CO-EDS START VOLLEY, BASEBALL TEAMS

VOLUME IX.

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE, MAY 4, 1928

NUMBER 30

PALS PICK CAST FOR FINAL PLAY OF THE SEASON

"Anthony and Anna" To Be Given May 24, 25

REHEARSALS START

Final Production of Year Is Rich In Satire

"Anthony and Anna," a satire on the American abroad, will be the annual spring production of the Pal Dramatic Players of Southwestern in Hardie Auditorium on May 24, 25 at 8 o'clock.

Try-outs for places on the cast were held on Monday and Tuesday. Prof. Ernest Haden, faculty coach, announces the following successful candidates: Charles Rond III, Ronald Hayhoe, Frederick Heidelberg, Allen Haden, Ann Roach, Charlotte Bruce, Price Patton and Thomas Drake.

FULL OF WISE CRACKS

"Anthony and Anna," rich in wit and droll cracks, centers about the English conception of the American girl and the American idea of the English. The plot is woven around the wooing of Anna Penn (Charlotte Bruce), and daughter of Mr. Penn (Frederick Heidelberg), a millionaire taking in the sights of Europe, by Anthony Fair (Price Patton), a gentleman who lives by his wits. Anthony seeks the hand of Anna, but Penn won't consent to the marriage until Anthony has worked two years. Work to Anthony is unbecoming his nature as that is only for the ignorant and crude, while he is of the intelligencia and a boon to culture.

FATHER CONSENTS

Penn, being a subscriber to the idea of work for a living, abhors lounge lizards, and refuses Anthony's request. Anna steps in to close the play by whispering to her father that if he will consent to the marriage, Anthony will work rather than stay home with her.

The remaining members of the cast will be Rond, an elderly head waiter; Hayhoe, his assistant; Haden, "Dunwoody," a popular novelist; Miss Roach, "Lady Cynthia Speedwell," a "reduced" gentlewoman, and Drake, a rich professor.

This play will conclude the year's program of the Pals, and will be the sixth large production.

OLE MISS HERE FOR MORE GOLF

Clash Today In Return Series of Matches

Southwestern golfers will clash with Ole Miss golfers in a return series of golf matches on Friday and Saturday of this week at the Galloway Golf Club course.

The Lynx golfers last week invaded Ole Miss and were handed a trimming, and this week they hope to collect some revenge from the Mississippians. The local club-wielders were beaten 17 points to one in last week's matches, with only Harwood, of the Lynx, winning a match. He defeated Floyd, of Ole Miss, 4 and 3.

Dent, of Ole Miss, defeated Beard, of Southwestern, 4 and 2, with Haskins, of Ole Miss, taking Mitchiner into camp 8 and 6. Ratcliffe, of Ole Miss, took Cromwell's measure 3 and 1.

Ole Miss has some excellent golfers on the team, among them being Floyd, of Ole Miss, who shot a 73 for the 18 holes, and Ratcliffe, who turned in a card of 69 for the 18-hole journey.

Harwood is the leading Southwestern golfer, according to his present showing, shooting a 74 in the Ole Miss matches.

No Grid Captains

Practically every college in the state of Ohio has decided to abolish the position of captaincy of its athletic teams. Oberlin and Mt. Union Colleges are the latest to follow this lead. Acting captains will be appointed for every contest and at the end of the season an honorary captain will be elected by the team.

Blair the Pedagog

Clyde Blair, who was a junior at Southwestern last year, is at present principal of the Junior High School at Chandler Springs, Ala.

Blair claims that "teaching is worse than going to school."

SOUTHWORTH NAMED EDITOR OF SOU'WESTER FOR FOURTH YEAR

ELECTIONS HAVE BEEN QUITE THE RAGE THIS WEEK

Students Rise and Fall In the Balloting

POLITICS ON FIELD

All Elections Complete Except Few Minors

Election of students to offices for next year has been the rage during the past week. Politics has been one of the main factors in keeping anticipation high and speculation rife.

With the exception of student body elections, all balloting has been under the supervision of political cliques.

Successful office seekers for next year include:

Student body—Crawford McGivaren, president; Warner Hall, vice-president; Catherine Underwood, secretary-treasurer.

Sou'wester—Luther Southworth, editor; Houston Minniece, assistant editor; James Melvin, business manager; Ira Goldsmith, assistant business manager.

Lynx—Leolin Wailes, editor; Palmer Brown, business manager.

CLASS ELECTIONS

Senior class—Harold Avent, president; Billy Hughes, vice-president; Jane Hyde, secretary-treasurer.

Boys' Sanhedrin Council—Dode Farnsworth, High Priest; Duncan McRaney, Priest; Charles Snepp, Executioner.

Girls' Sanhedrin Council—Eleanor Beckham, High Priestess.

