MRS. MARY MAPP Mrs. Mary Mildred Mapp, long-time Memphian and a member of Centenary United Methodist Church died at her home, 1064 South Siderly, Aug. 23. Funeral services were held from the church, Aug. 26, and burial was in Elmwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Mapp Buried In Elmwood

The pastor, the Rev. James M. Lawson Jr., officiated, and Southern was in charge. A native of Grenada, Miss., Mrs. Mapp was the sister of Mrs. Annie Leonard Avery of Memphis and aunt of Mrs. Maggie L. Ballard of Detroit. The deceased had served the church as chairman of the Parsonage Committee and was a member of the Women's Society of Christian Service.

The local NAACP Youth Council headed by Jesse Turner Jr. hurled a charge of racial discrimination two weeks ago against WHBQ-TV's Talent Party.

A reply to that charge follows: "I read the article captioned 'Cherokee Bowling Lanes, WHBQ-TV Hit by NAACP' with mixed emotions. I have for a long time tried to change the opinions and thoughts of my prejudiced friends. It was very surprising to see George Klein pictured as a 'white bigot'."

"I learned that before the article was written or I should say published, Mr. Klein was in the process of acquiring a number of 'Cables' to represent the black segment of our city. I further learned that Mr. Klein was not given the courtesy of a personal contact to see what his thoughts on the issue were or learn what actions he was taking, before the news attack."

"After working with Mr. Klein for three years as his 'Girl Friday' on Talent Party, I quickly learned that ALL of the acts that appeared on his program did so not only for the exposure but because they liked him personally or were told by friends. When you go to Memphis, contact George Klein. He's an O. K. guy."

"If you want a clear picture of how he stands with the black performers, ask James Brown, Jackie Wilson, Solomon Burk, The Drifters Sly and number others. They will tell you like it is — there is no black or white in Mr. Klein's show; only talent!"

"Freedom of the press is one of the things that makes our nation the greatest one on earth — if it is not presented one-sided."

"If you don't mind, I would like to abstain from signing my name for fear of using all white bread instead of half wheat, might bring a similar new attack upon me."

$1,092,076 In Building Fund

A total of $1,092,076.25 in cash and pledges has been reported in the first phase of LeMoyné-Owen College's effort to raise $11,800,000. Included in the $1,608,000 is enough to provide equipment for the new building and to renovate Steele Hall and Brownlee Hall. The sum of $19,945 was reported at Thursday's luncheon meeting. This amount included $4,500 in pledges from alumni of the college. Alumni have pledged $21,730 to date. Former mayor Edmund Orgill, co-chairman of the college's fundraising effort, explained that although the second phase of the campaign will not begin until the middle of November after the SUN drive is over, campaigning among alumni and pattern and special gifts prospects will continue through the months of September, October and November. Explain Change In Welfare Payments

The 1969 amendments of the Social Security Act require that as of July 1, 1969, standards used by states to determine need and amount of payments in AFDC (Aid to Families with Dependent Children) must be revised to reflect changes in the cost of living and any maximum grant first to be proportionately adjusted. In Tennessee recipients of Old Age Assistance, Aid to Blind and Aid to Disabled as well as AFDC will receive similar adjustments. These adjustments will be made at the time of recipients' periodic review or redetermination of eligibility. OAA, AIB and AD recipients reviewed every 12 months and AFDC recipients are reviewed each six months. Prior to July 1, 1969, maximum grants for OAA, AIB and AD categories were $90 monthly. Using the revised standards, recipients in those categories are entitled to a new maximum up to $67 monthly. In AFDC, a caretaker and one child, using a former standard, could receive a maximum grant of $90. The new maximum for that number is $97 monthly. The former AFDC maximum grant of $59 monthly for a caretaker and five children has been increased to $161. The need for operating within the Department of Public Welfare's fiscal appropriation, as set by the State Legislature makes it necessary to implement these adjustments on a review basis. In the AFDC category it may be up to six months before a recipient has his next periodic review and received an adjustment in his grant or in OAA, AIB and AD. It may be up to 12 months before his case is reviewed and the recipient receives benefit of the cost of living adjustment.

