LYNX CATS MEET LAMBUTH SATURDAY

BLACK LEDGERS OF SANHEDRINS RECEIVE NAMES

Freshman Offenders Are Entered On Rolls

CO-EDS ARE ACTIVE

Law and Order Being Taught Neophytes

Freshmen and freshettes have been furnishing the two Sanhedrin Councils lots of competition during the past week. Perfectly nice rules of the Councils do not seem so inviting to many of the neophytes, and so they violate them. Then the Councils must need seek an answer.

Violators are learning the wisdom of keeping their names out of the "black ledgers." Each offense is carefully recorded, and additional trips before the Councils invariably mean more severe sentences.

GIRLS IN LEAD

Contrary to precedent, the freshettes have been more recalcitrant than the freshmen. But there might be a reason in that the freshettes have been subjected to more "indignities" lately than the boys, to wit: wearing baby caps, lugging milk bottles, cosmetics on one side of the face only, reversed dresses, forced affability to upperclassmen.

PRIESTESSES ARE FIRM

High Priestess Eleanor Beckham and her council of priestesses are ruling their charges with an adamant mien. Offenders against the law and order of the college society are being tried daily.

High Priest Dode Farnsworth and his consorts of discipline welcomed the following charter members to the "black ledger" last Friday morning: Dettwiler and McKinnon, without straw hats; Henson, disobedience and without hat; Bowman Hall, disobedience. Monday cases were not very serious. Freshmen Jones, Morrison, Fullenwider were seen without placards bearing their names. Freshman Hyde received the heaviest sentence of the day.

Among the specific and inviolate rules binding on freshmen are that they must use "sir" and "Mr." when speaking to upperclassmen eds, and "madam" and "Miss" to upperclass co-eds; must be in their rooms by 9 p. m. except on Saturdays and Sundays when they may have dates.

WORD BALKS PAN COUNCIL

Stumped on Definition of "Rushing"

No one can define "life." Fraternity men at Southwestern are equally balked in defining "rushing." All agree that "rushing" has to do with interesting new members in particular fraternities, but the manner in which undue enthusiasm is aroused is the point of difference.

Accordingly, a committee has been chosen by the Men's Pan-Hellenic Council composed of Bobby Lloyd, Charlie Terry and Dode Farnsworth to formulate a complete definition of "rushing."

The Council met last Wednesday morning for the first time this fall. Johnson Garrett was chosen vice-president to fill the office left vacant by Palmer Brown, who did not return this year. Donald Bode is new secretary-treasurer, taking the place of Pat Johnson, who is working at present.

ALUMNA HOST TO CHAPTER AT TEA

Members of Kappa Delta sorority will be entertained with a bridge tea Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Howard Pritchard, 660 South Rozelle St., who was formerly Miss Elise Porter, vice-president of the chapter at Southwestern.

New Dean

—Courtesy The Evening Appeal

Southwestern began the college year last week with a new dean. Dr. R. W. Hartley, for the past several years professor of mathematics here, is now acting dean. He will continue in the chair of mathematics as well as performing the duties of his new office.

PALS WILL GIVE FIRST ACT SOON

Actors Hope To Build Outdoor Theater

Theta Alpha Phi, honorary fraternity is launching out on a new and bigger program this year than ever before. The Pals, dramatic club cooperating with the national organization, expects to put over this new plan.

The first public performance of the season probably will be given around the middle of November. The play has not been selected, but it will probably be a comedy. The Pals are planning an extensive publicity campaign which will include hand bills, auto stickers, posters, and the newspaper advertisement.

Also the Pals and Theta Alpha Phi have separate organizations; they co-operate in the staging of plays and entertainments. Membership in the honorary fraternity is granted only after sufficient work has been done in the Pals to justify such membership. The work can be done in stage planning and construction, scene shifting, scene painting as well as in acting.

An elaborate system of preliminary tests will have to be passed before the aspirants to membership in the Pals are admitted into the club.

The purpose of the activities and the money making of the dramatic club is to build an airdrome theater devoted exclusively to the various phases of the drama. Plans have already been drawn up by Fritz Heidelberg. It is proposed that it be located on the southeast corner of the campus in the natural bowl.

It will be an open air stage at first, but later on an entire theater will be built when sufficient capital has been accumulated.

The facilities afforded by the stage in Hardie Auditorium are very limited and the Pals have felt that something of the kind was necessary for the proper promotion of interest in acting, reading of plays and the workshop of play acting, play making and play study.

FROSH FORM "PURITY" UNIT

Intrepid Souls Launch Drive To Make Memphis "Pure"

Certain far-seeing dormitory freshmen at Southwestern have organized a "Purity Squad" for the purpose of making Memphis "pure."

Shortly after the dormitories were opened last week these freshmen from out-of-town saw what a "wicked" place Memphis was. Being truly freshmen, nothing to them is impossible.

Their initial move was made when all members gathered somewhere on the campus after midnight recently.

OFFICIALS LAY DOWN THE LAW ABOUT CUTTING

Absence Means Zeros In Classes Cut

NO EXCUSES TO GO

Only Exceptions Made By the College

College officials and professors are adhering strictly to the ruling put in effect last year regarding absences from classes.

"We will sanction no deliberate cutting of classes," said Dean W. R. Hartley to students in chapel recently. "No distinction will be made between an excused and an unexcused absence."

Under the ruling when a student's absences in a given semester, counting absences from chapel exercises and physical education classes as one-half each, exceeds the total number of credit hours for which he is registered, one hour will be added to the required number of hours, for a degree.

ZERO FOR CUTTING

Professors are empowered to count all class absences as zero recitations. Besides the zero for missing class, the absence is recorded in the Registrar's office against the student.

Quoting from catalog "Exceptions to these rules can be made only in cases of extra-curricular activities when the student officially represents the college, and in cases of prolonged absence caused by illness or other misfortune. These will be treated with equitable consideration."

The dean called the attention of students to the paragraph in the catalog dealing with withdrawals—"No student shall withdraw from college before consulting the President. The penalty incurred by the omission of this courtesy is indefinite suspension."

