Lynx Lose To Howard In Hard Fought Game

DAVID WALTHALL

The Southwestern Lynx played their best game of the season in losing to Howard College—13-0 conquerors of Sewanee—by a score of seven to six on Fargason Field last Saturday.

Southwestern won the toss and elected to receive. Crumby received the kick in the end zone and decided to take the ball on the twenty. On the next play, Southwestern unloosed its secret weapon for the week—the quick kick. Pete Street kicked on the first down, and the Bulldogs were caught snoring. The kick sailed over the right-halfback's head to be downed by the Lynx on the Bulldogs' 27-yard line. The Bulldogs, led by their "All-Dixie" Conference quarterback, Bobby Bowden, started their offensive drive with a pass from Bowden which was completed to the Lynx 51. After three smashing plays Howard was one yard short of a first down and Bowden went into deep punt formation only to fake a punt and run to the 25 for a first down. The Bulldogs seemed unstoppable. They pushed relentlessly forward to the Lynx one-foot line where hard tackling caused them to fumble over the goal line and Bill Hughes recovered in the end zone to end the first Howard scoring threat. On the first play that the Lynx had the ball after that, Pete Street skirted his own right end, reversed his field and, breaking clear into the secondary, out-ran the Howard backfield to give the Lynx their only score in the ball game. The conversion was blocked, but the Lynx were in the lead.

Bob Crumby kicked off for the Lynx to the ten-yard line where Bowden returned it to the 43. Again the Bulldogs started the offensive ball rolling. Bill Lovernn went around his end for six yards. On the next play Joe Dean repeated the same play for a Bulldog first down. This drive was effectively stopped by our handrushing line led by Ray Tanner's and Reg Germany's brilliant defensive play. The Lynx took over on their own 21-yard line where Pete Street on the second down quick kicked to the Howard 21, where the Howard offensive team took over, and pushed to the Lynx 49-yard line, where again they were stopped—this time largely due to the line-backing of Tom Tosh—and were forced to punt. The Lynx took over on their own 14-yard line and, this time on the third down, Pete Street quick-kicked far down field to the Bulldogs' 24. This set up our second scoring opportunity. As Billy Lovernn tried to slash inside his own left tackle he fumbled and Richard Flaniken, the Lynx defensive halfback, recovered. The Howard Bulldogs held the Lynx for three downs, and Street, with his magic foot, kicked out of bounds on the four-yard line to keep the Bulldogs in their previously attained "hole."

The Howard eleven managed to drive to the 34-yard line through the running prowess of Jones and Scott, where again they fumbled and Reg Germany recovered to put the Lynx again in a scoring position. On our first offensive play we received one of our few penalties which, after three downs, was enough to prevent us from making a first down. Street kicked out-of-bounds on the 9-yard line.

The Howard offensive team tried but could never get out of the "hole" which our offensive kicking seemed to leave them in. The next half of the quarter was spent in an exchange of the ball around the 45-yard line until, again by a beautiful run by Pete Street, the Lynx penetrated deep into the Bulldogs' territory—the fifteen-yard line, where Street fumbled and Wayne Walker recovered.

As the first half drew to a close the Howard eleven put on the steam. Their drive, which began on their own 15-yard line, was not stopped until Dick Flaniken intercepted a Bowden pass on his own 25 to halt the only serious Bulldog threat in the first half.

The second half began with Crumby kicking to the 14-yard line where Hubert Jones returned to the 23-yard line before Don Wilkins, speedy Lynx halfback, downed him. The third quarter was mainly a seesaw punting duel between Street and Bowden with neither team holding the offensive advantage.

The Howard Bulldogs changed their strategy during their half-time talk and moved Bowden into the left halfback slot, putting a fresh man, a 175 lb. quarterback, Charles Anderson, into the game.

As the third period ended, the Howard Bulldogs started another offensive drive deep into the Lynx-cat territory, where, from the 14-yard line, Pete Spencer completed a 14-yard pass into the end zone for the only Howard score. Larry Wilson, their P.A.T. specialist, converted to give Howard a 7-6 lead.