Last month the Metropolitan Atlanta Committee on Hunger and Malnutrition criticized the limitations. (Continued on Page Four)

I am an American. Do not fold, spindle, or mutilate.

Being an American is comfortable.
 After all, we do have more than any other country in the world.
 But sometimes we get too comfortable. We take our leisure and our prosperity and our freedoms for granted. Sometimes we have to be reminded that it wasn't easy for us to get where we are. That the freedoms we enjoy weren't handed to us on a platter.
 Of course, the great majority of Americans have great pride in their country.

Millions of them show their pride by buying U. S. Savings Bonds.
 Through regular purchases where they work or bank, they've helped preserve our freedoms by investing in their country.
 At the same time, they've been storing up quite a nest egg for themselves.
 U.S. Savings Bonds pay a guaranteed return. And your investment is backed by the full faith and credit of the United States of America.
 Also, the interest on Series E Savings Bonds isn't subject to state or local income taxes.

You can defer federal taxes on E Bond interest until you redeem the Bond.
 If your Bonds are lost, or stolen, or destroyed, we simply replace them without cost.
 They're safe.
 They're easy.
 They're automatic.
 And they're also a reminder. A reminder that we all have to work hard to keep what we have.
 Investing in your country will do just that.

Think about U.S. Savings Bonds.
 It's a way to keep our country from getting folded, spindled or mutilated.

If they're lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace 'em.

 Making Jimmy and me over the weeks was our daughter, Marilyn Hubert, who flew in from Washington, D.C. on Sunday morning and left Monday. Marilyn left Tuesday for Indonesia for a two-year tour in Foreign Service. Following in the steps of her mother, she has been named by B.I.A. as Director of Courses, Educational Center, U.S.I.S. and will teach English teachers in Indonesia since she speaks their language. Teachers of English will in turn teach Indonesians. Having attended school five years in Paris, she speaks several languages even before entering the American University of Beirut where she did all of her college work and an extra year toward a masters in Health Education. She later received a masters in English at Howard University. After returning to the States and having worked a year in the Doctoral Program at Georgetown University in the field of linguistics, the study of human speech and languages and Foreign Service. Marilyn bought a car and linens before leaving the states last week. Her house and servants will be furnished by the State Department. She left Tuesday of this week for Los Angeles. She flew directly to Honolulu where she stopped at the Edgewater Hotel and is now in Hong Kong at Hotel Imperial Hotel. She leaves tomorrow for Bangkok in Thailand where she will be at Binational Center and will arrive in Djakarta next week. Djakarta, Indonesia's capital

Many Memphians were here when they thought her name here was limited. Especially did she have fun shopping in the Mall with me, and she thoroughly enjoyed with Bobette, Rataleffe, Billy, Bartholomew who was home from John Hopkins University where she took a course in the Doctoral Program. Courtesy was shown Marilyn by Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Batoliffe, Mrs. Fred Rivers, Mrs. Leland Atkins, Dr. and Mrs. James Byas, Mrs. Marie Burke who recently moved to Memphis from D.C., Mrs. Peter Jones, Dr. Marlan Sugarmán and Mrs. Minnie Mae Woods. We ran into Pat and Maroid Shaw but they were late returning from Little Rock. Marilyn has already started talking about us visiting her in Jakarta, a city of 3,000,000 which we understand looks much like Amsterdam with Dutch Architecture and many bridges crossing canals. It is believed that the earliest civilization occurred in Java. It was discovered in 1901 in Java which revealed that these people lived some 50,000 years ago. Religious and customs are some what like those of India and Pakistan which will not be new for Marilyn since Pakistan was officially ours for several years with Jimmy stationed there incidentally Marilyn has the rating of Assistant Reserve Officer while her father was Reserve Officer assigned The State Department under Dan Acheson.