Evergreen Matron Will Visit Boys' Dormitories Daily

All boys' dormitories at Southwestern will be thrown open each day to an inspection between the hours of 12 noon and 1 p. m. by Mrs. I. A. Rutland, resident head of Evergreen Hall, girls' dormitory.

"Mrs. Rutland's visits will not be for the purpose of spying," say college officials, "but for the purpose of seeing that the janitors do their work properly." Mrs. Rutland will help the boys to arrange their suites in the most comfortable fashion.

She will mother the boys in the infirmary in Stewart Hall. Roommates of sick students will report all cases of illness to her, and she will get medical attention and will see that proper food is given.

MISS E. M. PARKER SUCCEEDS SISTER

Miss Effie Moore Parker will take charge of the book store on Oct. 1. She will succeed Mrs. S. L. Welsh, her sister, who has been at Southwestern for two years. Mrs. Welsh who was married during the past summer, states that she plans to become a regular housewife.

Assist In Labs

John Borman, Donald Bode and Ogden Baine will be student assistants in the chemistry labs this year. Two curators for the stock room will be appointed soon, according to Dr. W. O. Swan.

A New Co-Ed Enticement

—Courtesy The Evening Appeal

Men, attention! If your name is not yet on this "classified advertisement" proposition, then get busy. Miss Fay Simpson, a junior, hailing from Hot Springs, Ark., is owner, operator and promoter of the new business.

"Each name has a memory," she confides. The nature of the memory is strictly her affair. Miss Katherine Reid, a freshette, is in the process of adding a new member to the silent group.

VICS ARE TABOO IN BOYS' ROOMS

College Lays Down Law Regarding Music

College officials are very emphatic in their announcement that students are not to have victrolas in their rooms. The only victrolas to be played on the campus are those in the social rooms.

No musical instrument of any kind will be played before 1 p. m. and after 7:30 p. m. Students desiring to play any instrument besides the victrola may do so in their rooms in the afternoons only.

Student dormitory leaders as well as resident faculty members in each will see that these rules are enforced. New dormitory leaders are L. P. "Doc" Watkins, Robb Hall; T. M. Garrett, Calvin Hall; and Crawford McGivaren, Stewart Hall. Faculty members in the dormitories are Prof. W. R. Cooper, Robb; Prof. J. A. Ross, Jr., Calvin; and Prof. R. F. Thomason, Stewart.

DEBATERS PLAN COMING SEASON

Preparing for Strong Opponents

Debating contracts for the coming year have already been made by Quibbler Forum Debating Society with Ole Miss, Birmingham-Southern and Union. H. R. Thompson, club president, states that overtures are being made with Northwestern and Vanderbilt for dates.

At the first meeting of the year held September 24, ten new members were present. These are Bill Berson, Charles Simmons, Paul Jones, Malcolm McMillan, Robert Scott, J. D. Moody, Ward Harris, Vernon McGee, Allan Cabaniss and James Randle.

Old members returning besides Thompson are Warner Beard, vice-president; Malcolm Ritchie, secretary-treasurer; Nate White and Gerald Capers.

Dr. A. P. Kelso, professor of philosophy and Christian ethics, will be the faculty coach, and will meet with the club each Friday night in the private dining hall, where he will give a series of talks on the technique of debating.

Alumna Entertains

The Chi Omegas were entertained at lunch last Friday afternoon in the chapter house by Mrs. Luther Graves, an alumna. Mrs. Nell Upshaw Gannon, a Chi Omega and authoress of note visiting in Memphis, was a guest of the chapter at the affair.

Song Services

The Y. M. C. A. held a song service last Tuesday evening. A second song service will be held in the social room of Calvin Hall next Tuesday evening at 6:45 P. M. These song services will be continued for several weeks. The attendance of all men students is urged.

TEAM ON EDGE FOR FIRST OF GRIDIRON FARE

Outcome of Contest To Sound Strength

VETS ARE SCARCE

Opening Lineup Truly a Mystery Affair

BY VERN BAUMGARTEN

Captain Dode Farnsworth will lead out the Lynx huskies for their first football game as a member of the S. I. A. A. Saturday at Fargason Field. The victims of the Lynx' onslaught will be the Lambuth College Eagles, who lay claim to Jackson, Tenn., as their home.

The Lambuth boys are making their second trip to Memphis in two years. Last year Jess Neely's boys tromped over the Eagles in a one-sided game by the score of 44 to 12. Since then the Lynx have undergone a complete change of coaches, players and style of football. Neely Mallory and Pos Elam now instruct the players, with numerous new faces in the Lynx lineup.

FIRST REAL TEST

The game will be the first real line on what kind of a season the Lynx will hold. Lambuth is a small school and usually not of the calibre of the other teams on Southwestern's schedule. If the Lynx can parade hither and yon about the field and defeat the invaders with some resemblance of ease, prospects are bright for a good season. If the Lynx are hard set to eke out a victory or perchance meet with defeat, prospects will be dull indeed for any showing against such teams as Chattanooga, Union, Ole Miss, Hendrix or University of Arkansas.

Southwestern has had nearly three weeks of football practice, scrimmage, signal drill and other grinds that are required to make a team. Neely Mallory has installed a new shift in signal practice and the Lynx will use it for the first time in a real game Saturday.

BAND ON DECK

A large crowd is expected at the opening game. All students will be together. A band will be on hand to supply music and several stunts may be offered between halves.

Southwestern is about to start a new football season and every student is expected to be on hand to give the team backing.

The lineup is a mystery and is known definitely only by two people, Coaches Neely Mallory and Pos Elam. In the backfield, Captain Farnsworth, Bobby Lloyd, George Hightower, Lamar Pittman, Harry Walton, Russell Brigance, "Brick" Viers, Charlie Diehl and Jack Alexander may be called on. Of these, only Lloyd and Farnsworth are veterans. In all probability Farnsworth, Lloyd, Pittman and Hightower will open the game, with Lloyd calling signals.

The line candidates are Loren King, Crawford McGivaren, T. M. Garrett and Wilson Foote, of last season, together with Jeff Davis, Frank Thomason, Norman Thornton, Bob Logan, John Porter, Carlth Elder, Robert Russell and Percy Brown.