The remainder of the last quarter was uneventful with neither team driving further than their opponent's 30-yard line. With 45 seconds of playing time remaining, the Howard Bulldogs took over on the Lynx 30-yard line and threw caution to the wind in an attempt for another score. After three incomplete passes, Bowden moved into a deep punt formation and with only a split second left in the game, attempted another pass. This time the Lynx defensive halfback, Dick Flaniken, intercepted after the whistle had blown and carried the ball to his own 40-yard line where he was forced out of bounds to end the ball game.

LYNX PLAY MILLSAPS

The Southwestern football squad left Thursday for yesterday's game with Millsaps College at Jackson, Mississippi. Also making the trip were the band, the cheerleaders and a large number of the student body.

The Lynx had a tough battle on their hands, for they were playing the team that downed Hendrix 25-0, set back Ouachita 27-0, and edged out Mississippi College by one point, 21-20. The bright cloud in the Southwestern sky was the defeat which Sewanee handed to Millsaps, 27-13. The Lynxmen managed to hold the Tigers scoreless for three quarters and lost only after a desperate last-minute TD.

The squad was in fair shape, but spirit reigned high on the campus.

PRC DRIVE Starts Monday

The Protestant Religious Council Drive will start on the Southwestern campus November 17 and extend through November 23. The campaign this year is a threefold project: (1) The first $200 goes to a needy negro family to build a room on their house (2) $100 of the additional collection goes to the Lemoyne College for Negroes here in Memphis. This money is sent in to a national organization which has promised to double the amount; therefore, Lemoyne will receive $200 (3) The rest of the fund will go to the World Student Service Agency.

Last year's collection amounted to approximately $600, and Tommy Crais, chairman of this year's drive, hopes to exceed that amount.

The procedure for the drive's emphasis week is as follows.

Monday, Nov. 17—John C. Gleason, Regional Secretary of WSFS, will speak in chapel on the work WSSF does in foreign lands.

Tuesday, Nov. 18 — Dr. Price, President of the Lemoyne College, will present an informal talk on the college and its needs.

Thursday, Nov. 20—Dr. Lawrence Kinney will speak in chapel about the needy Negro family to whom some of the money will go.

Thursday evening, Nov. 20—The dorm students will sign pledged cards for the amount that they wish to contribute to this year's drive.

Each dormitory will have its own collector. They are: Voorhies, Mary Williams; New Dormitory, Doyle Moorehead; Robb Hall, Tommy Richardson; White Hall, Gordon Smith.

The town students will be divided into groups and assigned to additional collectors, and there will also be a booth in the cloister.

Mrs. Townsend Addresses YWCA

The Southwestern YWCA met Tuesday, November 11, in Voorhies basement for its regular monthly meeting. The traditional "Y" Candlelight Ceremony was held to bring into membership in the YWCA all new women students who expressed a desire to affiliate with that group. Members of the "Y" cabinet participated in this ceremony, which was led by Mary Frances Steen, president of the group.

Ann Taylor Walker, vice-president, introduced Professor Margaret Townsend, who spoke on "Ethics in Society," in her most capable manner. Miss Eleanor Bosworth, Dean of Women, told the group of coming meetings of Vocational Guidance which will be held from time to time throughout the year.

Marques Addresses Spanish Club

The Spanish Club met Thursday, November 13, in Voorhies basement for its regular monthly meeting. Rose Link, president, presided over the meeting, and gave a short talk on the purpose of the Spanish Club on this campus. After the business meeting, Alvey Marques addressed the group, telling of his return to Brazil for the summer months. Group singing of Spanish songs followed Al's most interesting talk.

Moore Named To Board

Dr. Moore Moore, Memphis physician and member of Southwestern's Board of Directors since 1924, has been renamed to a new four-year term ending in 1956.

Dr. Moore was elected by the Synod of Tennessee of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., one of the four synods of the denomination that contributes to the support of Southwestern. The other three synods are the Synods of Alabama, Louisiana, and Mississippi.

