Veterans Urged To Pay Life Insurance Premiums On Due Date

Georgia veterans holding government life insurance policies should pay the premiums by the date whenever possible. Harry W. Piper, Assistant Manager, Atlanta Veterans Administration Regional Office said today.

MY WEEKLY SERMON BY REV. BLAIR T. HUNT, PASTOR, MISSISSIPPI MVD CHRISTIAN CHURCH, MEMPHIS, TENN.

LIVING IN GLASS HOUSES

TEXT: "He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.—John 8:7." "If you live in a glass house don't throw stones. Yes, we all live in glass houses; somebody is looking at you. Too, there is some one, the almighty who 'sees' all you do and hears all you say."

Our text is a starting verse. The words of our text were spoken by Jesus. It was the season of the feast of tabernacles. Our Lord was in the temple teaching. Suddenly a group surged forward pushing their way through the crowd. In the midst of this surging group a woman being dragged roughly along a woman who had been caught in the very act of adultery. We know there are two classes of people, the caught and the uncaught. The poor women lies before. "Caught in the act," what sneaking, spying and rottenness are hidden in their words. The "holier than thou" men were anxious that she be stoned. They spew out their accusations.

J. C. Smith University Choir Attracts Large Crowd Here

By CHARLESS E. PRICE Admit thunderous applause; the Johnson C. Smith University Choir ended its seven part concert last Sunday, at the Church of Master. A large crowd of listeners attentively and delightfully, greeting the entourage from the Queen City, Charlotte, N. C. as the choir made its initial appearance on the first leg of its Spring tour of the South.

The renown and talent laden Smith choir put together an outstanding program which was very pleasing and inspirational. In a soft way the performance was exciting and never dull.

PRICE definitely having the audience with it as it explodes with "When the Saints Go Marching In," a theme and variation on a song of jubilation.

The Smith Choir appropriately ended its planned concert with a group of Negro spirituals including "Joshua Fit the Battle of Jericho," "Plenty Good Room" and "Ain't Got Time to Die." The group presented the college hymns as encore which was very moving and had special significance for the large number of Smith grads assembled for the concert.

The Smith group included both a woman's chorus and male chorus; Kathy Wall, Mack Canady and Wilson emerged as promising soloists, Carolyn Scripps was impressive as the narrator, but it was Jerome Cherry singing "Ain't Got Time to Die," who endeared himself with the Atlanta audience and made remote for brief moments any such unpleasant thoughts.

The entire program showed planning for the music sophisticated which the director must have anticipated in the Atlanta's Church of the Master audience.

The Smith Choir, under the direction of Christopher W. Kemp and accompanied by Frank Williams, presented a sound that is uniquely its own. It did not take long for the audience to realize that it was in for a treat and that the Smith choir has come only to sing.

The softness, control and the poise of the group were reassuring, enabling the listener to relax and listen. The group made bold gestures with such finesse that one was totally disarmed, expecting the expected.

The performance of the Smith choir is hard to equal and it can not be duplicated since the group only does its thing, and no one can do your thing as well as you do.

It is obvious that Kemp of Johnson C. Smith has earned for

THE BRASS TACKS By THADDEUS STOKES

Exposed To All The Elements

In addition to the literal face of inflation — rising prices — the country has been swept by what the experts are pleased to call "inflation psychology." In plain English, the long years of irresponsible government spending, increasing public debt and dwindling value of money have undermined confidence in the dollar.

The best cure for inflation in the long run will be a greater public understanding of what causes it and who gets hurt most as it progresses. In a remarkably clear article on the subject, Edwin A. Roberts, Jr., writing in The National Observer, calls inflation on the subject, Edwin A. Roberts, Jr., writing in The National Observer calls inflation "the cruellest tax of all."

He shows how it hits hardest at the poor and points out, "There are several reasons why this is so. The poor have no hedges. Not for them is investment in real estate or the stock market, where values tend to be carried aloft on the inflation spiral. Inflation is the cruellest tax because the preoccupied with by serious students of music and by plane old music lovers.