Porter and either Garrett or Brown will probably start at ends, with Loren King and McGivaren at tackles, Jeff Davis and Foote at guards and either Thornton or Thomason at center. Probably every member of the squad will get a chance to strut his stuff before the final whistle in order that the coaches may get a better line on the players.

The game will start at 3 p. m.

Chi Omegas Hold Open House At 9

Members of the active chapter of Chi Omega sorority at Southwestern will open the fall social season with open house in their lodge next Friday night from 9 to 12.

Louise Ralston, Frances Crawford and Lina Hughes will be in the receiving line.

The party is being given in honor of the new pledge, Miss Dorothy Lee Corner.

Faculty guests will be Dr. and Mrs. A. T. Johnson, Prof. Marion MacQueen, Prof. J. A. Ross, and Prof. W. R. Cooper.

Invitation has been extended to the entire student body to be present.

Sue Hightower: "Walton gave you a dirty look when he gave out your mail."

Jimmie Walls: "Yes, my friends are such poor writers that he can't read the cards that come for me."

He: "Will you marry me?"
Fair Co-ed: "Surely—what's your name?"

Paul Caldwell: "I've never kissed a girl in my life."

Katherine Draughan: "Well, don't come hanging around me. I'm not running a "prep" school."

Meredith Davis (in supply store): "Bring me another sandwich, please."

Ritchie Morgan: "Will there be anything else?"

Meredith: "Yes, a paper weight. That other one blew away."

NOTICE TO FRESHETTES!
Girls, beware of "run down heels" . . . the surest character revealer. You know you want to leave a good impression.

Why be bashful? If he's willing to call it "love at first sight" the least you can do is agree with him.

Dr. Johnson: "Now, Miss Janet Moody, if you only had a little more spunk you'd get along better in class. Do you know what "spunk" is?"

Janet: "Yes, sir, it's the past participle of spank!"

Mrs. Rutland: "Didn't I see you sitting in that young man's lap last night?"

Weekly Novelette

The sun shone down hotly on a handsome day in August.

"Pardon me, madam, but is your baby's life insured?" suavely asked Rufus Ripples, agent for the most Particular Life Insurance company.

"Why, no," answered the thin woman rocking the infant on her front porch. "The dear little thing hardly has any life to insure, he's so teeny-weeny, bless him."

"Amen," responded Rufus Ripples, cheerfully. "But have you reflected, madam, that four out of every 10 babies in this latitude die before reaching the age of 30."

"Oh no, no!" cried the woman. "It is true, madam, sad but true. Eight thousand die every year from infantile parenthesis, 7,000 from babular tumulus, 6,000 depart—"

"Oh, sir, cease, I prithee!" moaned the woman.

"From fatty fondulac, and 5000 pass out with shrinkage of the gink gland, while—"

But by this time his voice was drowned out by the terrified mother's outcries. Suddenly a brawny party in suspenders rushed from the house brandishing two fists. The waiting mother pointed through her tears at Rufus Ripples.

"Oh, you did, did you?" roared the brawny party, and gave Ripples such a trimming that if he hadn't been insured in his own company against assault and battery, he would have been much annoyed.

"Well, such is life," he smiled as he jumped from her veranda.

A Free Game Everyday

As days go by the Lynx gridmen learn more and do better and the gallery of onlookers in the stands grow larger and larger.

Fellows, that's the kind of backing our boys must have to be able to push thru the coming season with a decent percentage of wins. Our team this year needs student support, needs it badly, must have it!

Several of the standbys during the past four years—Gentleman Dulin, Hawk, Baumgarten, Waring, Gillespie, you know the boys—are not with the team for one reason or another, mostly because of graduation, marriage and ineligibility.

Nevertheless, the squad faces its first year in the S. I. A. A. On we go; forward, ahead and with a lighter and more inexperienced team than we have had for years. All due credit to the varsity men, they will tell you that it is the sideline support that wins these games as much as the pushing and plunging on the scrimmage line.

Come out to these practices. Yell and cheer. The boys need this kind of support: the kind that stays all the time no matter whether it is a practice or a regular game.

You might be busy some afternoons but not all of them. The team is always out, always doing its best to make a name for the Alma Mater. Show up in person and enter the fray in spirit.

Now is the time to put in the most effective work. The first game is not far off—yes, tomorrow! But there are other games to follow. Drag yourself out to the stands and let the boys on the field know that you're there.

Death Calls a Loyal Friend

Students of the college were deeply shocked to hear of the death recently of Mrs. Mary Frances Phillips Finley, a former co-ed. Always cheerful, friendly, and sympathetic, Mrs. Finley was one of the most popular co-eds in the school's history.

Honors were heaped upon her during her freshman year, and she was deserving of all. Her gracious smile and pleasing personality made her beloved by everyone. Those who knew her as a student feel only too keenly the loss which was caused by her untimely death.

On coming to Southwestern she joined the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority, and was always prominent in sorority circles. She was talented in many ways, and took an active interest in student activities.

Ten months ago she was married to George Finley. They were students at Central High School, and were close friends several years before their marriage.

The sincerest regrets of the student body are extended to her husband and relatives in their grief.

EXHUMED FROM THE FILES

Choice News Excerpts of Past Years As Revealed by Sou'wester Issues

SEPTEMBER 23, 1926

Seven new members have been added to the faculty this year. They are: Dean E. D. McDougall, Profs. P. N. Rhodes, A. T. Johnson, F. C. Huber, Ernest F. Haden, R. D. Shewmaker and B. P. Kaufman.

Charles F. Stewart, president of the Y. M. C. A., presided over the annual reception held in Hardie chapel on Sept. 17.

G. D. "Chick" Breed, June grad in 1925, was present at the Y. M. C. A. reception. Robert Penn Moss, also a member of Breed's class, was a visitor at the reception.

Alvie "Tack" Thompson, visited the campus recently.

Henry "Noisy" Lemmon was present when school opened.

Wayne "Windy" Gray stopped over while enroute to Louisville Theological Seminary.