Dr. Moore has served as member of the executive committee and as secretary of the board since his appointment in 1924, and was, until 1946, college physician. After 1946, he served as medical consultant of Southwestern, when he was succeeded by his son Dr. Moore Moore, Jr.

In 1941 a portrait of Dr. Moore, Sr., along with one of E. B. LeMaster, was painted by Herbert Armstrong, and presented to Southwestern in recognition of his service to the college as member of the board. The portrait, the gift of an anonymous group of Dr. Moore's friends, hangs today in Southwestern's oak-paneled Director's Room.

Three of Dr. Moore's sons are graduates of Southwestern:

Dr. Moore Moore, Jr., Memphis orthopedic surgeon, and member of Methodist Hospital staff; Colonel William Sivley Moore, who recently returned from Japan to serve as new chief of hospitalization and operations branch, Office of Surgeon General in Washington, D. C.; and Lt. Richard Charlton Moore, an Army Transportation Corps officer at Pusan, Korea.

Players Reveal Second Play

The Player's next production will be Christofer Fry's sophisticated comedy, "A Phoenix Too Frequent." The set will be designed by Anne Thomas.

This delightful comedy, written in verse, tells of the trials and tribulations of a woman trying to starve herself to death in honor of her husband's death. Nature is always putting impediments in her path. Impediments such as good-looking soldiers, etc.

Tickets will go on sale Tuesday for fifty cents. All tickets sold at the door will cost seventy-five cents.

The Player's are now at work on a musical which they hope to produce this fall. This review will be titled "See America First" and will portray an imaginary trip around the country stopping at such places as New Orleans, New York, Los Angeles, Niagara Falls, Washington, D. C., and finally ending the tour with a scene on the Cotton Carnival midway.

All aspects of this musical will be original, and any student who wishes to write lyrics, build sets, or take part in any way is urged to contact Professor Hill.

LOST AND FOUND

Found—Keys founds to recent model Chevrolet in front of KA House last Sat. Inquire at Business Office.

Lost—brown billfold containing about $25. Only identification is a list of KD's names. Dot Harris.

IRC Discusses Soviet Russia

The International Relations Club met in 100 Palmer Hall, at 6:45 p.m., Thursday, November 13. The program was a panel discussion on Soviet Russia. Bill Hamer, president of the club, acted as moderator. Holly Mitchell spoke on Russia and her geography as power. Industrial Russia was discussed by Helen Swartzfager. With these talks as a general background, attention was then given to specific regions of the world as related to Russia. Elma Lee Wylie spoke on "Russia in Asia," giving special attention to China. Russia in the Middle East was discussed by Eleanor Brown. An open discussion followed with those members present participating.

Plans were announced for the next meeting which will be held on Thursday, December 4. Professor J. R. Benish will speak on the Cultural Aspects of Russia. All members of the student body are invited to attend this meeting.

Suggested topics which were brought up at the meeting as tentative subjects for future meetings are:

- (1) The average Russian's attitude toward the U.S.
- (2) Siberia.
- (3) The Education given the average Russian.
- (4) Russian infiltration of the U. S. and United States' method of counteracting it.
- (5) U. S. infiltration of Russia.
- (6) U. S. foreign policy in relation to Russia.
- (7) Can our economy carry the burden of foreign aid?
- (8) Free Europe's attitude toward Russia.

These topics should be of interest to all students, and all are urged to attend the meetings of the International Relations Club whenever possible.

FIVE TAPPED FOR ETA SIGMA PHI

Eta Sigma Phi, National Honorary Classical Languages Fraternity, invited the following people to membership in student assembly last Wednesday: Lane Erwin, Claire Albright, Claudia Owen, Douglas Marsh, and Joanne Patten. This brings the membership of the group to thirteen.

The requirements for membership are as follows: sophomore standing; enrolled satisfactorily in Greek 51 or Latin 36, which require at least two years of the language taken in college; a "B" in the classical language being taken.

The Southwestern Chapter of Eta Sigma Phi received its charter on January 18, 1952, and in the first three months of activity the chapter received third prize in the National Office's Chapter Language Census.