Ministers Club—Frederick Heidelberg, president; John Johnson, vice-president; Roger Wright, secretary-treasurer.

Chi Delta Literary Society—Katherine Griffith, president; Janet Moody, vice-president; Katherine Boots, secretary; Minnie Lundy, treasurer.

Y. W. C. A.—Dorothy Green, president; Eleanor Beckham, vice-president; Harriet Shepherd, secretary; Barbara Bates, treasurer.

Elections for Y. M. C. A. officers have not been held as yet.

Officers for the two Pan-Hellenic Councils have not been chosen to date.

Farnsworth Chosen President "S" Club

Southwestern "S" Club, composed of men in school who have won their letters in a major sport, elected officers Wednesday morning. The new officers are Dode Farnsworth, president; Vern Baumgarten, vice-president, and Johnson Garratt, secretary-treasurer.

The retiring officers are Henry Waring, president; Dode Farnsworth, vice-president, and Vern Baumgarten, secretary-treasurer.

The Prize Excuse

The following excuse for absence was turned in to the office by Freshman Phillip Sherman:

Monday, 3-12-28.

Was in automobile wreck and unable to attend school. Was in bed. Had the doctor to take four stitches in my eye. This happened, men.

Doochie Sherman.

Student Publication Leaders For Next Year

Upon Leolin "Mike" Wailes falls the duties of publishing the Lynx annual next year. Palmer Brown, assistant business-manager this year, will hold the Lynx purse strings. Luther Southworth will succeed himself as editor of the Sou'wester, this being his fourth year on the paper. James Melvin will continue as business manager of the Sou'wester. Harmon Ayers, business manager of the Lynx this year, is the new head of the Publication Board, succeeding Chester Denham, who will graduate this June.

FARNSWORTH IS NEW HIGH PRIEST

Eleanor Beckham Chosen High Priestess

Dode Farnsworth, one of the two grid captains for the coming season, will be known on the campus next year as "Hizzoner the High Priest of the Sanhedrin."

Farnsworth was elected Wednesday morning to head the Sanhedrin Council, which is composed of upper-classmen whose duties are to discipline the freshmen in the proper way of living and department.

Duncan McRaney is the new "Priest." Charlie Snepp is the "Grand Executioner." Each fraternity will furnish one member to the Council, and the non-fraternity men will send a member. The editor of the Sou'wester will complete the personnel.

Eleanor Beckham, basketball star, has been honored by the girls of the institution by being elected "High Priestess" of the Girls' Sanhedrin. Miss Beckham and her cabinet of disciplinarians will see that all freshettes adhere strictly to the straight and narrow path.

Greeley Students' Elections Tied Up

GREELY, COLO.—After several counts of ballots the associated students of Colorado State Teachers College are still without a new president.

The student council may seek legal advice to know just where they stand.

The first regular balloting resulted in no election, none of the four candidates having a majority. The council then ruled to allow the two high men, Clare Skold, Haxtun, and Paul Hurd, Denver, to contest for the office.

The first public announcement of the vote gave the office to Hurd with a majority of seven. Then it was charged by the opposition, there was an irregularity in that the ballot box was taken to a quarantined house in order that seven quarantined sorority girls might vote.

However, it was decided to count the ballots again and to let the result stand. This time Hurd had only one vote to the good. This was not satisfactory, so the ballots were counted several more times Saturday afternoon and evening and again yesterday until there was a meeting of the student council with the declaration that everything was "off."

College Enrollment Shows Big Increase

WASHINGTON.—Six times as many students are in colleges today than there were 30 years ago, the bureau of education of the department of the interior announced today. In the last few years the increase has been approximately 50,000 annually.

Dulin Says Never Again After First Trip In Airplane

The gridiron is for football players and the air is for birds. That's natural. But when football players go up in the air and birds play leapfrog on the ground—that's not natural.

Arthur Dulin, Wes Adams, Ora Johnson, Dode Farnsworth and Wilson Foote—habitués of the gridiron, took an aerial trip last Sunday, and Dulin flew the white flag.

Twenty-five Baby Ruth candy wrappers and $1.25 was the fare at a special offer holding good at the Bry's Airport. Each one gathered the wrappers and the necessary coin of the realm.

All except Dulin had been up before. Even he would have been all right, but he had eaten the candy from inside the 25 wrappers—and that was a bad start for the flips and tailspins which followed.

It would not have been so bad had there not been so many air pockets hidden along the air lane. As the plane dropped and tucked against the pockets, Dulin's feeling grew worse and worse and even "worse."

All but Dulin will go up again. "The air is for birds—terra firma for me," is his only comment.

GIRLS ORGANIZE ATHLETIC TEAMS

Plan Interclass Tilts In Volley, Baseball

The freshettes are forming teams in volley and baseball and have challenged all comers from the three upper classes in these two sports.