"Sympathy" is being offered to the following stray Greeks: Vern Baumgarten, Delta Sigma Phi; Mathilda Gay, Delta Zeta; Elizabeth Nail, Phi Mu.

SEPTEMBER 23, 1927

All rushing of new men to Greek letter fraternities at Southwestern has been suspended and will not be allowed until February 1.

Price A. Patton, leading man in "Rollo's Wild Oat", will play the leading role in all plays to be presented at the Little Theater during the remainder of this month.

Six student assistants have been chosen in the science departments. They are A. L. Herring in biology; Donald Bode, John Bornman and Walter Gay in chemistry; Herman Kaminsky in physics, and Frank Heiss in psychology.

Edgar "Fritz" Bornman was pledged to Beta Sigma fraternity last Friday night.

New co-eds to Southwestern were complimented with a reception last Saturday afternoon in the tower room by members and officers of the Y. W. C. A. Officers: Miss Mary Sara Johnson, president; Miss Mary Parker, vice-president, and Miss Minnie Lundy, secretary-treasurer.

Miss Mary Allen entertained recently with a luncheon shower in honor of Mrs. Ed Buder, nee Miss Marretta Graham, a former Chi Omega at Southwestern, whose marriage to Mr. Buder was held last Saturday.

Many students thronged the Chi Omega lodge on Sept. 15 when open house was held for old and new students. The guests were received by the chapter entertainment committee composed of Amalie Fair, Rosa May Clark and Louise Ralston.

STEWART DORM PANES DAUBED WITH COVERING

Interiors of Suites Are Concealed After Complaints

Stewart Hall boys' dormitory at Southwestern, is in concealment these days due to complaints from neighbors that the boys were not overly modest in displaying their manly, or unmanly, forms.

Out of deference to the neighbors, the superintendent of grounds and buildings, visited the dormitories and daubed all the windows with a thick coat of white paint.

"If the students of Stewart Hall do not provide themselves with curtains the coat of white paint will remain on the windows," Dr. Charles E. Diehl, president, told the inhabitants of the hall. "However, a few 'peepholes' will be allowed so that the morning sun can sneak in and awaken those who have no alarm clocks."

AMPLE 'PEEPHOLES'
Some of the boys have curious ideas of the dimensions of a 'peephole' and, accordingly, have scraped off large areas, which have been covered over again.

Several wives in the adjoining wing of the apartment dormitory forthwith entered a second complaint, this time deploring the fact that the windows were painted. "The white windows are so unsightly," they said. "And they look awful. We hate to have our friends visit because the windows look so badly painted white."

College officials are in a dilemma. The neighbors want "protection"; they get "protection"; now they want something bordering on the opposite. "The paint will stay on", is the final word of officials, "until the boys hang curtains."

Forsdick Will Be Guest of Divines

L. R. Forsdick, secretary of the young men's division of the Memphis Y. M. C. A., will be the guest of the college Minister's Club on Oct. 2 at the regular bi-monthly luncheon in the private dining hall.

Frederick Heidelberg is president of the student divines, who number more than thirty this year. John K. Johnson is vice-president and Roger Wright secretary.

The club will meet the first and third Tuesdays in each month in the private dining hall for lunch, after which regular business will be transacted.

85-Year-Old Tree Felled On Campus

One of the giant red oak trees on Southwestern's campus, one of the bonds which link the present busy collegiate life with Indian life on this very plot many years ago, has been felled.

The tree bore 85 rings. Death was due to unknown causes.

The ground on which Southwestern is located was formerly a favored hunting ground of the Indians. Many inhabitants of Memphis recall the time when this section was the best of hunting grounds. The tree which was cut down last Tuesday was a straggling when the last of the red men left this section.

Kahanski Receives Degree At Vandy

Alexander Sissel Kahanski, native of Vilkaiviskis, Lithuania, and a graduate of Southwestern in the June class of 1926, received the master degree in philosophy at Vanderbilt University last June.

The Nashville papers were high in praise of Kahanski. He made an excellent record in his philosophical studies, "having the remarkable ability," to quote the Nashville Banner, "to absorb and digest large volumes of metaphysical thought."

I'm The Jane

I'm the jane who has acquired this collegiate wiggle for a reason. Have you noticed how I awe the boys when I oogle around in my tame-tossing way? My policy is to amble up gently, look as tho I were looking for someone—that's the stuff that breaks up conversation. If I don't happen to know the boys at hand, I walk slowly by, never once giving them a furtive glance. Then after a while I drift back, still looking for someone. It doesn't take long for some of the bolder spirits in the crowd to discover that I need entertainment. Get it? Why, I take the crowd along with me. You see how easy it is to bring a man around your way, don't you? No excuse to be unpopular and without constant company if you know how to work this non-chalance. Don't forget, girls, to give that tantalizing strut. It tares a man up, and no fooling! Just be looking for someone, and there they'll come. Boys certainly are easy to work, I must say!

Billy Fountain Solves Problem Of Heavy Horse

D. W. O. Swan, chemistry professor, as is his wont, gave his freshman chemistry class a "mental" test in arithmetic the first meeting of the class last week.

It was a most difficult examination, and the answers revealed great depths of thought, especially by the sophomores. The most trying question was this one: A horse standing on four feet weighs 1200 pounds. How much would he weigh if he stood on two feet? Billy Fountain, a sophomore, gave the remarkable answer of 6000 pounds. Bobby Carpenter, another sophomore, said 600 pounds. Freshette Martha Stone Wicker said 500 pounds on two feet and 300 pounds on one foot.

More than 25 percent of the class gave wrong answers to the question above.

Freshman John Andrew Shaw displayed the greatest revelation when he answered this query: If eggs cost 52 cents a dozen, how many eggs could you get for $3.90? He said one and six-tenths eggs.

Raspberry Plans Track Team Here

Southwestern freshmen and sophomores will receive their gym training this year under the supervision of W. C. Raspberry, who comes to Southwestern from the Y. M. C. A. graduate school in Nashville.

Mr. Raspberry was formerly a student at Mississippi A. & M. He is to have charge of the track work also, and called a meeting Tuesday morning of this week to meet all those who were interested in that form of sport.

