Robinson Goes To Douglass High

PICK CONLEY FOR MELROSE POST

...ident of the college. Standing, left to right: Elmer L. Henderson, former L-O football player and now national president of the LeMoyné-Owen Alumni Association; Dr. John A. Buehler, chairman of the LeMoyné-Owen athletic committee, and Samuel Brown, a LeMoyné graduate and sports writer for the Commercial Appeal and the Memphis World.

This is the guessing season for school teachers, principals and administrators and they usually come up with the wrong guesses. The guessing game concerns vacant principalships and who is likely to get the nod from the City Board of Education to fill the empty spots.

...surprise this week is the announcement that Melvin (Boss) Conley, longtime principal of Douglass High, is being transferred to Melrose High to take over the No. 1 position. The retirement of Floyd Campbell last month created the vacancy at Melrose, home of the mighty Golden Wildcats.

Some of the veteran guessers came up with Mr. Conley's name the day before the official announcement of his transfer, but these predictions were the half-hearted kind.

Most of the guessers gave off a blank expression when it was announced that Herbert (Strawberry) Robinson, principal of Caldwell Elementary School, would succeed Mr. Conley as principal of Douglass High. Mr. Robinson has been a steady climber in the local educational field.

The guessing teams got another surprise when the Board of Education announced the transfer of Rodell Boyd, another rapid climber, from the Community Learning Lab, where he was assistant director, to the principalship of Carnes Elementary. He replaces Edwin Jones who retired in June. Mr. Boyd had served as principal of Merrill Elementary before going to the learning lab.

Most of the guessers had it right about John Wesley, who was appointed principal of Lester High. He had been assistant principal of Lester High and fills a vacancy

Memphis Will Host Black Businessmen

WASHINGTON — More than 700 black businessmen and guests of the National Business League have planned to spend August 20-23 at the Holiday-Rivermont Inn in Memphis for the 69th Annual Convention of the oldest business membership organization in the country.

This year Berkeley G. Burrell, president of NBL, called the meeting of 58 chapters across America comprising more than 10,000 members by stating, "The force of NBL is being recognized by offers from private and government agencies as a visible organized group of entrepreneurs ready to play a leading role in solving America's problems."

A new feature at the Memphis meeting will be a special session on "Women in Business," where the significantly successful Carmen Murphy of Carmen Cosmetics in Detroit will report her acquisitions of a major line cosmetic firm; and Gloria E. A. Toot, Esquire, of New York City will present her acclaimed Town-Sounds Recording Studio story.

2 Memphians Win Broadcasting Grants

Two Memphians were among 14 persons named recipients of fellowships in public broadcasting awarded by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

Miss Rosanna Joq Quinn, a teacher for the Title III Music Project for the Memphis area, and A. Price Broughton, producer-director for WKNO-TV were named CPB fellows by John W. Macy, Jr., President of the CPB.

Miss Quinn, 3237 Alta Road, is a graduate of Howard University and holds a master's degree in education from Memphis State University. She will work with WKNO-TV training in television production techniques and utilizing her music knowledge in the development of a music series.

Mr. Broughton will spend his year working with the Southern Educational Network, headquartered at Columbia.

Fred Davis Calls Epps' Charge 'Absolute Lie'

The all-of-a-sudden attack by labor union leader Jesse Epps upon City Councilman Fred L. Davis last week brought an "absolute lie" reply from Mr. Davis.

Mr. Epps, chief negotiator for sanitation workers and other city and county employees, opened his attack on Mr. Davis after both sides had agreed to a three-year contract containing wage increases and other benefits.

He charged that Mr. Davis had hindered the negotiations. Councilman Davis was working for a three-year contract whereas Mr. Epps wanted a working agreement for two years.

Council Chairman Robert B. James called the Epps charge "a

Councilman James L. Netters. In a statement to the Memphis World, Councilman Davis said:

"I was happy to see the successful completion of the negotiations between the City of Memphis and the Workers' Union. On the day of ratification, I spent 19 or more hours at City Hall helping to bring about an equitable agreement between the city workers and the people of Memphis. The charge made by Mr. Epps that I struggle to prevent the agreement is unfortunate and unfounded. It was an absolute lie. Mr. Epps guarded himself by saying his statement was based on reports he had received.

"I resent any man coming periodically to my hometown intimating that he and the organization that he represents are genuinely concerned for the plight of the poor than I am. I was here doing what I could to alleviate all kinds of suffering, racism, and discrimination before he came. I'll be here doing the same thing when his organization transfers him to some other part of the country. This is my hometown and I have more than an institutional interest in the bet-lowdown lie." Also defending Mr. Davis was

Crenshaw Still Won't Pay Fee

Mrs. Cornelia M. Crenshaw political and civil rights leader, of 603 Vance, was still refusing to pay the garbage collection fee this past weekend even though all of her utilities were cut off two weeks ago by Memphis Light, Gas and Water Division.