New Jersey Governor
 Down Georgia Extradition Plea

NEWARK, N. J. (UPI) — Gov. Richard J. Hughes has turned down an extradition request by Georgia Gov. Lester Maddox for a young Negro escapee convicted of burglary at age 16 and sentenced to 48 years in prison without benefit of attorney or jury. Benjamin Hunter, 23, a native of Dawson in Terrell County, Ga., escaped last year from the Colquitt County Public Work farm, Moultrie, Ga. after serving six years and made his way to his sister's home here. Hunter was released Friday from the Newark Street Jail where he has been held since Jan. 4 after his arrest at his sister's home by FBI agents on a fugitive warrant from Georgia. Thomas S. Higgins, an Essex Co. public defender, took up the young man's case, and presented the facts to Governor Hughes, convincing the state's chief executive that returning Hunter to Georgia would serve no purpose. Higgins said "much of" the governor's decision was based on an investigation by the Essex County prosecutor's office here that showed Hunter had made a "substantial" showing of rehabilitation. Hunter was convicted in Georgia, June 28, 1962 on six counts of burglary and sentenced that same day to eight years on each count, with the terms being served consecutively. "He did not have benefit of attorney or jury," Higgins said. "Hunter was released under the supervision of the New Jersey State Prison."

 Rev. H. H. Jones, Minister
 At the 11 A. M. Morning Worship the Rev. Jones used for his meditation when you are lonely. He mentioned that there is loneliness in our living our contemporary. Sometimes we live so long that our friends forget us. There is a deep need that cries out for fellowship. When we are lonely, the Rev. Jones recommended that we turn to God. He made us and He knows us. He cares about us. Rev. Jones quoted from St. Augustine who said in part, "Thou O Lord has made us and know our needs. Sometimes loneliness comes to us so powerfully that we need friends, the church, and God in our lives. The Christ has assured us, "I will leave you comfortless, I will come again. Mrs. J. A. The MEMPHIS WORLD is an independent newspaper — non-sectarian and non-partisan, printing news unbiassed and supporting those things it believes to be of interest to its readers and opposing those things against the interest of its readers.

Another Year Passes

The history of the Atlanta Daily World may be representative of the progress of the Negro American in the deep South in the last four decades.

The little newspaper that started 41 years ago has always tried to express what it thought was best for our country and our people in the deep South and especially in Atlanta and Georgia.

The motto of the paper is now, as it was in the beginning, "An independent newspaper, non-sectarian and non-partisan, printing news as accurately as possible, and supporting those things it believes to be in the best interest of the readers."

With this shield it has waged many battles for the rights of all mankind, we go humbly into another year of publication. We are aware that along the way some mis-judgments have been made, some things have been missed but on the other hand, we have tried in sincerity and truth to educate and set a pattern for our people along the lines of good and useful citizenship.

No man is judged by the number of times that he falls along the way, but by the number of times that he regains his feet and tries life's battles again. The Atlanta Daily World has not grown into the business giant as have some others, but it has and still does retain its manner of growth based on sound principle, with justice to all.

Our aim is not to be the biggest news media in the world, but to be among the very best in reporting the truth of all situations, and giving the news, while it is still news. The shape and size of our paper may change, but our principles will never change.

Since the early years of the great "Depression" to this day of great "Affluence" your Daily World has been your morning companion. We are grateful for the support and confidence our readers and advertisers have given us through the years and we shall conduct ourselves in such a manner as to warrant this support and confidence in the future.

MY WEEKLY SERMON

By REV. BLAIR T. HUNT, PASTOR, MISSISSIPPI BLD. CHRISTIAN CHURCH, MEMPHIS, TENN.

"DO YOU MEAN WHAT YOU SAY AND SING?"

TEXT: "This People... honor me with their lips but their heart is far from me." Matt. 15:8.

Do you really mean what you say and sing? Are you like the Apostle Peter of old?