FRATERNITY RANKS SHATTERED AS MANY FAIL TO RETURN HERE

Heavy Inroad Made Into Chapter Numbers By Transfers, Marriages, Business

This is the season of the year when collegians turn their attention to the strenuous task of "rushing" new members. Although the Men's and Women's Pan-Hellenic Councils at Southwestern have inaugurated a system of delayed rushing until at least after the first six weeks of college, yet at the present time they are active in reorganizing their chapters.

There are seven fraternities and four sororities at Southwestern. The opening of college on Sept. 19 found many of last year's members missing. Many of those who failed to return to Southwestern this year are attending other schools, while many have entered the business world.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Eleven brothers returned to the Sigma Alpha Epsilon chapter here. They are Henry Waring, Paul Caldwell, Allen Haden, Richie Morgan, Dick Monk, Willie Fountain, Harry Walton, Bobby Lloyd, Earle Howry, Bobby Carpenter, Horace Harwell, Walker Wellford, a former member of the chapter at Southwestern, has returned this year.

Of the undergraduates who did not return, Charles Snapp is attending the law school of the University of Tennessee; Tommy Frist is studying medicine at Ole Miss; Houston Minniece is at Washington and Lee University; Oswald McCown is studying medicine at University of Tennessee, Memphis. Charles Mitchiner and Cliff Hemming are not attending school this year.

The chapter has two transfers: George Booth, from Tulane, and Buster Dial, from Virginia.

Beta Sigma

Beta Sigma fraternity returned sixteen men this fall. Five undergraduates failed to return, while a former member has entered again to complete work on the B. S. degree.

The active chapter includes Leroy DuBard, Lindsey Cunn, Luther Southworth, James Melvin, John and Fritz Bornman, Frederick Heidelberg, Jack Alexander, Malcolm Ritchie, Malcolm Gibbons, James Jackson, Charles Garraway, Roger Wright, Goodbar Morgan and Schuyler Lowe.

Undergraduates who did not return are Bill Alexander, who is working this year; Charles Rond, a student at the University of Virginia; Burt Patton, who has married and is now living in Syracuse, N. Y.; Ronald Hayhoe, operator of his coal yard, and Arthur Bill.

Tom Weiss, who is a senior this year, has reentered Southwestern.

Alpha Tau Omega

Fifteen active members and two pledges have returned to the Alpha Tau Omega chapter. Full-fledged members are Claude Bowen, Jeff Davis, Charles Diehl, George Hightower, Albert and John Johnson, William and Warner Hall, Percy Brown, William Alexander, Walter Viers, James Luster, Lamar Pittman, Flint Liddon and Dode Farnsworth. The two pledges returning are Franklyn Kelley and John Culbertson.

Four undergraduates failed to return. Wray Witten is attending the University of Missouri this year. Charles McBride is working at present but expects to return in February. Frank Trelawney and McGee Moore are working in Memphis.

The A. T. O.'s have welcomed two transfers, one a full member and the other a pledge. Sloan Williams comes from Birmingham-Southern, as does Denson Reid. Reid was repledged by the Southwestern chapter.

Kappa Alpha

Kappa Alpha returned 10 men, including Harold Avent, Warner Beard, John Hagan, Duncan McRaney, William Montgomery, Hiram Lee Roberts, John Porter, Moore Moore, Jr., William Martin and Raymond McCalla.

Eight of the undergraduates failed to return. Richard Duncan is at Texas A. & M. this year. Dootchie Sherman is studying at University of Tennessee, Memphis. Nolan Pierce is attending college in North Carolina. Neil Rogers, Pat Johnson and Charles Calhoun are working. Alton Hicks is at the Cumberland Law School. Arthur Omberg is a radio operator on the high seas.

There are three transfers to the chapter. Elmer Pierce, brother of Nolan Pierce, comes from Wake Forest, N. C. Shelton Hardison and Billy Avery are both from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Kappa Sigma

The seven undergraduates who did not return are Palmer Brown, now at Washington and Lee University, Robert Miller, Furman University; Glover Brassfield, Auburn. Charles Hudson, Oscar Hurt, Charles Patterson and Buster Smythe are working this year.

Tau Delta Gamma

Tau Delta Gamma fraternity returned seven out of eight active members. Those who have returned are Donald Bode, John Stansell, Oliver Cromwell, Maurice Moore, Sam Anderson, Thomas King and Russell Briggance.

Pi Kappa Alpha

Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity returned nine active members. They are T. M. and Johnson Garrott, Crawford and Edmund McGivaren, Robert Russell, Albert Morton, Albert Keller, James Spencer, Granville Farrar and George Parks, a pledge.

Six undergraduate members did not return. Of these Ramsey Russell is attending the University of Virginia; George McMillan, Georgia Tech; Hugh Carter, Cumberland University; Harold Collins and Donald Mitchell are working in Memphis.

W. C. Raspberry, a pledge at Mississippi A. & M., has been repledged by the chapter here.

Beta Lambda

Beta Lambda, Stray Greek organization, returned three out of five members. Those returning are Vern Baumgarten, Sigma Phi from Georgia Tech; Mike Wailes, Sigma Nu from Bethany, and Wilson Foote, Theta Kappa Nu from the University of Illinois.

Carrington Bacon, Lambda Chi, graduated last June.

Two new members have joined the Beta Lambdas this year. They are Frank Phillip White, Sigma Nu from University of Tennessee, Knoxville, and Don Allison Ramier, Sigma Nu from Purdue.

Chi Omega

Eleven members of Chi Omega sorority who have returned this year are Eleanor Beckham, Jane Hyde, Frances Gray, Louise Ralston, Fritz Montroy, Frances Crawford, Mary Douglass Watkins, Dorothy Green, Helen Northcross, Lina Hughes, and Neva Hussey.

Nine members of last year's chapter failed to return. Margaret Layne is attending school in New York City. Louise Head is going to the University of Arkansas. Rosa May Clark is attending the University of Minnesota. Julia Mathews is teaching in Hot Springs, Ark. Mary Frances Faies is attending business college. Mary Beth Sively, Elizabeth Watts, and Amalie Fair are not attending school at present. Gertrude Hand is in Alabama.