Sophomore girls have also banded and have whipped two teams into shape for the coming tilts. The junior and senior girls are expected to combine to form the upper class teams because of the small number of senior girls.

The interclass games will be played within the next two weeks on the new volley and baseball grounds which have been laid out on the gridiron field.

If sufficient interest is shown by the girls in these two sports, plans will probably be made to arrange for archery tournaments between the co-eds.

Freshmen Orators Enter Finals Soon

Freshman Maury Hull, selected in March as the Southwestern representative to the state W. C. T. U. oratorical contest which will be held in Nashville on May 11, is prepared to uphold the question of "Prohibition."

Freshman Malcolm Ritchie, who will speak against prohibition, will represent the institution at the State Oratorical finals at Sewanee the last of this month.

ELECT THOMPSON QUIBLER PREXY

Final Debate Against Ole Miss On May 9

Quibbler Forum Debating society has elected the following members to serve in official capacities during the coming year: H. R. Thompson, president; Warner Beard, vice-president, and Malcolm Ritchie, secretary-treasurer.

The final debate on the present schedule will be against Ole Miss on May 9. Charles Rond III and Warner Beard will represent Southwestern at University, Miss., on the question of the recently enacted Baumes bill in New York which condemns a person, after four convictions, to life imprisonment.

The Ole Miss debate will conclude the most extensive program yet undertaken by the Quibblers. William Orr, Abe Fortas, and H. R. Thompson opened the verbal campaign against the Northwestern University team. The debate was a no-decision tilt. Malcolm Ritchie and Billy Flowers defeated Union University, at Jackson, Tenn., while Nate White and Gerald Capers lost against Union in Hardie chapel the same night. Flowers and Orr then, defeated the West Tennessee Teachers by a unanimous vote of the judges. Thornton Moore and Ed Thompson traveled to Birmingham-Southern but were defeated. They spoke from the negative side of the question, Resolved, That the United States Should Cease to Protect by Armed Force the Money of Its Citizens Invested in Foreign Lands. This has been the question in all of the debates this year except against Ole Miss.

The success of the club this year is due, in a large measure, to the faithful work of Dr. A. P. Kelso, faculty coach. The Quibblers take this means to express their appreciation to Dr. Kelso.

Not Much Longer To Wait For The Lynx

All plates and printing for the 1928 Lynx have been turned over to S. C. Toof & Co. The Lynx will probably make its appearance on the campus around May 25.

Color proof on the cover has been secured, and is a very attractive cover in blue and gold. The color plates throughout the book are in blue and brown.

Hear Social Worker

The Y. W. C. A. held a meeting in Hardie Chapel Wednesday afternoon to hear a distinguished social worker speak on the subject of social welfare.

Conducts Chapel

Dr. Butler, an alumnus of Southwestern, conducted chapel exercises last Friday, speaking on the subject of "Friendship." His home is in New Zealand.

UNIQUE RECORD MADE AS BOARD REAPPOINTS HIM

Melvin Renamed Business Manager of Paper

WAILES EDITS LYNX

Ayers Wins Race as Head of Publication Board

Election of Luther Southworth to his fourth year as editor of the Sou'wester, Southwestern student weekly publication, establishes a unique record both at Southwestern and in collegiate newspaper history.

The Publication Board recently named Southworth to the office for next year, which gives him the undisputed title of "long distance college editor," perhaps a standing record.

EVENING APPEAL WRITER

Southworth, who is a member of the Evening Appeal editorial staff, and for several years associated in journalistic circles in Memphis, is a graduate of Central High School. While there he edited the school annual in his senior year, as well as being an associate editor on the school paper.

On entering Southwestern in 1925 he was made associate editor of the Sou'wester, the editor having been chosen the spring previous. Although not editor-in-chief he has edited each issue of the paper since October 4, 1925.

James "Pete" Melvin, business manager of the Sou'wester this semester, was reappointed to the office for next year.

Houston Minniece was appointed assistant editor of the Sou'wester, and Ira Goldsmith assistant business-manager.

Miss Catherine Richey will edit the Journal next year. Allen Haden will assist with the editorial duties. Charlie Snepp will be business-manager of The Journal.

WAILES EDITOR OF LYNX

Leolin "Mike" Wailes is the new editor of the Lynx annual, succeeding Frank Heiss, who will graduate this June.

Palmer Brown, for the past year assistant business manager of the Lynx, was appointed business manager for next year.

The Publication Board, composed of three faculty members and three student members, presided over by a student chosen from the group at large, will be headed by Harmon Ayers. Ayers is business manager of the Lynx this year, but will not be a member of the staff next year.

