

Gates Elizabeth

From: prayersatwork@googlegroups.com on behalf of Prayers At Work
[prayers@prayersatwork.com]
Sent: Friday, August 07, 2009 2:32 PM
To: prayersatwork@googlegroups.com
Subject: [PRAYERS AT WORK] Aug 10-14, 2009

Monday, August 10, 2009 -- (Meditation: Galatians 1:3-4) God, how great is Your gift of salvation! Our Savior lived a perfect life, laid it down, and now gives us forgiveness through His perfect life.

You laid upon Him the iniquity of us all. He became sin so that we are free from condemnation. He took all our anger and bitterness, all our disobedience and vanity, upon Himself. He became perfectly guilty so that we may become perfectly innocent in Your eyes. He took on the Cross, so that we may take on the Crown. God, how great is Your gift of salvation!

Tuesday, August 11, 2009 -- (Meditation: Psalm 97:10) God, I pray for those who are plotting to kill innocent civilians around the world. God, grant our nation the kind of unity that comes from caring for each other, not just unity that comes from a common dread of the unknown. I pray for those in the armed forces and special units, for our President, and for all our citizens. Hold us in the everlasting arms of faith and grace. Through Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.

Wednesday, August 12, 2009 -- (Meditation: Romans 15:4) God, the Bible was written by those who lived in small towns and worked alone or in small groups, but I am grateful that the Bible is never out of date. Today, we are urbanized, bureaucratic, and in constant touch. We are a society of organizations. Help us to discern what Christian principles apply in setting salaries and prices . . . in budgeting and profits . . . in goal-setting and accountability. God, show us Your will, and guide our stewardship and our lives. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Thursday, August 13, 2009 -- (Meditation: Psalm 143:8-10) God, my life with You is like a mountain range, with high vistas of faith, and majestic heights of fellowship. But between these sunny peaks there are dark valleys of doubt. Are You really real? Are You really in control of this seemingly random and changing world? When Your Word is ignored, and secular idols stand glistening, are You really there? Is there really life after death? God, help my unbelief. Help me to look to Jesus Who didn't despair, even when the people in His own home town tried to throw Him off a cliff . . . or when Peter denied Him . . . or when people spat in His face . . . or when His hands and feet were pierced by spikes. God, when I doubt, help me look straight-on at the Cross, and realize that THIS is how much I matter to You! Help me to lay down my wavering doubts at the Cross, and receive the assurance of YOUR faithfulness. Through Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.

Friday, August 14, 2009 -- (Meditation: James 1:12) God, if I need to suffer to be close to You, I will suffer. If I need to be led in paths unknown to follow You, I will go. Whatever I need to do to be Your disciple, I will do. God, mold me. Make me Yours. Make my will Your Own. Through Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.

Feel free to forward these prayers to friends. When you do, ask them to:

1.) Click here --> <http://www.PrayersAtWork.com> and 2.) Click on "Please Send Me The Prayers." There is no charge, no cost to pay, and they can unsubscribe at any time. Thank you.

Jim Daughdrill,

Prayers At Work, Inc.
4646 Poplar Ave, Suite 543
Memphis, TN 38117
© Copyright 2009 James H. Daughdrill, Jr.