NUMBER 21

KING AND QUEEN OF CARNIVAL ELECTED

Senior and Freshman to Sit on Throne.

One of the annual events of the spring, one in which most interest is taken, is the election of the king and queen of the Carnival. This election was held on April 22. The honor of selecting the king is given the co-ed faction of our student body. The only requirement for his selection is that he must be a member of the "S" Club. However, it is considered a senior honor, but there is no rule to this effect. This year Mr. Cyril Crawford Wilson was the honored athlete. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Wilson, of this city.

The queen is chosen by the members of the "S" Club from the co-ed group, and the fortunate young lady on this occasion was Miss Elizabeth Ellis, of this city also. Miss Ellis is of Class '23, and is a member of the Sigma Pi Upsilon Sorority. She was also a member of the basketball team of '19-'20, playing forward on the team. Mr. Wilson is a member of the S. A. E. Fraternity. He is of class '20 and has made the baseball team each year since his entrance at Southwestern four years ago. During his first year he played center field, the following two years at third base, and this season he is again playing center field on the Varsity.

The carnival will be held on the three days of May 27, 28 and 29. On the gala night, May 29, the king will be crowned by the queen with appropriate ceremonies. The parade, which will be led by the king and queen in their royal float, will be held probably on the morning of May 29. This will be a beautiful affair. Many floats have been promised. The fraternities are planning to send in lovely floats. The sorority and the co-eds will be represented as well.

On the afternoon of May 27th a double-header baseball game will be played with Vanderbilt University on Shearer Field. Each night beautiful fireworks will be displayed. Those who saw the beautiful display of last year will never forget it. Many other unique attractions will be staged. The prizes for the concessions are of the best available and you are sure to be satisfied with the things you win—candy, knives, dolls, teddy bears, and many other prizes. Wait and see. There will not be a gate fee, so everyone is expected to attend all the shows, try his hand at each concession and leave wreathed in smiles, to return the following night for another joyous time. Plans are being perfected and everyone is expected to do all that has been asked of him. Don't shirk; make this your carnival, and you will enjoy it more after your hard labor in putting it over.

Watch the Bulletin Board for results of Popularity Contest on April 29 and 30.

SOUTHWESTERN 0; BETHEL COLLEGE 1.

Red and Black Again Suffers Defeat—Left Monday to Play Union and "Ole Miss."

On Friday, April 23, Southwestern played Bethel College at Russellville, Ky. Again breaks were not even, and although it looked as if though we were going to score, something would always happen. The game was lost, and it cannot be said that it was lost on account of bad playing, because, excepting one ground ball which was missed, the game was perfect.

It was an unusually fast game, the first seven innings being played inside of forty-five minutes, and the entire game not lasting over one hour and thirty minutes. The team was in good form and was hitting fair, snagging all coming their way. It was a battle between the pitchers. Many of the innings lasted only one or two minutes, sometimes only four balls being pitched.

The fielding of both teams was wonderful, and when it comes to picking stars it is almost impossible. For Southwestern, Ferguson, who pitched, cannot be praised too much. He struck out twelve men and allowed only three hits, all of which were singles. Pritchard at first base and McAtee in right field are due some mention. For Bethel, Underwood, who pitched, struck out eight men and pitched a good game. Hall and Gerheiser played well also.

It was only in the seventh inning that Bethel made the one run which won over S. P. U.

The box score follows:

S. P. U.	A. B.	R.	H.	E.
Patton, 3b.	4	0	0	0
Pritchard, 1b.	2	0	1	0
Love, 2b.	4	0	0	0
Moore, ss.	4	0	0	1
McAtee, rf.	4	0	1	0
Nelson, cf.	3	0	0	0
Richardson, c.	3	0	0	0
Wilson, lf.	3	0	0	1
Ferguson, p.	2	0	0	2
Total	29	0	2	4
Bethel.	A. B.	R.	H.	E.
Hall, 1b.	4	0	0	0
Green, 2b.	3	0	1	1
Glenn, ss.	4	0	0	1
Ganeis, rf.	4	0	1	0
Jones, 3b.	4	0	0	0
Johnson, cf.	4	0	0	0
Gerheiser, c.	2	1	1	0
Harrell, lf.	3	0	0	0
Total	30	1	3	2

The team, as can be seen from the above, is in perfect shape, and you can expect to place four victories beside the Red and Black when they return from Union University and Ole Miss. The team left early Monday morning and will probably return Friday night. Meet them at the train and show the old spirit.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT BEGINS MAY 1st.

New Courts Constructed—Tournament Committee Lays Out Rules.

The three tennis courts on the campus are always crowded with enthusiastic players. Even those who are not interested in any form of athletics are coming out for tennis. Many are just learning the sport this year, while others are quite expert. The two new courts which are being constructed on the West Campus, just beyond the Castle, will be ready to be played upon by the first of May, or when the tournament opens.

The ribbons for prizes for the tournament have been ordered and are expected at any time. Much interest was shown in the tournament last year, and it is certain that a similar array of tennis artists will enter this year. Everyone, whether he considers himself of the very poorest or as the champion, should come out and try in this tournament. The rules as drawn up by the committee, Wm. Lynn, Wm. Crowe, and Lillian Wilson, follow. The annual dues of 75 cents must be paid at once, and the 15 cents entrance dues in the tournament are necessary in order that new balls will be available to the players at all times.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT RULES.

"All members of the Southwestern Presbyterian University Tennis Association are eligible to enter the Spring Tournament, which shall begin promptly on Saturday,

May 1st. The association dues and also the tournament dues must be paid by that date.

