Seniors Are Chosen For "Hall Of Fame"

Five outstanding seniors have been selected for Southwestern's Hall of Fame of 1952. They are Bill Boyd, Ray Bryant, Marzette Smith, Lindsay Stephenson, and Mary Woods.

Nominations for the Hall of Fame are made by the Student Council, and the people to be honored are chosen from the list of recommendations by a committee of underclass officers and the President and Dean of the College. Selection is made on the basis of leadership, scholarship, character, and service.

Bill Boyd was earlier named to Who's Who, was commissioner of religious activities, president of the Christian Union, president of Men's Pan-Hellenic Council, and a member of Omicron Delta Kappa and Alpha Psi Omega.

Ray Bryant was Who's Who, commissioner of social activities, and a member of the Honor Council, Omicron Delta Kappa, and Alpha Theta Phi.

Marzette Smith was named "Miss Southwestern," and was president of AOPi sorority, queen of the April Fool Carnival, cheer leader, and a member of the Pan-Hellenic Council.

Lindsay Stephenson was Who's Who, president of the Student Council, cheer leader, and member of the Student Welfare Committee.

Mary Woods was Who's Who, commissioner of undergraduate women, president of KD sorority, secretary-treasurer of the Student Council, member of the Honor Council and Torch.

Warrick Gets Chi Beta Phi's Outstanding Research Award

By Toby Horn

James C. Warrick was awarded the 1952 Chi Beta Phi chapter honor key for outstanding work in experimental psychology.

James, a psychology major at Southwestern, has been investigating relationships between "facial vision" and attending. This research is a part of his senior honors program in psychology.

"Facial vision" refers to the established fact that without the use of the eyes, many individuals are aware of objects near them. Recent experiments indicate that this may be accredited to subliminal hearing.

The Variable

The "facial vision" variable in Warrick's project is measured in terms of a blind-folded subject's ability to estimate the distance of certain objects from his ears.

Incidentally, if the experiment is successful, Warrick's apparatus may be useful in teaching "facial vision." James is particularly interested in this possibility, since he himself uses many of the techniques of "facial vision." He was blinded accidentally in 1931.

James is a member of Psi Chi and the Psychology Club. He was elected to honorary membership in Tau Chapter of Chi Beta Phi in April 1952.

James was awarded his key on Wednesday, May 7, at chapel.

ODK Holds Dinner Initiation In Neely

Memphis ODK alumni met in Southwestern's Neely Hall last Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. for dinner and a business session.

The ODK's of Memphis are currently raising money for a scholarship fund. Final plans have not been announced, but the award will be made annually to a Memphis or Shelby County high school senior man on the basis of leadership qualifications. The scholarships will be for study at Southwestern.

The program for the meeting included the installation of three Southwestern ODK members, Ed Francisco, Roscoe Feild, and Bill B. Allen. They were tapped into the society on March 13.

Thieves Return Stolen Canvas

The canvas belonging to ZTA sorority was returned last Friday morning, May 2, Ed Wills, president of the Elections Commission, announced today. The thirty-foot canvas, which was being used as a campaign sign by the Black Ticket, was taken with the other signs on April 22.

The Elections Commission sent out a call for the canvas after locating the thieves, and it was left inside the ZTA's screen door sometime before 1:00 p.m. last Friday.

No further action will be taken on the matter as the Honor Council assumed it to be intended as a practical joke and has refused to try the case.

Six To Design 'City' Program

A six-man "town and gown" committee, including four non-faculty men, has been appointed to plan another city design program for next year.

The following have accepted Southwestern's invitation to serve on the committee: Joseph A. Fowler, director of the Memphis Housing Authority, Robert Thomas Martin, architect, Thomsen Guth, architect, Charles H. Freeburg, realtor.

Dr. Baker

They will work with Dr. Clinton L. Baker, professor of biology and John Osman, director of the Division of Adult Education of Southwestern. Mr. Osman will serve as chairman of the committee.

PRE-REGISTER NOW

Pre-registration will be held during the remainder of the semester for the fall term. Conflicts already developing in the schedules of some students may require the introduction of some afternoon classes next fall.

Air Force Team Will Confer In Lynx Lair

A United States Air Force aviation cadet selection team will be at the Lynx Lair on Tuesday, May 13, to discuss aviation cadet pilot and air craft observer training with students. Inquiries are cordially solicited about the flying training program or other aspects of military service.

