Col Fopp

Memphis.

My Dear Sir.

Enclosed find three letters addressed to Mr Parkman - deliver whichever one you think best makes the case -

I would suggest no such commitment to him as would forestall you in a prosecution against him for fraud in the event that he refuses to make any settlement upon the government - and here has put in one letter that simply appeals to his honor - and yet makes no such mention of particulars as would carry the idea that money was the object - However you know the subject better than I do and treat it as you may think proper - His whole operation ought to be knocked to hell - and I think it best to hold yourself in a position to do that, if he won't settle -

Reynolds is in New Orleans - expect him up Saturday - will write you again as soon as I see him -

Put yourself on Parkman Street
- him opposite Memphis - in a hurry

Yours Truly

J. A. Harrow

The understanding here is that I have four boats now in Red River.
