

NEW STUDENTS
GUESTS OF "Y" AT RECEPTION

Delightful Affair Well Attended

As has been the custom for years an opportunity to meet the new men at Southwestern has been given the city, in the form of a reception held under the auspices of the University Y. M. C. A.

Consequently, on the evening of September 16, this reception was held, and the friends of the University came out en masse, to greet these new ones as well as to give the welcoming handshake and appreciative smile to the "old boys," and returned professors and their wives.

Clarksville is to be congratulated on having as citizens, men and women of such high mental and moral worth as the ones who compose the personnel of the faculty and students of the University.

On this occasion the Commons had been turned into a place of beauty and charm by the use of many gorgeous fall flowers. Quantities of golden rod brought the veritable shine of the sun into the hall and the stately dahlias and green ferns completed a picture of beauty. Not least among the beauties and receiving far more attention than their inanimate rivals were quite a large number of Clarksville's most lovely and graceful daughters who did much to make the occasion of much enjoyment.

The faculty and their wives formed the receiving line, which was headed by Dr. Diehl, president of the University, and Mrs. Diehl. Many of the fair co-eds were stationed about the hall in groups to present the new students to the visitors.

A most pleasing feature of the reception was the splendid musical program. Several selections by the University quartette, composed of Messrs. Bayne, Johnson, Smith and Mount, were roundly applauded and called on for several encores. The duet, a medley of popular Southern songs, by Messrs. Bayne and Felts, was much enjoyed as was also the solo numbers given by Mr. Boulton of Vicksburg, Miss., who will be quite an addition to the musical feature of the University this year. Mr. McLean accompanied Mr. Boulton, and Miss Lillian Wilson the other numbers; each played so well as to elicit praise from the audience.

Frappe was dispensed from a pretty decorated table by Mrs. Bratton and several assistants. A most delightful orange ice, and

The United Brotherhood of Upperclassmen, known as the San Hedrin, is a live organization this year. (For proof, go to any Freshman on the campus.) The first meeting of this organization was held the second day of school in the Little Chapel, and Ted Rogers, class of '24, was elected High Priest to succeed Lloyd O'Neal.

The first function of the San Hedrin was to make all Freshmen provide themselves with "Farmer Straws" which were to be worn until our first football victory.

And during the past three weeks one could readily see that this order was well carried out, for these country-looking Freshmen with these country-looking hats

SOLOIST AND DRAMATIC COACH
WELCOMED BACK

Mrs. Kenny to Be in Clarksville
This Winter

Southwestern heartily welcomes Mrs. Ralph Kenney back, after an absence of a year. She was very much missed last year in many departments of the school and we hope that this time she has come to stay.

Last winter Mrs. Kinney was in New York studying with Griffith. Those who know and appreciate what a wonderfully fine voice Mrs. Kinney has are very much delighted that she had such an excellent opportunity to cultivate it further. Mrs. Kinney also had numerous concert engagements throughout the winter, both in New York and in other eastern cities.

The year Mrs. Kenney spent in Clarksville she not only became very popular as a soloist but as director of the dramatic club of the school, "The Pals." She supervised a very clever one-act play "Ici on Parle Francaise," and later a longer play "The Prince of Liars." Both of these proved very popular with the audiences which witnessed them and it is sincerely hoped that she will again take up this work, in which she is so talented and efficient.

Master Bobby Kenney, or "Little Coach," as he is better known, is also a welcome addition to Clarksville and Southwestern. We feel sure that Coach Kenney will not be disappointed in the hope

NEW HEAD OF MATH DEPARTMENT

Dr. H. M. Derr of Auburn Welcomed to Campus

As head of the Department of Mathematics, the University is fortunate in having Dr. H. M. Derr, who comes to us from Auburn, Alabama, where he taught in the college.

Before going to Auburn, Dr. Derr taught at Brookings, South Dakota, for several years. He has also been connected with Columbia University and several other colleges and universities in different parts of the country.

Dr. Derr has the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Pennsylvania. He was a student at Leland Stanford University, where he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and later he studied at Columbia, receiving his Master of Arts from that institution.