STUDENTS SPEND DAY AT BOLIVAR

Class Takes Day Off May 11 For Occasion

Students in Dr. Atkinson's abnormal psychology class will take a day off on May 11 and go to the state hospital at Bolivar, Tenn., to inspect the buildings and to make a first-hand study of the numerous types of insanity.

Each year Dr. Atkinson chaperones this class to Bolivar, as the trip is one of the main inducements for taking the course. Unfortunately for many, only members of the class will be permitted to make the trip.

Students will go in automobiles and will leave the campus at 10 o'clock, returning to Memphis about 6. Dinners will be waiting at a restaurant one mile from the hospital for the party.

Presbyterials Meet

Ladies of the several Presbyterials of Memphis churches attended a meeting in Hardie Chapel last Tuesday afternoon. Refreshments were served, after which the visitors were shown thru the buildings.

OTHER CAMPS

OUSTED FOR SLANDER

EAST LANSING, MICH.—(IP)—Because he charged in an unofficial campus publication that the college was a "playground for politics," Roscoe M. Bloss, sophomore in the liberal arts department of Michigan State College, was suspended from school by acting Dean Robert S. Shaw.

Bloss, the managing editor of a paper published on the campus but unrecognized by college officials, stated editorially that the college was "not a college at all, but a political playground where the college presidency is a bait for party electioneers, a state institution for governors to practice economy on to cover up grafts elsewhere in the machine."

He queried further in his charges by asking "what can one expect from such a condition where corruption and graft reign . . ." and that "one could not expect to find many students of an intellectual nature, since they had all been scared away by the political bugaboo and the unintellectual atmosphere."

In commenting upon the suspension, Dean Shaw states that libel and slander would not be tolerated in any college publication.

ANCIENT CORD TIRE

SEATTLE, WASH.—(IP)—Automobiles 600,000,000 years before the time of man?

A visit to the Geological laboratory in Science Hall at the University of Washington would seem to prove so, for a plaster cast taken from an ancient fossil shows a perfect imprint of a Goodrich Silvertown cord.

Automobile firms will never get to use this choice bit of valuable advertising, however, because the mark was made by a gigantic worm ages ago. Professor Weaver, of the geology department, explained that the worm, which must have been about a foot in diameter, had left his mark in the soft mud, then it had been covered with rocks and water until it fossilized.

The fossil was discovered in the Atlantic Ocean several years ago, and the university received a plaster cast of it. Its scientific title is "climiclichnites wilsoni."

VALUABLE ALUMNUS

BETHLEHEM, PA.—(IP)—One and one-third million dollars has been left to Lehigh University here by the will of the late James Ward Packard, '34, graduate of Lehigh.

$125,000 TRUST FUND

CAMBRIDGE, MASS.—(IP)—To promote a series of annual intercollegiate competitions in scholarship between Harvard and other American colleges, the sum of $125,000 has been donated to the university by Mrs. Lowell Putnam, to establish a trust fund in memory of her husband, which will be known as the Lowell Putnam Memorial prize fund for the promotion of scholarship. Mrs. Putnam is a sister of the president of Harvard.

In accord with the stipulations of the gift a competitive examination will be held with Yale this year in what will probably be the first intercollegiate scholastic contest in history.

On April 30 ten men chosen from the University and ten from Yale will meet in a three-hour examination on the subject of "English Literature."

Five thousand dollars worth of books will be won for its college library by the victorious team, in addition to individual prizes for the team members.

DARNED GOOD STORY

LAWRENCE, KANS.—(IP)—An anonymous author has started a row on the University of Kansas campus.

Someone handed in a darned good story to the editor of the Sour Owl, official campus humor magazine. But the magazine never runs anonymous material, and so all hands set about to discover the author.

The editor of the sheet decided to run the story anyway. But others objected on the grounds that it would hurt the magazine as an advertising medium. The editor replied that he was running his magazine not for the advertisers but for the readers.

They are still trying to settle the matter.

NOT LEGION DESERTER

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.—(IP)—One Charles Peterson put so much life in his production of "High Pressure," a farcical Arab production, that the report was spread about that the youth, a student at the University of Minnesota, was wanted by the Foreign Legion for desertion.

Peterson penned an appeal to Mayor Thompson against such foreign interference.

Politics Bob Up Again

The nastiest political stink since Southwestern has been in Memphis has risen from the campus during the past week. Strange to say, it burst forth in all its polluted vapors when the non-fraternity students refused to co-operate with the fraternities and sororities in outlawing politics on the campus.

Prior to this year a student had to have a political machine behind him in order to gain an office. The winners carried away the spoils; and the losing machine, usually composed of several fraternities and sororities, ate the chaff. There were many capable students left out by this method of office grabbing.