Kappa Delta

Fourteen members of Kappa Delta sorority have returned this year. They are Anne Gilliland, Janet Moody, Elizabeth Ferrell, Ann Roach, Addie Louise Murray, Elizabeth Norton, Martha Roseborough, Katherine Griffith, Susie Belle Wade, Meredith Davis, Lucy Farrow, Frances and Mary Gertrude Arthur and Jimmie Walls. Miss Walls is the only out-of-town member now in the sorority from last year's personnel. She was operated on for appendicitis at Methodist hospital during the summer.

Undergraduates who failed to return are Billie Roseborough, who is going to L. S. U.; Mary Elizabeth Murray, who is now at Randolph Macon, and Mary Belle Thomason, who is not going to college this year. Lo's Thum, a freshette at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, last year, is a new transfer K. D. to the local chapter.

Alpha Omicron Pi

Alpha Omicron Pi sorority returned 15 active members of last year's chapter. They are Catherine Underwood, Minnie Lundy, Dorothy Vanden, Ellen Goodman, Elizabeth Williams, Louise Mayo, Gladys Gibson, Eleanor Clinton, Carolyn Stockley, Pauline Barton, Charlotte Bruce, Virginia Mercere, Harriet Shepherd, Mary Evelyn Wailes and Sara Frances Laughlin.

Six undergraduates last year failed to return this fall. Anne Trezevant is attending Randolph-Macon; Eleanor Tucker is going to Brenau, and Marguerite Pride is at George Peabody College. Louise Russell, Elizabeth Laughlin and Carolyn Pride are not attending college this year.

Chi Alpha

Two undergraduate members did not return. Jean Goshorn is attending Lindenwood College this year, while Barbara Embury is teaching at St. Mary's school.

Four Former Students Marry

Four former Southwestern students, including two graduates, were married during the past summer. Of the four, three are members of the Kappa Delta sorority.

Miss Elizabeth Carnes, last June graduate, married Mr. Howard Baggett last July. The Baggetts are now living in Hopkinsville, Ky. She is a past president of the Kappa Delta sorority.

Miss Mary Culbertson, also a graduate and a Kappa Delta, married Mr. Hughes Bringle early in the summer. They are in Covington, Tenn., at present.

Miss Ernestine Wiggins is now Mrs. William Cecil Carter. They live in Memphis.

Miss Frances Gragg, also a Kappa Delta, became Mrs. John Pullen on last Aug. 21. They are living in Birmingham, Ala.

WAILES HEADS STRAY GREEKS

Beta Lambdas Welcome Four New Members

Beta Lambda fraternity, composed of Greeks who have strayed from the parent fold, returned three out of four members this year, and have increased the membership with four new "pledges."

Those returning are Mike Wailes, Sigma Nu from Bethany; Vern Baumgarten, Delta Sigma Phi from Georgia Tech, and Wilson Foote, Theta Kappa Nu from University of Illinois.

The new stray Greek transfers are Gerald Sagle, Lambda Chi Alpha from University of Arkansas; Donald Ramier, Sigma Nu from Purdue; Joe Hopper, Sigma Phi Epsilon from Georgia Tech, and Frank White, Sigma Nu from University of Tennessee.

At the first meeting of the year held last Wednesday morning, Wailes was elected president. No other officers were named. Vern Baumgarten will represent the strays on the Men's Pan-Hellenic Council. Wilson Foote will have his swing on the Men's Sanhedrin, and will acquire his group in likely fashion.

The new transfers will be "initiated" into full membership next week. The problem at present is: How can three old members handle four new men?

Band Preparing For Grid Games

The first band practice of the season was held Monday afternoon. Auvergn Blaylock is the leader this year. The band will play at all grid games and will make its first appearance Saturday. There are more pieces this year than last, and some good, peppy music will be played at the Lambuth game. No practice date has yet been set, but this will be announced soon.

Those reporting for practice and the instruments they play are as follows: cornet, John Bornman, James Spencer, Ira Woodfin, R. Moore, Freshmen Becton, Wells, Hall, Hines, Mobley; saxophone, Albert Keller, Edmund McGivaren; clarinet, Fritz Bornman; trombone, Auvergn Blaylock, leader, Freshman Nichols; bass, William Ford, Gerald Seigle; drums, Freshman Townsend.

Evicts Club

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Sept. 25—(IP)—Discovery of an unchaperoned woman in the building resulted in the closing of the Harvard Liberal Club recently.

The five summer resident members of the club were ordered to find other living quarters. The club was closed on the order of Regent Mathew Luce, director of morals at the university.

INQUISITIVE

The inquiring reporter will ask five students or faculty members each week, picked at random, their opinions on important questions of campus talk.

Question—Why does college appeal to you? (Asked of Freshmen)

D. A. McDonald—Because of the opportunities offered to a young man who is ambitious, that cannot be obtained elsewhere. College also creates good fellowship.

Ray Dobbs—I think the greatest benefit a freshman gets out of college is a chance to handle his own affairs, budget his time and money. Too many students are pampered at home, and it is good experience for them to get out on their own hook.

Lawrence Hood—We are away from home for the first time and college ought to teach us to be self-reliant. We ought to learn to adapt ourselves and make the best of existing conditions.

Bo Puddephatt—Because of the new experiences it offers. It prepares us to specialize in our chosen field, and offers new friendship that should prove valuable after we graduate.

"Mushmouth" Hinson—It creates good fellowship among the fellows, and teaches one how to mix. I am looking forward to the pep meetings and parades that proceed big football games.

Howdy, folks! Let us start the new school year off by singing Toofy Taber Tishimingo's latest beautiful hymn, "I Have Enough Dough to Live on the Rest of the Year If I Die Tomorrow Night."

Mental Agility Of Sexes Being Tested By Prof.

Which sex has the quicker brain, male or female?

Dr. W. R. Atkinson, psychology professor at Southwestern, is giving mental tests to certain groups of students in an effort to settle the question.