Mrs. Derr is also a graduate of Leland Stanford and Pennsylvania. She did her graduate work at Pennsylvania and has a Master's degree from that University.

Dr. Derr was State Engineer of South Dakota for several years, when his efficiency won wide recognition for him.

Dr. and Mrs. Derr have a very attractive son and daughter. Miss Coralie Derr is a very welcome addition to the co-eds on the campus and the college set in town. She graduated last year from Auburn High School where her charm and personality will be missed. The son, Stacey, has been entered in Howell school.

Dr. and Mrs. Derr and family are at present at the Montgomery Hotel. Clarksville and Southwestern are very glad to have them here and hope that the pleasure will be mutual.

PRESENTATION OF HONOR COUNCIL

Beautiful Shield Presented
President Culberson

Calling attention to the significant importance of his act, Dr. Diehl spent a few moments in Chapel last Monday morning impressing the students with the trust reposing in them through their Honor Council representatives. Student government at Southwestern has been established so long as to be a tradition now and the Honor Council, as head of this government, has always exercised its authority wisely, firmly and efficiently, and in no case has the faculty failed to agree with its course of action and uphold its judgments to the letter. No stronger evidence of the strength and influence of the Honor System could possibly be asked for. The unparalleled success of the system at Southwestern leaves no doubt as to the advisability of its establishment elsewhere.

The insignia accepted by President Culberson on behalf of the present Council consists of a silver shield with the coat of arms of the Council engraved upon it. Below it are two rows of name plates upon which are engraved the names of the present members of the Council. The whole is mounted on a wooden base which shows it off to best advantage being of a dark enough color to be an effective contrast for its silver mountings.

This handsome plaque which will be in the care of the president, Mr. James M. Culberson, bears in addition to his name, the names of the following who have been elevated to positions of the highest honor and trust by the student body: Misses Dorothy G. Smith, Hallie Dority and Mary Patterson; Messrs. Chas. R. Gilliam, D. Lloyd O'Neal, John R. Richardson, Clement Ritter.

Never before has a larger or better group of boys been associated together at this University, or on the latter point, at any university.

With the activities of the older men spurred to keener work and more forms of it by a hustlier bunch of freshmen who intend to make the class of '26 famous in its first year, we may see Southwestern put on the map in a greater variety of activities than ever before.

Not only in athletics but in literary, musical and dramatic collegiate circles will Southwestern be able to win and keep the place we all want her to have. It is hoped that we may record in these pages more news and better news of bigger things this year than has been our opportunity in the past.

KAPPA DELTA SOCIETY MEETS

Plans for the Year

The Kappa Delta Literary Society held its opening meeting of the year last Thursday afternoon at the home of the President, Miss McDaniel. The meeting was called to order by the president and at this time, she gave her inaugural address, in which she outlined the plans and policies of the Kappa Delta for the coming year. The work for the year will be the study of the "Development of Art." To carry out this program at each meeting a one-act play will be given from Tracey's "Treasury for Women." In doing this, Kappa Delta will not only discover and train the talent among the co-eds but also in a pleasant way, develop and foster an interest in dramatic production. In addition to the ten dollar prize, offered by Dr. Pharr for the best dramatization of the Greek story of Pyranus and Thisbe, Kappa Delta is offering a prize to the member who writes the best play on the same theme, and later on they hope to produce this in the Little Theatre. Plans were discussed and are on foot for bidding in new members and giving a banquet in the near future.

A paper on the "Beginning of Art" was given by Miss Margaret Fort. A second paper was read by Miss Annie Small on "The Festival in its Relation to the Spirit of Classical Art." A production of the dramatic dialogue, "The Collegian," was given; the personnel of which was Mr. Homespun—Sara McReynolds, Mrs. Homespun—Mary Patterson and Ichabod Homespun—Carrie T. McDaniels.

After the program was given, a social hour was enjoyed. Delightful refreshments were served. The next meeting is to be held with Miss Mary Durrett, October 12.