Miss. Policeman Charged With Murder

PORT GIBSON, Miss.—(UPI)—This town's assistant chief of police was charged Saturday with the murder of a young Negro that touched off a brick throwing demonstration and left two other lawmen wounded in this southwest Mississippi town. Jessie L. Wolf, assistant chief of the Port Gibson Police, was arrested on a murder charge in the death of Roosevelt Jackson, 24. The warrant was signed by Mayor W. P. Gordon.

It was issued on the basis of an affidavit, filed by the dead man's wife, accusing the 44 year old white policeman of holding Jackson by the arm and shooting the young Negro in the stomach. "Wolf" was being held in the Claiborne County Jail without bond.

A heavy detachment of Mississippi Highway Patrol units were on duty in the small town to enforce a dusk to dawn curfew in the outbreak of violence following Jackson's death.

Authorities had said Jackson was shot and killed during a struggle with Wolf and Henry McKewon, a Negro officer. The shooting allegedly took place when the two officers went to Jackson's house to arrest him.

McKewon was slightly wounded by the same bullet that killed Jackson.

After the shooting, angry Negroes marched to the courthouse and later began throwing bricks and rocks at passing cars. A highway patrolman was wounded when authorities moved in to disperse the crowd.

Civil rights leader Charles Evers angrily denounced the shooting Saturday and led a protest march of 300 Negroes to the courthouse.

He called the shooting "cold blood" murder and called for dismissal of the two officers.

The warrant, said Wolf "did" without the authorization of law and with premeditation and deliberate design to effect the death of Roosevelt Jackson, a human being; kill and murder the said Roosevelt Jackson while shooting him with a gun."

A preliminary hearing was scheduled for Monday, on the charge. Evers said the widow Mrs. Jessie Belle Grise Jackson asked for an autopsy and charged in her affidavit that Wolf and McKewon were holding her husband, one at each arm, when Wolf "shot him deliberately."

ATTENTION! . . . FRIENDS IN CHRIST JESUS

BECAUSE GOD SAID, "Have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons," CHRISTIANS, INC., is striving to DO the LORD's Will . . .

YOU will be interested in what we are DOING.

The following letter of the ACTIONS of our President shows what we are DOING.

SUBJECT: EQUAL REPRESENTATION IN GOVERNMENT FOR ALL MEN.

TO: Chairman Jack Ramsay and Chairman C. W. Baker, County Commission and County Court, Shelby Co., Memphis, Tennessee.

On Friday, the 11th day of this month of April, at the first meeting of the New Government Structure Commission (hereafter called the NGSC), I made the motion that:

- 1. the NGSC "recommend" to the County Court and County Commission — because the Negro people have inadequate representation thereon — that ten Negro leaders be appointed by the Court and the Commission in addition to the current three Negro leaders, and
2. the NGSC submit a list of Negro leaders for consideration by the Court and Commission along with any Negro leaders that the Court and Commission wished to consider, and I submitted to the NGSC a recommended list of Negro leaders to be coupled with the recommended lists of other NGSC members.

The President pro tempore ruled my motion "out-of-order." I appealed the ruling of the Chairman to the body of the NGSC, and they rejected my appeal.

I accordingly as an individual member of that body, the NGSC, do hereby appeal to the County Court and County Commission to grant the motions made by me, above, for the following reasons:

"Governments," our Declaration of Independence says, "derive their just powers from the consent of the governed."

Will a government recommended by a body composed of 20 white men and women and 3 Negroes have the consent of the over 280,000 Negroes of Memphis & Shelby County, or will they be, as J. S. Mill said, "permanent malcontent" or "as one who the general affairs of society do not concern."

If the NGSC is to propose a government truly representative of the people, it must be so constituted as to provide equal representation for all the people. The recently appointed NGSC is constituted of 20 white men and women and 3 Negroes. The estimated white-Negro population of Memphis & Shelby County is approximately 60-40 per cent, respectively. For the NGSC to be truly representative of the 60-40 standard, there must be 20 white men and women and 13 Negro men and women. This will require the appointment by the Court and Commission of 10 additional Negroes.