This year the Boys' Pan-Hellenic Council took the initial step to better this condition by solemnly pledging not to participate in politics, provided all other students on the campus followed suit. The Girls' Pan-Hellenic Council heartily endorsed the move and made a similar pledge.

Indications pointed to a year sans any hint of politics. The fraternities and sororities, as separate units, sacrificed many chances whereby their members might gain certain offices thru political maneuvering.

The non-fraternity men threw the cog in the machine. They were not willing to follow the lead set by the two Councils, but, instead, organized and drew up a ticket which included each elective office. This, not being in keeping with the spirit of the move, looked to the fraternity men as tho the non-fraternity men were trying to steal a march on them when they were left wide open for attack, not having any organization whereby to mass votes on any certain man.

The president of the Boys' Council called a meeting of the non-fraternity men to thrash the matter out, but they would not give ground. In protection to themselves the fraternity men banded together and drew up a ticket, this being in order as their pledge held good only so long as "all students would not politic."

In the elections held prior to the muddle, the fraternity boys stuck to their pledges. We are thoroly convinced that they did not politic and were gentlemen of their word.

The non-fraternity men declared that they did not have to abide by the Council rulings, that they were free to politic if they saw fit. We grant them the point. The two Councils took the lead in what they thought was a constructive move—and which was. The non-fraternity men claim that they had not been given a fair showing in previous elections and were determined to enter the ballot fray with all their vigor. We cannot see their point in this light. The non-fraternity men were organized last year by fraternity men. Never before (at least while in Memphis) had the non-fraternity men any semblance of organization, and they owe their present organization to fraternity men. The vice-presidency of the student body, president of the Quibbler Debating Society, president of the Publication Board, president of the Nitist Club, were held this year by non-fraternity men. Non-fraternity men were prominent in debating and dramatics. It is lamentable that this internecine strife has been precipitated between the fraternity and non-fraternity groups.

We fully believe that in the move made by the Greeks every student would have an equal chance to get an office. Under this manner of conducting the elections personal fitness is the requirement and not political affiliation.

Altho politics of the highest brand is in vogue this year, we have not lost hope that next year all students will be broadminded enough to see the wisdom of abolishing cliques and nauseous politicking.

I'm The Ginkette

I'm the honorable ginkette who pledged that I would not politic in the elections this year. I pulled a fast one on the other girls who signed the pledge, because I took advantage of the situation to gather votes for all I was worth. I realize that the fraternity boys were true to their word and didn't politic. Even tho I signed the pledge, I also had an agreement holding over from last year. In signing the pledge I was automatically relieved of the former agreement, but as I am a girl, a lady if you please, I am not supposed to look so deeply in the matter. First come, first served, is my motto, no matter what comes after. I certainly am proud of myself. . . . underhanded way I put it across. I took the opposition unawares—that's not right, and I know that they won't ever see thru it, so why should I worry about this little word "honor." I blush with joy now that my former agreement is satisfied.

Louise Rector Clark

Among the Southwestern students who will write finis to their collegiate life this June is Louise Rector Clark. Miss Clark was born the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Spencer Clark, on July 9, 1906. Her early education was gained at St. Mary's Episcopal school, and was followed after graduation by a year at the National Cathedral School, Washington, D. C., where she completed her freshman work. She entered Southwestern as a sophomore in 1925, and will complete three years here this June.

While a student here she has been connected with many clubs and organizations. She was initiated into Chi Omega sorority her first year here, and has held the office of president and also secretary. She has been a member of Theta Alpha Phi and Pal Players all three years, a member of the Honor Council in 1926-27, also in Alpha Phi Epsilon until that organization became defunct. She was a member of the Shakespeare Club in 1925-26, and was active in the Sociology Club, Girls' Club and Chi Delta.

STUDENTS VOTE ON AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION

Proposed Ruling Would Bar Student Being Editor More Than Once

The student body will be asked to vote soon on two amendments to the constitution of the Publication Board which were recommended at the last meeting of the Board.

The proposed amendments are:
(1) The editor-in-chief and business manager of the separate publications shall hold office for one year only.

(2) All printing bearing the name of Southwestern, gratis or otherwise, that is done for any student or student organizations, must have the approval of the Publication Board.

Chester Denham, president of the Board, says that the reason for the first proposed amendment is evident enough. The reason for the second amendment is that during the past year complaints have been made to the Board with regard to disputed accounts for printing done for certain student organizations. This places Southwestern in an unwholesome light, and in order to avoid such unpleasant situations some authorized supervision should be established.

The Board would like to call the attention of the student body to Article III of the constitution of the Publication Board which reads in part as follows: "No student or group of students may solicit advertising in the name of the college without the authorization of the Publication Board."

Three Northwestern Frats On Probation

EVANSTON, Ill.—Three Northwestern University fraternities—Phi Epsilon Pi, Delta Tau Delta and Phi Pi Phi—have been placed on probation, and nine others have been "warned" for poor scholarship, James W. Armstrong, dean of men, announced today.