In a statement to the Memphis World, she said "I will not pay the fee, regardless of harassment from City Hall, LG&W, the Police Department and the Health Department."

City Council permitted her to state her case Tuesday evening of last week. She said she waited six hours to make her statement. Mrs. Crenshaw contends the fee is unfair and unjust. She said her protest is on behalf of poor people who are unable to pay the fee.

Tuesday of last week had been set as a deadline by the Health Department for her to pay the fee. She was threatened with arrest if she didn't pay. No official police action had been taken against her as this issue of the World went to press.

Mrs. Crenshaw said a police helicopter flew over her home several

Black Employees Picket Motor Inn

Approximately 20 black employees of Sheraton Motor Inn on Union have been picketing the Inn since June 8.

They are members of Hotel and Restaurant Employees and Bartenders Union Local 847, AFL/CIO. Union has been meeting with the company since Sept., 1968, and started picketing because "management refused to bargain in good faith on wages and working conditions."

The striking employees refuse to work for the "poverty wages they have been paid in the past." Some of their demands are "increase in pay; time and a half for overtime, and dues checkoff."

"The company will negotiate but will not bargain," said Desota Gilmore, secretary and treasurer of the local.

"The company takes the position that it can replace the striking employees with other black workers," he added. "About nine new workers have been hired," said Mr. Gilmore.

CHECKING NEW TELEPHONE BOOK — These South Central Bell employees are seen with the 1969 Memphis Area Telephone directory. Mrs. Dolores L. Williams admires the front cover while Mrs. M. J. Cook lists her frequently called numbers on the back of her phone book.

City Board of Education this week announced plans to build a new senior high school in the Melrose area.

It will be erected on 10 acres of land located south of the intersection of Park and Pendleton. The new school is expected to be named Melrose Senior High. The present Melrose, with junior and senior high divisions, more than likely will become Melrose Junior High. It is located in the heart of Orange Mound.

The Memphis Park Commission is purchasing a 10-acre site next to the land chosen for the new high school. Each site costs $200,000.

The school and park sites are part of 31 acres of land recently acquired by Clarence Harris for $750,000. He said the other 11 acres will be developed into a shopping center. The Sky-View Drive in Theatre presently is located on the land.

Mr. Harris purchased the property from Atty. Edward F. Barry, Harold C. Moore was the real estate agent.

'Hello' Books Ready

Delivery of the 1969 Memphis directories began July 2 and will be completed about July 10.

The front cover is a night scene of the Memphis skyline in color, while the back cover has been designed especially for customer use. It features a list of numbers called often, such as Time-of-Day, Weather-Bureau, etc. with plenty of room left for subscribers to add their own frequently called numbers. To call attention to the personal number list on the back the new phone books will be delivered with the back cover facing up.

Additional space for keeping a personal list of telephone numbers, as well as other information for making telephone calls, can be found in the Call Guide Section in the front of the book.

The new telephone book is the largest in history. Over 382,000 copies will be delivered this month to South Central subscribers in and around Memphis. This is about 20,000 more copies than last year's book—a good indication of telephone growth for this area.

Starlite Revue Saturday Night

The WDIA Starlite Revue is this Saturday, July 5, at the Mid-South Coliseum. Stars who are participating include Joe Tex and his band, Joe Simon and his band, Little Milton and his band, Art Jerry Miller and the Dashkies, Ann Peebles, Gene "Bowlegs" Miller, Big Lucky Carter and Rufus "The Dog" Thomas.

WDIA's Starlite Revue and the Winter Goodwill Revue have put more than $65,000 into the Goodwill Boys Club and the Dixie Homes Boys Club in the past few years. Goodwill Homes for Children has been helped with over $70,000. The summer Little League Baseball program costs about $10,000 annually, and more than $35,000 has been awarded in cash college scholarships.

Tickets for the show are only $3.50, $3.00 and $2.00 and are available at record shops and at the Coliseum. Everyone is urged to support the Goodwill Fund as it continues its Goodwill Charities. Get your tickets now.

Mothers Marching For Traffic Light

Mothers and civic leaders in North Memphis continue to march at the intersection of Thomas and Wells protesting the lack of a traffic light.

Hundreds of children cross the intersection during the school season going to and from Caldwell and Manassas.

Post Office Aiding 50 Youngsters!

Ten Memphis postal employees are serving voluntarily as counselors for 50 local youth in the Post Office Department Summer Aid Program which will continue through Sept. 19. Serving as counselors are: John Adams, James Harris, Jimmy Ray, James Isabel, Isaac Davis, Curtis Green, Leon Stone, Bonnie Fitzgerald, James Prudent and Eddie Burns. Summer aids were selected by counselors through personal visits in disadvantaged areas of the city and through the Youth Opportunity Center at 43 North Cleveland. To qualify as summer aids, youths had to be between the age of 16 and 21 and be a member of a family eligible to receive financial assistance under a public welfare program. Each counselor has responsibility for five summer aids, working with them and counseling them in the performance of their duties and in their personal conduct during their period of employment. "A major aim of the counselors in this program is to impress upon these young people the importance of completing their education," K. T. Whalum, Post Office personnel director, stated. "I am very pleased with the result of our summer aid program so far," Postmaster Sims said. "Our counselors seem to understand the problems of these youngsters and have done an excellent job of communicating with them. For many of the summer aids, this is their first job opportunity and they are working very hard to make it a success."