Lynx Scholars Receive Grants

Students Tour Open Hospital

All Southwestern students are invited to a special open house and hospital tour at Baptist Memorial Hospital in honor of college students and high school seniors in the Memphis area. The hospital will be open on May 12-16.

Hours for the tour are from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and from 2 to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday. Morning visitors will be guests for luncheon in the hospital's dining room. Afternoon guests will be served refreshments.

Members of this year's graduating class of the hospital's school of nursing will be hostesses for the tours, and staff members will be available to answer questions and discuss the various occupations pursued in the hospital.

One-Acts To Close Players' Activities

Another program of one-act comedies will close the Southwestern Players' 1951-52 season in Hardie Auditorium on the evenings of May 15 and 16.

The Third Angle by Florence Ryerson will feature Ed Sweet and Mary Ellen Chambliss as an artist and his wife with Betty Garrett appearing as the model who forms the third angle of the triangle.

Two Others

Invitation by Em Jo Basshe, is a fantastic satire and will be presented by Albert Gresham as a dying man with Kirk Osoinach as his butler.

The Constant Lover by St. John Hankin, featuring Jackie Coker and Bill Shenk, is last on the program. It is a high romantic drama filled with surprise twists in the plot.

Faculty And Seniors To Highlight Recitals

Wade, Barnett, Orr, Inman To Play

By Vera Burns

Senior recitals and a faculty duo this week represent Southwestern's contribution to National Music Week. They also wind up this season's calendar of events at Southwestern.

Earlier this week Michael Semanitzky, violinist, and Myron Myers, pianist, were presented in a faculty recital on Monday, May 5. Their program included the "Devil's Trill," a sonata by Tartini; Beethoven's "Sonata Op. 12, No. 1"; the "Violin and Piano Sonata No. 4" by Charles Ives; and Debussy's "Sonata for Violin and Piano." The recital was given at the College of Music at 8:30 p.m.

Inman

Mary Inman, pianist, appeared in her senior recital last Tuesday, May 6, at 8:30 p.m. Her program included selections by Bach, Beethoven, Poulenc, Brahms, and Chopin.

A program of compositions by Memphis State College students and faculty was presented last Monday at 10 a.m. The program was under the direction of Raymond Haggh. This was followed at 10 a.m. Wednesday by a program of chamber music directed by Noel Gilbert. Both programs were held at Memphis State College.

Orr To Give Senior Recital On Monday

Lee Anderson Orr will give his senior piano recital next Monday, May 12, at 8:30 p.m. The recital will be given at the College of Music.

The program opens with "Toccatina and Fugue in D Minor" by Bach-Busoni. This is followed by the Beethoven "Sonata, Op. 10, no. 3" and a group of three Chopin selections: "Impromptu, Op. 29," "Berceuse" Op. 57," and "Scherzo,

Op. 31."

Mr. Orr closes his program with the first movement of the William Schumann "Piano Concerto."

Barnett Will Begin Program With Bach

Douglas Allen Barnett will give his senior organ recital on Sunday, May 11, at 3:30 p.m. The recital will be given at Calvary Episcopal Church at Second and Adams.

The program opens with a group of three Bach selections — "Prelude in G, Fanfare," "Prelude and Fugue in C Minor," and the chorale-pretudes "Alle Menschen Müssen Sterben" and "In Dir Ist Freude."

The second group of numbers are the "Andantino in G Major" and "Piece Heroique" by Franck.

The closing program selections are Dupre's "Magnificats 5 and 6" and "Modal Suite" by Flor Peters.

Wade Will Recite In Bohlmann Tonite

Bob Wade will appear in his senior piano recital Friday, May 9, at 8:30 p.m. at the College of Music.

The opening number on the program is Bach's "Prelude and Fugue in D Minor," followed by the Haydn "Fantasie in C Major." Next is Schubert's "Sonata in B flat Major, op. posth."

He closes his program with the original piano form of Moussorgsky's "Pictures at an Exhibition."

Lilies Of The Field

"Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin . . ." Matt. 6:28.

If a man belongs to an organization and broadcasts the secrets and the private proceedings of that organization—can he be honorable?

When a Southwestern student is requested by a properly constituted body not to divulge their decisions, a violation of trust is incurred by that student when he fails to honor the request. This refers to the Publications Board's editorial appointments for next year.

A student who joins the Sou'wester staff solely in order to fulfill the work necessary for an editorial application and then quits work on the very issue in which his appointment of editorship is announced—is not worthy of an editorial position.