Failure of the three fraternities placed on probation to recover their lost standing will mean their suspension from the campus.

This, in effect, it was explained would mean their disbandment.

The fraternities which have been "warned" are Acacia, Beta Theta Pi, Delta Upsilon, Lambda Chi Alpha, Omega Delta, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Delta and Tau Delta Phi.

Southwestern Stands Good Chance Of Getting Phi Beta Kappa Charter Here

Secretary of United Chapters Is Optimistic Over Future of Local Institution After Campus Visit Last Monday

"There is a good chance that a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa will be established at Southwestern if the institution continues to progress and expand as much in the future as it has during the past three years."

Dr. Oscar M. Voorhees, for the past 25 years secretary of the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa is authority for this statement. During his visit to the local plant last Monday, he was struck with the attainment of Southwestern in getting such fine buildings and of having such high standards of scholarship.

"Phi Beta Kappa is expanding continually, and is going into every large institution that merits a chapter," he says.

EFFECTS ORGANIZATION

Dr. Voorhees effected a temporary organization Monday of the more than 50 Phi Beta Kappas living in Memphis and suburbs. Officers chosen were Judge Charles N. Burch, president; Chancellor M. C. Ketchum, vice-president, and Dr. A. T. Johnson, of Southwestern, secretary-treasurer.

Upon the invitation of President Diehl, of Southwestern, the holders of the Phi Beta Kappa key attended a luncheon Monday noon at Hotel Peabody. Southwestern sent six members of her faculty to the meeting: Dr. R. P. Strickler, Dr. P. N. Rhodes, Dr. W. O. Swan, Prof. R. E. Huston, Prof. W. C. Watkins and Dr. Johnson. Dr. Diehl was honor guest.

RAISE ENDOWMENT

The local association will co-operate with the national headquarters in raising an endowment fund with which to encourage scholarship in high schools and college throughout the country. More than $35,000 has been raised toward this end during the past three years, Dr. Voorhees stated.

Phi Beta Kappa is the progenitor of all Greek-letter societies, being the first organization to have a Greek name. It was founded at William and Mary College on Dec. 5, 1776. On the occasion of the sesquicentennial celebration held in 1926 a beautiful auditorium building was dedicated at the school of its founding.

K. A. CENTURY OLD

During the first 25 years after its founding Phi Beta Kappa became a scholastic rather than a social organization. For 50 years it was the sole order of its kind until Kappa Alpha fraternity was founded at Union College, in Schenectady. Kappa Alpha started with the same aim as Phi Beta Kappa but gradually inclined toward the social aim, while its forerunner ruled the scholastic field.

At present there are 107 chapters of Phi Beta Kappa throughout the world, with more than 50,000 living members. Meetings of the honorary fraternity have been held in all parts of the world, including London, Paris, Rome, Beirut, Syria, Tokio, Nanking, India, Constantinople, Jerusalem and Athens.

The Phi Beta Kappa Key, quarterly publication which is edited by Dr. Voorhees, states that the next national council will be held this September at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio.

SONGSTERS, HERE IS A CHANCE TO WIN $100 AWARD

Strike Up Your Musical Muse and Write a Peppy Song

One hundred dollars of the best coin of the land is waiting for the person or persons who submit the most rousing and appropriate song for Southwestern students to chant at football games.

Clarence Saunders, local magnate and philanthropist, is donor of the money. Mr. Saunders has long been a faithful friend of the institution, and is giving the money so that the alma mater hymn may be supplemented on such stirring occasions as an athletic contest with less sedate music.

Collaboration in writing the music and words is permissible under the rules of the contest. Both music and words will be taken into consideration in making the award, but especial emphasis will be laid upon the music.

These rules govern the contest—

(1) All manuscripts must be in the hands of President Diehl by May 22, 1928. This date may be extended in case no suitable song is received by that time.

(2) The manuscripts should not bear the name of the author or authors, but should be accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the author's name, so that a system of corresponding numbers can be used to insure absolute impartiality when the manuscripts are turned over to the committee of judges.

(3) The committee reserves the right to reject any or all songs.

WEIRD WRITE-UP OF "PAN" DANCE

Good Thing Press-Scimitar Had Catalog

Funny what weird ideas newspapers often get. Isn't it well, cast your gleams over this write-up in the society section of last Thursday's issue of the Memphis Press-Scimitar about the Pan-Hellenic Council dance that night.

"Southwestern Pan-Hellenic will entertain Thursday night at East End garden with its informal dance of the season.

"Streamers of red and black will carry out the school colors, while large replicas of the various fraternity emblems will decorate the walls.