A. T. O. FRATERNITY ENTERTAINS PLEDGES

Party in Frat Room First of Season

One of the most enjoyable of the early fall social events was the party given last Thursday evening by the active chapter of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity to honor their pledges. The party was given in the A. T. O. room and proceeded in the most pleasant way, from the time the guests arrived until they went away.

An amusing feature of the evening was an impromptu program rendered by the Freshmen. This, in part, consisted of a solo by Boulton, a collarbutton tournament, a five minute demonstration of the Birmingham Bull, and a chorus, singing the season's latest hit "Le Menu" to the tune of "Home Sweet Home." A delicious salad course was served.

Those enjoying the A. T. O. party were: Dr. and Mrs. Lyon, Misses Margaret Fort, Frances Carmeal, Minna Cunningham, Mary Durrett, Frances Settle, Agnes Smith, Louisa Rodriguez, Mary Culberson, Sara McReynolds, Elizabeth Foster, Mary Patterson, Coralie Derr and Lillian Wilson; Boulton, Anderson, Ussery, Broome, Flemister, Glassell, Culberson, Wyatt, Rogers, Avery, Hotchkiss, Lee, Humphreys and Robison.

could be seen about the campus, on the street and everywhere else.

Then on Saturday night—16,—the San Hedrin furnished the freshmen with their first entertainment of the year. This entertainment was a large affair, so large that it required both Calvin and Robb Hills to accommodate the crowd. But it was a success. After giving the Freshmen a warm reception, and assuring them of the fun they furnished, the crowd began to thin out. It was a peppy affair, and all who were present understood thoroughly why the freshmen have such a lively gang this year. Before disbanding, the High Priest gave the new men a few instructions and assured them that the San Hedrin would entertain again before many moons.

With the San Hedrin working so smoothly, (and roughly) we are having very little trouble in getting men to rub down our football men, to line off the field and to do the little duties which arise. But we must say a few words of praise for the freshmen. They are all good fellows with the right spirit. So let's keep the good work going and show lots of PEP in everything we undertake.

Which professor was it that just before he went to class the other morning, threw his wife out the back door and kissed the garbage?

LIBRARY TO BE OPEN AT NIGHT

Many students will be glad to know that the library will be open now in the evenings from 7:30 until 10 o'clock for their convenience. The reading room will be in charge of Mr. R. H. Cobb who will be glad to assist you in finding any book you may need. This notice will be of special interest to those men who go out for football and find it difficult to get books for outside reading, etc., in their shortened leisure time. Attention may be called also to the recent addition in the Dramatic section and the Fiction section.

STYLUS CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

New Men Elected—Work for Year Planned—Attention Drawn to Stylus Cup

With Dr. Arrowood as the host, Stylus had a very important meeting Thursday evening, September 21.

The meeting was strictly businesslike in its proceedings and much was accomplished. The Club has returned eight men including Dr. Arrowood, Dr. Beale, Prof. Cooper, and Messrs. S. H. Monk, A. S. McIlwaine, Rembert Bayne, C. T. Fenwick and M. B. Ryan.

Two offices were found to be vacant and the ensuing election resulted in Mr. A. S. McIlwaine being elected vice-president and Mr. M. B. Ryan being chosen for the position of secretary-treasurer. As Mr. Monk was elected president last spring, this action puts the administration of the club into the hands of these three men.

Plans for the work of the year were made and approval of the study of the modern novel in the form of papers, with a chain novel as the more original and creative part of the work, was given. Dr. R. C. Beale is chairman of the Program committee and many interesting programs are anticipated.

At the conclusion of the meeting delightful refreshments were served by the host.

Stylus is pleased to announce at this time the addition to their number of Messrs. H. O. Felts and R. H. Cobb, who have shown marked literary and scholastic ability. Stylus feels proud of these new men and feels the advantages to be gained will be mutual.

Attention is called to the Scholarship Cup offered by Stylus to the fraternity with the highest average grade for the year. This cup is in the keeping of the University until the end of the year when it will be presented to the organization with the highest grade to be held by them for one year. Winning it three consecutive times a fraternity gains permanent ownership. Aside from the honor the cup itself is a beautiful example of the silversmith's art and would grace the hall of any fraternity on the campus.