Next year's editor has consistently refused to work for the Sou'wester, and he has openly admitted releasing the confidential Publications Board appointments.

With respect to the Sou'wester's recommendation of the 1952-53 editor, only this can be said. It was obtained through calculated extortion.

The fact that the appointed editor knows extremely little about college journalism and is making no present attempt to learn indicates the caliber editor he will make.

For the best interests of Southwestern, both financially and culturally, we suggest a new appointment be made.

The Past Is Now

The message I would emphasize to you this year is that America will always need men and women with college training.

Government and industry alike need skilled technicians today. Later we shall need men and women of broad understanding and special aptitudes to serve as leaders of the generation which must manage the post-war world.

We must, therefore, redouble our efforts during these critical times to make our schools and colleges render ever more efficient service in support of our cherished democratic institutions.

—Franklin D. Roosevelt
Statement to A.C.P.A., 1943

This statement appeared in the Lynx for 1943, but the position of the Christian college in a modern society, in a new crisis has not changed.

Western State Inmates Find Relief In Students' Departure

By Willie Bow

Last Wednesday, Professor Quinn took the Psychology 34 class to Western State Hospital, an insane asylum, to show us what happens to psychology majors.

Upon entering this squirrel's paradise, I noticed about twenty-five men pushing lawnmowers in a tiny circle and doing practically no work. This is known as unionization. They left their lawnmowers at mealtime, and my wonderful idea to hide the mowers, get them frustrated, and thus drive them sane was frowned upon.

The first stop of the tour was the shock treatment ward. The patient reacts violently when the electric current is turned on, and he shakes like a freshman receiving his first grades.

I managed to keep a grave expression while observing this ugly operation to prevent being accused of having hebephrenic tendencies, for I actually felt like laughing at Al Evans, who was turning green around the gills.

Before entering the men's ward, we were informed that they were dangerous, especially to blonds. Noticably pale, Sara Jane consented to venture in only if we formed a protective ring around her.

Before leaving, the roll call showed two students missing. Quick action to rescue Marzette from the delusion of grandeur ward was taken. It seems that she had accidentally told the keeper that she had been a queen.

Jack Hudgins was finally located in the hebephrenic ward having a wonderful time conversing with someone having the same mental powers as himself.

With a sigh of relief we left Western State, feeling sorry for the inmates. Last report said that the inmates were relieved at our departure and felt sorry for college students.

Can you blame them, with semester tests just around the corner?

Lynx Cats Defeat Howard For Spectacular College Day Win

By Louis Wener

The Lynx baseballers made a beautiful showing on College Day last Saturday by downing the Howard Bulldogs 8-7. Southwestern dropped the track meet by a score of 97-34.

The ball game was a true conquest, for the Alabamians have downed the mighty Auburn team. Sterling play, however, in pitching, hitting, and fielding paved the way for the Lynx victory.

Pitcher Bill Williams won his own game by driving in the winning run. The top slugger for the day, however, was Clark Young who banged out a double with the bases loaded, thus driving in three runs.

The outstanding field play was made by Roxie Lee who snagged a grounder which had hopped over the head of the pitcher. The bases were loaded, two away, the bottom of the last inning. The ball came directly over second base into the waiting glove of Lee thus saving the game.

The Track Meet

In the tract meet Prentice Fulton, the Lynx's stellar hurdler, took firsts in the 120 yard high hurdles, the 100 yard dash, and the 220 yard dash. He placed second in the 220 low hurdles. He piled up a total of eighteen points, taking high-point man honors at the meet. Allen Cooke, the Lynx's long distance runner scored two seconds for the college by coming in after the lead man in the mile and the 880.

Coming across beautifully was Cy Pipkin, who placed first in the pole vaulting. This was Cy's first track meet this year and he brought home the bacon by clearing the bar at 9' 11".

Prep Tennis

Ending the flood of sports activity which hit the campus last Saturday was Southwestern's first invitational prep tennis tournament. C.B.C.'s Billy Lutrell, as predicted, captured the first spot in the singles by downing East High's Cookie Gaines 6-1, 6-1. The doubles combination of Lutrell-Metz defeated Gaines-Bowers to take the doubles trophy. C.B.C. also won the team trophy.

Golf Team

The golf team, however, hasn't fared so well. Pitted against a powerful, well-rounded Memphis State team, the Lynx fell 18-0. Against the Air Force team, Jack Hudgins managed to capture a split with his man, and the Hudgins-Salky combination received

Lynx Drop Decision In Mississippi Test

Southwestern's basebalting Lynx dropped a close decision to Mississippi College by a score of 11-9. The Lynx were unable to overcome the early lead built-up by the Mississippi crew, even though they scored five in the seventh. A desperate ninth inning rally also fell short.

