He was finally driven to pronounce a harsh punishment for those whose faith was so small!

Faith almost always involves a certain degree of risk. The larger the goals, the greater the risk involved, and the faith required to overcome all obstacles. Lofty objectives cannot be obtained easily, without strain, or without taking the long viewpoint. There is hardly a man alive who cannot testify to that fact. There is hardly a day that goes by that we are not called upon to accept something in absolute faith, whether it be an act, or another human being.

Coercion by fear has never been the Christian motivation for obedience. We do not obey God because of our fear of Him, and the consequences of our disobedience. If we are true Christians — If we are truly motivated by our expressed beliefs — we obey God's doctrines out of a spirit of love.

But the lesson of obedience rooted in love was one lesson the nomad Israelites had yet to learn. Perhaps the fact that they learned it the hard way made the lesson more enduring. Most certainly these passages hold a lesson for us today, and we would do well to take heed.

ADA Urges Dems Seat 'Freedom' Delegation

WASHINGTON—(NNPA) — The Americans for Democratic Action on Sunday urged delegates to the 1964 Democratic National Convention to seat the Freedom Democratic Party and refuse dmission to the segregated Mississippi delegation.

In a letter to the delegates, the ADA said "it would be a tragic travesty on justice and the principles of the Democratic Party if this National Convention were to support the very power structure of Mississippi responsible for the murder of three young Americans working for the constitutional rights of their fellow citizens, and refuse to seat the group for whom they have given their lives."

"On the other hand," the letter continued, "the Freedom Democratic Party is open to all citizens of Mississippi regardless of race. Further, it is the only organized group of Democrats in Mississippi who will support the platform adopted and the anddates selected by the National Convention.

The letter was signed by John P. Roche, ADA national chairman; Joseph L. Rauh, Jr., national vice chairman; Rep Don Edwards (D.-Calif.) and Rep. Robert W. Kastenmeier (D.-Wisc.)

No Time To Goof Off, Youth Tops Nation's Cadets

BALTIMORE, Md.—"You never know when someone is looking at you. You can't slack off for a minute. Some fellows felt they needed time to goof off but you can't . . ."

This simple statement explains how Morgan Senior, James A. Scott was selected top cadet over 3,900 students from 80 colleges and universities throughout the United States.

The students were attending the 1964 Summer Camp at Indiantown Gap Military Reservation, Annville Pa. The sixweek encampment ended July 31.

Cadet Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Ford of 1712 Madison Avenue, returned to the Morgan campus this week.

In a conference Tuesday with Dr. Martin D. Jenkins, president he showed his awards—The Association of the United States Army Medal and a certificate for his outstanding performance at the 1964 ROTC summer camp.

Also a silver engraved watch for being the outstanding cadet in battalion competition was presented to Cadet Scott. He represented the third battalion.

For cadet Scott the most thrilling reward was being named brigade commander and leading the dress parade on the final day.

SERVICE TOO FAST

FPHRATA, Wash. — When two deputies were sent on an assignment, they assumed the Grant county sheriff wanted them to hurry. Riding in an unmarked car and without a siren, the officers sped through stop signs and red lights. They were chased by Soap Lake police officers who reported speeds in excess of 110 miles an hour. The deputies were fined five days pay for "unbecoming conduct."

Calls Slaying Of Rights Workers 'Lynch-Murder'

NEW YORK — "Lynch-murders" was the term used by Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, to describe the brutal slaying of the three civil rights workers whose bodies were discovered buried on a farm near Philadelphia, Mississippi.

Mr. Wilkins declared: "The wanton lynch-murders of Michael Schwerner, Andrew Goodman and James Chaney by lawless elements in Mississippi have added to the state's already bloody record, which is being spread this summer before a shocked nation and the world."

The three, missing since June 21, were found by FBI agents, August 4, buried near the base of a fresh earth dam, 20 feet down, on the farm of Olen Burrage.

Not Surprised At Arrest Of Four Klan Members

WASHINGTON—(NNPA)—Mrs. George Penn, wife of slain Lt. Col. Lemuel A. Penn, 48, said Aug. 6 she had "prayed for the souls" of the guilty men who were arrested that day in Georgia.

The widow said she was not surprised at the arrest of the four members of the Ku Klux Klan and added that she was "certain all along that God would punish them," whether they were apprehended or not. She he'd hope that "eventually, their consciences would catch up with them."

"People like that commit crimes because they are ignorant," Mrs. Penn continued. "They need special help and an education."