Inside Memphis

THERE'LL BE NO GOSPEL MUSIC — WDIA is dropping gospel music from its Starlite Revue, scheduled for July 5 at the Coliseum, a new departure in the radio station's biannual benefit shows. One reason for dropping the gospel groups is traced to criticism hurled last year at the station by boycotting ministers who said gospel music should not be presented on a show that also features blues, jazz and rock and roll. Another reason: the show is patronized mostly by youngsters and they don't "buy" the gospel music. WDIA has cut back on its own gospel music by airing only one gospel show a day, but its FM station, WTCV (West Tennessee Christian Voice) is all gospel.

200 WITNESSES DISAPPOINTED — More than 200 Jehovah's Witnesses in the Memphis area will not make the trip to Atlanta for the July 6-13 "Peace on Earth" assembly because the Atlanta Stadium, where sessions will be held, can accommodate only 52,000. Gilbert Branch, presiding minister of the West Memphis Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, said more than 12,000 in this area have been advised to attend similar assemblies in Chicago or Kansas City. "Housing in Atlanta is no problem, but the stadium just won't hold all of us," said Mr. Branch. Which assembly will Mr. Branch attend? He's one of the lucky ones. He'll go to Atlanta only because he got his bid in early.

High Noon Society

By JEWEL GENTRY HULBERT

Emphasis last week in Memphis was centered around Congressman Shelby Chiswick, which I will talk about next week.

I am writing to you from out-of-town. Again Chicago, where I attended the very fashionable wedding of my young cousin, Jean Andrew Jones, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Moses Jones (the is famed and nationally known Ophthalmologist who is on several Chicago hospital boards and was for approximately 20 years assistant to the Chief of Eye Surgery at (Ballinger) University of Chicago Hospital. The groom, John Newton Crawford, Jr. is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford Sr., Real Estate Brokers, with whom the groom is associated, and they also come from a prominent Chicago family.

Without being partial, I can truthfully say that the "High Noon" Interracial wedding was beautiful. The ceremony was performed at high noon at Cosmopolitan Community Church by the Rev. Henry Haring, a young Chicago University Ph.D. pastor of the church and the Rev. Mr. Archibald Cary, a prominent Chicago judge.

The altar of the church back of the Jones apartment where Dr. Jones has been the main donor at this now beautiful edifice with its x-ray x-ray and Nursing Home, was beautifully decorated with baskets of white stock and glowing tapers that stood on either side of a large lighted cross. Nuptial music was started a half hour before the ceremony, and we could easily hear it from Jean's upstairs bedroom where I dressed and assisted the bride in dressing. A soloist later sang "I Love You Truly."

The female attendants were Miss Gaye Gilbert, Jean's roommate in college who came from South, Whitey, Indiana; Miss Otis Feistritz, Mrs. Ellen Kersey Bryant of Chicago and Miss Jeanne Price, the bride's young cousin who was a junior bridesmaid who came with her parents from Kansas City.

I managed to talk with two of the groomsmen and they were Atty. Dewey Jones (who goes to Kansas City this week to practice) and Roland K. Frice, a cousin of the bride who also came from K. C. Flower girls were little Dianne Ferguson, daughter of the noted Dr. Lloyd Ferguson and the very fashionable and attractive Mrs. Ferguson, and little Dianne Jordan, young daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Jordan. The handsome little ringbearer was Michael Lust, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lust.

The very pretty young bride, given in marriage by her eminent father, wore an exquisite gown designed with a Chantilly lace bodice and long sleeves of the same lace.

REV. W. L. MAYES VISITED BY NIEDE

The Rev. W. L. Mayes, pastor of Second Baptist Church, had as his where he saw the Floating Markets, Temple of Dawn and Royal Barges and many other colorful places of interest. In Hong Kong, the Chicago physician stopped at the fabulous Hong Kong Hilton. In Tokyo he was at the Ojima Hotel where he stopped and was placed by the Consulate right directly in front of the American Embassy. In this fashionable big city he saw of course the Ginza, stage shows, the Imperial Palace and had a tour of the entire city. His last stop was Honolulu where he was guest at the Hawaiian Villa Hilton. Out of Honolulu, Dr. Howard took a flight straight into Chicago, having circled the globe. Even though he had traveled all over Africa several times, Europe, this was his first trip around the world.

In town, visiting is the likable and handsome MR. HARVEY ATKINS, who is visiting with his son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Leiland L. Atkins.

MRS. MAUDE BRIGHT will go to Princeton while her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. Nathan Broody and Dr. Ernest Broody and their two children go to Europe.