Officers for the group are: David Alexander, president; Jimmy McLin, vice-president; John Richardson, secretary; Mary Beth Davidson, treasurer. The advisers are Dr. Laura Robinson and Dr. R. P. Strickler.

The initiation and banquet for the new members will be held Friday, November 21.

Crescendo

The Southwestern String Quartet will open its annual series of four concerts sponsored by the Patrons of Music at Southwestern on November 18, at Bohman Hall, 1822 Overton Park Avenue. Because of the sponsorship of the Patrons of Music, the series of chamber music concerts, including one by a visiting quartet yet to be announced, is free to the public.

The quartet consists of Michael Semanitzky and Erika Fulcher, violins; Ruth Wood Tuthill, viola, and Phyllis Thornburg, 'cello. They will be assisted in the opening concert by Anne Tuthill Reynolds, flute; Dr. Richard J. Reynolds, Jr.

The program will feature a debut performance of "Family Music," a "diversion for flute, two clarinets, viola and violoncello" by Dr. Tuthill, professor of music at Southwestern and director of the Memphis College of Music.

Also programmed are the "Four Part Fantasia" by Henry Purcell, the "Quartet in G Minor" by Ralph Vaughn-Williams (in honor of the composer's 80th birthday) and Mozart's "Quartet in C Major," the Dissonant.

The Southwestern Orchestra will present the first concert of its season Friday night, November 21, under the baton of Dr. Burnet C. Tuthill. Soloists Michael Reich, Helen Walker, and Michael Semanitzky will be featured on the program.

The orchestra will open the concert with the Beethoven "Symphony

FALL SUNDAY A FLOP?

Fall Sunday is a Southwestern tradition. On one Sunday during each fall term town students invite dormitory students to their churches for the morning service and to their homes for the midday meal.

By doing this town and dorm students should get to know each other better, and the plan is intended to bring Southwestern into Memphis homes. Also, Fall Sunday is designed to give the dormitory students a temporary release from the dining hall.

Then comes the rub. There are people in this school, seniors, who have never had a Fall Sunday invitation. As this story goes to press 26 town students have invited out a total of 49 dorm residents—accounting for less than fifteen-percent of Southwestern's enrollment.

Add a few more for those who have not bothered to sign the sheet in the cloister and the result is still pretty pitiful.

Don't Southwestern students like each other any more; or is such a thing just too much bother? A likelier solution is that the town students just have not bothered to ask their parents if they may have a guest or two for dinner Sunday.

Come on, town students, you have still got time. Let's get the dorm students away from the campus and shut down Neely Hall tomorrow.

No. 1 in C." Mr. Semanitzky will then play Beethoven's "Romanza in F." Mr. Reich will play the first movement of the "Concerto No. 1 in C Major" by Beethoven.

"The Winter Past" will be the next item on the program. This is a work by Wayne Barlon, and will feature an oboe solo. Miss Walker will play the first movement of the Schumann "Concerto in A Minor." "Spoon River," by Percy Grainger, an American composer, to close the concert.

Publications Board's Policy For Sou'wester

Article I—General Policy (To be printed in the first edition of the Sou'wester each year.)

1. The Sou'wester will, at all times, attempt to be the honest voice of the Southwestern student body, of the faculty, and of the various college and student administrative bodies.
2. The Sou'wester will not be a "gripe sheet" to air personal grievances or campaign.
3. The Sou'wester will, in a responsible manner, accuse, defend, or promote—as the situation may be. This activity will, at all times, be conducted on a highly constructive plane. Statements made in the form of news accounts or editorials in the Sou'wester will be substantial at all times.
4. The Sou'wester will not contain columns of the "back fence gossip" types. Campus social news will be featured in sorority and fraternity columns especially reserved for that purpose, and in other articles as the editor sees fit. Cheap tales and person tattling concerning the social lives of the students or faculty will have no place in the Sou'wester.
5. The duty of the Editorial Staff of the Sou'wester will be to inform, criticize, and recommend, in a straight forward, constructive, and unbiased manner.
6. There will be no racial or religious prejudices expressed in the pages of the Sou'wester.