Mrs. Penn, whose husband was head of adult and vocational education in the D.C. schools, said had received a lot of "beautiful" letters and an "ugly" one or two since he was shot from another car while driving home last July 11 from reserve training at Fort Benning, Ga. Many of the letters came from the South.

ARRESTS ANNOUNCED

The FBI announced Thursday Aug. 6 that its agents had arrested Joseph Howard Sims, 41, a machinest; Cecil William Myers, 25, a yarn picker and laborer; James S. Lackey, 23, a gasoline station employee, and Herbert Guest, 37, operator of a garage, in connection with Penn's death.

Mr. Penn, who was struck in the neck by a blast from a shotgun about 23 miles northeast of Athens, Ga., was accompanied by Lt. Col. John D. Howard, 42, and Major Charles E. Brown, 40, both of Washington. The two escaped injury.

In commenting on the arrests, Georgia Gov. Carl Sanders said the FBI and other law enforcement officers should be congratulated for their work in the case. He said he was sorry for the families involved on both sides — Penn's as well as the arrested men—because their families will have "to bear the burden of this nonsensical act."

Edward Hailes, head of the D.C. NAACP, said the arrests were "most heartening" and that he now hopes "it is possible to get the four men convicted — if they are guilty."

A White House spokesman said President Johnson had expressed satisfaction with efforts of the FBI and the Georgia police department in apprehending the four men accused of the crime.

KU KLUX KLANSMEN ARRESTED—Four members of the Ku Klux Klan were arrested by the FBI in Athens, Ga., in connection with the July 11 shotgun slaying of Lt. Col. Lemuel E. Penn, a Negro Army Reserve officer returning to Washington, D.C., after a duty tour at Ft. Benning, Ga. He also was an educator. The four men are Herbert Guest (upper left), 37; Joseph Howard Sims (upper right), 41; Cecil William Myers (lower left), 25, and James S. Lackey, 28, who was said to have confessed and implicated the other three. All the suspects live in Athens.

New Housing Plan By League To Aid Minority

LOUISVILLE—The Urban League this week disclosed a new housing plan for the Greater New York City Metropolitan Area designed to assist Negro families exchange ghetto housing for suburban quarters.

The plan—the first of its kind encompassing an entire region — is known as "Operation Equality." It has been formulated to enable Negroes in overcrowded communities such as Harlem and Newark to obtain housing in less densely populated areas.

Participating in the plan are the Urban League branches of Greater New York; Westchester, (White Plains, N. Y.); Essex County, (Newark); Brunswick, (N.J.); Eastern Union County, (Elizabeth, N. J.); and Greater New Haven, (Conn.).

Paget L. Alves, Jr., National League associate director for housing, said the plan represents the first time a regional clearing house will be established to bring together white property-owners seeking to sell or rent shelter and prospective Negro tenants or home-buyers. The plan will be directed initially by the National Urban League headquarters in New York City.

It is expected that other Urban League agencies in cities across the nation will formulate similar plans in the forseeable future.

Alves said League officials are greatly concerned by the limited housing supply available to Negroes; the high population densities in Negro communities; the high rate of dilapidation and substandard housing affecting them; and the "color tax" — a surcharge which Negroes pay for their quarters because of the artificially limited supply. Recent survery by the Chicago and Cleveland Urban Leagues indicate that such taxes drain Negro communities of millions of dollars annually.

Nationally, 44 percent of all Negro families reside in substandard dwelling units compared to 13 percent for white families and overcrowding among Negroes is much greater. Alves said the participating Urban Leagues would attempt to circulate information about housing available in the less densely populated communities and match the supply with a list of financially qualified families seeking to leave the ghettos.

"A missionary effort may be made to stimulate establishment of voluntary citizen groups in each suburb to facilitate the entry of non-white families and efforts will be made to secure cooperation of white and Negro real estate brokers," Alves said.

BLIND WOMAN HELPED OTHERS GET EDUCATION

WASHINGTON — (NNPA) — Miss Esther Dillard will be missed from her concession stand in the USIA building at Seventeenth Street and New York Avenue.

Blind since she was 16, Miss Dillard had put two children (not her own) through high school and college and raised two other teenagers before she succumbed to a heart attack Aug. 5 at the age of 64.

Miss Dillard became a social worker after graduating from Howard University. She taught weaving and other crafts for many years and was one of the founders of the Washington Home for the Blind. At the time of her death, it was her habit to read about five books for the blind a week which she obtained from the Library of Congress.