MR. ANDERSON BRIDGES and MR. O'FERRELL NELSON will leave next week for the Play Boy Club in Jamaica where they will spend two weeks.

We were sorry to miss the cocktail party (an annual event) given at Rivermont Club last Sunday, but had not checked our mail after coming from Out East. But again thanks to Mr. John Arnold for the bid. The party is always a fabulous and brilliant event and is now looked forward to by all News Media.

OF WIDESPREAD social interest all over is the recent marriage of the beautiful MISS CARMEN JOHNSON, young daughter of Mrs. Jo Louise Lattimore Johnson of Houston and Dr. Mordecai Johnson of Washington, D. C., to a young new Howard graduate, Miss Johnson, who has been working in D. C. since her graduation at Howard, is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Beauchamp whom she often visits in Memphis. Mrs. Ruth Beauchamp attended the wedding in Houston.

Talked with Dr. T. R. M. Howard, but his spouse, Helen, who is my good friend, is out in New York. We just missed each other each place. Dr. Howard was thrilled over the two Manateer Tigers that he caught recently in India (in the Bengal area). The two had killed exactly 52 persons within the past two years. However, Dr. Howard went around the world on another Hunting Safari. He went out of Chicago into New York. His hunt was at Bengal just out from Nagpur at the foothills of the Himalayas. He went straight out of Chicago into New Delhi and Agra to see the Taj Mahal. There he was at the Clarks-Shariz Hotel. In New Delhi he was at the famous Oberio (an inter-continental hotel on to Nagpur where he prepared for his safari.) His next stop was Calcutta where he stopped at the Grand (Calcutta's best hotel where Jimmy and I always stopped). On to Bangkok where he was guest at the Siam Inter-Continental Hotel.

recent guest, his niece, Miss Virgie Maes of Toledo, Ohio. She accompanied him from Memphis to Miami, Florida, where they attended the National S. S. and BTU Congress.

Miss Mayes is secretary in the office of the Toledo Board of Education, and a member of the Peoples' Baptist Church.

A going home party was given in her honor Saturday night in the North Wing of the Gay Hawk Club. Among those attending were, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Adridge, Mr. and Mrs. James Givens, Rev. Mr. Mayes, and many other relatives and friends.

Full of questions on how to get rich faster?...

This book has all the answers.

It's a Golden Passbook from First National Bank. And merely owning one means you have a real headstart on the road to affluence.

That's because Golden Passbook Savings Accounts pay 5% interest compounded daily. And start paying interest right from the day of deposit.

You can open your account with $100 or more... add to it any time. And all entries—deposits, withdrawals, interest payments—are entered in your passbook for permanent reference. Notel Money must remain on deposit for at least one calendar quarter (January 1-March 31; April 1-June 30; July 1-September 30; October 1-December 31), and can be withdrawn only within 10 days of any completed quarter.

Keep this in mind, too. Besides Golden Passbook, First National offers a variety of fine savings plans. Ranging from Everyday Interest accounts which pay 4% and have few restrictions on account activity, to big-depositor plans that pay as much as 6 3/4%.

Whichever program you choose, the secret is to save as much and as often as you can. If you want to reach Easy Street for sure, that's the only way to go.

THE TIP-OFF By EMORY O. JACKSON

The column planned has to wait because of the passing of Dr. E. Paul Jones the retired Director of Jefferson County Public Schools. Dr. Jones knew the value of good public relations as a tool of public education. This was one of the many contributions he made to public education in this area.

In his position as "Director" he was often fought, opposed and misrepresented. None of this seemed to have bothered him. But it was in the "Bobby Jackson Gainer Case" that his integrity, professionalism and position were put to a severe test.

Dr. Jones held membership in various religious, civic and fraternal organizations. Among them were 14 years as chairman of the trustee board of the First Congregational Christian Church; head of a major division of the 1939 Community Chest Appeal; an area examiner for the Tennessee Valley Authority; Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity; chairman, Advisory Committee National Youth Administration, and a life member of Jefferson County Education Association. He is listed in Who's Who in American Education.

World Of Religion BY LOUIS CASSELS United Press International Dr. Werner von Braun the German-born scientist who has played a major role in America's space program is baffled by people who suggest that modern science has discredited belief in God.

As far as he is concerned, just the opposite is true. Since he became director of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's George C. Marshall Space Flight Center at Huntsville, Ala. Von Braun has joined the Episcopal Church and has become an avid reader of theological books.

He discussed his religious beliefs in a recent interview with Afton Taft, religion writer for the Miami Herald. The interview will be published in the July issue of the magazine Christian Life.

Morehouse College Disciplines Students

(From The Atlanta Daily World) (An Editorial)

As a result of the recent unrest on the campus of Morehouse College, some fifteen students have been expelled from the school, others have been suspended.

While few will agree that expulsion or even suspension is the answer to the current problems of the campuses across the nation, but all agree that some firm action must be taken if any degree of authority is to be maintained on our campuses.