Article II—Statement of Policy

The candidates for the position as Editor of the Sou'wester Newspaper will formulate individual statements of policy and individual outlines of their qualifications and past experience. They will present their policies to the Publication Board at a time designated by that body.

Article III—Responsibility and Amplification of Policy

1. The right of a newspaper to attract and hold readers is restricted by consideration of the students' and college's welfare. The Editor may write critical editorials concerning functions or policies of various campus organizations so long as the general argument of the editorial respects the legality of the existing rules and regulations of those various organizations.
2. The Editor is expressly forbidden to write editorials which encourage students to disregard the regulations and policies of student or college organizations. In all controversial issues involving campus organizations, their rules, and their policies, due recourse to petitionary means is to be pointed out to the student body, if such means are provided by the organization under criticism. A direct request for action may be addressed in editorial form to the legislative elements within the organizations which are being criticized, in cases where an organization has no petitionary machinery.
3. In no case will the Editor take it upon himself to pass sole, arbitrary judgment within an editorial upon any segment of legislation, policy, rule, or tradition of Southwestern College, or upon its various campus organizations, which involves unsupported contradictions of existing rules or legislation or which, without evidence, endangers the potency of any existing campus legislation, rules, or policies.

4. The Editor is directed to personally assist and work with committee members of any organizations that he has criticized, in which arguments over policy, rules, procedure, and regulations are involved.

5. The Editor will not bring any issue before a general student assembly unless a workable agreement has been arrived at with the organization with which he is in conflict. The Editor is reminded that an ill-informed or misguided student body at the election boxes can work hardships and damage upon the college's or student organizations' welfare.

6. The Editor will be very particular to exercise good judgment in the printing of editorial matter which involves the discussion of undesirable elements or persons upon this campus, whether they be within the student body or within the faculty. Irreparable damage may be done to the character and integrity of the college if foreign ideologies or radical measures, involving national interests, are attached to persons on Southwestern's campus without documentary or unimpeachable proof to that effect. If such information is within the Editor's possession it will be his duty to present it to the Publication Board of the college for consideration. If such matter is considered beyond its jurisdiction, the Publication Board will confer with the President of the college, and fair dispensation of the information will be made as agreed upon in such a conference.

7. The Editor will remember that he is the responsible head of the Sou'wester Newspaper, a publication which circulates among several hundred students, which enters into scores of homes, and which is read by a large circle of alumni, friends, and church members of the various Presbyterian Synods which contribute their support to this school. The Editor will, therefore, exercise the utmost discretion in the news and editorials which he prints.

8. The Editor will remember that Southwestern College is a privately owned and endowed institution, and, as such, constitutes private property. Due regard for the rules and regulations and judgments laid down by the school's owners will be exercised in the editing of all news or editorial matter.

9. The Editor will remember that Southwestern College spends several thousand dollars annually on advertising matter and correspondence of interest to prospective freshmen and business sources. The Editor will not permit the publishing of any news or editorial matter which nullifies or jeopardizes this expenditure.

10. The Editor will remember that the Memphis daily newspapers and other news agencies carefully scrutinize each edition of the Sou'wester. News or editorials which have been carelessly or thoughtlessly thrown together may provide newspapers with erroneous or "sensational" items detrimental to the best interests of the college or students. News matter or editorials which instigate such conditions will not be condoned.

Article IV—Editorials

Editorials will be regarded as the purely personal opinions of the editorial writer. The editorial writer will have freedom to express his opinion so long as he stays within the bounds of common decency. The Publication Board reserves the right to interpret violations of "common decency" contained in editorial matter as that Body sees fit. Editorials will not be written ambiguously so as to be construed as conflicting with those bounds.

Article —Independence

The Editor will be free from obligations, except those of fidelity to the students and the college and the conditions of his office under the policy of the Publication Board of Southwestern.

