Mr. B. Greenlaw & Co in taking the tract for building the joint fifty to the buyers - made no specific bid for any part of the work - but made a lump sum bid for the whole say $26350 to be paid in money and $1000 in stock - we have agreed to order as the stock to its value say $500 - making therefore the bid as then put to bid the work for $26850 as no item was specified - we have agreed as a fair mode of settlement - that such items charged as estimated by the joint building shall be placed at the fair market price at which such work was changed during the summer & fall of 1856 - by the articles they charge else not more up the sum of $26850 - than as per eval on all the articles containing in and certificate the building shall be added until the same makes up the sum of $26850 It is agreed on between that Moore & Holston shall represent Mr B Greenlaw to any thing that may be done - shall not be required to make new measurements but that they shall take the papers appearing to the contract and settle the matter as to the price of for old work - ~~see~~ the contract for all the work - outside of the joint fifty feet - now located on the joint fifty feet except what may be termed extra work the entire work - not specified in contract they shall settle on - gain