Now there are some that will feel that the students were wrongly used, others will feel that this was the only possible step; but no matter how you or I feel, we all agree that a school of higher learning must have the administration in full charge of all of the facilities, and everything that pertains to the being and well being of the school.

Despite the many shortcomings of all the Universities in this nation, there must be some good in the old Ivy Halls also, and since this is still a country where by a student may choose his or her alma mater, there is always the possibility of transfer to any disgruntled student.

A simple comparison is this: if you are critical of your neighbor's home, then make your visits seldom and short. You are not bound to remain in any atmosphere that is displeasing to you.

While this is certainly a let age, and things are done on the double, the age old system of negotiation is still the only manner of lasting agreement between two factions.

Now if severe punishment is morally wrong, how right is total insubordination?

Dr. Stanley Jones To Lead Religious Retreat At Emory

ATLANTA, Ga. (SWS) — Dr. E. Stanley Jones, world famous missionary, evangelist and author will lead the Georgia Christian Ashram at Emory University's Oxford College, Oxford, Georgia.

Two ashrams (religious retreats) will be held July 22-23 and another July 27-30. The public is invited to come to either or both.

Other members of the staff are Dr. William A. Noble, Salvation Army medical-missionary; Dr. Martin Luther King, Sr., pastor of Ebenezer Baptist Church, Atlanta; Dr. Harmon Moore of the Christian Council of Metropolitan Atlanta and Dr. Lowry Young of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Dr. Jones brought the Ashram movement to this country from India. The word ashram is from the Sanskrit meaning "a retreat." A spiritual leader with his followers goes apart for a disciplined corporate quest for a deeper spiritual growth.

Dr. Claude H. Thompson of Emory University is director. Information about registration may be obtained by writing him at 1307 Harvard Rd. NE, Atlanta, Ga. 30306. Participants will be housed on the Oxford College campus and fees are modest.

month at West Virginia University. An orientation session for the 100 medical and 20 nursing students from throughout the nation who will participate in the program will be held June 21-23 at WVU's Towers Residence Halls.

The Summer Appalachian Program of the Student American Medical Assn., which is being financed by the Appalachian Regional Commission, will provide preceptorships in rural health care for the students in Kentucky, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina and West Virginia.

They will work with physicians in their offices, conduct community health surveys, assist at immunization and migrant clinics, and observe home health aids at work and the operation of infant and child health clinics.

The students also will write reports analyzing rural medical practice and their attitudes toward it. On Aug. 21-23, they will return to West Virginia University to evaluate their experiences.

NAACP Convention Plans Tribute to Medgar Evers

JACKSON, Miss.—In this Deep South city where he lived and worked and was cruelly cut down in the prime of his life by a sniper's bullet, Medgar Evers will be memorialized by his friends and associates in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at a special service during the 60th anniversary NAACP convention here, June 30-July 5.

The service, scheduled for Friday morning, July 4, will be held in the Masonic Temple where the last rites for the martyred NAACP state field secretary were held on a Saturday morning June 16, 1963.

Tributes will also be paid to the memory of such other victims of Mississippi racism as the Rev. George W. Lee, president of Belzoni NAACP, slain May 7, 1955; Herbert Lee, a SNCC representative, shot to death in Liberty, June 1961; the Philadelphia Three — James E. Chaney, Andrew Goodman and Michael H. Schwerner — lynched June 21, 1964; Vernon Dahmer, NAACP leader in Hattiesburg, killed by fire-bomb, January 10, 1966; Wharlest Jackson, a leader of the Natchez NAACP, murdered by a bomb planted in his car, February 27, 1967.

A feature of the special service will be the unveiling of a marble monument "Dedicated to the memory of Medgar Wiley Evers, born July 6, 1925, Decatur, Miss. Assassinated June 12, 1963, Jackson, Mississippi." The monument will be erected by the Mississippi State Conference of Branches.

Also to be memorialized will be prominent NAACP members and leaders who have passed since the last convention. The special service is to be conducted by the Rev. I. DeQuincy Newman of Columbus, S.

The martyred NAACP leader was awarded the Spingarn Medal posthumously. The highly-prized award was presented to his widow, Mrs. Myrtle Evers, at the Association's annual convention in Chicago in July 1963.

The award cited Medgar Evers as "a dedicated, courageous and unblemished man, a constantly aware that in his leadership role of NAACP Field Secretary in Mississippi he was engaged in a mission fraught with danger.

In the face of repeated threats to his life and the lives of his devoted and steadfast wife and children, he never once faltered or flinched in his crusade to secure for Negroes in his native state justice under law and full citizenship rights."

Record Stars Can Price Themselves Out

NEW YORK CITY — What's the big difference between the show business of 30 years ago and today? One big record that sells a million, explains Eddie Harris, one of the top Broadway booking agents.

"A performer in the early 30s had to spend years working in out of the way clubs and rundown theatres before he was discovered," Harris pointed out. "But today with records the big thing a kid off the sidewalks can become tomorrow's star drawing as high as $5000 for a one-nighter."

