

Lynx Chat

Your little Lynx Pussy feels rather pale and insignificant this week, with two crusades and a feud going on in the same paper. And on top of that we're having to make the best out of a bad week this time. The other morning we were astounded to see all manner of signs plastered about the campus, and heard that the whole thing was planned and instigated in Calvin Hall. As for the elections, we wish to point out, stealing our remark from last year's Sou'wester, that there are two comments possible on meeting a successful candidate. One is "Congratulations," the other is "Combine." Also we hear that people are tired of your feline friend starting out the week's news with Duncan. Our only excuse is that that is a paid advertisement. Wolf's check is delivered to our penthouse every Friday afternoon. But what is the price of fame?

The passing seen: Meredith Moorhead and Sam McCulloch sitting under a tree behind Snowden School. . . . Mary Ann Simonton with John Spain, with someone from Germantown, with a furloughing soldier. . . . Zero with Garmon. . . . Julian Nall with Ginger French, quite often. . . . that entry was scratched from the Hallock field. . . . Wharton Jones with B. Dean, all of which seems to point to nothing. . . . And we wish to take this opportunity to give some well meant advice to Zombie Wright. The last time we saw a couple necking in the parking lot it was Strother and Arabia. . . . Look what happened to them. . . . And the question that's disturbing your Lynx Pussy at present is who did Johnny Iles and Beasley have dates with Sunnite? . . .

And we hear the Tri-Delt slumber party was well attended last Satnite. . . . We mean by others besides Tri-Delts. . . . Among the living were Harry Kittle and E. W. Nelius. . . . Ed Quinn was also present. . . . Nancy Jane Smith didn't get to go to the party because Gallagher kept her out so late. . . . Yes, he's been here again. . . . The Zeta was a big success, but your reporter spent all his time noting that most of the girls were not with Southwesterners. . . . tch, tch, after all we've said. . . . Randy Ruffin was there with Miss Hensley. . . . Incidentally Randy and Miss Brittingham are not on speaking. . . . and Miss Brittingham is said to have made some rather pointed remarks, most pithy of which was "RAT". . . . Note that Marian Mallett has hooked a man. He's been very much in evidence around Evergreen. . . . and his name has been mentioned along with some of the more prominent members of the Evergreen set, among whom are Ed Rhoades, Whip Kennedy, Ed McMahon, Everarde, and Bill Wooten. . . . We hear that Manny Sieving and Peggy Hughes have reorganized.

And the latest campus fad is trading initials with your woman. . . . it has been brought to our notice that kitybrighttption has decorated the Biggest of the Big Shots rather conspicuously. . . . George Marshall has appeared with several ink drawing a la tattoo on his nether limbs. . . . Miss Presley is the artist. . . . And the rose for the reddest face of the week goes to Jane Milner, also known as the Zealot, for her ducking at the Tri-Delt party. . . . her date, Homer Howie, put her on top of the overturned boat and pushed her back to the shore. . . . We suggest that it would be more appropriate if she had rescued him. . . . And Miss O'Kelley, working fast, already has a date with Beasley for the AOPi dance. . . .

We resume the Woman of the Week department today: the nod for this honor goes to Frances Alford, principally because of her ability to hook Ligon, let him go, and then hook him again. Of course her long campus walks with Bill Mason are to be commented on, as well as the effectiveness of her operations in the social room. . . . And she really is a worthy WOW. . . . And so another column passes into oblivion, but not until a passing mention is made of the Tri-Delt party last wedaft. . . . we can't give it more than a passing mention, for we had to forego this one in favor of the Sigma Nu open house. . . . Our parting thought of the week might be equally to our column and the campus. . . . at any rate, we quote the sign that has been looming over us while in the throes of composition. . . . Keep it clean. . . . And so until a couple of weeks hence. . . . aloha. . . . see you at KA.

KAMPUS KERNALS

Nutty Bits From Our Furry Friends

A date with a modern girl is an open and shut proposition; she's always eating.

Small boy—"What is college bred, pop?"

Pop—(with son in college)—"They make college bread, my boy, from the flour of youth and the dough of old age."

And there was the Scotchman who bought only one spur. He figured that if one side of the horse went the other was sure to follow.