"The committee in charge of the tournament are ready to accept the fee of fifteen cents (15c) and the names of contestants for the following five classes:

"1. Men's singles (apply to Wm. Crowe, Jr.).

"2. Women's singles (apply to Miss Lillian Wilson).

"3. Women's doubles (apply to Miss Lillian Wilson).

"4. Men's doubles (apply to Wm. Lynn).

"5. Mixed doubles (apply to Wm. H. Lynn).

"Get in your name now, as no entries will be accepted after 12 o'clock noon, Friday, April 30, 1920. Everyone is eligible to enter as a contestant in three classes, and no good member should think of entering for less than two. It depends upon the individual members of the association whether or not this tournament is to be a real success. It is for everyone and not merely for a few of the best players. Come out and have a good time.

"Blue ribbons, properly lettered and stamped, will be awarded to all winners of first places, and red ribbons of a similar nature will be awarded to winners of second places.

"The tournament shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the 'National Lawn Tennis Association,' except that all matches (excluding semi-finals and finals) shall be for the best two out of three sets. The semi-finals and finals shall be the best three out of five sets.

"The committee will arrange for officials, umpires and linesmen. Friday afternoon, April 30, at two o'clock, in the chapel, drawings will be made for places to determine the order of playing, and the results will be posted on the College Bulletin Board.

"For further information see any member of the committee."

What about a class tournament? Wouldn't it be a novel idea to have such? The classes would select their two best players and only doubles would be played, when mixed men's or women's, to be decided by the class at its election of those representing it.

The classes would play each other as Freshmen vs. Sophomores; winner vs. Juniors; winner vs. Seniors. Let us hear some expression on the subject.

Wanted—A left fielder.

Only twenty-eight days till the Carnival. Save your nickels.

ISN'T IT THE TRUTH?

This recently appeared in the Leaf-Chronicle:

People of Clarksville You who would oppose the removal of S. P. U. to another city. What have the citizens of Clarksville done to make S. P. U. a larger, better school? There is an enthusiastic, promising student body at S. P. U., but how long could pep remain in a group isolated from the rest of the world? Just about as long as the spirit for good, clean, manly athletics will remain in the students if S. P. U. is doomed to remain forever in Clarksville. Sure! The students support the town financially, socially and otherwise. But what support is given the students by the merchants? Think it over! How many games of football did you see? You say, "That was in the afternoon. I couldn't get off." How often did you find it to your advantage to stand around and talk to your friends? Financial advantage, of course! Do the students offer any advantage of this kind? How many games of basketball did you attend? "That was at night. I couldn't get off." Did you attend the Elks' minstrel? Enough said. But when it comes to a good, clean baseball game, where enthusiasm runs riot among the students, where there is more excitement than any movie you ever saw, where there are things more ridiculous than any joke at a minstrel, where there is an elevating, clean, sportsmanship spirit—then is when the people at Clarksville show how they feel toward S. P. U. They are not seen? They may stand upon the street corners and talk of S. P. U. having been here for years and it should remain. Nothing is permanent, not even the spirit of the citizens toward S. P. U. We wonder how many people of the town were at the game Friday. Perhaps twenty, but certainly no more. Yet S. P. U. is necessary for Clarksville, but Clarksville is not necessary for S. P. U.

Do you remember that when a good game was held under the old Kitty League that the merchants declared a holiday in order that their employes might see the game? What have they done for S. P. U.? Surely they shall offer something similar, at least when we play a double-header with Vanderbilt on May 27. It is up to the people of Clarksville to show whether they want S. P. U. to remain or no, and if it should remain what kind of school it will be.

Boost the school, its athletics and other activities; show that Clarksville is willing to do her part in trying to make this town a more attractive site for the university.—A Co-Ed.

HAWKSHAW'S
FIND A VICTIM
The Lounge-Lizard Coffee-Drinkers No-Practice Gang Wins Over Clarksville High School.

Wednesday afternoon the Hawkshaws made their appearance in baseball togs, journeyed over to the Kitty League park and won from Clarksville High School 9 to 6, after six innings of the most varied (and unknown) playing ever seen in these parts.

As is usual with the Hawkshaws, there had been no former practice, and no one even knew the line-up until just before the "ump" called play ball. "Rat" Watson, Paul Draughn and "Walter Camp" Gewin, the organizers, hurriedly got together and put a team on the field which showed, before the first inning was over, that they were most all worth of the much coveted "H."

Details of the game would be tedious to relate (also impossible), but one cannot help but remember when P. D. went to sleep, Buhalia Buck from Byhalia turned and ran backward after a ball, that he was too lazy to bend over for "Stuck" Thomas' throw to third to catch a man whom "Tip" had forced to go there; "Fatty" Downing's expression when he called a foul ball fair, merely remarking, "Oh, I did not see it."

The features of the game were the pitching and hitting of "Jimmy" Tipton, the base running of "Rat" Watson and, for C. H. S., the hitting of Caroland.

The line-up for the Hawkshaws was:

- Draughn, 1b.
- Roberts, 2b.
- Adger, ss.
- Robison, 3b.
- Watson, rf.
- Culbertson, cf.
- Buckley, lf.
- Thomas, M., c.
- Tipton, p.

And Taylor got in before it was over and may run some of the other men donned with the letter "H" from their present positions.

This week several games with the high school and maybe one with the I. O. O. F. Home will be played on Shearer Field, as the Varsity will be on their Mississippi trip. Anyone who considers himself good enough to play on the Hawkshaws is asked to report to "Rat" Watson, Draughn or Gewin, and he will be given a fair trial.