It was sundown when 13 men met to celebrate the passover in an upper room in a house on the height of Jerusalem. It was a time of the real parting between Jesus and those who loved him best in this world. It was then and there that Jesus told his disciples they would soon be ashamed of him. Peter was apparently insulted. "Lord," said Peter, "I am ready to go with you into prison and unto death."

Jesus looked at Peter with deep sympathy and said: "Peter, the cock shall crow this day till you three times shall deny me." Peter protested: "Although I should die with you, I will not deny you."

Hours later in a court adjourning the temple Peter stood warning his hands. When a maid said to Peter "You were also with Jesus," replied Peter, "I know Him Not." Again and again the woman declared he was with Jesus. Then Peter roared an oath and cursed and added, "I don't know this man you are talking about."

The words had no more left his lips when Peter heard the shrill crow of a rooster. Then when he turned he beheld the eyes of Jesus and with compassion in his eyes Jesus seemed to say, "I told you so Peter, you didn't mean what you said."

"Do we mean what we say? We sometimes even lie as we sing the songs of Zion.

"We sing, 'Onward Christian Soldiers,' But we fail to march onward to the church.

"We sing 'Heavenly Sunlight,' and in the hot summer we don't go to church because it is too hot. We sing, 'Oh, For A Thousand Tongues,' and we don't use the one we have to sing in the choir.

Man's Fight Against Nature Goes On Daily

MIAMI — (UPI) — Planes gave Hurricane Debbie another dose of chemicals Wednesday, but the storm kept on lashing open seas 1,000 miles east of Miami with winds up to 125 miles an hour.

Navy jets began seeding the wall of clouds surrounding the eye with silver iodide crystals at two-hour intervals starting at 8 a.m. in a repeat of Monday's operation.

At noon EDT Debbie was located near latitude 25.4 north, longitude 64.2 west — 476 miles south of Bermuda and 500 miles north of San Juan, Puerto Rico.

It was moving west-northwest at 15 miles an hour, but forecasters said it probably would slow down later in the day.

Little change in size or intensity was promised.

Directors of Project Storm-fury said no further seeding of Debbie would take place.

Thirteen planes participated in the Puerto-based operation, including four instrument-laden aircraft which flew into the storm to observe results and record them for scientific evaluation.

Scientists said it would be several weeks before they can tell if they have made progress in finding a way to dissipate the fury of nature's most destructive forces.

Planes dropped silver iodide crystals into Debbie on the theory they would cool the hurricane's funnel wall, sapping it of live-giving heat energy. Monday's seeding had no apparent impact.

Camille was no lady.

Camille was a hurricane the likes of which this country has never seen. Starting on the night of August 17th, it ripped its way through Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. It flooded Virginia and West Virginia. It killed people by the hundreds. It destroyed homes by the thousands. It crippled countless small businessmen and farmers and fishermen. And it left thousands of Americans in desperate straits. Red Cross volunteers are there right now, doing everything they can, but the latest estimate says it will take $15,000,000 to put those thousands of American men, women and children back on their feet. Give them all you can. Right now, you're all they've got.

Rumors Say "Jackie" Is Expecting Child

ATHENS, UPI — A spokesman for Aristotle Onassis Wednesday branded as "ridiculous" a French press report that his wife, Jacqueline was pregnant. But the spokesman did not flatly deny the report.

"Even if it were true this is a very personal matter that should not interest the press," the spokesman said.

It quoted an unidentified friend of the couple as saying the birth was expected at the beginning of August. Antiquary show owner Costas Harris takes a close friend of the Onassis family scuffed at the report and said he believed the Onassis did not plan to have any children.

"I know very well and you can quote me," he said.

But Dr. Ioannis Deriazis, one of Greece's top obstetricians and an Onassis family friend, was reported vacationing at Lefkas, the island next to the Onassis family friend.

Hemingway - The Man Idaho Knew So Well

By BILL LUCA
 General Press Association
 Contributor

KETCHUM, Idaho — It has been 14 years since Ernest Hemingway wrote the last book he ever wrote, and yet this man's spirit still lives. He still is here, in the mountains and valleys, still to be seen by those who come to Ketchum to visit him.