The former Korean War GI who graduated from St. Paul University and had ambitions of becoming a teacher, Harris who's on the staff of Ruth Bowen's Queen Booking Corp., the largest black-owned agency of its kind in show business, laments the fact that many acts are pricing themselves out of business.

Citing the fact that many performers who spring into fame on one record and demanded the sky for an appearance, he said they quickly passed out of public view after a few months and returned to oblivion.

The ones who last, the former pro basketball and baseball player said are performers who don't try to break promoters and club owners with extravagant demands. "What about the performer who has a good potential but may never make a hit record? In his case I would advise him to get a good manager who has faith in their talent and will beat down doors of booking agents, nite-club and theatre owners to secure work for his client," said Harris.

Breaking into show business from the business end in 1962, Harris has built a reputation in the field as a knowledgeable agent. Often he reasons with one of Queen's clients on a deal that they might not see at the time, but in the long run will benefit them.

Among his discoveries are the Young Holt trio whom he guided in their early climb to popularity. At present Harris is hard at work on the future of the Sweet Inspirations whom he predicts will come into their own this year.

Other acts that he thinks will have a big future in '69 include The Dells, The Parliaments, Tyrone Davis, The Intruders, the Del-Fonics and Patti and the Blue Belles.

As a final bit of advice to one-record stars, Harris advises them to learn the fundamentals of the business once they get lucky. If they don't do their homework in this respect, Harris feels that the glamor and applause can soon die out and they'll be left with just memories.

Also present at the ceremony were Specialist 4 Wilder's brother, Marshall, and his sisters, Rita and Yvonne Michaela. A 1966 graduate of Fairburn High School, Specialist Wilder received his basic and advanced training at Fort Benning, Georgia, arriving in Vietnam in September, 1968.

Pope Paul Enters 7th Year Of Pontificate With Hope

By RAY MOSELEY
VATICAN CITY — (UPI)—Pope Paul VI has entered the seventh year of his pontificate with the crisis that exploded around him in the past 12 months growing deeper.

He has spoken in recent months of "self demolition" in the church "a ferment practically of schism" and "a certain widespread lack of trust" in his leaderships.

The Pope, elected June 21 1963 is expected to return to this theme Sunday when he commemorates the anniversary of his coronation 11 days early — with a mass in St. Peter's Basilica.

The events of the past year have without doubt made Paul the most controversial Pope in recent years. They have raised serious doubts in the minds of many Catholics as he himself said about his ability to lead the church through the storm.

A year ago dissent in the Catholic church was rather widespread but it had not reached visibly into hierarchy and it appeared perhaps more manageable than it does now.

There followed on July 29 the Pope's decision against changing the church's traditional opposition to artificial birth control. This dramatically brought the crisis to a head and went far to undermine the Pope's authority.

The clamor in the church grew louder after that and some national bishops conferences even issued instructions to the faithful that conflicted with the Pope's teaching on birth control.

But birth control was clearly only one aspect of the dissension and not the most serious.

The fundamental dispute was and is over the very nature of the church — whether it should remain a highly authoritarian institution with an ideology stated in fixed terms, or whether it should evolve into a more democratic institution in which the Pope shares authority with the bishops and in which widely divergent interpretations of dogma are allowed.

The Pope, who in broad terms must be rated a moderate has taken an unswerving conservative position of these questions.

High Court Upholds Negro's Defense

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The case of an Arkansas Negro who is charged on a morals offense led the U. S. Supreme Court to affirm this week that persons charged with a misdemeanor must be provided legal counsel at state expense.

Arkansas, Iowa, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, and Missouri are affected by the court's action. The High Court's response was the result of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund's (LDF) defence of Robert Winters of Little Rock.

Winters, found guilty of a morals offense involving a white woman, was first sentenced to 30 days in jail and fined $254 court cost. But, being poor, he had no money to pay the fines.

Thus, as is the practice in Arkansas and some other states, he was sentenced to 294 day on the county penal farm to work off the fine at the rate of $1.00 a day. He was strapped with his sentence without benefit of a lawyer. LDF learned later that no one had informed him of his constitutional right to legal counsel.

After his imprisonment, Winters filed for a writ of habeas corpus in the Little Rock municipal and circuit courts asking relief against his unconstitutional restraint, conviction, sentence, and fine. Nonetheless, both courts denied his request.

The United States District Court in Arkansas ordered Winters released and the U. S. Court of Appeals in St. Louis rejected the state appeal. On Monday, the Supreme Court of the United States refused to review the case.

LDF attorney Michael Meltsner, arguing Winters' case in the appeals court, said Winters' sentence to a penal farm "constituted imprisonment for no other reason than poverty."