Before taking over the concession stand in the USIA building, she had operated the concession stand in the Main Navy Department building, Tempo 3, for 22 years.

Funeral services for Miss Dillard were held August 8, with burial in Woodlawn cemetery.

Shriver Tells Congress Peace Corps Saves Money

WASHINGTON — Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver told Congress this week that his agency is a tight little financial island in the vast sea of government spending.

In testimony before the Senate Appropriations Committee, Shriver cited facts and figures to show how the Peace Corps is cutting costs and increasing efficiency in the far-flung Peace Corps operation.

Shriver asked the committee to approve $106.1 million to operate the Peace Corps during the year began July 1, compared to $104.1 million voted by the House.

To support his request, Shriver told the committee the Peace Corps was saving money in many ways, and that every cent of the appropriation would be spend wisely.

When the Peace Corps began, Shriver recalled, the cost of maintaining a Volunteer overseas topped the $9,000 per year mark. This figure has since been cut to $7,825, a saving of 13 per cent.

Although the number of Volunteers overseas has grown, the Washington headquarters staff has been reduced from 533 permanent employees on June 30, 1963, to only 517 on June 30, 1964, he pointed out.

"And this decrease will be maintained 100 per cent," he promised, even though the Peace Corps Volunteer force is expectd to reach 14,000 soon.

There are currently about 10,000 Volunteers already serving overseas or in training. Applications for Peace Corps service increased from 17,851 in 1962 to 32,805 in 1963 and 45,770 in fiscal 1964, Shriver said. He estimated they would reach 60,000 in 965.

In spite of the growing number of Volunteers, Shriver told the committee that the Peace Corps still cannot meet the great demand from abroad, which is growing more rapidly than the supply as developing nations learn about the value of Peace Corps projects.

During the past few weeks the pennant race in each league seems to have tightened up quite a bit with the Yankees, Orioles and White Sox only a game or two apart for first place in the American League, and Philadelphia, and San Francisco fighting it out for first place in the National, with Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Milwaukee and St. Louis only a few games back.

So, it is still anybody's pennant and the lead is likely to change several times before the season ends. The teams in both leagues haven't bee nable to put on an extended winning streak. The longest in the National this season was six games by St. Louis, while over in the American the competition has been just as tight.

It could go down to the wire in to about evenly matched. There both leagues as the teams appear are some who thought the Yankees had made their move when they took over the lead a few weeks ago, but the Orioles have been hanging in there.

RFK Says Won't Run Unless Okayed By Mayor

NEW YOR K— (UPI) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said Monday he would not run for U.S. senator from New York state without the approval of Mayor Robert F. Wagner who, as the state party's titular head, showed little enthusiasm for the idea.

Although Wagner's reaction did not close the door on the possibility of Kennedy becoming the Democratic nominee to oppose Republican Sen. Kenneth Keating in November, it did nothing to help along a "draft" movement Kennedy forces have been trying to develop.

Kennedy had once ruled out the possibility of his becoming a senatorial candidate. But he reconsidered when President Johnson ruled him out as a vice presidential running mate.

Kennedy and Wagner both spoke Monday at the American Bar Association convention.

Kennedy told newsmen that he would not, under any circumstances, run "without the approval" of Wagner.

"If I would disrupt the Democratic party in New York, I would not come into the state," he said.

Wagner was asked to comment on reports that Kennedy had the support of Rep. Adam Clayton Powell of Harlem and three county leaders, Rep. Charles A. Buckley of the Bronx, Peter J. Crotty of Buffalo and Stanley Steingut of Brooklyn — all foes of Wagner in intra-party battles.

"I am sure any candidate would want far wider support than that," Wagner said crisply.

He said that Kennedy had his "personal esteem" and that, if the late President's brother should decide to run, that every consideration should be given to his bid for the nomination. "I think, however, that we have quite a number of local candidates," Wagner said.

Violence Erupts In Dallas; Youth Slain, 3 Wounded

DALLAS — (UPI) — Gunfire erupted in two separate racial outbreaks early Sunday. One white youth was killed and three others wounded.

Billy Wayne Wallace, 18, was shot to death following what homicide Capt. Will Fritz said was a "teenage name calling session near the shores of White Rock Lake. Four Negroes were being held for questioning in the shooting.

An earlier incident about the same time near downtown Dallas, two 23-year-old white men, Joel Bolin and Thurman Boyd, were shot and wounded by Negro attackers, who fled in the early morning darkness.