Hemingway, Ketchum, nestled in the heart of central Idaho's Sawtooth Mountains, was long Hemingway's private retreat, and the ideal home. He loved the solitude, the mountains and the quiet yet simple beauty of the people. He called the Sawtooths "the loveliest mountains that I know." Hills reminded him of Spain, and so did the Basque people who inhabit sections of Idaho. He found good, lasting hunting companions in this outdoor wilderness. He also did some of his best writing there.

Hemingway first came to the Sawtooths in 1928 as a guest of the then-new Sun Valley Club, which was then at Ketchum. He had a roving time hunting with round companions in room 206 of the lodge he shared morning. "For whom the Bell Tolls" was written here.

The following autumn, the best-selling author's adventure was back. That season he hunted with actor Gary Cooper in what grew into a close, durable friendship. And Ketchum had the unique experience of being the launching of a literary milestone about the Spanish Civil War, with both the author and the actor to play the motion picture lead in their midst.

From then on, Sun Valley held a special place in Hemingway's heart. He had always been partial to the American West, hunting in Wyoming and Montana before discovering the Sawtooths. He traveled the world, professed great love for Spain and Cuba, but always came back to Idaho.

Yet Hemingway wrote little about this place, keeping it private, well-removed from the People liked his skyman, his slight smile, his generosity and efforts to be helpful, and his love of fun. Many found it difficult to match this man with the hard drinking, two-faced aviator he described in popular profiles about him. He never pushed his books, although he gave his signature humbly and gladly, as though to do so were a great honor.

The only town he represented in the local library was about writing birds, and was unpaid. He shunned public appearances, the only one on record was before a church youth group of a neighboring town.

TODAY, Hemingway built his various tourists find it difficult to believe he was ever here. It is far removed from the things he wrote about—Spain, Cuba, Africa, and Paris. They seek out the grave in the little Ketchum cemetery, near those of two hunting pals of many years. They look for his house, where Mary Hemingway still lives part of the time. And they visit the simple, yet beautiful memorial along Trail Creek, erected by Ketchum friends.

Ketchum is sometimes accused of forgetting Hemingway, since there is no sign at the town entrance. "Ernie" Hemingway and the sunbather and the madman. There are many picture postcards, cheap souvenirs, photographs, book displays, or a bar called "Papa's Place." The Hemingway home is not open for tours, as the place in Cuba. Yet every citizen has his own stories, and in time, these may become a legend. They respect Mary's feelings, and those of son Jack, who also resides here.

Hemingway's love for Idaho was expressed years ago in the eulogy he wrote for a friend killed while hunting. The words are now a part of his own memorial on Trail Creek.

"Best of all he loved the fall when the leaves yellowed on the cottonwoods and leaves-falling from the trout streams. And above the hills the high blue windless sky. Now he will be a part of them forever."

Psychiatrist Diamond Says Sirhan Is A Schizophrenic

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A psychiatrist said Sunday that Sirhan B. Sirhan let himself be found guilty of first-degree murder in the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and sentenced to death in the state prison at Joliet, Ill., for the killing.

Dr. Bernard L. Diamond, a psychiatric witness in the trial, believed himself to be a fantastic martyr who by his noble act of self-sacrifice has served his people, the Arabs, and become a great hero.

In an interview printed in Psychology Today, Diamond said that Sirhan is ready to die in the gas chamber to protect this heroic fantasy.

Diamond, 55, professor of law and psychiatry at the University of California San Pedro, says at Berkeley University's School of Criminology, said persons accused of serious crimes frequently exhibit mental illness even though it would constitute an adequate defense at their trial.

Diamond, who put Sirhan under hypnosis during pre-trial examinations, said the defendant, an Arab child in the first, second, and third wars, underwent bombing and strafing and that his condition deteriorated after he came to the United States.

He became preoccupied with revolution violence dreams of glory and power and becoming the savior of his people, the psychiatrist said.