Once upon a time, there lived a species of huge animals called dinosaurs. They were tremendous in size, physically powerful, and terrorized all other life. As you know, the dinosaur is long gone because he couldn't adapt to his changing environment. All his power, size and aggressiveness didn't help him when the chips were down. And today, aggressiveness and sheer force of power are not going to help the Black People's revolution any more than they helped the dinosaur. No power, black, white, red or yellow, can survive for long when it's based on hate and violence.

Our black youth must understand that the door to opportunity is open at last! The invitation to move in is here. But that does not mean that someone is going to give them something for nothing simply because they have black skins and can shout "black power". It does mean that before they can be accepted for what they are, they've got to show what they are. Being honest with themselves is a first step. They must never forget that they represent the blood, sweat and tears of generations past. The future is in their hands, and they cannot afford to be late or unprepared. And so, to our black youth everywhere, I say: "Stop throwing yourselves against a door that's already open. Meet the challenge with common sense and a devotion to duty. You'll be surprised at how far you can go when you stop being angry and start being smart. Don't, for God's sake, be a dinosaur!"

Book Review
EUGENE DAUBIGNY by G. P. Hardin, is a soul-baring adventure in love and violence. It is one man's quest through liquor and sex to find his "holy-grail." Published by Pageant Press International Corp., this book is in the class of Hemingway and Fitzgerald, is priced at $4.95. Set in a typical Southern city, the characters and mentalities of the inhabitants are laid open some good, some evil; all very complex and intellectual. Eugene Daubigny, a "blue-collar" philosopher and intellectual, brings his way into the local bar scene and the lives of the habitués, especially into that of an attractive but frustrated young widow. Their relationship mental and physical, is one of the most descriptive and sensitive ever written. She writes Daubigny to join her in a robbery plot; the ensuing action reaches a new literary peak in suspense and violence. G. P. Hardin was born in Atlanta, Georgia, and attended Emory University and Woodrow Wilson College of Law. Hardin was with the U. S. Department of Commerce and detailed to the War Production Board. He was a Sargeant Major in the army during World War II in Japan, and was with the first troops to enter from the Philippines. Mr. Hardin wrote his first novel Fragment Of Blue when he was 25. In addition, he has had poems concerning World War II published; one of these "Ah, Claudius" appeared in the Washington Times Herald; another, "Oh Prisoners," in the Atlanta Journal. EUGENE DAUBIGNY is truly a masterpiece in contemporary writing—the ultimate in psychological suspense.

Building Up To A Bad Summer

By EVELYN WOOLFOLK
NNPS — A New York newspaper carried three sensational headlines: "Forman to Demand Industry and Unions Pay Blacks Millions," "How SNCC Triggered Big Riots," "The Price of Militancy Runs Costly to Blacks," and "Black Separatism Was Stalinist Idea." These stories were printed on page one, two and three of the New York Daily Column.

If they are true, they create the worst possible impression for blacks. They show us as a violent, unreasonable and divided group. Our image in the white press has never been great, but as summer draws near and big cities get their share of the "riot" jitter, stories like these raise the level of hostility between black and white.

This hostility already has caused reactions which blacks can hardly stem. In several cities, Indianapolis and Hartford, hostility has overflowed into riots and looting. It is a deplorable state of affairs because black life stands in jeopardy. Our home, children and innocents face a dangerous summer as the ghetto totters on the brink of explosion under its load of frustrations. While the ghetto cannot be held blameless for the way it reacts to frustrations, its explosions, causes undesirable reactions against it.

Prince Charles Prefers The Common Girl

LONDON — (UPI) — Prince Charles said Thursday night common sense favors him, marrying a foreign royal princess but his desires lean toward a commoner, a British girl.

In a television "Interview Five days before his mother, Queen Elizabeth invests him as the Prince of Wales the 20-year-old heir to the throne talked for the first time in public about a woman he might love.

Charles spoke after it was announced that Tricia Nixon, President Nixon's 23-year-old daughter, will attend his investiture July 1 as Prince of Wales.

Britain moved another 200 security men into Carenarvon, site of the investiture, after discovery of a homemade time bomb along the route Charles will take for the ceremony.

There is an active antimasonry group of nationalists in Wales. Charles told a combined British networks interview team "the one advantage about marrying a princess for instance, or somebody from a royal family is that they do know what happens.

"The only trouble is that I often feel that I would like to marry somebody English or perhaps Welsh," said Charles before the interviewers cut him off.

Charles paused during the interruption. Then he commented, "Yes, I know, I knew this would happen."

But in conversation the young man's fancy turned repeatedly to women. He talked of the "loneliness of being a royal prince."

Atlanta's Death Rate Up By Three

Three Atlanta area residents were among the 13 people killed on Georgia highways over the weekend.

Three deaths now pushes Atlanta's death rate on the street ahead of last year for a similar period.

Lyonell C. Murdock, 43, of 601 Ansley Forest Prk. Drive, N. E. and an unidentified woman were the latest victims to die on Atlanta streets.

The two were killed when their car skidded 24 feet and struck a utility pole and burst into flames on McDonough Boulevard.