Article VI—Sincerity, Truthfulness, Accuracy, Impartiality, Fair Play

Good faith with the reader will be foundation upon which the worthy Sou'wester rests. By every consideration of good faith the Sou'wester will be constrained to be truthful. Sound practice makes clear distinction between news reports and editorial expressions of opinion or advocacy. The Sou'wester News reports will be free from opinion or bias of any kind. The newspaper will not invade private rights or feelings without sure warrant of the students' and college's right as distinguished from general curiosity.

Article VII

It will be the duty of the Editor to make himself acquainted with and to abide by the policy for the Sou'wester Newspaper as expressed by the Publication Board of Southwestern. It will also be his duty to acquaint his staff with such portions of the policy as may be necessary.

Article VIII

If, in the opinion of a unanimous vote of the Publication Board's student and faculty members, the Editor of the Sou'wester is found in abeyance of any one of the above articles or sections he is liable to the following penalties:

1. 1st violation—a fine of $10.00; or termination of contract as Editor.
2. 1st violation—a fine of $20.00; or termination of contract as Editor.
3. 3rd violation—termination of contract as Editor.

Poochie's Patter

Southwestern's Maid of Cotton Contest is drawing nigh. The date for the big event is November 19. The time is eight o'clock in Hardie. Each sorority and fraternity may put up two girls to be in the contest. The main requirements that the girls must meet are:

- (1.) unmarried
- (2.) at least 19 years of age
- (3.) at least five feet, five inches tall.

The majority of the entrees have been turned in; they are: Alpha Omicron Pi; Joan Stewart and Jane Pyron; Chi Omega, Virginia Bramlett and Jennie Lee Davis; Delta Delta Delta, Margaret Jones and Meredith Newman; Kappa Delta, Zeta Tau Alpha, Daisy Glenn and Martha Holcombe; Kappa Alpha, Anne Hebert; Kappa Sigma, Mary Ellen Chambliss and Mary Katherine Lindsay; Pi Kappa Alpha, Claudia Owens; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Anne Feemster and Katherine Hinds; Sigma Nu, Ruth Beasley and Carolyn Milton.

These young ladies appear before an audience in street clothes and evening dresses. They have to make a short speech on their dealings with cotton. Who knows, the next Maid of Cotton may be one of these.

The Pan Dance last Saturday was a big success. Many students came to enjoy an evening of dancing to the music of Colie Stolz. Decorations for the dance were the shields of each sorority and fraternity, placed on the wall and decorated with the colors of the fraternity or sorority. The highlights of the evening was the lead-out of all the pan delegates. The girls came through an enormous "O" and were met by their escorts in front of it. After the pan members were presented, a special dance, just for those in the leadout, was played.

Chi Omega honored the mothers of their pledges with a tea at their lodge Thursday afternoon from four to six. Mrs. R. P. Powell, president of the Mother's Club, and Mrs. Burnet C. Tuthill, vice-president, had charge of the arrangements. Katherine Hinds, chapter President, and her mother, Mrs. Stanley P. Hinds, of Tupelo, Mississippi, presided at the silver service. White floral arrangements were used on the serving table and through out the room. The members, pledges, their mothers, and the chapter patronesses joined in singing sorority songs. The Tea is sponsored each fall by the Mother's Club and gives the new mothers a chance to get acquainted.

The Tri Delt pledges held an open house last Friday for all the pledges of the other sororities and the fraternities. The open house lasted from six to eight at the Tri Delt lodge. Here the pledges enjoyed dancing and chatting.

Congratulations to Kappa Sigma on Sgt. Robert L. Ridley, who stopped off long enough to pledge. Bob did not sign a preference card at the beginning of school but has now decided to be the Kappa Sig's fourteenth pladger.

The Kappa Sig's held a marshmallow roast at their lodge last Monday afternoon from four to eight. Ray "Baby-Face" Tanner, Happy Henry, and Bob Crumby were in charge of the party. The group enjoyed marshmallows and general chatting.

Kappa Alpha has elected a few new officers; they are Corresponding Secretary, Mike Reich; Parliamentarian, Charlie McAllister; Usher, Charlie Sullivan.

Remember Kappa Delta ALL-Sing December 11!