Because Sirhan lacked the capacity for premeditation, Diamond said, "he should have been found guilty of manslaughter."

"Perhaps this case will one day be seen for what it was," said Diamond, "a public spectacle, a peculiar detour from the normal development of Criminal law."

Hawks To Play 9 Preseason Games

ATLANTA (UPI) — The Atlanta Hawks announced Saturday a nine-game pre-season schedule that will carry them into seven states and cover more than 4,000 miles.

The Hawks, who began preparing for the 1969-70 season on Sept. 15 at Marist High School, will play the world champion Boston Celtics three times, Phoenix twice, Chicago twice and Cincinnati, Milwaukee and Baltimore once each. All games have been scheduled except for one contest with Phoenix.

Atlanta opens the pre-season trail on Wednesday, Sept. 25 in Columbia, S. C. against the Celtics and winds up the schedule with Milwaukee in Memphis' Mid-South Coliseum Saturday, Oct. 11.

Three games will be played in Georgia—Boston in Gainesville on Saturday Sept. 27; Chicago in Statesboro at Georgia Southern on Monday, Oct. 6; and the Bills again in Macon's coliseum on Tuesday, Oct. 7.

Other games are scheduled in Shreveport, La., against Phoenix Tuesday night, Sept. 30; Cincinnati in Fairmont, West Virginia, Wednesday, Oct. 8; Baltimore in Louisville, Thursday, Oct. 9; Boston in Jackson, Miss., Thursday, Sept. 25.

Site of the second game with Phoenix will be announced later.

The Hawks open the regular season Oct. 15 against Seattle in Alexander Memorial Coliseum.

"It's a good exhibition schedule from three angles," Coach Richie Guerin said. "Glad to see Phoenix before the season starts since they have a couple Hawks and Paul Silas; Cincinnati has a new coach, Bob Cousy; and Milwaukee has Lew Alcindor.

"These teams are going to be trying extra hard from the very beginning and we can get some idea of what they'll be like once the season begins. You never can tell about Boston, especially when you play them early in the pre-season schedule."

The schedule—Sept. 24 Boston at Columbia, S. C. Carolina Coliseum, Sept. 25 Boston at Jackson, Miss.

After that, just sit back and be lazy. Each payday part of your pay will be automatically set aside for U.S. Savings Bonds.

And that can mean big money for you in the years to come. For a new home, for education, or for retirement.

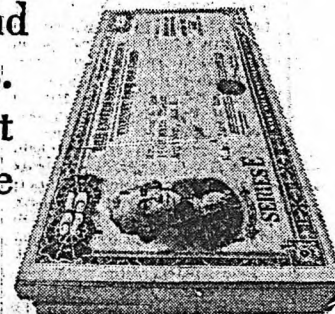

It means big money for your country, too. The kind it takes to put men on the moon, build highways, and keep the nation strong.

And the government believes in safeguarding your investment in it. Bonds are guaranteed. And the U.S. Treasury will replace them—free—if they are lost, stolen, or destroyed.

There's a bonus, too. Each Bond you buy entitles you to buy a Freedom Share of the same denomination. Freedom Shares pay a higher rate of interest than Bonds, and mature in just four and one-half years.

Now doesn't that sound like easy handiwork?

If they're lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace 'em.

National Baptist Convention, U S A To Meet In Kansas City, Sept. 7-14

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — The 88th National Baptist Convention U. S. A. Inc. will be held here September 9th through 14th at the Municipal Auditorium. It was announced today by Dr. Joseph H. Jackson, Chicago, president of the group.

The Convention which annually draws 16 to 20 thousand delegates from throughout the United States is a strong sounding board for the nation's largest organized body of American Negroes. Dr. Jackson said the vent would make major contributions to understanding the totality of the black community as well as the white community.

"Victory through Christ" is the theme of the convention. "We will deal with better race relations and Christian patriotism," Dr. Jackson said.