The names on the list of Negroes that were asked to be considered by the NGSC were Dr. A. E. Campbell, Pastor, Columbus Baptist Church and Vice-President, National Baptist Convention; Dr. P. L. Rowe, Pastor, 1st Baptist-Chelsea Church and Former President, Arkansas College, Little Rock, Ark; Mrs. R. O. Venson, Member, Memphis Housing Authority Board; Mrs. Nettie B. Rogers, Organizer, Memphis Inter-Denominational Fellowship, Inc.; Rev. Henry L. Starks, Pastor, St. James Methodist Church and Chairman, Memphis Inter-Denominational Minister's Alliance; Rev. Claude Smith, Pastor, Prospect Park Baptist Church; Mr. Charlie Morris, Sr., Assistant Manager, No. Car. Mutual Life Insurance Company; Rev. G. A. Evans, Pastor, Walker Homes Christian Church; Mr. Robert M. Ratcliff, Assistant Editor, Memphis World and Director of Public Relations, LeMoyné-Owen College; and Mr. W. H. Songstacke, Editor, The Tri-State Defender.

I respectfully request that the appointing body grant my motions and appoint the necessary number of citizenry to bring about a truly representative NGSC, and, to this end, I further request that I be allowed to appear before the Court-Commission in this cause to more fully present the matter.

Can any one reason be assigned why we should not have equal representation of Negroes and whites; proportionate to population, on the NGSC?

Your friends in Him, Sincerely, W. Slater Hollis CHRISTIANS, INC.

Black Academy Of Arts, Letters Is Created Announces Lincoln

ATLANTA, Ga. (SNS) — The establishment of a Black Academy of Arts and Letters, dedicated to defining and promoting cultural achievement by black people, was formally announced today by Professor C. Eric Lincoln, of the Union Theological Seminary.

The Black Academy was launched with the help of the Twentieth Century Fund, which provided assistance in financing the creation and initial operations of the new institution.

As part of the celebration of its own fiftieth anniversary as a foundation, the Fund furnished administrative aid to the Academy's organizers and will assist them in obtaining additional financing required to insure sufficient operating revenues for the Academy.

Professor Lincoln was chairman of the twenty-seven man steering committee of black artists and scholars who drew up the plans for the Academy. This group is being joined by twenty-three other men and women who have already gained distinction in their fields of interest — the performing and plastic arts, writing and scholarship.

The fifty founding members are committed to seeking out and encouraging excellence among black writers, artists and scholars.

The program for the Academy will be designed to study and foster both the arts and letters of black people and public recognition of their achievements by blacks and whites.

The Black Academy will operate completely independently of the Twentieth Century Fund and any other institution. It will have its own headquarters and staff and has applied for a charter in New York.

Track, Baseball On Tap At L-O

The Magicians of LeMoyné-Owen College still have several engagements to fill in track and baseball before the end of the school year.

An Art Exhibit is open to the public in the Alumni Room of the Hollis F. Price Library.

Southern Illinois Set For Annual Kansas Relays

CARBONDALE, Ill.—It will be the Kansas Relays, the second stop on the triple crown of the Midlands' spring relay circuit, for Southern Illinois University's track team this week at Lawrence, Kansas.

Despite a patched-up lineup, which is the case again this week, the Salukis of Coach Lew Hartzog managed to place one relay team and one individual in last week's Texas Relays.

Dan Tindall, the defending champion in the javelin, slipped to fourth place in his event. The sprint medley relay squad, of Willie Richardson, Barry Liebovitz, Chuck Benson, and Gerry Hinton finished in a good time of 3:20.8. The great sprint medley field showed Kansas State winning in 3:15.6, just four-tenths of a second off the ownership.

Before that, Docherty was manager for six years of Chelsea where he had built the team from nothing into one of the most powerful in Europe, competing each year for the league championship and the English cup.

Now Docherty is working his magic for Villa.

"We intend to win; that's the only reason we are going," Docherty says about his team's trip to America. "We want to show we are as good as any of them and until we are back in the First Division, to win in America is the best way of doing it."

"If Tommy Docherty had joined Villa a month earlier," the team's number one scorer Willie Anderson said, we would be promoted to the First Division at the end of this season.

"We're flying high with Aston Villa heading for the moon under the magical command of Tommy Docherty."

Villa Tommy Docherty To Series It Takes Two, Weekday

Tommy Docherty is "King" of England as far as the fans of the Aston Villa soccer team are concerned.