Police investigators said Murdock was thrown clear of the wreckage and the woman passenger was trapped inside and burned to death beyond recognition.

In another mishap that occurred Friday an 18 year old youth was killed while riding a motorcycle in the northern part of Fulton county.

According to a report by Officer E. L. Valentine, Donald Hamill of 2290 Bernard St., N. W. was dead on arrival at Grady Hospital after the motorcycle he was riding collided with two cars and struck a tree.

Valentine added another youth, 21 year old Harold R. Waldrop of 872 Thomas Street, Roswell, was admitted to a local hospital in serious condition.

The accident occurred around 1:30 a. m. on Riverside Drive and the motorcycle was traveling east when it struck two cars that were parked on the shoulders, plus a parked motorcycle before hitting the tree.

Popular High School Girl's Body Found

CLAREMONT, Calif.—UPI—The nude and beaten body of a girl found in a deserted canyon was identified Tuesday as that of 13-year-old Virginia Lynn Smith of Claremont, who recently was voted the most popular girl in her school.

The victim was identified by her stepfather Harry Neumann after he heard radio reports that the body of a brown-haired blue-eyed girl had been found Monday in a canyon two miles from the Neumann home.

An autopsy determined the girl died of head and neck injuries, the nature of which were not specified.

The coroner's office said further tests were necessary to determine whether the girl had been molested.

The victim was last seen alive Monday afternoon when a friend, Cary Jensen 17, Claremont dropped her off at the home of a girl friend, Cheryl Crane of Claremont, Monday evening.

Cheryl was not home and her sister told sheriff's deputies she saw Virginia leave the house and walk toward her home a mile away.

The body of the vivacious brunette who was vice president of her class at La Puente, Jr. High School was found later Monday by two youths hiking in the area which is used often for motorcycling, hiking and horseback riding.

Memphis to Host NBL Aug. 20-23

WASHINGTON, D. C.—More than 700 black businessmen and guests of the National Business League have planned to spend August 20-23 at the Holiday Rivermont Inn in Memphis, Tenn.

This year Berkeley G. Burrell, president of NBL, called the meeting of fifty-eight (58) chapters across America comprising more than 10,000 private and government agencies as a visible organized group of entrepreneurs ready to play a leading role in solving America's problems.

A new feature at the Memphis meeting will be a special session on "Women In Business," where the significantly successful Carmen Murphy of Carmen Cosmetics in Detroit will report her acquisitions of a major old line cosmetic firm, and Gloria E. A.

Toot, Esquire, of New York City will present her acclaimed Town Sounds Recording Studio story.

Another highlight of the three-day meet will be Mr. Burrell's report on "The Status of Black Business," which is the basis for this year's theme: "Black Business In The 70's—Tomorrow Is Now."

Leading business and government personalities are scheduled to participate including: Daniel Parker, Chairman of the Board, Parker Pen Company; Abraham Venable, Deputy Administrator, Office of Minority Business Enterprise; James Robinson, Esquire, President of Urban East, Inc. and the National Housing Producers Association; and John Chandler, Program Associate of the Danforth Foundation.

DECATUR, Ga.—UPI—Cary Steven Krist serving a life sentence for kidnaping a Florida heiress will be given a chance for a new trial July 22. A hearing was set in DeKalb Superior Court. Krist serving his sentence at the Georgia State Prison at Reidsville, was convicted of taking Barbara Jane Mackle from a motel room near Emory University and burying her alive in an elaborate box for four days. She was found by FBI agents and most of the $500,000 ransom money recovered. Former mental patients can become good, steady employees according to the Labor Department. A study of those employed by the Cal. State Government showed that employees with a history of mental illness had a lower rate of turnover than other employees on similar jobs. U. Judy Garland's Last Wish May Not Be Filled

HOLLYWOOD — (UPI) — Judy Garland's request that only her former makeup man, Cene Hibbs, perform the service in death will have to go unfulfilled, he said Wednesday. Hibbs said he received a tearful midnight call from the late singer's daughter, Liza Minnelli. Tuesday night telling him her mother had stipulated in her will that her body was not to be touched by anyone but him. "I made Judy up for all her television shows," Hibbs said. "I would like to fly back to New York to put her final makeup on her but that's impossible." Hibbs is under contract to the television series "Green Acres," which is in its final week of production for the season. A spokesman for the company said that if Hibbs flew to New York it would cost the company more than $35,000 in lost time. Eva Gabor, star of the series said she would not work unless Hibbs did fly to New York to fulfill the conditions in Miss Garland's will.

At R. J. Reynolds things are on the move

But they're on the move everywhere else, too. So, why shout about it? At R. J. Reynolds we've long recognized our obligations to the black community and we've been doing something about it. Something new and different. Our trainees get more than just a job offer. We offer them a career with a bright and rewarding future. And we back up our offer with the best training we can provide. Our program has given so many career-minded black people the opportunity to reach for a better life that we can't help but be proud. That's why we say "things are on the move" here. But we don't have to shout about it.