"Our membership now 6.3 million membership now 3 million represented by 30,000 churches, has steadily increased throughout the years by uniting Baptist churches and organizations. Year round objectives include support of home and foreign missions, Christian education and distribution of Sunday school and other religious literature and generally to engage in Christian endeavors."

Two of the most noteworthy projects undertaken by the group are the Freedom Farm in Fayette County Tenn. and "Operation Production" in Liberia, West Africa.

Freedom Farm, purchased in 1961 is a 404 acre area for the resettlement of families evicted from their homes and denied the right to work because they attempted to register and vote.

"Operation Production" began in 1964 when Liberian President W. V. S. Tubman granted 100,000 acres of land to the National Baptists for agricultural production, and for the training and education of that nation's youth.

The Convention annually sponsors through its project $10 million Educational Foundation, and operates youth camps, student centers and the American Baptist Theological Seminary. It is an integral part of the Baptist World Alliance, and works in close association with the World Council of Churches, the National Council of Churches and the United Nations.

Administrator Moran said he decided to establish an area office in Atlanta and to promote Reid to area director because of the increased responsibilities assigned to this office since its establishment.

He noted that much additional responsibility has been delegated recently by the Washington headquarters to local area offices all over the country in keeping with President Nixon's directive to get government as close to the people as possible by delegating decision-making authority to Federal officials located in certain key areas.

Moran added that he was happy to have a Department of Labor Wage-Hour director located in Atlanta for the first time in the history of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, which began operation in 1938. He said the office is available to assist both employers and employees to learn of their rights and responsibilities under the Federal laws administered and enforced by the Wage and Hour Division.

New Area Director Reid, a native of Highland Park, Michigan, was graduated from Michigan State University in 1952 with a degree in Business Administration. Prior to his appointment, he was an investigator at the Fort Lauderdale, Florida office.

The area office of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Division serving this area is located at 75 Forsyth Street, N. W. Atlanta, Ga. 30303, telephone 404-526-6398.

1968 he served as a member of the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches.

Dr. Jackson has conferred with Pope John XXIII, President Johnson and many heads of state on the problems affecting better relations and the unity of this country in the interest of justice and freedom for all.

Dr. Jackson is pastor of Chicago's Olivet Baptist Church.

struggle for life aroused the nation's sympathy and brought more than $20,000 in donations from across the United States, lived for 162 days after he was attacked and bitten by a rabid bobcat April 1 at his lakeside home.

The longest previous survivor in medical records was a Kansas newsboy who died after 63 days.

Tommy developed the paralyzing and always fatal disease despite being given the standard series of 21 anti-rabies shots after the attack.

Since April 27 he had lain completely paralyzed in a coma at University Hospital.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Buchmann, never gave up hope for their son's life throughout the long ordeal.

But the doctor said even if Tommy have miraculously recovered from the disease he would have suffered permanent brain damage from the long coma.

Doctors tried to find some cure but said sadly, "There was nothing known that would kill rabies without killing the boy."

The Buchmanns and their other two children, Max Jr., 6, and Elizabeth, 10 live on a four-acre children ranch in the foothills of east San Diego county.

Neither his brother nor sister visited Tommy at the hospital. Elizabeth told her parents, "I'd just as soon remember his happy face as it was."

With the same number of systems reporting last year, the teacher vacancy total was 780.

"There are two reasons for most teachers' vacancies," said Ted B. Owens, the department's associate director for teacher certification. "Most of the young, certified teachers want to live in a major city. Metropolitan Atlanta, for example, has a surplus of qualified teachers. We suggest teachers accept an opening in a city with a population of 30,000 or less but they usually decline."

"We never get 100% response to our annual survey because systems that do not need personnel seldom respond to our survey."

"Secondly when a future teacher enters college he often fails to inquire about which field are in demand. Instead the student selects subjects which he enjoyed when attending high school," Owens said. "Georgia has more than enough certified teachers in social studies and English, but not enough elementary education, science and mathematics teachers. There is also a shortage of industrial arts instructors."

"My office has had reports that due to Federal court orders requiring the integration of all public school teaching staffs some teachers