Novel Notes

THE YOUNG LIONS. By Irwin Shaw

A magnificent novel of life in America, in North Africa, and in Europe during the last World War; a story of love and hatred; a tale of discrimination and hypocrisy, of patriotism and treason, of life and death. This is The Young Lions by Irwin Shaw.

Set amid the unrest and uncertain times and conditions surrounding World War II, this book gives an accurate, raw account of the side of the story of this great conflict.

Mr. Shaw employs a unique, highly interesting style in telling his story. The first chapter of the book is dedicated to the life of Hans, an Austrian lad who earns his living by teaching tourists to ski. The second chapter gives the facts about Michael, the Broadway producer, and his unfaithful, neurotic wife. The third chapter concerns Isaac, the meek Jewish man who is pushed aside because of his ancestry.

There is no apparent connection between these three men, for one is in Austria, one in New York, and the other in San Francisco. Then war comes.

Mr. Shaw continues to tell his story in three distinct parts, and the reader can't help but follow the stirring adventures of these three young lions. Then in a final burst of action, the author skillfully, yet firmly, ties all three lives together.

Mr. Shaw has a masterpiece in this book. The style is relaxing, the plot involved, and free of shoddy little cheap theatrical tricks, and the story one of pathos and conflicting human emotions. I, personally, can't think of finer ingredients for a classic.

Girl's Basketball Season Opens

The basketball season is well underway, and the Tri-Delts, KD's, and Chi-O's still remain undefeated.

On Tuesday night, the KD's, after a slow start, defeated the ZTA's 20-13. Iverson was high scorer for the KD's with 12 points and Anderson for the ZTA's with 8 points.

In the second game the DDD's defeated the AOPT's in a close game which ended 21-17 in favor of the DDD's. Hebert lead AOPT's scoring with 10 points and Drash headed the DDD's scoring with 10 points.

On Thursday, the Chi-O's defeated a hard fighting Independent team by a score of 46-10. Doyle racked up 23 points for the Chi-O's and Fogarty, 10 points for the Independents.

In the final game the KD's defeated the AOPT's 26-4. Iverson led KD scoring with 16 points and Rush made 3 points for the AOPT's.

The games this week all promise to be exciting, so let's get out to some of them.

Tau Plans Exhibit

Tau chapter of Chi Beta Phi, national honorary scientific fraternity, held its first dinner meeting of this year on Thursday evening, November 6, in the bell room. Speaker for the evening was Dr. David E. Matthews, whose subject was "What Are Our Remaining Frontiers in Science?"

Plans are well under way for the annual Science Exhibit sponsored by Tau, and the date is set for December 12. A number of improvements and additions are planned, and the exhibit is expected to be a great success again this year. Any students desiring to help with the exhibit may get information from members of the fraternity

Chapel Chimes

"What is man that Thou art mindful of him and the Son of man, that Thou visiteth him? For Thou hast made him a little lower than the angels and hast crowned him with glory and honour" Psalm 8.

"But I say unto you, love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for He maketh His sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust." Matthew 6:44 and 45.

Is man a creature, humble and adoring
With a spirit capable of soaring?

Or is he a creator of selfish spheres
Shuttled about by desires and fears?

In observing our neighbors day by day,
To both these queries, we might answer, "Yea."

But a look, a gesture, a word, a thought . . .
All these things they matter not.

For good or bad, how e'er they seem to be Still does God all his children see.

And questions as these do foolish seem
If we regard each man in God's esteem.

For mindful He is of great and small
And ready to answer each hesitant call.

If God in his perfection can love and care
To ignore or judge, how can we dare?

INTRAMURAL NEWS Table Tennis Begins

On Wednesday, Nov. 5, Sigma Nu unleashed a running attack led by Tommy Crais and downed ATO 12-0. In a hard fought game on the same day SAE slipped past the Independents 6-0 with Johnny Maxwell providing the score.

ATO downed KA 7-6 with Sid Vise and Clark Young producing the ATO scores, while Charlie Sullivan scored the KA touchdown. Sigma Nu defeated KS 6-0 on the same day in one of the year's best games. On Tuesday, Nov. 11, ATO, led by Sid Vise and Tommy Richardson, downed PiKA 19-12.