The racial outbreaks follow closely on the heels of a prediction by some civil rights leaders that Dallas could have trouble between the races. Last week Dallas Police Chief Jesse Curry said he wanted to up the number of race riot-trained police for the city.

Clarence Laws, regional director for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said "in my opinion the shootings are not racial incidents, and the people of Dallas ought to have all facts before making judgement."

NAACP Asks Help In Monroe, Slate Rights Arrests

MONROE, Ga. — (SNS) — Youth Field Secretary NAACP, Bobby L. Hill in a wire to Attorney General Robert Kennedy requested "immediate action" by the Justice Department "to enjoin local and State officials from what is a clear violation of the laws of the land.

In another wire to Attorney General State of Georgia, Mr. Eugene Cook, the NAACP said, "recent arrests of Negroes who sought service at public places in Monroe, Ga. by county officials, and threats of further arrests throughout the state prompts this request:

"We request that you, Mr. Cook, advise all local and state officials of their new responsibilities as they relate to the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

"We request that you advise law enforcement officials, throughout the state, that arrest of citizens who seek service at "public places," in an orderly fashion, is now illegal and is in fact a criminal act, by those officials.

"We request that you spare the state and the many un-knowledgeable enforcement officials throughout the state the confusion and embarrassment which necessarily flows from these arrests by clearly outlining what they may and may not do, legally.

"We request that you, Mr. Attorney General, take the initiative of informing us all of our rights, so we all may act to mitigate the unwarranted arrests, cost, ill-will, and time which follows our collective ignorance."

"We request that, as a first positive step you take the immediate action to have the five Negroes released who are now being held without cause, by officials at Monroe, Georgia."

Six youths remained in jail for the fifth day — waiting action by the federal officials. All Monroe establishments yet refuse service to Negroes, it was stated.

The state NAACP was refused in its request to Attorney General Eugene Cook.

Cook answered the NAACP by saying it was the responsibility of the federal government to enforce the civil rights act, and that it is now unlawful to arrest persons who sought service at places of public accommodation.

Crime has increased five times faster than the national population since 1958. J. Edgar Hoover, director of the F.B.I. said the cost of crime now is conservatively estimated at $27,000,000,000.

Segregation Bars Crumble In Mobile

MOBILE, Ala. - Segregation crumbled in two more areas this week as a result of the vigilant joint action of the Non-Partisan Voters League and the Citizens' Committee, under the direction of J. L. FeFlore, director of case work for the Citizens' Committee.

A petition was filed several weeks ago with the Mobile County Board of Registrars against segregation in the board's facilities, by J. L. LeFlore, director of case work for the Citizens Committee.

LeFlore said in the petition that segregation of any public facility is unconstitutional and cited federal court decisions to uphold his contention. He would not name the other area where desegregation was achieved, pointing out that he would be reluctant to issue a public statement on the question without te consent of others concerned.

Rowan Compares Rights Bill With Declaration

WASHINGTON — (NNPA) — USIA Director Carl T. Rowan told the annual convention of the American Field Service Monday that the 1964 Civil Rights Bill "is a document of the same revolutionary implications as the Declaration of Independence.

Addressing the 50th anniversary convention of the organization dedicated to the international exchange of students, Mr. Rowan credited President Kennedy with proposing the legislation and said President Johnson "promoted it through Congress and signed it into law."

"But it was Jefferson, and Benjamin Franklin and George Washington who planted the seed of that law," Mr. Rowan added. "That law will change America. It will bring all Americans closer to the promise of 1776. To the Negro minority of the United States it will bring new opportunities and ever-increasing fulfillment of the American dream."

The man responsible for projecting the image of America around the world praised the American Field Service for providing scholarships to the colored minority in the United States which "already stands high economically relative to most other people of the world."

He noted that there are more nonwhites in American universities than there are Germans in German universities, and observed that "American Negroes own more automobiles than all the peoples of Africa put together, plus the entire population of Russia.

"These are impressive facts," Mr. Rowan concluded. "But Americans know that they are not enough That is why racial unrest lingers in this country — not because the Negro has not made progress, but because both he, and the overwhelming majority of white Americans.

Some Weep, Others Gaze Silently At Rites For Goodman

NEW YORK — (UPI) — A middle-age woman wept uncontrollably. "They killed him, my baby. They killed him," she moaned.

Four other women three of them white, one a Negro—linked hands and swayed together as they sang the civil rights anthem, "We Shall Overcome."