"I'll raise the ante," said Luther, as he boosted his mother's sister onto the street car.

FACULTY LECTURES ARE INTERESTING AND INSTRUCTIVE

Students Would Do Well to Bear in Mind Points Brought out by Faculty Members

The student body has recently heard several very interesting and instructive lectures by members of the faculty.

Dr. Scott C. Lyon spoke of the Traditions of Southwestern. It is hard to give the traditions of a college because they are almost indefinable. One of our oldest traditions and one of which we all are proud is the Honor System. A student at Southwestern is not watched or spied upon but is put on his honor. The students, themselves, have the authority in all matters pertaining to student government. It would be a good thing if every man would really study and consider the traditions he has to uphold upon entering a school which boasts of the character of its graduates.

Another of the lectures was delivered by Dr. Arrowood. Dr. Arrowood spoke of the real value of athletics to a student. You do not come to college to bury yourself in books but to develop yourself into a man. Athletics makes the man more alert. The athlete can usually grasp a thing very quickly. Then a man can get something on a football team he can't get elsewhere. The grinding team work makes real men. Some think that the athletic field is made to roll around on, and waste time, but it's for men to work on. A team is trained and coached to win not to lose. What difference does it make if your opponent is heavier than you? He'll fall harder when you hit him.

Dr. Pharr was selected to speak to us on "Methods of Study" because he is at home in such a field. He gave one or two very helpful points to try out. In place of studying in your leisure moments, have a regular time to work, and then play in your leisure moments. It is very helpful to study with someone. Do not let them do all the studying but merely exchange ideas on the subject. This will help both of you.

Dr. Diehl spoke before the Y. M. C. A. about the responsibility of college life. The folks at home are expecting great things of you. You may form good habits or you may waste your time. On your choice depends your character and manhood. Many men have gone to the top by way of the college but others have gone to the bottom. At college you are free. Remember, that college is merely one round in the ladder of life and that character really counts after all.

that Bobby will make some team a wonderful football man.

The musical and social circles of Clarksville are very much delighted at Mrs. Kenney's return and look forward with pleasure to many events of the winter season to which her charming personality and lovely voice will add so much.

S. P. U. STARTS BALL ROLLING

VICTORY MARKS

S. P. U. OPENER

Southwestern pried off the football lid Saturday by running up the top-heavy score of 35 to 0 against the well-balanced team of the Morton-Elliott College. Coach R. C. Kenney seized the opportunity of trying out some of his new material and the showing they made was highly commendable. During the last ten minutes of the game the coach sent in the whole second team. They not only held the visitors for downs but succeeded in scoring a touchdown themselves under the fine generalship of quarterback Felts.

Captain Rogers won the toss and elected to receive the kick-off. Cobb received the ball and reached the 40-yard line before he was pulled down. On the initial play, Bayne had lingered on the sidelines and, not being noticed by the opposition, caught a beautiful forward pass from Culberson and raced to the three-yard line before he was downed. Wilson carried the ball over and also added one point under the new rules by booting a beautiful field goal.

After the ball had been worked deep into the enemy's territory Cobb scored the second touchdown by a brilliant run around the end after he had shaken off several tacklers. Wilson again added the extra point to the score by the field goal route. After a series of line plays coupled with a long forward pass, Wilson again carried the ball over for the third six-point marker and yet again added the one point as before. This ended the scoring in the first half but in the third quarter Cobb astonished the multitude by running away from a host of tacklers and crossing the line for his second touchdown. Wilson with uncanny skill booted another field goal making his average one thousand per cent. This was a fine performance when, under the new rules, it is done under actual game conditions. As already mentioned the second team added another touchdown. Newton negotiated this by a brilliant run around right end late in the last quarter. The one point was added by a deceptive forward pass, Felts to Newton over the line for the one point score.