The table tennis tournament opened this week with the following schedule:

- PIKA vs. SN—1:30, Nov. 11
- KA vs. ATO—4:15, Nov. 11
- Ind. vs. SAE—1:30, Nov. 12
- KA vs. KS—4:15, Nov. 12
- Ind. vs. SN—1:30, Nov. 13
- SAE vs. ATO—4:15, Nov. 13
- Ind. vs. PiKA—1:30, Nov. 14
- SAE vs. KS—4:15, Nov. 14

Contest Entries To Rehearse

On Tuesday night, November 18, at 7:30 p.m., the rehearsal for the Maid of Cotton Contest will be held in Hardie auditorium. It is imperative that all entrants for the contest be present at this rehearsal, for numbers for places on the program will be drawn at this time. Those who are entered in the contest should also have their five-minute talk on "Why I'd Like to Be Maid of Cotton" prepared at this time.

If it is impossible for any one of these people to attend the rehearsal, she should get in touch with Emily McKay or Mary Rodriguez before 7:30 p.m. Tuesday night, November 18.

Don't forget to go by the registrar's office and fill out the cards for church attendance. This info is needed for the 8-week's grades.

CAMPUS CAMERA

Say, I wonder, has no one noticed or commented on the large "S" in oak trees by the new library? Ann Gill called my attention to it, but I don't know what brought it to hers.

It seems that Dr. McQueen brought ten acorns with him from the Clarksville Campus and planted them beside the present site of the library, facing Parkway. All ten have grown into promising young oaks.

That Southwestern is a school of tradition. I have known since I first set foot on the campus. Here is added proof. A tradition no one knew about.

The trees will be visible from the library, freshmen, so if you want to be real mean next fall you can ask new students to show you the biggest letter on campus.

Funniest sight this week—An impromptu shower bath given three girls outside Neely Hall by Mr. Rol-low last Wednesday.

Saddest sight this week—Hundreds of once gay and witty Sou'-westerners saddened and silenced by upcoming mid-term tests.

Lou Wener is asking for lyric writers for the revue next spring. I want to second the motion. All sorts of tune scribblers have popped up like termites out of antique wood-work, but they all need words before they'll even begin to hum a tune.

Let's all go to the orchestra concert next Friday. Anyone who doesn't like the last number just doesn't like anything.

◆ Laffs!! ◆

Some kids were having a party and they decided to play postoffice. Riley and Bob went into the other room and didn't come out. The other kids called to them to come out immediately. "We can't," came a muffled replay. "Our braces are hooked!"

Claire: "Claudia, Berry wouldn't murder anybody, would he?"

Claudia: "Gracious, No. What made you ask?"

Claire: "Well, I heard him down in the basement last night saying, 'Let's kill the other two, Buddy.'"

TALENT NEEDED

The World Student Service Fund will hold its annual talent show sometime late in December, before the school adjourns for the Christmas holidays. The sole purpose of this show is to raise money for the disrupted, defunct school systems of war-torn countries.

Talent is needed. Any singers, actors, dancers, musicians, or anyone who can entertain is urgently requested to contact Lou Wener or Tommy Crais as soon as possible. Let's go, Southwestern! Make this show a success!!!

NOSE, THROAT,

and Accessory Organs not Adversely Affected by Smoking Chesterfields

FIRST SUCH REPORT EVER PUBLISHED ABOUT ANY CIGARETTE

A responsible consulting organization has reported the results of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

A group of people from various walks of life was organized to smoke only Chesterfields. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields—10 to 40 a day. 45% of the group have smoked Chesterfields continually from one to thirty years for an average of 10 years each.

At the beginning and at the end of the six-months period each smoker was given a thorough examination, including X-ray pictures, by the medical specialist and his assistants. The examination covered the sinuses as well as the nose, ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough examination of every member of the group, stated: "It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected in the six-months period by smoking the cigarette provided."