"Dont' you think Levy is a logical talker?"

"Bah! Cohen can out-argue him with one hand tied behind his back."

"What's the matter, Rastus? You look mad as a wet hen."

"Why shouldn't I be? The doctor what operated on me fo' pendicitis went an' sewed me up wid white thread."

Boys talking about Wolf Duncan—"He calls himself dynamo."

"No wonder; everything he has on is charged."

"So you're lost, little man? Why didn't you hang on to your mother's skirt?"

Youngster—"Couldn't reach it."

Mistress—"I shall be very lonely, Bridget, if you leave me."

Bridget—"don't worry, mum. I'll not leave until ye have a houseful of company."

"I always tell my wife everything that happens."

"That's nothing. I tell my wife lots of things that never happen."

Frosh—"Am I the only boy you've ever kissed?"

Deb—"Yes, and by far the best looking."

"Waiter, what kind of meat is this?"

"Spring lamb, sir."

"Is that so; I've been chewing on one of the springs for an hour then."

"Gee, that rouge looks so natural. For a while I thought it was your skin."

"Well, it's the next thing to it."

Golf Pro—"Tee the ball."

Student—"Sure, I see it, but why the baby talk?"

"Why did they hang that picture?"

"Perhaps they couldn't find the artist."

Floridan (picking up melon)—"Is this the largest apple you can grow in your state?"

Californian — "Stop fingering that grape."

Howry Installed As President Of Pan

Mathewes, Garmon, Miller Also Installed At Annual Banquet

The Women's Pan Hellenic Council, composed of the president and one other representative from each sorority, held its annual installation banquet April 22 at the Peabody.

The horseshoe shaped banquet table was centered with an arrangement of red and yellow tulips and yellow candles burned on either side of the center piece. Mary Virginia Smith was in charge of arrangements.

New officers installed include: Louise Howry, president; Milton Mathewes, vice-president; Mary Ann Garmon, secretary, and Katharine Miller, treasurer.

Retiring officers are Georgeanne Little, president; Celeste Taylor Conn, vice-president; Kitty Bright Tipton, secretary, and Dorothy Esch, treasurer.

Besides the new officer, who member who will serve on the council for next year are: Peggy Kelly, Frances Ann Turrentine, Janet Kelso, Peggy Hughes and Miss Little.

Mount Holyoke's recent junior show spent three hours trying to prove that a tax on college girls' brains would net the government no revenue.

YOUR COLLEGE CAN NOW HELP YOU BECOME A NAVAL OFFICER

Freshmen, Sophomores, 17 THRU 19. Enlist now!
• Stay in college! You may qualify for a Naval Commission on the sea or in the air.

Freshmen, Sophomores. Here's a challenge—and an opportunity! Your Navy needs trained men. Trained men to become Naval Officers! And your college is ready to give you that training now.

Here's New Navy Plan

If you're 17 and not yet 20, you enlist now as an Apprentice Seaman in the Naval Reserve. You then continue in college, including in your studies courses stressing physical training, mathematics and physics. After you successfully complete 1½ calendar years of college work, you will be given a classification test.

Aviation Officers

If you qualify by this test, you may volunteer to become a Naval Aviation Officer. In this case, you will be permitted to finish the second calendar year of college work before you start your training to become a Flying Officer.

However, at any time during this two-year period after you have reached your 18th birthday, you may, if you so desire, take the prescribed examination for Aviation Officer . . . and, if successful, be assigned for Aviation training. Students who fail in their college courses, or who withdraw from college, will also have the privilege of taking the Aviation examination.

Deck or Engineering Officers

If you qualify in the classification test and do not volunteer for Aviation, you will be selected for training as a Deck or Engineering Officer. In that case, you will continue your college program until you receive your bachelor's degree, provided you maintain the established university standards.

Other Opportunities

If you do not qualify as either potential Deck or Engineering Officer you will be permitted to finish your second calendar year of college and will then be ordered to active duty as Apprentice Seamen. But, even in this event, because of your college training, you will have a better chance for advancement.

Pay starts with active duty.

It's a real challenge! It's a real opportunity! Make every minute count by doing something about this new Navy plan today.