"Results will not be available for publication for several weeks," he states. "The result will apply only to those groups tested by students in the experimental department. It is too early to make predictions—and too dangerous."

The test will determine the sex of this group which has the most accurate, rapid, consistent and imaginative mind.

Twin Operation

Both boys are back in school.

PERSONALS

Mary Todd is working at Sears Roebuck and will not return to Southwestern until next year.

Blanche Wear is another of the sophomore class to stop school. She intends to take a business course.

Sue Horton and Louise Miller, two of last year's students, visited the campus last Wednesday. They are now taking a business course.

Emma Turpin is working at the Cossitt Library; the next year or two she will spend taking a librarian's course.

Virginia Link is spending her junior year at the University of Southern California.

John Looney, an alumnus of Southwestern, is stopping in the city a few days before returning to the seminary at Louisville, Kentucky.

Walter Gay is working at Cossitt Library.

Marion Bickford has left the city to attend U. T.

Frances Beasley, who spent her freshette days at Southwestern, is now working for the Park Commission and also plays for the performances at the American theater.

Dorothy Whitten is spending a winter of leisure at home.

Mary Frances Faies was on the campus Tuesday morning.

Prof. Ernest Haden, associate professor of French at Southwestern last year, left Tuesday for the University of Chicago where he will teach French this year.

VICTOR ARTIST GIVES PROGRAM

Johnny Marvin Sings In Chapel Here

Johnny Marvin, Victor recording artist, who appeared on the vaudeville program at Loew's State last week, gave the first entertainment of the year in chapel on Sept. 19.

Marvin is a self-made man, having been born in a covered wagon in Oklahoma in 1897. He started to school when 10 years of age, going 13 miles to the nearest school house. "I entered the second grade when 14 and the third grade when 16, but had to leave to help my father pick cotton," he said. His career started when he joined a circus. His wanderings carried him to California, St. Louis and New York, where he became a "proficient bootblack."

Among the selections which Marvin gave were "Think of Me Thinking of You," "I'm Sorry I Made You Cry, But Your Face Looks Much Cleaner," "Why Did You Leave Me?" "The Watermelon Smiling on the Vine," and "Get Out and Get Under the Moon," in which the student body joined him.

Former Student Called By Death

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Frances Phillips Finley, who was queen of the May festival at Southwestern in the spring of 1926, were held Sept. 13 at the J. W. Norris funeral home. Burial was in Elmwood Cemetery.

A floral wreath was sent by the student body as an expression of sympathy from her many friends who knew her as a student here.

While a student at Southwestern Mrs. Finley was one of the most popular co-eds on the campus. She was initiated into Alpha Omicron Pi sorority and was active in Greek letter circles.

She is survived by her husband, George Finley, whom she married 10 months ago; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Phillips, and a brother, F. W. Phillips, Jr.

Freshettes Perform

The first class program of the year was given in chapel last Tuesday morning by one round dozen of freshettes. After a few childish, yet appropriate songs, recitations and antics, the girls retired amid lusty applause.

Youth Learns Difference to His Sorrow

Some freshmen are born dumb, others acquire it, but the stunt pulled last Thursday afternoon in biology lab takes the porous diadem.

Freshman Bob Darden strolled in and took a seat. Being an unobtrusive lad, he sat meekly by, looking but saying nothing. Dr. Lackey, who also broke into fame during this particular lab session, did not call Darden's name when the class opened. Strange! But he remained mute.

For two hours the freshman took notes conscientiously. When the microscopes were brought forth and the lab lesson began in earnest, Darden quickly became obsessed in the intricacies of the mechanism.

Like a bolt from the deep Freshman Darden jumped into the air, talking excitedly. "My gosh!" he yelled. "I'm taking biology instead of chemistry." He hurried from the room.

Moral—Skulls should not be used for croker sacks.

Freshettes Feted By Upperclassmen

Freshettes of the college were guests of the college Y. W. C. A. last Saturday afternoon at a treasure hunt on the campus.

The hunt started in front of Palmer Hall, and clues hidden in sequestered nooks in every part of the campus kept the girls running hither and thither until the goal was reached. Jane Barker found the prize, a handkerchief, in a cache near the parking space.

Refreshments were served in the Bell Room of Neely Memorial Dining Hall. The party then went to the Catholic Club where swimming was enjoyed.

GRADS FOLLOW THEIR WORK IN MANY CALLINGS

Some Studying, Playing, Teaching and Just Plain Working

Of the forty-one seniors receiving degrees at commencement exercises held at Southwestern last June, several have continued their study both in law and the ministry, while others have married. The majority, tho, have entered the business world, with teaching being the preferred vocation of the former co-eds.

Several of these graduates have visited on the campus this fall, and from them has been learned the whereabouts and occupations of many of their classmates.

The following personals are about the last graduating class here.

Mary Allen is teaching the fourth grade at Madison Heights grammar school.

Marcelle Yard is teaching at Treadwell.

Sara Johnson is teaching music at Lausanne school.

Virginia Rice is taking a business course.

Virginia Hogg is attending U. T. Ethel Brown is teaching school.

David Pipes is working in Memphis.

Price A. Patton has been working in Memphis all summer but returned to his home at Watertown, Tenn., this week.

Ed Lehmberg is attending Tulane University.

Ora Johnson is attending a physical education school in New York City.

George Kyser is working in Alabama.

Joe Davis is selling bonds in Mississippi.

Arthur Dulin is coaching at Lambert, Miss.

Mary Parker is studying nursing at the Methodist Hospital.

William Orr is studying for the ministry this year.

The last heard of Eleanor Ferguson was that she was going to get married.

Thornton Moore is attending Louisville Theological Seminary.

James Pace is working in Memphis.

Mrs. Edgar Little is attending her home this year.

Charles Liles is traveling for a textile concern.

The plans and whereabouts of James Washington, Herman Kaminsky and Alta Kidd are not known.

CO-EDS ENROLL FOR EXERCISES

Natty Gym Outfits Will Be Worn

All freshettes, sophomores, transfer or upperclass coeds who have not fulfilled the physical education requirement, must attend the girls' gym classes under Miss Louise Stratmann, instructor.