Again errors hurt our efforts, as the Lynx Cats miscued nine times. Eight bases on balls also aided in the defeat.

Southwestern out hit their opponents 11 to 10, but could not utilize this advantage. Lee, Horton, Jones and Allen both collected two or more hits. One of Allen's was a circuit-clout.

another half-point for low ball. This defeat ended with the score 25-2.

The golf team left Thursday for Sewanee, where they are competing today. They will vie for TIAC honors Saturday, May 10.

Varsity Tennis

Varsity tennis is also progressing. On Tuesday, against Mississippi College, the Lynx lost 5-3. Lapsley and Crumby won their singles matches in two sets apiece and the Henry-Looney doubles combination downed their opponents in two sets. The other matches were all lost in three sets.

The final heartbreaker was the Crumby-Mitchell doubles. The game was called on account of darkness when the score stood 5-5 in the last set. Both teams had a set apiece.

Kappa Delta Has WAA Top Honor

Kappa Delta carried off the WAA softball title undefeated, untied, and virtually unapproached on Tuesday afternoon, May 6. The final game on KD's schedule was with XO. It was finally called in the fourth inning with the XO's twenty runs behind.

KD's team had no stand-out players: all nine players were stars. This was a smooth-operating outfit that took every opponent by storm. Hats off to a fine aggregation.

ZTA Falls

ZTA fell before AOPI in the other Tuesday afternoon fracas. AOPI scored thirteen runs in their half of the first inning and were never headed, despite nine ZTA runs in the third.

WAA called a special meeting Tuesday to elect a new president for 1952-53. Former president Jean Enochs resigned because she had collected too many activity points. Bettie Worthington, DDD representative, was elected by acclamation.

Reminder: archery tournament this afternoon at 4:00 behind the band house.

SN, ATO Now Top Intramural

Preliminary standings in intramural tennis as of Tuesday, May 6, show Sigma Nu and Alpha Tau Omega at the top with two wins each. The KA's and Independents have lost one and won one, while KS and SAE rest in the cellar with two losses each.

The mighty ATO squad, composed of Buford, Cochran, and Hamer-Goodson, has not lost one match. They scored 3-0 wins over both SAE and the Independents.

Chief Nemesis

Sigma Nu, ATO's chief nemesis, is fielding a team of Hudgins, Pierce, and Albright-Stewart. Out of six matches the Sigma Nu's have lost only one game. Ray Bryant defeated Gerald Pierce in the contest between SN and KA.

The KA team has scored one victory 3-0 and lost its other encounter 1-2. In the match with SN Ray Bryant alone conquered.

The Independent team is progressing fairly well. They won over KS 3-0 after having lost to ATO 0-3.

Both KS and SAE have lost both of their matches to the tune of 3-0.

Managers of Lynx's Varsity Acclaimed By Southwestern

Wright, Gillespie, Peterson Are Wise Choice

The most underrated and neglected position on any athletic team is that of manager. This year the athletic department has been fortunate in securing three good, hard-working boys who have justified the wisdom of their selection.

David Wright, manager of the varsity baseball team, is a perfect example of what a manager should be. After being at practice with the team all afternoon, David can often be seen dragging the diamond at 6:00 the evening before a game. When visiting teams come to Southwestern, David makes sure they find their rooms, lays out towels, and aids them in every way possible.

Track Man

Bob Gillespie, the track squad manager, is always on hand during meets, patching up bruises and blisters, rubbing down the runners, and encouraging the boys. He helps line off the track and aids in setting it up before and during the meet. He is always out during practice, aiding both coach and athletes.

Amel Peterson, manager of the tennis team, is the perfect host to all visiting teams. He sees that the courts are ready and has towels, water, cokes, and coffee all ready for the visiting netsters.

The main purpose of a manager is to remove the burden of odd jobs and menial tasks from the shoulders of the team and coach so that the boys may dedicate their time more fully to participating in the athletic contests. The manager is as much an integral part of the team as the players themselves. Their main work comes before and after the contests are played. They suffer with their teams and they take pride in them. They feel defeat just as hard as the squad does, and they revel in victory as the team does.

Therefore, Southwestern takes great pride in saluting its team managers, David Wright, Bob Gillespie, and Amel Peterson.