The features of the game were the brilliant running of Cobb and the work of Wilson's educated toe. Wilson also demonstrated that he is a backfield man of caliber. Jesty played a bang-up game at end. The line failed to show much ability and lacked aggressiveness. It is here that Coach Kenney finds his greatest difficulty in building a team. Two good tacklers who could use their hands coupled with the ability to carry the fight into the enemy's territory, would make the team unbeatable by an ordinary foe.

Coach Kenney has had all available men out and several times Southwestern backers have had the opportunity of seeing what only a cross-eyed man could have seen two years ago—that is four full teams working out in uniform. New men fighting it out and showing especially well are: Wilson, the punting preacher from McTeyre; Bogus Cross, of C. H. S. fame; Myrick, the Columbus flash; Moore, an Oklahoma brave who catches a pass as if in a bushel basket; Anderson, a linesman of ability who makes the rest hump; Bee, the big beef from Brookhaven; Flemister, the Felmish giant, whose huge proportions win him respect in every scrimmage; and Thompson, a speedy half from Blytheville, Ark. Other men are doing good work and no one has a letter cinched yet.

OGDEN GOES DOWN IN ANNUAL DEFEAT

Spectacular Game Goes to S.P.U. By Score 13-6

Rivaling a Dead Eye Dick story in the point of thrills and outclassing "Two Minutes to Go" entirely as a spectacle of football fight and spirit, the annual scrap between Ogden College of Bowling Green, Ky., and our own Southwestern was staged last Saturday on Shearer Field before a record-breaking crowd of enthusiastic fans.

Ogden came down with two week's more practice, a new coach, advance information as to plays and signals, these having been furnished by a scout at the Morton-Elliott—S. P. U. game, and all in all, the best team they have ever been able to get together. Against them Coach sent a team minus the services of Cobb and Culberson and with Wilson in only a few minutes. Several second string men also were allowed to help beat Ogden and thereby deliver the Freshmen from the curse of the straw hat. Among these were Squeedunk Newton, who played a speedy end, and Bogus Cross, who tore through the line almost invariably for a gain.

Southwestern chose to kick-off and downed Ogden's man on about the 40-yard line. Ogden made one or two gains but lost the ball to S. P. U. in their own territory. Wilson's drop kick failed in seeing back and forth with the ball in Ogden's territory most of the time. Score 0-0.

The second quarter opened with S. P. U. in possession of the ball on about Ogden's 30-yard line. A forward pass, Jesty to Myrick, was attempted but intercepted by Ogden who eluded Jesty and ran 80 yards for a touchdown. Ogden failed at goal. This score of 6-0 remained for quite a while until Southwestern finally got the necessary punch and put over a counter of 6. Jesty attempted a forward pass for the 1 point and it was broken up.

Both teams used the rest afforded by the half intermission but it was not that Ogden seemed to need their rest during the play also. S. P. U. had sent in only two substitutes while Ogden was frequently calling for "time out."

The fact that a tie and not a victory was staring them in the face put new life into the Tigers and their plays kept the ball in Ogden's territory continually. Jesty tried several more forward passes directed to Moore only to have an Ogden man break it up just as the tall Oklahoman's fingers were stretching for it. It was then that Jesty worked the ball into position and with Wilson sent back in a drop kick that scraped the bar going under it, was tried.

Such luck would break the spirit of any ordinary team but with only thirty-five seconds to go and with Ogden in possession of the ball on her ten-yard line Rogers S. P. U. center, broke through and blocked Ogden's punt.

With the ball tumbling now under the feet of a S. P. U. man and now under Ogden, Bud Lee finally managed to fall on the pigskin which seemed as elusive as its greased porkship. Wilson kicked goal and the game was over and the Freshmen eager to burn hats at the very moment. Final score—Southwestern 13, Ogden 6. The game was remarkably clean and free from objectionable arguments.

individual cakes were served during the evening by Miss Norfleet, the very efficient supervisor of the Commons.

This is Miss Norfleet's second year in this position, and the cheery greetings of the returned pupils and the expressions of appreciation from the faculty show in what estimation she is held by all.