A standard gym garb consisting of white tennis shoes, light hose, dark bloomers, white middie and a black tie with two red stripes is required of all co-eds, and credit will be withheld unless this stipulation is carried out.

The schedule follows: Lecture every Monday at 2 p. m. Exercises either on Monday and Wednesday at 12 noon or on Tuesday and Thursday at the same hour, depending on the section to which members are classified.

The courses will include corrective exercises, calisthenics, group and competitive games and highly organized games.

Teaching Gym

Miss Barbara Embury, star basketball player at Southwestern last year, is teaching gym at Saint Mary's school this term.

LYNX HAVE FORMIDABLE SQUAD FOR PENDING GRIDIRON SEASON

Foote, a Product of Chicago, Is Heaviest Man On the Team—Viers Is Lightest

Southwestern will hurl against its gridiron opponents this year a backfield of 157 pounds average weight and a line averaging 175 pounds.

And the backfield's attack can move with an average speed of nearly 11 seconds for 100 yards.

The team's weight average is 170 pounds, height average is five feet 11 inches, age average 20 years, and experience average two years. Total team weight is over two tons, or 4,586 pounds.

Foote, guard and center, is the heaviest man on the team. He tips the beam at 209 pounds, and Viers, a halfback, who weighs 143 pounds, is the lightest.

Eighteen-year-old Charles Diehl is the youngest man on the squad, and Ayers, 24, is the oldest.

Capt. Dode Farnsworth has had four years' experience with the Lynx. The other four-year-men are McGivaren and Garrott.

TICKETS GIVEN "City" Thomason Pulls Fast One But It Flopped

A. A. Starts Campaign To 'Sell' Sports Here

Walter L. Acroyd, general manager of Sears Roebuck & Co., has donated $150 to the Southwestern Athletic Association to cover all cost for printing the football tickets here this year.

The American Business Men's Club has already bought 300 season tickets and members of this organization are throwing all their strength behind the movement of the Athletic Association to "sell Southwestern college athletics to Memphis." Don Warren is in charge of the A. B. C. ticket campaign. The tickets are for eight home games with reserved seats in the West stand. Twenty-four boxes have already been sold at $100 each.

The advertising committee of the Athletic Association is using 61 papers in the South, from Texas to North Carolina and Illinois to Florida, advertising Southwestern. Pictures of players, coaches, and special writeups about individuals on the team are being mailed daily.

As a first step in educating younger Memphis, all Boy Scouts, Chickasaw Buddies, and students of Bellevue and Snowden Junior high schools will be admitted for 25c each when the Lynx play their opening game on September 29 with Lambuth College on Fargason Field.

Every prep and high school student in Memphis and Shelby county will benefit by the special rate of 25 cents when Southwestern plays Georgetown here on October 13.

During one of the games the American Legion, Shrine, Elks and Knights of Columbus bands will be on the field rooting for Southwestern.

Four flagpoles will be erected, according to Donald G. Fuller, chairman of the Publicity committee. Two poles will bear American flags and the other two school colors.

LYNX CLUB IS REVIVED AFTER YEAR OF REST

Conspicuous Uniforms Will Be Worn At Sport Events

After a year of dormancy the Lynx Club has been revived in view of the need of some organization to assist in handling the crowds that are expected to attend the games this year. Two years ago the first Lynx Club was organized with 12 members, only to die from lack of interest after the football season was over. The new club has practically the same aims as the old organization but has started out in a much healthier way than its forerunner.

The reasons for reviving the Lynx Club and the plans for the year were outlined by Prof. Ross in the first meeting Monday morning when more than 30 upperclassmen chosen to make up the new club were present. There is an apparent need for some organization to tender Southwestern hospitality to the visiting teams and the spectators that attend our games at Fargason Field. The club will also undertake to advertise the games and provide ushers for the reserved seats on the west side of the field.

AVENT IS PRESIDENT

Organization was effected around the cheer leaders for this year. Harold Avent was elected president. "Big Mac" McGivaren is to hold place of vice-president, and Sam Anderson that of secretary-treasurer. A publicity committee composed of Vern Baumgarten and Malcolm Perry is already at work. Six of the members were appointed as gate keepers and a still larger number as ushers.

The idea is to keep the club functioning throughout the year, to have it serve similarly at baseball and basketball contests. There are plans to provide seats along side the tennis courts for the galleries that turn out for the matches, and to foster a better brand of tennis etiquette than has been evidenced here.

The club is to become somewhat of an honorary organization, new members to be recruited each year from the sophomore class of those men who in their Freshman year were of the most assistance to the club.

UNIFORMS ET AL

A uniform of white trousers and red and black blazers will distinguish the members in a sufficiently conspicuous fashion, the blazers to become the property of those who serve throughout the year. With the plans that have been laid it is hoped that this year the Lynx Club is on its way to fill the much needed office for which it is intended.

The committee in charge of tickets is composed of Sam Anderson, John Bornman, Lee Wailes, Claude Bowen, Duncan McRaney and Leroy DuBard. Harold Avent and Allen Haden, the cheerleaders for this year, will have charge of all the snake dances and parades on the field between the halves. The rest of the club will have its duties assigned. Most of the members will act as ushers for the owners of the boxes. As policemen the Lynx Club will enroll the aid of such freshmen as will seem advisable. These will patrol the fences, guard the doors and run such errands as will be needed.

Besides the ones already mentioned the club is composed of Gerald Capers, Oden Baine, Warner Beard, Oliver Cromwell, Ned Dodds, Thomas Drake, Nathaniel White, Billy Fontaine, Horace Harwell, James Jackson, Billy Martin, Marioh Painter, Ed Thompson, Charles Terry, Herman Bevis, Garner Watson, Bobby Carpenter, Jack DuBose, Vern Baumgarten, Malcolm Perry, and Stanford Parnell. Professors Raymond Cooper and James Ross will act as faculty advisors to the club.

Lots of Duplicates

Evanston, Ill.—(IP)—An entire football team, with one left over as a substitute, could be made up of the pairs of twins included in this year's freshman class of the Liberal Arts college of Northwestern University, except that one of the pairs is composed of girls.