Some of the crowd joined in softly but most stood silently Sunday as a polished oak coffin bearing the body of Andrew Goodman was placed in a hearse bound for Mt. Judah Cemetery in Queens.

More than 6,000 persons gathered to pay their last respects to the 20-year-old college student, one of three civil rights workers killed seven weeks ago in Mississippi.

Some 2,000 sat in oak pews and several hundred more lined the paneled walls of the meeting hall of Ethical Culture Society. Another 4,000 waited quietly outside during the hour-long service.

Among the mourners was Mrs. Patty Smith, who had been housekeeper to the Goodmans for 15 years. "I raised that boy since he was born," she wept "They killed him, my baby. They killed him."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Goodman, parents of the dead youth, his two younger brothers, David and Jonathan, and other members of the family sat motionless in front pews facing the sealed coffin during the service.

Also at the services were the immediate families of the other two slain Mississippi volunteers whose shot and beaten bodies were unearthed Tuesday near Philadelphia, Miss.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Schwerner of Pelham, N. Y. and Mrs. Rita Schwerner of Brooklyn, parents and wife of Michael Schwerner, 24, were to attend memorial services for him Sunday night. His body arrived at Newark Airport Sunday shortly after services for Andrew ended.

Mrs. Fannie Lee Chaney of Meridan, Miss., mother of James E. Chaney, 21, traveled to New York after her son's funeral Friday night at Meridan.

Touching Memorial For Miss. Victim

JACKSON, Miss. -(UPI)- While FBI agents searched for the weapon that killed three civil rights workers, a minister told an emotional crowd Friday night that the men died doing "what they had to do."

A young civil rights worker, speaking before 700 persons jammed into a Baptist church at Merdan, for the serves, broke into tears and said "I am going to tell yon what is in my heart.

"If you go back home and take discrimination, now then I say G-D-your soul," he cried. His voice broke and he rushed off the platform sobbing. Ministers on the platform appeared shocked but the crowd roared in approval.

It was reported that failure to find aweapon matching bullets removed from the three workers' bodies was holding up arrests of several suspects. The FBI would not comment.

CONTINUE SEARCH

Agents continued to search a farm outside Philadelphia, Miss., where the bodes were found.

One of the three integrationists, James Chaney, was buried on a dusty hill south of Meridian Friday. Hs mother sobbed quietly and his 12-year-old brother, Ben sobbed hysteriealy that "I want my brother."

Only 15 mourners watched the remains of the 22vear-old Negro lowered into the red clay, but about 700 gathered for memorial services for him a few hours later n Meridian.

The Rev. Ed King, white pastor of Tougaloo College, told the crowd that the men "did what they had to do.

"Freedom is never free," he said. "They paid the greatest price." Thev would not have died, he said, "if the U. S. government cared."

The most emotional speech came from Dave Dennis, assistant director of the Mississippi summer project, in which the workers were taking part when they were killed.

"I am getting sick and tired of going to funerals and memorials," thse three. They will put them on

"I am not going to ask anyone not to be angry tonight.

TRIED BY RELATIVES

"I know what will happen when they catch the men who murdered Fayette County, Tenn., said. Satrial before a jury of their uncles and ocusins and they will say 'not guilty,"

It was Dennis who ran sobbing from the front of the church after speaking to the group.

The other two victims, Andrew Goodman, 21, and Michaed Schwerner, 24, were both white New Yorkers.

Goodman's body as sent by jet Friday to New York, where a Saturday buried was slated. Authorities said that Schwerner's family had ordered that his body be taken to New Orleans for cremation, and that the ashes be flown to New York.

TCA-Backed Candidates Gain Runoff

TUSKEGEE, Ala. — (UPI)—Six Negro candidates were defeated in a city election Tuesday but two others gained run-off spots against white opposition in this east-central Alabama town where Negro voters outnumber whites by a 104-margin.

The race was to choose five city councilmen from a field of eight Negro and seven white candidates. Mayor Howard Ruthford was the only man on the ballot not opposed by a Negro.

The Rev. K. L. Buford and Dr. Stanley H. Smith, Negroes backed by the Tuskegee Civic Association TCA piled up enough votes to force runoffs Sept. 15.

The six Negro candidates who ran independently against white incumbents were defeated by substantial margins in the race for council se ats.

Political observers here said it appeared Negro voters had thrown their support behind the two TCA-backed candidates and deserted the six Negroes who ran independently.

Although Rutherford had no Negro opposition, he faces a runoff race against C. M. Keever, a white candidate.