Altogether it was a most charming get-together meeting of townspeople and new students, and the Y. M. C. A. is to be congratulated on this initial social meeting of the year.

going to happen along the right of way. But good news travels fast and before long it was a well-known fact that the gentle sport of dodging mud holes in winter and cutting passages through weeds in summer would be indulged in no longer.

The old sensation of peace and quiet found along country lanes will give way to the wide-awake impressions gained in contemplating the gay white ways of our metropolises, for have not we the nucleus of such a White Way? Of course the whiteness is dependent inversely on the marksmanship of certain rustic Rats who never knew a globe to be other than a target but now that they will have to step aside to get their ammunition, we hope that they will curb that desire.

Of course the fellows who live so far back in the country that they use coons for watchdogs and hoot owls for chickens, may like to trudge along in the dust to keep from getting homesick, but the majority of the fellows will merely be thankful for small favors and use it to good advantage.

FRATS AT S. P. U.
EXPECT GREAT YEAR

Many Old Men Return and Wealth of New Material

With a great deal of excellent fraternity material present in the new men and with every chapter returning a majority of its old men, the outlook for fraternities on the campus is very bright. With the first few days of intense rushing over, most of the fraternities are resting on their laurels with the hope that their pledges may employ themselves with making their required grades which will be known after the first month.

A list of the old men and pledges is given below:

The Alpha Tau Omega's returned Chief Culberson, Bud Lee, Tom Hotchkins, Doc Humphreys, Red Avery and Ted Rogers of last year's chapter with Bill Robinson returning after a year's absence. Their pledges are: Misses Boulton, Ussery, Broome, Flemister, Glassell, Anderson.

After a small chapter last year the Kappa Sigma's returned Witherspoon, Squeedunk Newton, "Sammy" Caldwell, McElwain, Dallas Cowan and Robert Williams from last year's chapter, with Nubbins Cobb returning after a two years' absence and Charley Bruce after one year. Their pledges include: Messrs. Saevey, Redhead, Darden, Gardner, J. Beard, W. Beard, Wilson, Rudolph, Beach, Cross, Rodriguez and J. W. Cobb.

The Pi Kappa Alphas returning seven men, Messrs. Scruggs, Reynolds, West, Smith, Gilliam, Mount and Ryan, have pledged the following: Messrs. Lavender, Watts, Pipes, Belcher, Myrick and Anderson.

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon's returned Duke Jesty, Felts, Bayne, Monk, Mohns, Henry, McMahon, Caldwell, McLean, Haden, and Johns. Mr. A. A. Walker, who was a student at Centre College last year, has affiliated with the local chapter, and the following men have been pledged: Messrs. Miller, Jordan, Lemon, Charles McLean, Newton Caldwell, Renny and Saunders.

The Sigma Sigma Kappa's (local) returned Newton, O'Neal, Fenwick, James Smith, Major, Evans, Alexander, Blankston and Ward. They will be joined by Messrs. Cain, McInnis, Finley and Enis.

The Chi Omega Sorority returned six girls: Margaret Fort, Elizabeth Ellis, Frances Settle, Dorothy Smith, Mary Frances Pennebaker, and Sara McReynolds. As yet, they have pledged no one.

According to local Pan-Hellenic rules, all pledges must make an average of 70 before initiation, but no one anticipates trouble on this account.

Y. M. C. A.

The University Y. M. C. A. had a very interesting program last Sunday. Mr. C. E. Mount spoke to the students on John 14: 27 "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth, give I unto you."

This is the will of Christ to us. True it is not filled with long legal words and phrases, but is simple and straight. God does not give us health or wealth or comforts, but He gives us the thing that will satisfy. If you reach your limit, pray it through. It will give you peace and contentment.

Mr. Bayne was the soloist of the occasion and his selection was highly appreciated. Mr. Jack McLean accompanied Mr. Bayne at the piano.

There was a fairly good crowd, but we ought to get everyone out. The music and the talks are worth an hour of anyone's time. Let's all come out next Sunday, and make the organization function as it should—not for a select few but for the whole student body.
