

James Clemens

L. C. Clemens

BURROW LIBRARY
Southwestern at Memphis

MRS. ASA A. LOW
622 SOUTH EDGEFIELD
DALLAS, TEXAS

A. 102

March 25, 1926.

Mr William M. Farrington

Memphis, Tenn.

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of a clipping sent me from a Brenton paper (Banner Press) which contains your letter in regard to the excise tax on cotton after the civil war. While I do not see my father or grand father's names. Yet they were both farmers. I am sure in those years in Washington or Fayette Counties - My grand father was

MRS. ASA A. LOW
622 SOUTH EDGEFIELD
DALLAS, TEXAS

James Clemmons and my father was L. C. Clemmons. My father came to Texas in 1835 and his father died there in Washington County. He died in 1893 in Brenham. He was a farmer, he was not a big plantation owner, but his farm was 468 acres 9 miles from Brenham.

Spec my uncle's name on my mother's side G. W. Newman, so I am sending the clipping to his daughter - I will appreciate any information if you have any of my father's or grand father's receipts - Kindly oblige Mrs Ruth Clemmons Low or Asa A.