"The Washington Syncopators will play. Preceding intermission Miss Irene Beasley will sing a group of the numbers which she has sung for Victor records.

"Punch will be dispensed thruout the evening.

"The affair will be chaperoned by members of the faculty and their wives, including Dr. C. E. Diehl, Dr. C. L. Townsend, Prof. W. R. Cooper, Prof. W. R. Atkinson, Prof. S. H. Monk, Dr. R. P. Strickler, Prof. Jess C. Neely, Dr. W. O. Shewmaker, Dr. R. W. Hartley, Dr. Martin Storn, Dr. R. W. Somerville, Dr. W. O. Swan, Prof. A. P. Kelso, Prof. J. H. Davis, Dr. P. N. Rhodes, Dr. E. D. McDougall, Dr. A. T. Johnson, Dr. F. C. Huber, Prof. E. F. Haden, Dr. B. P. Kaufmann, Prof. Richard Shewmaker, Prof. W. C. Watkins, Prof. J. A. Ross, Jr., Prof. R. E. Huston."

The final paragraph included the name of "David Tites" as one of the Council members to receive guests. "Mr. and Mrs. Price Patton" were also in the receiving line.

POLITICAL NEWS UP THE COUNTRY

Students Pick Favorites At Mock Conventions

OBERLIN, OHIO—(IP)—Two Ohio universities have held their Mock Conventions already this year, resulting in the nomination of Charles Evans Hughes and Charles G. Dawes, respectively.

Hughes was the choice of the delegates at the Miami university convention, chosen on the fourth ballot. Senator S. D. Fess, of Ohio, was selected as the Vice-presidential candidate of the party, this being a Republican Mock Convention.

At Ohio State University, where the convention was that of "The Great American Party," the selection was the present Vice-president, with Senator George W. Norris as his running mate. It took seven ballots to nominate Dawes at Ohio State, and then not until there had been quite some considerable demonstration on the part of the delegates.

In both conventions there was the usual vote trading and bargaining, making the scenes realistic and very much reminiscent of the regular conventions to follow.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.—(IP)—Cods at the University of Minnesota have formed a "Co-ed Political Party," for the purpose of electing their own president at the mock convention to be held on the campus May 10.

INQUISITIVE

The inquiring reporter will ask five students or faculty members each week, picked at random, their opinions of important questions of campus talk.

Question—What would you do if you were kissing a girl and her father walked into the room?

Jesse Harris—I don't know. I've never been caught in the act.

Ramsey Russell—I'd kick the old man out and proceed with the operation.

Crawford McGivaren—I wouldn't kiss a girl.

John Culberson—That's where I differ with Cal, I would choose to run.

Jimmie Luster—It all depends on him. If he was bigger than me I would leave thru the window; otherwise, I would not notice him.

ANNUALTOURNEY ARC TOSSERS TO BE HELD MAY 10

Sou'wester Sport Dept. In Charge of Second Annual Contest

The annual Southwestern horseshoe pitching tournament will be staged May 11 to decide the champion of the shoe tossers on the campus. The tourney will be conducted by the "Sou'wester" sport department, and a gold medal will be awarded to the champion.

Both singles and doubles titles will be decided. Entries must be made by Friday, May 10. Students wishing to take part may write their names on a slip of paper and deposit in the box left for the purpose outside the chapel. Those wishing to take part in the doubles must put their own and their partner's name on the same slip.

G. D. Watson, champion of last year, will defend his title this spring. Watson nosed out Fred Underwood in the finals to carry off the title and medal in a close match. Underwood will also be entered again this spring, together with several other crack shoe tossers. No entries will be permitted after May 10th, as the drawings will be made that afternoon.

Ha Ha! Prof Says Only Youths Love

MINNEAPOLIS, BINN.—(IP)—Only the young can love, a university professor declared here recently, pointing out well established psychological principles to uphold his hypothesis.

"Love and all of the emotions are indications that the person is faced with a conflict which he is attempting to adjust. As time goes on, love disappears as the conflict is resolved," he states.

He cited recent newspaper stories over 30 being unable to love, which is, in a large measure, substantiated by scientific theories.

He characterized love as a temporary state resulting from inexperience or the inability of a person to resolve a number of factors, pointing out that jealousy and anger are the natural results of this inability to adjust to the situation. Later in life, the professor stated, people become better organized and more fully adjusted to life situations and, as a result, do not fall in love.

OLE MISS DRUBS LOCAL GOLFERS

Meet On Galloway Course In Return Match

UNIVERSITY, MISS., April 28—Ole Miss defeated Southwestern of Memphis in the first intercollegiate golf tournament ever to take place between the two institutions on the university golf course today.

The Ole Miss team completely outplayed their opponents throughout the tournament, winning a total of 17 points to 1 for the visitors.

