

MY VIEWS ON THE "RIOT."

Many people are writing about the incidents, and statements in defense of the riot, its ~~disparaging~~ ^{unjust} nature. He opposite, or shall we say of another nature. On ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~entire~~ ^{entire} ~~movement~~ ^{movement} has my support. I will first ~~say~~ ^{say} that the crime of looting was ~~not~~ ^{not} in the downtown ~~area~~ ^{area} much ~~thurs~~ ^{thurs}, but I was ~~not~~ ^{not} ~~of~~ ^{of} many ~~of~~ ^{of} the things which policemen did that were unjust. But my ~~main~~ ^{main} ~~concern~~ ^{concern} is the crime of looting. I prefer not to mention ~~names~~ ^{names} because of family ties involved.

A close in law of mine called to tell me that her brother Herron had "half of Pape's Men Store" at home on the bed.

Herron has been in jail once for forgery and always involved in something crooked. This is why I say it was a crime. He went down to the march looking for something to happen and another chance to loot and steal.

The unfortunate part of it is his sister and mother seem to think nothing of it and they are considered to be most respectable people in the neighborhood. His sister Brenda called be laughing about the loot he had collected, which consisted of some 22 sweaters ($30 + up each), 30 shirts, a bolt of men's suit material and shoes. I think what things like this really defeat our overall purpose and strives in the movement. It is shameful to know that there are people who are just waiting on violence and disturbances to occur for their own personal gain.