Docherty, whose team will represent Atlanta in the month-long International Cup competition starting May 3 in Atlanta Stadium, took over as manager of Aston Villa last December 18. Until that time, Villa had won only one of its first 22 English League games. Now, under Docherty's direction Villa had won only one of its first 22 English League games. Now, under Docherty's direction Villa has won only one of its first 22 English League games. Now under Docherty's direction Villa's home town of Birmingham, England, proclaim, "The Doc... Our Messiah," Docherty for Lord Mayor and "Tommy Doc is King."

Villa has the greatest tradition of any English team. It has more English Cups (seven) and more First Division champions (six) than any other, and yet over the past three seasons, the team fallen into the obscurity of the Second Division with not apparent hope of recovery.

Now Tommy Docherty, better known as the "Doc" has taken over and put the team back on top. They're doing do better than they were.

"He makes his prayers feel as though they are the best in the world," English National and Villa star Peter Broadbent said. "He will go up to the lad who only a few weeks ago was struggling and say: 'You are the best in the league. The player believes it because he wants to. More important, he goes out and plays as if he is indeed the best."

"He has been very fair and straightforward. He will put up with someone playing badly, but slacking is out. Each player knows what he has to do and added to this is the fact that his terrific personality seems to rub off on us."

"Docherty won't give anything up very easily," Chiefs coach and general manager Vic Crowe said. "His greatest ambition is to be the best coach in the world, and he won't hesitate to say this."

"He has no time for losers and is very much a man's man. He's a keen disciplinarian, but has a reputation for being very fair. He expects a hundred per cent and gets a hundred per cent. Nothing less will do."

"Volatile," that's my word to describe Tommy Docherty," NASL Executive Director Phil Woosam said. "I can't think of any manner in England with his drive and bubbling enthusiasm. He plays only one way... to win."

Docherty came to Aston Villa manager of a disagreement with from Queen Rangers, where he resigned after only three weeks as-manager of the Saturday Evening Post, "Harper's," Atlantic Monthly, and "Cosmopolitan."

His latest book, "Before his Anger," relates the story of his search for his ancestry in this country, Europe and Africa.

The conference, which is designed to improve communications between the black and white communities, will consist of a series of events, ranging from a "Black Laugh-in" to performances by the "Black Reality Group," of New Haven and Harlem's "LaRoque-Bey Dancers."

Four workshops for black students are planned April 19. The topics are: "Application of Student Ability in Home Colonies," "Reinforcement of Black Identity," "Bringing the Black Generation Gap," and "Relationship Between the Black Man and His Black Woman."

world record set by Kansas in 1967. One of the SIU performers out of action this weekend is distance runner Oscar Moore, the only athlete who had a chance to become a three-time winner of the Kansas Relays. A foot injury will prevent Moore from competing in the 1967 United States Olympian Trials (winning the 3,000-meter race in 1966) and the Kansas Relays in 1967.

By the way...
by Joe Black

Ever since I was a small boy, the word "quitter" had a bad meaning. Calling another kid a quitter was a sure invitation to a rap in the mouth. Today... there's a new word that means almost the same thing as "quitter." That word is "drop-out." It's used to describe thousands of young Americans... who just up and quit when the going gets rough at school or on a job.

Of course, quitting is a cinch! You just walk away! And for the time being, you're the boss. Your own man. Free as a bird. And you've got something going for you. You're young. And because you're young, people excuse a lot of things. You don't beat up a baby for breaking his bottle. But old father-time soon comes along swinging his scythe. You get old. People stop feeling sorry for you... stop trying to understand you. And then it hits you... you're uneducated. Trained for nothing but being angry. For the first time you realize you haven't changed the world at all.

Sad picture? You bet! Because what you don't do for yourself when you're young, in the way of training and learning and education, you just can't make up in that extra time ahead, when you're older.

Sound like corn? Most real-life things do. But while you've got your youth... you can turn things around. But you've gotta have guts. Because it's a lot tougher to drop back IN than it was to drop-out. Think about that and remember what that old philosopher known as "Anonymous" once said. "Grab onto life when you're young... 'cause you're not going to pass this way again."