In the first match Dent of Ole Miss defeated Beard of Southwestern with a score of four up and two to go. In the second two-ball affair Ratcliffe of Ole Miss defeated Cromwell of Southwestern with a score of three up and one to play.

The third match resulted in a victory for Ole Miss when Haskens of Ole Miss defeated Mitchner of Southwestern by the count of eight up and six to play, turning in a thirty-two to turn the trick. In the fourth Floyd of Ole Miss defeated Mitchner of Southwestern one up, winning on the 18th green with a birdie three, having a 73 for the 18 holes.

In the other twosome matches Montjoy of Ole Miss defeated Kidd of Southwestern three up and one to play, and Harwood of Southwestern defeated Floyd of Ole Miss four up and three to play for the only point scored by the visitors.

In the foursome matches Ratcliffe and Dent of Ole Miss defeated Cromwell and Kidd of Southwestern 11 up on 18 holes in the first and Montjoy and Haskins of Ole Miss defeated Beard and Harwood of Southwestern 15 up and three to go in the second fray.

Ratcliffe of Ole Miss ranked as the low point man of the day, turning in a score of 69. Cromwell of Southwestern ranged second with a score of 75. Harwood of Southwestern turned in the best score for the two ball matches for the visitors with a rating of 74.

The teams will meet again on May 4 and 5 on the Galloway golf course at Memphis.

Lynx And Tigers Even Up In Race For Collegiate Baseball Crown Of Memphis

Southwestern Wins First Tilt 5 to 1, While Normal Comes Back to Cop Second 8 to 7. Third Postponed Account of Rain

Southwestern and West Tennessee Teachers College stand even up in their battle for the college baseball title of Memphis. The Lynx won the opening game 5 to 1, while the Teachers took the second 8 to 7. The third game was postponed on account of rain Monday, and was postponed again on Tuesday on account of wet grounds. The games will be played off later in the season.

Lynx Win First

Southwestern Lynx once more clawed their way to a victory over the West Tennessee Teachers College Tiger last Thursday. The final count was 5 to 1, after Captain Garrott and "Slick" Headen engaged in a pitcher's duel in which the left-handed slants of "Edna" won the day.

It was a battle from start to finish. In the opening inning Colebanks, the first man up, was safe when Claude Bowen booted his grounder. Headen was safe when Johnson Garrott failed to get Colebanks at second. "Edna" then was apparently afraid to trust his infield and fanned the next three men.

In the second "Old Folks" Davis slapped out a double, but died on second. In the third Headen and Masey got singles in succession with two out, but Walker lifted one to Ora Johnson.

Normal took the lead in the sixth. Headen was safe on Bowen's wild throw. Masey was thrown out at first. Walker was safe on an infield play when the Lynx tried for Headen, who advanced to third. Jones grounded to T. M. Garrott, who tried for Headen at home, but "Slick" scored. Evans fled to Davis for the final out.

Then the old seventh-inning rally saved the day. Hughes led off with a single. Davis was safe when Stevens failed to touch first, Hughes went to third. T. M. Garrott was safe when Colebanks tried for Hughes at home and the score was tied. Then Bowen stepped into one for a single, Davis and T. M. scoring. Terry was safe on Stevens' error and went to second, scoring later on an infield out. The score stood 5 to 1, and "Lefty" held Normal the rest of the tilt.

Masey robbed Smythe of a hit in the third and Terry pulled the same trick on Evans in the ninth. T. M. Garrott made the final out, taking a high fly back of the grandstand.

Normal Wins One!

The worm finally turned and the West Tennessee Teachers defeated Southwestern in baseball 8 to 7 last Friday at Normal. It was the first athletic victory the Teachers have registered since the Lynx have been in Memphis.

A four-inning rally in the ninth inning won the victory for the Teachers after the Lynx infield pulled several bonehead plays. Previously the Lynx had overcome a four-run lead to go into the ninth leading 7 to 4.

Oscar Hurt pitched a good game for the Lynx but received poor support.

OLE MISS NET MEN PLAY HERE

Athletic Association To Sponsor Teams

Southwestern tennis team played their first intercollegiate match of the season Wednesday, meeting the Ole Miss racket wielders on the Lynx courts.

Tennis is being sponsored by the Southwestern athletic association this year and, finally, takes its deserved place as a regular sport on the campus.

The Lynx team is composed of Billy Hughes, ranking No. 1 player on the campus, and the others in order are Herman Bevis, Mike Wailes and Johnson Garrott. Billy Hughes and Mike Wailes and Bevis and J. Garrott form the doubles team.

The Ole Miss players were John Ferguson, Farrell Varner, Charlie Bell Howard, Leonard Hardy and Carey Owen. Ferguson and Hardy and Owen and Varner form the doubles team. Six matches were played, four singles and two doubles.
